J. D. ADAMS MANUFACTURING CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR ORDER DECLARING THAT COMPANY HAS CEASED TO BE AN INVESTMENT COMPANY

APRIL 5, 1956.

Notice is hereby given that J. D. Adams Manufacturing Company ("Applicant"), an Indiana corporation and a closed-end non-diversified investment company registered as such under the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("act") has filed an application pursuant to section 8 (f) of the act for an order declaring that Applicant has ceased to be an investment company under the act, by virtue of the provisions of section 3 (c) (1) of the act.

The application makes the following representations:

Applicant, on or about October 12, 1955, the date of its registration as an investment company under the act, had outstanding 248,586 shares of common stock which were owned beneficially by 139 persons. Since that date, the number of Applicant's shareholders has been reduced as a result of the purchase of shares of Applicant's outstanding stock by two of its shareholders. At all times since December 29, 1955, Applicant's outstanding securities have been beneficially owned by not more than 100 persons, and as of the date of the application such securities were beneficially owned by not more than 89 persons. No company owns or has owned during such period 10 percent or more of the outstanding stock of Applicant.

Applicant states that it is not making and does not presently propose to make a public offering of its securities.

The application states that Applicant will, within 60 days after the issuance of the order requested herein, make an offer to purchase, at the net asset value at the time of the offer; all of its outstanding shares owned by any of its shareholders.

Section 3 (c) (1) of the act exempts from the definition of an "investment company" any issuer whose outstanding securities (other than short-term paper) are beneficially owned by not more than one hundred persons and which is not making and does not presently propose to make a public offering of its securities. Section 8 (f) of the act provides, in part, that whenever the Commission, upon application, finds that a registered investment company has ceased to be an investment company, it shall so declare by order and upon the taking effect of such order the registration of such company shall cease to be in effect.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than April 26, 1956, at 5:30 p. m., submit to the Commission in writing any facts bearing upon the desirability of a hearing on the matter and may request that a hearing be held, such request stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues, if any, of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such communication or request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date, the application may be granted as provided in Rule N–5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act:

It is ordered, That J. D. Adams Manufacturing Company shall give notice of this application to all of its shareholders (insofar as the identity of such shareholders is known or available) by mailing to each of said persons a copy of this Notice of Filing to his last known address on or before April 12, 1956.

INSTITUTIONAL INCOME FUND, INC., AND HARE'S, LTD.

NOTICE OF FILING FOR ORDER PERMITTING REDUCED PUBLIC OFFERING PRICES ON PURCHASES OF COMPANY SHARES BY TAX-EXEMPT ORGANIZATIONS

APRIL 5, 1956.

Notice is hereby given that Institutional Income Fund, Inc. ("Institutional"), a registered open-end diversified investment company and Hare's Ltd., the principal underwriter for the Fund ("Applicants"), have filed an application pursuant to section 6 (c) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("act") for an order of the Commission exempting from the provisions of section 22 (d) of the act the offering of shares of the Fund to certain tax-exempt organizations at a reduced sales load.

The regular public offering price of the shares of Institutional is equal to their net asset value plus a sales charge payable to Hare's, Ltd., of approximately the following percentages of the offering prices:

| Amount: | Sales commission (percent) |
|---|---|
| Less than $15,000 | 8½ |
| $15,000 to $24,999 | 7½ |
| $25,000 to $49,999 | 6 |
| $50,000 to $99,999 | 4 |
| $100,000 or more | 2¼ |

Institutional desires to accept subscriptions at a reduced sales load from charitable, religious, educational and similar corporations, associations or foundations exempt from taxation under section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code and employees' trusts exempt from taxation under section 401 of the Internal Revenue Code, at a reduced sales charge by computing the selling commission upon each additional purchase based on the quantity discount applicable to the amount then being purchased plus the amount previously acquired and still held by such purchaser.

Section 22 (d) of the act, with certain exceptions not pertinent here, prohibits registered investment companies from selling their redeemable securities to any person, other than a dealer or principal underwriter, at a price less than the current public offering price described in the prospectus. The offering of shares of the company to purchasers exempt from sections 501 and 401 of the Internal Revenue Code on the basis herein proposed, may involve an offering of its shares below the normal offering price, in contravention of the provisions of section 22 (d) of the act. Accordingly, Applicants have filed the instant application for an order of the Commission exempting the offering of Institutional's shares to the above-mentioned organizations from said provisions of the act.

Section 6 (c) of the act authorizes the Commission by order upon application to exempt, conditionally or unconditionally, any transaction from any provisions of the act or of any rule or regulation thereunder, if and to the extent that the Commission finds that such exemption is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and consistent with the protection of investors and the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of the act.

Applicants state that such an exemption would not affect the net asset value received by Institutional for its shares, and would appear appropriate in that charitable, religious, educational and other nonprofit organizations are in common acceptance favored in their relations and transactions with others and thus enjoy tax exemptions and usually receive special treatment in their trade transactions. Such an exemption would also appear appropriate in view of the purposes and objectives of employees' trusts, which also receive tax exemptions, where created or organized in the United States and forming part of a stock bonus, pension, or profit sharing plan of an employer for the exclusive benefit of his employees or their beneficiaries.

For a more detailed statement of the matters of fact and law asserted, all interested persons are referred to said application which is on file in the office of the Commission in Washington, D. C.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than April 19, 1956, at 5:30 p. m., submit to the Commission in writing any facts bearing upon the desirability of a hearing on the matter and may request that a hearing be held, such request stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request and the issues, if any, of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such communication or request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date, the application may be granted as provided in Rule N-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act.

By the Commission.

SOUTHWESTERN GAS AND ELECTRIC CO.

ORDER PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE REGARDING THE ISSUANCE OF SHORT-TERM NOTES TO BANKS

APRIL 5, 1956.

Southwestern Gas and Electric Company ("Southwestern"), a public-utility subsidiary of Central and South West Corporation, a registered holding company, has filed a declaration with this Commission pursuant to sections 6 (a) and 7 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") promulgated thereunder regarding certain proposed transactions which are summarized as follows:

Southwestern proposes to borrow at any time or from time to time on or after April 25, 1956, from each of several banks amounts not to exceed an agreed percentage of $10,000,000, provided that all such borrowings from all of said banks shall not exceed, in the aggregate, the sum of $10,000,000. Such borrowing will be made pursuant to a Loan Agreement dated February 24, 1956, between Southwestern and said banks which provides, among other things, that such borrowings may be effected no later than May 1, 1957, or the maturity date of the notes evidencing the first borrowing thereunder, whichever is earlier.

The borrowings are to be evidenced by promissory notes to be issued and delivered by Southwestern from time to time in a principal amount equal to the amount of the borrowing made; and such notes are to be dated as of the date such borrowing is made, to mature one year from the date of the first borrowing under said Loan Agreement, to bear interest from the dates thereof at the prime rate of interest in effect at The First National Bank of Chicago at the date each such borrowing is made, payable at maturity, and after maturity at the rate of 5 percent per annum, and to be subject to prepayment by Southwestern at any time and from time to time without premium or penalty; all as provided in said Loan Agreement. Each borrowing and each prepayment shall be made in the ratio that the respective loans bear to the total loans to be made under the Loan Agreement.

The proceeds of such borrowings are required and will be used by Southwestern to finance temporarily a portion of its construction expenditures during a period of not to exceed one year from the date of the first of such borrowings, and such borrowings will be made from time to time as funds are required for the purpose.

It is contemplated that the notes proposed to be issued will be paid at or before maturity through the issuance and sale by Southwestern of such securities as may be considered most appropriate in the light of market conditions existing at the time and as may be approved by the Commission to the extent required by the act.

No State commission and no Federal commission other than this Commission has jurisdiction over the proposed transactions.

No commitment or other fees are proposed to be paid by Southwestern in connection with the proposed borrowings. The expenses to be incurred by the company in connection with the transaction will be nominal, consisting primarily of telephone expense and incidental and miscellaneous items of expense relating thereto, estimated at not to exceed $200.00.

Due notice of the filing of said declaration having been given in the manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated under said act, and no hearing having been requested of or ordered by the Commission; and the Commission finding that the applicable provisions of the act and of the rules promulgated thereunder are satisfied, that the expenses set forth above are not unreasonable, and that the declaration should be permitted to become effective forthwith:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act that said declaration be, and the same hereby is, permitted to become effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24.

By the Commission.

GENERAL PUBLIC UTILITIES CORP.

ORDER PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE REGARDING THE ISSUANCE OF SHORT-TERM NOTES TO BANKS

APRIL 5, 1956.

General Public Utilities Corporation ("GPU"), a registered holding company, has filed a declaration and an amendment pursuant to sections 6 (a) and 7 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") regarding certain proposed transactions which are summarized as follows:

GPU proposes to effect temporary borrowings from time to time, from one or more commercial banks, through issuance of its unsecured notes in an aggregate amount not to exceed $10,000,000 outstanding at any one time. Each such temporary borrowing will mature ten months from the date effected, will bear interest at the prime rate for commercial borrowings at the date issued, and will be prepayable without premium. Any such temporary borrowing may be refunded in part or in whole out of the proceeds of further temporary borrowing of the same character, but no such temporary borrowing will be effected later than December 31, 1956. The proceeds of each such borrowing will be used for investment in one or more of GPU's public utility subsidiaries or to reimburse GPU's treasury for sums directly or indirectly expended therefrom for that purpose.

GPU proposes to supply the common stock equity component of its subsidiaries' 1956 financing programs through these temporary borrowings, and to repay the balance of such temporary borrowing then outstanding out of the proceeds of a GPU common stock financing in the latter part of 1956 or the early part of 1957. This common stock financing, which will be the subject of a subsequent declaration, is proposed to be of sufficient magnitude not only to provide for such repayment but also to provide the additional funds required by GPU in connection with supplying the common stock equity component of its subsidiaries' 1957 financing programs.

GPU agrees that when it shall have exhausted the authority sought in this declaration as amended to effect borrowings and re-borrowings and if it shall have failed to obtain through a common stock financing in 1957 the requisite funds with which to repay the balance of the borrowings and re-borrowings then outstanding pursuant to the authority granted on the basis of this declaration, GPU will not seek authority from the Commission to issue debt securities on the basis of section 7 (c) (2) (A) of the act for the purpose of refunding, extending or discharging such outstanding balance of borrowings and re-borrowings.

GPU has filed a final certificate, in File No. 70-3341, pursuant to Rule U-24, in which it reported the payment of all notes issued pursuant to this Commission's order dated March 8, 1955 (Holding Company Act Release No. 12814) which had not previously been paid and GPU surrendered the unexercised authority granted to it under this order.

No State commission and no Federal commission other than this Commission has jurisdiction over the proposed transactions.

It is estimated that GPU's only expenses in connection with the proposed transactions will be counsel fees and expenses of Berlack, Israels & Liberman, which are estimated at not in excess of $1,000.

Due notice of the filing of said declaration having been given in the manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated under said act, and no hearing having been requested of or ordered by the Commission; and the Commission finding that the applicable provisions of the act and of the rules promulgated thereunder are satisfied, that the fees and expenses set forth above are not unreasonable, and that the declaration, as amended, should be permitted to become effective forthwith:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act that said declaration, as amended, be, and the same hereby is, permitted to become effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24.

By the Commission.

PESTER UNGARISCHE COMMERCIAL BANK

In re: Debt owing to Pester Ungarische Commercial Bank, also known as Hungarian Commercial Bank of Pest. F-34-256; F-19-201.

Under the authority of Title II of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended (69 Stat. 562), Executive Order 10644, November 7, 1955 (20 F. R. 8363), Department of Justice Order No. 106-55, November 23, 1955 (20 F. R. 8993), and pursuant to law, after investigation, it is hereby found and determined:

1. That the property described as follows: That certain debt or other obligation of The First National City Bank of New York, 55 Wall Street, New York 15, New York, arising out of an account entitled "A-S Aarhuus Privatbank, Uncertified Account," maintained at the aforesaid bank, together with any and all rights to demand, enforce and collect the same, is property within the United States which was blocked in accordance with Executive Order 8389, as amended, and remained blocked on August 9, 1955, and which is, and as of September 15, 1947, was owned directly or indirectly by Pester Ungarische Commercial Bank, also known as Hungarian Commercial Bank of Pest, Budapest, Hungary, a national of Hungary as defined in said Executive Order 8389, as amended.

2. That the property described herein is not owned directly by a natural person.

There is hereby vested in the Attorney General of the United States the property described above, to be administered, sold, or otherwise liquidated, in accordance with the provisions of Title II of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended.

It is hereby required that the property described above be paid, conveyed, transferred, assigned and delivered to or for the account of the Attorney General of the United States in accordance with directions and instructions issued by or for the Assistant Attorney General, Director, Office of Alien Property, Department of Justice.

The foregoing requirement and any supplement thereto shall be deemed instructions or directions issued under Title II of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended. Attention is directed to Section 205 of said Title II (69 Stat. 562) which provides that:

Any payment, conveyance, transfer, assignment, or delivery of property made to the President or his designee pursuant to this title, or any rule, regulation, instruction, or direction issued under this title, shall to the extent thereof be a full acquittance and discharge for all purposes of the obligation of the person making the same; and no person shall be held liable in any court for or in respect of any such payment, conveyance, transfer, assignment, or delivery made in good faith in pursuance of and in reliance on the provisions of this title, or of any rule, regulation, instruction, or direction issued thereunder.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on April 5, 1956.

For the Attorney General.

TITLE 3—THE PRESIDENT

PROCLAMATION 3132

REVISING THE BOUNDARIES OF HOVENWEEP NATIONAL MONUMENT, UTAH AND COLORADO

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS it appears that public lands described as SW¼NE¼, section 20, Township 39 South, Range 26 East, Salt Lake Base and Meridian, which contain no objects of historic or scientific interest were erroneously included in the Hovenweep National Monument in Utah and Colorado by Proclamation No. 1654 of March 2, 1923 (42 Stat. 2299); and

WHEREAS it appears that public lands described as SE¼NE¼ of such section 20 which contain ruin groups worthy of preservation because of their historic and scientific value were erroneously omitted from the monument; and

WHEREAS there are other public lands contiguous to the monument which contain an important ruin group, Cutthroat Castle, an outstanding example of a defensive structure of the thirteenth century, the preservation of which is desirable because of its historic and scientific value; and

WHEREAS it appears that it would be in the public interest to reserve such lands as an addition to such monument:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, President of the United States of America, under and by virtue of the authority vested in me by section 2 of the act of June 8, 1906, 34 Stat. 225 (16 U. S. C. 431), do proclaim as follows:

1. The following-described lands in the State of Utah are hereby excluded from the Hovenweep National Monument:

UTAH, SALT LAKE BASE AND MERIDIAN

Sec. 20, SW¼NE¼.

The lands hereby excluded from the monument shall not be subject to application, location, settlement, entry, or other forms of appropriation under public land laws until further order of an authorized officer of the Department of the Interior.

2. Subject to valid existing rights, the following-described public lands in the States of Utah and Colorado are hereby reserved and added to and made a part of the Hovenweep National Monument and shall be subject to all laws, rules, and regulations applicable to that monument:

UTAH, SALT LAKE BASE AND MERIDIAN

Sec. 20, SE¼NE¼.

COLORADO, NEW MEXICO PRINCIPAL MERIDIAN

T. 37 N., R. 19 W.,
Sec. 19, SE¼ of Lot 11 and E½SW¼ of Lot 11, excepting a portion of Segregated Tract 63 patented to Edward C. Forest.

Warning is hereby expressly given to all unauthorized persons not to appropriate, injure, destroy, or remove any feature of this monument and not to locate or settle upon any of the lands thereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set by hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this sixth day of April in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and [SEAL] fifty-six, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and eightieth.

DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER

By the President:

JOHN FOSTER DULLES,
Secretary of State.

SUBPART—UNITED STATES STANDARDS FOR SWEET CHERRIES [1]

On December 8, 1955, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (20 F. R. 9017) regarding a proposed revision of United States Standards for Sweet Cherries.

After consideration of all relevant matters presented, including the proposal set forth in the aforesaid notice, the following United States Standards for Sweet Cherries are hereby promulgated pursuant to the authority contained in the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (60 Stat. 1087 et seq., as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1621 et seq.).

AUTHORITY: §§ 51.2646 to 51.2657 issued under sec. 205, 60 Stat. 1090, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1624.

GRADES

§ 51.2646 U. S. No. 1. "U. S. No. 1" consists of the cherries of similar varietal characteristics which are mature, but not soft, overripe, or shriveled, and which are fairly well colored, well formed, clean, and free from decay, worms or worm holes, undeveloped doubles and sun scald and free from damage caused by bruises, cracks, disease, hail, other insects, limbrubs, pulled stems, russeting, scars, skin breaks, sunburn, sutures, or mechanical or other means.

(a) Unless otherwise specified, the minimum diameter of each cherry shall be not less than three-fourths inch. The maximum diameter of the cherries in any lot may be specified in accordance with the facts.

(b) In order to allow for variations incident to proper grading and handling, not more than 5 percent, by count, of the cherries in any lot may fail to meet the specified minimum diameter and not more than 10 percent, by count, may fail to meet any specified maximum diameter. In addition, not more than a total of 10 percent, by count, of the cherries in any lot may fail to meet the remaining requirements of the grade: Provided, That not more than one-half of this amount, or 5 percent, shall be allowed for defects causing serious damage, including therein not more than 1 percent for cherries affected by decay. (See § 51.2649.)

§ 51.2647 U. S. Commercial. "U. S. Commercial" consists of cherries which meet the requirements of U. S. No. 1 grade except for minimum diameter and except for the increased tolerances specified in this section.

(a) Unless otherwise specified, the diameter of each cherry shall be not less than five-eighths inch. The maximum diameter of the cherries in any lot may be specified in accordance with the facts.

(b) In order to allow for variations incident to proper grading and handling, not more than 5 percent, by count, of the cherries in any lot may fail to meet the specified minimum diameter and not more than 10 percent, by count, may fail to meet any specified maximum diameter. In addition, not more than a total of 20 percent, by count, of the cherries in any lot may fail to meet the remaining requirements of the grade: Provided, That not more than one-fourth of this amount, or 5 percent, shall be allowed for defects causing serious damage, including therein not more than 1 percent for cherries affected by decay. (See § 51.2649.)

UNCLASSIFIED

§ 51.2648 Unclassified. "Unclassified" consists of cherries which have not been classified in accordance with either of the foregoing grades. The term "unclassified" is not a grade within the meaning of these standards, but is provided as a designation to show that no grade has been applied to the lot.

APPLICATION OF TOLERANCES

§ 51.2649 Application of tolerances. (a) The contents of individual packages in the lot, based on sample inspection, are subject to the following limitations: Provided, That the averages for the entire lot are within the tolerances specified for the grade:

(1) For a tolerance of 10 percent or more, individual packages in any lot may contain not more than one and one-half times the tolerance specified, except that when the package contains one pound or less, individual packages may contain not more than double the tolerance specified; and,

(2) For a tolerance of less than 10 percent, individual packages in any lot may contain not more than double the tolerance specified, except that at least one defective and one off-size specimen may be permitted in any package.

DEFINITIONS

§ 51.2650 Similar varietal characteristics. "Similar varietal characteristics" means that the cherries in any container are similar in color and shape.

§ 51.2651 Mature. "Mature" means that the cherries have reached the stage of growth which will insure the proper completion of the ripening process.

§ 51.2652 Fairly well colored. "Fairly well colored" means that the cherries show characteristic color for mature cherries of the variety.

§ 51.2653 Well formed. "Well formed" means that the cherry has the normal shape characteristic of the variety, except that mature well developed doubles shall be considered well formed when each of the halves is approximately evenly formed.

§ 51.2654 Clean. "Clean" means that the cherries are practically free from dirt, dust, spray residue, or other foreign material.

§ 51.2655 Damage. "Damage" means any defect which materially affects the appearance, or the edible or shipping quality of the individual cherry or the general appearance of the cherries in the container. Any one of the following defects, or any combination of defects the seriousness of which exceeds the maximum allowed for any one defect, shall be considered as damage:

(a) Cracks within the stem cavity when deep or not well healed, or when the appearance is affected to a greater extent than that of a cherry which has a superficial well healed crack one-sixteenth inch in width extending one-half the greatest circumference of the stem cavity;

(b) Cracks outside of the stem cavity when deep or not well healed, or when the crack has weakened the cherry to the extent that it is likely to split or break in the process of proper grading, packing and handling, or when materially affecting the appearance;

(c) Hail injury when deep or not well healed, or when the aggregate area exceeds the area of a circle three sixteenths inch in diameter;

(d) Insects when scale or more than one scale mark is present, or when the appearance is materially affected by any insect;

(e) Limbrubs when affecting the appearance of the cherry to a greater extent than the amount of scarring permitted;

(f) Pulled stems when the skin or flesh is torn, or when the cherry is leaking;

(g) Russeting when affecting the appearance of the cherry to a greater extent than the amount of scarring permitted;

(h) Scars when excessively deep or rough or dark colored and the aggregate area exceeds the area of a circle three-sixteenths inch in diameter, or when smooth or fairly smooth, light colored and superficial and the aggregate area exceeds the area of a circle one-fourth inch in diameter;

(i) Skin breaks when not well healed or when the appearance of the cherry is materially affected; and,

(j) Sutures when excessively deep or when affecting the shape of the cherry to the extent that it is not well formed.

§ 51.2656 Diameter. "Diameter" means the greatest dimension measured at right angles to a line from the stem to the blossom end of the cherry.

§ 51.2657 Serious damage. "Serious damage" means any defect which seriously affects the appearance, or the edible or shipping quality of the cherry. Seriously damaged cherries include the following:

(a) Decay;

(b) Wormy cherries or cherries with worm holes;

(c) Skin breaks which are not well healed;

(d) Cracks which are not well healed; and,

(e) Pulled stems with skin or flesh of cherry torn or which causes the cherry to leak.

The United States Standards for Sweet Cherries contained in this subpart shall become effective 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER, and will thereupon supersede the United States Standards for Sweet Cherries which have been in effect since June 2, 1927.

Dated: April 9th, 1956.

Chapter XI—Agricultural Conservation Program Service, Department of Agriculture

[ACP-1956, Supp. 4]

PART 1101—NATIONAL AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION

SUBPART—1956

EMERGENCY WIND EROSION CONTROL MEASURES

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under sections 7-17 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended, and Public Law 875, 81st Congress, the 1956 National Agricultural Conservation Program, approved June 14, 1955 (20 F. R. 4281), as amended July 22, 1955 (20 F. R. 5341), August 30, 1955 (20 F. R. 6511), and November 10, 1955 (20 F. R. 8491), is further amended as follows:

A new § 1101.797 is added as follows:

§ 1101.797 Practice F-4: Emergency wind erosion control measures. (a) This practice is applicable only in counties designated by the Secretary as subject to damage by excessive wind erosion during 1956. Emergency conservation practices may be approved by the Administrator, ACPS, upon recommendation by the State and county committees and designated representatives of the Soil Conservation Service and Forest Service at both the State and county levels. Eligible measures shall be specified in the wording of the practice as approved for use in the county.

(b) The cost-share computed for any person for this practice shall not be increased in accordance with § 1101.730, and shall not be included with the cost-shares computed for such person for other practices in applying the maximum Federal cost-share limitation in § 1101.731. The total of all Federal cost-shares for this practice to any person with respect to farms and ranches in any one county shall not exceed the sum of $1,500, except that, with the written prior approval of the State committee, a higher maximum may be approved in individual cases upon justification by the farmer or rancher on the basis of exceptional need and his inability to otherwise carry out the work.

(c) Costs for this practice will be shared only if the practice is started after January 1, 1956, and only if cost-sharing is requested by the farm or ranch operator before June 1, 1956, or before the date on which performance of the practice is started, whichever is the later. With the approval of the county committee, costs of performing this practice may be shared with farmers or ranchers who carry out eligible measures on their lands or, with the permission of the owners or operators of adjacent or nearby lands, on such adjacent or nearby lands.

(d) In cases where the farmer or rancher states in writing that he is unable to perform the practice to the needed extent unless a rate of cost-sharing in excess of 50 percent of the average cost of performing the practice is approved, the county committee, with the approval of the State committee, may approve a higher rate not in excess of the total cost of performing the practice.

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter I—Civil Aeronautics Board

Subchapter A—Civil Air Regulations

[Supps. 24, 36]

PART 41—CERTIFICATION AND OPERATION RULES FOR SCHEDULED AIR CARRIER OPERATIONS OUTSIDE THE CONTINENTAL LIMITS OF THE UNITED STATES

PART 42—IRREGULAR AIR CARRIER AND OFF-ROUTE RULES

FLIGHT ENGINEER QUALIFICATION FOR DUTY; EDITORIAL CORRECTION

The purpose of this supplement is to correct § 41.75-1 and § 42.44-6 of this subchapter, published in 21 F. R. 678, January 31, 1956, to permit an airman assigned to check other flight engineers to apply time spent in giving flight engineer checks toward the recent experience requirements § 41.75 and/or § 42.44 of this subchapter, provided that such experience has been obtained within the preceding 12 months.

1. Section 41.75-1 is amended to read as follows:

§ 41.75-1 Flight engineer qualifications for duty (CAA interpretations which apply to § 41.75). An airman assigned to flight-check other flight engineers must meet the recent experience requirements of this part before serving as a flight engineer in air transportation. However, the time spent in giving flight engineer checks may be applied toward the 50-hour recent experience requirements on a particular type of aircraft. Unless such experience has been obtained within the preceding 12-month period, a check by the air carrier or an authorized representative of the Administrator is required.

2. Section 42.44-6 is amended to read as follows:

§ 42.44-6 Flight engineer qualifications for duty (CAA interpretations which apply to § 42.44). An airman assigned to flight-check other flight engineers must meet the recent experience requirements of this part before serving as a flight engineer in air transportation. However, the time spent in giving flight engineer checks may be applied toward the 50-hour recent experience requirements on a particular type of aircraft. Unless such experience has been obtained within the preceding 12-month period, a check by the air carrier or an authorized representative of the Administrator is required.

(Sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984; 49 U. S. C. 425. Interpret or apply sec. 601, 52 Stat. 1007, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 551)

This supplement shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

[SEAL] JAMES T. PYLE,
Acting Administrator, of Civil Aeronautics.

Chapter II—Civil Aeronautics Administration, Department of Commerce

[Amdt. 158]

PART 608—RESTRICTED AREAS

ALTERATIONS

The restricted area alterations appearing hereinafter have been coordinated with the civil operators involved, the Army, the Navy and the Air Force, through the Air Coordinating Committee, Airspace Panel, and are adopted to become effective when indicated in order to promote safety of the flying public. Since a military function of the United States is involved, compliance with the notice, procedure, and effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act is not required.

Part 608 is amended as follows:

1. In § 608.22, the Camp Atterbury, Indiana, area (R-65 formerly D-65), amended on January 26, 1951, in 16 F. R. 713, is further amended by changing the "Designated Altitudes" column to read: "Surface to 40,000 feet MSL".

2. In § 608.30, the Camp Lucas, Michigan, area (R-467 formerly D-467), published on October 1, 1954, in 19 F. R. 6324, is amended by changing the "Designated Altitudes" column to read: "Surface to 15,000 feet MSL".

3. In § 608.33, the Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri, area (R-199), amended on April 9, 1955, in 20 F. R. 2302, is further amended by changing the "Designated Altitudes" column to read: "Surface to 50,000 feet MSL", and the "Time of Designation" column to read: "Unlimited".

4. In § 608.39, the Guadalupe Mountains, New Mexico, area (R-212 formerly D-212), amended on November 10, 1950, in 15 F. R. 7548, is further amended by changing "Time of Designation" column to read: "Unlimited".

5. In § 608.57, the Camp McCoy, Wisconsin, area (R-200), amended on September 21, 1955, in 20 F. R. 7074, is further amended by changing the "Designated Altitudes" column to read: "Surface to 25,000 feet MSL".

(Sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 425. Interpret or apply sec. 601, 52 Stat. 1007, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 551)

This amendment shall become effective on May 5, 1956.

[SEAL] C. J. LOWEN,
Administrator of Civil Aeronautics.

[Amdt. 98]

PART 610—MINIMUM EN ROUTE IFR ALTITUDES

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

The minimum en route IFR altitudes appearing hereinafter have been coordinated with interested members of the industry in the regions concerned insofar as practicable. The altitudes are adopted without delay in order to provide for safety in air commerce. Compliance with the notice, procedures, and effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act would be impracticable and contrary to the public interest, and therefore is not required.

Part 610 is amended as follows: (Listed items to be placed in appropriate sequence in the sections indicated.)

Chapter I—Department of State

[Departmental Reg. 108.284]

PART 51—PASSPORTS

FEES TO BE RETAINED BY CLERKS OF COURTS OTHER THAN FEDERAL COURTS

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by Paragraph 126 of Executive Order No. 7856, issued on March 31, 1938 (3 F. R. 687, 22 CFR 51.77), under authority of section 1 of the Act of Congress approved July 3, 1926 (44 Stat. 887, 22 U. S. C. 211a), and Public Law 403, 84th Congress, 2d Session, approved February 10, 1956 (70 Stat. 11), "To increase the fee for executing an application for a passport", § 51.127 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 51.127 Fees to be retained by clerks of courts other than Federal courts. Clerks of courts other than Federal courts, who are authorized to take applications for passports, are hereby authorized to collect and retain a fee of $2.00 for executing each application for a passport. This fee shall be in addition to the passport fee of $9.00. They may not charge nor retain more than that amount for executing an application for a passport. This regulation does not in any manner restrict the right of any State to make laws or regulations concerning the disposition of fees retained by clerks of State courts for executing applications for passports.

(Sec. 1, 44 Stat. 887; 22 U. S. C. 211a)

Dated: April 6, 1956.

For the Secretary of State.

Subchapter D—Multifamily and Group Housing Insurance

PART 241—COOPERATIVE HOUSING INSURANCE; ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS FOR PROJECT MORTGAGE

PART 243—COOPERATIVE HOUSING INSURANCE; ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS FOR INDIVIDUAL MORTGAGES COVERING PROPERTIES RELEASED FROM LIEN OF PROJECT MORTGAGE

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

1. Section 241.7 (b) (2) and (e) are amended to read as follows:

§ 241.7 Insurable amounts.
(b) * * *

(2) A sum equal to the maximum amount which does not exceed $2,250 per room (or $7,200 per family unit if the number of rooms in such property or project averages less than four per family unit) for such part of such property or project as may be attributable to dwelling use; and not in excess of ninety per centum (90%) of the amount which the Commissioner estimates will be the replacement cost of the property or project when the proposed physical improvements are completed: Provided, That if at least 65 percent of the membership of the corporation or number of beneficiaries of the trust consists of veterans, the mortgage may involve a principal obligation not to exceed $2,375 per room (or $7,600 per family unit if the number of rooms in such property or project averages less than four per family unit) for such part of such property or project as may be attributable to dwelling use; and not to exceed ninety-five per centum (95%) of the amount which the Commissioner estimates will be the replacement cost of the property or project when the proposed physical improvements are completed.

* * * * * * *

(e) At the time a mortgage executed by a mortgagor of a Sales Type Project is insured, the mortgagor shall have paid on account of the property at least five percent (5%) of the Commissioner's estimate of the cost of acquisition or such larger amount as the Commissioner may determine in cash or its equivalent and each member or stockholder of the mortgagor shall have paid the amount required by § 243.9 (b) of this chapter. The amount required for working capital specified in § 241.26 may be included in the 5 percent payment required by this paragraph. This paragraph shall not be effective as to any case in which a Statement of Eligibility was outstanding on July 5, 1954.

2. Section 243.9 is amended to read as follows:

§ 243.9 Maximum amount of mortgage and mortgagor's minimum investment. (a) The mortgage must involve a principal obligation in multiples of $50 and must not exceed the unpaid balance of the project mortgage allocable to the property offered as security.

(b) At the time the mortgage is insured the mortgagor shall have paid on account of the property at least 5% of the Commissioner's estimate of the cost of acquisition of such larger amount as the Commissioner may determine in cash or its equivalent. The mortgagor's cash investment in the mortgagor corporation under the project mortgage may be credited against the amount required by this section.

PART 21—VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION AND EDUCATION

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

1. In § 21.2032, paragraph (d) and that portion of paragraph (e) preceding subparagraph (1) are amended to read as follows:

§ 21.2032 Change of program. • • •

(d) Adjustments not considered a change of program. When the predetermined and identified objective is an educational objective with or without designation of a professional or vocational goal, such as attainment of a degree in an institution of higher learning, changes in types of courses pursued shall not be considered a change of program, provided such changes do not involve either a material loss of credit or an extension of the time originally planned for completion of the program. When the veteran's training status is changed by reason of such adjustments in program, however, such as changing from full-time training to part-time, the institution shall inform the Veterans Administration of such change.

(1) When the predetermined and identified objective is a baccalaureate degree or any named professional objective for which to qualify requires the completion of a 4-year undergraduate curriculum in an institution of higher learning (e. g., "agronomist," "chemist," "teacher" or "engineer"), the objective shall be considered to be the completion of a 4-year undergraduate curriculum leading to a baccalaureate degree, although a particular curriculum, degree objective or professional objective may have been designated by the veteran on his application or by the institution on the enrollment certification. Therefore, where a veteran and an institution desire to revise the specific undergraduate degree objective which had been designated by the institution on the veteran's enrollment certification to another undergraduate degree objective (for example, from "agronomist" or a B. S. degree in agriculture to an A. B. degree in liberal arts), the determination of whether such a revision constitutes a change of program will depend upon whether there is involved any extension of the time originally required to be expended for completion of the veteran's program, arising either by reason of factors affecting acceptance of previously determined credit hours toward the newly designated degree objective, or otherwise. When such a revision involves no extension of the time originally required to be expended for completion of the veteran's program no change of program is involved, but the institution must certify to the Veterans Administration for record purposes:

(i) That the change does not involve any such extension in point of time; and

(ii) The designation of the revised degree objective to which the veteran has changed.

The certification in each such case to be made on VA Form VB 7-1996a at the end of the month during which such change was made. When such a revision is proposed involving an extension of the time originally required to be expended for completion of the veteran's program, a request for approval of a change of program must be forwarded by the veteran to the Veterans Administration prior to effecting the revision, since such a proposed revision will constitute a change of program under the law.

(e) Requests for change of program. Any veteran who has not made a change of program of education or training and who desires to make such a change will be required to submit his request upon VA Form VB 7-1995 to the regional office in possession of his records provided:

• • • • • •

2. In § 21.2035, paragraph (a) (2) (i), (iv), (3), and (4) is amended and paragraph (a) (2) (v) is added as follows:

§ 21.2035 Minimum number of nonveteran-students required. (a) • • •

(2) In determining that proper ratio exists:

(i) Each part-time student will be counted on the basis of the ratio that the part-time training bears to full-time training. Such determinations may be made by converting all part-time students to the equivalent of full-time students or by ascertaining the total number of hours per week for which non-veteran-students are enrolled and the total number of hours per week for which all students are enrolled and determining the percentage ratio of total hours for non-veteran-students to the total hours of all students.

• • • • • •

(iv) In a school offering flight training courses, the actual hours of logged instructional flight time for all students enrolled in the course (eliminating plane rental time for which no bona fide instruction was furnished by the school) will provide the basis for the determination. The computation will be made by ascertaining for each course, controlled or non-controlled, the total hours of instructional flight time furnished by the institution to all students during the 30-day period immediately preceding the date the veteran is to be enrolled under the law and determining the percentage ratio of nonveteran hours to the total logged instructional hours of flight time for all students. The institution shall not submit VA Form VB 7-1999 to the Veterans Administration unless during such 30-day period the total hours of logged instructional flight time furnished in the course to nonveteran-students is 15 percent or more of the total hours of logged instructional flight time furnished to all students. In making this determination, the institution will for each controlled or non-controlled course:

(a) Recognize as a nonveteran-student only those students whose enrollment has been accepted for the specific purpose of qualifying for a CAA pilot rating not already held by the nonveteran; and

(b) Include in the total hours of flight training furnished during the preceding 30-day period only those hours which were furnished to nonveteran-students for the purpose of qualifying for the CAA rating examination appropriate to the course of training, and for which the nonveterans have made or will make payment.

(v) Where either veteran or nonveteran-students enrolled in a course are not required to adhere to regularly scheduled hours of attendance but are permitted to attend at hours of their own election, the actual hours of instruction furnished to both veteran and nonveteran-students will be used as the basis for the determination. The computation will be made by ascertaining the total hours of instruction furnished to all students enrolled in the course during the 30-day period immediately preceding the date the veteran is to be enrolled under the law and determining the percentage ratio of the total nonveteran hours to the total hours for all students. The educational institution shall not submit VA Form VB 7-1999 to the Veterans Administration unless during such 30-day period the total hours of instruction furnished to nonveteran-students is 15 percent or more of the total hours of instruction furnished to all students.

(3) A school will be deemed to be a proprietary nonprofit school when it is privately owned and operated whether by an individual or individuals or by a corporation, and when it is exempt from taxation under section 501 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (Pub. Law 591, 83d Cong.) as an organization described in section 501 (c) (3) of that code.

(4) At the time an eligible veteran is enrolled in an approved nonaccredited course below the college level offered by a proprietary profit or proprietary nonprofit educational institution, an authorized employee or official of the institution furnishing such course shall certify to the Veterans Administration on VA Form VB 7-1999 that, at the time of the enrollment of the individual veteran for which the certification is made, not more than 85 percent of the students then enrolled in the course are having all or any part of their tuition, fees, or other charges paid to or for them by the educational institution or the Veterans Administration under Part VII or Part VIII of Veterans Regulation 1 (a), as amended (38 U. S. C. ch. 12A), or Public Law 550, 82d Congress. (See § 21.2050.) The determination as to the percentage ratio shall be made pursuant to the provisions of this section. In any case where it appears that the certification by an authorized employee or official of an institution has been made improperly, the provision of § 21.2208 (d) shall be applied. If it is determined by the Committee on Educational Allowances that the false report was not the result of a knowing and willful act of the institution, payments to veterans already enrolled therein will not be discontinued. However, if it is determined that the false report was the result of a knowing and willful act of the institution, payments to all veterans enrolled in the institution under the law will be discontinued pursuant to the provisions of § 21.2208 (d) and the matter will be further processed pursuant to the provisions of § 21.2307.

3. In § 21.2052, paragraph (e) (4) and (6) is amended and paragraph (e) (7) (iii) is added as follows:

§ 21.2052 Rates of education and training allowances. • • •

(e) Correspondence course. • • •

(4) The training institution offering approved correspondence courses will transmit to the Director, Vocational Rehabilitation and Education Service, Veterans Administration, Washington 25, D. C., a list of all approved courses, and any additions or changes made subsequently thereto, and a certified statement of the established charges to nonveterans for each course. Such statement will list consecutively the lessons in each course, the books, supplies, tools, and equipment to be supplied with each lesson, other pertinent charges, the established practices in detail of servicing a lesson or lessons, and the standards for determining completed lessons, including a statement of the grading policy and methods of determining progress.

• • • • • •

(6) In the event an institution desires to change its charges for courses after a submittal of a statement of charges and services as set forth in this paragraph, such proposed charges will be promptly reported to the Director, Vocational Rehabilitation and Education Service, Veterans Administration, Washington 25, D. C., together with the effective date applicable to nonveteran-students. Where the Director, Vocational Rehabilitation and Education Service, determines on the basis of the information submitted that it is necessary to revise the education and training allowance for veterans enrolling after the effective date of such changes, the institution and the regional offices will be notified of the change in courses and charges which will affect the computation of the education and training allowance and the effective date thereof. The education and training allowance of an eligible veteran who is already enrolled in such course will continue to be based on established charges and services in effect on the date of his enrollment despite any changes made subsequent thereto.

(7) • • •

(iii) The books, supplies, tools, and equipment, including complete kits of such items, prescribed throughout the sequence of lessons, and approved as necessary and required for the successful pursuit of the lessons completed and serviced, have been furnished by the school and received by the veteran in the order and manner established for the course as approved.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter V—Department of the Army

Subchapter B—Claims and Accounts

PART 536—CLAIMS AGAINST THE UNITED STATES

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

1. Sections 536.1 to 536.8 are revised to read as follows:

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Sec.
536.1 General.
536.2 Determination of compensation for damage to or loss or destruction of property.
536.3 Determination of compensation for personal injury or death.
536.4 Effect on award of amounts paid by third parties.
536.5 Claims.
536.6 Settlement agreement.
536.7 Notice to claimant and appeals.
536.8 Effect of payment.

AUTHORITY: §§ 536.1 to 536.8 issued under R. S. 161; 5 U. S. C. 22.

SOURCE: AR 25-20, March 7, 1956.

§ 536.1 General—(a) Statutory authority. The Secretary of the Army has authority to settle claims administratively as shown in the claims chart in this part.

(b) Purpose. The regulations of §§ 536.1–536.8 govern the administrative settlement of claims against and in favor of the United States. They are intended to insure that incidents which may result in claims are promptly and efficiently investigated under supervision adequate to insure a sound basis for official action, and that all claims resulting from such incidents are expeditiously settled.

(c) Scope. The regulations of §§ 536.1–536.8 apply to claims under §§ 536.12–536.29; § 537.3 of this subchapter; and § 552.16a of this chapter, so far as consistent with those regulations. They also apply to all claims which may be provided for under any law or other regulations. Claims which arise from contracts, not specifically included within the scope of the regulations listed in this paragraph, are governed by AR 35–670 (Settlement of claims), AR 735–10 (Accounting for lost, damaged, and destroyed property), or other applicable regulations, including procurement regulations in Subchapter G of this chapter. Maritime claims against, or in favor of the United States are investigated and processed as prescribed in §§ 536.44, 536.45 and 537.6 of this subchapter. Claims under the Uniform Code of Military Justice, Article 139, are disposed of under § 536.25. The tables in the claims chart may be used as a guide in determining which CFR sections apply.

(d) Information and assistance. (1) Government personnel are forbidden to represent any claimant or to receive any gratuity for services. They may not accept any interest in a claim or assist in its presentation (62 Stat. 862, 18 U. S. C. 283). They are prohibited from disclosing information which may be made the basis of a claim, or any evidence of record in any claim matter, except that they may exhibit to a claimant or his representative evidence originally furnished by the claimant. A person lacking authority to approve or disapprove a claim may not advise a claimant or his representative as to the disposition recommended.

(2) The prohibitions against furnishing information and assistance do not apply to the performance of official duty. Any person who inquires how to file a claim will be instructed generally as to procedure. He will be furnished forms, as prescribed in appropriate regulations and, when necessary, assisted in preparing the form and assembling evidence. In the vicinity of a field exercise or maneuver, information may be disseminated concerning the right to present claims, the procedures to be followed, and the names and locations of claims officers, engineer repair teams, etc. When the Government of a foreign country in which United States Armed Forces are stationed has assumed responsibility for the settlement of certain claims against the United States, officials of that country will be furnished pertinent information and evidence so far as security considerations permit.

(e) Definitions and explanations. The following terms as used in the regulations referred to in paragraph (c) of this section and the regulations of §§ 536.1–536.8 will have the meanings here indicated:

(1) Claim. A written demand for the payment of a specified sum of money, other than for ordinary obligations incurred for services, supplies, or equipment.

(2) Small claim. A claim which may be settled for $100 or less.

(3) Claimant. An individual, partnership, association, corporation, country, state, territory, or other political subdivision of such country, state, or territory, presenting a claim. The term does not include the United States Government or any of its instrumentalities.

(4) Investigator. A claims officer or a commissioned officer, warrant officer, enlisted man, or civilian, designated to conduct the investigation.

(5) Within scope of employment. Expressly or impliedly directed or authorized by competent authority, or within the design, aim, purpose, or instructions of the unit's or organization's mission, or in the interest of the Government. Determination of scope of employment is not necessarily governed by local law.

(6) Proximate cause. An act or omission which in natural and continuous unbroken sequence produced the result and without which that result would not have occurred. An act or omission except for which an incident would not have occurred, but which cannot be said to have caused it, will not sustain liability or (if committed by the claimant) justify denial of the claim. Proximate cause will normally be determined in accordance with local law.

(7) Negligence. Failure to exercise the degree of care required or prescribed by law, or which an ordinary prudent person would use, under the circumstances.

(8) Combat activities. Activities resulting from action by the enemy, or by United States Armed Forces engaged in combat, or in immediate preparation for impending combat.

(9) Subrogation. Substitution by operation of law of one person for another as owner of a right; for example, an insurer who, by paying a claim under a policy, succeeds to the position of the insured.

(10) The Government. The Government of the United States.

(11) Claim file. The claim, report of claims officer, or other report of investigation, supporting papers, and pertinent correspondence.

(12) Approving authority. Any officer designated by the Secretary of the Army, and any commission appointed by the Secretary of the Army or his designee, to approve or disapprove claims against the United States in accordance with applicable regulations listed in paragraph (c) of this section.

(f) Responsibilities of The Judge Advocate General and staff judge advocates. (1) The Judge Advocate General is responsible for training, staff supervision and inspection, as to all claims matters affecting the Department of the Army and the Army.

(2) Every staff judge advocate.

(i) Is responsible within the command to which he is assigned for:

(a) Supervision and administration of claims activities,

(b) Training of claims personnel and the continuing inspection of their activities, and

(c) Implementation of claims policies as announced by higher headquarters.

(ii) Will designate a commissioned officer or qualified civilian of his staff who is experienced in the conduct of investigations and the processing of claims to be in immediate charge of claims activities. Direct communication with respect to claims activities is authorized.

(g) Claims waived or assumed by foreign government. The governments of some foreign countries in which United States Armed Forces are stationed have by treaty or agreement waived or assumed, or may hereafter waive or assume, some claims against the United States. When this has occurred with respect to any claim, there is no authority to receive, consider, or pay, the claim under laws, appropriations, or regulations of the United States normally available for its administrative settlement.

§ 536.2 Determination of compensation for damage to or loss or destruction of property—(a) Damaged property. As to property damaged, the allowable compensation is the cost of repairs, which may not ordinarily exceed the difference between the value of the property immediately before the incident and the value afterward. Even when it does, however, evidence may be furnished justifying allowance of the cost of repairs under special circumstances. Within these limits, allowance may be made for depreciation resulting from the incident.

(b) Lost or destroyed property. As to property destroyed or lost, the compensation is the value of the property immediately before the incident, less any salvage value in the case of destroyed property.

(c) Special damages. (1) In the case of property used for business, agricultural, or residential purposes, compensation may be allowed for reasonable expense incurred for necessary substitute property during the period fairly required to effect repairs.

(2) In the case of registered or insured mail, compensation may include registration, insurance, and special delivery fees, and prepaid postage in the case of lost mail.

(3) The reasonable cost of securing required supporting evidence is allowable as an element of compensation. However, allowance may not be made for interest, inconvenience, or the like.

(d) Example. (1) As to annual crops, the allowable compensation is based on the number of acres or other unit measure, the average yield per acre in the neighborhood, the degree of maturity of the crop, and the futures price at the date of the incident if the crop is traded on commodity exchanges. If the crop is not traded on a commodity exchange, the allowable compensation may be based on the price obtained, or expected to be obtained, for similar crops in the neighborhood, reduced by the anticipated cost of cultivation from the date of the incident to maturity, harvesting, and marketing.

(2) As to perennial crops or pasture land, the allowable compensation is the value of the land with the growing crop less its value after the destruction of the crop.

(3) As to timberland, the allowable compensation is the difference between the value of the land and the stand before the incident and the value afterward.

(4) As to turf and soil, the allowable compensation is the cost of reconditioning the soil to its former state, unless the damage is of a permanent nature, in which case the allowable compensation is the difference between the value of the land before the incident and the value afterward.

(5) As to animals, the allowable compensation is generally the market value of the animal at the time and place of the incident. Special compensation may be appropriate in cases of loss or damage suffered in commercial operations involving fur-bearing animals, animals maintained for breeding purposes, and fowl.

(e) Proof of damage. The cost of repairs may be established by a written bill or estimate from a reputable dealer or repairman. Value may be established by the written appraisal of a disinterested, competent, licensed dealer or broker, by market quotations, by commercial catalogues, or by other evidence of the price at which the property can be obtained in the community. Estimates of recognized local authorities, such as tax appraisers, highway commission officials, insurance officials, or local agricultural organizations or agents, may be considered. The assistance of such persons in determining amount should be sought to the extent practicable. Although only one estimate or appraisal is ordinarily necessary, the claims officer may require the claimant to submit other evidence, including an estimate or appraisal from another source, or he may obtain such information himself. When practicable, the claims officer should examine damaged property to determine physical damage sustained and condition at the time of the incident.

§ 536.3 Determination of compensation for personal injury or death—(a) General. In cases involving personal injury or death, direct compensation allowable includes reasonable medical, hospital, and burial expenses necessarily incurred.

(b) Special damages. Except as limited by the respective substantive regulations listed in § 536.1 (c), the allowable compensation for personal injury or death may include compensation for loss of time, earnings, and services, diminution of earning capacity, anticipated medical expenses, physical disfigurement, and pain and suffering.

(c) Proof of damage. The allowable compensation may be established as to:

(1) Itemized bills for medical, hospital, or burial expenses necessarily incurred.

(2) Loss of time, earnings, diminution of earning capacity and anticipated medical expenses, a written statement of claimant's employer stating claimant's age, occupation, wage or salary, time lost from work as a result of the incident, whether the person injured was a full time employee, and his actual period of employment by dates. If the claimant is self-employed, written statements or other evidence showing the amount of earnings actually lost may be considered. A written statement by the attending physician should set forth the nature and extent of the injury and the treatment, the duration and extent of the disability involved, the prognosis, and the period of hospitalization or incapacity. When the personal injury appears to be more than slight, the claimant may, with his consent, be examined by a medical officer or other disinterested physician or surgeon to provide independent medical evidence against which to evaluate the statement of the claimant's physician.

(3) Loss of services, a statement of the cost necessarily incurred to replace the services to which the claimant is entitled in accordance with the law of the place where the incident occurred.

(4) Physical disfigurement, and pain and suffering, a written statement of the precedents and law in effect in the place where the incident occurred.

§ 536.4 Effect on award of amounts paid by third parties. The allowable compensation will be computed without regard to any money or property the claimant may have received or be entitled to receive from third parties as compensation for the damage or injury on which his claim is based. In determining the award, however, the amount so computed will be reduced by the amount of any compensation the claimant has received from the United States wrongdoer, the insurer of, or any other person, under contract with the United States wrongdoer, or any person or agency whose act or neglect, jointly with that of the Government, caused the incident. Voluntary contributions from persons not under contract with the United States wrongdoer, donations of charitable organizations, and the like, will not be deducted from the allowable compensation. Settlement by a claimant with the United States wrongdoer, or the insurer of or any other person under contract with the United States wrongdoer will not preclude consideration of the claim, but no award will be made if the amount of the settlement exceeds the allowable compensation computed without regard to the settlement.

§ 536.5 Claims—(a) Who may present. (1) A claim for damage, loss, or destruction of property may be presented by the owner of the property, or his duly authorized agent, legal representative, or survivors, only as authorized in the specific regulations listed in § 536.1 (c). "Owner," as so used, includes bailee, lessee, mortgagor, and conditional vendee, but does not include mortgagee, conditional vendor, nor another having title for purposes of security only.

(2) A claim for personal injury may be presented by the injured person or his duly authorized agent or legal representative.

(3) A claim based on death may be presented by the executor or administrator of the deceased's estate, or by any person determined to be legally or beneficially entitled.

(4) A claim presented by an agent or legal representative will be made in the name of the owner, will be signed by the agent or legal representative, showing his title or capacity, and will be accompanied by evidence of the authority of such person to act. An agent or legal representative may be required to submit the notice of appearance, DA Form 1627 (Notice of Appearance Before a Command or Agency of the Army Establishment), required by 18 U. S. C. 284 and § 583.1 of this chapter.

(5) A claim for expenses, medical, hospital or burial may be presented by any person who by reason of family relationship has in fact incurred the expenses for which claim is made, unless otherwise presented by a person with competent authority.

(b) Transfer and assignments. Except as they occur by operation of law (i. e., court order, insurer subrogation, etc.), every purported transfer or assignment of a claim against the United States, or of any part of or interest in a claim, whether absolute or conditional, and every power of attorney, or other purported authority to receive payment of all or part of any such claim, are null and void (R. S. 3477, as amended by the acts of October 9, 1940, 54 Stat. 1029, and of May 15, 1951, 65 Stat. 41; 31 U. S. C. 203), unless made after a warrant for the payment has been issued, or unless within the exceptions set forth in the acts above cited. See §§ 535.5–535.9b of this subchapter.

(c) Action by claimant—(1) Form of claim. The claimant will submit his claim in triplicate using authorized official forms whenever practicable.

(2) Signatures. The claim and all other papers requiring the signature of the claimant, will be signed in ink by him personally or by his duly authorized agent. The signature will include the first name, middle initial, if any, and surname, of both the claimant and the person signing the claim in his behalf. A married woman must sign her claim in her given name, e. g., "Mary A. Doe", rather than "Mrs. John Doe".

(3) Presentation. The claim will be submitted to the commanding officer of the unit involved if known, or of the fixed installation or other military establishment near where the incident occurred, or to a maneuver claims office. In a foreign country where no Armed Forces of the United States are stationed the claim may be submitted to any attache of the United States Armed Forces. Except as provided in § 536.1 (g), every claim presented will be accepted and handled under the regulations of §§ 536.1–536.8.

(d) Evidence to be submitted by claimant. The claimant will submit evidence available to him concerning the cause of the damage for which claim is made and the correctness of the amount claimed (§§ 536.2 and 536.3).

§ 536.6 Settlement agreement. (a) When a claim within the limits of the monetary jurisdiction of the approving authority has been approved for less than the amount claimed, the claimant will be requested to sign and return to the approving authority in triplicate, a claims settlement agreement, DA Form 1666 (Claims Settlement Agreement).

(b) When the approving authority considers that a claim in excess of his monetary jurisdiction to settle is meritorious in an amount within his jurisdiction, he will so inform the claimant and request a settlement agreement. If he considers it meritorious in an amount exceeding his jurisdiction, he will forward the claimant without disclosing his recommendation to the claimant and without requesting a settlement agreement.

(c) When two or more claims arising from the same incident are by reason of differences in amounts within the monetary jurisdiction of different approving authorities, decisions should be withheld upon those lesser in amount until action has been taken upon the largest of the claims, unless liability is clear.

§ 536.7 Notice to claimant and appeals. When the approving authority has approved a claim in part, or disapproved it, he will:

(a) Notify the claimant in writing for his action and the reason for it;

(b) When required, request a claim settlement agreement (DA Form 1666), and

(c) As to a claim under the act of July 3, 1943 (§§ 536.12–536.23), or under the Federal Tort Claims Act (§ 536.29), inform the claimant that he has the right to appeal to the Secretary of the Army, by filing with the approving authority within 30 days after receiving the notice, a written statement of the grounds for his appeal. No specific form for appeal is prescribed.

§ 536.8 Effect of payment. Acceptance of an award by the claimant constitutes for the military personnel, or civilian employee, whose act or omission gave rise to the claim, a release from all liability to the claimant based on the act or omission.

2. The following paragraphs and subparagraphs of various sections of Part 536 are revoked, as follows:

In § 536.13, revoke paragraph (b) scope of employment, and paragraph (c) Proximate cause.

In § 536.27 (q), revoke subparagraph (3) Filing claim.

In § 536.29 (c), revoke subparagraphs (2) Scope of employment, and (3) Proximate cause.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Bureau of Indian Affairs

[ 25 CFR Part 130 ]

KLAMATH INDIAN IRRIGATION PROJECT, OREGON

OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE CHARGES

Notice is hereby given that the United States Department of the Interior intends to amend § 130.48a Areas assessable of the Code of Federal Regulations, Title 25, Indians, relating to the operation and maintenance of the Klamath Indian Irrigation Project, Oregon, pursuant to authority contained in the act of April 4, 1910 (36 Stat. 270–272), as amended; 25 U. S. C. 385.

All interested persons are hereby given opportunity to participate in preparing the proposed amendment by submitting their views and data and arguments in writing to Mr. Don C. Foster, Area Director, Portland Area Office, Bureau of Indian Affairs, 1001 N. E., Lloyd Boulevard, P. O. Box 4097, Portland 8, Oregon, within thirty (30) days from the date of publication of this Notice of Intention in the daily issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER.

It is proposed to amend § 130.48a to read as follows:

§ 130.48a Areas assessable. (a) The area against which assessments shall be made on the Modoc Point Unit shall tentatively, pending approval thereof, be the area listed in the irrigable area survey completed in 1955, showing a total of 5,456.15 acres of irrigable land within the Modoc Point Unit of the Klamath Project.

(b) The area against which assessments shall be made on the Sand Creek Unit shall tentatively, pending approval thereof, be the area listed in the report entitled "Designation of Irrigable Areas and Cost of Irrigation Development" for Spring Creek, Agency and Sand Creek Units, Klamath Indian Reservation, Oregon, September, 1955, showing a total of 1,150 acres of irrigable land within the Sand Creek Unit of the Klamath Project.

DOUGLAS MCKAY,
Secretary of the Interior.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Agricultural Marketing Service

[ 7 CFR Part 922 ]

[Docket No. AO 250–A1]

VALENCIA ORANGES GROWN IN ARIZONA AND DESIGNATED PART OF CALIFORNIA

NOTICE OF RECOMMENDED DECISION AND OPPORTUNITY TO FILE WRITTEN EXCEPTIONS WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER REGULATING HANDLING

Pursuant to the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of the filing with the Hearing Clerk of the recommended decision of the Deputy Administrator, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, with respect to proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement, heretofore approved by the Secretary of Agriculture, and Order No. 22 (7 CFR Part 922), hereinafter referred to as "marketing agreement" and "order," respectively, regulating the handling of Valencia oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California to be made effective pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047), hereinafter referred to as the "act." Interested parties may file written exceptions to this recommended decision with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Room 112, Administration Building, Washington 25, D. C., not later than the close of business of the fifteenth day after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Exceptions should be filed in quadruplicate.

Preliminary statement. The public hearing, on the record of which the proposed amendments to the marketing agreement and order are formulated, was initiated by the Agricultural Marketing Service as a result of proposals submitted by the Valencia Orange Administrative Committee, the administrative agency established pursuant to the order. In accordance with the applicable provisions of the aforesaid rules of practice and procedure, a notice that such public hearing would be held in Los Angeles, California, beginning on January 25, 1956, to consider the proposed amendments was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (20 F. R. 9972) on December 24, 1955.

Material issues. The material issues presented on the record of the hearing were concerned with amending the marketing agreement and order to:

(1) Substitute a definition of "carton" for the definition of "box" in recognition of the Valencia orange industry's shift from packing in boxes to packing in cartons;

(2) Redefine "carload" to conform with the industry's current practices with respect to the type and number of containers loaded in a railroad car;

(3) Provide that alternate members of the Administrative Committee may, at the discretion of the committee, be reimbursed for reasonable expenses and receive compensation for attending committee meetings notwithstanding that the members for whom they serve may also be present at such meetings;

(4) Change the time requirement for mailing the annual report and holding the annual meeting;

(5) Provide that whenever the control of oranges changes from one handler to another, and the change is occasioned by the transfer of ownership of the real property on which such oranges were produced, a quantity of oranges equal to the quantity upon which allotments were issued but which were not utilized thereon by the handler who lost the control shall be used in the computation of allotments for the handler who gained the control;

(6) Authorize limited overshipment of allotment during any week in which the handler's total allotment is not loaned to another handler, or is not required for the repayment of an allotment loan or as a deduction for a prior overshipment;

(7) Clarify the provisions with respect to loan transactions;

(8) Provide that when a limited quantity of oranges of a specified size may be handled, the quantity of such size that a handler may handle shall be established as a percentage of (a) the allotment issued to such handler for such week, or if an allotment is not so issued, (b) the total weekly shipments made by such handler during such week;

(9) Provide for continued volume regulation of Valencia oranges during any period when the season average price for such oranges is above the parity level in order to avoid unreasonable fluctuations in supplies and prices; and

(10) Change the date prior to which the biennial referendum shall be conducted to ascertain whether continuance of the marketing agreement and order is favored by producers.

Findings and conclusions. The findings and conclusions on the material issues, all of which are based upon the evidence adduced at the hearing and the record thereof, are as follows:

(1) When the marketing agreement and order regulating the handling of California-Arizona Valencia Oranges was established, the predominant container used in the handling of such oranges to fresh market was the standard two-compartment orange box. Each compartment of this box was 11½ by 11½ by 12 inches, and the total capacity was approximately 77 pounds of oranges. This box was approved as a standard container for use in the handling of oranges under applicable laws of the States of California and Arizona. Since this was the most prevalent and widely used container in the industry, and handlers records were generally kept in terms of such boxes, the "box" was defined in the marketing agreement and order and handlers were required to make reports in terms of such boxes. Likewise the "box" became the standard unit of measurement used by the Administrative Committee for statistical purposes. Recently, however, a half-box carton, approved as a standard container under applicable laws of California and Arizona, has displaced the box as the predominant container used in the handling of California-Arizona Valencia oranges. This container is referred to as standard container number 58 in section 828.83 of the Agricultural Code of California, as amended, and has a capacity of approximately 38½ pounds. At the present time, it is estimated that 85 to 90 percent of the Valencia oranges moving to fresh market in 1956, will be shipped in such cartons. Hence the definition of "box" should be replaced in the marketing agreement and order by a definition of "carton". Since oranges are handled in containers other than cartons, it is necessary to provide for the equivalent of a carton in order to convert quantities of oranges handled in such other types of containers to a carton basis. The committee should have the authority, with the approval of the Secretary, to redefine "carton" if the present carton should be replaced in the future by a container of a different dimension and capacity in order to facilitate a transition to such container. It is therefore concluded that § 922.16 of the marketing agreement and order should be amended as hereinafter set forth, and the provisions of said marketing agreement and order made to conform with such amendment by deleting the word "box" wherever it appears and inserting in lieu thereof the word "carton".

(2) The definition of "carload" currently in the marketing agreement and order is based on a quantity of oranges equivalent to 462 standard packed boxes which were customarily loaded in a railroad car for shipment to market at the time this regulatory program was placed into effect. The equivalent net weight of a 462 box carload is 924 cartons; and in view of the industry's shift from boxes to cartons, it is concluded that "carload" should be redefined in terms of 924 cartons. However, due to the lesser tare weight of cartons as compared with boxes, 924 cartons are not equal in gross weight to the minimum carload, based on 462 boxes, established by the railroads. At present, in order to take advantage of the freight charges which must be paid on the established minimum carload weight, handlers load 1,020 to 1,100 cartons of oranges in a rail car. The industry has plans to petition the railroad companies to establish a minimum carload weight based on 930 cartons. This matter is not settled, however, and it is in the interest of the marketing agreement and order program to provide a definition of "carload" in terms of the equivalent of 924 cartons, with provisions for redefinition of such term by the committee, with approval of the Secretary. This will facilitate efficient administration of the program and provide a means for the establishment of an appropriate definition to reflect such further changes as may be made in loading practices or minimum carload weights; and the marketing agreement and order should be amended accordingly.

(3) Current provisions of the marketing agreement and order provide that members of the Administrative Committee and alternates for such members, when serving as members, shall be reimbursed for expenses necessarily incurred by them in the performance of their duties and shall receive compensation not to exceed $10 for each day or portion thereof spent in performing such duties. The committee has found that there are several meetings during the year when it is desirable to have the alternates as well as members present. For example, prior to the beginning of the shipping season in each prorate district, a marketing policy meeting is held at which the marketing policies for the season are developed; and, when shipment is completed in all districts, the committee prepares an annual report, following which an annual meeting is held for all growers and handlers. At the annual meeting the regulatory operations of the past season are reviewed and recommendations for improvement of the program considered. The committee has found that alternates contribute greatly to the efficient operation of the program when they attend meetings of this type and give the committee the benefit of their knowledge and experience in making decisions which affect the whole industry. Moreover, the increased knowledge concerning the program and its operation gained by alternates at such meetings enables them to serve more effectively when called upon to serve as members. Since attendance at such meetings for the benefit of the committee involves the same loss of time from personal business, and equal expenses as that required in attending regular meetings in place of a member who is absent, it is concluded that alternates should receive compensation and be reimbursed for expenses in attending such meetings. It is therefore concluded that the marketing agreement and order should be amended to provide that, whenever specifically authorized or approved by the committee, alternate members may receive compensation at the rate applicable to members and be reimbursed for reasonable expenses in attending committee meetings, notwithstanding that the members for whom they serve as alternates also attend such meetings.

(4) The marketing agreement and order provides that the committee shall, prior to December 15 of each year prepare and mail an annual report to the Secretary and to each grower and handler of record, and that an annual meeting shall be held prior to January 31 of each year to review the record of operations under the program. It has been found, however, that distribution of Valencia oranges is not ordinarily completed by December 15. For the five marketing seasons just preceding that of 1951–52 (there was no program in effect during the 1951–52 and 1952–53 seasons) crop distribution was not completed in any season prior to December 15. The earliest completion date was December 19, and the latest January 27. In 1953–54 crop distribution extended to January 23, and in 1954–55 to January 1. Furthermore, considerable time is required following the close of the season for the committee to prepare the data, have it printed in report form, and to mail approximately 12,000 copies to growers, handlers and other interested persons. In order to comply with the time requirements for annual reports and meetings the committee has had to prepare and mail annual reports based on incomplete data. There appears to be no reason why preparation of the annual report should not be delayed until complete information on distribution of the crop is available to the committee. Likewise, it is in interest of the program to have complete information available for consideration at the annual meeting. Due to the erratic time of completion of crop distribution it is not feasible to establish fixed dates for issuance of the annual report and holding of the annual meeting. In order to be practical such times as are established should be flexible. It is therefore concluded that the marketing agreement and order should be amended to provide for preparation of the annual report "as soon as practicable" after distribution of the crop is completed, and for holding the annual meeting "as soon as practicable" after mailing of the annual report.

(5) The marketing agreement and order require that a handler who loses control of oranges and has handled a quantity of such oranges less than could have been handled under allotments issued to him by virtue of the fact that he had control of such oranges, shall have his oranges available for current shipment adjusted by deducting therefrom a quantity of oranges equal to that upon which allotments were issued but not utilized in the shipment of such oranges. However, the handler who gains control of such oranges is not entitled to have his oranges available for current shipment increased by the quantity so deducted. The evidence, however, shows that failure to provide an opportunity for the handling of the quantity of oranges covered by the unused allotment on a grove creates inequities with respect to any person who purchases the grove during the shipping season and transfers the control of the fruit to a new handler. Such person did not previously have an opportunity to select a handler for his oranges, and it appears reasonable to provide him with the same opportunity that other owners of groves had at the beginning of the season. It would be more equitable to such purchasers to provide that where the change in control of oranges is occasioned by a bona fide transfer in the ownership of the real property on which the oranges were produced, that the handler who gains control be given the benefit of the allotment previously earned by such oranges but not utilized thereon. The number of ownership transfers in a given season are few and this should not adversely affect the successful operation of the program. It is therefore concluded that the marketing agreement and order should be amended to provide for transfer of such allotment, as hereinafter provided, to the handler gaining control of oranges involved in a bona fide transfer of grove ownership.

(6) A current provision of the marketing agreement and order provides that whenever volume regulation is in effect a handler, if not required to reduce his allotment in repayment of a previous overshipment, or whose total allotment is not required for repayment of an allotment loan, may handle in addition to his allotment a quantity of oranges equivalent to 10 percent of his allotment, or 462 packed boxes, whichever is greater. This overshipment privilege was placed in the marketing agreement and order in recognition of the fact that a handler experiences difficulty in shipping during a week the exact quantity of oranges authorized by the allotment issued to him for such week; and some flexibility of operation under the allotment issued should be provided. Experience has shown that additional flexibility could be provided handlers, without adversely affecting the operation of the program, by authorizing such overshipment of allotment during any week in which a handler's total allotment is not loaned to another handler or is not required for the repayment of an allotment loan or as a deduction for a prior overshipment. These limitations are necessary to assure that during any season, the total shipment of oranges by a handler will not materially exceed the total amount of shipments authorized by allotments issued to him, and to insure that usage of such overshipment privilege will be in accordance with the basic reason for including it in the program; namely that of providing handlers with a measure of flexibility in their operations and, at the same time, preserving the effectiveness of the program. Accordingly, the marketing agreement and order should be amended in conformance with the foregoing.

(7) Provision for the lending of allotment between handlers in the same prorate district is included in the marketing agreement and order to provide them with needed flexibility in their operations. The marketing agreement and order do not explicitly state that the payment of a consideration to bring about a loan is prohibited. However, it was not intended that a market be established in the loaning of allotment, and it would not be in the interest of the program to permit such a development. The committee in administering the program has consistently interpreted the loan provisions as prohibiting such payment. There is an indication that all handlers may not have the same understanding of these provisions as the committee, however, and that some may have the impression that the payment of a consideration is permitted in connection with loan transactions. It is in the interest of this regulatory program to obtain the greatest possible understanding of the provisions of such program throughout the industry. It is therefore concluded that the marketing agreement and order should be amendd to make clear that no allotment may be loaned from one handler to another when such loan is brought about by the payment of a consideration.

(8) Current provisions of the marketing agreement and order provide for regulation of the sizes of oranges which may be handled. This provision authorizes the Secretary to restrict the handling of oranges to those of specified sizes. It has been a practice, in accordance with this provision, to prohibit the handling of certain sizes and to permit the handling of a portion of other sizes. For example, a size regulation was established which prohibited handling of all sizes smaller than 344's, and restricted the volume of the 344 size to a fixed percentage of the total quantity handled during a week. Thus, the percentage of such size that could be handled was related to a handler's weekly volume. The evidence shows that shippers have, at times, unintentionally violated the size regulation by handling in excess of the permitted percentage. That is, handlers early in the week would ship a volume of the size which was restricted to a percentage of the volume handled, anticipating that they would be able to move their entire allotment, and, when it later developed that they were unable to do so because of adverse weather, failure of packing house machinery and other operational difficulties, the percentage of such size handled was in excess of that permitted. This could be prevented by basing the percentage of a size permitted to be handled on the handler's allotment issued to him for the week when volume regulation is in effect. Such basic allotment remains constant for a weekly regulation period and it would be of substantial benefit to handlers and the committee in their operation to provide for the establishment of such size regulation on this basis since it would enable them to know at the beginning of the week the exact volume of the restricted size permitted to be handled during such week. However, it may be desirable to restrict the sizes of oranges during periods when no regulation of volume is in effect, therefore provision should be made to permit the establishment of percentage of size regulation during such periods on the volume of oranges handled in the manner currently authorized, since in the absence of the issuance of allotment this appears to be the best basis for establishing such a percentage. It is therefore concluded that the marketing agreement and order should provide for the establishment of size regulation in accordance with the foregoing, and that said marketing agreement and order should be amended to so provide.

(9) The marketing agreement and order should be amended as hereinafter set forth to permit the continued regulation of the flow of Valencia oranges to market even though the season average price may be above the parity level.

The provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), in conformity with which the current marketing agreement and order program for Valencia oranges has been operative, did not, prior to the 1954 amendment, contain authority for volume regulations during any period with respect to which the Secretary determines that the season average price will be in excess of the parity price. The Agricultural Act of 1954 provides that authority may be included in marketing agreements and orders to establish and maintain such orderly marketing conditions for certain specified agricultural commodities, including Valencia oranges, as will provide, in the interests of producers and consumers, an orderly flow of the supply thereof to market throughout the normal marketing season so as to avoid unreasonable fluctuations in supplies and prices. Authority to regulate the flow of Valencia oranges to market at all times is needed in this regulatory program because, where as the total supply of such oranges in a given prorate district are mature near the beginning of the marketing season, it is impossible to market such total supply immediately at prices which would permit growers to remain in business. It was for this reason that volume regulation was included initially as a major provision in this marketing agreement and order program. The evidence shows that prices for Valencia oranges are very sensitive to changes in supply, and that unrestricted movement of such oranges undoubtedly would result in unreasonable fluctuations in supplies and prices to the detriment of both producers and consumers. Since the Valencia orange crop in a given prorate district cannot be marketed to advantage immediately upon reaching maturity, it is the practice to hold them on the trees until needed for shipment to market. The marketing season covers the period from May to November and during this period the oranges stored on the trees are subject to a general lowering in quality from wind damage, insects, and almost certain loss from shrinkage due to oranges dropping off the trees as the season progresses. Consequently, there is strong pressure on handlers from producers to handle their oranges as quickly as possible. It is probable that these pressures would be intensified in above-parity price situations. The industry has the capacity to pack and ship a quantity of oranges substantially greater than that which experience has shown can be absorbed by the market at prices which will give producers a reasonable return. Whereas the level of weekly movement which has proved to be in line with the demand at reasonable prices is near 900 to 1,000 carloads during most of the marketing season, packing house capacity is in excess of 1,500 carloads. Thus, in the absence of volume restriction, and with pressure from producers to ship the crop as rapidly as possible, it is more than likely that excess supplies of Valencia oranges would be shipped to markets. Favorable prices, such as those prevailing in above-parity situations, would make it virtually impossible for handlers to pack and ship anything less than the maximum. The tendency would be for handlers to continue shipping as long as prices are favorable; and, due to the intransit time—10 to 14 days—required for oranges to move from the production area to the large consuming markets of the east, it is likely that substantial quantities would be en route to these markets before it became apparent to handlers that supplies already in the market were sufficient to take care of the demand. In these circumstances, even though they were to curtail or stop further shipments, it would not be possible for them to prevent the arrival on an already burdened market of such additional quantities of oranges as may be en route. Upon the arrival on a burdened market of these additional supplies, the market would be glutted. With markets demoralized, handlers would cease shipping. Following such demoralization, handlers would not ship oranges to market until prices were again favorable. Due to the length of time required for oranges to travel to markets, after such recovery of prices becomes apparent, periods of scarcity or famine of the commodity could occur and prices go unreasonably high. Such prices would again encourage handlers to flood the market. Thus the alternating series of events known as "gluts" and "famines" is set in motion to the despair of producers and consumers alike. Due to the reluctance of those concerned in the marketing of oranges to adjust prices to levels which will clear the market in a reasonable time, the lowering of such prices is generally delayed until there is a marked deterioration in the quality of oranges in oversupply and it is apparent that a drastic reduction is necessary to prevent a complete loss. Such deterioration in quality causes dissatisfaction among consumers, and it is probable that it is more than sufficient to offset any gain which consumers appear to make as result of lower prices. Furthermore, the indication is that consumers may pay a greater average price for oranges during a season when prices fluctuate widely than when such fluctuations are prevented by the regulation of supplies. Moreover, it appears that in the absence of regulation, the total supply of the commodity could be marketed very early in the season, and none of the commodity would be available to consumers during a large part of the time during which they have customarily consumed it. Operation of volume regulation, as authorized under present provisions of the marketing agreement and order has been directed toward the objective of achieving parity prices for Valencia oranges; and such operation has resulted in the development of a system which has proved effective in establishing and maintaining an orderly flow of such oranges to market. Such provisions of the marketing agreement and order, and the method of operation thereunder, are suitable for use in above-parity situations. Particularly applicable are those relating to the development of a marketing policy, the determination of prorate bases, the computation of allotments, and the fixing of the quantity of Valencia oranges that may be handled. Because of the unpredictable nature of short-run factors on the demand for Valencia oranges, it would be necessary to continue as now provided in the marketing agreement and order, weekly regulation of Valencia orange shipments so as to insure a flow of such oranges to market throughout the normal marketing season as will be consistent with the demand therefor. This would be effective in accomplishing the declared policy of the act by avoiding unreasonable fluctuations in the supplies and prices of such oranges and be in the interest of both producers and consumers. However, it should not be the purpose of volume regulation during any period when season average price exceeds the parity level to restrict the total quantity of Valencia oranges to market so as to increase prices. As previously stated, authority to include in marketing agreements and orders provision for regulating the flow of a commodity to market in above-parity price situations, in the interest of producers and consumers, became available subsequent to the time this marketing agreement and order program was made effective on California-Arizona Valencia oranges. Therefore, the definition of "act" as contained in said marketing agreement and order does not include a statutory reference to the amendment by which such authority was added to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937. Since it is proposed to include in the marketing agreement and order authority to regulate the flow of Valencia oranges in above-parity situations, and it is desirable to keep the definitions in such marketing agreement and order current, it is concluded that the marketing agreement and order should be amended to include a reference to such authority as hereinafter set forth.

(10) The marketing agreement and order provide that the Secretary shall, prior to December 15 of each even numbered year, conduct a referendum among the producers of Valencia oranges to ascertain whether continuance of said marketing agreement and order is favored by such producers. The first of these referendums is scheduled to be held in 1956. As the Valencia orange shipping season is from May to November, most of the packing houses will be closed during the referendum period. The majority of producers are affiliated with cooperative associations which vote as units through Boards of Directors. Since the packing houses of these associations will not be operating during the referendum period, it would require the calling of special meetings of the Boards of Directors of several of the cooperative associations in order for them to make decisions regarding the continuance of the marketing agreement and order. If the date by which the referendum is to be held was changed to October 15, this would facilitate consideration of the matter at regular meetings of the cooperative associations, and would contribute to the securing of a more representative vote in the referendum. It is therefore concluded that the marketing agreement and order should be amended to provide for the holding of said referendum prior to October 15 of each even numbered year.

General findings. (1) The marketing agreement, as hereby proposed to be amended, and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act, including the establishment and maintenance of such orderly marketing conditions for Valencia oranges grown in the State of Arizona and designated part of California as will provide, in the interests of producers and consumers, an orderly flow thereof to market throughout its normal marketing season to avoid unreasonable fluctuations in supplies and prices;

(2) The marketing agreement, as hereby proposed to be amended, and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, regulate the handling of Valencia oranges grown in the production area in the same manner as, and are applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in, the marketing agreement upon which hearings have been held;

(3) The marketing agreement, as hereby proposed to be amended, and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, are limited in their application to the smallest regional production area that is practicable, consistently with carrying out the declared policy of the act; and the issuance of several orders applicable to subdivisions of such production area would not effectively carry out the declared policy of the act;

(4) The marketing agreement, as hereby proposed to be amended, and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, prescribe, so far as practicable, such different terms, applicable to different parts of the production area, as are necessary to give due recognition to differences in the production and marketing of the oranges covered thereby; and

(5) All handling of Valencia oranges grown in the production area is in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or directly burdens, obstructs, or affects such commerce.

Rulings on proposed findings and conclusions. February 13, 1956, was fixed as the latest date for the filing of briefs with respect to the facts presented in evidence at the hearing and the findings and conclusions which should be drawn therefrom. No such brief was filed within the prescribed time; hence, no ruling is necessary.

Recommended amendments to the marketing agreement and order. The following amendments to the marketing agreement and order are recommended as the detailed means by which the aforesaid conclusions may be carried out:

1. Delete the provisions of § 922.16 and substitute in lieu thereof the following:

§ 922.16 Carton. "Carton" means the standard container number 58 as defined in section 828.83 of the Agricultural Code of California, as amended, of a capacity of approximately 38½ pounds of oranges, or such other container and capacity as may be established by the committee with the approval of the Secretary, or the equivalent thereof.

2. Delete the provisions of § 922.18 and substitute in lieu thereof the following:

§ 922.18 Carload. "Carload" means a quantity of oranges equivalent to 924 cartons of oranges, or such other quantity of oranges as may be established by the committee with the approval of the Secretary.

3. Amend the provisions of § 922.31 by adding at the end of the section the following: "Whenever specifically authorized or approved by the committee, an alternate member shall be reimbursed for reasonable expenses necessarily incurred by him in attending committee meetings and shall receive compensation at the rate provided in this section, notwithstanding that the committee member for whom he serves as alternate also attends such meetings."

4. Amend the provisions of § 922.32 as follows:

a. Delete the first sentence thereof and substitute in lieu thereof the following: "The committee shall, as soon as practicable after the marketing of the crop is completed, prepare and mail an annual report to the Secretary and to each handler and grower of record."

b. Delete therefrom the words following (d) and substitute in lieu thereof the following: "notice of the time and place of an open meeting, to be held as soon as practicable after the mailing of the annual report, to review the whole record of the operations of this part."

5. Amend the provisions of paragraph (e) of § 922.53 Prorate bases by inserting the following as part of the last sentence in such paragraph: "; and, in the event the change in control of oranges is occasioned by a bona fide transfer of the ownership of the real property on which such oranges were produced, the person gaining the control of such oranges shall have his quantity of oranges available for current shipment adjusted by adding thereto a quantity of oranges equal to that which is so deducted."

6. Amend the provisions of § 922.55 by deleting therefrom the first sentence and substituting in lieu thereof the following: "During any week for which the Secretary has fixed the total quantity of oranges which may be handled, any person who has received an allotment for such week, and whose total allotment is not loaned, or is not required for the repayment of an allotment loan or as a deduction for a prior overshipment, may handle in addition to his allotment an amount of such oranges equivalent to 10 percent of his allotment, or one carload, whichever is the greater."

7. Amend the provisions of § 922.57 by adding a new paragraph (e) as follows:

(e) No allotment may be loaned from one handler to another when such loan is brought about by the payment of a consideration.

8. Amend the provisions of § 922.64 by inserting the following immediately after the first sentence of such section: "When any such size regulation restricts the handling of a portion of a specified size, the quantity of such size that may be handled by a handler during a particular week shall be established as a percentage of (a) the weekly allotment issued to such handler when volume regulation is in effect, and (b) the total weekly volume handled by such handler when volume regulation is not in effect."

9. Insert the following new sentence immediately preceding the last sentence of § 922.52 Issuance of volume regulations: "Such regulation may be made effective, as authorized by the act, irrespective of whether the season average price for Valencia oranges is in excess of the parity price specified therefor in the act."

10. Amend the provisions of § 922.71 by deleting therefrom the word "box" and substituting in lieu thereof the word "carton."

11. Immediately preceding the closing of the parenthesis at the end of § 922.2 Act insert the following: "; 68 Stat. 906, 1047."

12. Amend the provisions of § 922.83 (c) (3) by deleting therefrom the date "December 15" wherever it appears and substituting in lieu thereof the date "October 15."

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[ 18 CFR Part 154 ]

[Docket No. R-153]

RATE SCHEDULES AND TARIFFS

NONACCEPTABILITY OF CONTRACTS BETWEEN PRODUCERS AND INTERSTATE NATURAL-GAS COMPANIES CONTAINING CERTAIN TYPES OF AUTOMATIC ESCALATION AND FAVORED NATION CLAUSES

APRIL 4, 1956.

1. Notice is hereby given that the Commission has under consideration the amendment of its rules in the above-entitled matter.

2. Pursuant to the authority vested in it by the Natural Gas Act (52 Stat. 821) and particularly sections 4 and 16 thereof (15 U. S. C. 717c, 717o) the Commission proposes to amend § 154.93 of its general rules and regulations (18 CFR 154.93) to describe certain types of contracts for the sale of natural gas which will not be accepted for filing as rate schedules pursuant to section 4 of the Natural Gas Act.

3. The Natural Gas Act (15 U. S. C. 717–717w) subjects to Federal Power Commission supervision and control the transportation of natural gas in interstate commerce, the sale in interstate commerce of natural gas for resale, and natural-gas companies engaged in such transportation and sale.

4. Some of the natural gas transported in interstate commerce is purchased under contracts with producing and gathering companies which provide for automatic increases or escalation in charges paid by interstate natural-gas companies whenever the latter companies are permitted an increase in their wholesale rates, or whenever certain index figures are raised. Similar provisions, commonly referred to as "favored nation" clauses, call for an increase in the price paid to a producer by the interstate transporter if it or any other producer in the same field or other area of production receives higher prices from the same or another transporter, or if a bona fide offer to purchase gas has been made to it or any other producer within such areas.

5. It is generally desirable and for the protection of consumers that gas-purchase contracts by interstate pipeline companies when purchasing natural gas for interstate transportation or for later sale at wholesale in interstate commerce, shall cover periods of maximum duration rather than only short limited periods. Nevertheless, contracts such as those described in paragraph 4 are not in the public interest and should not be accepted for filing or given formal recognition merely for the purpose of extending the reserve contract period.

6. It is therefore proposed to amend Part 154, entitled Rate Schedules and Tariffs of Subchapter E, Regulations Under the Natural Gas Act, Chapter I of Title 18, Code of Federal Regulations by adding a proviso to § 154.93 Rate schedule defined to read as follows: "Provided, That after July 1, 1956, no contract will be accepted for filing pursuant to this part, which contains provision for the adjustment of the price of the seller by reason of (a) escalator clauses based on price indices or changes in the price received by the purchaser upon resale, or (b) the payment or offer of payment of higher prices by the purchaser or other purchasers in the same or other producing areas to the same or other sellers."

7. Any interested person may submit to the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., on or before June 1, 1956, data, views, and comments in writing concerning the amendments proposed herein. The Commission will consider these written submittals before acting upon the proposed amendments. An original and 9 copies should be filed of any such submittals.

APRIL 6, 1956.

1. By virtue of authority contained in section 4 of the act of May 24, 1928 (45 Stat. 729; 43 U. S. C. 214), and pursuant to authority delegated by document No. 43, Arizona, effective May 19, 1955 (20 F. R. 3514–15), it is ordered as follows:

The order of the Acting Secretary of the Interior Department dated August 26, 1946 withdrawing certain public lands in Arizona for use by the Department of Commerce in the maintenance of Air Navigation facilities is hereby revoked insofar as it affects the following described land:

GILA AND SALT RIVER MERIDIAN

T. 16½ N., R. 18 W.,
Sec. 26: NW¼NW¼NW¼.

The area described contains 10 acres of public land.

2. The land is located approximately 6 miles south and 2 miles east of Yucca, Mohave County, Arizona, and is accessible by unimproved desert roads from U. S. Highway 66 which passes the land to the east. The topography is level to rolling and supports a sparse vegetative cover of desert shrubs, grasses and weeds. The soil ranges from gravel to sandy and the land is not considered suitable for any agricultural use, except grazing.

3. No application for this land will be allowed under the homestead, desert land, small tract, or any other non-mineral public land law, unless the land is classified as suitable for such application or shall be so classified upon consideration of the application. Any application that is filed will be considered on its merits and the land will not be subject to occupancy or disposition until the application is allowed.

4. This order shall not otherwise become effective to change the status of the land until 10 a. m. May 12, 1956. At that time the land shall become subject to application, location, and selection under applicable public laws, subject to valid existing rights and the provisions of existing withdrawals, and the 91 day preference right filing period for veterans of World War II or the Korean Conflict and others entitled to preference under the Act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279–284), as amended. All valid applications from persons entitled to veterans preference filed prior to 10 a. m. May 12, 1956 will be considered as simultaneously filed at that time. All valid applications from persons entitled to veterans preference filed after 10 a. m. May 12, 1956 will be considered in the order of filing. All valid applications from other persons filed after 10 a. m. May 12, 1956 and prior to 10 a. m. August 11, 1956 will be considered as simultaneously filed at that time. All valid applications filed after 10 a. m. August 11, 1956 will be considered in the order of filing.

5. The land will be opened to location under the United States mining laws beginning 10 a. m. August 11, 1956.

6. Inquiries concerning this land shall be addressed to the Land Office Manager, Bureau of Land Management, Room 251, Main Post Office Building, Phoenix, Arizona.

E. R. TRACITT,
State Lands and Minerals Staff Officer.

COLORADO

NOTICE OF PROPOSED WITHDRAWAL AND RESERVATION OF LANDS

APRIL 5, 1956.

The United States Forest Service of the Department of Agriculture has filed an application, Serial No. Colorado 013229, for the withdrawal of the lands described below, from all forms of appropriation under the public land laws, including the general mining laws but not the mineral leasing laws, subject to existing valid claims.

The applicant desires the land for use as a site for the Buford Ranger Station for use in administration of the Burro Mountain Ranger District, White River National Forest.

For a period of thirty (30) days from the date of publication of this notice, persons having cause may present their objections in writing to the undersigned official of the Bureau of Land Management, Department of the Interior, 357 New Custom House, P. O. Box 1018, Denver 1, Colorado.

If circumstances warrant it, a public hearing will be held at a convenient time and place, which will be announced.

The determination of the Secretary on the application will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. A separate notice will be sent to each interested party of record.

The lands involved in the application are:

SIXTH PRINCIPAL MERIDIAN, COLORADO

T. 1 S., R. 91 W.,
Sec. 4: SE¼SW¼.

Total area: 40 acres.

J. ELLIOTT HALL,
Acting State Supervisor.

WYOMING

CLASSIFICATION ORDER 1

Pursuant to authority delegated to me by Bureau Order No. 41, dated April 21, 1954 (19 F. R. 2473), I hereby classify the following described land in the Jackson Hole area restored to entry and disposition under the nonmineral public land laws by Public Land Order 1077 of February 25, 1955 as amended by Public Land Order 1162 of June 6, 1955:

(1) The land described below is isolated and lacks means of public ingress or egress; in most instances, unfavorable topography, flood hazard, high water table, and general unstableness of the land renders impracticable its classification for agricultural or small-tract purposes. Accordingly, after full consideration of all facts involved, I hereby classify the following described land as suitable for sale at public auction at not less than the appraised value indicated:

SIXTH PRINCIPAL MERIDIAN, WYOMING.

| Township | Range | Section | Subdivision | Acreage | Appraisal per acre | Remarks |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| 41 N. | 116 W. | 6 | Lot 6 | 14.85 | $138.20 | See Note 1. |
| 41 N. | 116 W. | 7 | Lots 1 and 3 | 63.21 | 5.10 | |
| 41 N. | 116 W. | 30 | E½NE¼ | 80.00 | 6.00 | |
| 41 N. | 116 W. | 32 | SW¼SW¼ | 40.00 | 5.00 | |
| 42 N. | 116 W. | 20 | Lot 4 | 22.89 | 51.30 | |
| 42 N. | 116 W. | 29 | Lot 3 | 40.51 | 15.00 | |
| 42 N. | 116 W. | 32 | Lots 2 and 3 | 31.74 | 109.95 | See Note 2. |
| 42 N. | 116 W. | 32 | Lot 6 | .98 | 20.00 | Do. |
| 42 N. | 116 W. | 32 | Lot 7 | 8.49 | 24.00 | Do. |

| 42 N. | 116 W. | 32 | Lot 1 | 27.35 | 20.00 | See Note 3. |
| 42 N. | 116 W. | 32 | Lot 4 | | | |
| 42 N. | 116 W. | 32 | Lot 5 | | | |
| 42 N. | 116 W. | 32 | Lot 8 | 122.46 | 20.00 | |
| 41 N. | 116 W. | 4 | Lot 5 | | | |
| 41 N. | 116 W. | 5 | Lot 1 | | | |
| 42 N. | 116 W. | 34 | Lot 7 | 26.66 | 3.75 | |

NOTE 1: Records disclose possible color of title claim to this tract by Nathan Dodge Estate, % Ellen D. Scott, Trustee, Post Office Box 287, Oquibquit, Maine.
NOTE 2: Records disclose possible color of title claim to these tracts of land by Stanley B. Resor, % Loomis, Lazear & Wilson, Attorneys at Law, Cheyenne, Wyoming.
NOTE 3: Records disclose possible color of title claim to this tract by Clifford P. Hansen, Jackson, Wyoming.

In view of the foregoing, the Manager of the Land Office, Cheyenne, Wyoming, will notify the respective color of title claimants by certified mail, allowing them 30 days from receipt of such notice to file formal color of title claim under the provisions of the act of December 22, 1928 (45 Stat. 1069; 43 U. S. C. 1068, 1068a), as amended, in accordance with procedure provided by Part 140, Title 43, Code of Federal Regulations. Public sale proceedings as to each respective tract of land covered by the above possible color of title claims will be suspended for the 30-day period indicated above and also until final adjudication of any color of title claim therefor filed pursuant to the above notification.

(2) The land described below adjoins the Teton National Forest along the north section line of Section 26 and along the west section lines of Section 26 and 35, T. 42 N., R. 117 W., 6th P. M., Wyoming; the land is isolated and lacks public means of ingress and egress; it varies in slope from 12° to 50°; the soil is very unstable, being rocky and loose, washes readily, and subject to snow slides carrying earth, boulders and other debris; the land is cut by five large draws carrying live water throughout the year; there is a large spring in the W½SW¼ of Section 26, as well as a good stand of Douglas fir (approximately 100,000 MBF) in the N½NE¼ of Section 26; the land is also within the Wilson area which supports a large population of deer, moose and bear as well as game birds.

In view of the foregoing, I hereby classify the following described land as primarily valuable for watershed, timber and wildlife purposes and it is determined that the land is required for retention in Federal ownership for those purposes:

SIXTH PRINCIPAL MERIDIAN, WYOMING

T. 42 N., R. 117 W.,
Sec. 26: Lots 1, 2, 3, 4, N½NE¼, E½NW¼, NE¼SW¼;
Sec. 35: Lots 1, 2, 3, 4.

(3) As to the remaining lands covered by Public Land Order 1077 as amended by Public Land Order 1162, described below (except lots 3 and 4, Section 21, and lot 1, Section 28, T. 42 N., R. 116 W., which are patented lands, and the SW¼SW¼, Section 33, T. 41 N., R. 116 W., which is within the Teton National Forest), additional field work with respect to surveying and mineral examination is required before classification can be completed:

SIXTH PRINCIPAL MERIDIAN, WYOMING

T. 41 N., R. 116 W.,
Sec. 18: Lot 1, SE¼SE¼;
Sec. 19: NE¼NE¼;
Sec. 28: W½NW¼, S½SW¼;
Sec. 29: E½NE¼, W½SE¼, SE¼SE¼;
Sec. 32: NE¼SW¼, N½NE¼;
Sec. 33: N½NW¼.
T. 42 N., R. 116 W.,
Sec. 2: Lot 4;
Sec. 20: Lot 1.

The areas described aggregate approximately 9,680 acres.

The remaining lands, aggregating approximately 10,420 acres, are located in Montrose and Delta Counties, Colorado. They are generally rolling to rough in topography. The soil is sandy loam, heavily interspersed with sandstone rocks and ledges. Some areas are heavy clay or adobe with heavy concentrations of salts. Vegetative cover is generally sparse and none of the lands is suitable for cultivation.

No application for the restored lands may be allowed under the homestead, desert-land, small tract, or any other nonmineral public-land law unless the lands have already been classified as valuable or suitable for such type of application, or shall be so classified upon the consideration of an application. Any application that is filed will be considered on its merits. The lands will not be subject to occupancy or disposition until they have been classified.

Subject to any valid existing rights and the requirements of applicable law, the restored lands are hereby opened to filing of applications, selections, and locations in accordance with the following:

a. Applications and selections under the nonmineral public-land laws may be presented to the Manager mentioned below, beginning on the date of this order. Such applications and selections will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraphs:

(1) Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

(2) All valid applications under the Homestead, Desert Land, and Small Tract Laws by qualified veterans of World War II or of the Korean Conflict, and by others entitled to preference rights under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279-284 as amended), presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on May 12, 1956 will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such preference right applications filed after that hour and before 10:00 a. m. on August 11, 1956, will be governed by the time of filing.

(3) All valid applications and selections under the nonmineral public-land laws, other than those coming under paragraphs (1) and (2) above, presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on August 11, 1956, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such applications and selections filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

b. The lands have been open to applications and offers under the mineral-leasing laws. They will be open to locations under the United States mining laws beginning at 10:00 a. m. on August 11, 1956.

Persons claiming veterans' preference rights must enclose with their applications proper evidence of military or naval service, preferably a complete photostatic copy of the certificate of honorable discharge. Persons claiming preference right based upon valid settlement, statutory preference, or equitable claims must enclose properly corroborated statements in support of their claims. Detailed rules and regulations governing applications which may be filed pursuant to this notice can be found in Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Inquiries concerning the lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Denver, Colorado.

Notice for Filing Objections to Order Withdrawing Public Lands for the Humboldt Drainage Project, Nevada

Notice is hereby given that for a period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice, persons having cause to object to the terms of the above order withdrawing certain public lands in the State of Nevada for use in connection with the Humboldt Drainage Project, may present their objections to the Secretary of the Interior. Such objections should be in writing, addressed to the Secretary of the Interior, and filed in duplicate in the Department of the Interior, Washington 25, D. C.

In case any objection is filed and the nature of the opposition is such as to warrant it, a public hearing will be held at a convenient time and place, which will be announced, where opponents to the order may state their views and where the proponents of the order can explain its purpose, intent and extent. Should any objection be filed, notice of the determination by the Secretary as to whether the order should be rescinded, modified or let stand will be given to all interested parties of record and the general public.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

Civil Aeronautics Administration

REGIONAL ADMINISTRATORS

DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY REGARDING COMPLIANCE WITH AIRPORT OPERATION AGREEMENTS

1. Purpose. The purpose of this delegation is to provide the Regional Administrators with general authority (a) to consent to or approve the leasing and use for non-airport purposes of certain public airport properties, and the conveyance or grant of rights of way and licenses with respect to certain public airports, and (b) to release certain surplus airport properties from the terms, conditions, reservations and restrictions of surplus airport property instruments of disposal.

2. Authority. This delegation is made pursuant to authority vested in the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics under Reorganization Plan No. 5 of 1950 (64 Stat. 1263; 5 U. S. C. 133z-15) and Department of Commerce Department Orders Nos. 86 (19 F. R. 2098) and 115 (15 F. R. 3195).

3. Definitions:

3.1 Airport operation agreement. The term "airport operation agreement" as used in this delegation means either:

(a) An agreement entered into under the program for the development of civil landing areas or the program for the development of landing areas for national defense conducted by the Civil Aeronautics Administration during the period 1940 through 1946 (generally known as an AP-4 agreement);

(b) A grant agreement executed pursuant to the Federal Airport Act (49 U. S. C. 1101); or

(c) A surplus airport property instrument of disposal issued pursuant to section 13 of the Surplus Property Act of 1944 (58 Stat. 765; 50 U. S. C. app. 1622).

3.2 Regional Administrator. The term "Regional Administrator" as used in this delegation means the Regional Administrator of any Civil Aeronautics Administration Region or any person serving in that position in an acting capacity under proper authorization.

3.3 Chief, Airports Division. The term "Chief, Airports Division" as used in this delegation means the Chief, Airports Division, in the Civil Aeronautics Administration Regional Office or any person serving in that position in an acting capacity under proper authorization.

4. Delegation. Authority is delegated to Regional Administrators in accordance with the following provisions of this section.

4.1 Lease or use for non-airport purposes. Each Regional Administrator is hereby delegated authority to consent to or approve, conditionally or unconditionally, the leasing or use for non-airport purposes of portions or facilities of an airport subject to an airport operation agreement, thereby modifying or amending the airport operation agreement to the extent that such lease or use is otherwise inconsistent or in conflict with the obligations of the airport owner under the agreement, and to execute such documents as are necessary to evidence such consent or approval: Provided, That in each case the Regional Administrator first determines

(a) That the portions or facilities so leased or used will not be required for airport purposes during the period of such lease or use, and

(b) That the use or exercise of the rights granted by the lease will not materially and adversely affect the use, operation, maintenance, development, or improvement of the airport;

And provided further, That such consent to or approval of any such lease or use of airport property that is subject to a surplus airport property instrument of disposal shall not be construed as releasing the property involved from the application of any other terms and conditions of the instrument, including the provisions of the national emergency use clause of such instrument.

4.2 Easements. Each Regional Administrator is hereby delegated authority to consent to or approve, conditionally or unconditionally, the conveyance or grants of rights of way (easements) and licenses for streets, roadways, utility lines and other pipe, pole and wire lines, and drainage and irrigation facilities on, over and under lands subject to an airport operation agreement, thereby modifying or amending the airport operation agreement to the extent that such conveyance or grant is otherwise inconsistent or in conflict with the obligations of the airport owner under the agreement, and to execute such documents as are necessary to evidence such consent or approval: provided, That in each case the Regional Administrator first determines that exercise of the rights granted by the right of way or license will not adversely and materially interfere with the use, operation, maintenance, development, or improvement of the airport.

4.3 Leases for airport purposes. Each Regional Administrator is hereby delegated authority to examine and approve leases and use agreements as to their conformity with the obligations of the owners of airports under airport operation agreements.

4.4 Surplus structures and facilities. Each Regional Administrator is hereby delegated authority to execute such instruments of release or correction or other instruments as may be necessary to release from any or all of the terms, conditions, reservations, and restrictions of surplus airport property instruments of disposal:

(a) Any structures, facilities or items of personal property (except electric, water, gas, heating, sewerage, aircraft fuel and other similar utility systems and the component parts thereof) which, in the opinion of the Regional Administrator, have outlived their useful life or deteriorated beyond economical repair, notwithstanding the performance of such maintenance work by the airport owner as he could reasonably have been expected to perform in maintaining the property in accordance with the applicable instrument of disposal;

(b) Any structures or facilities which, in the opinion of the Regional Administrator, must be removed to permit the accomplishment of needed airport improvement or expansion; and

(c) Any equipment such as machinery, machine tools, and vehicular equipment (other than component parts of electric, water, gas, heating, sewerage, aircraft fuel and other similar utility systems) which, in the opinion of the Regional Administrator, is no longer needed for the purpose for which it was conveyed or, because of size, type or other reason, is uneconomical to use for the purpose for which it was conveyed.

4.5 Surplus property industrial restriction. Each Regional Administrator is hereby delegated authority to execute such instruments as may be necessary to effect the removal of record of any restriction against use of structures for industrial purposes contained in any surplus airport property instrument of disposal.

5. Redelegation. Each Regional Administrator is authorized to redelegate the authorities delegated in section 4, above, to the Chief, Airports Division, of his Regional Office, but the Chief, Airports Division, may not redelegate this authority to any subordinate.

6. Effective date. This delegation of authority is effective February 20, 1956.

[SEAL] C. J. LOWEN,
Administrator of Civil Aeronautics.

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[Docket No. 7596]

DALLAS TO THE WEST

NOTICE OF PREHEARING CONFERENCE

In the matter of the adequacy of trunkline air service between Dallas, Texas, and the West.

By direction of the Board, notice is hereby given that a prehearing conference in Docket No. 7596, the complaint and petition of the City and Chamber of Commerce of Dallas, Texas, in the matter of adequacy of trunkline air service between Dallas and the West, is assigned to be held on May 7, 1956, 10:00 a. m., e. d. s. t., in Room E-224, Temporary Building No. 5, Sixteenth Street and Constitution Avenue NW., Washington, D. C., before an Examiner of the Board.

Any motions for consolidation of applications in this proceeding should be filed on or before April 26, 1956.

Counsel will be expected to state the views of their clients with respect to the issues discussed at this conference.

Dated at Washington, D. C., April 6, 1956.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. E-6664]

NEW YORK STATE ELECTRIC & GAS CORP. ET AL.

AMENDMENT TO ORDER INSTITUTING RATE INVESTIGATION

In the matters of New York State Electric & Gas Corporation, Northern Pennsylvania Power Company, and Pennsylvania Electric Company; Docket No. E-6664.

By motion filed March 23, 1956, Pennsylvania Electric Company (Penelec), has requested that upon consummation of the merger into it of Northern Pennsylvania Power Company (Northern Penn), the Commission's order issued March 9, 1956, instituting a rate investigation, be amended so that all issues relating solely to Penelec's Rate Schedule FPC No. 13 for the sale of energy to Northern Penn shall be eliminated from the proceeding.

Penelec relates in its motion that all of its outstanding common stock is owned by Associated Electric Company (Aelec), whose outstanding securities in turn are owned by General Public Utilities (GPU), and that both GPU and Aelec are public utility holding companies registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935. It relates further that Northern Penn's outstanding common stock is owned by GPU, and that Northern Penn will be merged into Penelec within 60 days, pursuant to an order of the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission dated September 8, 1953, and an order of the SEC dated March 2, 1956 (Holding Company Act Release No. 13116), although before the consummation of the merger technical amendments will be necessary to both the Pennsylvania Commission and SEC orders and approval of the New York State Public Service Commission will be required for acquisition by Penelec of the capital stock of The Waverly Electric Light and Power Company, a subsidiary of Northern Penn.

In accordance with its motion, Penelec has filed a notice of cancellation of its Rate Schedule FPC No. 13, effective on the date of the merger, and states that the notice of cancellation will be supplemented upon consummation of the merger by due notice to the Commission to that effect.

The Commission finds: It is appropriate in the administration of the Federal Power Act to amend the Commission's order issued March 9, 1956, in the manner specified below:

The Commission orders: The Commission's order issued March 9, 1956, in the above-entitled proceeding, is hereby amended so that upon (1) due cancellation of Penelec's Rate Schedule FPC No. 13 by notice given in accordance with applicable regulations and (2) the consummation of the merger of Northern Penn into Penelec, all issues relating solely to the question of the lawfulness of Penelec's Rate Schedule FPC No. 13 will be eliminated from the proceeding. Penelec and Northern Penn shall not, however, be relieved of the obligation to make a showing of the facts called for by paragraph B (3) of the Commission's order.

Issued: April 6, 1956.

By the Commission.

[Docket No. E-6672]

SIERRA PACIFIC POWER CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

APRIL 6, 1956.

Take notice that on April 2, 1956, an application was filed with the Federal Power Commission, pursuant to section 204 of the Federal Power Act, by Sierra Pacific Power Company, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Maine, and doing business in the States of California and Nevada, with its principal business office at Reno, Nevada, seeking an order authorizing the issuance of 80,500 shares of Preferred Stock, par value $50 per share; 62,576 shares of Common Stock, par value $7.50 per share and promissory notes in the aggregate face value of not exceeding $4,025,000.

Applicant requests an exemption from the competitive bidding requirements of the Commission's rules and regulations with respect to the issuance of said Preferred and Common Stocks. Applicant proposes to offer the 80,500 shares of Preferred Stock in exchange for the outstanding 6 percent Preferred Stock on the basis of 2.3 shares of New Preferred Stock for each one share of 6 Percent Preferred Stock. Any fractional interest will be settled in cash. Applicant will call the 6 Percent Preferred Stock for redemption at the same time it makes the exchange offer. Applicant proposes to offer the 62,576 shares of Common Stock pro rata to its Common Stockholders after exchange or redemption of all 6 Percent Preferred Stock, at a subscription price per share of not less than 90 percent of the bid price of the Common Stock of the Applicant in the over-the-counter market at the close of business the day next preceding the fixing of said subscription price by its Board of Directors, pursuant to preemptive rights of Common Stockholders on the basis of one share for each 10 shares of Common Stock held of record with an over-subscription privilege subject to allotment. Rights to subscribe will be evidenced by transferable subscription warrants. The unexchanged balance of the New Preferred Stock will be sold to underwriters and the shares so exchanged and sold will be issued on or about June 1, 1956. The Common Stock is proposed to be issued in June 1956, or such other time as determined by Applicant's Board of Directors. The promissory notes will be payable to such bank or banks from which Applicant may borrow funds up to but not exceeding $4,025,000 (in addition to the $3,500,000 previously authorized by the Commission in Dockets Nos. E–6630 and E–6659) face amount at any one time outstanding for a period not exceeding forty days from the date of original issue. Said notes will bear interest at a rate per annum not in excess of one-quarter of one percent over the prime rate in effect (in New York banks).

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before the 26th day of April 1956, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., a petition or protest in accordance with the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. The application is on file and available for public inspection.

EL PASO NATURAL GAS CO.

ORDER FIXING DATES FOR FILING OF STATEMENTS IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO DISMISS AND FOR FILING OF ANSWERS OR OBJECTIONS TO MOTION FOR AN ORDER REOPENING THE RECORD AND FOR RECEIPT OF EVIDENCE AND FIXING DATE FOR ORAL ARGUMENT

On March 29, 1956, in the course of hearing herein, all parties present stipulated to a statement of proposed settlement of this proceeding, excepting the Public Utilities Commission of the State of California, the Attorney General of the State of California, and the City of Los Angeles, California, each of which is an intervener.

On March 29, 1956, also in the course of hearing, the Public Utilities Commission of the State of California moved that this proceeding be dismissed on the ground that the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in United Gas Pipe Line Co. v. Mobile Gas Service Corp., 350 U. S. (decided February 27, 1956), "may apply to the facts in issue." The Public Utilities Commission also indicated a desire to state its motion in writing to be filed with a supporting statement.

The stipulated statement of proposed settlement and the motion to dismiss have been duly transmitted to the Commission by the Presiding Examiner.

On April 5, 1956, Commission staff counsel filed with the Commission a motion for an order reopening the record in this proceeding and providing that there be made a part of the record all service agreements filed by El Paso Natural Gas Company since November 20, 1953, for sales of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission and all superseded and replaced service agreements of El Paso.

The Commission orders:

(A) The Public Utilities Commission of the State of California may file on or before April 16, 1956, a written motion to dismiss this proceeding and a statement in support thereof or a statement in support of the oral motion heretofore made.

(B) Answers or objections to the aforementioned motion of Commission staff counsel, as filed on April 5, 1956, shall be filed on or before April 16, 1956.

(C) Oral argument will be heard on April 20, 1956, at 10:00 a. m., e. s. t., in a hearing room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C. with respect to (i) the aforesaid motion to dismiss and (ii) the motion for an order reopening the record and for the receipt of evidence: Provided, however, That argument with respect to the last-mentioned motion will be heard only if an answer or objection thereto is filed.

(D) Parties desiring to participate in the argument shall on or before April 18, 1956, notify the Secretary of the Commission of such intention and of the time requested in which to present argument.

Issued: April 6, 1956.

By the Commission.

[Docket No. G–2503 etc.]

TEXAS EASTERN TRANSMISSION CORP. AND TEXAS EASTERN PENN-JERSEY TRANSMISSION CORP.

ORDER REOPENING, CONSOLIDATING PROCEEDINGS, AND PRESCRIBING PROCEDURE

In the matters of Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation, Docket Nos. G–2503, G–9784, G–9785, G–9786 and Texas Eastern Penn-Jersey Transmission Corporation, Docket No. G–9787.

The United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia, on March 8, 1956, set aside our order accompanying Opinion No. 282 in Docket No. G–2503,[1] which permitted Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation (Texas Eastern) to retire from natural gas service that portion of its original Little Inch system which extends from Baytown, Texas, to Moundsville, West Virginia, and authorized Texas Eastern to construct facilities to replace the service provided by the Little Inch. These included a pipe line connecting its existing system in the vicinity of Beaumont, Texas, with its existing 30-inch pipeline at Kosciusko, Mississippi, the installation of compression facilities on said new pipeline, and the installation of new and additional compression on its existing 30-inch pipeline between Kosciusko and Connellsville, Pennsylvania, at which point said 30-inch line interconnects with Texas Eastern's Oakford Storage Pool and its system extending east to the Eastern Seaboard. On March 27, 1956, we received from the Court of Appeals a certified copy of the Opinion and Judgment remanding the case to us with directions to reopen the record in Docket No. G–2503 for the purpose of conducting further proceedings consistent with its opinion.

The Court of Appeals, in its opinion, required us, in determining the ultimate public convenience and necessity of the proposed project, to consider:

(1) Relevant evidence concerning "the question of future expansion as affecting the public convenience and necessity."[2] These questions as stated in the Court's opinion relate to the economic effect of the retirement of Texas Eastern's Little Inch line upon future expansion of the Texas Eastern gas system.

(2) Relevant evidence concerning (a) the effect of the proposed reconversion of the Little Inch upon petroleum products carriers, (b) the claims that reconversion may violate the national policy against monopoly expressed by the anti-trust laws, and (c) national defense problems.[3] The Court directed us to consider these questions as affecting public convenience and necessity in connection with the proposed conversion of the Little Inch to a products system even if we should find that the public convenience and necessity permitted the proposed retirement of the Little Inch from the standpoint of its natural gas service.

On July 1, 1955, we issued an order amending our order issuing a certificate to Texas Eastern, in Docket No. G–2503, and authorized Texas Eastern to construct a 30-inch pipeline between Beaumont, Texas, and Kosciusko, Mississippi, instead of the 24-inch pipeline previously authorized. On August 12, 1955, we granted a limited rehearing relating to said amendatory order. Such rehearing was held on September 14 and 16, 1955. Disposition of this matter has been withheld pending the outcome of the litigation above described.

[2] Op. cit. supra., note 1, at p. 10.
[3] Op. cit. supra., note 1, at p. 18.

On December 16, 1955, Texas Eastern filed, in Docket No. G–9784, a request for authority to expand its natural gas system by approximately 250,000 Mcf per day, and to lease and operate other new facilities proposed to be constructed by Texas Eastern Penn-Jersey Transmission Corporation (Penn-Jersey) in Docket No. G–9787. The purpose is to satisfy alleged consumer demands for that quantity of gas.

Briefly, the facilities requested by Texas Eastern are:

(1) A new 30-inch pipeline system extending south from Beaumont, Texas, to the United States-Mexican border near McAllen, Texas; and,

(2) New and additional compression on its 30-inch pipeline extending from Beaumont to Kosciusko, which we authorized in Docket No. G–2503, and new and additional compression and approximately 530 miles of 30-inch loop line on its existing 30-inch line between Kosciusko and Connellsville.

Texas Eastern also applied, on December 16, 1955, in Docket No. G–9785, for authorization to import natural gas from Mexico, and, in Docket No. G–9786, for a permit to import such gas in accordance with Executive Order No. 10485. Such imported gas allegedly represents a substantial portion of the gas supply said to be available for its 250,000 Mcf per day expansion.

Penn-Jersey is a subsidiary of Texas Eastern which owns but does not operate a pipe line system interconnected with Texas Eastern's system. Texas Eastern operates this system as an integral part of its own system. Penn-Jersey's application, in Docket No. G–9787, requests authority to construct certain facilities to be leased to and operated by Texas Eastern, and to be used by Texas Eastern to transport and deliver that portion of the additional gas moving East from Texas Eastern's Oakford Storage Pool in western Pennsylvania to the Eastern Seaboard.

Pursuant to our notice dated February 16, 1956, these four dockets were consolidated and hearings were held on March 19–23, 1956, at which Texas Eastern presented its complete direct case. The Examiner granted a recess until April 16, 1956, to permit the parties to prepare for cross-examination.

Upon receipt of the certified opinion and judgment from the Court of Appeals, we directed the Examiner to certify to us the record in Docket Nos. G–9784, et al., in order that we might determine the nature and extent of the relationship, if any, between the remanded Docket No. G–2503 and said Docket Nos. G–9784, et al.

We find the evidence tendered and to be tendered in Docket G–9784, et al. to be material to our determination of the issues in Docket G–2503 for the following reasons: (1) The Court of Appeals directed us to inquire into the relative cost of carrying a given quantity of gas from Texas to the Appalachian region on alternative hypotheses: (i) That Little Inch is a part of the system, (ii) that Little Inch has been abandoned; (2) if we grant a certificate in G–9784, the evidence of gas operations heretofore tendered in G–2503 will be of little value since it no longer will present an accurate picture of Texas Eastern's anticipated gas operations; (3) Texas Eastern in G–9784 proposes to employ for expansion purposes the facilities authorized in G–2503 even if we should deny permission to abandon the Little Inch in G–2503; (4) the looping facilities proposed by Texas Eastern in G–9784 are admittedly excessive if we deny permission to abandon in G–2503. Texas Eastern has already tendered evidence in G–9784 et al. of a comparative case retaining the Little Inch in gas service and employing what it refers to as minimum looping facilities. Thus, if a certificate is to be granted in G–9784, the issue in G–2503 shifts from a comparison between (a) a system employing the Little Inch and a system eliminating the Little Inch and employing the facilities authorized in G–2503, to a comparison between (b) a system employing the Little Inch and the minimum looping facilities and a system eliminating the Little Inch and employing all the looping facilities proposed in G–9784.

Further, the direct evidence already offered by Texas Eastern in Docket No. G–9784 et al., comprises evidence of the type which the Court of Appeals has directed us to consider in Docket G–2503. We therefore determine that the proceedings should be consolidated.

We are fully cognizant of the fact that consolidation of these dockets will extend the time required for hearings and for our consideration of the issues. We also are aware that Texas Eastern's customers assert an urgent need for the approximately 250,000 Mcf per day of additional gas proposed to be sold herein and for prompt decision by us in order that they may attempt to replace this gas by gas from other sources or restrict additional sales before the heating season of 1957–58 if this certificate should be denied. In addition, certain of Texas Eastern's gas supply contracts are subject to cancellation if it has not secured a certificate of public convenience and necessity from us by specified dates, the earliest being September 1, 1956.

We do not now make any finding regarding the validity of the asserted demands for additional gas. We do find, however, that it is incumbent upon us to pass upon the propriety of those demands and Texas Eastern's proposal to supply them at the earliest possible moment, and prevent if possible the denial of satisfaction of those asserted consumer needs by reason of the mere passage of time. Proper discharge of our duties under the Natural Gas Act requires us to specify procedures designed to secure the most expeditious disposition possible of these consolidated matters, preserving at the same time the rights of all parties.

Texas Eastern asserts, and has tendered evidence designed to prove, that its expansion program and the facilities heretofore authorized in Docket G–2503 are required by the public convenience and necessity even though it is not permitted ultimately to retire the Little Inch from gas service. Thus its Exhibit No. 2 presents a system design reflecting the facilities prayed for in the applications assuming the retirement of the Little Inch, and its Exhibit No. 52 presents a system design reflecting only certain "minimum looping facilities"[5] between Beaumont and Connellsville, assuming the Little Inch is retained in gas service. The proposed pipe line extension to the Mexican Border and Penn-Jersey facilities are the same in either event. Evidence pertaining to the capital and operating costs of the system under each assumption likewise has been tendered.

While the opinion of the Court of Appeals requires that we give concurrent consideration to the comparative evidence presented by Texas Eastern and others under each of the above assumptions in determining the economic effect of the retirement of the Little Inch upon future expansion of the Texas Eastern system, section 7 (e) of the Natural Gas Act clearly empowers us to authorize "the whole or any part" of the facilities requested. We see no valid objection to our considering the natural gas aspects of this comparative evidence separately from the consideration the Court directs us to give to the public policy questions relating to Texas Eastern's proposed products operation, since authorization of only the minimum facilities described above would require the retention of the Little Inch in gas service and prevent its use for products operation.

It will be contrary to the interests of the public and the parties for us to hear protracted and controversial issues relating to products operations if we are to deny the abandonment on other grounds in any event. It is clear that if any certificate is to be issued before we have heard and determined the said question relating to products operations, it must be limited to such facilities as are required while the Little Inch is retained in gas service.

We shall, therefore, direct that these consolidated proceedings be conducted in two parts, as hereinafter ordered. In Part A the record will be limited to the issues raised by Texas Eastern's proposals in all consolidated dockets, insofar and only insofar as they relate to Texas Eastern's gas service, without consideration of the public policy questions related to Texas Eastern's proposed products service. Part B shall relate solely to the public policy matters arising out of the proposed operation of the Little Inch as a carrier of petroleum products. Upon conclusion of the hearing on Part A, the record shall be certified to us in order to determine:

(1) Whether the public convenience and necessity require:

(a) Authorization to make the proposed sales to the proposed customers as requested in Docket No. G–9784;

(b) The proposed importation of gas from Mexico, as requested in Docket Nos. G–9785 and G–9786, as being not inconsistent with the public interest;

[4] Op. cit. supra, note 1, at p. 17.

[5] Described in Ex. No. 54.

(c) The construction and operation of (i) the facilities previously authorized by our order and amendatory order in Docket No. G–2503, (ii) Texas Eastern's proposed "pipeline extension" to the Mexican Border and the proposed "minimum looping facilities" requested and described in Docket No. G–9784, and (iii) the proposed "Penn-Jersey facilities" requested in Docket No. G–9787; and,

(2) Whether, insofar as Texas Eastern's gas operations only are concerned, the public convenience and necessity permit the retirement of the Little Inch as requested in Docket No. G–2503, and require the construction and operation of the full looping facilities requested in Docket No. G–9784.

In the event our determination under point (2) above should be adverse to Texas Eastern, there will be no need for further proceedings. If our determination should be favorable to Texas Eastern, we shall order a resumption of the hearings to consider any proper evidence which may be offered by any proper party concerning the effect of Texas Eastern's proposed products service, pursuant to the instructions of the Court of Appeals.

The Commission further finds:

(1) The applications filed by Texas Eastern and Penn-Jersey in Docket Nos. G–9784, G–9785, G–9786, and G–9787, the case remanded to us by the Court of Appeals in Docket No. G–2503, and the limited rehearing in Docket No. G–2503 are interrelated and should be consolidated for hearing.

(2) It is necessary and appropriate in carrying out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the aforesaid matters be heard as expeditiously as possible, and due and timely execution of our functions imperatively and unavoidably requires that the procedure hereinafter prescribed should be followed so that our decision may be rendered with reasonable dispatch.

(3) Good cause exists to reopen the proceedings in Docket No. G–2503 and to consolidate said proceedings with the proceedings in Docket Nos. G–9784, G–9785, G–9786, and G–9787.

(4) It is reasonable and in the public interest and good cause exists for fixing the date of hearing in the proceeding in Docket No. G–2503 less than 15 days after publication of this Order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The Commission orders:

(A) The proceedings in Docket No. G–2503 be and the same hereby are reopened and consolidated with the proceedings in Docket Nos. G–9784, G–9785, G–9786, and G–9787 for the purpose of hearing.

(B) The record in the proceedings in Docket No. G–2503 and the record in the proceedings in Docket Nos. G–9784, G–9785, G–9786, and G–9787 be and the same are hereby remanded to the Examiner.

(C) The further proceedings in Docket No. G–2503 be held concurrently with and as a part of the continuing hearings in Docket Nos. G–9784, G–9785, G–9786, and G–9787, commencing on April 16, 1956.

(D) The procedure in Part A at the consolidated hearing referred to above shall be as follows:

(i) Applicants shall present any further direct testimony they may wish to offer as a result of this order: Provided, That applicants shall notify the Examiner and all parties of their election, and apprise them of the general nature of any such evidence not less than three days before the resumption of the hearing.

(ii) All parties shall be afforded an opportunity to cross-examine Applicants' witnesses who have presented direct testimony in any of the consolidated dockets, limited to relevant and material matters affecting or affected by Texas Eastern's gas operations: Provided, That if any party wishes to cross-examine Texas Eastern witnesses who appeared in Docket No. G–2503 but not in Docket Nos. G–9784, et al., with respect to matters permitted by the Opinion of the Court of Appeals and by this Order, such party shall request recall of such witnesses promptly upon the resumption of hearings herein, and the Examiner shall pass upon such request.

(iii) At the conclusion of such cross-examination, other parties shall be afforded an opportunity, in such order as the Examiner may prescribe, to present evidence relevant and material to Texas Eastern's gas operations, subject to such requirements as to advance service of exhibits and testimony as the Examiner may consider reasonably necessary to expedite the hearing. Following each party's presentation, the other parties shall be afforded an opportunity to cross-examine.

(iv) After completion of such cross-examination, Applicants shall be afforded an opportunity to present rebuttal testimony, and their witnesses may be cross-examined with respect thereto.

(v) The Examiner shall conduct the hearings in as expeditious a manner as possible, with due regard for the rights of all parties. To that end, the Examiner, if circumstances arising during the hearing render it desirable in his opinion to do so, may vary the order of presentation specified above.

(vi) Upon completion of all of the testimony referred to in subparagraphs (i) through (iv) hereof, the record shall be closed and certified to the Commission for decision as described hereinabove.

(E) Insofar as facilities are concerned, our decision will not authorize in any event more than the construction and operation of the minimum facilities required during the time the Little Inch is retained in gas service. If further hearings are required after our decision, we shall provide for retention of jurisdiction and set the date for such hearings in our order effectuating that decision.

Issued: April 5, 1956.

By the Commission.

EL PASO NATURAL GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND DATE OF HEARING

APRIL 6, 1956.

Take notice that El Paso Natural Gas Company (Applicant), a Delaware corporation with principal place of business in El Paso Natural Gas Company Building, Texas, at Stanton Streets, El Paso, Texas, filed on October 24, 1955, as supplemented on January 5, 1956, an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing Applicant to render service as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully represented in the application which is on file with the Commission and open for public inspection.

Applicant proposes to construct and operate certain natural gas facilities as hereinafter described which are necessary and incident to the delivery and sale of natural gas by Applicant to (1) the Natural Gas Service Company of Arizona for resale by said company to the Picket Post Inn, (2) to the Arizona Public Service Compay for resale by said company to the Ligier Marble Quarry, and (3) to the Arizona Public Service Company for resale by said company in the Globe-Miami area of Gila County, Arizona to Miami Copper Company and the Hoopes Lime Kiln, together with a small number of domestic users.

Applicant proposes to construct and place in service:

(1) A main line tap with regulator, to be known as Picket Post Inn Tap, and appurtenances necessary for delivery of gas to Natural Gas Service Company of Arizona for resale to Picket Post Inn. The tap is to be located on Applicant's 6-inch O. D. Superior, Arizona lateral at approximately Mile Post 43 minus 1,050 feet in Pinal County, Arizona. The estimated cost of this installation is $275.

(2) A main line tap with regulator, to be known as Ligier Marble Quarry Tap, and appurtenances necessary for delivery of gas to Arizona Public Service Company for resale to Ligier Marble Quarry. The Tap is to be located on Applicant's 26-inch California main line at approximately Mile Post 427 in Cochise County, Arizona. The estimated cost of this installation is $275.

(3) A main line tap and a 4-inch single run orifice meter station to be known as Hoopes Lime City Gate and appurtenances necessary for delivery of gas to Arizona Public Service Company for resale to Miami Copper Company at Copper Cities, Arizona and to Hoopes Lime Kiln located approximately 5.5 miles north of Miami, Arizona together with a small number of domestic users. The tap is to be located on Applicant's 6⅝-inch O. D. Globe-Miami lateral in Gila County, Arizona. The estimated cost of this installation is $5,082.

The combined total estimated cost of the aforesaid installations is $5,632 and will be financed entirely from Applicant's current working funds.

The estimated gas requirements of the foregoing projects in Mcf for the first three years are as follows:

| | First year | Second year | Third year |
|---|---|---|---|
| Picket Post Inn: | | | |
| Annual | 700 | 700 | 700 |
| Peak day | 2.4 | 2.4 | 2.4 |

| Annual | 201,021 | 449,881 | 455,719 |
| Peak day | 890.3 | 1,529.0 | 1,574.9 |

The proposed service will be rendered by Applicant pursuant to its A–1 (domestic) and B–1 (industrial) Firm Service Rate Schedules on file with the Commission.

This matter is one that should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on Monday, May 14, 1956, at 9:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a hearing room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a noncontested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before April 24, 1956. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

AMERE GAS UTILITIES CO. ET AL.

ORDER FIXING DATE FOR ORAL ARGUMENT

In the matters of Amere Gas Utilities Company, Atlantic Seaboard Corporation, Central Kentucky Natural Gas Company, United Fuel Gas Company, The Ohio Fuel Gas Company, Cumberland and Allegheny Gas Company, Home Gas Company, The Manufacturers Light and Heat Company, and Natural Gas Company of West Virginia; Docket No. G-6358.

On February 29, 1956, the Presiding Examiner issued a decision in the above matter. Exceptions thereto were filed by the Public Service Commission of Wisconsin, sixteen Kentucky intervenor municipalities, and Commission Staff. The Kentucky municipalities, with their exceptions filed March 21, 1956, also filed a motion for opportunity to present oral argument before the Commission in support of their exceptions.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and appropriate in carrying out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that oral argument be had before the Commission in this matter as hereinafter ordered and provided.

The Commission orders:

(A) Oral argument shall be had before the Commission on May 15, 1956 at 10:00 a. m., e. d. s. t., in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street, NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by the Exceptions to the Presiding Examiner's Decision.

(B) Those parties to this proceeding who intend to participate in the oral argument shall notify the Secretary of the Commission on or before May 4, 1956 of such intention and the time required for presentation of their argument.

Issued: April 6, 1956.

By the Commission.

[Docket No. IT-5460]

MONTANA DAKOTA UTILITIES CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR AUTHORIZATION TO EXPORT ELECTRIC ENERGY

APRIL 6, 1956.

Notice is hereby given that Montana Dakota Utilities Co. (Applicant), incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware, qualified to do business as a foreign corporation in the States of Minnesota, Montana, North Dakota, South Dakota and Wyoming, with its principal place of business in Minneapolis, Minnesota, filed an application on March 30, 1956, requesting an increase in the authorization to export electric energy from the United States to Canada, heretofore granted pursuant to the provisions of section 202 (e) of the Federal Power Act, by order of the Commission issued May 28, 1954, so as to permit Applicant to (1) export up to 500,000 kwh per year at a maximum transmission rate of not to exceed 175 kw at North Portal, Saskatchewan, Canada, and (2) up to 40,000 kwh per year at a maximum transmission rate of 15 kw at Northgate, Saskatchewan, Canada. The application does not request an increase in the authorization granted by the aforementioned Commission order to export up to 5,000 kwh per year at a maximum transmission rate of 10 kw at Elmore, Saskatchewan, Canada, and up to 15,000 kwh per year at a maximum transmission rate of 10 kw at Marienthal, Saskatchewan, Canada.

The amounts of electric energy which Applicant proposes to export, like those heretofore exported pursuant to the authorization heretofore granted in the above-entitled matter, are to be transmitted to Canada from four points within the State of North Dakota over four 2.3 kv lines which are covered by a Presidential Permit signed by the President of the United States on May 18, 1942, and released to the Applicant by Commission order entered July 21, 1942, in the above docket; all as more fully appears in the application on file with the Commission.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to the application should on or before the 25th day of April 1956 file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., a petition or protest in accordance with the Commission's general rules and regulations. The application is on file with the Commission for public inspection.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 70-3450]

LOWELL ELECTRIC LIGHT CORP.

ORDER AUTHORIZING ISSUANCE AND SALE OF PRINCIPAL AMOUNT OF DEBENTURES

MARCH 28, 1956.

The Lowell Electric Light Corporation ("Lowell"), an electric utility subsidiary of New England Electric System ("NEES"), a registered holding company, has filed an application and an amendment thereto with this Commission pursuant to section 6 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("the act") and Rule U-42 (b) (2) thereunder with respect to the following proposed transactions:

Lowell proposes to issue for cash on or before March 30, 1956, to The First National Bank of Boston $6,000,000 aggregate principal amount of debentures, due in three years and bearing an interest rate of 3½ percent for the first year and 3¾ percent thereafter to maturity. It is stated that the present prime interest rate for short-term notes is 3½ percent per annum and that the proposed debentures are prepayable, in whole or in part, at any time without premium unless prepaid with funds obtained from another banking organization at a lower interest rate, in which case a premium of 1 percent must be paid.

Lowell states that the proceeds derived from the proposed debentures will be used to pay short-term bank borrowings presently outstanding in the aggregate principal amount of $5,700,000 and due March 30, 1956, and to pay for capitalizable expenditures or to reimburse its treasury therefor. According to the application it is contemplated that during 1956 Lowell will be involved in a merger with certain other subsidiaries of NEES and it is expected that the resultant company will issue bonds the proceeds of which will be used, in part, to retire the debentures proposed to be issued by Lowell.

The application states that the issue and sale of the debentures are solely for the purpose of financing the business of Lowell and have been expressly authorized by the Massachusetts Department of Public Utilities, the State commission of the State in which Lowell is organized and doing business. The application further states that incidental services in connection with the proposed issuance and sale of said debentures will be performed at cost by New England Power Service Company, an affiliated service company, such cost being estimated not to exceed $2,400, with the total expenses in connection with the proposed issuance and sale of the debentures, including original issue stamp taxes of $6,600, being estimated not to exceed $9,000. The application further states that no other State commission and no Federal commission, other than this Commission, has jurisdiction over the proposed transactions.

Lowell requests that the Commission's order herein become effective forthwith upon issuance.

Due notice having been given of the filing of said application, and a hearing not having been requested of or ordered by the Commission, and the Commission finding with respect to the proposed transactions that the applicable provisions of the act and the rules thereunder are satisfied, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that the application, as amended, be granted forthwith:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, that said application, as amended, be, and it hereby is, granted forthwith, subject to the conditions prescribed in Rule U-24.

By the Commission.

DELAWARE POWER & LIGHT CO. AND EASTERN SHORE PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY OF VIRGINIA

NOTICE OF PROPOSED ISSUE AND SALE OF NOTES AND COMMON STOCK BY SUBSIDIARY, AND THE ACQUISITION AND PLEDGE OF SAME BY PARENT COMPANY

MARCH 28, 1956.

Notice is hereby given that Delaware Power & Light Company ("Delaware"), a registered holding company, and Eastern Shore Public Service Company of Virginia ("Virginia"), a wholly owned public utility subsidiary of Delaware, have filed a joint application-declaration and an amendment thereto pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"), designating sections 6 (b), 9 (a), 12 (d), and 12 (f) thereof and Rules U-43 and U-44 thereunder as applicable to the proposed transactions, which are summarized as follows:

From time to time prior to December 31, 1957, as may be necessary to meet its cash requirements, Virginia will issue and sell to Delaware for cash, at face amount or par value and in equal proportions: (1) Its 3½ percent promissory notes due October 1, 1973, not exceeding $575,000 in aggregate principal amount, and (2) its common capital stock not exceeding 5,750 shares (par value $100 per share) in aggregate number.

The notes and stock to be acquired by Delaware will be pledged with The New York Trust Company, Trustee, in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture of Mortgage and Deed of Trust of Delaware to said Trustee, dated as of October 1, 1943.

It is stated that Virginia will use the proceeds from sales of said notes and stock to reimburse its treasury for moneys previously expended for construction requirements and to provide funds for future construction requirements. Proposed additions to Virginia's property and plant are estimated at $400,010 for 1956 and $1,328,100 for 1957.

Other than miscellaneous traveling expenses and Federal tax stamps, estimated at $632.50, and legal expenses estimated at $150.00, it is stated that the expenses to be incurred in connection with the proposed transactions will be nominal.

The State Corporation Commission of Virginia, which is the regulatory commission of the State in which Virginia is organized and doing business, has authorized the proposed transactions.

It is requested that the Commission's order herein be made effective upon issuance.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than April 9, 1956 at 5:30 p. m., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law, if any, raised by said application-declaration which he desires to controvert, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date said application-declaration, as filed or as further amended, may be granted and permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may grant exemption from its rules as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100, or take such other action as it may deem appropriate.

DELAWARE POWER & LIGHT CO. AND EASTERN SHORE PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY OF MARYLAND

NOTICE OF PROPOSED ISSUE AND SALE OF NOTES AND COMMON STOCK BY SUBSIDIARY, AND THE ACQUISITION AND PLEDGE OF SAME BY PARENT COMPANY

MARCH 28, 1956.

Notice is hereby given that Delaware Power & Light Company ("Delaware"), a registered holding company, and The Eastern Shore Public Service Company of Maryland ("Maryland"), a wholly owned public utility subsidiary of Delaware, have filed a joint application-declaration and an amendment thereto pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"), designating sections 6 (b), 9 (a), 12 (d) and 12 (f) thereof and Rules U-43 and U-44 thereunder as applicable to the proposed transactions, which are summarized as follows:

From time to time prior to December 31, 1957, as may be necessary to meet its cash requirements, Maryland will issue and sell to Delaware for cash, at face amount or par value and in equal proportions: (1) Its 3½ percent promissory notes due October 1, 1973, not exceeding $1,750,000 in aggregate principal amount, and (2) its common capital stock not exceeding 17,500 shares (par value $100 per share) in aggregate number.

The notes and stock to be acquired by Delaware will be pledged with The New York Trust Company, Trustee, in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture of Mortgage and Deed of Trust of Delaware to said Trustee, dated as of October 1, 1943.

It is stated that Maryland will use the proceeds from sale of said notes and stock to reimburse its treasury for moneys previously expended for construction requirements and to provide funds for future construction requirements. Proposed additions to Maryland's property and plant are estimated at $3,994,074 for 1956 and $3,801,248 for 1957.

Other than miscellaneous traveling expenses and Federal tax stamps, estimated at $1,925, and legal expenses estimated at $700, it is stated that the expenses to be incurred in connection with the proposed transactions will be nominal.

Application has been made by Maryland and Delaware to the Public Service Commission of Maryland, which is the regulatory commission of the State in which Maryland is organized and doing business, for approval of said transactions.

It is requested that the Commission's order herein be made effective upon issuance.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than April 9, 1956 at 5:30 p. m., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law, if any, raised by said application-declaration which he desires to controvert, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date said application-declaration, as filed or as further amended, may be granted and permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may grant exemption from its rules as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100, or take such other action as it may deem appropriate.

PENNSYLVANIA ELECTRIC CO. ET AL.

NOTICE OF FILING REGARDING PROPOSED INCREASE IN AUTHORIZED COMMON STOCK AND ISSUANCE AND SALE FROM TIME TO TIME OF NOT TO EXCEED 300,000 SHARES OF ADDITIONAL COMMON STOCK

APRIL 6, 1956.

In the matter of Pennsylvania Electric Co., Associated Electric Co., General Public Utilities Corp.; File No. 70-3464.

Notice is hereby given that Pennsylvania Electric Company ("Penelec"), Associated Electric Company ("Aelec"), and General Public Utilities Corporation ("GPU") have filed a joint application-declaration with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"). Penelec is a public utility subsidiary of Aelec which in turn is a registered holding company subsidiary of GPU, a registered holding company. Applicants-declarants have designated sections 6 (b), 9 (a), 10 and 12 (b) of the act and Rule U-45 promulgated thereunder as being applicable to the transactions proposed therein which may be summarized as follows:

Penelec proposes to issue and sell to its parent, Aelec, an aggregate of 300,000 additional shares of $20 par value common stock for a total cash consideration of $6,000,000, representing the aggregate par value thereof. These shares are to be issued and sold from time to time during 1956, but not later than the issuance and sale by Penelec of additional first mortgage bonds. The proceeds from the sale of these shares of common stock are to be applied by Penelec to the cost of construction of property additions or to repay bank loans, the proceeds of which have been used for construction, or to reimburse its treasury for construction expenditures.

This Commission has heretofore authorized the dissolution of Aelec and the acquisition by GPU of all the assets of Aelec, including all the then outstanding common stock of Penelec, subject to the liabilities of Aelec. Consummation of the dissolution of Aelec has not yet been effectuated and the date of such consummation cannot at the present time be accurately determined. It is proposed in the instant filing that until Aelec's dissolution has been consummated it will purchase as many of the 300,000 shares of Penelec's common stock as shall theretofore be issued; and after Aelec's dissolution the balance, if any, of such shares will be purchased by GPU.

In order that Aelec may have sufficient funds with which to acquire the common stock of Penelec, GPU proposes to make cash capital contributions to Aelec from time to time in amounts equal to the purchase price from Penelec of its new stock. These contributions are to be credited by Aelec to its capital surplus account.

This Commission has also heretofore authorized the proposed merger of Northern Pennsylvania Power Company ("North Penn"), a direct public utility subsidiary of GPU, into Penelec. This merger, which has not yet been consummated, will require the issuance (as at December 31, 1955) of 452,750 shares of Penelec's common stock. Penelec's presently authorized common stock totals 3,250,000 shares of which 2,711,750 are now outstanding. Said 452,750 shares of Penelec's common stock together with the 300,000 additional shares proposed to be issued and sold pursuant to the present filing would exceed Penelec's presently authorized but unissued shares of common stock. Accordingly, Penelec is proposing in the instant filing to increase its authorized common stock to 3,500,000 shares.

The filing states that no State or Federal commission other than the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission and the Securities and Exchange Commission has jurisdiction with respect to the proposed transactions.

The fees and expenses applicable to the proposed undertakings are estimated not to exceed $750 to GPU and $19,150 for Penelec, Aelec incurring no fees or expenses in connection with the transactions embraced in the filing.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than April 24, 1956 at 5:30 p. m., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on this matter stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law, if any, raised by such filing which he proposes to controvert, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date the application-declaration, as filed or as it may hereafter be amended, may be granted and permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may grant exemption from its rules as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 or take such other action as it may deem appropriate.

By the Commission.

ATOMIC, CHEMICAL & ELECTRONIC SHARES, INC.

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING CONCERNING CORPORATE NAME

APRIL 6, 1956.

Atomic, Chemical & Electronic Shares, Inc. ("Registrant"), filed with the Commission, on February 17, 1956, a notification of registration on Form N-8A, which notification states that the registrant proposes to engage in business as a diversified management investment company. Registrant filed a registration statement on Form N-8B-1 under the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("act") on February 23, 1956, which was later amended on March 22, 1955, and filed a registration statement on Form S-5 under the Securities Act of 1933 on February 17, 1956. Registrant has represented in its registration statements that its investments will be concentrated in companies in the atomic, chemical and electronic industries.

Applications have been filed by Atomic Development Mutual Fund, Inc. and Chemical Fund, Inc., for an order under section 35 (d) of the act declaring that the corporate name of Registrant is misleading and deceptive, or in the alternative for a hearing under section 35 (d) of the act by the Commission in order that it may determine whether the corporate name of Registrant is deceptive or misleading.

The application of Atomic Development Mutual Fund, Inc. ("Atomic Development") represents, among other things, in substance as follows:

(1) Atomic Development, a registered investment company, has been actively engaged in business since December 13, 1953, and sells its securities through approximately 1,500 securities dealers throughout the United States.

(2) As of December 31, 1955, it had net assets of $45,580,400, and had outstanding 3,161,738 shares of its capital stock in the hands of approximately 35,000 holders throughout the United States, its territories and in foreign countries.

(3) Approximately $400,000 was spent in 1954 and 1955 for advertising, public relations, printed matter, postage, etc. to build up and promote its goodwill and its name, as an investment medium for participation in growth of atomic science.

(4) It has become known and is referred to as the Atomic Fund by the public and securities dealers.

(5) Registrant will become known and referred to as the Atomic Fund and public confusion between the two funds will be created.

The application of Chemical Fund, Inc., a registered investment company, represents, among other things, in substance as follows:

(1) That it was incorporated in 1938, and as of December 31, 1955, it had net assets of approximately $110,928,321, with 6,949,891 shares of its capital stock outstanding in the hands of 26,135 shareholders located in the United States and in foreign countries.

(2) Among the 153 members of the National Association of Investment Companies there is no investment company other than Chemical Fund, Inc. which uses the word "Chemical" in its corporate name.

(3) That the combination of the words "Chemical", "Atomic" and "Electronic" will cause confusion among the investing public and among securities dealers as implying some relation to or merger of two or more of the large, well-established existing investment companies presently including said words in their respective corporate names.

(4) The result of the selection of the Registrant's corporate name is to create confusion and to permit it to derive benefit from the established goodwill of Chemical Fund, Inc. and the investment companies using the words "Atomic" and "Electronic" in their names and in that connection reference is made to a circular prepared for distribution to prospective underwriters which indicates that Registrant's name was selected because of its similarity to other well-established investment companies.

It appearing to the Commission that a substantial question may exist as to whether the use of the name "Atomic, Chemical & Electronic Shares, Inc." may be deceptive or misleading within the scope of section 35 (d) of the act;

Wherefore it is ordered, That a hearing under the applicable provisions of the Investment Company Act of 1940 and the rules of the Commission thereunder be held on the 30th day of April 1956, at 10:00 a. m., in the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington, D. C. At such time the Hearing Room Clerk will advise as to the room in which such hearing will be held. At such hearing consideration will be given to the following matters and questions, without prejudice, however, to the specification of any additional issues which may be presented by the use of such corporate name:

(1) Whether the use of the name "Atomic, Chemical & Electronics Shares, Inc." is deceptive and misleading, within the meaning of section 35 (d) of the act, as leading to confusion between the name of Registrant and the names of the presently operating investment companies, Atomic Development Mutual Fund, Inc. or Chemical Fund, Inc.

(2) Whether the use of the name "Atomic, Chemical & Electronic Shares, Inc." is deceptive and misleading, within the meaning of section 35 (d) of the act, as having the effect of representing or implying that Registrant is a consolidation or combination of three presently operating investment companies, namely Atomic Development Mutual Fund, Inc., Chemical Fund, Inc., and Television-Electronics Fund, Inc.

(3) Whether for any other reasons such name is inconsistent with the provisions of the Investment Company Act or contrary to the interests of public investors.

(4) What order, if any, should be entered with respect to the use of such name or any words in such name, pursuant to the applicable provisions of the act.

It is further ordered, That Edward C. Johnson, or any officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose, shall preside at said hearing. The officer so designated is hereby authorized to exercise all the powers granted to the Commission under section 41 and 42 (b) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 and to a hearing officer under the Commission's rules of practice.

It is further ordered, That notice of such hearing is hereby given to Atomic, Chemical-Electronic Shares, Inc., registrant herein at 1 North Dean Street, Englewood, New Jersey, to Chemical Fund, Inc., 65 Broadway, New York, 6, New York, and to Atomic Development Mutual Fund, Inc., 1033 30th Street NW., Washington 7, D. C., such notice to be given by registered mail and by publication of this notice and order in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Notice is also given to any other person or persons whose participation in such proceedings may be necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors, such notice to be given by publication of this notice and order in the FEDERAL REGISTER and by general release of the Commission, distributed to the press and mailed to the mailing list for release.

It is further ordered, That any person, other than the registrant or the aforenamed applicants, desiring to be heard in said proceedings, shall file with the Secretary of the Commission his application as provided by Rule XVII of the rules of practice, on or before the date provided in that Rule setting forth any issues of law or facts which he desires to controvert or any additional issues which he deems raised by this notice and order or by such application.

By the Commission.

AUTHORITY: §§ 434.701 to 434.726 issued under sec. 4, 62 Stat. 1070 as amended; 15 U. S. C. 714b. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 62 Stat. 1072, secs. 201, 401, 63 Stat. 1052, 1054; 15 U. S. C. 714c, 7 U. S. C. 1446, 1421.

§ 434.701 Administration. This subpart will be administered by the Sugar Division, CSS, under the general direction and supervision of the Executive Vice-President, CCC. In the field the program will be carried out by State and County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation offices (hereinafter called State and county offices) under the supervision of State and County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committees (hereinafter called State and county committees) and by CSS commodity offices. Producers interested in participating in the program should contact their county offices, through which the price support documents will be distributed. All documents will be completed and approved by the county offices, which will retain copies thereof. State and county committees and offices and CSS commodity offices do not have authority to modify or waive any of the provisions of this subpart, or any amendments or supplements to this subpart.

§ 434.702 Availability of price support—(a) Method of support. Price support on extracted honey will be made available to producers through loans on such honey stored in approved farm storage, and through purchase agreements.

(b) Area. Farm-storage loans and purchase agreements will be available wherever eligible honey is produced in the continental United States.

(c) Where to apply. Application for price support should be made at the county office of the county in which the producer's place of operation is located or, if producer has more than one place of operation, at the county office of the county in which the honey is stored.

(d) When to apply. Loans and purchase agreements will be available from April 1, 1956 through December 31, 1956, in Florida, Georgia, South Carolina, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, New Mexico, Arizona and California. In all other States, loans and purchase agreements will be available from July 1, 1956 through December 31, 1956. Applicable documents must be signed by the producer and delivered to the county office not later than December 31, 1956.

(e) Eligible producer. (1) An eligible producer shall be any person, including a partnership, association or corporation, who, in 1956, extracts honey produced by bees owned by him.

(2) A cooperative marketing association of producers shall be eligible for a loan or purchase agreement on eligible honey received from and produced by members of the association: Provided, That (i) the producer members are bound by contract to deliver their eligible honey to the association free from all liens and encumbrances; (ii) the proceeds of the eligible honey marketed by the association are shared proportionately among the producer-members according to the grade and quantity of such honey each delivers to the association; (iii) the association has authority to obtain a loan on the security of the honey and to give a lien thereon as well as authority to sell such honey. Only honey received from producers under such conditions may be delivered to CCC under a loan or purchase agreement. All determinations with respect to whether or not a given organization is a cooperative marketing association of producers pursuant to this section shall be made by or under the direction of the State Committee. The word "producer" as used hereafter shall be deemed to include such a cooperative marketing association of producers.

§ 434.703 Eligible honey. Any honey other than that described in § 434.704 which at the time it is placed under loan or tendered for purchase under a purchase agreement meets the following requirements is eligible for price support.

(a) The honey must be of the 1956 crop, produced and extracted in continental United States by an eligible producer.

(b) The honey shall be packed in containers of a capacity of not less than 5 gallons nor greater than 70 gallons, and of a style used in normal commercial practice in the honey industry. Five-gallon containers shall be filled with 60 pounds net of honey. Larger containers shall be filled to their rated capacities.

(1) The 5-gallon containers shall be new, clean, sound, uncased and free from appreciable dents and rust. The handle of each container shall be firm and strong enough to permit carrying the filled can. The can closures shall be complete, including the cap liner prescribed for the particular style of can. The threads on both the cap and the can opening shall not be damaged in any way that will prevent a tight seal. Cans which are punctured, or which have been punctured and resealed by soldering, will not be acceptable.

(2) Steel drums shall be new drums, or used drums which have been reconditioned both inside and outside. Steel drums must be clean, and treated to prevent rusting. The drums must be fitted with gaskets which will provide a tight seal when closed.

(3) Other commercial containers, such as wooden barrels or kegs, which are new or which have been reconditioned, are acceptable if sound, clean and leakproof. Such containers must be closed with bungs or other appropriate leakproof closures.

(c) The beneficial interest in the honey must be in the producer tendering the honey for a loan, or for delivery under a purchase agreement, and must always have been in him, or must have been in him and a former producer whom, before the honey was extracted, he succeeded as owner of the bees producing the honey. In the case of a cooperative marketing association these stipulations as to beneficial interest shall apply to each producer delivering to the association.

(d) The honey must be equal to or better than Grade C of the United States Standards for Grades of Extracted Honey, effective April 16, 1951: Provided, however, That in areas in which the State Committee determines that existing conditions make fermentation of high moisture honey probable during the period of storage, the maximum moisture content allowable may be reduced by such committee from 20 percent to 18.6 percent for any or all floral sources.

(e) Honey offered for a farm-storage loan must have been stored, in containers specified in paragraph (b) of this section, for at least 15 days prior to drawing the inspection samples. The containers shall be stacked upright in a manner which will prevent damage to the containers in the stacks, and so arranged that the containers in the stacks are easily accessible for inspection.

§ 434.704 Ineligible honey. Andromeda, Athel, Avocado, Bitterweed, Broomweed, Cajeput, Carrot, Chinquapin, Dog Fennel, Desert Hollyhock, Gumweed, Mescal, Onion, Prickly Pear, Prune, Queen's Delight, Snowbrush (Ceanothus), Snow-On-The-Mountain, Tarweed, and similar objectionably-flavored honeys or objectionably-flavored blends of honey as determined by the Director, Sugar Division, CSS, will not be eligible for price support regardless of whether they meet other eligibility requirements.

§ 434.705 Disbursement of loans. Disbursement of loans will be made to producers by county offices by means of sight drafts drawn on CCC or by approved lending agencies under agreement with CCC. No disbursement shall be made later than 15 days after the final date of the availability of loans, unless recommended by the State committee and approved by the Executive Vice President, CCC. Payment in cash, credit to the producer's account, or the drawing of a check or draft, shall constitute disbursement. The producer shall not present the loan documents for disbursement of funds unless the honey is in existence, in approved storage, and in good condition. If the honey was not in existence, in approved storage, or in good condition at the time the producer received the disbursement, the proceeds shall be promptly refunded by the producer.

§ 434.706 Approved lending agencies. An approved lending agency shall be any bank, corporation, partnership, individual or legal entity with which CCC has entered into a lending agency agreement (CCC Form 322 or other form prescribed by CCC).

§ 434.707 Approved storage. Loans will be made only on honey in approved storage. Purchase agreements may be executed without regard to whether the honey is in approved storage.

(a) Farm storage. Approved farm storage shall consist of storage structures located on or off the farm (excluding public warehouses) which are determined by the county office to be so located and of such substantial and permanent construction as to afford safe storage of the honey. In carrying out its responsibility the county office should consider the extent to which the storage structures for honey are clean, dry, weatherproof and can be locked. Where such structure is used to house honey other than that which is covered by a single price support loan, a suitable partition shall be used to preserve the identity of the honey covered by each price support loan and segregate it from any other honey in the storage structure.

(b) Cooperative storage. Approved storage for cooperative marketing associations shall meet the requirements stated in paragraph (a) of this section. Preservation of the identity of each producer's honey in the lot covered by the mortgage will not be required.

§ 434.708 Applicable forms. The approved forms consist of the loan and purchase agreement forms and such other forms and documents as are specified in this subpart which, together with the provisions of this subpart, govern the rights and responsibilities of the producer. Note and supplemental loan agreements, chattel mortgages, and purchase agreements, must be dated, signed by the producer, and delivered to the county office on or before the final date of availability of loans or purchase agreements. Note and supplemental loan agreements, and chattel mortgages, must have State and documentary revenue stamps affixed thereto where required by law. Loan and purchase agreement documents executed by an administrator, executor or trustee will be acceptable only where legally valid.

(a) Farm-storage loans. Approved forms shall consist of Commodity Loan Form A, Producer's Note and Supplemental Loan Agreement, secured by Commodity Loan Form AA, Commodity Chattel Mortgage, and such other forms and documents as may be required by CCC. These forms shall also be used for honey stored by cooperative marketing associations of producers in warehouses under their control.

(b) Purchase agreement documents. The purchase agreement forms shall consist of the Purchase Agreement (Commodity Purchase Form 1) and Purchase Agreement Settlement (Commodity Purchase Form 4) signed by the producer and approved by the county office, and such other forms and documents as may be required by CCC.

§ 434.709 Liens. If there are any liens or encumbrances on honey placed under loan or delivered under purchase agreement, waivers acceptable to the county committee must be obtained.

§ 434.710 Service charges. Producers shall pay the following service charges on the quantity of honey placed under loan or specified in the purchase agreement. In the case of loans the service charges, except preliminary service charges, shall be collected from the proceeds of the loan at the time the loan is disbursed. In the case of purchase agreements, the service charges shall be collected at the time the purchase agreement is completed. An additional service charge shall be paid on any additional quantity delivered to and accepted by CCC under a loan.

(a) Rates:

| Method of price support | Rate (per 100 pounds net) | Minimum charge |
|---|---|---|
| | Cents | |
| Farm-storage loan | 5 | $3.00 |
| Purchase Agreement | 2½ | 1.50 |

(b) State committees are authorized to require prepayment of $3.00 of the service charge on a farm-storage loan at the time the producer applies for the loan.

(c) No refund of service charges will be made.

§ 434.711 Determination of quantity. (a) Determination of quantity of honey in connection with applications for farm-storage loans, shall be computed on the basis of 55 pounds for each 5-gallon can and 11 pounds for each gallon of rated capacity for containers larger than 5 gallon.

(b) Determination of quantity, at time of delivery to CCC, of honey under loan or purchase agreement shall be made by or under the direction of the State Committee. The quantity determination of honey delivered in 5-gallon cans shall be based upon the number of 5-gallon cans times the average per can net weight of honey rounded to the next lowest whole pound, or 60 pounds per can net weight of honey, whichever is lower. The weight determination of honey delivered in larger containers shall be the actual net weight of honey.

§ 434.712 Determination of grade and color. (a) Determination of grade and color in connection with applications for farm-storage loans shall be made on the basis of samples drawn by the county office and transmitted prepaid to an office of the Processed Products Standardization and Inspection Branch, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service. Samples shall be provided by the producer at no cost to CCC. The cost of inspection shall be collected by the county office from the producer for the account of the Processed Products Standardization and Inspection Branch at the time samples are drawn.

(b) Determination of grade and color, at time of delivery to CCC, of honey under loan or purchase agreement, including the drawing of the samples, shall be by representatives of the Processed Products Standardization and Inspection Branch, Fruit and Vegetable Division, AMS. Samples shall be provided by the producer at no cost to CCC. The cost of such sampling, and of grade, and color determination at time of delivery, shall be paid by CCC.

(c) Table honey shall be so segregated according to color that the color for the lot as a whole is within the tolerances for color variations as outlined in the United States Standards for Grades of Extracted Honey, effective April 16, 1951. If a lot of honey is not segregated so that it can be certified in accordance with the foregoing, the loan, settlement for the loan, or purchase under purchase agreement, shall be made on the basis of the darkest color shown on the inspection certificate.

(d) Table honey should be so segregated from nontable honey that it can be certified for loan, settlement under loan, or purchase under purchase agreement, in accordance with the categories outlined in § 434.725. If a lot of honey is not segregated so that it can be given a single classification as either table or nontable honey, the loan, settlement for the loan, or purchase under purchase agreement, shall be made on the basis of nontable honey.

(e) In the case of blends of table and nontable honeys, the loan, settlement under loan, or purchase under purchase agreement, shall be made on the basis of nontable honey. If any blends of honey contain ineligible honey, the lot as a whole is ineligible.

§ 434.713 Maturity of loans. Loans mature on demand, but not later than March 31, 1957, in all States.

§ 434.714 Set-offs. If the producer is indebted to CCC on any accrued obligation, or if any installment or installments on any loan made available by CCC on farm-storage facilities or mobile drying equipment are past due, or are payable under the provisions of the note evidencing such loan out of the proceeds of the price support loan or purchase, he must designate CCC or the lending agency holding such note as the payee of the proceeds of the price support purchase or loan to the extent of such indebtedness or installments, but not to exceed that portion of the proceeds remaining after deduction of loan service charges and amounts due prior lienholders. If the producer is indebted to any other agency of the United States, and such indebtedness is listed on the county debt register, he must designate such agency as the payee of the proceeds as provided in this section. Indebtedness owing to CCC or to a lending agency as provided in this section shall be given first consideration after claims of prior lienholders. Compliance with the provisions of this section shall not constitute a waiver of any right of the producer to contest the justness of the indebtedness involved either by administrative appeal or legal action.

§ 434.715 Interest rate. Loans shall bear interest at the rate of 3½ per centum per annum from the date of disbursement of the loan: Provided, That if there is a default in satisfaction of the loan the amount remaining due on the date of such default (including accrued interest) and any costs incurred by the holder of the note shall bear interest thereafter at the rate of 6 per centum per annum: Provided, further, That if the producer has made a fraudulent representation in the loan documents or in obtaining the loan, the principal amount of the loan, and any costs incurred by the holder of the note, shall bear interest from the date of disbursement at the rate of 6 per centum per annum.

§ 434.716 Transfer of producer's interest—(a) Farm-storage loans. The producer shall not transfer either his remaining interest in, or his right to redeem, honey mortgaged as security for a farm-storage loan. A producer who wishes to liquidate all or part of his loan by contracting for the sale of the honey, must obtain written prior approval of the county office on Commodity Loan Form 12 to remove the honey from storage when the proceeds of the sale are needed to repay all or any part of the loan. Any such approval shall be subject to the terms and conditions set out in Commodity Loan Form 12, copies of which may be obtained by producers or prospective purchasers at the county office.

(b) Purchase agreements. The producer may not assign his interest in a purchase agreement.

§ 434.717 Safeguarding the honey. The producer obtaining a farm-storage loan is obligated to maintain the storage structure in good repair and to keep the honey in good condition, until the loan is liquidated.

§ 434.718 Insurance. CCC will not require the producer to insure the honey placed under loan; however, if the producer insures such honey and indemnity is paid thereon, such indemnity shall inure to the benefit of CCC to the extent of its interest, after first satisfying the producer's equity in the honey involved in the loss.

§ 434.719 Loss or damage to honey. If the honey is going out of condition, or is in danger of going out of condition, the producer shall notify the county office. The producer is responsible for any loss in quantity or quality of the honey placed under farm-storage loan, except that, subject to the provisions of § 434.718, physical loss or damage occuring after disbursement of the loan funds to the producer, without fault, negligence, or conversion on the part of the producer, resulting solely from external causes other than insect infestation, vermin, rodents, or animals, will be assumed by CCC to the extent of the settlement value of the quantity of the honey lost, stolen, or destroyed, or to the extent of the damage as determined by CCC, provided the producer has given the county office immediate notice, confirmed in writing, of such loss or damage, and provided there has been no fraudulent representation made by the producer in the loan documents or in obtaining the loan. Physical loss or damage occurring prior to disbursement of the loan funds to the producer will not be assumed by CCC. Where disbursement of funds is made by sight draft or check, the date of the draft or check shall constitute the date of disbursement of the funds.

§ 434.720 Personal liability of the producer for the honey. The making of any fraudulent representation by the producer in the loan documents, or in obtaining the loan, or the conversion or unlawful disposition of any portion of the honey by him, may render the producer subject to criminal prosecution under Federal law and will render him personally liable for the amount due on the loan and for any resulting expense incurred by any holder of the note.

§ 434.721 Release of the honey under loan. A producer may at any time obtain release of the honey remaining under loan by paying to the holder of the note and supplemental loan agreement, the principal amount thereof, plus charges and accrued interest. All charges in connection with the collection of the note shall be paid by the producer. Upon presentation of the paid note, the county office shall arrange for the release of the chattel mortgage. Partial release of the honey prior to maturity may be arranged with the county office after making payment to the holder of the note for the quantity of the honey released, plus charges and accrued interest. However, in the event the quantity of the honey contained in the storage structure and covered by the chattel mortgage is greater than the quantity with respect to which the amount was computed, application may be made to the county office for release of all or part of such excess without payment of the loan.

§ 434.722 Liquidation of loans and delivery under purchase agreements—(a) Farm-storage loans. The producer is required to pay off his loan on or before maturity, or to deliver the honey in accordance with instructions of the county office. Delivery points for farm-storage loans shall be limited to those recommended by the State committee and approved by the Director, Sugar Division, CSS. If the producer desires to deliver the honey, he should, prior to maturity, give the county office notice in writing of his intention to do so. The producer may, however, pay off his loan and redeem his honey at any time prior to delivery to CCC or removal by CCC. In the event the farm is sold or there is a change of tenancy, the honey under a farm-storage loan may be delivered before the maturity date of the loan, upon prior approval by the county office, or may be delivered before the maturity date of the loan for other reasons upon prior approval of the Executive Vice President of CCC. Settlement will be made at the applicable support rate in effect at the approved point of delivery subject to the provisions of the producer's note and supplemental loan agreement and this subpart, on the basis of the quantity, floral source, color and grade at the time of delivery as determined in accordance with §§ 434.711 (b) and 434.712 (b) (c) (d) and (e). If farm-stored honey is delivered to CCC prior to March 31, 1957, upon request of the producer and with the approval of CCC, the loan settlement shall be reduced at the rate of 1/20 of a cent per pound per month or fraction thereof, from the date delivery is accomplished, or from the final date for delivery shown in the delivery instructions issued by the county office, whichever is earlier, to and including March 31, 1957. Settlement value for honey delivered which does not meet the eligibility requirements with respect to grade shall be determined at the support rate for the honey placed under loan less the estimated cost, as determined by CCC, for conditioning such honey to conform to the grade of honey described in the loan documents. The settlement value for honey delivered which does not meet eligibility requirements because of floral source, or which cannot be conditioned to meet grade requirements, shall be the actual market value of such honey, if any, as determined by CCC. The producer shall pay CCC for any deficiency in quantity, floral source, grade or color. Any payment due the producer on settlement may be made by sight draft drawn on CCC by the county office.

(b) Handling small amounts on settlement. If the settlement value of the honey delivered under a farm-storage loan exceeds the amount due on the loan (excluding interest) by more than $3.00, such amount will be paid to the producer on the basis of the settlement documents. To avoid administrative costs of making small payments, if the amount found due the producer in such settlement is $3.00 or less such amount will be paid only upon his request. If the settlement value of the honey is less than the amount due on the loan (excluding interest), the amount of the deficiency, plus interest, shall be paid to CCC, or may be set off against any payment which would otherwise be due to the producer under any agricultural program administered by the Secretary of Agriculture, or any other payments which are due or may become due to the producer from CCC or any other agency of the United States. To avoid administrative costs of handling small accounts a deficiency of $3.00 or less, including interest, may be disregarded unless demand therefor is made by CCC upon the producer.

(c) Purchase agreements. The producer who signs a purchase agreement (Commodity Purchase Form 1) shall not be obligated to sell any quantity of the honey to CCC. However, the quantity stated in the purchase agreement shall be the maximum quantity he may sell to CCC. If the producer who signs a purchase agreement wishes to sell the honey to CCC, he shall have a 30-day period prior to the loan maturity date during which he must notify the county office of his intention to sell. Deliveries shall not be accepted before March 31, 1957, or such earlier date as prescribed by the Executive Vice President, CCC. The producer may be required to retain the honey for a period of 60 days after the loan maturity date, without any cost to CCC. Delivery under purchase agreements shall be made in accordance with instructions issued by the county office. Delivery points for purchase agreements shall be limited to those recommended by the State committee and approved by the Director, Sugar Division, CSS. Honey delivered under a purchase agreement must meet the requirements for eligible honey as set forth in §§ 434.703 and 434.712 (e). Payment for eligible honey delivered to CCC under purchase agreements shall be at the applicable support rate in effect at the approved delivery point, on the basis of the quantity, floral source, color, and grade at the time of delivery as determined in accordance with §§ 434.711 (b) and 434.712 (b), (c), (d), and (e). Such payment will be made to the producer by sight draft drawn on CCC by the county office.

§ 434.723 Purchase of notes. County offices will purchase notes evidencing loans from approved lending agencies in accordance with the lending agency agreement. The purchase price to be paid by CCC shall be the principal sums remaining due on such notes, plus an amount computed according to the lending agency agreement to cover interest. Lending agencies are required to submit Commodity Credit Corporation Form 500, or such other form as CCC may prescribe, for all payments received on producers' notes held by them, and are required to remit to CCC a part of the interest collected, computed according to the lending agency agreement. Lending agencies shall submit notes and reports to the ASC county office where the loan documents were approved.

§ 434.724 Charges not to be assumed by CCC. CCC will not pay or assume any insurance charges, storage charges, inspection charges to determine eligibility for a loan, or any handling or processing charges necessary to make the honey meet the eligibility requirements.

§ 434.725 Support rates. Loans will be made, and honey delivered under purchase agreements will be purchased, at the support rates set forth below:

For States of Montana, Wyoming, Colorado, New Mexico and States West Thereof

| | Rate (cents per pound) |
|---|---|
| 1. White and lighter table honey | 9.9 |
| 2. Extra Light Amber table honey | 9.4 |
| 3. Nontable and other table honey | 7.9 |

For All States East of Montana, Wyoming, Colorado and New Mexico

| | Rate (cents per pound) |
|---|---|
| 1. White and lighter table honey | 10.8 |
| 2. Extra Light Amber table honey | 10.3 |
| 3. Nontable and other table honey | 8.8 |

Loans will be made at the applicable support rate established for the State in which the honey is stored.

(a) "Table honey" means honey having the predominant flavor of not more than two floral sources, and preferably one, which can be readily marketed for table use in all parts of the country. Such honey includes those with the predominant flavors of Alfalfa, Brazil Brush, Catsclaw, Clover, Cotton, Fireweed, Gallberry, Huajillo, Lima Bean, Mesquite, Orange, Raspberry, Sage, Saw Palmetto, Sourwood, Star Thistle, Sweetclover, Tupelo, Vetch, Western Wild Buckwheat, Wild Alfalfa, and similar predominantly mild-flavored honeys, or predominantly mild-flavored blends of honey, as determined by the Director, Sugar Division, CSS.

(b) "Nontable honey" means honey having a predominant flavor of limited national acceptability for table use but considered to be suitable for table use in most areas in which it is produced. Such honeys include those with the predominant flavors of Aster, Buckwheat (except Western Wild Buckwheat), Cabbage Palmetto, Eucalyptus, Goldenrod, Heartsease (Smartweed), Horsemint, Mangrove, Manzanita, Mint, Partridge Pea, Rattan Vine, Salt Cedar (Tamarix gallica), Spanish Needle, Ti-ti, Toyon (Christmas Berry), Tulip-Poplar, and similarly-flavored honeys, or blends of such honeys, as determined by the Director, Sugar Division, CSS.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

[945.301 Amdt. 5]

PART 945—TOMATOES GROWN IN FLORIDA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENT

Findings. (a) Pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 125 and Order No. 45 (7 CFR Part 945; 20 F. R. 7357), regulating the handling of tomatoes grown in Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agriculture Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Florida Tomato Committee, established pursuant to said marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the amendment to the limitation of shipments, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(b) It is hereby found that it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this amendment later than April 16, 1956. The basic changes in the existing regulation which will be effected by this amendment are as follows: (1) The smallest size of tomatoes permitted to be handled will be increased from 1⅞ inch to 2⅛ inch diameter; (2) the minimum grade permissible for handling will be raised from U. S. No. 2 to a requirement that 85 percent of each lot must be U. S. No. 1, except that lots of tomatoes of 2$^{9}/_{32}$-inch minimum diameter may be of U. S. No. 2 or better grade other than for growth cracks, cat faces and scars; (3) any lot containing more than 10 percent mature green tomatoes shall be classified as mature green tomatoes for limitation under this amended regulation; and (4) minimum and maximum net weights will be specified for tomatoes packed in containers of dimensions customarily used in the handling of Florida tomatoes. These changes will impose additional limitations on the handling of Florida tomatoes. Such action is necessary because shipments of tomatoes are increasing in volume and such increases are expected to continue to the spring seasonal peak. Also, the price received for tomatoes has decreased within the last 10 days. The major volume of tomatoes for the winter and early spring season to date has originated primarily in South Florida. Tomatoes are now being marketed from the Fort Pierce, Immokalee, and West Coast producing sections, and such marketings will increase rapidly to a seasonal peak, with such increasing supplies having an additional depressing effect upon prices. The lowest recognized grades and the smaller sizes, such as 7 x 8 size, and the No. 2 grade size 7 x 7, return prices to growers which result in disorderly marketing conditions. Growers' prices also are adversely affected by overpacking, i. e., increasing the net weight of tomatoes per container in excess of customary or normal net contents, especially during periods of declining and low prices. A standard for determining when a lot of tomatoes shall be deemed to be "mature green" is essential and necessary as a basis for operation of this regulation. The time intervening between the date (April 4, 1956) when information upon this amendment is based became available and the time (April 16, 1956) when this amendment must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient to permit the taking of the aforementioned actions. Compliance with this amendment will not require special preparation on the part of handlers which cannot be completed by April 16, 1956, and reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for such preparation. Information regarding the committee's recommendations, which are herein adopted was made available to producers and handlers in the production area when such recommendations were made to this Department.

Order, as amended. The provisions of § 945.301 (b), as amended (21 F. R. 1981), are hereby further amended for the period April 16, 1956 to May 31, 1956, both dates inclusive, as follows:

(b) Order. (1) No person shall handle for shipment outside the production area any tomatoes unless such tomatoes are of a size not smaller than 2⅛ inches minimum diameter (size 7 x 7 and larger) and meet the requirements of 85 percent U. S. No. 1 or better grade, except that tomatoes which meet the minimum requirements of 2$^{9}/_{32}$ inches minimum diameter (size 6 x 7 and larger) may be handled for shipment outside the production area if they meet the requirements of U. S. No. 2 or better grade, except for growth cracks, catfaces, and scars. For purposes of these exceptions: (i) Growth cracks shall be well healed and no individual crack shall exceed 1 inch in length or ¼ inch in depth and the aggregate length of all cracks shall not exceed 2 inches; (ii) catfaces shall not have channels extending into the locules, and the aggregate area of fairly smooth catfaces shall not exceed that of a circle 1 inch in diameter on a tomato 2½ inches in diameter (smaller tomatoes shall have proportionately lesser areas and larger tomatoes may have proportionately greater areas); and (iii) scars (other than catfaces) shall not have an aggregate area exceeding that of a circle 1 inch in diameter on a tomato 2½ inches in diameter (smaller tomatoes shall have proportionately lesser areas of scars and larger tomatoes may have proportionately greater areas of scars). Not more than a total of 10 percent, by count, of the tomatoes in any lot may fail to meet the applicable grade requirements for the lot as modified by the preceding sentence of this subparagraph. Not more than 5 percent, by count, of the tomatoes in any lot may be smaller than the specified minimum diameter.

(2) Any lot of tomatoes containing more than ten (10) percent of mature green tomatoes shall be classified as mature green tomatoes for purpose of limitation of shipments pursuant to this subparagraph. Subject to the requirements of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, no person shall handle for shipment outside the production area any such mature green tomatoes unless they are packed within one of the following ranges of diameters (expressed in terms of minimum and maximum):

|---|---|
| 7 x 7 | Over 2⅛ to 2$^{9}/_{32}$, inclusive. |
| 6 x 7 | Over 2$^{9}/_{32}$ to 2$^{17}/_{32}$, inclusive. |
| 6 x 6 and larger | Over 2$^{17}/_{32}$. |

Such mature green tomatoes shall be packed separately for each size range. To allow for variations incident to proper sizing, not more than a total of 10 percent, by count, of the mature green tomatoes in any lot may be smaller than the specified minimum diameter, or larger than the specified maximum diameter, except that not more than 5 percent, by count, of such tomatoes may be smaller than 2⅛ inches in diameter. The requirements of this subparagraph shall be applicable only to mature green tomatoes: deemed to be tomatoes generally showing a slight break in the ground color to a whitish green color over the shoulders: the contents of the seed cavities will be slightly moist and of a jelly or glue-like consistency; the seeds will be well developed, slightly hard, and in slicing the fruit with a sharp knife will usually be pushed aside rather than cut; and the contents of two or more locules must have a jelly-like consistency and well developed seeds. The requirements of this subparagraph shall not be applicable to "pink" tomatoes (deemed to be tomatoes usually hard or firm to feel; which are turning in color, with most of the surface of the fruit ranging from green to yellow, but showing some pink or yellow at the blossom end) and tomatoes having a greater degree of maturity.

(3) No person shall handle for shipment outside the production area any tomatoes packed in the following containers unless the net weight of such tomatoes in each such container is within the following minimum and maximum net weights set forth for each such container:

| Container usual description | Carrier container No. | Inside dimensions | Cubic content | Net weight of tomatoes (pounds) | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| | | | | Minimum | Maximum |
| | | Inches | | | |
| 60-pound field box | None | 11 x 11 x 22¼ | 2692 | 60 | 62 |
| 60-pound wire bound crate | 4015 | 11$^{13}/_{16}$ x 11$^{13}/_{16}$ x 18¾ | 2672 | 60 | 62 |
| 50-pound drop pack | 50 [1] | 11 x 10¾ x 19 | 2247 | 50 | 51⅝ |
| 50-pound full telescope | None | 10$^{7}/_{16}$ x 10¾ x 18$^{9}/_{16}$ | 2083 | 50 | 51⅝ |
| 40-pound 2-piece cardboard box | 1915 | 10 x 9 x 19⅝ | 1728 | 40 | 41⅓ |
| 40-pound ½ RSC vent stitliner | 7007 | 12$^{1}/_{16}$ x 8 x 18⅝ | 1822 | 40 | 41⅓ |
| 40-pound bulge pack tomato box | SJ 27 [1] | 10 x 8⅝ x 19¾ | 1753 | 40 | 41⅓ |

[1] Manufacturer's number.

To allow for variations incident to proper packing, not more than a total of ten percent of the containers in any lot, by count, may vary in net weight of contents of tomatoes from the minimum and maximum net weights of tomatoes set forth above for each such container.

(4) Pursuant to § 945.53 each person may handle for shipment outside the production area not in excess of 300 pounds of tomatoes per day without regard to the requirements of this part: Provided, That this exception shall not be deemed to apply in case the tomatoes are shipped or transported in conjunction with tomatoes which are required to be inspected and certified pursuant to § 945.60.

(5) The requirements of subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph shall not be applicable to shipments of tomatoes to (i) canning plants, or (ii) for relief or charity.

(6) Each handler making shipments of tomatoes to canning plants or for relief or charity shall file an application pursuant to § 945.56 with the committee for a Certificate of Privilege for such shipments. Further, each handler who ships tomatoes for relief or charity shall, pursuant to § 945.80, furnish a record of such shipments to the committee. In addition, each application for a Certificate of Privilege to ship tomatoes for relief or charity or to canning plants shall be accompanied by the respective consignee's certification that the tomatoes to be shipped to him will be used only for canning or for relief or charity, as the case may be.

(7) No person shall handle for shipment outside the production area any tomatoes for which inspection is required unless an appropriate inspection certificate has been issued with respect thereto and the certificate is valid at the time of handling. For purposes of operation under this part, each inspection certificate is hereby determined, pursuant to paragraph (c) of § 945.60, to be valid for a period not to exceed 72 hours following completion of inspection as shown on the applicable certificate.

(8) "U. S. No. 2 Grade," as used in this section, shall have the same meaning assigned this term in the United States Standards for Fresh Tomatoes (§§ 51.1855 to 51.1876 of this title; 18 F. R. 7142), including the tolerances set forth therein. All other terms used in this section shall have the same meaning as when used in Marketing Agreement No. 125 and Order No. 45 (§§ 945.1 to 945.92; 20 F. R. 7357).

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 10th day of April 1956, to become effective April 16, 1956.

PART 969—AVOCADOS GROWN IN SOUTH FLORIDA

QUALITY REGULATIONS

Notice was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER issue of March 15, 1956 (21 F. R. 1655), that the Department was giving consideration to the proposed amendment of the supplementing rules and regulations (7 CFR 969.110 et seq.; Subpart—Rules and Regulations; 20 F. R. 3557) currently in effect pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 69, as amended (7 CFR Part 969; 20 F. R. 4177), regulating the handling of avocados grown in South Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047).

After consideration of all relevant matters presented, including the proposals set forth in the aforesaid notice which were submitted by the Avocado Administrative Committee (established pursuant to said amended marketing agreement and order as the agency to administer the provisions thereof), it is hereby found that the amendment, as hereinafter set forth, of the said rules and regulations is in accordance with the provisions of the said amended marketing agreement and order and will tend to effectuate the declared purposes of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended. Such amendment, modified to correct a typographical error, is hereby approved; and the said rules and regulations are amended as follows:

Amend § 969.130 of the supplementing rules and regulations (7 CFR 969.110 et seq.; 20 F. R. 3557), so that said section will read as follows:

§ 969.130 Quality regulations. Quality regulations recommended and established pursuant to § 969.50 shall be on the basis of the following specifications or appropriate modifications thereof:

(a) No. 1 grade. "No. 1 grade" consists of avocados of similar varietal characteristics which are mature but not overripe, well formed, clean, well colored, well trimmed, and which are free from decay, anthracnose, freezing injury and free from damage caused by bruises, cuts or other skin breaks, pulled stems, russetting or similar discoloration, scars or scab, sunburn, sunscald or sprayburn, cercospora spot, other disease, insects, or mechanical or other means. In order to allow for variations incident to proper grading and handling, not more than a total of 10 percent, by count, of the avocados in any lot may fail to meet the requirements of this grade: Provided, That not more than one-half of this amount, or 5 percent, may be affected by anthracnose or decay, including therein not more than 1 percent for decay. (See Application of Tolerances and Standard Pack Requirements.)

(b) Combination grade. Any lot of avocados may be designated "Combination grade" when not less than 60 percent, by count, of the avocados in each container meet the requirements of the No. 1 grade and the remainder meet the requirements of the No. 2 grade. In order to allow for variations incident to proper grading and handling, not more than a total of 10 percent, by count, of the avocados in any lot may fail to meet the requirements of the No. 2 grade: Provided, That not more than one-half of this amount, or 5 percent, may be affected by anthracnose or decay, including therein not more than 1 percent for decay. No part of any tolerance shall be allowed to reduce for the lot as a whole the percentage of No. 1 fruit required or specified in the combination, but individual containers may have not more than 10 percent less than the percentage of No. 1 fruit required or specified. (See Application of Tolerances and Standard Pack Requirements.)

(c) No. 2 grade. "No. 2 grade" consists of avocados of similar varietal characteristics which are mature but not overripe, fairly well formed, clean, fairly well colored, well trimmed and which are free from decay, freezing injury and free from serious damage caused by anthracnose, bruises, cuts or other skin breaks, pulled stems, russetting or similar discoloration, scars or scab, sunburn, sunscald or sprayburn, cercospora spot, other disease, insects, or mechanical or other means. In order to allow for variations incident to proper grading and handling, not more than a total of 10 percent, by count, of the avocados in any lot may fail to meet the requirements of this grade: Provided, That not more than one-half of this amount, or 5 percent, shall be allowed for serious damage by anthracnose or decay, including therein not more than 1 percent for decay. (See Application of Tolerances and Standard Pack Requirements.)

(d) No. 3 grade. "No. 3 grade" consists of avocados of similar varietal characteristics which are mature but not overripe, which are not badly misshapen, and which are free from decay and free from serious damage caused by anthracnose and from very serious damage caused by freezing injury, bruises, cuts or other skin breaks, pulled stems, russeting or similar discoloration, scars or scab, sunburn, sunscald or sprayburn, cerocospora spot, other disease, insects, dirt, or mechanical or other means. In order to allow for variations incident to proper grading and handling, not more than a total of 10 percent, by count, of the avocados in any lot may fail to meet the requirements of this grade, including therein not more than 2 percent of decay. (See Application of Tolerances and Standard Pack Requirements.)

(e) Unclassified. "Unclassified" consists of avocados which have not been classified in accordance with any of the foregoing grades. The term "unclassified" is not a grade, as used herein, but is provided as a designation to show that no grade has been applied to the lot.

(f) Standard pack. (1) The avocados shall be packed in accordance with good commercial practice and the pack shall be at least fairly tight. The size of the avocados may be specified by count. The weight of the smallest fruit in a container shall be not less than 75 percent of the weight of the largest fruit.

(2) In order to allow for variations incident to proper packing and sizing, not more than 5 percent of the containers may fail to meet the requirements for fairly tight. And not more than 5 percent, by count, of the avocados in any container may weigh less than 75 percent of the weight of the largest fruit: Provided, That no fruit, in any container, shall be less than 60 percent of the weight of the largest fruit.

(g) Application of tolerances. The contents of individual packages in the lot, based on sample inspection, are subject to the following limitations: Provided, That the averages for the entire lot are within the tolerances specified for the grade:

(1) For packages which contain more than 20 avocados and a tolerance of 10 percent or more is provided, individual packages in any lot shall have not more than one and one-half times the tolerance specified. For packages which contain more than 20 avocados and a tolerance of less than 10 percent is provided, individual packages in any lot shall have not more than double the tolerance specified, except that at least one defective and one off-size specimen may be permitted in any package.

(2) For packages which contain 20 avocados or less, individual packages shall have not more than double the tolerance specified, except that at least one defective and one off-size specimen may be permitted in any package.

(h) Definitions—(1) Similar varietal characteristics. "Similar varietal characteristics" means that the avocados in any container are similar in shape, texture and color of skin and flesh.

(2) Mature. "Mature" means that the avocado has reached a stage of growth which will insure a proper completion of the ripening process.

(3) Overripe. "Overripe" means that the avocado is dead ripe with flesh soft or discolored and past commercial use.

(4) Well formed. "Well formed" means that the avocado has the normal shape characteristic of the variety.

(5) Clean. "Clean" means that the avocado is practically free from dirt, staining or other foreign material.

(6) Well colored. "Well colored" means that the avocado has the color characteristic of the variety.

(7) Well trimmed. "Well trimmed" means that the stem, when present, is cut off fairly smoothly at a point not more than one-fourth inch beyond the shoulder of the avocado.

(8) Damage. "Damage" means any defect which materially affects the appearance, or the edible or shipping quality of the individual fruit, or the general appearance of the fruits in the container. Any one of the following defects, or any combination of defects, the seriousness of which exceeds the maximum allowed for any one defect, shall be considered as damage:

(i) Cuts or other skin breaks when not healed and penetrating beneath the epidermis or the aggregate area exceeds the area of a rectangle one inch in length and one-eighth inch in width; or when healed and the appearance is materially affected.

(ii) Pulled stems when the exposed stem cavity is excessively deep, or when skin surrounding the stem cavity is more than slightly torn.

(iii) Russeting or similar discolorations when the appearance of the avocado is affected to a greater extent than that of an avocado which has light-brown surface discoloration aggregating 10 percent of the fruit surface.

(iv) Scars or scab when the appearance of the avocado is affected to a greater extent than that of an avocado which has light-brown superficial, fairly smooth scars aggregating 10 percent of the fruit surface.

(v) Sunburn when the appearance of the avocado is affected to a greater extent than that of an avocado which has greenish-yellow colored sunburn aggregated 10 percent of the fruit surface.

(vi) Sunscald or sprayburn when not well-healed, or when soft, or when the appearance of the avocado is affected to a greater extent than that of an avocado which has light-brown superficial, fairly smooth scars aggregating 10 percent of the fruit surface.

(9) Fairly well formed. "Fairly well formed" means that the avocado may be slightly abnormal in shape but not to the extent that the appearance is seriously affected.

(10) Fairly well colored. "Fairly well colored" means that the avocado shows a shade of color which is fairly characteristic of the variety.

(11) Serious damage. "Serious damage" means any defect which seriously affects the appearance, or the edible or shipping quality of the individual fruit, or the general appearance of the avocados in the container. Any one of the following defects, or any combination of defects, the seriousness of which exceeds the maximum allowed for any one defect, shall be considered as serious damage:

(i) Anthracnose when any spot exceeds the area of a circle one-fourth inch in diameter, or when more than 3 spots each exceeding the area of a circle three-sixteenths inch in diameter.

(ii) Cuts or other skin breaks when not healed and the aggregate area exceeds the area of a rectangle one inch in length and one-fourth inch in width, or when not healed and penetrating into the flesh of the fruit, or when healed and the appearance is seriously affected.

(iii) Pulled stems when the skin surrounding the exposed stem cavity is torn more than an aggregate area of a circle one-fourth inch in diameter, or when flesh is torn.

(iv) Russeting or similar discoloration when the appearance of the avocado is affected to a greater extent than that of an avocado which has light-brown surface discoloration aggregating 25 percent of the fruit surface.

(v) Scars or scab when the appearance of the avocado is affected to a greater extent than that of an avocado which has light-brown superficial, fairly smooth scars aggregating 25 percent of the fruit surface.

(vi) Sunburn when the appearance of the avocado is affected to a greater extent than that of an avocado which has greenish-yellow colored sunburn aggregating 25 percent of the fruit surface.

(vii) Sunscald or sprayburn when not well-healed, or when soft, or when the appearance of the avocado is affected to a greater extent than that of an avocado which has light-brown superficial, fairly smooth scars aggregating 25 percent of the fruit surface.

(viii) Cercospora spot when any spot exceeds the area of a circle ¼ inch in diameter or when more than three spots each of which exceeds the area of a circle $\frac{3}{16}$ inch in diameter, or when the aggregate area of all spots exceeds the area of a circle 1 inch in diameter.

(12) Badly misshapen. "Badly misshapen" means that the avocado is so badly curved, constricted, pointed or otherwise deformed that the appearance is very seriously affected.

(13) Very serious damage. "Very serious damage" means any defect which very seriously affects the appearance, or the edible or shipping quality of the avocado. Any one of the following defects, or any combination of defects, the seriousness of which exceeds the maximum allowed for any one defect, shall be considered as very serious damage:

(i) Cuts or other skin breaks when not healed and penetrating into the flesh of the fruit, or any skin break very seriously affecting the appearance, or the edible or shipping quality.

(ii) Pulled stems when the skin surrounding the exposed stem cavity is torn more than an aggregate area of a circle one-half inch in diameter, or when the flesh is torn.

(iii) Russeting or similar discoloration when the appearance of the avocado is affected to a greater extent than that of an avocado which has light-brown surface discoloration aggregating 50 per cent of the fruit surface.

(iv) Scars or scab when the appearance of the avocado is affected to a greater extent than that of an avocado which has light-brown superficial, fairly smooth scars aggregating 50 per cent of the fruit surface.

(v) Sunburn when the appearance of the avocado is affected to a greater extent than that of an avocado which has greenish-yellow colored sunburn aggregating 50 per cent of the fruit surface.

(vi) Sunscald or sprayburn when not well healed, or when the appearance of the avocado is affected to a greater extent than that of an avocado which has light-brown superficial, fairly smooth scars aggregating 50 per cent of the fruit surface.

Subchapter B—Standard Samples

PART 230—STANDARD SAMPLES AND REFERENCE STANDARDS ISSUED BY NATIONAL BUREAU OF STANDARDS

SUBPART B—STANDARD SAMPLES WITH SCHEDULE OF WEIGHTS AND FEES

DESCRIPTIVE LIST; MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

In accordance with the provisions of section 4 (a) and (c) of the Administrative Procedure Act, it has been found that notice and hearing on these schedules of fees are unnecessary for the reason that such procedures, because of the nature of these rules, serve no useful purpose. These schedules are effective from April 2, 1956.

Section 230.11 Descriptive list, is amended as follows:

1. The schedule in paragraph (m), Spectrographic standards, subparagraph (1) Steels, is amended by the addition of standards 445 through 450 and 845 through 850 to read as follows:

| Sample Nos.[1] | Description | Price per sample |
|---|---|---|
| 445 845 | Cr 13-Mo 0.9 (Modified AISI 410) | $6.00 |
| 446 846 | Cr 18-Ni 9 (Modified AISI 321) | 6.00 |
| 447 847 | Cr 24-Ni 13 (Modified AISI 309) | 6.00 |
| 448 848 | Cr 9-Mo 0.3 (Modified AISI 403) | 6.00 |
| 449 849 | Cr 5.5-Ni 6.5 | 6.00 |
| 450 850 | Cr 3-Ni 25 | 6.00 |

[1] Sizes are: 400 series, rods 5/32 inch in diameter, 4 inches long; 800 series, rods 1/2 inch in diameter, 2 inches long.

2. The schedule in paragraph (p) Standards for rubber compounding, is amended to read as follows:

| Sample No. | Name | Approximate weight of sample in grams | Price per sample |
|---|---|---|---|
| 370a | Zinc oxide | 2,000 | $2.15 |
| 371b | Sulfur | 1,400 | 1.75 |
| 372b | Stearic acid | 600 | 1.90 |
| 373b | Benzothiazyl disulfide | 500 | 1.75 |
| 374a | Tetramethyl thiuramdisulfide | 500 | 3.50 |
| 375c | Channel black | 7,500 | 3.50 |
| 376a | Light magnesia oxide | 450 | 2.40 |
| 377 | Phenyl-beta-naphthylamine | 600 | 4.00 |
| 378 | Oil furnace black | 7,000 | 3.50 |
| 379 | Conducting black | 5,500 | 3.50 |
| 380 | Calcium carbonate | 6,000 | 2.50 |
| 381 | Calcium silicate | 4,000 | 2.50 |
| 382 | Gas furnace black | 7,500 | 3.50 |

NOTE: Normally, samples are shipped railway express, express charges collect.

3. The schedule in paragraph (q) Standard oils for use as viscometer calibrating liquids, is amended to read as follows:

(q) Standard oils for use as viscometer calibrating liquids. These oils are not intended for use as permanent viscosity standards. They are not suitable for stockroom items and should be ordered only for immediate use. They are available only in containers of nominal one-pint capacity. This quantity is sufficient for the calibration of most viscometers. In cases where a larger quantity (e. g. duplicate samples) is required, a satisfactory explanation of the need for the larger quantity must be given in the order or accompanying letter. All available liquids are hydrocarbon oils and are listed in the tables below:

(1) For use with viscometers calibrated in units of absolute or kinematic viscosity. (i) Price covers the sample and a report containing accurate values at the time of shipment, for absolute viscosity, kinematic viscosity, and density at the following temperatures:

Oils D through N—— 20° C., 25° C., 100° F., and 210° F.
Oil OB———— 20° C., 25° C., and 40° C.
Oil P———— 30° C., 40° C., and 50° C.

(ii) Viscosity values at other temperatures in the range 20° C. to 100° C. (30° C. to 100° C. for Oil P) are supplied as a special service. For Oils D through N, the charge for this special service is $15 per sample per temperature. For Oils OB and P, the charge is $32 per sample per temperature. These special service charges are in addition to the charge for the sample and usual report.

(iii) The approximate viscosities and the prices of the calibrating oils are as follows:

| Oil | Absolute viscosity, in poises, at— | | | | Kinematic viscosity, in stokes, at— | | | | Price per sample f. o. b. Washington, D. C. |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| | 20° C. | 25° C. | 100° F. | 210° F. | 20° C. | 25° C. | 100° F. | 210° F. | |
| D | 0.020 | 0.018 | 0.014 | 0.006 | 0.026 | 0.023 | 0.019 | 0.008 | $15.00 |
| H | .071 | .063 | .044 | .013 | .091 | .078 | .055 | .017 | 15.00 |
| I | .12 | .10 | .066 | .017 | .14 | .12 | .081 | .022 | 15.00 |

| L | 1.0 | .74 | .37 | .049 | 1.1 | .84 | .43 | .060 | 15.00 |
| M | 3.0 | 2.1 | 1.0 | .089 | 3.4 | 2.4 | 1.1 | .12 | 15.00 |
| N | 14 | 9.6 | 4.0 | .25 | 16 | 11 | 4.6 | .30 | 15.00 |
| | 20° C. | 25° C. | 30° C. | 40° C. | 50° C. | 20° C. | 25° C. | 30° C. | 40° C. | 50° C. | |
| OB | 330 | 210 | | 62 | | 380 | 240 | | 70 | | $32.00 |
| P | | | 480 | 200 | 95 | | | 540 | 230 | 110 | 32.00 |

(2) For use with Saybolt viscometers. (i) Price covers the sample and a report containing an accurate value at the time of shipment, for viscosity at the indicated temperature. Viscosity values at other temperatures or in other units are not supplied.

(ii) The approximate viscosities and the prices of the Saybolt calibrating oils are as follows:

| Oil | Temperature ° F. | Viscosity | Price per sample (f. o. b. Washington, D. C. |
|---|---|---|---|
| SB | 100 | 300 sec., Saybolt Universal | $6.50 |
| SC | 130 | 300 sec., Saybolt Universal | 6.50 |
| SF | 122 | 100 sec., Saybolt Furol | 6.50 |

NOTE: On account of the nature of the material, samples of oils for use as viscometer calibrating liquids will be shipped via railway express, express charges collect.

Chapter I—Federal Trade Commission

[Docket 5898]

PART 13—DIGEST OF CEASE AND DESIST ORDERS

HARPER & BROTHERS

Subpart—Discriminating in price under section 2, Clayton Act, as amended:

§ 13.715 Charges and price differentials; § 13.770 Quantity rebates or discounts. Subparts—Maintaining resale prices: § 13.1145 Discrimination: Distributive channels and outlets generally.

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 721; 15 U. S. C. 46. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended; sec. 2, 38 Stat. 730, as amended; 15 U. S. C. 45, 13) [Cease and desist order, Harper & Brothers, New York, N. Y., Docket 5898, March 22, 1956]

This proceeding was heard by a hearing examiner on the complaint of the Commission—charging a New York corporate book publisher in three counts with discriminating in price in the sale of trade books, through, (1) entering into contracts with book clubs which leased them the printing plates, granting them exclusive rights to publish, sell, and distribute "book club editions" of certain titles of their trade books; (2) fixing and maintaining minimum resale prices for its publisher's editions of certain of its trade books sold to retail book seller customers, while permitting book clubs to sell their "book club editions" of the same titles at any prices and on any terms and conditions they might determine; and (3) selling its trade books at greater discounts off list prices to some purchasers than to certain of their competitors—and an agreement between the parties providing for the entry of a consent order in settlement of counts 1 and 2 identical with that issued in the case of Doubleday & Company, Inc., Docket 5897, on August 31, 1955.

After receipt of a substantial amount of evidence in support of the charge in count 3, counsel for the parties entered into a stipulation of facts applicable to that count, which the hearing examiner accepted. He thereupon entered his order to cease and desist, and the Commission, after adopting an amendment requested by respondent and denying for lack of proof its alternative request on appeal, on March 22, 1956, adopted the initial decision, as modified, as the decision of the Commission.

Said order to cease and desist is as follows:

It is ordered, That respondent Harper & Brothers, a corporation, its officers, representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the publication, sale or distribution of trade books in commerce, as "commerce" is defined, construed and understood in the Federal Trade Commission Act (15 U. S. C. A. 45) do forthwith cease and desist from: Entering into, maintaining or continuing any contract, agreement or understanding of any nature, with any book club or similar organization, whereby respondent, while exempting said book club or organization from any responsibility for resale price maintenance, undertakes to fix, establish or maintain the resale price, terms or conditions of sale of any literary work which it publishes and sells and which it also sub-licenses such book club or organization to publish and sell, in any area wherein said book club or organization and retail booksellers purchasing from respondent compete with one another in the sale of such work.

It is further ordered, That the respondent, Harper & Brothers, a corporation, its officers, representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the sale of trade books in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the aforesaid Clayton Act, do forthwith cease and desist from: Directly or indirectly discriminating in price between different purchasers of its trade books by selling such books to any of its purchasers at higher prices than it sells the same books by whatever titles, of like grade and quality, to others of its purchasers where such purchasers are in competition with each other in the resale or distribution of said books.

It is further ordered, That any and all other charges contained in the complaint are herewith dismissed.

By the Commission's order, report of compliance was required as follows:

It is further ordered, That Harper & Brothers, the respondent herein, shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon it of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with the order to cease and desist.

Issued: March 23, 1956.

By the Commission.

[Public Land Order 1284]

[Misc. 1919712]

ALASKA

REVOKING PUBLIC LAND ORDER NO. 46 OF OCTOBER 8, 1942, WHICH WITHDREW LANDS FOR CLASSIFICATION AND IN AID OF LEGISLATION; WITHDRAWING A PORTION OF RELEASED LANDS FOR RECREATIONAL PURPOSES

By virtue of the authority vested in the President by section 1 of the act of June 25, 1910 (36 Stat. 847; 43 U. S. C. 141) and otherwise, and pursuant to Executive Order No. 10355 of May 26, 1952, it is ordered as follows:

1. Public Land Order No. 46 of October 8, 1942, temporarily withdrawing certain lands in Alaska for classification and in aid of legislation, which was partially revoked by Public Land Order No. 616 of November 15, 1949 and No. 823 of May 9, 1952, is hereby revoked in its entirety. The following lands are released from withdrawal by this order:

COPPER RIVER MERIDIAN

T. 4 N., R. 1 W.,
Sec. 29, SW¼;
Sec. 30, SE¼;
Sec. 32, lots 1, 2, W½NE¼, NW¼.
T. 4 N., R. 2 W.,
Sec. 19, unsurveyed.

The areas described aggregate 1,248.44 acres.

2. Subject to valid existing rights, the following-described lands, which are a portion of the lands described in paragraph 1 of this order, are hereby withdrawn from all forms of appropriation under the public-land laws, including the mining but not the mineral-leasing laws, and excepting disposals of materials under the act of July 31, 1947 (61 Stat. 681) as amended by the act of July 23, 1955 (69 Stat. 367; 30 U. S. C. 601–604), and reserved under jurisdiction of the Bureau of Land Management for public use as a scenic overlook:

COPPER RIVER MERIDIAN

T. 4 N., R. 1 W.,
Sec. 32, lot 2.

The area described contained 26.33 acres.

3. The following public lands are restored to disposition under the public-land laws by this order:

COPPER RIVER MERIDIAN

T. 4 N., R. 1 W.,
Sec. 29, SW¼;
Sec. 30, SE¼;
Sec. 32, lot 1, W½NE¼, NW¼.
T. 4 N., R. 2 W.,
Sec. 19, unsurveyed.

The areas described aggregate 1,222.11 acres.

4. Subject to any valid existing rights and the requirements of applicable law, the surveyed public lands described in paragraph 3 hereof, are hereby opened to filing of applications, selections, and locations in accordance with the following:

a. Applications and selections under the nonmineral public-land laws may be presented to the Manager mentioned below, beginning on the date of this order. Such applications and selections will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraphs:

(1) Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

(2) All valid applications under the Homestead, Alaska Home Site, and Small Tract Laws by qualified veterans of World War II or of the Korean Conflict, and by others entitled to preference rights under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279–284 as amended), presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on May 15, 1956, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such preference right applications filed after that hour and before 10:00 a. m. on August 14, 1956, will be governed by the time of filing.

5. Subject to any valid existing rights and the requirements of applicable law, the unsurveyed public lands released from withdrawal by paragraph 3 of this order, are hereby opened to filing of applications, selections, and locations as are allowable on unsurveyed lands in accordance with the following:

a. Subject to the applications and claims described in paragraph b (1) below, the lands beginning 10:00 a. m. on May 15, 1956, will be subject to settlement under the Homestead and Alaska Home Site Laws by qualified veterans of World War II or of the Korean Conflict, and by others entitled to preference rights under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279–284 as amended). Beginning at 10:00 a. m. on August 14, 1956, any remaining lands will be subject to settlement under those laws by other qualified persons.

b. Applications and selections under the nonmineral public-land laws may be presented to the Manager mentioned below, beginning on the date of this order. Such applications and selections will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraphs:

(1) Applications by persons having preference rights conferred by existing laws or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

(2) All valid applications under the Small Tract Laws by qualified veterans of World War II or of the Korean Conflict, and by others entitled to preference rights under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279–284 as amended), presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on May 15, 1956, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such preference right applications after that hour and before 10:00 a. m. on August 14, 1956, will be governed by the time of filing.

6. All valid applications and selections under the nonmineral public-land laws, other than those coming under paragraphs 4 (a) (1) and (2) and 5 (b) (1) and (2) above, presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on August 14, 1956, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such applications and selections filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

7. The lands have been open to applications and offers under the mineral-leasing laws and to location for metalliferous minerals. They will be open to location for non-metalliferous minerals under the United States mining laws beginning at 10:00 a. m. on August 14, 1956.

8. Persons claiming veterans' preference rights under paragraphs 4 (a) (1) and (2) and 5 (b) (1) and (2) above must enclose with their applications proper evidence of military or naval service, preferably a complete photostatic copy of the certificate of honorable discharge. Persons claiming preference rights based upon valid settlement, statutory preference, or equitable claims must enclose properly corroborated statements in support of their applications, setting forth all facts relevant to their claims. Detailed rules and regulations governing applications which may be filed pursuant to this notice can be found in Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Inquiries concerning the lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Anchorage, Alaska.

TITLE 50—WILDLIFE

Chapter I—Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior

Subchapter B—Hunting and Possession of Wildlife

PART 6—MIGRATORY BIRDS AND CERTAIN GAME MAMMALS

ORDER REVOKING ORDER PERMITTING KILLING OF COOTS IN AGRICULTURAL AREAS OF CALIFORNIA

Pursuant to the authority conferred upon me by the order of the Secretary of the Interior, dated January 13, 1956 (21 F. R. 336), I have determined that coots are not likely to cause serious injury to agricultural crops through depredation in the counties of Fresno, Kern, Kings, Madera, Merced, Stanislaus, and Tulare, California, after April 15, 1956. Accordingly, the order permitting the killing of coots on or over agricultural crops in said counties, dated January 25, 1956 (21 F. R. 678), is revoked effective midnight April 15, 1956.

(Sec. 3, 40 Stat. 755, as amended, 16 U. S. C. 704. Interprets or applies E. O. 10250, 16 F. R. 5385, 3 CFR, 1951 Supp.)

Since this order is an emergency measure, notice and public procedure thereon are impracticable (60 Stat: 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.).

Issued at Washington, D. C., and dated April 11, 1956.

Subchapter E—Alaska Wildlife Protection

PART 46—TAKING ANIMALS, BIRDS, AND GAME FISHES

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Basis and purpose. On May 24, 1955, amendments to Part 46, Title 50, Code of Federal Regulations, were adopted to prescribe hunting, trapping, and fishing seasons and limits on game and fur animals, birds, and game fishes in Alaska for the season beginning July 1, 1955. These amendments were adopted pursuant to authority contained in section 9 of the Alaska Game Law of January 13, 1925, as amended (43 Stat. 743; 48 U. S. C. 198), and were published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on June 4, 1955 (20 F. R. 3895).

Wildlife investigations subsequently conducted in Southeastern Alaska have established that the land otter population has increased to a high level resulting from a relatively minor effort directed toward taking these animals. At its meeting conducted in Juneau, Alaska during the week of February 13, 1956, the Alaska Game Commission recommended that the regulations governing the taking of fur animals be so amended as to permit the trapping of land otters in the greater portion of Southeastern Alaska (Fur District 1) during the beaver season extending from April 15 to May 15, 1956. The Alaska Game Commission also recommended that sport fishing be allowed in the main stream and most tributaries of the Tanana River, thereby making it possible to utilize a grayling migration which is available only during the early spring months. Accordingly, the regulations under the Alaska Game Law are amended as follows:

1. Section 46.126 is amended to read as follows:

§ 46.126 Methods and means. Fur animals may be taken by any means except by aid or use of a set gun, a shotgun, artificial light of any kind, a steel bear trap or other trap with jaws having a spread exceeding 9 inches, poison, a dog (other than for taking wolves and coyotes in Fur Districts 5, 6, 7, and 8), a fish trap or net, by setting any trap or snare within 25 feet of a beaver house or den or within 100 feet of a fox den, by use of smoke or chemicals, by destroying or disturbing houses, dens, dams, or runways of such animals: Provided, That mink and beaver may be taken only by means of a steel trap or snare only by persons who have attained the age of 11 years: Provided further, That snares larger than No. 1 are prohibited on the Kenai Peninsula, except in the taking of beaver: Provided further, That land otter may not be taken with a steel trap smaller than size 48 during any closed season on mink and marten: Provided further, That wolves and coyotes may be killed at any time by means of a bow and arrow, rifle, shotgun, or pistol, by any person permitted to carry firearms: Provided further, That no aircraft shall be used in taking fur animals, except as a means of transportation between a settlement or point of outfitting and a single base camp, and for locating, but not for taking, polar bear, and for the taking of wolves and coyotes by authorized predator-control agents or by persons conducting operations under authority of a permit: And provided further, That no helicopter shall be used in any manner in the taking or transportation of fur animals, including polar bear.

2. The schedule constituting a part of § 46.128 Seasons, limits, and other provisions, as the same appears in 20 F. R. 3897, is amended by deleting the words "land otter" from the subheading "Mink, marten, land otter, fox, lynx, weasel (ermine) and wolverine" and by inserting in the schedule immediately following the respective column headings entitled "Areas open to trapping," "Seasons" and "Limits" the following:

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Land otter | | |
| Fur District 1 (except within ¼ mile of the hightide line on the mainland beach from Thane to Eagle River near Juneau). | Apr. 15–May 15 | No limit. |
| Fur District 2: | | |
| Montague Island | No open season | No open season. |
| Drainage into Prince William Sound and eastward along the Gulf of Alaska to Cape Suckling. | Nov. 20–Dec. 20 | |
| Remainder of Fur District 2 | Nov. 16–Jan. 31 | No limit. |
| Fur Districts 3 through 8 | Nov. 16–Jan. 31 | |

3. The schedule constituting a part of § 46.156 Seasons, limits, and other provisions, as last revised September 27, 1955 (20 F. R. 7371), is further revised by deleting that part which reads: "The Tanana River Watershed," etc., and inserting in lieu thereof under the column headings entitled "Areas open to fishing" and "Seasons," respectively, the words and dates "Shaw Creek and the Tanana River for 3 miles below Shaw Creek (in Tanana River watershed)—July 1–Mar. 31 and May 28–June 30" and also by adding to that portion of the schedule which reads: "Remainder of Alaska for which a season is not prescribed above" the following: "Provided, That fishing in the stocked gravel pits along the Richardson Highway is permitted only for persons under 16 years of age: Provided further, That fly fishing only is permitted in the Salcha and Little Salcha Rivers." As so revised, the said schedule, in pertinent part, will read as follows:

| Areas open to fishing | Seasons | Limits |
| • • • | • • • | • • |
| Shaw Creek and the Tanana River for 3 miles below Shaw Creek (in Tanana River watershed). | July 1–Mar. 31 and May 28–June 30. | |
| Fielding Lake and its inlets (in Tanana River watershed) | July 1–Mar. 31 and June 10–June 30. | |
| Remainder of Alaska for which a season is not prescribed above: Provided, That fishing in the stocked gravel pits along the Richardson Highway is permitted only for persons under 16 years of age: Provided further, That fly fishing only is permitted in the Salcha and Little Salcha Rivers. | No closed season. | • • |

(Sec. 9, 43 Stat. 743, as amended; 48 U. S. C. 198)

Since the foregoing amendments relieve existing restrictions on the taking of land otter and game fish in the Territory of Alaska, notice and public procedure are unnecessary and they shall become effective immediately (5 U. S. C. 1003 (c)).

Issued at Washington, D. C., and dated April 6, 1956.

CLARENCE A. DAVIS,
Acting Secretary of the Interior.

Food and Drug Administration

[21 CFR Part 19]

CHEESES; PROCESSED CHEESES; CHEESE FOODS; CHEESE SPREADS; AND RELATED FOODS; DEFINITIONS AND STANDARDS OF IDENTITY

NOTICE OF PROPOSAL TO ESTABLISH AN IDENTITY STANDARD FOR NUWORLD CHEESE AND TO AMEND THE IDENTITY STANDARDS FOR PASTEURIZED PROCESS CHEESE AND CERTAIN RELATED FOODS

In the matter of establishing a definition and standard of identity for nuworld cheese and amending the definition and standards of identity for pasteurized process cheese; pasteurized process cheese food; pasteurized process cheese spread; cold-pack cheese, club cheese, comminuted cheese; and cold-pack cheese food:

Notice is hereby given that a petition has been filed by the National Cheese Institute, Inc., 110 North Franklin Street, Chicago 6, Illinois, setting forth a proposal to establish a definition and standard of identity for nuworld cheese and proposing that the definitions and standards of identity for pasteurized process cheese (§ 19.750); pasteurized process cheese food (§ 19.765); pasteurized process cheese spread (§ 19.775); cold-pack cheese, club cheese, comminuted cheese (§ 19.785); and cold-pack cheese food (§ 19.787) be amended by inserting the words "nuworld cheese" after the words "blue cheese" in the first and second sentences of paragraph (a) (6) of each of these standards.

The proposal submitted by the National Cheese Institute for a definition and standard of identity for nuworld cheese is as follows:

§ 19.... Nuworld cheese; identity. (a) Nuworld cheese is the food prepared from milk and other ingredients specified in this section, by the procedure set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, or by another procedure which produces a finished cheese having the same physical and chemical properties as the cheese produced when the procedure set forth in paragraph (b) of this section is used. It is characterized by the presence of creamy-white mold throughout the cheese. It contains not more than 46 percent of moisture, and its solids contain not less than 50 percent of milk fat, as determined by the methods prescribed in § 19.500 (c). It is not less than 60 days old.

(b) Milk, which may be pasteurized or clarified or both, which may be warmed, and which may be homogenized, is subjected to the action of harmless lactic-acid-producing bacteria, present in such milk or added thereto. Harmless artificial green or blue coloring, in a quantity which neutralizes any natural yellow coloring in the curd, may be added. Sufficient rennet (with or without purified calcium chloride in a quantity not more than 0.02 percent, calculated as anhydrous calcium chloride of the weight of the milk) is added to set the milk to a semisolid mass. The mass is cut into smaller portions and allowed to stand for a time. The mixed curd and whey is placed in forms permitting further drainage. While being placed in forms, spores of a white mutant of the mold Penicillium roquefortii are added. The forms are turned several times during drainage. When sufficiently drained, the shaped curd is removed from the form and salted with dry salt or brine. Perforations are then made in the shaped curd, and it is held at a temperature of approximately 50° F., at 90 percent to 95 percent relative humidity, until the characteristic mold growth has developed. During storage, the surface of the cheese may be scraped to remove surface growth of undesirable microorganisms. A harmless preparation of enzymes of animal or plant origin capable of aiding in the curing or development of flavor of nuworld cheese may be added during the procedure, in such quantity that the weight of the solids of such preparation is not more than 0.1 percent of the weight of the milk used.

(c) For the purposes of this section, the word "milk" means cow's milk, which may be adjusted by separating part of the fat therefrom or by adding thereto one or more of the following: Cream, concentrated skim milk, nonfat dry milk solids, water in a quantity sufficient to reconstitute any concentrated skim milk or nonfat dry milk solids used.

Pursuant to the authority of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 401, 52 Stat. 1046, 68 Stat. 54; 21 U. S. C. 341), delegated to him by the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare (20 F. R. 1996), the Commissioner of Food and Drugs invites all interested persons to present their views in writing regarding these proposals and to submit such comments in quintuplicate prior to the thirtieth day following the publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Written comments should be addressed to the Hearing Clerk, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Room 5440, Health, Education, and Welfare Building, 330 Independence Avenue SW., Washington 25, D. C.

Dated: April 6, 1956.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

Bureau of Foreign Commerce

[Case No. 207A]

PETER MEYNS & CO.

ORDER REVOKING EXPORT LICENSES AND DENYING EXPORT PRIVILEGES

In the matter of Peter Meyns, doing business under the firm name and style of Peter Meyns & Co., Gertrudenkirchhof 10, Hamburg 1, Germany; respondent.

Peter Meyns, doing business under the firm name and style of Peter Meyns & Co., in Hamburg, Germany, hereinafter referred to as the respondent, was charged by the Director, Investigation Staff, Bureau of Foreign Commerce of the Department of Commerce, with having violated the Export Control Act of 1949, as amended, in that, as alleged, (a) he knowingly transshipped to Communist China large quantites of potassium bichromate and sodium bichromate originally received by him from the United States; (b) he knowingly attempted to transship to Communist China a large quantity of potassium bichromate exported from the United States under a general license with a bill of lading restricting its destination to Germany; (c) he knowingly transshipped to Communist China a large quantity of paraffin wax exported from the United States after he had represented that the wax had been sold in West Germany; and (d) that with knowledge that certain butyl alcohol exported from the United States was destined for Communist China and that shipment to that destination was prohibited, he exported said commodity to Hong Kong. He duly answered the charges and interposed numerous defenses, alleging, (a) a belief that, in those cases where no validated export license was involved, reexportation could be made anywhere; (b) lack of knowledge of U. S. export control regulations prohibiting reexportation to Communist China; (c) that such reexportations as he had made were made pursuant to "transit licenses" issued by various European Governments; (d) that one of the transactions was handled by an employee without his approval; and (e) that his trade in American goods with China was an expedient to which he resorted when German goods became unavailable and that the goods were of no strategic importance. He also alleged that his profits were insignificant, that he is no longer making purchases of U. S. goods, and that he had cooperated fully in the investigation.

In accordance with the practice, this case was referred to the Compliance Commissioner. After the evidence was submitted, the Compliance Commissioner in due course made his report and recommendation, which, upon the facts as hereinafter found, appears to be fair and just and is therefore adopted.

Now, after considering the entire record consisting of the charges, the answers of the respondents, the evidence submitted in support of the charges and the report and recommendation of the Compliance Commissioner, I hereby make the following findings of fact:

1. At all times hereinafter mentioned Peter Meyns was engaged in the export and import business under the firm name and style of Peter Meyns & Co., in Hamburg, Germany.

2. At all times hereinafter mentioned none of the commodities involved herein might have been shipped from the United States (or transshipped after shipment from the United States) to Hong Kong or China without prior approval from the Bureau of Foreign Commerce of the United States Department of Commerce.

3. In November 1954, an American exporter shipped to Meyns 50 tons of potassium bichromate and 100 tons of sodium bichromate and, at the time when these shipments were made, the bills of lading issued in connection therewith had endorsed thereon the legend, "These commodities licensed by U. S. for ultimate destination Germany. Diversion contrary to U. S. law prohibited."

4. On or about December 31, 1954, Meyns, with knowledge of such restriction against diversion and, having been informed that goods exported from the United States could not be transshipped to Communist China without prior approval, caused the same to be transshipped to Communist China via Poland without such prior approval.

5. On or about November 16, 1954, Meyns, after demand by his American supplier that he state the country of ultimate destination, informed his American supplier that 100 tons of paraffin wax being purchased by him were to be sold in West Germany.

6. The American supplier, in reliance upon such representation, exported to Meyns said 100 tons of paraffin wax.

7. Meyns thereafter, on or about the 25th day of February 1955, without prior approval by the Bureau of Foreign Commerce, caused said 100 tons of paraffin wax to be shipped to Communist China via Gdynia, Poland.

8. In July 1954, Meyns purchased approximately 100 tons of butyl alcohol from a supplier in the United States and said butyl alcohol was thereafter exported to him from the United States.

9. After said butyl alcohol arrived in Hamburg, Meyns, with knowledge that it was destined for Canton, China, caused approximately one-half thereof to be transshipped to Hong Kong. Such transshipment was effected on January 6, 1955, without prior approval by the Bureau of Foreign Commerce.

And, from the foregoing, it is my conclusion that Meyns knowingly diverted and transshipped or caused to be transshipped commodities exported from the United States in violation of § 381.6 of the export control regulations then in effect.

In his report the Compliance Commissioner said:

> All communications received from Meyns are replete with assertions of sincerity, lack of intention to violate, lack of knowledge of U. S. export control restrictions and promises to abide by all U. S. regulations in the future. He makes a very strong case, on its face, for lenient treatment. On the other hand, the information which has been brought to my attention is very much to the contrary and, in the last analysis, it appears that all transshipments were accomplished subsequent to a detailed warning received from the American vice-consul. Under the circumstances I see no reason to deviate from the previous practice, in cases of this nature, of denying export privileges so long as export controls are in effect. However, because of the strong protestations made by Meyns as to his intended conduct in the future, (because he has been temporarily denied export privileges since April 27, 1955) and because he seems to have cooperated in the investigation, it is further my recommendation that after the order to be entered herein has been in effect for two years, export privileges be restored to him conditioned upon his at all times thereafter complying with all export control regulations.

Having concluded that the recommended action is fair, just, and necessary to achieve effective enforcement of the law: It is hereby ordered:

I. All outstanding validated export licenses in which Peter Meyns or his firm Peter Meyns & Co. appears or participates as purchaser, intermediate or ultimate consignee, or otherwise, are hereby revoked and shall be returned forthwith to the Bureau of Foreign Commerce for cancellation.

II. Henceforth, and for the duration of export controls, the said respondent be, and he hereby is suspended from and denied all privileges of participating, directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity, in an exportation of any commodity or technical data from the United States to any foreign destination, including Canada, whether such exportation has heretofore or hereafter been completed. Without limitation of the generality of the foregoing denial of export privileges, participation in an exportation is deemed to include and prohibit participation by the respondent, directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity, (a) as a party or as a representative of a party to any validated export license application, (b) in the obtaining or using of any validated or general export license or other export control documents, (c) in the receiving, ordering, buying, selling, using, or disposing in any foreign country of any commodities in whole or in part exported or to be exported from the United States, and (d) in storing, financing, forwarding, transporting, or other servicing of such exports from the United States.

III. Such denial of export privileges shall extend not only to the respondent, but also to any person, firm, corporation, or business organization with which he may be now or hereafter related by ownership, control, position of responsibility, or other connection in the conduct of trade in which may be involved exports from the United States or services connected therewith.

IV. Upon condition that the respondent complies in all respects with this order, and with all other requirements of the Export Control Act of 1949, as amended, and all regulations promulgated thereunder, commencing two years following the date hereof, he may engage in and enjoy all export privileges permitted by United States laws and regulations.

V. The privileges conditionally restored to the respondent under Part IV hereof, may be revoked summarily and without notice upon a finding by the Director of the Office of Export Supply, or such other official as may at that time be exercising the duties now exercised by him, that the respondent has, at any time following the date hereof, knowingly failed to comply with any of the conditions or provisions upon which or whereby, by Part IV hereof, he has been permitted to engage in any phase of the export business otherwise denied to him under Part II hereof, without prejudice to any other action which may be taken by reason of any such new or additonal violation. In the event that it be so determined that the respondent has breached the conditions of Part IV hereof, the suspension and denial of his export privileges shall be deemed to commence on the day of such determination and shall continue thereafter for the duration of export controls.

VI. No person, firm, corporation, partnership, or other business organization, whether in the United States or elsewhere, during any time when the respondent is prohibited under the terms hereof from engaging in any activity within the scope of Part II hereof, shall, without prior disclosure to, and specific authorization from the Bureau of Foreign Commerce, directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity, (a) apply for, obtain, or use any license, shipper's export declaration, bill of lading, or other export control document relating to any such prohibited activity, (b) order, receive, buy, use, dispose of, finance, transport or forward, any commodity on behalf of or in any association with the respondent, or (c) do any of the foregoing acts with respect to any commodity or exportation in which the respondent may have any interest of any kind or nature, direct or indirect.

Dated: April 10, 1956.

ORDER REVOKING EXPORT LICENSES AND DENYING EXPORT PRIVILEGES

In the matter of Eugene Hobart Cole, Hidalgo, Texas; Jerome Herbert Ross, doing business under the firm name and style of Blake-Smith Pipe & Steel Co., 4121 Riverside Drive, Burbank, California; Blakely Smith, 2920 Rice Boulevard, Houston, Texas; respondents.

The respondents, Eugene Hobart Cole, Jerome Herbert Ross, doing business under the firm name and style of Blake-Smith Pipe & Steel Co., and Blakely Smith, were charged by the Director, Investigation Staff, Bureau of Foreign Commerce, with having violated the Export Control Act of 1949, as amended, in connection with the submission to the Office of International Trade (now the Bureau of Foreign Commerce) of an application for a license to ship used structural steel to a firm in Mexico, which license was thereafter utilized, with the aid of various export declarations, to export different material, ultimately delivered to a consignee other than the consignee named in the export license and in the export declarations. The respondent Cole originally appeared by attorney and filed an answer denying the charges. The respondent Ross failed to appear or answer. The respondent Blakely Smith has admitted the charges and has submitted a proposal for a consent order in accordance with § 382.10 of the export control regulations, and the Director of the Investigation Staff has agreed to such proposal. The charging letter, Cole's answer, and Smith's consent proposal were referred to the Compliance Commissioner, who has held a hearing at which the evidence in support of the charges was submitted. The Compliance Commissioner's report and recommendation have been received and, his recommendation appearing to be fair and just, it is hereby adopted.

Now, after reviewing the entire record and considering the report of the Compliance Commissioner, I hereby make the following findings of fact:

1. At all times hereinafter mentioned, Jerome Herbert Ross was engaged in business in Beverly Hills, California, under the firm name and style of Blake-Smith Pipe & Steel Co. and Blakely Smith was associated with him in that business, from time to time, including the times hereinafter mentioned.

2. That at some time prior to March 11, 1952, respondents Ross and Smith, together with respondent Eugene Hobart Cole, entered into an arrangement which contemplated the exportation by them of scrap from the United States to Mexico.

3. In furtherance of that arrangement, respondent Ross, on or about March 11, 1952, submitted to the Office of International Trade, (hereinafter referred to as OIT and now known as the Bureau of Foreign Commerce), an application for a license to export "used structural steel beams, channels and heavy plate (not including rails or axles) for rerolling into plate and skelp" to a consignee firm in Monterrey, Mexico, and by the said application represented that he had a contract for the sale of said metal to said consignee firm and that the metal would be "rerolled into plate and skelp to make oil pipe for the petroleum industry of Mexico."

4. In reliance on such representations, OIT, on March 21, 1952, issued to Ross a license authorizing the exportation of 2,240 tons of such metal, valued at $74,000 to the named consignee.

5. On or about April 17, 1952, respondent Cole obtained an order for the shipment of 2,000 metric tons of unprepared No. 1 scrap steel to another mill in Monterrey, Mexico, and, in furtherance of the arrangement among the respondents, paid to respondents Ross and Smith the sum of $2,240 and received from them the export license bearing the endorsement of Blake-Smith Pipe & Steel Co. by Blakely Smith and naming still another person as attorney-in-fact.

6. Thereafter, commencing May 16, 1952, having been provided with the license by Ross and Smith, respondent Cole caused to be executed three export declarations and himself executed twenty-one export declarations wherein and whereby he certified or caused to be certified that the shipments therein described were being exported to the mill in Monterrey, Mexico, which had been named in the export license and that the shipments were being made pursuant to that license.

7. Respondent Cole, at the times of presentation of said export declarations to United States Customs officials, exported from the United States, and then caused to be delivered to a consignee other than the consignee named in the license and the export declarations, scrap steel rather than used structural steel as described in such declarations and, in the aggregate, the scrap steel so exported amounted to about 1186 metric tons, none of which was ever received by the consignee named in the license and the export declarations, the actual recipient being the purchaser from whom Cole had obtained an order as set forth in Finding 5 above.

8. That at the time of the filing of the application for export license, respondent Ross had no agreement such as that set forth by him in said application for the sale of the used structural steel to the consignee therein named and the said application was filed by him in furtherance of the arrangement to which reference is made in Finding 2.

And, from the foregoing, it is my conclusion

A. That respondent Ross made false and misleading statements and representations in an application for an export license, in violation of § 381.1 (b) of the export control regulations then in effect;

B. That respondent Cole made false and misleading statements and representations in export declarations, in violation of § 381.1 (b) of the export control regulations then in effect;

C. That respondent Cole did make, and respondents Ross and Smith did cause to be made an unauthorized use of an export license, in violation of § 381.3 of the export control regulations then in effect.

In making his recommendation, the Compliance Commissioner took note of the fact that all the respondents herein were convicted upon criminal charges arising out of the facts set forth above; he has found Cole and Ross to have been more culpable than Smith and he has given additional consideration to the fact that Smith submitted a consent proposal to which the Director of the Investigation Staff has agreed. The recommendations of the Compliance Commissioner, as hereinafter embodied in this order, are fair and just and the action proposed is necessary to achieve effective enforcement of the law: It is now therefore ordered:

I. All outstanding validated export licenses in which Eugene Hobart Cole or Jerome Herbert Ross or Blake-Smith Pipe and Steel Co. or Blakely Smith appears or participates as purchaser, intermediate or ultimate consignee, or otherwise, are hereby revoked and shall be returned forthwith to the Bureau of Foreign Commerce for cancellation.

II. (a) The respondents Eugene Hobart Cole and Jerome Herbert Ross, the latter doing business under the firm name and style of Blake-Smith Pipe & Steel Co., for the period of two years from the date hereof are hereby suspended from and denied all privileges of participating, directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity, in an exportation of any commodity or technical data from the United States to any foreign destination, including Canada, whether such exportation has heretofore or hereafter been completed; (b) the respondent Blakely Smith, for the period of one year from the date hereof is hereby suspended from and denied the privileges of participating, directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity, in an exportation of any commodity from the United States to any foreign destination, if a validated export license is required for the exportation of such a commodity, whether such exportation has heretofore or hereafter been completed. Without limitation of the generality of the foregoing denial of export privileges, participation in an exportation is deemed to include and prohibit participation by respondents other than Smith, directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity, (a) as a party or as a representative of a party to any validated export license application, (b) in the obtaining or using of any validated or general export license or other export control documents, (c) in the receiving, ordering, buying, selling, using, or disposing in any foreign country of any commodities in whole or in part exported or to be exported from the United States, and (d) in storing, financing, forwarding, transporting, or other servicing of such exports from the United States.

III. Such denial of export privileges shall extend not only to each of the respondents, but also to any person, firm, corporation, or business organization with which any of them may be now or hereafter related by ownership, control, position of responsibility, or other connection in the conduct of trade in which may be involved exports from the United States or services connected therewith.

IV. No person, firm, corporation, partnership, or other business organization, whether in the United States or elsewhere, during any time when any respondent is prohibited under the terms hereof from engaging in any activity within the scope of Part II hereof, shall, without prior disclosure to, and specific authorization from the Bureau of Foreign Commerce, directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity, (a) apply for, obtain, or use any license, shipper's export declaration, bill of lading, or other export control document relating to any such prohibited activity, (b) order, receive, buy, use, dispose of, finance, transport or forward, any commodity on behalf of or in any association with such respondent, or (c) do any of the foregoing acts with respect to any commodity or exportation in which such respondent may have an interest of any kind or nature, direct or indirect.

SURGICAL STOCKINGS

NOTICE OF CHANGE OF CLASSIFICATION

APRIL 10, 1956.

The Bureau of Customs published a notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER dated December 6, 1955 (20 F. R. 8971), that the tariff classification of certain surgical stockings was under review. The Bureau by its letter to the collector of customs at New York, New York, dated April 10, 1956, ruled that surgical stockings made of net or netting and in chief value of cotton and in part of rubber which were formerly believed to be knit articles are properly classifiable under the provision for articles, wholly or in part of net or netting in paragraph 1529 (a) [18] Tariff Act of 1930, at the rate of 90 percent ad valorem, rather than under the provision for knit cotton articles in paragraph 917, Tariff Act of 1930, as modified, with duty at the rate of 25 percent ad valorem.

As this ruling will result in the assessment of duty at a higher rate than has heretofore been assessed under a uniform practice, it shall be applied to such or similar merchandise only when entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption after 90 days after the date of publication of an abstract of this decision in the weekly Treasury Decisions.

[Docket No. G-9331]

TENNESSEE GAS TRANSMISSION CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND DATE OF HEARING

APRIL 9, 1956.

Take notice that Tennessee Gas Transmission Company (Applicant) a Delaware corporation having its principal place of business at Houston, Texas, filed an application on September 16, 1955, as supplemented on November 16, December 16 and 22, 1955, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing Applicant to sell and deliver peak service gas, as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully represented in the application which is now on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicant proposes to provide peak service to all of its general service (full requirements) customers for the duration of their respective service contracts, such customers being required to qualify each year for the service as provided in Applicant's proposed rate schedule. Applicant proposes herein to deliver additional peak day volumes to certain customers only for the 1955-1956 winter season and only in the amount, if any, by which each customer's estimated peak day requirement exceeds its presently authorized daily quantity. In addition, Applicant proposes to increase the existing permanent authorized allocation of gas by 32 Mcf daily to the Berkshire Gas Company, an existing customer distributing gas to Pittsfield, Massachusetts.

Applicant states that no additional facilities will be required to deliver the proposed increased volumes because existing authorized facilities are adequate to render such service.

The price to be charged for the peak service gas is 70 cents per Mcf.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on May 8, 1956, at 10:00 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such application:

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before April 23, 1956.

UNITED GAS PIPE LINE CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND DATE OF HEARING

APRIL 9, 1956.

Take notice that United Gas Pipe Line Company (Applicant), a Delaware corporation with principal place of business at 1525 Fairfield Avenue, Shreveport, Louisiana, filed on November 10, 1955, as supplemented December 1, 1955, an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing Applicant to render service as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully represented in the application which is on file and open for public inspection.

Applicant proposes to construct and operate certain natural gas facilities as necessary and incident to the proposed sale of natural gas in interstate commerce to The Utilities Board of the Town of Foley, Alabama, commonly known and doing business as Riviera Utilities, (1) for resale and distribution in the municipalities of Bon Secour, Foley, Loxley, Magnolia Springs and Southport, all in Baldwin County, Alabama, and their respective adjoining environs, (2) for resale to the Naval Air Station at Barin Field, near Foley, Alabama, and (3) for resale to farm taps and rural service consumers along and in the vicinity of its transmission lines leading to the aforesaid communities.

The facilities proposed to be constructed and operated by Applicant consist of two 4-inch taps and one 2-inch tap, 60 feet of 4-inch pipe and 25 feet of 2-inch pipe, scrubber installation, regulator station and dual 4-inch orifice meter station, all located near Mile Post 43.36 on Applicant's 12-inch and 16-inch loop lines between Mobile, Alabama, and Pensacola, Florida.

The estimated cost of construction of the proposed facilities is $16,385 which will be paid out of Applicant's current working funds.

The estimated annual requirements and maximum daily demands in Mcf for the first three years of the proposed project are as follows respectively: 1st year, 178,874 and 1,570; 2d year, 196,373 and 1,672; 3d year, 215,219 and 1,772.

This matter is one that should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on Monday, May 16, 1956, at 9:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before April 26, 1956. ## SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 2-10434]

HOUSEHOLD FINANCE CORP.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

APRIL 9, 1956.

Notice is hereby given that Household Finance Corporation (Company) has filed an application under clause (ii) of section 310 (b) (1) of the Trust Indenture Act of 1939 for a finding by the Commission that trusteeship of The First National Bank of Chicago ("First National Bank") under an indenture dated as of September 1, 1953 (1953 Indenture), which was heretofore qualified under the act, and trusteeship by First National Bank under a proposed indenture to be dated as of March 1, 1956 (1956 Indenture), not to be qualified under the act, is not so likely to involve a material conflict of interest as to make it necessary in the public interest or for the protection of investors to disqualify said Trustee from acting as such under the 1953 Indenture and the 1956 Indenture.

Section 310 (b) of the act, which is included in section 7.08 of the 1953 Indenture, provides in part that if an indenture trustee under an indenture qualified under the act has or shall acquire any conflicting interest (as defined in the section), it shall, within ninety days after ascertaining that it has such conflicting interest, either eliminate such conflicting interest or resign. Subsection (1) of this section provides, with certain exceptions stated therein, that a trustee is deemed to have a conflicting interest if it is acting as trustee under a qualified indenture of an issuer and becomes trustee under another indenture of the same issuer. However, pursuant to clause (ii) of subsection (1), an issuer may sustain the burden of proving, on application to the Commission and after opportunity for hearing thereon, that trusteeship under a qualified indenture and another indenture is not so likely to involve a material conflict of interest as to make it necessary in the public interest or for the protection of investors to disqualify such trustee from acting as trustee under one of such indentures.

The Company alleges that:

1. It proposes to issue $25,000,000 (Canadian) aggregate principal amount of 4⅜ percent Sinking Fund Debentures due March 1, 1981, under the 1956 Indenture under which First National Bank is named indenture trustee, and to sell the new debentures to a limited number of purchasers such as banks, insurance companies, pension funds and other institutional or professional type investors, which will purchase the debentures for investment and not with a view to distribution, as a result of which the securities will be exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933 and the 1956 Indenture will be exempt from qualification under the Trust Indenture Act of 1939;

2. It has outstanding $25,000,000 principal amount of its 2¾ percent Sinking Fund Debentures due 1971, issued under an indenture dated as of December 1, 1946, as amended by a first supplemental indenture dated as of July 1, 1948, and by a second supplemental indenture dated as of June 1, 1951 (collectively called "1946 Indenture"), under which First National Bank also is trustee;

3. The 1946 Debentures were sold to a limited number of institutional investors which purchased them for investment and not for distribution as a result of which the offering was exempt from registration under the Securities Act of 1933 and the 1946 Indenture was exempt from qualification under the Trust Indenture Act of 1939;

4. The company also has outstanding $10,000,000 of five-year 3⅞ percent debentures due 1958 and $15,000,000 principal amount of fifteen-year 4⅛ percent debentures due 1968, issued under the 1953 Indenture dated as of September 1, 1953, under which First National Bank is trustee;

5. Debentures issued under the 1953 Debenture were registered under the Securities Act of 1933 and the 1953 Indenture was qualified under the Trust Indenture Act of 1939;

6. The 1953 Indenture and the 1956 Indenture are wholly unsecured;

7. Section 7.08 of the 1953 Indenture, which embodies the provisions of section 310 (b) (1) of the Trust Indenture Act, specifically excludes the 1946 Indenture from the operation of section (a) (1) of section 7.08;

8. The 1956 Indenture provides for payment of principal and interest on the debentures and certain other payments in Canadian money and requires the establishment of a sinking fund, whereas the 1953 Indenture provides for all payments in United States money, requires no sinking fund and provides for debentures with two maturities;

9. Except as to the foregoing and differences as to amounts, dates, interest rates, redemption prices and other procedural differences, most of the provisions of the two indentures are substantially alike;

10. The 1956 Indenture contains provisions conforming to the requirements of the Trust Indenture Act of 1939 except the provision embodying section 310 (b) (1) of the act does not become operative unless and until the indenture is qualified thereunder;

11. The company is not in default under the 1946 Indenture or the 1953 Indenture; and

12. The differences between the 1953 Indenture and the 1956 Indenture are not likely to involve a conflict of interest in the trusteeship.

For a more detailed statement of the matters of fact and law asserted, all persons are referred to said application which is on file in the offices of the Commission at 425 Second Street NW., Washington, D. C.

Notice is further given that an order granting the application may be issued by the Commission at any time after April 25, 1956, unless prior thereto a hearing upon the application is ordered by the Commission, as provided in clause (ii) of section 310 (b) (1) of the Trust Indenture Act of 1939. Any interested person may, not later than April 23, 1956, in writing, submit to the Commission his views or any additional facts bearing upon this application or the desirability of a hearing thereon. Any such communication or request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street, NW., Washington 25, D. C., and should state briefly the nature of the interest of the person submitting such information or requesting a hearing, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact and law raised by the application which he desires to controvert.

By the Commission.

NEW ENGLAND ELECTRIC SYSTEM

ORDER AUTHORIZING ISSUANCE AND SALE OF COMMON STOCK PURSUANT TO A RIGHTS OFFERING

APRIL 9, 1956.

New England Electric System ("NEES"), a registered holding company has filed with this Commission a declaration and amendments thereto, pursuant to sections 7 and 12 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") and Rules U-42 and U-50 promulgated thereunder with respect to the following proposed transactions:

NEES proposes to issue and sell 834,976 additional shares of its common stock of $1 par value. The shares are to be offered to the common stockholders of NEES for subscription during a period of not less than fourteen nor more than seventeen days on the basis of one share for each twelve shares held on the record date, which will be the effective date of the registration statement filed with this Commission in connection with such issue and sale. The rights to subscribe are to be evidenced by transferable subscription warrants. No fractional shares are to be issued. However, in lieu of rights for fractional shares, a stockholder will be entitled to subscribe for one additional share in excess of the whole number to which he would otherwise be entitled. Accordingly, if said proposed 834,976 shares are insufficient, NEES proposes to issue such additional shares in excess of this number as may be necessary. Subject to the subscription rights of the stockholders, the stock will be offered at the subscription price to full time employees of NEES and its subsidiaries who have had three years of continuous service and who have attained the age of thirty years. The proposed stock offering will be underwritten and NEES proposes to select the underwriters through competitive bidding pursuant to Rule U-50.

NEES, not later than twenty-four hours before the time to submit bids, will set the subscription price for the offer to the holders of warrants and employees, which will also be the price for the unsubscribed shares, if any, to be underwritten. NEES, by telegraphic or telephonic notice, will inform qualified bidders of the price set. Such price will be not more than the last reported sale price on the New York Stock Exchange prior to the fixing thereof and not less than such last reported sale price less 10%.

NEES proposes, if considered desirable, to stabilize the price of its common stock prior to acceptance or rejection of bids for the purpose of facilitating the offering and distribution of the additional shares of common stock by the purchase of not in excess of 41,749 shares of its common stock on the New York Stock Exchange, the Boston Stock Exchange, in the open market or otherwise.

The net proceeds to be derived from the proposed sale of the additional shares of common stock will be added to the general funds of NEES and applied in furtherance of the construction programs of its subsidiaries either through loans or the purchase of additional shares of their common stocks, any balance to be used for general corporate purposes.

Total expenses of the issuance and distribution of the additional shares of common stock are estimated by NEES at $169,000, including $20,000 for incidental services to be performed at cost by New England Power Service Company, an affiliated service company, and $75,000 for services of the subscription agents.

The fee of Messrs. Simpson Thacher & Bartlett, counsel for the underwriters, will be $8,500 and the expenses are estimated not to exceed $300 all of which will be paid by the underwriters.

It is represented that no State commission, or any other Federal commission, has jurisdiction over the proposed transactions. Declarant has waived the 30-day waiting period and requests that said order become effective upon issuance.

Due notice of the filing of said declaration having been given in the form and manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated under the act, and the Commission not having requested a hearing with respect to said declaration, as amended, within the time specified in said notice, or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

The Commission finding with respect to the proposed transactions that all applicable provisions of the act and the rules promulgated thereunder are satisfied, that no adverse findings are required thereunder, that the expenses, as estimated, are not unreasonable; and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers to permit said declaration, as amended, to become effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rules U-24 and U-50:

It is ordered, Pursuant to the applicable provisions of the act and the rules thereunder, that said declaration, as amended, be, and the same hereby is, permitted to become effective forthwith, subject, however, to the provisions of Rules U-24 and U-50.

By the Commission.

INCREASE IN PASSENGER FARES AND CHARGES

TARIFF PUBLISHING RULES

At a general session of the Interstate Commerce Commission held at its office in Washington, D. C., this 9th day of April 1956.

Upon consideration of a petition for special permission filed by M. B. Duggan, Chairman, Southern Passenger Association, and Jarvis Langdon, Jr., and other attorneys, dated April 4, 1956, as amended, for authority to depart from the Commission's tariff-publishing rules to the extent necessary to enable them to publish a general increase of five percent in passenger fares and charges with an increase in the minimum one-way and round-trip fares within southern territory and between southern territory, on the one hand, and eastern and western territories, on the other, as set forth in the petition, as amended, and for modification of all outstanding orders of the Commission to the extent necessary to permit only the publication of the aforesaid increase in fares and charges;

For good cause shown, It is ordered:

1. Carriers for and on whose behalf the above-mentioned petition, as amended, was filed, and their tariff-publishing agents, are hereby authorized to depart from the Commission's tariff-publishing rules when providing for increased fares and charges (exclusive of commutation fares) as set forth in the petition in the following manner:

(a) By publication and filing of a master tariff of increased fares and charges.

(b) By publication and filing of connecting link supplements to one or more tariffs connecting such tariff or tariffs with the master tariff of increased fares and charges.

(c) By publication and filing of tariffs or supplements of specific increased fares and charges.

(d) By publication and filing by carriers of individual or blanket supplements to their local tariffs containing conversion table.

2. Connecting link supplements authorized herein shall be exempt from the Commission's tariff-publishing rules relating to the number of supplements and volume of supplemental matter permitted until further ordered. All other relief from the Commission's tariff-publishing rules authorized herein shall continue until further ordered.

3. (1) Master tariffs, supplements thereto, and supplements to tariffs which are issued in short form method shall bear notation reading substantially as follows:

The form of this publication is permitted by authority of Interstate Commerce Commission Permission No. 68488 of April 9, 1956.

(2) Other tariffs or supplements containing specific increased fares or charges shall bear notation reading:

This publication is issued under authority of Interstate Commerce Commission Permission No. 68488 of April 9, 1956.

4. Outstanding orders of the Commission are modified only to the extent necessary to permit the filing of tariffs containing the proposed increased fares and charges, which tariffs will be subject to protest, suspension, or rejection.

And it is further ordered, That a copy of this order be filed with the Director, Division of the Federal Register, for publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER as notice to interested parties.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] HAROLD D. McCOY,
Secretary.

[FHA Instruction 401.1]

PART 311—BASIC REGULATIONS

SUBPART A—GENERAL

PURCHASE OF NON-DELINQUENT INSURED MORTGAGES BY GOVERNMENT

Section 311.5 (e), Title 6, Code of Federal Regulations (16 F. R. 12415), is revised to refer to the period specified in the borrower-insurer-lender triple agreement or in the insurance endorsement on the note, as the case may be, as the redemption period for non-delinquent insured mortgages and to read as follows:

§ 311.5 Terms of loans. • • •

(e) Sale of nondelinquent insured mortgages to the Government. Any holder of an insured mortgage may, at his option, within a period of one year beginning after the expiration of the period specified in the borrower-insurer-lender triple agreement or in the insurance endorsement on the note secured by the mortgage, as the case may be, have the mortgage purchased by the Government even though the mortgage is not then in default. If the holder exercises such option, the Government will purchase the mortgage and pay the holder by United States Treasury check an amount equal to the value of the mortgage. For such purpose, the value of the mortgage will be determined by adding to then outstanding unpaid principal, the amount of any unpaid interest and the unpaid amount of any advances made by a holder for property insurance premiums, taxes, assessments, water charges, and other payments in discharge of liens which are prior to the mortgage. If the holder of the mortgage does not exercise the above-mentioned option, he may accept any new agreement which may be offered by the Government to purchase the mortgage, or the holder may retain the mortgage until it is paid in full, refinanced, or assigned to another lender.

PART 375—ASSIGNMENT OF INSURED NOTES

PURCHASE OF NON-DELINQUENT INSURED NOTES BY GOVERNMENT

Section 375.4 (d) (3), Title 6, Code of Federal Regulations (20 F. R. 7958), is revised to refer to the period specified in the insurance endorsement on the note as the redemption period for non-delinquent insured notes and to read as follows:

§ 375.4 General policies. • • •

(d) Responsibilities of the Director, Finance Office. • • •

(3) Advise the holder of the options available to him at the expiration of the fixed period. Any holder of the note may, at his option, within a period of one year after the expiration of the period specified in the insurance endorsement on the note, have the note purchased by the Government even though the note is not then in default, and, if such option is exercised, the Government shall, upon assignment of the note to the Government, pay therefor by United States Treasury check the amount of unpaid principal and interest on the note. If the holder of the note does not exercise the above mentioned option, he may accept any new agreement which may be offered by the Government to purchase the note, or the holder may retain the note until it is paid in full, refinanced, or assigned to another lender.

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

[Navel Orange Reg. 83]

PART 914—NAVEL ORANGES GROWN IN ARIZONA AND DESIGNATED PART OF CALIFORNIA

LIMITATION OF HANDLING

§ 914.383 Navel Orange Regulation 83—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 14, as amended (7 CFR Part 914), regulating the handling of navel oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California, effective September 22, 1953, under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Navel Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such navel oranges, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. The Navel Orange Administrative Committee held an open meeting on April 12, 1956, after giving due notice thereof, to consider supply and market conditions for Navel oranges and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein was promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such Navel oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date hereof.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of Navel oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., April 15, 1956, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., April 22, 1956, is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: 231,000 cartons;
(ii) District 2: 877,800 cartons;
(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement;
(iv) District 4: Unlimited movement.

(2) Navel oranges handled pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be subject to any size restrictions applicable thereto which have heretofore been issued on the handling of such oranges and which are effective during the period specified herein.

(3) As used in this section, "handled," "District 1," "District 2," "District 3," and "District 4," have the same meaning as when used in said amended marketing agreement and order; and "carton" means the standard one-half orange, grapefruit or lemon box set forth as standard container number 58 in section 828.83, as amended, of the Agricultural Code of California.

PART 922—VALENCIA ORANGES GROWN IN ARIZONA AND DESIGNATED PART OF CALIFORNIA

LIMITATION OF HANDLING

§ 922.363 Valencia Orange Regulation 63—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to Order No. 22 (7 CFR Part 922), regulating the handling of Valencia oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California, effective March 31, 1954, under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendations and information submitted by the Valencia Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such Valencia oranges, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. The Valencia Orange Administrative Committee held an open meeting on April 12, 1956, after giving due notice thereof, to consider supply and market conditions for Valencia oranges and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein was promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such Valencia oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date hereof.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of Valencia oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., April 15, 1956, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., April 22, 1956, is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: 44,029 cartons;
(ii) District 2: Unlimited movement;
(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement.

(2) Valencia oranges handled pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be subject to any size restrictions applicable thereto which have heretofore been issued on the handling of such oranges and which are effective during the period specified herein.

(3) As used in this section, "handled," "handler," "District 1," "District 2," and "District 3," have the same meaning as when used in said order; and "carton" means the standard one-half orange, grapefruit or lemon box set forth as standard container number 58 in section 828.83, as amended, of the Agricultural Code of California.

[Grapefruit Reg. 241]

PART 933—ORANGES, GRAPEFRUIT, AND TANGERINES GROWN IN FLORIDA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 933.784 Grapefruit Regulation 241—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 33, as amended (7 CFR Part 933), regulating the handling of oranges, grapefruit, and tangerines grown in the State of Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the committees established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of grapefruit, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective not later than April 16, 1956. Shipments of grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, are presently subject to regulation by grades and sizes, pursuant to the amended marketing agreement and order, and will so continue until April 16, 1956; the recommendation and supporting information for continued regulation subsequent to April 15, 1956, were promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Growers Administrative Committee on April 10, 1956; such meeting was held to consider recommendations for regulation, after giving due notice of such meeting, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including the effective time hereof, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such grapefruit; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter set forth so as to provide for the continued regulation of the handling of grapefruit, and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., April 16, 1956, and ending at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., April 30, 1956, no handler shall ship:

(i) Any white seeded grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, which are not mature and do not grade at least U. S. No. 1 Bronze;

(ii) Any white seedless grapefruit, grown in Regulation Area I, which are not mature and do not grade at least U. S. No. 1 Bronze;

(iii) Any white seedless grapefruit, grown in Regulation Area II, which are not mature and do not grade at least U. S. No. 2;

(iv) Any white seedless grapefruit, grown in Regulation Area II, which are mature and which grade U. S. No. 2 or U. S. No. 2 Bright unless such seedless grapefruit (a) are in the same container with seedless grapefruit which grade at least U. S. No. 1 Russet and are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack 96 grapefruit, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box and (b) are not in excess of 40 percent, by count, of the number of all seedless grapefruit in such container;

(v) Any pink grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, which are not mature and do not grade at least U. S. No. 2;

(vi) Any white seeded grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack 70 grapefruit, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box;

(vii) Any pink seeded grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack 80 grapefruit, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box;

(viii) Any white seedless grapefruit, grown in Regulation Area I, which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack 112 grapefruit, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box;

(ix) Any white seedless grapefruit, grown in Regulation Area II, which grade U. S. Fancy, U. S. No. 1 Bright, U. S. No. 1, U. S. No. 1 Golden, U. S. No. 1 Bronze or U. S. No. 1 Russet, which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack 112 grapefruit, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box;

(x) Any white seedless grapefruit, grown in Regulation Area II, which grade U. S. No. 2 Bright or U. S. No. 2, which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack 96 grapefruit, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box;

(xi) Any pink seedless grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, which grade U. S. Fancy, U. S. No. 1 Bright, U. S. No. 1, U. S. No. 1 Golden, U. S. No. 1 Bronze or U. S. No. 1 Russet, which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack 112 grapefruit, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box; or

(xii) Any pink seedless grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, which grade U. S. No. 2 Bright or U. S. No. 2, which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack 96 grapefruit, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box.

(2) As used in this section, "handler," "ship," "Growers Administrative Committee," "Regulation Area I," and "Regulation Area II" shall have the same meaning as when used in said amended marketing agreement and order; the terms "U. S. Fancy," "U. S. No. 1 Bright," "U. S. No. 1," "U. S. No. 1 Golden," "U. S. No. 1 Bronze," "U. S. No. 1 Russet," "U. S. No. 2," "U. S. No. 2 Bright," "standard pack," and "standard nailed box" shall have the same meaning as when used in the revised United States Standards for Florida Grapefruit (§§ 51.750–51.790 of this title); and the term "mature" shall have the same meaning as set forth in section 601.16 Florida Statutes, Chapters 26492 and 28090, known as the Florida Citrus Code of 1949, as supplemented by section 601.17 (Chapters 25149 and 28090) and also by section 601.18, as amended on June 2, 1955 (Chapter 29760).

[Orange Reg. 295]

PART 933—ORANGES, GRAPEFRUIT, AND TANGERINES GROWN IN FLORIDA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 933.785 Orange Regulation 295—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 33, as amended (7 CFR Part 933), regulating the handling of oranges, grapefruit, and tangerines grown in the State of Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the committees established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of all Florida oranges, except Temple oranges, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective not later than April 16, 1956. Shipments of all oranges, except Temple oranges, grown in the State of Florida, are presently subject to regulation by grades and sizes, pursuant to the amended marketing agreement and order, and will so continue until April 16, 1956; the recommendation and supporting information for continued regulation subsequent to April 15, 1956, were promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Growers Administrative Committee on April 10, 1956, such meeting was held to consider recommendations for regulation, after giving due notice of such meeting, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including the effective time hereof, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter set forth so as to provide for the continued regulation of the handling of all oranges, except Temple oranges, and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of the persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., April 16, 1956, and ending at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t, April 30, 1956, no handler shall ship:

(i) Any oranges, except Temple oranges, grown in the State of Florida, which do not grade at least U. S. No. 1 Russet;

(ii) Any oranges, except Temple oranges, grown in the State of Florida, which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack 288 oranges, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard 1⅗ bushel nailed box; or

(iii) Any Valencia, Lue Gim Gong, or similar late-maturing oranges of the Valencia type, grown in the State of Florida, which are of a size larger than 3⁶⁄₁₆ inches in diameter, which shall be the largest measurement at a right angle to a straight line running from the stem to the blossom end of the fruit, except that a tolerance of 10 percent, by count, of oranges larger than such maximum diameter shall be permitted, which tolerance shall be applied in accordance with the provisions for the application of tolerances, specified in the revised United States Standards for Florida Oranges and Tangelos (§§ 51.1140–51.1186 of this title; 20 F. R. 7205); Provided, That in determining the percentage of oranges in any lot which are larger than 3⁶⁄₁₆ inches in diameter, such percentage shall be based only on those oranges in such lot which are of a size 3 inches in diameter and larger.

(2) As used in this section, the terms "handler," "ship," and "Growers Administrative Committee" shall each have the same meaning as when used in said amended marketing agreement and order; and the terms "U. S. No. 1 Russet," "standard pack," and "standard 1⅗ bushel nailed box" shall have the same meaning as when used in the United States Standards for Florida Oranges and Tangelos (§§ 51.1140–51.1186 of this title, 20 F. R. 7205).

Shipments of Temple oranges, grown in the State of Florida, are subject to the provisions of Orange Regulation 294 (§ 933.782, 21 F. R. 2039).

Shipments of tangerines, grown in the State of Florida, are presently subject to regulation by grades and sizes, pursuant to the amended marketing agreement and order and will so continue until April 16, 1956; the recommendation and supporting information for continued regulation subsequent to April 15, 1956, were promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Growers Administrative Committee on April 10, 1956; such meeting was held to consider recommendations for regulation, after giving due notice of such meeting, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including the effective time hereof, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such tangerines; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter set forth so as to provide for the continued regulation of the handling of tangerines, and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective time hereof.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., April 16, 1956, and ending at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., April 30, 1956, no handler shall ship:

(i) Any tangerines, grown in the State of Florida, that do not grade at least U. S. No. 2;

(ii) Any tangerines, grown in the State of Florida, which grade U. S. Fancy, U. S. No. 1, U. S. No. 1 Bronze or U. S. No. 1 Russet, that are of a size smaller than the size that will pack 246 tangerines, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a half-standard box (inside dimensions 9½ x 9½ x 19⅛ inches; capacity 1,726 cubic inches); or

(iii) Any tangerines grown in the State of Florida, which grade U. S. No. 2, that are of a size smaller than the size that will pack 210 tangerines, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a half-standard box (inside dimensions 9½ x 9½ x 19⅛ inches; capacity 1,726 cubic inches).

(2) As used in this section, "handler," "ship," and "Growers Administrative Committee" shall have the same meaning as when used in said amended marketing agreement and order; and the terms "U. S. [Lemon Reg. 637]

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 953.744 Lemon Regulation 637—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR Part 953; 20 F. R. 8451), regulating the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of the quantity of such lemons which may be handled, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. Shipments of lemons, grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, are currently subject to regulation pursuant to said amended marketing agreement and order; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein was promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Lemon Administrative Committee on April 11, 1956, such meeting was held, after giving due notice thereof to consider recommendations for regulation, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such lemons; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time thereof.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., April 15, 1956, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., April 22, 1956, is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: 4,650 cartons;

(ii) District 2: 274,350 cartons;

(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement.

(2) As used in this section, "handled," "District 1," "District 2," and "District 3" have the same meaning as when used in the said amended marketing agreement and order; and "carton" means the standard one-half orange, grapefruit or lemon box set forth as standard container number 58 in section 828.83, as amended, of the Agricultural Code of California.

TITLE 9—ANIMALS AND ANIMAL PRODUCTS

Chapter I—Agricultural Research Service, Department of Agriculture

Subchapter A—Meat Inspection Regulations

PART 40—IDENTIFICATION AND CERTIFICATION SERVICE FOR MEAT AND OTHER PRODUCT

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

On October 11, 1955, there was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (20 F. R. 7576) a notice of proposed amendments of Part 40 of the meat inspection regulations of the United States Department of Agriculture (9 CFR, 1954 Supp., Part 40, as amended). After due consideration of all relevant matters presented and pursuant to the authority conferred by sections 203 and 205 of the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (7 U. S. C. 1622, 1624), as amended, and section 520 of the Revised Statutes (5 U. S. C. 511), Part 40 of the meat inspection regulations (9 CFR, 1954 Supp., Part 40, as amended) is further amended as follows:

1. The heading of Part 40 is amended to read as set forth above.

2. Section 40.3 is amended by adding the following sentence at the end thereof: "In order to meet requirements of a purchaser, or of a supplier, or others, that are not imposed or are in addition to those imposed by the regulations in Parts 1 through 29 of this chapter and the laws under which such regulations were issued, with respect to such carcass, tank carload, or other basic unit, to be exported, service may be furnished, upon application, under the regulations in this part to certify such characteristics of or factors concerning the product as may be requested in the application for service."

3. Section 40.4 is amended to read as follows:

§ 40.4 Availability of service. Service under the regulations in this part will be available only with respect to meat or other product which is sound, healthful, wholesome, and fit for human food at the time the service would be furnished; which can be identified as a portion of a carcass, tank carload, or other basic unit which was federally inspected and passed and so marked; and, in the case of identification service, which is on premises other than those of an official establishment.

The foregoing amendments of the regulations will provide for a certification service relating to requirements of purchasers, suppliers, and others that are not imposed or are in addition to those imposed by the Federal Meat Inspection Act and related laws and the regulations thereunder. The service will be available upon request of interested persons and use of such service will not be mandatory under the regulations in any respect. In order to be of maximum benefit to persons desiring the service, the amendments should be made effective less than 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Therefore, under section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003), good cause is found for making the amendments effective less than 30 days after such publication.

The foregoing amendments shall become effective on April 14, 1956.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 7th day of April 1956.

Acting Administrator, Agricultural Research Service.

TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE, 1954

Chapter I—Internal Revenue Service, Department of the Treasury

Subchapter A—Income Tax

[T. D. 6169]

PART 1—INCOME TAX; TAXABLE YEARS BEGINNING AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1953

COMPENSATION FOR INJURIES OR SICKNESS

On March 24, 1955, notice of proposed rule making regarding the regulations under sections 104, 105, and 106 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (20 F. R. 1779). After consideration of all such relevant matter as was presented by interested persons regarding the rules proposed, the following regulations are hereby prescribed for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1953 and ending after August 16, 1954:

Sec.
1.104 Statutory provisions; compensation for injuries or sickness.
1.104-1 Compensation for injuries or sickness.
1.105 Statutory provisions; amounts received under accident and health plans.
1.105-1 Amounts attributable to employer contributions.
1.105-2 Amounts expended for medical care.
1.105-3 Payments unrelated to absence from work.
1.105-4 Wage continuation plans.
1.105-5 Accident and health plans.
1.106 Statutory provisions; contributions by employer to accident and health plans.

Sec.
1.106-1 Contributions by employer to accident and health plans.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1.104 to 1.106-1 issued under sec. 7805, 68A Stat. 917; 26 U. S. C. 7805. Interpret or apply sec. 105, 68A Stat. 30; 26 U. S. C. 105.

§ 1.104 Statutory provisions; compensation for injuries or sickness.

SEC. 104. Compensation for injuries or sickness—(a) In general. Except in the case of amounts attributable to (and not in excess of) deductions allowed under section 213 (relating to medical, etc., expenses) for any prior taxable year, gross income does not include—

(1) Amounts received under workmen's compensation acts as compensation for personal injuries or sickness;

(2) The amount of any damages received (whether by suit or agreement) on account of personal injuries or sickness;

(3) Amounts received through accident or health insurance for personal injuries or sickness (other than amounts received by an employee, to the extent such amounts (A) are attributable to contributions by the employer which were not includible in the gross income of the employee, or (B) are paid by the employer); and

(4) Amounts received as a pension, annuity, or similar allowance for personal injuries or sickness resulting from active service in the armed forces of any country or in the Coast or Geodetic Survey or the Public Health Service.

(b) Cross references. (1) For exclusion from employee's gross income of employer contributions to accident and health plans, see section 106.

(2) For exclusion of part of disability retirement pay from the application of subsection (a) (4) of this section, see section 402 (h) of the Career Compensation Act of 1949 (37 U. S. C. 272 (h)).

§ 1.104-1 Compensation for injuries or sickness—(a) In general. Section 104 (a) provides an exclusion from gross income with respect to certain amounts described in paragraphs (b), (c), (d) and (e) of this section, which are received for personal injuries or sickness, except to the extent that such amounts are attributable to (but not in excess of) deductions allowed under section 213 (relating to medical, etc., expenses) for any prior taxable year. See section 213 and the regulations thereunder.

(b) Amounts received under workmen's compensation acts. Section 104 (a) (1) excludes from gross income amounts which are received by an employee under a workmen's compensation act (such as the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act, 33 U. S. C., c. 18), or under a statute in the nature of a workmen's compensation act which provides compensation to employees for personal injuries or sickness incurred in the course of employment. Section 104 (a) (1) also applies to compensation which is paid under a workmen's compensation act to the survivor or survivors of a deceased employee. However, section 104 (a) (1) does not apply to a retirement pension or annuity to the extent that it is determined by reference to the employee's age or length of service, or the employee's prior contributions, even though the employee's retirement is occasioned by an occupational injury or sickness. Section 104 (a) (1) also does not apply to amounts which are received as compensation for a nonoccupational injury or sickness nor to amounts received as compensation for an occupational injury or sickness to the extent that they are in excess of the amount provided in the applicable workmen's compensation act or acts. See, however, §§ 1.105-1 through 1.105-5 for rules relating to exclusion of such amounts from gross income.

(c) Damages received on account of personal injuries or sickness. Section 104 (a) (2) excludes from gross income the amount of any damages received (whether by suit or agreement) on account of personal injuries or sickness. The term "damages received (whether by suit or agreement)" means an amount received (other than workmen's compensation) through prosecution of a legal suit or action based upon tort or tort type rights, or through a settlement agreement entered into in lieu of such prosecution.

(d) Accident or health insurance. Section 104 (a) (3) excludes from gross income amounts received through accident or health insurance for personal injuries or sickness (other than amounts received by an employee, to the extent that such amounts (1) are attributable to contributions of the employer which were not includible in the gross income of the employee, or (2) are paid by the employer). Similar treatment is also accorded to amounts received under accident or health plans and amounts received from sickness or disability funds. See section 105 (e) and § 1.105-5. If, therefore, an individual purchases a policy of accident or health insurance out of his own funds, amounts received thereunder for personal injuries or sickness are excludable from his gross income under section 104 (a) (3). See, however, section 213 and the regulations thereunder, as to the inclusion in gross income of amounts attributable to deductions allowed under section 213 for any prior taxable year. Section 104 (a) (3) also applies to amounts received by an employee for personal injuries or sickness from a fund which is maintained exclusively by employee contributions. Conversely, if an employer is either the sole contributor to such a fund, or is the sole purchaser of a policy of accident or health insurance for his employees (on either a group or individual basis), the exclusion provided under section 104 (a) (3) does not apply to any amounts received by his employees through such fund or insurance. If the employer and his employees contribute to a fund or purchase insurance which pays accident or health benefits to employees, section 104 (a) (3) does not apply to amounts received thereunder by employees to the extent that such amounts are attributable to the employer's contributions. See § 1.105-1 for rules relating to the determination of the amount attributable to employer contributions. Although amounts paid by or on behalf of an employer to an employee for personal injuries or sickness are not excludable from the employee's gross income under section 104 (a) (3), they may be excludable therefrom under section 105. See §§ 1.105-1 through 1.105-5, inclusive.

(e) Amounts received as pensions, etc., for certain personal injuries or sickness. Section 104 (a) (4) excludes from gross income amounts which are received as a pension, annuity, or similar allowance for personal injuries or sickness resulting from active service in the armed forces of any country, or in the Coast and Geodetic Survey, or the Public Health Service. Section 104 (a) (4) is applicable to a pension, annuity, or similar allowance received by the beneficiaries of an individual by reason of the death of such individual due to a personal injury or sickness resulting from service in the armed forces of any country, or the Coast and Geodetic Survey, or the Public Health Service. For purposes of this section, that part of the disability retirement pay computed on the basis of years of active service which is in excess of the disability retirement pay that would be received if such disability pay were computed on the basis of percentage of disability shall not be deemed to be a pension, annuity, or similar allowance for personal injuries or sickness resulting from active service in the armed forces of any country, or in the Coast and Geodetic Survey, or the Public Health Service (see section 402 (h) of the Career Compensation Act of 1949, 37 U. S. C. 272 (h)).

§ 1.105 Statutory provisions; amounts received under accident and health plans.

SEC. 105. Amounts received under accident and health plans—(a) Amounts attributable to employer contributions. Except as otherwise provided in this section, amounts received by an employee through accident or health insurance for personal injuries or sickness shall be included in gross income to the extent such amounts (1) are attributable to contributions by the employer which were not includible in the gross income of the employee, or (2) are paid by the employer.

(b) Amounts expended for medical care. Except in the case of amounts attributable to (and not in excess of) deductions allowed under section 213 (relating to medical, etc., expenses) for any prior taxable year, gross income does not include amounts referred to in subsection (a) if such amounts are paid, directly or indirectly, to the taxpayer to reimburse the taxpayer for expenses incurred by him for the medical care (as defined in section 213 (e)) of the taxpayer, his spouse, and his dependents (as defined in section 152).

(c) Payments unrelated to absence from work. Gross income does not include amounts referred to in subsection (a) to the extent such amounts—

(1) Constitute payment for the permanent loss or loss of use of a member or function of the body, or the permanent disfigurement, of the taxpayer, his spouse, or a dependent (as defined in section 152), and

(2) Are computed with reference to the nature of the injury without regard to the period the employee is absent from work.

(d) Wage continuation plans. Gross income does not include amounts referred to in subsection (a) if such amounts constitute wages or payments in lieu of wages for a period during which the employee is absent from work on account of personal injuries or sickness; but this subsection shall not apply to the extent that such amounts exceed a weekly rate of $100. In the case of a period during which the employee is absent from work on account of sickness, the preceding sentence shall not apply to amounts attributable to the first 7 calendar days in such period unless the employee is hospitalized on account of sickness for at least one day during such period. If such amounts are not paid on the basis of a weekly pay period, the Secretary or his delegate shall by regulations prescribe the method of determining the weekly rate at which such amounts are paid.

(e) Accident and health plans. For purposes of this section and section 104—

(1) Amounts received under an accident or health plan for employees, and

(2) Amounts received from a sickness and disability fund for employees maintained under the law of a State, a Territory, or the District of Columbia, shall be treated as amounts received through accident or health insurance.

(f) Rules for application of section 213. For purposes of section 213 (a) (relating to medical, dental, etc., expenses) amounts excluded from gross income under subsection (c) or (d) shall not be considered as compensation (by insurance or otherwise) for expenses paid for medical care.

§ 1.105–1 Amounts attributable to employer contributions—(a) In general. Under section 105 (a), amounts received by an employee through accident or health insurance for personal injuries or sickness must be included in his gross income to the extent that such amounts (1) are attributable to contributions of the employer which were not includible in the gross income of the employee, or (2) are paid by the employer, unless such amounts are excluded therefrom under section 105 (b), (c), or (d). For purposes of this section, the term "amounts received by an employee through an accident or health plan" refers to any amounts received through accident or health insurance, and also to any amounts which, under section 105 (e), are treated as being so received. See § 1.105–5. In determining the extent to which amounts received for personal injuries or sickness by an employee through an accident or health plan are subject to the provisions of section 105 (a), rather than section 104 (a) (3), the rules of paragraphs (b), (c), (d), and (e) of this section shall apply.

(b) Noncontributory plans. All amounts received by employees through an accident or health plan which is financed solely by their employer, either by payment of premiums on an accident or health insurance policy (whether on a group or individual basis), by contributions to a fund which pays accident or health benefits, or by direct payment of the benefits under the plan, are subject to the provisions of section 105 (a), except to the extent that they are excludable under section 105 (b), (c), or (d). This rule may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). Employer A maintains a plan for his employees which provides that he will continue to pay regular wages to employees who are absent from work due to sickness or personal injuries. Employees make no contributions to the plan and all benefits are paid by the employer. Amounts received by employees under the plan are subject to section 105 (a), and must be included in gross income unless excluded therefrom under section 105 (b), (c), or (d).

Example (2). Pursuant to a State nonoccupational disability benefits law, employer B maintains an accident and health plan for his employees. Although under the State law B is authorized to withhold from his employees' wages a specified amount for employee contributions to the State fund, in actual practice B does not so withhold and makes all contributions out of his own funds. All amounts received by B's employees from the State fund are subject to section 105 (a), and must be included in gross income unless excluded therefrom under section 105 (b), (c), or (d).

(c) Contributory plans. (1) In the case of amounts received by an employee through an accident or health plan which is financed partially by his employer and partially by contributions of the employee, section 105 (a) applies to the extent that such amounts are attributable to contributions of the employer which were not includible in the employee's gross income. The portion of such amounts which is attributable to such contributions of the employer shall be determined in accordance with paragraph (d) of this section in the case of an insured plan, or paragraph (e) of this section in the case of a noninsured plan. As used in this section, the phrase "contributions of the employer" means employer contributions which were not includible in the gross income of the employee. See section 106 for the exclusion from an employee's gross income of employer contributions to accident or health plans.

(2) A separate determination of the portion of the amounts received under the accident or health plan which is attributable to the contributions of the employer shall be made with respect to each class of employees in any case where the plan provides that some classes of covered employees contribute but others do not, or that the employer will make different contributions for different classes of employees, or that different classes of employees will make different contributions, and where in any such case both the contributions of the employer on account of each such class of employees and the contributions of such class of employees can be ascertained. For example, if employees contribute during the first year of employment but not thereafter, there will have to be a separate determination for first year employees, provided that the amount of the contributions of the employer on account of first-year employees and the contributions of such first-year employees can be ascertained for the required periods to apply the rules of paragraph (d) or (e) of this section. If in such a case the contributions of the employer to the plan on account of first-year employees are not distinguishable from his other contributions to the plan, then the determination shall be made for all employees under the plan, and such determination shall be used by all employees under the plan.

(3) If the plan provides accident or health benefits as well as other benefits for the employees, and if the respective contributions made by the employer and the employees to provide the accident or health benefits cannot be ascertained, the determination of the portion of the accident or health benefits received under such plan which is attributable to the contributions of the employer shall be made in accordance with the rules of paragraph (d) or (e) of this section on the basis of the contributions of the employer and of the employees to the entire plan.

(4) A determination of the portion attributable to the contributions of the employer, once made in accordance with the rules of this section, shall as to such portion be used for all purposes. For example, if an employee receives amounts under a wage continuation plan during the month of January and terminates his services during February, the portion of such amounts which is attributable to the contributions of the employer may be determined in order to provide the employee with such information at the time he is provided his Form W–2. The determination made for such purpose will also be used by the employee to report his income for his taxable year in which such amounts are received, without regard to the experience under the plan for the rest of the year.

(d) Insured plans—(1) Individual policies. If an amount is received from an insurance company by an employee under an individual policy of accident or health insurance purchased by contributions of the employer and the employee, the portion of the amount received which is attributable to the employer's contributions shall be an amount which bears the same ratio to the amount received as the portion of the premiums paid by the employer for the current policy year bears to the total premiums paid by the employer and the employee for that year. This rule may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. Employer A maintains a plan whereby he pays two-thirds of the annual premium cost on individual policies of accident and health insurance for his employees. The remainder of each employee's premium is paid by a payroll deduction from the wages of the employee. The annual premium for Employee X is $24, of which $16 is paid by the employer. Thus, 16/24 or two-thirds of all amounts received by X under such insurance policy are attributable to the contributions of the employer and are subject to section 105 (a), and the remaining one-third of such amounts is excludable from X's gross income under section 104 (a) (3).

(2) Group policies. If the accident or health coverage is provided under or is a part of a group insurance policy purchased by contributions of the employer and of the employees, and the net premiums for such coverage for a period of at least three policy years are known at the beginning of the calendar year, the portion of any amount received by an employee which is attributable to the contributions of the employer for such coverage shall be an amount which bears the same ratio to the amount received, as the portion of the net premiums contributed by the employer for the last three policy years which are known at the beginning of the calendar year, bears to the total of the net premiums contributed by the employer and all employees for such policy years. If the net premiums for such coverage for a period of at least three policy years are not known at the beginning of the calendar year but are known for at least one policy year, such determination shall be made by using the net premiums for such coverage which are known at the beginning of the calendar year. If the net premiums for such coverage are not known at the beginning of the calendar year for even one policy year, such determination shall be made by using either (i) a reasonable estimate of the net premiums for the first policy year, or (ii) if the net premiums for a policy year are ascertained during the calendar year, by using such net premiums. These rules may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. An employer maintains a plan under which a portion of the cost of a group policy of accident and health insurance for his employees is paid through payroll deductions from wages of the employees. The remainder of the cost is borne by the employer. The policy year begins on November 1 and ends on October 31. The net premium for the policy year ended October 31, 1954, is not known on January 1, 1955, because certain retroactive premium adjustments, such as dividends and credits, are not determinable until after January 1. Therefore, for purposes of this computation the last three policy years are the policy years ended October 31, 1951, 1952, and 1953. The net premium for the policy year ended October 31, 1953, was $8,000, of which the employer contributed $3,000; the net premium for the policy year ended October 31, 1952, was $9,000, of which the employer contributed $3,500; and the net premium for the policy year ended October 31, 1951, was $7,000, of which the employer contributed $1,500. The portion of any amount received under the policy by an employee at any time during 1955 which is attributable to the contributions of the employer is to be determined by using the ratio of $8,000 ($3,000 plus $3,500 plus $1,500) to $24,000 ($8,000 plus $9,000 plus $7,000. Thus, $\frac{$8,000}{$24,000}$ or one-third, of the amounts received by an employee at any time during 1955 is attributable to contributions of the employer.

(e) Noninsured plans. If the accident or health benefits are a part of a noninsured plan to which the employer and the employees contribute, and such plan has been in effect for at least three years before the beginning of the calendar year, the portion of the amount received which is attributable to the employer's contributions shall be an amount which bears the same ratio to the amount received as the contributions of the employer for the period of three calendar years next preceding the year of receipt bear to the total contributions of the employer and all the employees for such period. If, at the beginning of the calendar year of receipt, such plan has not been in effect for three years but has been in effect for at least one year, such determination shall be based upon the contributions made during the 1-year or 2-year period during which the plan has been in effect. If such plan has not been in effect for one full year at the beginning of the calendar year of receipt, such determination may be based upon the portion of the year of receipt preceding the time when the determination is made, or such determination may be made periodically (such as monthly or quarterly) and used throughout the succeeding period. For example, if an employee terminates his services on April 15, 1955, and 1955 is the first year the plan has been in effect, such determination may be based upon the contributions of the employer and the employees during the period beginning with January 1 and ending with April 15, or during the month of March, or during the quarter consisting of January, February, and March.

§ 1.105–2 Amounts expended for medical care. Section 105 (b) provides an exclusion from gross income with respect to the amounts referred to in section 105 (a) (see § 1.105–1) which are paid, directly or indirectly, to the taxpayer to reimburse him for expenses incurred for the medical care (as defined in section 213 (e)) of the taxpayer, his spouse, and his dependents (as defined in section 152). However, the exclusion does not apply to amounts which are attributable to (and not in excess of) deductions allowed under section 213 (relating to medical, etc., expenses) for any prior taxable year. See section 213 and the regulations thereunder. Section 105 (b) applies ony to amounts which are paid specifically to reimburse the taxpayer for expenses incurred by him for the prescribed medical care. Thus, section 105 (b) does not apply to amounts which the taxpayer would be entitled to receive irrespective of whether or not he incurs expenses for medical care. For example, if under a wage continuation plan the taxpayer is entitled to regular wages during a period of absence from work due to sickness or injury, amounts received under such plan are not excludable from his gross income under section 105 (b) even though the taxpayer may have incurred medical expenses during the period of illness. Such amounts may, however, be excludable from his gross income under section 105 (d). See § 1.105–4. If the amounts are paid to the taxpayer solely to reimburse him for expenses which he incurred for the prescribed medical care, section 105 (b) is applicable even though such amounts are paid without proof of the amount of the actual expenses incurred by the taxpayer, but section 105 (b) is not applicable to the extent that such amounts exceed the amount of the actual expenses for such medical care. If the taxpayer incurs an obligation for medical care, payment to the obligee in discharge of such obligation shall constitute indirect payment to the taxpayer as reimbursement for medical care. Similarly, payment to or on behalf of the taxpayer's spouse or dependents shall constitute indirect payment to the taxpayer.

§ 1.105–3 Payments unrelated to absence from work. Section 105 (c) provides an exclusion from gross income with respect to the amounts referred to in section 105 (a) to the extent that such amounts (a) constitute payments for the permanent loss or permanent loss of use of a member or function of the body, or the permanent disfigurement, of the taxpayer, his spouse, or a dependent (as defined in section 152), and (b) are computed with reference to the nature of the injury without regard to the period the employee is absent from work. Loss of use or disfigurement shall be considered permanent when it may reasonably be expected to continue for the life of the individual. For purposes of section 105 (c), loss or loss of use of a member or function of the body includes the loss or loss of use of an appendage of the body, the loss of an eye, the loss of substantially all of the vision of an eye, and the loss of substantially all of the hearing in one or both ears. The term "disfigurement" shall be given a reasonable interpretation in the light of all the particular facts and circumstances. Section 105 (c) does not apply if the amount of the benefits is determined by reference to the period the employee is absent from work. For example, if an employee is absent from work as a result of the loss of an arm, and under the accident and health plan established by his employer, he is to receive $125 a week so long as he is absent from work for a period not in excess of 52 weeks, section 105 (c) is not applicable to such payments. See, however, section 105 (d) and § 1.105–4. However, for purposes of section 105 (c), it is immaterial whether an amount is paid in a lump sum or in installments. Section 105 (c) does not apply to amounts which are treated as workmen's compensation under § 1.104–1 (b), or to amounts paid by reason of the death of the employee (see section 101).

§ 1.105–4 Wage continuation plans—(a) In general. (1) Subject to the limitations provided in this section, section 105 (d) provides an exclusion from gross income with respect to amounts referred to in section 105 (a) which are paid to an employee through a wage continuation plan and which constitute wages or payments in lieu of wages for a period during which the employee is absent from work on account of personal injuries or sickness.

(2) (i) Section 105 (d) is applicable only if the wages or payments in lieu of wages are paid pursuant to a wage continuation plan. The term "wage continuation plan" means an accident or health plan, as defined in § 1.105–5, under which wages, or payments in lieu of wages, are paid to an employee for a period during which he is absent from work on account of a personal injury or sickness. Such term includes plans under which payments are continued as long as the employee is absent from work on account of personal injury or sickness. It includes plans under which there is a limitation on the period for which benefits will be paid, such as 13 or 26 weeks, and also plans under which benefits are continued until the employee either is able to return to work or reaches retirement age. Such term also includes a plan under which wages or payments in lieu of wages are paid to an employee who is absent from work on account of personal injury or sickness, even though the plan also provides that wages or payments in lieu of wages may be paid to an employee who is absent from work for reasons other than a personal injury or sickness.

(ii) Section 105 (d) is applicable if, and only if, the employee is absent from work and such absence is due to a personal injury or sickness. Thus, if an employer has a plan for continuing the wages of employees when they are absent from work, regardless of the cause of the absence from work, section 105 (d) is applicable to any payments made under this plan to an employee whose absence from work is in fact due to a personal injury or sickness. On the other hand, although the terms of a plan provide that benefits are to be continued only as long as the employee is absent from work on account of a personal injury or sickness, section 105 (d) does not apply to payments made to an employee for a period of absence from work where such absence is not in fact due to a personal injury or sickness.

(3) (i) Section 105 (d) applies only to amounts attributable to periods during which the employee would be at work were it not for a personal injury or sickness. Thus, an employee is not absent from work if he is not expected to work because, for example, he has reached retirement age. If a plan provides that an employee, who is absent from work on account of a personal injury or sickness, will receive a disability pension as long as he is disabled, section 105 (d) is applicable to any payments which such an employee receives under this plan before he reaches retirement age, but section 105 (d) does not apply to the payments which such an employee receives after he reaches retirement age.

(ii) Similarly, an employee who incurs a personal injury or sickness during his paid vacation is not allowed to exclude under section 105 (d) any of the vacation pay which he receives, since he is not absent from work on account of the personal injury or sickness. Likewise, a teacher who becomes sick during the summer or other vacation period when he is not expected to teach, is not entitled to any exclusion under section 105 (d) for the summer or vacation period. However, if an employee who would otherwise be at work during a particular period is absent from work and his absence is in fact due to a personal injury or sickness, a payment which he receives for such period under a wage continuation plan is subject to section 105 (d).

(4) A period of absence from work shall commence the moment the employee first becomes absent from work and shall end the moment the employee first returns to work. However, the exclusion provided under section 105 (d) is applicable only to payments attributable to a period of absence from work which is due to a personal injury or sickness, and to payments attributable to a period when the employee would have been at work but for such personal injury or sickness.

(5) For the purpose of section 105 (d), whether an employee is absent from work depends upon all the circumstances. For example, an employee, who is a farm hand and who lives upon the premises of his employer, is absent from work when he is unable to work even though he remains on the premises of his employer. A member of the Armed Forces, who on a particular day has no assigned duties but to stand ready for duty, is absent from work if he is unable to answer any duty call that may be made upon him. An employee is not absent from work when he performs any services for his employer at his usual place or places of employment, whether or not the services are the usual services performed by the employee. Furthermore, the employee is not absent from work when he performs substantial services for his employer, even though they are performed at a place other than his usual place of employment. Thus, if an employee returns to his usual place or places of employment and performs any services for his employer, he has returned to work, but if he merely holds occasional short conferences concerning his work with other employees or clients while hospitalized or at home recuperating, such conferences do not constitute a return to work.

(b) Determination of amount attributable to period of absence. The amount which is paid to an employee as wages or payments in lieu of wages for a period of absence from work due to a personal injury or sickness shall be determined by reference to the plan under which the amount is paid, and to the contract, statute, or regulation which provides the terms of the employment. However, unless the plan, contract, statute, or regulation provides otherwise, it will be presumed that no wages or plan benefits are attributable to days (or portions of days) which are not normal working days for the particular employee. Also, section 105 (d) does not apply to amounts earned prior to or subsequent to the period of absence from work, even though received during such period. These rules may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). Employee A, who receives regular wages of $70 per week, normally works five days (Monday through Friday) during each week. A is absent from work on a Friday and the succeeding Monday (two working days) on account of a personal injury, but receives his regular wages with respect to such period of absence under his employer's accident and health plan. Unless the plan of A's employer, or the contract, statute, or regulation under which A is employed, provides otherwise, it will be presumed that A is not paid with respect to nonworking days (Saturday and Sunday). Therefore, the amount received by A with respect to his period of absence from work due to injury is $28, which is two days regular wages. If the plan, or the employment contract, statute, or regulation had provided that wages were paid on a 7-day per week basis and that A must be available for call to work on Saturday and Sunday, A's daily wage would have been $10, and the amount attributable to the period of absence would have been $40 ($10 per day for four days).

Example (2). Employee B is a salesman who is paid on a commission basis. The employer purchases for B an accident and health insurance policy which provides that B shall receive $50 per week during any period (after a 7-day waiting period) that he is unable to work due to personal injuries or sickness. B incurs a personal injury and is incapacitated for two weeks. He receives $50 under the insurance policy with respect to the second week of absence. In addition, during the 2-week period of absence he receives a check for $40 from his employer as his commission on a sale which he made before becoming incapacitated. Section 105 (d) applies to the $50 received through the insurance policy, but does not apply to the $40 commission which B earned prior to the period of absence from work.

(c) Limitation in the case of absence from work due to sickness. (1) In the case of a period of absence from work on account of sickness, the exclusion provided by section 105 (d) does not apply to amounts attributable to the first seven calendar days of each such period, unless the employee is hospitalized on account of sickness for at least one day during the period of absence from work. This 7-day rule applies to each period of absence from work because of sickness, regardless of the frequency of such absences or the closeness in time to any prior period of absence from work because of sickness. For example, employee A becomes absent from work because of sickness on Tuesday, October 4, and returns to work on the morning of Thursday, October 13. He suffers a relapse and again becomes absent from work on the afternoon of Thursday, October 13. A's return to work on the morning of Thursday, October 13, terminates the first period of absence from work because of sickness, and a new period of absence from work because of sickness begins on the afternoon of Thursday, October 13. The 7-day limitation does not apply if the absence from work is due to personal injuries. These rules may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). Employee C normally works five days (Monday through Friday) during each week. On Saturday, October 1 (a nonworking day), C becomes sick and as a result, he does not return to work until Thursday, October 13. The period of absence from work due to sickness commences on Monday, October 3, and terminates when C returns to work on Thursday, October 13. If C is not hospitalized during such period of absence from work, section 105 (d) does not apply to amounts which C receives under his employer's wage continuation plan attributable to the 7-day period commencing Monday, October 3, and ending Sunday, October 9, inclusive.

Example (2). Employee D incurs a personal injury which causes him to be absent from work two days. His regular wages are continued during this period in accordance with the wage continuation plan of his employer. Since D's absence from work was due to a personal injury, rather than sickness, the 7-day waiting period does not apply, and, subject to the other requirements of section 105 (d), D is entitled to an exclusion with respect to the amounts received under the employer's plan attributable to the 2-day period of absence.

(2) The term "personal injury", as used in this section, means an externally caused sudden hurt or damage to the body brought about by an identifiable event. The term "sickness", as used in this section, means mental illnesses and all bodily infirmities and disorders other than "personal injuries". Diseases, whether resulting from the occupation or otherwise, are not considered personal injuries, but they are treated as a sickness.

(3) For the purpose of starting the 7-day waiting period, if the period of absence due to sickness commences after the start of a working day, the amount received with respect to the portion of such day that the employee is absent from work shall be considered the amount attributable to the first calendar day of the period of absence from work due to sickness. This rule may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. Employee E normally works from 9 a. m. until 5:30 p. m. on five days (Monday through Friday) during each week. From noon on Friday, September 3, until noon on Monday, September 13, E is absent from work on account of sickness but is not hospitalized at any time during this period. Section 105 (d) does not apply to amounts received by E under his employer's wage continuation plan which are attributable to the calendar period beginning September 3 and ending September 9, inclusive. However, if the other requirements of section 105 (d) are met, E may exclude from gross income amounts attributable to the period beginning September 10 and ending at noon on September 13, inclusive.

(4) If the absence from work is due to sickness, the amount attributable to the first seven calendar days of such absence includes all amounts paid for such seven calendar days, regardless of the number of work days included in such seven calendar days. For example, if on one of such seven calendar days an employee would have worked two 8-hour shifts, the amount he is paid for the two shifts is considered to be an amount attributable to only one calendar day.

(5) An employee is considered to be hospitalized for one day only if he is admitted to and confined in a hospital as a bed patient for at least one hospital day. Entry into a hospital as an in-and-out patient does not constitute hospitalization for purposes of section 105 (d). The same applies to mere entry into the out-patient ward or the emergency ward of a hospital.

(d) Exclusion not applicable to the extent that amounts exceed a weekly rate of $100—(1) In general. Amounts received under a wage continuation plan which are not excludable from gross income as being attributable to contributions of the employee (see § 1.105–1) must be included in gross income under section 105 (d) to the extent that the weekly rate of such amounts exceeds $100. Thus, an employee, who receives $50 under his employer's wage continuation plan on account of his being absent from work for two days due to a personal injury, cannot exclude the entire $50 under section 105 (d) if the weekly rate of such benefits exceeds $100. If an employee receives payments under a wage continuation plan for less than a full pay period, the excludability of such payments shall be determined under subparagraph (2) of this paragraph. In all other cases, the weekly rate and excludability of such payments under a wage continuation plan shall be determined under subparagraph (3) of this paragraph. If, with respect to any pay period or portion thereof, the employee receives amounts under two or more wage continuation plans (whether such plans are maintained by or for the same employer or by different employers), the weekly rate and excludability of amounts received under each plan shall be determined under subparagraph (3) of this paragraph and the weekly rate for purposes of section 105 (d) shall be the sum of all such weekly rates. This rule may be illustrated by the following example:

Example (1). An employee whose weekly salary is $120 is covered by two wage continuation plans maintained by his employer. Plan A is a contributory insured plan to which the employee contributes 60 percent of the premiums and which provides a weekly payment of $30. Plan B is a salary continuation plan completely financed by the employer. Since 60 percent of the cost of plan A is contributed by the employee, 60 percent of the weekly payment of $30 ($18) is excluded from gross income under section 104 (a) (3). The remainder of each weekly payment ($12) is the weekly rate of plan A. Since the employer pays the entire cost of plan B, the weekly rate of this plan is the total amount paid per week. In the case of an employee whose weekly wages of $120 are continued under plan B, the weekly rate for the employee for purposes of section 105 (d) is $132 ($120 from plan B, plus $12 from plan A).

Example (2). Assume in Example (1) that plan A provides a waiting period of four calendar days while plan B is effective immediately. For the first four days of absence the weekly rate for purposes of section 105 (d) is $120, and for periods after the first four days the weekly rate for purposes of section 105 (d) is $132.

(2) Daily exclusion. If an employee receives payments under a wage continuation plan for less than a full pay period, the extent to which such benefits are excludable under section 105 (d) shall be determined by computing the daily rate of the benefits which can be excluded under section 105 (d). Such daily rate is determined by dividing the weekly rate at which wage continuation payments are excludable ($100) by the number of work days in a normal work week. This rule may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. Employee E is covered by a wage continuation plan maintained by his employer providing that E's regular salary of $220 semimonthly will be continued in case he is absent from work on account of a personal injury or sickness. E is absent from work on account of a personal injury for three days and under the plan he received $66 as wage continuation payments. The extent to which the $66 is excludable under section 105 (d) shall be determined by dividing $100 by 5, the number of work days in a normal work week for E, resulting in a daily exclusion of $20 and a total exclusion of $60.

(3) Determination of weekly rate at which amounts are paid under a wage continuation plan. (i) For purposes of this subparagraph the pay period of a particular wage continuation plan shall be determined by reference to such plan. If, in the usual operation of the plan, benefits are paid for the same periods as regular wages, then the pay period of such benefits shall be the period for which a payment of wages is ordinarily made to the employee by the employer. If plan benefits are ordinarily paid for different periods than regular wages then the pay period of such benefits shall be the period for which payment of such benefits is ordinarily made.

(ii) The weekly rate shall be determined in accordance with the following rules:

(a) Weekly pay period. If benefits are paid on the basis of a weekly pay period, the weekly rate at which such benefits are paid shall be the weekly amount of such benefits.

(b) Biweekly pay period. If benefits are paid on the basis of a biweekly pay period, the weekly rate at which such benefits are paid shall be one-half of the biweekly rate.

(c) Semimonthly pay period. If benefits are paid on the basis of a semimonthly pay period, the weekly rate at which such benefits are paid shall be the semimonthly rate multiplied by 24 and divided by 52.

(d) Monthly pay period. If benefits are paid on the basis of a monthly pay period, the weekly rate at which such benefits are paid shall be the monthly rate multiplied by 12 and divided by 52.

(e) Other pay periods. If benefits are paid on the basis of a period other than a period described in (a) through (d), of this subdivision the weekly rate at which such benefits are paid shall be determined by ascertaining the annual rate at which such benefits are paid and dividing such annual rate by 52.

(f) Examples. The operation of these rules may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). A's employer maintains a noncontributory plan which provides for the continuation of regular salary during periods of absence from work due to personal injury or sickness. A, an office employee, receives regular salary of $520 per month, and he is paid on the basis of a monthly pay period. Since benefits under the salary continuation plan are paid for the same periods as regular salary, the pay period of the plan is monthly. For purposes of section 105 (d), the weekly rate at which benefits are paid to A under the plan is $120, determined as follows:

$520 (monthly rate) × 12 ---- $6,240 (annual rate)

$6,240 / 52 ---- $120 (weekly rate)

Example (2). B, a factory employee of the same employer, is paid regular wages on the basis of a 10-day pay period. B's regular wages are $200 per pay period. If B is absent from work for 15 days, the weekly rate of the amount he receives under his employer's plan will be determined as follows:

365 × $200 / 10 ---- $7,300 (annual rate)

$7,300 / 52 ---- $140.04 (weekly rate)

(iii) If the weekly rate for purposes of section 105 (d) (as determined in subdivision (ii)) does not exceed $100, the amount received which is not attributable to the 7-day waiting period described in § 1.105–4 (c) is fully excludable from gross income. If the weekly rate for purposes of section 105 (d) (as determined in subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph) exceeds $100, the amount received which is not attributable to the 7-day waiting period provided in § 1.105–4 (c) is only partially excludable. The excludable portion of such amount shall bear the same ratio to such amount as $100 bears to the weekly rate for purposes of section 105 (d). This rule may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. The weekly rate of benefits in the case of employee A in example (1) of subdivision (ii) was $120. If A does not receive amounts under any other plan, this is the weekly rate for purposes of section 105 (d). Assume that A is absent from work on account of a personal injury for one full month and receives full pay of $520 for such period of absence. Since there is no waiting period requirement, the exclusion is $433.33, computed as follows:

$$\frac{$100}{$120} \times $520 \text{ or } $433.33.$$

§ 1.105–5 Accident and health plans. Sections 104 (a) (3) and 105 (b), (c), and (d) exclude from gross income certain amounts received through accident or health insurance. Section 105 (e) provides that for the purposes of sections 104 and 105 amounts received through an accident or health plan for employees, and amounts received from a sickness and disability fund for employees maintained under the law of a State, a Territory, or the District of Columbia, shall be treated as amounts received through accident or health insurance. In general, an accident or health plan is an arrangement for the payment of amounts to employees in the event of personal injuries or sickness. A plan may cover one or more employees, and there may be different plans for different employees or classes of employees. An accident or health plan may be either insured or noninsured, and it is not necessary that the plan be in writing or that the employee's rights to benefits under the plan be enforceable. However, if the employee's rights are not enforceable, an amount will be deemed to be received under a plan only if, on the date the employee became sick or injured, the employee was covered by a plan (or a program, policy, or custom having the effect of a plan) providing for the payment of amounts to the employee in the event of personal injuries or sickness, and notice or knowledge of such plan was reasonably available to the employee. It is immaterial who makes payment of the benefits provided by the plan. For example, payment may be made by the employer, a welfare fund, a State sickness or disability benefits fund, an association of employers or employees, or by an insurance company.

§ 1.106 Statutory provisions; contributions by employer to accident and health plans.

SEC. 106. Contributions by employer to accident and health plans. Gross income does not include contributions by the employer to accident or health plans for compensation (through insurance or otherwise) to his employees for personal injuries or sickness.

§ 1.106–1 Contributions by employer to accident and health plans. The gross income of an employee does not include contributions which his employer makes to an accident or health plan for compensation (through insurance or otherwise) to the employee for personal injuries or sickness incurred by him, his spouse, or his dependents, as defined in section 152. The employer may contribute to an accident or health plan either by paying the premium (or a portion of the premium) on a policy of accident or health insurance covering one or more of his employees, or by contributing to a separate trust or fund (including a fund referred to in section 105 (e)) which provides accident or health benefits directly or through insurance to one or more of his employees. However, if such insurance policy, trust, or fund provides other benefits in addition to accident or health benefits, section 106 applies only to the portion of the employer's contribution which is allocable to accident or health benefits. See § 1.104–1 (d) and §§ 1.105–1 through 1.105–5, inclusive, for rules relating to exclusion from an employee's gross income of amounts received through accident or health insurance and through accident or health plans.

TITLE 29—LABOR

Chapter V—Wage and Hour Division, Department of Labor

PART 703—MEN'S AND BOYS' CLOTHING AND RELATED PRODUCTS INDUSTRY IN PUERTO RICO

PART 704—LEATHER, LEATHER GOODS, AND RELATED PRODUCTS INDUSTRY IN PUERTO RICO, MINIMUM WAGE ORDER

WAGE ORDER GIVING EFFECT TO INDUSTRY COMMITTEE RECOMMENDATIONS

On January 19, 1956, pursuant to section 5 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (52 Stat. 1060, as amended; 29 U. S. C. 201 et seq.), the Secretary of Labor by Administrative Order No. 455 (21 F. R. 405) directed Industry Committee No. 20–A to recommend the minimum rate or rates of wages to be paid under section 6 of the act to employees engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce in the men's and boys' clothing and related products industry in Puerto Rico. As Administrative Order No. 455 includes the manufacture of men's and boys' belts in the definition of this industry, this wage order will automatically exclude such manufacture from the leather, leather goods, and related products industry in Puerto Rico (29 CFR 704.3 (a)). However, since leather belts are expressly mentioned in the definition of the general division of the leather, leather goods, and related products industry (29 CFR 704.3 (b) (4)), it is necessary to delete reference to belts in that definition in order to avoid possible confusion.

Subsequent to an investigation and hearing, conducted pursuant to notice published in the January 19, 1956, issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER (21 F. R. 405), the Committee filed with the Administrator a report containing its findings of fact and recommendations with respect to the matters referred to it. Accordingly, as authorized and required by section 8 of the act and General Order No. 45–A of the Secretary (15 F. R. 3290), these recommendations are hereby published in the following amendments to the Code of Federal Regulations:

1. Section 704.3 (b) (4) of Part 704, Title 29, Code of Federal Regulations is amended to read as follows:

(4) General Division. This division consists of the manufacture of athletic gloves, ring binders, portfolios, brief cases, luggage and all products and activities included in the leather, leather goods and related products industry, as defined in this section, except those included in the hide curing division, the leather tanning and processing division, and the small leather goods, baseball and softball division, as defined in this section.

2. Part 703 of Title 29, Code of Federal Regulations is amended to read as follows:

Sec.
703.1 Definition of the industry.
703.2 Wage rates.
703.3 Application and notice.

AUTHORITY: §§ 703.1 to 703.3 issued under sec. 8, 52 Stat. 1064, as amended; 29 U. S. C. 208. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 52 Stat. 1062, as amended; 29 U. S. C. 205.

§ 703.1 Definition of the industry. The men's and boys' clothing and related products industry in Puerto Rico, to which this part shall apply, is hereby defined as follows: The manufacture from any material of men's and boys' clothing and related products, including, but without limitation, suits, coats, overcoats, trousers, shirts, underwear, nightwear, work clothing, sportswear (including bathing suits, riding habits, and athletic uniforms), heavy outerwear, neckties, caps, hats (except hand-made straw hats), belts, robes, dressing gowns, raincoats, suspenders, garters, academic caps and gowns, vestments, costumes, and other items of apparel and accessories (except gloves, handkerchiefs, sweaters, scarves, mufflers, hosiery, and shoes).

§ 703.2 Wage rates—(a) Suits, coats, and jackets classification. Wages at a rate of not less than 60 cents an hour shall be paid in the suits, coats, and jackets classification of the men's and boys' clothing and related products industry, and this classification shall be defined as the manufacture of men's, youths' and boys' suits, coats, and jackets (except denim work coats and jackets), overcoats, topcoats, fabric raincoats, and similar outerwear.

(b) Necktie classification. Wages at a rate of not less than 60 cents an hour shall be paid in the necktie classification of the men's and boys' clothing and related products industry, and this classification shall be defined as the manufacture of men's, youths' and boys' neckties and bow ties.

(c) Hat and cap classification. Wages at a rate of not less than 60 cents an hour shall be paid in the hat and cap classification of the men's and boys' clothing and related products industry, and this classification shall be defined as the manufacture of men's, youths' and boys' hats and caps.

(d) General classification. Wages at a rate of not less than 55 cents an hour shall be paid in the general classification of the men's and boys' clothing and related products industry, and this classification shall be defined as the manufacture of all products included in the men's and boys' clothing and related products industry in Puerto Rico, as defined in this part, except those included in the suits, coats, and jackets classification, the necktie classification and the hat and cap classification, as defined in this part.

§ 703.3 Application and notice. Wages of not less than the hourly wage rates specified in § 703.2 shall be paid under section 6 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 by every employer to each of his employees who is engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce in the men's and boys' clothing and related products industry in Puerto Rico. Every employer employing any such employees shall post in a conspicuous place in each department of his establishment where any such employees are working such notices of this order as shall be prescribed from time to time by the Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division of the United States Department of Labor and shall give such other notice as the Administrator may prescribe.

The above amendments are effective April 30, 1956.

Signed at Washington, D. C., this 10th day of April 1956.

NEWELL BROWN,
Administrator, Wage and Hour Division.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter XVI—Selective Service System

[Amdt. 68]

PART 1690—DETERMINATION OF AVAILABILITY OF MEMBERS OF THE STANDBY RESERVE OF THE ARMED FORCES FOR ORDER TO ACTIVE DUTY

I hereby prescribe the following regulations which shall be a portion of the Selective Service Regulations and which shall constitute Part 1690 of Title 32, Chapter XVI, Code of Federal Regulations:

Sec.
1690.1 Authority of local boards.
1690.2 Local board which has jurisdiction.
1690.3 Quorum, meetings, and disqualification of local board and its members.
1690.4 Minutes of meetings of local board.
1690.5 Jurisdiction, quorum, meetings, and disqualification of appeal board and its members.
1690.6 Standby reserve folder.
1690.7 Mailing and return of questionnaire.
1690.8 Assignment of standby reserve number.
1690.9 Presumption of availability for order to active duty.
1690.10 Duty of reservist to furnish information of his current status.
1690.11 Determination of availability and category.
1690.12 Category I–R: Reservist available for order to active duty.
1690.13 Category II–R: Reservist not available for order to active duty because of civilian occupation.
1690.14 Category III–R: Reservist not available for order to active duty by reason of extreme hardship and privation to dependents.
1690.15 Reconsideration and redetermination by local board of reservist's availability and category.
1690.16 Appeal to appeal board.
1690.17 Appeal to Director of Selective Service.
1690.18 Determination of availability and category by Director of Selective Service.
1690.19 Notification and recording of availability and category.
1690.20 Notifying armed force of availability of reservist.
1690.21 Records which are confidential.
1690.22 Availability and use of confidential records and information.
1690.23 Identification of records of reservists.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1690.1 to 1690.23 issued under sec. 10, 62 Stat. 618, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. 460. Interpret or apply sec. 233, 66 Stat. 489, as amended; 50 U. S. C. 961; E. O. 9979, 13 F. R. 4177; 3 CFR, 1948 Supp.

§ 1690.1 Authority of local boards. (a) Local boards are authorized to determine the availability of members of the Standby Reserve of the Armed Forces for order to active duty under section 233 (a) of the Armed Forces Reserve Act of 1952, as amended, in time of war or national emergency declared by the Congress or whenever otherwise authorized by law. The authority conferred by this paragraph shall be subject to the rights of appeal to appeal boards and the Director of Selective Service provided by this part.

(b) Hereafter in this part a member of the Standby Reserve is referred to as a "reservist" which term shall include both male and female members of the Standby Reserve.

§ 1690.2 Local board which has jurisdiction. (a) If a reservist has registered under any provision of the Universal Military Training and Service Act, as amended, the local board with which the reservist is registered shall have jurisdiction to determine his availability for order to active duty. If a reservist is neither a registrant nor a special registrant, the local board in whose area is located the place of the address given by the reservist in Series I of the Standby Reserve Questionnaire (SSS Form No. 80) shall have such jurisdiction. Whenever the place of the address so given by a reservist is not within the area of any local board, District of Columbia Local Board No. 100 (Foreign) shall have such jurisdiction.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, the Director of Selective Service may, at any time, designate the local board which shall have jurisdiction to determine the availability for order to active duty of any reservist. After such designation no other local board shall have or retain any jurisdiction with respect to the reservist under this part.

§ 1690.3 Quorum, meetings, and disqualification of local board and its members. The provisions of §§ 1604.52a, 1604.55, and 1604.56 of this chapter and the provisions of paragraphs (b) and (c) of § 1623.9 of this chapter concerning the quorum, meetings, and disqualification of a local board and the disqualification of members of a local board with respect to the classification of a registrant shall be applicable to a local board and its members when determining the availability of a reservist for order to active duty under this part.

§ 1690.4 Minutes of meetings of local board. A record of each meeting of the local board held for the purpose of determining the availability of a reservist for order to active duty shall be kept by the board on Standby Reserve Actions and Minutes (SSS Form No. 82) which shall be completed in duplicate. The original shall be filed in the local board office as minutes of such meetings and the copy shall be forwarded to the State Director of Selective Service.

§ 1690.5 Jurisdiction, quorum, meetings, and disqualification of appeal board and its members. (a) The provisions of §§ 1604.24, 1604.25, and 1604.26 of this chapter concerning the jurisdiction, quorum, meetings, and disqualification of an appeal board and the disqualification of members of an appeal board with respect to the classification of a registrant shall be applicable to an appeal board and its members when acting on the cases of reservists which are appealed to it under this part.

(b) Each appeal board or panel thereof shall keep minutes of each meeting it holds for the purpose of deciding appeals taken under this part.

§ 1690.6 Standby reserve folder. The local board shall open an individual file for each reservist by using a Cover Sheet (SSS Form No. 101) on the outside of which shall be placed the designation "Standby Reserve." This file shall be known as and hereafter in this part is referred to as, the "standby reserve folder." Every paper and document pertaining to the determination of the availability of the reservist for order to active duty, except such papers and documents as may be designated by the Director of Selective Service, shall be filed in his standby reserve folder.

§ 1690.7 Mailing and return of questionnaire. The local board shall mail a Standby Reserve Questionnaire (SSS Form No. 80) to each reservist in accordance with instructions to be issued by the Director of Selective Service. Unless the local board grants an extension of time, the reservist shall complete and return his Standby Reserve Questionnaire (SSS Form No. 80) within the time specified on the questionnaire by the local board which shall not be less than 10 days after the date on which it is mailed to the reservist.

§ 1690.8 Assignment of standby reserve number. (a) After the local board of jurisdiction has received the completed Standby Reserve Questionnaire (SSS Form No. 80) of a reservist who is not required to be registered under the Universal Military Training and Service Act, as amended, the local board shall assign the reservist a standby reserve number. The first element of the standby reserve number, reading from left to right, shall be the number of the State in which the local board is located as shown on the list of States, Territories, and possessions in paragraph (b) of § 1621.2 of this chapter. The second element of the number shall be the number of the reservist's local board within the State. The third element of the number shall be assigned in numerical sequence, beginning with the numeral 1, according to the sequence in which the local board assigns standby reserve numbers to nonregistrant reservists. The fourth element of the number shall be the one of the following symbols which identifies the Ready Reserve of which the reservist is a member: "A" for Army Reserve, "AF" for Air Force Reserve, "N" for Naval Reserve, "MC" for Marine Corps Reserve, or "CG" for Coast Guard Reserve.

(b) As soon as a standby reserve number has been assigned to a reservist, the local board shall notify the reservist of his number and that he is under the jurisdiction of that local board.

(c) The local board shall keep a record of all standby reserve numbers it assigns to reservists on the Standby Reserve Register (SSS Form No. 81). Once a standby reserve number has been assigned to a reservist, the same number shall never be used again.

§ 1690.9 Presumption of availability for order to active duty. (a) Each reservist shall be considered available for order to active duty under section 233 (a) of the Armed Forces Reserve Act of 1952, as amended, until it is established to the satisfaction of the local board that he should not be available for order to active duty.

(b) The mailing by the local board of a Standby Reserve Questionnaire (SSS Form No. 80) to a reservist at the latest address furnished by him shall be notice to the reservist that unless information is presented to the local board, within the time specified for the return of the questionnaire, he will be found available for order to active duty.

§ 1690.10 Duty of reservist to furnish information of his current status. (a) It shall be the duty of every reservist to keep his local board currently informed of his occupational, marital, family, and dependency status, of every other circumstance which might affect a determination as to his availability for order to active duty, and of his mailing address. Every reservist shall, within 10 days after it occurs, report to his local board in writing every change in such status and circumstance and in his mailing address.

(b) A reservist shall submit to his local board in writing all information which the local board may at any time request from him concerning his occupational, marital, family, or dependency status or other circumstance which might affect a determination as to his availability for order to active duty. The reservist shall submit such information to his local board within 10 days after the date on which the local board mails him a request therefor, or within such longer period as may be fixed by the local board.

§ 1690.11 Determination of availability and category. (a) The availability of a reservist for order to active duty and his category shall be determined on the basis of (1) the information contained in his Standby Reserve Questionnaire (SSS Form No. 80), (2) such other written information as may be contained in his standby reserve folder and, if he is a registrant, in his Cover Sheet (SSS Form No. 101), and (3) current instructions issued by the Director of Selective Service. The local board shall proceed with the consideration of the reservist's case and determine whether he is available or not available for order to active duty whenever he fails to return his Standby Reserve Questionnaire (SSS Form No. 80) within the time allowed by the local board, or he fails to provide the local board with any other information concerning his status which he is requested or required to furnish.

(b) Every reservist shall be placed in Category I–R under the provisions of § 1690.12 except that when grounds are established to place a reservist in either Category II–R or Category III–R under the provisions of § 1690.13 or § 1690.14, the reservist shall be placed in whichever of such categories is applicable.

(c) Subject to the provisions of §§ 1690.15 and 1690.18 and the rights of appeal provided by this part, the determination of the local board as to the availability of a reservist for order to active duty and as to his category shall be final.

§ 1690.12 Category I–R: Reservist available for order to active duty. In Category I–R shall be placed every reservist who has failed to establish to the satisfaction of the local board, subject to appeal as provided by this part, that he should not be available for order to active duty.

§ 1690.13 Category II–R: Reservist not available for order to active duty because of civilian occupation. In Category II–R shall be placed any reservist whose continuance in his civilian employment, occupation, activity, or other endeavors in time of war or national emergency declared by the Congress is found to be more essential to the maintenance of the national health, safety, or interest than the performance by him of active duty in the Armed Forces.

§ 1690.14 Category III–R: Reservist not available for order to active duty by reason of extreme hardship and privation to dependents. (a) In Category III–R shall be placed any reservist who is found to be not available for order to active duty solely because his performance of active duty in the Armed Forces in time of war or national emergency declared by the Congress would result in extreme hardship and privation (1) to the reservist's husband, wife, divorced wife, child, parent, grandparent, brother, or sister who is dependent upon the reservist for support, or (2) to a person under 18 years of age or a person of any age who is physically or mentally handicapped whose support the reservist has assumed in good faith; provided, that a person shall be considered to be a dependent of a reservist under this paragraph only when such person is either a citizen of the United States or lives in the United States, its Territories, or possessions.

(b) The term "child" as used in this section shall include a legitimate or an illegitimate child from the date of its conception, a child legally adopted, a stepchild, a foster child, and a person who is supported in good faith by the reservist in a relationship similar to that of parent and child but shall not include any person 18 years of age or over unless he is physically or mentally handicapped.

§ 1690.15 Reconsideration and redetermination by local board of reservist's availability and category. (a) Except as otherwise provided in § 1690.18, the local board may at any time before it has notified the armed force concerned that such reservist is available for order to active duty reconsider and redetermine the reservist's availability for order to active duty and his category if such action is based upon facts not considered when such availability and category were previously determined under the provisions of this part which facts, if true, would justify changing the previous determination of the reservist's availability and category.

(b) The local board shall reconsider and redetermine a reservist's availability for order to active duty and his category upon the written request of the Director of Selective Service or the State Director of Selective Service.

§ 1690.16 Appeal to appeal board. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, an appeal to the appeal board from the determination by the local board of a reservist's availability for order to active duty and his category may be taken, processed, and determined in the same manner, under the same conditions, and in accordance with the same procedures as are prescribed in Part 1626 of this chapter with respect to an appeal from a classification of a registrant by the local board.

(b) An appeal authorized under paragraph (a) of this section may be taken only by the following persons:

(1) The Director of Selective Service.

(2) The State Director of Selective Service (as to a determination of a local board in his State).

(3) The reservist.

(4) Any person who claims to be a dependent of the reservist.

(5) Any person who, prior to the determination appealed from, filed a written request that the reservist be found not available for order to active duty because of his current civilian occupation.

(c) Such appeal may be taken at any time by the Director of Selective Service or by the State Director of Selective Service as to a determination of a local board in his State.

(d) Such appeal may be taken by any person described in subparagraphs (3), (4), and (5) of paragraph (b) of this section at any time within the following periods:

(1) Within 10 days after the date the local board mails to the reservist a Standby Reserve Notice of Availability (SSS Form No. 86).

(2) Within 30 days after the date the local board mails to the reservist a Standby Reserve Notice of Availability (SSS Form No. 86) if, on that date, it appears that the reservist is located in one and the local board which classified the reservist is located in another of the following: The continental United States, the Territory of Alaska, the Territory of Hawaii, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, Guam, or the Canal Zone.

(3) Within 30 days after the date the local board mails to the reservist a Standby Reserve Notice of Availability (SSS Form No. 86) if, on that date, it appears that the reservist is located in Canada, Cuba, or Mexico.

(4) Within 60 days after the date the local board mails to the reservist a Standby Reserve Notice of Availability (SSS Form No. 86) if, on that date, it appears that the reservist is located outside the continental United States, the Territory of Alaska, the Territory of Hawaii, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, Guam, the Canal Zone, Canada, Cuba, and Mexico.

(e) At any time before the local board has notified the armed force concerned that the reservist is available for order to active duty, the local board may permit any person described in subparagraphs (3), (4), and (5) of paragraph (b) of this section to appeal even though the period for taking an appeal has elapsed, if it is satisfied that the failure of such person to appeal within such period was due to a lack of understanding of the right to appeal or to some cause beyond the control of such person. Unless the local board thereafter permits an appeal, the right of such persons to appeal shall expire at the end of the period provided for in paragraph (d) of this section. If an extension of time to appeal is granted by the local board, a record thereof shall be entered on the Standby Reserve Questionnaire (SSS Form No. 80).

(f) The local board shall enter on the Standby Reserve Questionnaire (SSS Form No. 80) the date on which an appeal is filed, and, in lieu of preparing the Individual Appeal Record (SSS Form No. 120), shall prepare the Standby Reserve Individual Appeal Record (SSS Form No. 88) attaching the original to the inside of the cover of the reservist's standby reserve folder, which folder shall be forwarded to the appeal board. If the reservist is a registrant or special registrant, the local board shall also forward his Cover Sheet (SSS Form No. 101) to the appeal board. The local board shall enter on the Standby Reserve Availability Record (SSS Form No. 83) the date it transmits the reservist's file(s) to the appeal board.

(g) The appeal board shall use the Standby Reserve Docket Book of Appeal Board (SSS Form No. 89) in lieu of the Docket Book of Appeal Board (SSS Form No. 121).

(h) The appeal board shall determine the availability of the reservist for active duty and his category in accordance with the provisions of § 1690.11. Such determination shall be final, except when an appeal to the Director of Selective Service is taken: Provided, That this shall not be construed as prohibiting a local board from reconsidering and redetermining a reservist's availability and category in a proper case under the provisions of § 1690.15.

(i) The provisions of §§ 1626.25, 1626.26, 1626.31, 1626.41, and 1626.51 of this chapter and the provisions of paragraph (b) of § 1626.61 of this chapter shall not apply to appeals taken under this section.

§ 1690.17 Appeal to Director of Selective Service. (a) The State Director of Selective Service may at any time take an appeal to the Director of Selective Service from any determination of an appeal board under this part (1) by mailing to the local board a written notice of appeal and directing the local board to forward to him the reservist's standby reserve folder and, if the reservist is a registrant or special registrant, his Cover Sheet (SSS Form No. 101) or (2) by placing in the reservist's standby reserve folder a written notice of appeal and advising the local board thereof. Before he forwards to the Director of Selective Service the reservist's standby reserve folder, and Cover Sheet (SSS Form No. 101) if the reservist is a registrant or special registrant, the State Director of Selective Service shall place in the standby reserve folder a written statement of his reasons for taking the appeal.

(b) When a reservist's case has been reviewed by an appeal board of a State other than the State in which the reservist's local board is located, either the State Director of Selective Service of the State in which the reservist's local board is located or the State Director of Selective Service of the State in which the appeal board is located may appeal to the Director of Selective Service from the determination of the appeal board.

(c) The reservist, any person who claims to be a dependent of the reservist, or any person who, prior to the determination appealed from, filed a written request that the reservist be found not available for order to active duty because of his current civilian occupation, at any time within 10 days after the mailing by the local board of a Standby Reserve Notice of Availability (SSS Form No. 86) notifying the reservist of the determination of the appeal board, may appeal to the Director of Selective Service from such determination if the appeal board determined that the reservist was available for order to active duty and was in Category I–R and one or more members of the appeal board dissented from such determination. The local board may permit any person entitled to appeal to the Director of Selective Service under this paragraph to do so, even though the 10-day period provided for taking such an appeal has elapsed, if it is satisfied that the failure of such person to appeal within such 10-day period was due to a lack of understanding of the right to appeal or to some other cause beyond the control of such person.

(d) An appeal to the Director of Selective Service under the provisions of paragraph (c) of this section shall be taken by filing with the local board a written notice of appeal. Such notice need not be in any particular form but must state the name of the reservist and the name and identity of the person appealing so as to show the right of appeal, and the fact that such person wishes the Director of Selective Service to review the determination of the appeal board.

(e) When an appeal to the Director of Selective Service has been taken, the local board shall (1) notify the reservist that the appeal has been taken; (2) if the reservist's standby reserve folder or Cover Sheet (SSS Form No. 101), if any, is in its possession, forward such file(s) to the State Director of Selective Service; and (3) enter on the Standby Reserve Availability Record (SSS Form No. 83) under "Remarks" the date it forwards the file(s) or the date it receives notice that an appeal to the Director of Selective Service has been taken.

(f) When an appeal to the Director of Selective Service is taken, the State Director of Selective Service shall check the file(s) in his possession or forwarded to him to be sure that all procedural requirements have been properly complied with, including notice to the reservist that such an appeal has been taken, and, if he discovers any procedural defects, return the file(s) for correction. If any information has been placed in the file(s) which was not considered by the local board in making the determination from which the appeal to the Director of Selective Service is taken, the State Director of Selective Service shall review such information and, if he is of the opinion that such information, if true, would justify a different determination in the reservist's case, return the file(s) to the local board with instructions to reconsider and redetermine the reservist's availability and category.

(g) When the State Director of Selective Service has complied with the provisions of paragraph (f) of this section and has not returned the file(s) to the local board, he shall forward the file(s) to the Director of Selective Service.

(h) When the appeal to the Director of Selective Service has been decided, the file(s) shall be returned to the local board through the appropriate State Director of Selective Service.

§ 1690.18 Determination of availability and category by Director of Selective Service. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this part, the Director of Selective Service may at any time determine whether any reservist is available or not available for order to active duty and place the reservist in any category he may deem appropriate. Such action under this section by the Director of Selective Service shall be final unless he thereafter requests the local board to reconsider and redetermine the reservist's category.

§ 1690.19 Notification and recording of availability and category. As soon as practicable after the local board has determined or redetermined the reservist's eligibility and category and also after the local board receives notice of the determination of a reservist's case by the appeal board or the Director of Selective Service, the local board shall:

(a) Mail a notice thereof on a Standby Reserve Notice of Availability (SSS Form No. 86) to the reservist and on a Standby Reserve Availability Advice (SSS Form

No. 87) to every other person who has on file a current written request that the reservist be found not available for order to active duty, and enter upon each of such forms mailed concerning a determination of the appeal board, the record of the vote of the appeal board as follows: "Vote of appeal board—Yes ____ No____."

(b) Enter a notation of the determination of the reservist's availability and category on the Standby Reserve Questionnaire (SSS Form No. 80) and also enter on the Standby Reserve Availability Record (SSS Form No. 83) the category in which the reservist is placed.

(c) Enter on the Standby Reserve Availability Record (SSS Form No. 83) and on the Standby Reserve Questionnaire (SSS Form No. 80) the date of mailing of the Standby Reserve Notice of Availability (SSS Form No. 86) and also enter on the Standby Reserve Questionnaire (SSS Form No. 80) the date of mailing of each Standby Reserve Availability Advice (SSS Form No. 87) and the name of the person to whom it is mailed.

§ 1690.20 Notifying armed force of availability of reservist. The local board shall notify the armed force of which a reservist is a member of his availability for order to active duty at such time as is fixed by the Director of Selective Service.

§ 1690.21 Records which are confidential. The records in a reservist's standby reserve folder and the information contained in such records shall be confidential.

§ 1690.22 Availability and use of confidential records and information. (a) Information contained in records in a reservist's standby reserve folder may be disclosed or furnished to, or examined by, the following persons:

(1) The reservist, or any person having written authority signed by the reservist.

(2) All personnel of the Selective Service System while engaged in carrying out the functions of the Selective Service System or the functions conferred by this part.

(3) Any person having specific written authority from the Director of Selective Service.

(b) In the prosecution of a reservist for a violation of the Universal Military Training and Service Act, as amended, the regulations in this chapter, any orders or directions made pursuant to such act or regulations, or for perjury, any records in the reservist's standby reserve folder shall be produced in response to the subpena of the court in which such prosecution is pending.

(c) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, no officer or employee of the Selective Service System shall produce a reservist's standby reserve folder, or any part thereof, or testify regarding any confidential information contained therein, in response to the subpena of any court without the consent, in writing, of the reservist concerned, or of the Director of Selective Service.

(d) Whenever, under the provisions of this section, a reservist's standby reserve folder, or any part thereof, is produced as evidence in the proceedings of any court, such folder shall remain in the personal custody of an official of the Selective Service System, and permission of the court be asked, after tender of the original folder, to substitute a copy of the folder with the court.

§ 1690.23 Identification of records of reservists. All forms in the titles of which the words "Standby Reserve" do not appear and all other records used by the Selective Service System in carrying out the functions conferred by this part shall be identified by stamping or otherwise placing thereon the words "Standby Reserve."

The foregoing regulations shall be effective immediately upon the filing hereof with the Division of the Federal Register.

TITLE 36—PARKS, FORESTS, AND MEMORIALS

Chapter I—National Park Service, Department of the Interior

PART 20—SPECIAL REGULATIONS

YELLOWSTONE NATIONAL PARK

Section 20.13 Yellowstone National Park is amended by changing paragraph (f) to read as follows:

(f) Commercial automobiles and busses. The prohibition against the admission of commercial automobiles and busses to Yellowstone National Park, contained in § 1.36 of this chapter, shall be subject to the following exceptions: Motor vehicles operated on a general, infrequent, and nonscheduled tour on which the visit to the park is an incident to such tour, carrying only round-trip passengers traveling from the point of origin of the tour, will, subject to the conditions set forth in this paragraph, be accorded admission to the park for the purpose of delivering passengers to a point of stay while in the park. After passengers have completed their stay, such motor vehicles shall leave the park by the most convenient exit station, considering their destination. Motor vehicles admitted to the park under this paragraph shall not, while in the park, engage in general sightseeing operations. Admission will be accorded such vehicles upon establishing to the satisfaction of the Superintendent that the tour originated from such place and in such a manner as not to provide, in effect, a regular and duplicating service conflicting with, or in competition with, the services provided for the public at or outside of the park, pursuant to contract authorization from the Secretary. The Superintendent shall have the authority to specify the route to be followed by such vehicles within the park. Admission to the park will be accorded such motor vehicles upon payment of a special tour permit fee of $2.00 per passenger-carrying seat in the vehicle.

(Sec. 3, 39 Stat. 535, as amended; 16 U. S. C. 3)

Issued this 2d day of April 1956.

HANDLING OF MILK IN CLEVELAND, TOLEDO, LIMA, COLUMBUS, DAYTON-SPRINGFIELD, CINCINNATI, TRI-STATE, STARK COUNTY, AKRON, OHIO; GREATER WHEELING, WEST VIRGINIA, CLARKSBURG, WEST VIRGINIA; AND FORT WAYNE, INDIANA

NOTICE OF HEARING ON PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENTS AND TO THE ORDERS, AS AMENDED

Notice is hereby given of a joint public hearing to be held at Southern Hotel, Main Ball Room, South High Street, Columbus, Ohio, beginning at 10:00 a. m., e. s. t., April 20, 1956, for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to economic and emergency conditions which relate to the marketing of milk in each of the marketing areas hereinafter specified and to appropriate amendments of the Class I price provisions of the respective tentative marketing agreements heretofore approved by the Secretary of Agriculture and to the orders, now in effect, regulating the handling of milk in such marketing areas. More specifically, consideration will be given to (1) the nature, scope and similarity of price problems affecting producers, (2) determine whether or not such problems tend to disrupt the orderly marketing of milk, or constitute a threat to the adequacy of supplies of pure and wholesome milk, and (3) consider whether or not temporary, emergency price relief is necessary to promote orderly marketing. The hearing is called pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C., 601 et seq.) and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900).

A substantial number of communications and requests for price action received by the Department from milk producer groups and recent conferences held with representative leaders of cooperative organizations of producers who supply the Ohio and adjacent fluid milk markets hereinafter set forth have represented the seriousness of conditions facing fluid milk producers at the present time which it is alleged are tending to disrupt the orderly marketing of fluid milk and threaten milk supplies.

The following market areas and order provisions are covered by this hearing notice:

Market Area; Part (Order) No. Order Provisions; and Docket No.

Cleveland, Ohio; 975; § 975.61; AO-179-75-A14.

[Docket No. AO-268]

MILK IN GREATER WHEELING, WEST VA., AND CLARKSBURG, WEST VA., MARKETING AREAS

NOTICE OF RECOMMENDED DECISION AND OPPORTUNITY TO FILE WRITTEN EXCEPTIONS WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENTS, AND TO ORDERS

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of the filing with the Hearing Clerk of the recommended decision of the Deputy Administrator, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, with respect to proposed marketing agreements and proposed orders amending the orders regulating the handling of milk in the Greater Wheeling, West Virginia, and Clarksburg, West Virginia, marketing areas. Interested parties may file written exceptions to this decision with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than the close of business on the 3rd day after publication of this decision in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Exceptions should be filed in quadruplicate.

Preliminary statement. The hearing on the record of which the proposed marketing agreements and orders were formulated was conducted at Wheeling, West Virginia, on March 2, 1956, pursuant to notice thereof which was issued on February 23, 1956 (21 F. R. 1274).

The material issues of record related to:

1. Class I price (Proposal 1).
2. Class II price (Proposals 2 and 4).
3. Lower price for milk, the skim of which is dumped, and lower Class II butterfat differential (Proposals 3 and 7).
4. Classification of milk disposed of as feed (Proposal 5).
5. Accounting for nonfat solids added to Class I products (Proposal 6).
6. Producer-handler definition (Proposal 8).

Findings and conclusions. The following findings and conclusions on the material issues are based upon evidence in the record.

1. Class I prices. Class I prices in the Greater Wheeling and Clarksburg areas should be changed in accordance with changes being made in the Stark County Class I price. Greater Wheeling and Clarksburg Class I prices were established, on the same seasonal patern as that of Stark County, at higher levels of 15 cents and 40 cents, respectively. The addition of these amounts to the revised differentials of the Stark County area would make Class I price differentials, in the Wheeling area, $1.50 during February–July and $1.95 during other months; in the Clarksburg area, $1.75 during February–July and $2.20 in other months.

Such alignment seems essential to stability in these marketing areas. After the amending of Cleveland prices, effective May 1, 1955, Stark County prices needed to be adjusted with reference to prices in Akron and Cleveland. The Cleveland amendments reduced the number of seasonal differentials from 3 to 2, and slightly raised their annual level in order to compensate for the effects of changes in the automatic supply-demand adjustment. When the Wheeling and Clarksburg orders were issued it was found that, because of extensive inter-area competitive relations, the Class I prices should be in a constant relationship to the Class I price in the Stark County order. In the few months of their operation there is no evidence that the established relationships are faulty. The recommended Class I price differentials for Wheeling and Clarksburg would preserve the original relationship. Reduction of seasonal changes in differentials, from 3 to 2, is suitable to these markets, with their base-excess method of producer payment. Changes in the Stark County Class I price differentials would raise their annual level only enough to offset changes made in the new supply-demand adjustment. Parallel changes in Class I price differentials should be made for the Greater Wheeling and Clarksburg areas.

Handlers objected to changes in Class I price differentials proposed by producers on two counts. First, they contended that the proposed increase in the annual level—amounting to 11½ cents—was excessive. Producers had proposed differentials for Wheeling and Clarksburg that were above the Class I price differentials for Stark County, in the recommended decision issued February 29, 1956, by 20 cents and 45 cents respectively. Such differentials would raise Class I prices in Wheeling and Clarksburg 5 cents more than the recommended increase in the Class I price in Stark County. Handlers are supported by the record in the position that Wheeling and Clarksburg differentials should not be increased more than Stark County differentials.

Secondly, handlers contended that any increase in Class I price differentials in Wheeling and Clarksburg would throw prices in these areas seriously out of line with prevailing prices in the Tri-State area. A little Tri-State milk is distributed in Clarksburg; but the inter-area trade with Tri-State is minor in comparison with relations with Stark County. Alignment of Wheeling and Clarksburg prices with Stark County prices, as here recommended, involves no material changes in relation to Tri-State prices, except with respect to seasonal variations. Patterns of seasonal price change are likely to vary among trade areas, that are no more closely associated than Clarksburg and Tri-State. In this case, it does not appear that the effects upon inter-area trade would be disturbing; there would be no material change in the annual level of Clarksburg prices. Any change in this respect would come from the new supply-demand price adjustment, adopted in Stark County, and thereby effective in Greater Wheeling and Clarksburg.

The Tri-State area operates under a different supply-demand adjustment provision. In recent months it has increased Class I prices from 3 to 24 cents. Over the same period the adjustment provision, that is employed in the Greater Wheeling and Clarksburg areas, has reduced prices by equally substantial amounts. Recommended changes in the price mechanism of these marketing areas are not likely to change annual price relations with the Tri-State area more than they have varied from the effects of their respective supply-demand adjustment provisions. Such fluctuations in relationship must be considered to be well within normal price relations between areas, where, as here, inter-area marketing is not extensive.

2. Class II prices. For May and June 1956, 20 cents per hundredweight reduction from the basic price for Class II milk should apply, without regard to the supply-demand adjustment feature provided in the Class II price formula.

It seems certain at this time that supplies of producer milk, in excess of Class I requirements of bottling and distributing plants, during April, May and June this year, will exceed quantities that can be received and handled at basic prices. Current data from the market administrator and testimony of handlers indicate that receipts at pool plants are increasing seasonally at a rate that most likely will increase Class II utilization, in these months of heaviest production, to about 35 percent of receipts. Handlers testified that this much milk, in excess of fluid requirements, would swamp pool plant facilities for Class II utilization. An unestimated percentage of such excess could be received by handlers only for sale and transfer to manufacturing plants. Some of this milk may be moved directly from farms to manufacturing plant; but most of it must be delivered by producers to handlers' plants, where it must be recanned and reloaded for movement to manufacturers. Prices for milk delivered to these manufacturing plants may be 30 cents less than basic prices.

Under these circumstances the 20-cent reduction from basic prices, in the Class II price provision of these orders, should be effective. The supply-demand adjustment, as provided, has brought this price reduction into effect on April milk, and most likely would do so on May and June milk. But local market circumstances this Spring, as shown by this record, justify removing, for this season, any uncertainty regarding this adjustment to Class II prices.

Two other questions in regard to this adjustment were considered. Handlers requested that the reduction be 30 cents, instead of 20 cents, and that the period be extended to include July. They argued that they should be able to recover at least their costs of milk moved to manufacturing plants, where prices during flush months may be 30 cents below basic prices. In regard to this argument it may be observed that prices at these plants may not be as low as this. Even so, such transferred milk is only part of handlers' Class II disposition, and undoubtedly, the least profitable. The reduced Class II price for the flush months applies to all Class II disposition. On some portion of Class II utilization, perhaps in some cases most of it, handlers may be able to realize product values equivalent to basic prices. Such prices are paid for supplies in excess of fluid requirements, in many milk markets. Most pertinent, perhaps, is the fact that in Stark County, with its close trade relations with Wheeling and Clarksburg, the Spring reduction in Class II prices is less than 20 cents.

It is also concluded that July should not be included in the period of reduced Class II prices. Argument for it was mainly based on the fact that July is included in the period when the base-excess payment plan operates. But this fact, in itself, has little relevancy. July was not originally included because it seemed from the record that, in July, supplies tended to be less burdensome, and the markets for the chief Class II products more favorable, than in the three preceding months. This record sheds no more light on what Class II market conditions in July may be.

3. Lower price for milk, the skim of which is dumped, and lower Class II butterfat differentials. The price for milk, the fat of which is used for butter, should not be below the Class II price. Nor should the Class II butterfat differential be lowered.

One proposal would price milk, the skim of which is dumped, and the fat used for butter, solely on the basis of the prevailing price or the "support" price for butterfat. This proposal would not afford a reasonable basis of pricing any producer milk. Producer milk must be priced on the basis of skim and fat values in the market. Obviously, butterfat in producer milk has a higher market value than in farm cream. The fat value in top grade cream is much above the support price for butterfat. In the price for Class II milk, the fat value is determined from butter prices, as is also the butterfat differential. These factors in the Class II price would not seem to overprice the fat in Class II milk, even when utilized for butter. The fat value in the Class II price formula is no higher than in surrounding markets. The butterfat differential is about the same as that in prices paid for milk at manufacturing plants. It was not shown on the record that the fat in Class II milk is overpriced. Rather, this proposal to price the milk on a lower fat value was supported chiefly on the grounds that the skim was dumped. The fact that dumped skim is a loss does not justify a Class price lower than that at which such producer milk is generally utilized in the market.

For much the same reason the proposal to lower the Class II butterfat differential must be rejected. There was no showing that the present differential is too high. It is no higher than in surrounding markets. Apparently, it is little if any higher than fat differential rates at manufacturing plants to which some of the milk is moved. Handlers' use or dispose of butterfat in top quality cream, that usually has higher fat value than cream of only manufacturing quality. It was argued that if the cost of Class II butterfat were lowered, handlers could afford to use more skim in Class I products. But this would "Rob Peter to pay Paul". Class prices should price skim and butterfat in accordance with their relative market values.

4. Classification of milk disposed of as feed. The Class II definition should not be amended to include any milk or milk product with butterfat disposed of as feed.

This proposal would open Class II to include any milk or milk product disposed of as livestock feed. Such disposal in Class II is now limited to skim milk. Proponents urged the need for such amendment to permit Class II accounting for route returns from which the butterfat cannot be separated. They argued that such accounting would be as appropriate for milk products, with skim and fat, as it is for skim milk.

But the cases are not analogous, the feed and dumping provision is designed to permit a handler to account in Class II for skim milk, that is in effect only a plant by-product, for which, under certain circumstances, he has no product disposition. The more valuable part of producer milk has been used presumably in marketable Class II products. Without such provision, the rules for classification and accounting would place such by-product, in the utilization of Class II milk, into the Class I category, in the form of excess shrinkage, plant loss, or unaccounted for milk. It seems evident from the context of the classification scheme that the skim milk disposition as feed or by dumping has a validity that would be lacking in the case of route returns. For the route returns, in this case, consist of producer milk that is useless for the production of Class II products because of its processing for Class I usage. This would appear to place such returns in the same category as spoilage or stolen goods, that fall into Class I as plant loss or "unaccounted" for milk when in excess of the shrinkage allowance in Class II.

5. Accounting for nonfat solids added to Class I products. Nonfat solids added to Class I products should continue to be accounted for in terms of the skim milk equivalent used to produce them. The proposal to change to an accounting on the basis of actual pounds added should not be adopted.

In the decision of September 6, 1955, that issued these orders, the manner of accounting for milk products, that are added to Class I products, was fully considered. Various methods were studied, including the one here proposed. On the evidence, as shown by findings, it seemed that the method that was adopted was the most appropriate, equitable, and feasible. It is the one commonly employed in other orders. The testimony in this record adds little to the evidence in regard to this provision, certainly too little for a satisfactory re-examination. There was some speculation about an alleged deleterious effect upon the marketing of producer milk, but there was no substantial evidence of this. On the contrary, the testimony failed to dispel the appearance of discrimination, seemingly inherent in the proposed accounting method, against producer milk in Class I usage, or to reconcile the proposed accounting for Class I usage in "fortified" products with proper accounting for Class I usage in "concentrated" products.

6. Producer-handler definition. This definition should be clarified. Its meaning has been questioned. Revision as proposed would make explicit the intended conditions for producer-handler status. The conditions, as explained on the record, were not questioned.

General findings. (a) The proposed marketing agreements and the orders as hereby proposed to be amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(b) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk, in the marketing area and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreements and the orders, as hereby proposed to be amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(c) The proposed orders, as hereby proposed to be amended, will regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as, and will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity, specified in marketing agreements upon which a hearing has been held.

Rulings on proposed findings and conclusions. Briefs were filed which contained statements of fact, proposed findings and conclusions, and arguments with respect to the provisions of the proposed amendments. Every point covered in the briefs was carefully considered along with the evidence in the record in making the findings and reaching the conclusions hereinbefore set forth. To the extent that the findings and conclusions proposed in the briefs are inconsistent with the findings and conclusions contained herein, the request to make such findings or to reach such conclusions is denied on the basis of the facts found and stated in connection with the conclusions in this recommended decision.

Recommended marketing agreements and amendments to the orders. The following orders, amending the orders, regulating the handling of milk in the Greater Wheeling, West Virginia, and Clarksburg, West Virginia, marketing areas are recommended as the detailed and appropriate means by which the foregoing conclusions may be carried out. The recommended marketing agreements are not included in this decision because the regulatory provision thereof would be identical with those contained in the orders, and the orders as hereby proposed to be further amended.

Order Amending the Order Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Greater Wheeling, West Virginia, Marketing Area

1. Delete § 1002.13 and substitute the following:

§ 1002.13 Producer-handler. "Producer-handler" means a person who operates both a dairy farm and a milk processing or bottling plant at which each of the following conditions is met during the month:

(a) Milk is received from the dairy farm(s) of such person but from no other dairy farm;

(b) Fluid milk products are disposed of on routes or through a plant store to retail or wholesale outlets in the marketing area; and

(c) The butterfat or skim milk disposed of in fluid milk products does not exceed the butterfat or skim milk, respectively, received in the form of milk from the dairy farm(s) of such person and in the form of fluid milk products from pool plants of other handlers.

2. In § 1002.51 (a) delete the table of prices and substitute:

| Month: | Amount |
|---|---|
| February, March, April, May, June, and July | $1.50 |
| All others | 1.95 |

3. In § 1002.51 (b) delete the period at the end of the sentence and add the following: "Provided, further, That the Class II milk price for the months of May and June, 1956, shall be the basic formula price less 20 cents."

Order Amending the Order Regulating the Handling of Milk in Clarksburg, West Virginia, Marketing Area

1. Delete § 1009.13 and substitute the following:

§ 1009.13 Producer-handler. "Producer-handler" means a person who operates both a dairy farm and a milk processing or bottling plant at which each of the following conditions is met during the month:

(a) Milk is received from the dairy farm(s) of such person but from no other dairy farm;

(b) Fluid milk products are disposed of on routes or through a plant store to retail or wholesale outlets in the marketing area; and

(c) The butterfat or skim milk disposed of in fluid milk products does not exceed the butterfat or skim milk, respectively, received in the form of milk from the dairy farm(s) of such person and in the form of fluid milk products from pool plants of other handlers.

2. In § 1009.51 (a) delete the table of prices and substitute:

| Month: | Amount |
|---|---|
| February, March, April, May, June, and July | $1.75 |
| All others | 2.20 |

3. In § 1009.51 (b) delete the period at the end of the sentence and add the following: "Provided, further, That the Class II milk price for the months of May and June, 1956 shall be the basic formula price less 20 cents."

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 12th day of April 1956.

TOLERANCES AND EXEMPTIONS FROM TOLERANCES FOR PESTICIDE CHEMICALS IN OR ON RAW AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES

GENERAL REGULATIONS FOR SETTING TOLERANCES AND GRANTING EXEMPTIONS FROM TOLERANCES; NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given that the Commissioner of Food and Drugs, pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (secs. 408, 701 (a), 52 Stat. 1055, 68 Stat. 511; 21 U. S. C. 348, 371), and in accordance with authority delegated to him by the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare (20 F. R. 1996), proposes to amend the regulations for setting tolerances and granting exemptions from tolerances for pesticide chemicals in or on raw agricultural commodities (21 CFR Part 120; 21 F. R. 768, 1172) in the following respects:

1. Amend § 120.1 Definitions and interpretations by adding the following new paragraph:

(g) For the purpose of computing fees as required by § 120.33, each group of crops listed in § 120.34 (e) is counted as a single raw agricultural commodity in a petition or request for tolerances or exemption from the requirement of a tolerance for a nonsystemic pesticide. As a general rule, when considering a petition or request with respect to a systemic pesticide (see § 120.34 (c)) crops shall not be grouped.

2. In § 120.2 Pesticide chemicals considered safe, amend paragraph (a) to read as follows:

(a) As a general rule, pesticide chemicals other than sulfur, lime, lime-sulfur, sodium carbonate, and sodium polysulfide are not, for the purposes of section 408 (a) of the act, generally recognized as safe for use.

3. Amend § 120.3 Tolerances for related pesticide chemicals by adding the following new paragraph:

(e) Except as noted in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph, where residues from two or more chemicals in the same class are present in or on a raw agricultural commodity the tolerance for the total of such residues shall be the same as that for the chemical having the lowest numerical tolerance in this class.

(1) Where residues from two or more chemicals in the same class are present in a raw agricultural commodity and there are available methods that permit quantitative determination of each residue, the quantity of combined residues that are within the tolerance may be determined as follows:

(i) Determine the quantity of each residue present.

(ii) Divide the quantity of each residue by the tolerance that would apply if it occurred alone, and multiply by 100 to determine the percentage of the permitted amount of residue present.

(iii) Add the percentages so obtained for all residues present.

(iv) The sum of the percentages shall not exceed 100 percent.

(2) Where residues from two or more chemicals in the same class are present on a raw agricultural commodity and there are available methods that permit quantitative determinations of one or more, but not all, of the residues, the amounts of such residues as may be determinable shall be deducted from the total amount of residues present, and the remainder shall have the same tolerance as that for the chemical having the lowest numerical tolerance in that class. The quantity of combined residues that are within the tolerance may be determined as follows:

(i) Determine the quantity of each determinable residue present.

(ii) Deduct the amounts of such residues from the total amount of residues present and consider the remainder to have the same tolerance as that for the chemical having the lowest numerical tolerance in that class.

(iii) Divide the quantity of each determinable residue by the tolerance that would apply if it occurred alone and the quantity of the remaining residue by the tolerance for the chemical having the lowest numerical tolerance in that class and multiply by 100 to determine the percentage of the permitted amount of residue present.

(iv) Add the percentages so obtained for all residues present.

(v) The sum of the percentages shall not exceed 100 percent.

(3) The following compounds are members of the class of dithiocarbamates.

Ferbam.
Maneb.
Thiram.
Ziram.
Zineb.

(4) The following compounds are members of the class of chlorinated hydrocarbons:

Aldrin.
Benzene hexachloride.
Chlordane.
Chlorinated camphene (toxaphene).
Chlorobenzilate (ethyl 4,4'-dichlorobenzilate).
p-Chlorophenyl-p-chlorobenzenesulfonate.
DDD (TDE).
DDT.
2,4-Dichlorophenoxy acetic acid.
Dieldrin.
Heptachlor.
Lindane.
Methoxychlor.
SES (sodium 2,4-dichlorophenoxyethyl sulfate).
Sulphenone (p-chlorophenyl phenyl sulfone).

(5) The following compounds are members of the class of organic phosphates:

EPN.
Malathion.
Methyl parathion.
Parathion.
Systox (O,O-diethyl-(2-ethylmercaptoethyl) thiophosphate, a mixture of the thiono and thiol isomers).

(6) The following compounds are members of the class of dinitro compounds:

Dinitro-O-cyclohexylphenol.
Dicyclohexylamine salt of dinitro-O-cyclohexylphenol.

4. In § 120.7 Petitions proposing tolerances * * *, amend paragraph (b), Item D so that it reads as follows:

D. The results of tests on the amount of residue remaining, including a description of the analytical method used. (See § 120.34 for further information about residue tests.)

5. In § 120.7, amend paragraph (b) by deleting from the end thereof the two undesignated paragraphs beginning "The petitioner will be notified * * *" and All Petitions Should Be Submitted * * *" and substituting therefor the following:

The petition shall be submitted in duplicate. The petitioner shall show that he has registered or has submitted an application for the registration of the pesticide chemical (economic poison) under the Federal Insecticide, Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act.

6. Amend Part 120 by adding a new section reading as follows:

§ 120.34 Tests on the amount of residue remaining. (a) Data in a petition on the amount of residue remaining in or on a raw agricultural commodity should establish the residue that may remain when the pesticide chemcial is applied according to directions registered under the Federal Insecticide, Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act, or according to directions contained in an application for registration. These data should establish the residues that may remain under conditions most likely to result in high residues on the commodity.

(b) The petition should establish the reliability of the residue data reported on each raw agricultural commodity on which a tolerance or exemption is requested. Sufficient information should be submitted about the analytical method to permit competent analysts to apply it successfully.

(c) If the pesticide chemical is absorbed into a living plant or animal when applied (is systemic), residue data may be needed on each plant or animal on which a tolerance or exemption is requested.

(d) If the pesticide chemical is not absorbed into the living plant or animal when applied (is not systemic), it may be possible to make a reliable estimate of the residues to be expected on each commodity in a group of related commodities on the basis of less data than would be required for each commodity in the group, considered separately.

(e) Each of the following groups of crops lists raw agricultural commodities that are considered to be related for the purpose of paragraph (d) of this section. Commodities not listed in this paragraph are not considered as related for the purpose of paragraph (d) of this section. This grouping of crops does not affect the certification of usefulness by the Secretary of Agriculture as contemplated by section 408 (l) of the act.

(1) Apples, crabapples, pears, quinces.
(2) Avocados, papayas.
(3) Blackberries, boysenberries, dewberries, loganberries, raspberries.
(4) Blueberries, currants, gooseberries, huckleberries.
(5) Cherries, plums, prunes.
(6) Oranges, citrus citron, grapefruit, kumquats, lemons, limes, tangelos, tangerines.
(7) Mangoes, persimmons.
(8) Peaches, apricots, nectarines.
(9) Beans, peas, soybeans (each in dry form).
(10) Beans, peas, soybeans (each in succulent form).
(11) Broccoli, brussels sprouts, cauliflower, kohlrabi.
(12) Cantaloups, honeydew melons, muskmelons, pumpkins, watermelons, winter squash.
(13) Carrots, garden beets, sugar beets, horseradish, parsnips, radishes, rutabagas, salsify roots, turnips.
(14) Celery, fennel.
(15) Cucumbers, summer squash.
(16) Lettuce, endive (escarole), Chinese cabbage, romaine, salsify tops.
(17) Onions, garlic, leeks, shallots (green, or in dry bulb form).
(18) Potatoes, Jerusalem artichokes, sweetpotatoes, yams.
(19) Spinach, beet tops, collards, dandelion, kale, mustard greens, parsley, Swiss chard, turnip tops, watercress.
(20) Tomatoes, eggplants, peppers, pimentos.
(21) Pecans, almonds, Brazil nuts, bush nuts, butternuts, chestnuts, filberts, hazelnuts, hickory nuts, walnuts.
(22) Field corn, popcorn, sweet corn (each in grain form).
(23) Milo, sorghum (each in grain form).
(24) Wheat, barley, oats, rice, rye (each in grain form).
(25) Clovers, alfalfa, cowpea hay, lespedeza, lupines, peanut hay, pea-vine hay, soybean hay, vetch.
(26) Corn forage, sorghum forage.
(27) Sugarcane, cane sorghum.

7. In § 120.101 Specific tolerances for pesticide residues in or on fresh fruits and vegetables, amend paragraph (a) to read as follows:

(a) The tolerances established for poisonous or deleterious substances in this section apply only to residues resulting from their application prior to harvest. A tolerance in terms of parts by weight for the poisonous or deleterious substance, or poisonous or deleterious residue resulting from its addition, to 1 million parts by weight of the fruit or vegetable is set forth after the name of each of the substances.

8. In § 120.101, amend paragraph (c) by deleting subparagraphs (4) and (5).

These proposed amendments are for the purpose of clarifying the regulations now in effect. They are not intended to change the Food and Drug Administration's present interpretation or administration of those sections of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act interpreted or applied.

All interested persons are invited to submit written comments, in quintuplicate, with respect to the above-proposed amendments to the Hearing Clerk, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Room 5440, Health, Education, and Welfare Building, Fourth Street and Independence Avenue SW., Washington 25, D. C., within 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Dated: April 9, 1956.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Office of the Secretary

[Order No. 2813]

DIRECTOR, OFFICE OF TERRITORIES

DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY

APRIL 9, 1956.

SECTION 1. Delegation. The Director, Office of Territories, is authorized, except as provided in section 2 of this order, to exercise the authority vested in the Secretary of the Interior pursuant to the act of June 30, 1932 (47 Stat. 446, 48 U. S. C., 321a et seq.), or any other act, with respect to the construction and maintenance of roads, tramways, ferries, bridges and trails, and other similar works in the Territory of Alaska.

SEC. 2. Limitations. Excepted from section 1 of this order is authority to:

(a) Take action on any matter covered by a delegation from the Secretary of the Interior to the head of each bureau, such as authority to authorize the publication of advertisements, notices, or proposals; authority with respect to personnel management; and authority with respect to contracts for construction, supplies, or services;

(b) Distribute in a manner or to an extent other than as provided by section 3 of this order, the duties and authority conferred by the act of June 30, 1932, supra;

(c) Make rules and regulations governing the use of roads, trails, and other works, including the fixing and collection of tolls as provided by section 3 of the act of June 30, 1932, supra; and

(d) Acquire any interest in property by condemnation.

SEC. 3. Redelegation. The Director, Office of Territories, may in writing redelegate the authority granted in this order to the Deputy Director and the Assistant Director, Alaskan Affairs, both in the Office of Territories; and to any officer or employee of the Alaska Road Commission. The Director, Office of Territories, may authorize written redelegation of such authority as he may redelegate.

SEC. 4. Revocations. The following orders are revoked:

No. 2448.
No. 2565 (15 F. R. 3798).

(Executive Order 10250, 3 CFR, 1951 Supp., 437; sec. 2, Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1950, 5 U. S. C., 1952 ed., sec. 133z-15, note)

DOUGLAS MCKAY,
Secretary of the Interior.

CONFEDERATED TRIBES OF THE GRAND RONDE COMMUNITY

NOTICE OF PUBLICATION OF THE FINAL MEMBERSHIP ROLL

APRIL 6, 1956.

Pursuant to section 3 of the act of August 13, 1954 (68 Stat. 725), there is listed below the final membership roll of the Confederated Tribes of the Grand Ronde Community.

Disposition has been made of all appeals to the Secretary contesting the inclusion or omission of the name of any person on or from the proposed roll as published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on May 24, 1955 (Vol. 20, No. 101, pages 3636-3642).

DOUGLAS MCKAY,
Secretary of the Interior.

SHIVWITS, KANOSH, KOOSHAREM AND INDIAN PEAKS BANDS OF PAIUTE INDIAN TRIBE

NOTICE OF PUBLICATION OF FINAL MEMBERSHIP ROLLS

APRIL 6, 1956.

Pursuant to section 3 of the act of September 1, 1954 (68 Stat. 1099), there are listed below the final membership rolls of the Shivwits, Kanosh, Koosharem and Indian Peaks Bands of the Paiute Indian Tribe who were living on September 1, 1954. Since no valid appeals contesting the inclusion or omission of the name of any person on or from such rolls were filed, these rolls are the same as the proposed rolls published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on April 15, 1955 (Vol. 20, No. 74, page 2499–2503).

DOUGLAS MCKAY,
Secretary of the Interior.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

Federal Maritime Board

SEAS SHIPPING CO., INC. AND ROBIN LINE, INC.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR OPERATING-DIFFERENTIAL SUBSIDY

Notice is hereby given of the application of Robin Line, Inc., a subsidiary of Seas Shipping Company, Inc., for operating-differential subsidy for the operation of a minimum of 26 and a maximum of 36 subsidized sailings annually (the same number of sailings and with same vessels as are now incorporated in Seas' contract) on Trade Route No. 15A, beginning on termination of the operating-differential subsidy contract of Seas Shipping Company, Inc., on December 31, 1956, or on expiration of said contract on December 31, 1957.

Any citizen of the United States claiming that the effect of granting such application would be to give undue advantage or be unduly prejudicial as between citizens of the United States in the operation of vessels in competitive services, routes or lines should present evidence in support of such claim in writing to the Secretary, Federal Maritime Board, Washington 25, D. C., within fifteen (15) days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By order of the Federal Maritime Board.

Dated: April 3, 1956.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Office of the Secretary

WYOMING

DISASTER ASSISTANCE; DESIGNATION OF AREA FOR SPECIAL EMERGENCY LOANS

For the purpose of making emergency loans pursuant to Public Law 727, 83d Congress, as amended, it is determined that in all of the counties in the State of Wyoming, except Laramie, Platte, and Goshen, there is a need for agricultural credit which cannot be met for a temporary period from commercial banks, cooperative lending agencies, the Farmers Home Administration under its regular programs, or under Public Law 38, 81st Congress (12 U. S. C. 1148a-2), as amended, or other responsible sources.

Pursuant to the authority set forth above, special emergency loans may be made to new applicants in the counties in the State of Wyoming designated herein, through June 30, 1956. Thereafter, special emergency loans may be made in said counties only to applicants who previously received such assistance and who can qualify under established policies and procedures.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 11th day of April 1956.

[Docket No. 11124 etc.; FCC 56M-346]

HAROLD M. GADE ET AL.

ORDER AFTER THIRD PREHEARING CONFERENCE

In re applications of Harold M. Gade, Eatontown, New Jersey, Docket No. 11124, File No. BP-9096; Monmouth County Broadcasters, Long Branch, New Jersey, Docket No. 11125, File No. BP-9231; Herbert Scott and Ralph E. P. Mellon d/b as Long Branch Broadcasting Company, Long Branch, New Jersey, Docket No. 11587, File No. BP-9771; for construction permits.

Appearances. Mr. Philip M. Baker on behalf of Harold M. Gade, Mr. Stanley B. Cohen on behalf of Long Branch Broadcasting Company, and Mr. David I. Kraushaar on behalf of the Chief, Broadcast Bureau, Federal Communications Commission. The applicant Monmouth County Broadcasters and the respondents General-Times Television Corporation (WGTH) and Rollins Broadcasting, Inc. (WNJR) were not present or represented.

1. A prehearing conference was held on April 3, 1956, pursuant to Hearing Examiner's order dated March 22, 1956, at which three parties were represented by attorneys and three parties named in the Commission's order heretofore entered were not represented, all as indicated in the statement of appearances above. The procedures and schedules hereinafter set out were established as stated in the transcript, volume 3, pages 98-133, which is made a part of the record in this proceeding.

2. The evidence at the hearing will consist largely of engineering exhibits and testimony; accordingly, a conference or conferences of an informal nature will be engaged in by the engineers for the respective parties prior to the preparation of the affirmative case exhibits and testimony which are to be submitted in conformity with § 1.841 of the Commission's rules. It is expected that possible disagreements and minor conflicts of opinion among the engineers will have been eliminated through the informal conference procedure so that the necessity for cross-examination of engineering witnesses will be substantially if not entirely eliminated.

3. The applicants at or before 5:00 p. m. on Friday, June 1, 1956, shall exchange all of the direct affirmative case exhibits and testimony which are to be offered at the hearing, and copies thereof shall be provided to Bureau counsel and to the Hearing Examiner.

4. A further prehearing conference will be convened at 10:00 a. m. on Friday, June 8, 1956 for the purpose of considering the matters specified in §§ 1.813 and 1.841 of the Commission's rules.

5. The hearing will be commenced at 10:00 a. m. on Wednesday, June 27, 1956. Proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law will be required and a time for the filing of such pleadings will be fixed at the conclusion of the hearing.

It is ordered, This 10th day of April 1956, that unless modified for good cause the provisions of this order shall govern the course of the proceedings herein, and the prehearing conference shall be convened at 10:00 a. m. on Friday, June 8, 1956.

OLE MISS BROADCASTING CO. (WSUH)

ORDER SCHEDULING HEARING

In re applications of E. O. Roden, W. I. Dove and G. A. Pribbenow, d/b as Ole Miss Broadcasting Company (WSUH), Oxford, Mississippi, Docket No. 11560, File No. BP-9847; East Arkansas Broadcasters, Inc., Wynne, Arkansas, Docket No. 11561, File No. BP-9872; Warren L. Connolly, d/b as Tri-State Broadcasting Service (WHER), Memphis, Tennessee, Docket No. 11563, File No. BMP-6837; for construction permits and modification of construction permit.

The Hearing Examiner having under consideration a petition filed April 4, 1956, requesting further modification of the order controlling the conduct of hearing in the above-entitled proceeding; and

It appearing that each of the applicants herein requests modification of the order so as to specify later dates for various steps to be taken in the conduct of the hearing; and

It appearing that the reason for the requested amendment arises out of the fact that negotiations have been resumed looking toward the possible resolution of this matter without the need of a hearing, that there are no objections to the granting of the requested changes, and that good cause has been shown;

It is ordered, This the 10th day of April 1956 that the prior order for the conduct of hearing, as amended, is further amended so as to provide the following time schedule:

a. All exhibits and written testimony to be offered in evidence in response to Issues 1, 2 and 3 are to be exchanged on or before April 18, 1956.

b. Formal hearing for the introduction of the exhibits will begin on April 30, 1956, and that date shall be the controlling date for the other matters specified in subparagraphs c, d and e of paragraph 3 of the original order controlling the conduct of hearing.

SARASOTA BROADCASTING CO. (WKXY)

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATION FOR HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re application of Antonio G. Fernandez, Charles J. Fernandez and Gonzalo Fernandez d/b as Sarasota Broadcasting Company (WKXY) Sarasota, Florida, Docket No. 11667, File No. BMP-7046; for modification of construction permit.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 4th day of April, 1956;

The Commission having under consideration the above-entitled application of Antonio G. Fernandez, Charles J. Fernandez and Gonzalo Fernandez d/b as Sarasota Broadcasting Company for modification of a construction permit to increase the hours of operation of Station WKXY, Sarasota, Florida, from daytime only to unlimited time and to operate on 930 kilocycles with a power of 500 watts, nighttime, one kilowatt, daytime; and a request by WKXY for a waiver of § 3.28 (c) of the Commission's rules;

It appearing that the applicant is legally, technically, financially and otherwise qualified, except as may appear from the issues specified below, to operate WKXY as proposed, but that interference to the proposed operation from Station WJAX, Jacksonville, Florida (930 kc, 5 kw, DA-N, Unl.) would affect more than 10 percent of the population within its normally protected primary service area; and

It further appearing that pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the subject applicant was advised by letter dated February 13, 1956, of the aforementioned deficiency and that the Commission was unable to conclude that a grant of the application would be in the public interest; and

It further appearing that in a letter dated February 17, 1956, the applicant requested a grant of the application without hearing and stated that if called upon to appear in a hearing that it would do so; and

It further appearing that the Commission is unable to make a determination in this matter on the basis of the data before it and is of the opinion that an evidentiary hearing is necessary to obtain complete information relative to the above-entitled application and the grounds advanced in support of the request for waiver of § 3.28 (c) of the rules to enable the Commission to determine whether the public interest would be served by a grant thereof;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the above-entitled application is designated for hearing, at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain or lose primary service from the operation of Station WKXY as proposed, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

2. To determine whether, because of the interference received, the proposal of WKXY would comply with § 3.28 (c) of the Commission's rules; and if compliance with § 3.28 (c) is not achieved, whether circumstances exist which would warrant a waiver of said section of the rules.

3. To determine, in the light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, whether the above-entitled application of WKXY should be granted.

Released: April 6, 1956.

[Docket No. 11671]

WARNER AND TAMBLE RADIO SERVICE, INC.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WHY LICENSE SHOULD NOT BE REVOKED

In the matter of Warner & Tamble Radio Service, Inc., Memphis, Tennessee, Docket No. 11671; order to show cause why the license for radiotelephone station WB-9369 should not be revoked or an order to cease and desist should not issue.

The Commission having under consideration the matter of certain alleged violations in connection with the operation of the vessel Advance, WB–9369, licensed to Warner and Tamble Radio Service, Inc., Memphis, Tennessee;

It appearing that on December 14, 1955, an Order to Show Cause was issued in the above matter directing the licensee to appear at a hearing on February 13, 1956. A hearing was held on March 12, 1956 and the licensee was given two weeks to file a written supplementary statement of fact, with the Commission being allowed two weeks from that date to reply. On April 3, 1956, the hearing was reopened, a stipulation was introduced and the records were closed;

It further appearing that on March 16, 1956 the licensee again violated § 8.353 of the Commission's rules by transmitting general communications on 2182 kc, a frequency not assigned for that purpose by the Commission;

It is ordered, This 6th day of April 1956 pursuant to the provisions of § 312 (c) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, that the said Warner and Tamble Radio Service, Inc., P. O. Box 166, Memphis 1, Tennessee, show cause why the aforementioned license should not be revoked or why an order to cease and desist should not issue and appear and give evidence in respect thereto at a hearing [1] to be held before this Commission at Washington, D. C., at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order;

It is further ordered, That the Secretary send a copy of the Order to the licensee by Registered Mail—Return Receipt Requested.

Released: April 6, 1956.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] MARY JANE MORRIS,
Secretary.

[F. R. Doc. 56–2879; Filed, Apr. 13, 1956; 8:46 a. m.]

[1] Section 1.402 of the Commission's rules provides that in order to have the opportunity to appear before the Commission at the time and place specified in an order to show cause, a licensee shall within thirty (30) days from the date of the receipt of a show cause order submit a written statement informing the Commission whether said licensee will appear at the designated hearing and present evidence upon the matters specified, or whether the rights to such a hearing are waived. Waiver of the hearing may be accompanied by a statement setting forth the reasons why the licensee believes that an order of revocation should not be issued. A waiver unaccompanied by such a statement will be deemed to be an admission of the allegations specified in the order to show cause. Failure to respond to a show cause order within the above-mentioned thirty (30) day period, or, having informed the Commission in writing within the above-mentioned thirty (30) day period that the licensee will appear at the hearing and present evidence upon the matter specified and then failing to appear at the hearing, will be deemed to be a waiver of the right to a hearing and an admission of the allegations specified in the order to show cause.

UNITED STATES TARIFF COMMISSION

[Investigation 13]

SYNTHETIC STAR SAPPHIRES AND SYNTHETIC STAR RUBIES

INVESTIGATION DISCONTINUED AND DISMISSED

The Tariff Commission on April 10, 1956, ordered that Investigation No. 13, instituted September 16, 1953, upon complaint of the Linde Air Products Company, New York, N. Y., under section 337, Tariff Act of 1930, with respect to synthetic star sapphires and synthetic star rubies be discontinued and dismissed.

On March 5, 1956, the Tariff Commission submitted to the President the official record of this investigation, which included a recommendation that the President direct the Secretary of the Treasury to exclude from entry into the United States synthetic star sapphires and synthetic star rubies covered by claims of a patent owned by complainant.

After submission of the record to the President, the Commission received information with respect to an agreement between the complainant and the foreign manufacturer of the products involved in the Commission's findings. Inasmuch as the Commission was of the opinion that the aforementioned agreement had rendered the issue in this case moot and that no basis existed for the issuance of the exclusion order previously recommended, the Commission in view of the particular circumstances in this case in a letter of April 4 withdrew its recommendation to the President and suggested that the case be returned to it for final disposition. Pursuant to this suggestion, on April 10, 1956, the case was returned to the Commission.

Issued: April 11, 1956.

By order of the Commission.

[Rev. S. O. 562, Taylor's I. C. C. Order 68]

NEW YORK, ONTARIO AND WESTERN RAILWAY CO.

DIVERSION OR REROUTING OF TRAFFIC

In the opinion of Charles W. Taylor, Agent, the New York, Ontario and Western Railway Company, Ferdinand J. Sieghardt, Trustee, because of flood conditions is unable to transport traffic routed over its lines via Pittsburgh and Lehigh Junction or Genesee and Wyoming Junction.

It is ordered, That:

(a) Rerouting traffic: The New York, Ontario and Western Railway Company, Ferdinand J. Sieghardt, Trustee, and its direct connections, who are unable to deliver to the New York, Ontario and Western Railway Company, are hereby authorized to divert or reroute such traffic over any available route to expedite the movement, regardless of routing shown on the waybill. The billing covering all such cars rerouted shall carry a reference to this order as authority for the rerouting.

(b) Concurrence of receiving roads to be obtained: The railroads desiring to divert or reroute traffic under this order shall confer with the proper transportation officer of the railroad or railroads to which such traffic is to be diverted or rerouted, and shall receive the concurrence of such other railroads before the rerouting or diversion is ordered.

(c) Notification to shippers: The carriers rerouting cars in accordance with this order shall notify each shipper at the time each car is rerouted or diverted and shall furnish to such shipper the new routing provided under this order.

(d) Inasmuch as the diversion or rerouting of traffic by said Agent is deemed to be due to carriers' disability, the rates applicable to traffic diverted or rerouted by said Agent shall be the rates which were applicable at the time of shipments on the shipments as originally routed.

(e) In executing the directions of the Commission and of such Agent provided for in this order, the common carriers involved shall proceed even though no contracts, agreements, or arrangements now exist between them with reference to the divisions of the rates of transportation applicable to said traffic; divisions shall be, during the time this order remains in force, those voluntarily agreed upon by and between said carriers; or upon failure of the carriers to so agree, said divisions shall be those hereafter fixed by the Commission in accordance with pertinent authority conferred upon it by the Interstate Commerce Act.

(f) Effective date: This order shall become effective at 3:00 p. m., April 5, 1956.

(g) Expiration date: This order shall expire at 11:59 p. m., April 13, 1956, unless otherwise modified, changed, suspended or annulled.

It is further ordered, That this order shall be served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of all railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

Issued at Washington, D. C., April 5, 1956.

PART 301—DOMESTIC QUARANTINE NOTICES

KHAPRA BEETLE QUARANTINE

ADMINISTRATIVE INSTRUCTIONS DESIGNATING PREMISES AS REGULATED AREAS

Pursuant to § 301.76–2 of the regulations supplemental to the Khapra Beetle Quarantine (7 CFR Supp. 301.76–2, 20 F. R. 1012) under sections 8 and 9 of the Plant Quarantine Act of 1912, as amended (7 U. S. C. 161, 162), revised administrative instructions issued as 7 CFR Supp. 301.76–2a (20 F. R. 9899), effective December 23, 1955, as amended effective January 26, 1956 and March 14, 1956 (21 F. R. 573, 1575), are hereby amended in the following respects:

(a) The designation as regulated areas of the following premises, included in the list contained in such instructions, is hereby revoked, and the reference to such premises in the list is hereby deleted, it having been determined by the Chief of the Plant Pest Control Branch that adequate sanitation measures have been practiced for a sufficient length of time to eradicate the khapra beetle in and upon such premises:

ARIZONA

Farm Equipment & Supply, First Street and California Avenue, Parker.

Henry Leivas Farm, Route 1, Box 48–B, Parker.

R. F. Richter Feed Store, Box 51, Parker.

CALIFORNIA

Paul H. Aspey Farm Storage Bins, 1 mile south of Highway 80 on Highway 111, and 1 mile east of Acacia Canal Gate 67, El Centro. Mail address Box 264, El Centro.

E. M. Bevins Ranch, Route 2, Box 22, El Centro.

L. R. Bonesteel Ranch, located one-sixth mile north of Highway 98 from a point 1.7 miles east of Bonds Corner, Holtville. Mail address Route 1, Holtville.

Camp and Mebane Cattle Co. Feed Yard, 3½ miles east of Cawelo on Lerdo Road, Cawelo.

Bud Gunterman Ranch, on East G, one-half mile south of road 8 on west side of Acacia Canal at Gate 4, Calexico.

Gunterman Ranches (Bud Gunterman, owner), intersection of East L and Road 14, Calexico.

R. Langley Ranch, Route 2, Box 39A, Holtville.

Pilibos Bros. Ranch, 1919 South Willow, Fresno.

Paul Pryor Dairy, 5501 Olive Drive, Oildale, located four miles west of U. S. Highway 99, south side of Olive Drive, approximately three miles northwest of Bakersfield.

John Waterman Ranches, located one-eighth mile west of El Centro on Ross Avenue, Route 2, Box 95, El Centro.

Miguel D. Yslava Ranch, Route 1, Box 200, El Centro.

(b) The following premises are added to the list contained in such instructions, of warehouses, mills, and other premises in which infestations of the khapra beetle have been determined to exist. Such premises are thereby designated as regulated areas within the meaning of said quarantine and regulations:

ARIZONA

Elva Barnes Farm, Route 1, Box 113, Gilbert.
A. R. Hunter Poultry Farm, Route 2, Box 405, Tempe.
Delbert T. Mortenson Farm, Route 1, Box 116, Gilbert.
W. J. Muse Ranch, Box 1836, Parker.
Tom Neilsen Dairy, Route 1, Box 98, Tolleson.
Lou Park's Ranch, Casa Grande.
Milton P. Smith Ranch, Route 1, Maricopa.
P. E. Sterner Farm, Box 1782, Goodyear.

CALIFORNIA

Giffen Inc. property, located at southwest corner of SW¼ of sec. 6, T. 17 S., R. 15 E. Mail address Highway 33 and Elkhorn Avenue, Cantua.

Estella Hayes Ranch (Paul Pryor, lessee), four and one-half miles west of Highway U. S. 99, south side of Olive Drive. Mail address 5501 Olive Drive, Bakersfield.

Joseph Labandera property, located one-fourth mile south of Elkhorn on Westlawn, east side of street. Mail address Box 1B6, Burrel.

San Pasqual Land & Cattle Co. property, northwest corner County Roads No. 53 and West E. Westmoreland. Mail address 316 Main Street, Brawley.

This amendment shall become effective April 17, 1956.

This amendment revokes the designation as regulated areas of certain premises, it having been determined by the Chief of the Plant Pest Control Branch that adequate sanitation measures have been practiced for a sufficient length of time to eradicate the khapra beetle in and upon such premises. It also adds additional premises to the list of premises in which khapra beetle infestations have been determined to exist, and designates such premises as regulated areas under the khapra beetle quarantine and regulations.

This amendment in part imposes restrictions supplementing khapra beetle quarantine regulations already effective. It also relieves restrictions insofar as it revokes the designation of presently regulated areas. It must be made effective promptly in order to carry out the purposes of the regulations and to permit unrestricted movement of regulated products from the premises being removed from designation as regulated areas. Accordingly, under section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003), it is found upon good cause that notice and other public procedure with respect to the foregoing amendment are impracticable and contrary to the public interest, and good cause is found for making the effective date thereof less than 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Sec. 9, 37 Stat. 316; 7 U. S. C. 141. Interprets or applies sec. 8, 37 Stat. 318, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 161)

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

PART 927—MILK IN NEW YORK METROPOLITAN MARKETING AREA

SUBPART—CLASSIFICATION AND ACCOUNTING RULES AND REGULATIONS

APPROVAL OF AMENDMENT

Pursuant to the provisions of § 927.36 of Order No. 27, as amended (7 CFR Part 927), regulating the handling of milk in the New York metropolitan milk marketing area, the tentative amendment issued on April 2, 1956, by the Market Administrator of said Order No. 27, as amended, to the classification and accounting rules and regulations heretofore issued (7 CFR, 927.101 et seq.), pursuant to the provisions of said Order No. 27, as amended, is hereby approved and shall be effective on and after the first day of May 1956.

Order No. 27, as amended, requires that such rules and regulations, and amendments thereto, become effective on the first day of the month following their approval by the Secretary of Agriculture. The changes effected by this amendment to the rules and regulations to some extent tend to relieve restriction and otherwise do not require substantial or extensive preparation by handlers prior to the effective date of the amendment. Furthermore, the said tentative amendment as issued by the Market Administrator on April 2, 1956, was sent, on or about that date, to all handlers operating pool plants. In these circumstances, the time intervening between the date of approval of the tentative amendment and its effective date affords handlers a reasonable time to prepare for its effective date. It is, therefore, found and determined that May 1, 1956, herein fixed as the effective date for the said amendment, is reasonable and proper in the circumstances and that to defer the effective date of the said amendment to a date 30 days or more after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER would be impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest.

PART 927—MILK IN NEW YORK METROPOLITAN MILK MARKETING AREA

SUBPART—CLASSIFICATION AND ACCOUNTING RULES AND REGULATIONS

TENTATIVE AMENDMENT TO RULES AND REGULATIONS

Pursuant to provisions of § 927.36 of the order, as amended (7 CFR Part 927), regulating the handling of milk in the New York metropolitan milk marketing area, and of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.), a public meeting was held at New York, New York, on March 6, 1956, to consider proposals for the amendment of the rules and regulations heretofore issued (7 CFR § 927.101 et seq.) pursuant to said order. Notice of said public meeting was issued on February 17, 1956, and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on March 1, 1956 (21 F. R. 1357).

After due consideration of the data, views and arguments presented by interested parties at such public meeting, the rules and regulations heretofore amended are hereby further amended, subject to the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture to read as follows:

Add to the opening sentence of § 927.203 the following: "Provided, That if there is not sufficient skim milk available to be assigned to all skim milk subject to the fluid skim milk differential and to fluid skim milk established to have been utilized in the standardization of cream and sour cream, fluid skim milk shall be assigned to such standardization before any is assigned to skim milk in cultured milk drinks."

TITLE 21—FOOD AND DRUGS

Chapter I—Food and Drug Administration, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare

Subchapter B—Food and Food Products

PART 120—TOLERANCES AND EXEMPTIONS FROM TOLERANCES FOR PESTICIDE CHEMICALS IN OR ON RAW AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES

TOLERANCES FOR RESIDUES OF DIELDRIN

A petition was filed with the Food and Drug Administration requesting the establishment of tolerances for residues of dieldrin in or on certain raw agricultural commodities. Later, the petition was amended. Tolerances requested in the amended petition are:

Zero in or on:

Beans (including black-eyed peas and soybeans).
Corn, grain (including sweet, field, and popcorn).
Corn, forage.
Melons (including cantaloups, muskmelons, watermelons, pumpkins, and winter squash).
Peas and cowpeas.
Legumes for forage (including clovers, alfalfa, soybean hay, pea hay, cowpea hay, and lespedeza).
Grain sorghum (including forage).

0.1 part per million in or on:

Cranberries.
Grapes.
Mangoes.
Plums and prunes.
Strawberries.
Asparagus.
Carrots, horseradish, parsnips, radishes (including tops), and salsify root.
Eggplant, peppers, and pimentos.
Potatoes and sweetpotatoes.
Tomatoes.
Grains (including barley, oats, rice, rye, and wheat).

0.25 part per million in or on:

Apples, pears, and quinces.
Cherries.
Citrus fruits (including oranges, grapefruit, lemons, limes, and tangerines).
Pineapple.
Beets (garden variety, including tops), turnips (including tops), and rutabagas.
Broccoli, brussels sprouts, and kohlrabi.
Cabbages and cauliflower.
Salsify tops.
Celery.
Collards, kale, mustard greens, spinach, and Swiss chard.
Cucumbers and summer squash.
Lettuce and endive (escarole).

0.75 part per million in or on:

Grain forage (including barley, oats, rice, rye, and wheat straws).

Data in the petition do not show that residues of dieldrin occur in or on the following crops when the pesticide chemical is applied according to directions in the petition: Alfalfa, beans, black-eyed peas, cantaloups, clover, corn grain, corn forage, cowpeas, cowpea hay, grain sorghum, grain sorghum forage, lespedeza, muskmelons, peas, pea hay, popcorn, pumpkins, soybeans, soybean hay, watermelons, winter squash. A tolerance greater than zero is not required for these uses.

The Secretary of Agriculture has certified that this pesticide chemical is useful for the purposes for which tolerances are being established.

After consideration of the data submitted in the petition and other relevant material which show that the tolerances established in this order will protect the public health, and by virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare by the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 408 (d) (2), 68 Stat. 512; 21 U. S. C. 346a (d) (2)) and delegated to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs by the Secretary (21 CFR 120.7 (g)), the regulations for tolerances for pesticide chemicals in or on raw agricultural commodities (21 CFR Part 120) are amended by adding the following new section:

§ 120.137 Tolerances for residues of dieldrin. Tolerances for residues of dieldrin in or on raw agricultural commodities are established, as follows:

(a) 0.75 part per million in or on barley straw, oat straw, rice straw, rye straw, wheat straw.

(b) 0.25 part per million in or on apples, beets (garden), garden beet tops, broccoli, brussels sprouts, cabbage, cauliflower, celery, cherries, collards, cucumbers, endive (escarole), grapefruit, kale, kohlrabi, lemons, lettuce, limes, mustard greens, oranges, pears, pineapple, quinces, rutabagas, salsify tops, spinach, summer squash, Swiss chard, tangerines, turnips, turnip tops.

(c) 0.1 part per million in or on asparagus, barley grain, carrots, cranberries, eggplant, grapes, horseradish, mangoes, oat grain, parsnips, peppers, pimentos, potatoes, plums and prunes, radishes, radish tops, rice grain, rye grain, salsify root, strawberries, sweetpotatoes, tomatoes, wheat grain.

(d) Zero in or on alfalfa, beans, black-eyed peas, cantaloups, clover, corn grain, corn forage, cowpeas, cowpea hay, grain sorghum, grain sorghum forage, lespedeza, muskmelons, peas, pea hay, popcorn, pumpkins, soybeans, soybean hay, watermelons, winter squash.

Any person who will be adversely affected by the foregoing order may, at any time prior to the thirtieth day from the effective date thereof, file with the Hearing Clerk, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Room 5440, 330 Independence Avenue SW., Washington 25, D. C., written objections thereto. Objections shall show wherein the person filing will be adversely affected by this order, specify with particularity the provisions of the order deemed objectionable and reasonable grounds for the objections, and request a public hearing upon the objections. Objections may be accompanied by a memorandum or brief in support thereof. All documents shall be filed in quintuplicate.

Effective date. This order shall be effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Sec. 408, 68 Stat. 511; 21 U. S. C. 346a)

Dated: April 11, 1956.

PART 146c—CERTIFICATION OF CHLORTETRACYCLINE (OR TETRACYCLINE) AND CHLORTETRACYCLINE- (OR TETRACYCLINE-) CONTAINING DRUGS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare by the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 507, 59 Stat. 463, 61 Stat. 11, 63 Stat. 409, 67 Stat. 389; sec. 701, 52 Stat. 1055; 21 U. S. C. 357, 371) and delegated to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs by the Secretary (20 F. R. 1996), the regulations for tests and methods of assay and certification of antibiotic and antibiotic-containing drugs (21 CFR Parts 141b, 146b, 146c) are amended as indicated below:

1. Part 141b is amended by adding the following new section:

§ 141b.130 Streptomycin - dihydrostreptomycin for inhalation therapy—(a) Potency—(1) Total potency. Using the dihydrostreptomycin working standard as the standard of comparison, proceed as directed in § 141b.101 (j), except if it is packaged with inert gases prepare the sample as directed in § 141b.117 (a) (1). Its total potency is satisfactory if it contains not less than 90 percent of the combined number of milligrams of streptomycin and dihydrostreptomycin that it is represented to contain.

(2) Streptomycin content. Proceed as directed in § 141b.118 (b). Its content of streptomycin is satisfactory if it contains not less than 45 percent and not more than 55 percent of the total potency as determined under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

(b) Unless it is packaged with inert gases, toxicity, histomine, moisture, and pH. Proceed as directed in § 141b.117 (b).

(c) If it is packaged with inert gases, moisture. Proceed as directed in § 141b.117 (c).

2. Part 146b is amended by adding the following new section:

§ 146b.125 Streptomycin-dihydrostreptomycin for inhalation therapy. (a) Streptomycin - dihydrostreptomycin for inhalation therapy conforms to all requirements and is subject to all procedures prescribed by § 146b.112 for streptomycin for inhalation therapy and dihydrostreptomycin for inhalation therapy, except that it is a mixture of equal parts of streptomycin and dihydrostreptomycin.

(b) Exemption of streptomycin-dihydrostreptomycin for inhalation therapy from certification. Streptomycin-dihydrostreptomycin for inhalation therapy that conforms to the requirements of paragraph (a) of this section shall be exempt from the requirements of sections 502 (1) and 507 of the act if it complies with all the following conditions:

(1) It is intended solely for veterinary use and is conspicuously so labeled.

(2) The label bears an expiration date that is not more than 48 months after the month during which the batch was last assayed and released by the manufacturer.

(3) The circular or other labeling within or attached to the package bears information that the antibiotics are for use only in the prevention or treatment of chronic respiratory disease (air-sac infection) in chickens and bears directions and warnings adequate for such use.

3. In § 146c.217 Chlortetracycline calcium oral drops * * *, subparagraph (1) (v) of paragraph (c) Labeling is amended by changing the colon after the word "certified" to a comma and adding the following new clause: "except that the blank may be filled in with the date that is 18 months after the month during which the batch was certified if the person who requests certification has submitted to the Commissioner results of tests and assays showing that after having been stored for such period of time such drug as prepared by him complies with the standards prescribed by paragraph (a) of this section:".

Notice and public procedure are not necessary prerequisites to the promulgation of this order, and I so find, since it was drawn in collaboration with interested members of the affected industries, since it relaxes existing requirements, and since it would be against public interest to delay providing for the amendments set forth above.

I further find that streptomycin-dihydrostreptomycin for inhalation therapy intended solely for veterinary use need not comply with the requirements of sections 502 (1) and 507 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act in order to insure their safety and efficacy, provided they comply with all the requirements set out in amendment 2 of this order.

This order shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, since both the public and the affected industry will benefit by the earliest effective date, and I so find.

(Sec. 701, 52 Stat. 1055; 21 U. S. C. 371. Interpret or apply sec. 507, 59 Stat. 463, as amended, 21 U. S. C. 357)

PART 1101—NATIONAL GUARD REGULATIONS

COMMISSIONED OFFICERS

In § 1101.2, revise paragraphs (b) (3) and (e) to read as follows:

§ 1101.2 Appointment. • • •

(b) Persons ineligible for Federal recognition. • • •

(3) Conviction for other than minor traffic violation. Those who have a record of conviction by any type of military or civil court for other than minor traffic violation. The Department of the Army may grant waiver for conviction of minor violations which are nonrecurrent and which are not deemed prejudicial to performance of duty as an officer. Waiver of conviction involving moral turpitude or conviction of a felony is not authorized.

• • • • •

(e) Waiver of benefits. (1) As used herein, the term "benefits" pertains to a pension, retirement pay, disability compensation, or retired pay from the Government of the United States by virtue of prior military service.

(2) Applicants for appointment who are entitled to the above benefits, except those retired for physical disability, age, and enlisted men retired under the provisions of Public Law 190 (79th Cong.) are eligible for Federal recognition in the National Guard provided:

(i) They are otherwise qualified in all respects.

(ii) They waive, for the remainder of the current fiscal year and upon commencement of each fiscal year thereafter, either that portion of their benefits for the days for which they receive Federal pay for services as members of the federally recognized National Guard, or their National Guard pay and allowances.

PART 204—DANGER ZONE REGULATIONS

GULF OF MEXICO OFF ST. ANDREW BAY, FLORIDA

Pursuant to the provisions of Chapter XIX of the Army Appropriation Act of July 9, 1918 (40 Stat. 892; 33 U. S. C. 3), § 204.131 is hereby prescribed to govern the use and navigation of a danger zone in the waters of the Gulf of Mexico in the vicinity of St. Andrew Bay, Florida, comprising a mine testing area, as follows:

§ 204.131 Gulf of Mexico in vicinity of St. Andrew Bay, Florida; U. S. Navy Mine Defense Laboratory Mine Testing Area—

(a) The danger zone. A rectangular area about 2,000 yards wide and 2,700 yards long, approximately parallel to and about 500 yards offshore in the vicinity of St. Andrew Bay, Florida. The area is bounded as follows: Beginning at latitude 30°10'00", longitude 85°48'03"; thence southeast to latitude 30°09'27", longitude 85°47'09"; thence southwest to latitude 30°08'21", longitude 85°48'02.5"; thence northwest to latitude 30°08'55", longitude 85°48'54"; thence northeast to the point of beginning. The respective corners of the test area will be marked by buoys showing a flashing white light.

(b) The regulations. (1) No vessel shall enter or remain in the danger zone at any time, except as authorized by the enforcing agency.

(2) The regulations in this section shall be enforced by the Commanding Officer, U. S. Navy Mine Defense Laboratory, Panama City, Florida, and such agencies as he may designate.

SUBPART G—FORMS

UNIFORM BAREBOAT CHARTER OF A WAR-BUILT DRY-CARGO VESSEL UNDER THE MERCHANT SHIP SALES ACT OF 1946, "SHIPSALESDEMISE 303"

Section 299.82 is hereby amended to read as follows:

Form No. 303 Contract No. ------ Shipsalesdemise
(Rev. 1956)

UNITED STATES MARITIME ADMINISTRATION

BAREBOAT CHARTER AGREEMENT OF WAR-BUILT DRY-CARGO VESSELS

This charter party agreement (hereinafter called the "Agreement") dated as of ------, 19--, between the United States of America, acting by and through the Department of Commerce (Maritime Administration) (hereinafter called the "Owner") and ------ (hereinafter called the "Charterer"), whose address is ------,
Witnesseth:

PART I

CLAUSE A. Uniform terms. This Agreement consists of two parts, this Part I and Part II. Unless otherwise in this Part I expressly provided, all of the provisions of said Part II shall be a part of this Agreement as though fully set forth in this Part I. In the event of a conflict between the provisions of Parts I and II, the provisions of Part I shall govern to the extent of such conflict.

CLAUSE B. Agreement of the parties. The Owner hereby agrees to let, and the Charterer agrees to hire, the Vessel or Vessels listed in Clause C, Part I, or as may be included under this Agreement by addenda hereafter executed, for the carriage of lawful merchandise during the period, and upon the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth.

CLAUSE C. (1) Vessels chartered and other details. The Vessel or Vessels to which this Agreement relates and the respective ports or places of delivery (if known) at which the Vessel(s) shall be delivered by the Owner to the Charterer are as follows or as may be included hereunder by addenda hereafter executed:

| Name of vessel | Type | Place of delivery | Basic hire per calendar month |

The term "Vessels" as used in the plural in either Part I or Part II of this Agreement also refers to any single Vessel, whenever appropriate, and similarly the term "Vessel" as used in the singular refers to all Vessels within the Agreement whenever appropriate.

(2) Period of vessel's use. Subject to termination as provided in this Clause and in Clause 14, Part II, the Vessels covered by this Agreement are chartered for ------

Provided, That in event the period of Vessel's use hereunder extends beyond one year, this Agreement shall be subject to review by the Federal Maritime Board (as provided in section 5 (e) (1), Merchant Ship Sales Act of 1946, as amended) for the purpose of determining whether then existing conditions justify its continuance: And provided further, That whenever the President shall proclaim that the security of the national defense makes it advisable, or during any national emergency declared by proclamation of the President, or after a declaration of war or of national emergency made by Congress, the Owner may terminate this Agreement without cost to the United States, upon such notice to the Charterer as the President or Congress shall determine.

CLAUSE D. Operating limits and service. The vessel shall be operated only in ------

CLAUSE E. Rate of basic charter hire. Unless otherwise specially agreed, basic charter hire shall be paid at the rate appearing opposite the name of each Vessel listed in Clause C (1) and such addenda as may be executed.

CLAUSE F. Amount of insurance. The Charterer shall at all times during the period of the Vessel's use under this Agreement carry and maintain on each Vessel policies of insurance in the manner and form prescribed in Clause 16, Part II, in minimum amounts as follows:

|---|---|
| Marine hull and machinery | $-------- |
| War risk hull and machinery | -------- |
| Marine P & I (per GRT) | -------- |
| War risk P & I (per GRT) | -------- |
| Marine excess, general average, salvage, and collision liability | -------- |
| War risk excess, general average, salvage, and collision liability | -------- | together with such additional amounts of P & I and excess liability insurance as the Owner may require from time to time.

The insertion of the amount of Marine and War Risk Hull and Machinery insurance shall be for the purpose of (a) fixing the minimum amount for the placing of insurance as prescribed in Clause 16, Part II, and (b) constituting the replacement or total loss value of the Vessel as between the Charterer and the Owner, but for no other purpose. The Charterer shall also at all times during the period of the Vessel's use under this Agreement carry and maintain such crew insurance as is required by the Charterer's current bargaining agreements.

CLAUSE G. Amount of bond. The Charterer, at or before delivery of each Vessel under this Agreement, shall furnish the Owner with a bond in the amount of $------ for each Vessel, in the manner prescribed in Clause 21, Part II of this Agreement.

CLAUSE H. Special provisions. (1) Notwithstanding the definition of "capital necessarily employed" in Clause 23 of Part II hereof, such "capital necessarily employed" shall in no event be deemed to be in excess of the greater of (a) the working capital requirements, or (b) the net worth requirements determined in the manner provided in the succeeding subparagraph of this clause.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (a) of Clause 29, Part II, the minimum financial requirements shall be those prescribed in § 299.31 of United States Maritime Commission's General Order No. 60, Supplement 2, as adopted by its successor, the Maritime Administration, and amended from time to time—with the following modifications:

(a) The working capital requirements prescribed in paragraph (a) (2) (i) of said § 299.31 shall be reduced so as to include prepaid insurance for a period of six months rather than for a period of one year; and

(b) The net worth requirements prescribed in paragraph (a) (2) (ii) of said § 299.31 shall be reduced so as to include basic charter hire for a period of six months rather than for a period of one year; and

(c) The minimum financial requirements, as modified in subparagraphs (a) and (b) of this paragraph, shall be further reduced for Vessels in excess of five, as follows:

| | Percent |
|---|---|
| Sixth to tenth vessel, inclusive | 25 |
| Eleventh to fifteenth vessel, inclusive | 50 |
| All over fifteen vessels | 75 |

In witness whereof, this Agreement has been executed in triplicate by the Owner on the ------ day of ------, 19--, and by the Charterer on the ---- day of ------, 19--.

PART II

CLAUSE 1. Condition of vessel(s) on delivery. The Vessel on her delivery shall be in Class A-1 American Bureau of Shipping or equivalent, with all required certificates, including but not limited to marine inspection certificates of the Coast Guard, Treasury Department, and so far as due diligence can make her so, tight, staunch, strong and well and sufficiently tackled, appareled, furnished and equipped, and in every respect seaworthy and in good running condition and repair, with clean swept holds and in all respects fit for service.

CLAUSE 2. Surveys. (a) The Vessels shall be jointly surveyed before delivery and before redelivery under this Agreement to determine and state the condition of the Vessels. Such surveys shall include drydocking to determine and state the condition of the underwater parts, unless, at Owner's option, the drydocking in connection with delivery is postponed, in which event the cost and time (including vessel expenses) of any damage to underwater parts found either upon redelivery or during the period of the Vessel's use under this Agreement shall be for Owner's account unless such damage is established, from the basis of all evidence, to have occurred during the period of the Vessel's use under this Agreement. The cost and time of such delivery survey shall be for the account of the Owner, and similarly the cost and time of such redelivery survey shall be for the account of the Charterer. Each party shall bear the cost of surveyors appointed by it in connection with both delivery and redelivery surveys.

(b) Subject to the foregoing provisions as to underwater parts in the event drydocking is postponed, and except as to items sighted prior to delivery and noted on the delivery survey report as defective, which shall be for the Owner's account, including cost and time (inclusive of vessel expenses), the delivery of the Vessel by the Owner and the acceptance thereof by the Charterer shall constitute full performance by the Owner of all the Owner's obligations under Clause 1 with respect to such Vessel, and thereafter the Charterer shall not be entitled to make or assert any claim against the Owner on account of any agreements, representations or warranties, expressed or implied, with respect to the condition of the Vessel; provided, however, that the Owner shall nevertheless be responsible for the cost and time (exclusive of vessel expenses) of repairs or renewals occasioned by latent defects in the Vessel, its machinery or appurtenances or defects due to locked in stresses in the Vessel existing at the time of delivery, not recoverable under the terms and conditions of the American Hull form of policy (American Institute Time (Hulls) December 1955) containing no deductible average clause.

CLAUSE 3. Determination of class. For the purpose of this Agreement a Vessel chartered hereunder shall be deemed to be in class, whether or not any requirements or recommendations of the Classification Society are outstanding at the time of delivery or redelivery, as the case may be, unless the time limit for the accomplishment of any such requirements or recommendations, including any extension or period of grace allowed, shall have expired.

CLAUSE 4. Inventory. A complete inventory of each Vessel's entire outfit, equipment, furniture, furnishings, appliances, spare and replacement parts and of all unbroached consumable stores, subsistence stores, slop chest, containers, and bunker fuel shall be jointly taken and mutually agreed upon as to items and quantities, at the time of delivery, by representatives of the Charterer and the Owner. The parties may agree, however, to accept any suitable prior inventory which may have been taken before the delivery of the Vessel under this Agreement. Such delivery inventory of consumable and subsistence stores, slop chest, containers, and bunker fuel shall be priced by the Charterer at the current market price prevailing at the port and time of delivery. At redelivery a complete inventory of each Vessel's entire outfit, equipment, furniture, furnishings, appliances and spare and replacement parts shall, also, be jointly taken and mutually agreed upon as to items and quantities by representatives of the Charterer and the Owner. In addition, a complete inventory of all broached and unbroached consumable stores, subsistence stores, slop chest, containers, and bunker fuel shall be taken by the Charterer immediately prior to redelivery. Such inventory shall be priced by the Charterer at the current market price prevailing at the port and time of performance of Charterer's redelivery obligations, and the Owner shall be furnished with three certified copies of such inventory, together with an affidavit certifying as to its correctness.

CLAUSE 5. Consumable stores and fuel. The Charterer shall accept and pay for any unbroached consumable stores, subsistence stores, slop chest, returnable containers, and bunker fuel on board or furnished by the Owner at the time of delivery at the market prices current at the time and place of repairs and outfitting. The Owner shall have no obligation upon redelivery to accept or pay for consumable stores (either broached or unbroached), subsistence stores, slop chest, or returnable containers, and shall accept and pay for bunker fuel only in such minimum amounts as the Owner may determine. (Bunkers accepted by the Owner shall be paid for at the current market price prevailing at the port and time of redelivery, or, in event of redelivery at a Reserve Fleet site, at the current market price at the port and time of redelivery repairs). Prior to redelivery, such items shall be removed from the Vessels by the Charterer in accordance with the provisions of NSA Order No. 64, as revised from time to time, and the fair and reasonable cost of such removal shall be charged in the Vessel's voyage accounts for the last voyage prior to redelivery. With respect to the aforesaid items, there shall be taken into account in the determination of additional charter hire, in accordance with Clause 13, Part II, of this Agreement, (a) the current market value thereof at the port and time of redelivery, in the event redelivery is effected at a redelivery port, or, in the event redelivery is effected at a Reserve Fleet Site, the current market value at the port and time of redelivery repairs, or (b)

the net proceeds from the disposition thereof, in the event the Charterer elects to dispose of the removed goods and notifies the Owner of such intention prior to redelivery. The manner of, time of, and determination of net proceeds from such disposition of the items shall be subject to approval of the Owner.

CLAUSE 6. Use of equipment. The Charterer shall have the use of all outfit, equipment, furniture, furnishings, appliances, spare and replacement parts on board the Vessel at the time of delivery under this Agreement without extra cost and the same shall be returned to the Owner upon redelivery in good order and condition. Any such items damaged or so worn in service as to be unfit for use or lost or destroyed shall be replaced or made good by the Charterer in kind at or before redelivery, or, at Owner's option, the Charterer shall pay for said items at the current market prices at the port and time of performance of Charterer's redelivery obligations, based upon the condition of the items at the time of delivery. The Owner shall have a right, but not an obligation, to accept any overages on the Vessel at redelivery. Any overages accepted by the Owner shall be paid for at the current market prices at the port and time of performance of Charterer's redelivery obligations, based upon the condition of the items at the time of redelivery. Overage and shortage statements shall be prepared and priced by the Charterer, subject to review and adjustment by the Owner.

CLAUSE 7. Maintenance. The Charterer, except as otherwise provided in Clause 2 (a) and 2 (b), shall, at its own expense, maintain the Vessels, their machinery, boilers, appurtenances, and spare parts during the period of the Vessel's use under this Agreement in good state of repair and in efficient operating condition and in accordance with good commercial maintenance practices and shall keep the Vessels in such condition as will entitle the Owner at all times to all required certificates, including, without limitation, the highest classification and rating for vessels of the same age and type in the American Bureau of Shipping and with unexpired marine inspection certificates of the Coast Guard, Treasury Department.

CLAUSE 8. Drydocking. The Charterer shall drydock the Vessels and clean and paint their underwater parts, when necessary, but not less than once in about every nine (9) months from date of delivery. The Charterer shall give the Owner reasonable notice of the time and place of drydocking and if practicable fifteen (15) days in advance thereof and afford the Owner an opportunity to inspect the Vessels while drydocked. The Charterer shall also promptly notify the Owner sufficiently in advance to enable its representative to be present at repairs or surveys of the Vessels, and shall furnish the Owner with copies of reports made pursuant to such surveys.

CLAUSE 9. Inspections. The Owner shall have the right at any time, without notice, to inspect or survey the Vessels at its own expense, to ascertain their condition and to satisfy itself that the Vessels are being properly repaired and maintained in accordance with good commercial maintenance practices, but such inspection shall be held at such time and in such manner as to not interfere with Vessel's schedule. The Charterer shall make all such repairs, at its own expense, as such inspection or survey may show to be required in compliance with the Charterer's obligations under this Agreement. The Charterer shall also permit the Owner to inspect the Vessel's logs whenever requested, and shall furnish the Owner upon request with full information regarding any casualties or other accidents or damage to the Vessels.

CLAUSE 10. Charterer to man, etc. During the period of this Agreement, the Charterer shall, at its own expense, and by its own procurement, man, victual, navigate, operate, supply, fuel, and, except as otherwise expressly provided in Clause 2 (a) and 2 (b) of this Agreement, repair the Vessels and pay all charges and expenses of every kind and nature whatsoever incident to the use and operation of the Vessels under this Agreement. The Owner reserves the right to require the removal of the Master or the Chief Engineer if it shall have reason to be dissatisfied with their conduct or if it considers their employment to be prejudicial to the interests of the United States. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Clause and Clause 25 of this Agreement, the Charterer and not the Owner shall have exclusive possession, control and command of the Vessels during the entire period of use under this Agreement.

CLAUSE 11. Structural changes. The Charterer shall make no structural changes in the Vessel and shall make no changes in the machinery, boilers, appurtenances or spare parts thereof without in each instance first securing the written approval of the Owner.

CLAUSE 12. Basic charter hire. The Charterer shall pay to the Owner the basic charter hire at the monthly rate provided for in Part I hereof from the day and hour of delivery of the Vessels until and including the day and hour of redelivery to the Owner pursuant to the terms of this Agreement; or if any Vessel shall be lost, hire shall continue until the time of such loss, if known, or if the time of loss be uncertain then up to and including the time last heard from. Payment of such basic charter hire shall be made to the Owner at Washington, D. C., on delivery of the Vessel for the remainder of the calendar month in which delivery is made, and thereafter monthly in advance on the first day of each month.

CLAUSE 13. Additional charter hire. If at the end of the calendar year in which this Agreement becomes effective, or any subsequent calendar year or at the termination of this Agreement, cumulative net voyage profit (after the payment of the basic charter hire hereinabove specified and payment of the Charterer's fair and reasonable overhead expenses applicable to operation of the Vessels) shall exceed ten percentum (10%) per annum on the Charterer's capital necessarily employed in the business of the Vessels (all as hereinafter defined), the Charterer shall pay over to the Owner at Washington, D. C., within thirty (30) days after the end of such year or other period, as additional charter hire for such year or other period, an amount equal to the percentage of such cumulative net voyage profit in excess of ten (10) percentum per annum on such capital computed in accordance with the following table (but such cumulative net profit so accounted for shall not be included in any calculation of cumulative net profit in any subsequent year or period):

Cumulative net voyage profit (in excess of 10 percent per annum on capital necessarily employed) not in excess of $100 per day—50 percent.

Cumulative net voyage profit (in excess of 10 percent per annum on capital necessarily employed) in excess of $100 per day but not in excess of $300 per day—75 percent on such excess over $100 per day.

Cumulative net voyage profit (in excess of 10 percent per annum on capital necessarily employed) in excess of $300 per day—90 percent on such excess over $300 per day.

It is agreed that the term "cumulative net voyage profits" as herein used means, as between the parties, that losses (as hereinafter defined) under the Agreement at the end of any accounting period may be carried forward into the next accounting period for the purpose of determining additional charter hire, but that in no event shall profits under the Agreement (in excess of 10% per annum on "capital necessarily employed") at the end of any accounting period be carried forward into the next accounting period, such profits being subject to distribution at the end of each accounting period as herein provided. "Losses", as above used, means actual net voyage losses, if any, as well as any amount by which 10% per annum on the charterer's "capital necessarily employed" in the business of the chartered vessels exceeds the actual net voyage profits under the charter.

The Charterer agrees to make preliminary payments to the Owner on account of such additional charter hire at such times and in such manner and amounts as may be required by the Owner; provided, however, that such payment of additional charter hire shall be deemed to be preliminary and subject to adjustment either at the time of the rendition of preliminary statements or upon the completion of each final audit by the Owner, at which times such payments will be made to the Owner as such preliminary statements or final audit may show to be due, or such overpayments refunded to the Charterer as may be required.

CLAUSE 14. Termination. Either the Owner or the Charterer may terminate the period of use of any of the Vessels by giving written notice to the other party at least fifteen (15) days prior to the termination of any voyage hereunder, in which event the Vessel shall be redelivered pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, upon termination of the voyage during which such notice is given.

CLAUSE 15. Redelivery of vessel(s)—(a) Port or place of redelivery. The port of redelivery shall be the port of delivery or such other port as may be mutually agreed: Provided, That the Owner shall have the option of requiring the Charterer to place the Vessel(s) in layup at a Reserve Fleet Site designated by the Owner, on the same coast as the port of redelivery, in the manner and on the basis provided for in subparagraph (d) of this Clause. In the event the Owner exercises this option, the Owner shall have the right to designate the port at which Charterer's redelivery obligations under this Clause will be performed.

(b) Redelivery conditions. Each Vessel, unless lost, shall be redelivered to the Owner, pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, in the same good order and condition as that in which she was delivered, unless the lack of good order and condition is due solely to ordinary wear and tear, and with valid classification and Coast Guard certificates, whether or not classification or Coast Guard repairs are due wholly or in part to ordinary wear and tear. At the redelivery survey provided for in Clause 2, surveyors appointed by the Charterer and surveyors appointed by the Owner, shall be present, who shall determine and state the repairs or work necessary to place each Vessel on the date of redelivery in the condition and class required under this Clause, which findings shall include all repairs and work required to be performed at the time of redelivery by the Classification Society and all other regulatory bodies, and all repairs and work which are necessary to place each Vessel on the date of redelivery in the good order and condition required by this Clause. The Charterer, before redelivery, shall make all such repairs and do all such work so found to be necessary at its expense and time, or at Owner's option, the Charterer shall, on Owner's request, discharge such obligation by payment to the Owner of an amount sufficient to place each Vessel in such class, order and condition and to provide for the foregoing work and repairs at the prices current at the time of redelivery, which amount shall also include compensation at the rate of basic hire payable under this Agreement for the time reasonably required under then existing conditions to complete such work or repairs and compensation for all other expenses (including insurance) reasonably required incident to such work or repairs. In the event the Owner exercises this option, the Charter's redelivery repair obligations shall be limited to the amount of Marine Hull and Machinery insurance required by the provisions of Part I hereof. The Charterer shall not be required to make any repairs which were for Owner's account under Clause 2 of this Agreement, but if such repairs were made after delivery under this Agreement and paid for by the Owner, they shall be considered as having been made at the time of delivery for the purpose of determining the Charterer's obligations under this Clause 15.

(c) Disputes. Should any dispute arise between the Owner and the Charterer with respect to responsibility for repairs, renewals, replacements, or condition of the Vessel(s), at the time of redelivery, the Charterer shall, without prejudice to its contentions, make and pay for such disputed repairs, renewals, or replacements, or any part thereof, before redelivery, and may recover the cost from the Owner, together with vessel expenses and charter hire during the period required for the performance of such work over and above the time required to perform the Charterer's redelivery repairs, in event Owner's liability therefor is established.

(d) Vessel layup. In the event that the Owner exercises its option under subparagraph (a) of this Clause to require the Charterer to place the Vessel(s) in layup following completion of Charterer's normal redelivery obligations, the Charterer shall perform and pay for all work required in connection with the preparation for layup and movement of the Vessel(s) to the Reserve Fleet Site designated by the Owner, as prescribed in NSA Orderer No. 64, as revised from time to time. In such event, (i) basic charter hire shall cease as of completion of Charterer's normal redelivery obligations, and (ii) all reasonable costs incurred by the Charterer during the period of the stripping and layup of the Vessel(s) as aforesaid, including but without limitation, cost of insurance, shall, to the extent authorized and approved by the Owner, be taken into account as voyage expense in the determination of additional charter hire under Clause 13.

CLAUSE 16. Insurance. (a) The Charterer shall at all times during the period of the Vessel's use under this Agreement, carry and maintain on the Vessel policies of insurance covering all marine and war risk hull and marine and war risk protection and indemnity risks, and all other hazards and liabilities in the amounts set out in Part I hereof, in such form and with such insurance companies, underwriters or funds as the Owner shall require and approve. All insurance required under the terms of this Agreement to be carried by the Charterer shall include the United States of America as an assured, without recourse against the United States for payment of premiums, or for assessments under any mutual form of policy. The underwriters shall have full rights of subrogation against the United States of America to the extent of any loss paid for which any assured other than the United States of America could bring suit against the United States of America, under the Suits in Admiralty, Public Vessels or Tucker Acts to recover for such loss, and notwithstanding the fact that the United States of America may be named as an assured and as payee in the policy, such loss shall be considered to have been paid to and sustained by any assured other than the United States of America, in the first instance.

(b) All losses under the policies of insurance carried on the Vessel, except those payable under crew insurance policies, shall be made payable to the Owner for distribution by it to itself and the Charterer as their interesta may appear, provided, however, that in the absence of specific instructions to the contrary, P & I insurance claims in amounts not exceeding $10,000 may be payable directly to the Charterer. Charterer shall at Charterer's expense keep the Vessel entered in the Marine Index Bureau, Inc. The originals of all cover notes or binders and policies, except those for crew insurance, shall be delivered promptly to the Owner for its custody and approval.

(c) In the event that any of the insurance hereinbefore provided for shall not, by reason of any act, omission, or negligence of the Charterer, be kept in full force and effect, or for any reason, including but without limitation the existence of any deductible average, franchise provisions, or other exclusion contained therein, but excluding insolvency of the underwriters, does not cover in full all losses, damages, claims or demands, the Charterer shall indemnify and hold harmless and defend the Owner against all such losses, claims, and demands.

(d) No tender of abandonment as a constructive total loss shall be made without the prior approval of the Owner, Provided, however, That in the event the Owner refuses to approve such tender or fails to act thereon within twenty (20) days after receipt of Charterer's request, then charter hire shall cease as of the date of such refusal or at the expiration of such twenty (20) day period, as the case may be, and provided further that charter hire shall cease only in the event that, but for the refusal of the Owner to agree to tender of abandonment, the amount which would have been recoverable from the hull insurance underwriters would have equalled or exceeded the amount set forth in Part I hereof.

CLAUSE 17. Bills of lading or voyage charters. All bills of lading or voyage charters issued under this Agreement shall contain directly or by reference substantially the following clauses:

(i) Clause paramount:

"This bill of lading shall have effect subject to the provisions of the Carriage of Goods by Sea Act of United States, approved April 16, 1936, which shall be deemed to be incorporated herein, and nothing herein contained shall be deemed a surrender by the Carrier of any of its rights or immunities or an increase of any of its responsibilities or liabilities under said Act. If any term of this bill of lading be repugnant to said Act to any extent, such term shall be void to that extent but no further."

(ii) General average clause:

"General Average shall be adjusted, stated, and settled, according to York-Antwerp Rules, 1950, exclusive of Rule 22, at such port or place in the United States as may be selected by the carrier, and as to matters not provided for by these Rules, according to the laws and usages at the port of New York. In such adjustment, disbursements in foreign currencies shall be exchanged into United States money at the rate prevailing on the dates made and allowances for damage to cargo claimed in foreign currency shall be converted at the rate prevailing on the last day of discharge at the port or place of final discharge of such damaged cargo from the ship. Average agreement or bond and such additional security, as may be required by the carrier, must be furnished before delivery of the goods. Such cash deposit as the carrier or his agents may deem sufficient as additional security for the contribution of the goods and for any salvage and special charges thereon, shall, if required, be made by the goods, shippers, consignees, or owners of the goods to the carrier before delivery. Such deposit shall, at the option of the carrier, be payable in United States money, and be remitted to the adjuster. When so remitted the deposit shall be held in a special account at the place of adjustment in the name of the adjuster pending settlement of the general average and refunds or credit balances, if any, shall be paid in United States money."

(iii) Amended "Jason" clause:

"In the event of accident, danger, damage, or disaster before or after commencement of the voyage resulting from any cause whatsoever, whether due to negligence or not, for which or for the consequence of which the carrier is not responsible by statute, contract, or otherwise, the goods, shippers, consignees, or owners of the goods shall contribute with the carrier in general average to the payment of any sacrifices, losses or expenses of a general average nature that may be made or incurred, and shall pay salvage and special charges incurred in respect of the goods. If a salving ship is owned or operated by the carrier, salvage shall be paid for as fully as if the salving ship or ships belong to strangers."

(iv) Liberties clauses:

"In any situation whatsoever and wheresoever occurring and whether existing or anticipated before commencement of or during the voyage, which in the judgment of the carrier or master is likely to give rise to risk of capture, seizure, detention, damages, delay or disadvantage to or loss of the ship or any part of her cargo, or to make it unsafe, imprudent, or unlawful for any reason to commence or proceed on or continue the voyage or to enter or discharge the goods at the port of discharge, or to give rise to delay or difficulty in arriving, discharging at or leaving the port of discharge or the usual place of discharge in such port, the carrier may before loading or before the commencement of the voyage, require the shipper or other person entitled thereto to take delivery of the goods at port of shipment and upon their failure to do so, may warehouse the goods at the risk and expense of the goods; or the carrier or master, whether or not proceeding toward or entering or attempting to enter the port of discharge or reaching or attempting to reach the usual place of discharge therein or attempting to discharge the goods there, may discharge the goods into depot, lazarette, craft or other place; or the ship may proceed or return, directly or indirectly, to or stop at any such port or place whatsoever as the master or the carrier may consider safe or advisable under the circumstances, and discharge the goods, or any part thereof, at any such port or place; or the carrier or the master may retain the cargo on board until the return trip or until such time as the carrier or the master thinks advisable and discharge the goods at any place whatsoever as herein provided; or the carrier or the master may discharge and forward the goods by any means at the risk and expense of the goods. The carrier or the master is not required to give notice of discharge of the goods or the forwarding thereof as herein provided. When the goods are discharged from the ship, as herein provided, they shall be at their own risk and expense; such discharge shall constitute complete delivery and performance under this contract and the carrier shall be freed from any further responsibility. For any service rendered to the goods as herein provided the carrier shall be entitled to a reasonable extra compensation.

The carrier, master and ship shall have liberty to comply with any orders or directions as to loading, departure, arrival, routes, ports of call, stoppages, discharge, destination, delivery or otherwise howsoever given by the government of any nation or department thereof or any person acting or purporting to act with the authority of such government or of any department thereof, or by any committee or person having, under the terms of the war risk insurance on the ship, the right to give such orders or directions. Delivery or other disposition of the goods in accordance with such orders or directions shall be a fulfillment of the contract voyage. The ship may carry contraband, explosives, munitions, warlike stores, hazardous cargo, and may sail armed or unarmed and with or without convoy.

"In addition to all other liberties herein the carrier shall have the right to withhold delivery of, reship to, deposit or discharge the goods at any place whatsoever, surrender or dispose of the goods in accordance with any direction, condition or agreement imposed upon or exacted from the carrier by any government or department thereof or any person purporting to act with the authority of either of them. In any of the above circumstances the goods shall be solely at their risk and expense and all expenses and charges so incurred shall be payable by the owner or consignee thereof and shall be a lien on the goods."

CLAUSE 18. General and particular average. Average adjusters shall be appointed by the Charterer from a list of adjusters satisfactory to the Owner, who shall attend to the settlement and collection of both general and particular average losses subject to customary charges. The Charterer agrees to assist the adjuster in preparing the average statement and to take all other possible measures to protect the interests of the Vessel and the Owner.

CLAUSE 19. Salvage. Earned salvage shall be prorated 25 percent to the Owner and 75 percent to the Charterer, after deducting Owner's and Charterer's expenses, Master's and Crew's shares, and legal and other expenses incident to the salvage: Provided, however, That hire of the Vessel shall not be considered an item of the Charterer's expense hereunder. Salvage earned by the Charterer shall be considered gross income as defined in Clause 23. Settlement of such claims for earned salvage shall be subject to the approval of both Owner and Charterer: Provided, That the amount of awards for the salvaging of vessels of which the United States, or any department or agency thereof, is the Owner or Owner pro hac vice, or for their cargoes and freights on such vessels, shall be determined by the Owner.

CLAUSE 20. Libels. Neither the Charterer nor the Masters of the Vessel(s) nor any other person shall have the right, power, or authority to create, incur, or permit to be placed upon the Vessel(s) any liens whatsoever other than for crew's wages or salvage. The Charterer agrees to carry a properly certified copy of this Agreement with the ship's papers on board each vessel, and agrees to exhibit the same to any person having business with such Vessel, and agrees also to exhibit the same to any representative of the Owner on demand.

The Charterer agrees to notify any person furnishing repairs, supplies, towage, or other necessaries to the Vessel(s) that neither the Charterer nor the Master has any right to create, incur, or permit to be imposed upon the Vessel(s) any liens whatsoever, except for crew's wages and salvage. Such notice as far as may be practicable shall be in writing. The Charterer further agrees to fasten in the Vessel(s) in a conspicuous place, and to maintain during the charter period, a notice reading as follows:

"This Vessel is the property of the United States of America. It is under charter to ---------- and, by the terms of the charter, neither the Charterer nor the Master has any right, power, or authority to create, incur, or permit to be imposed upon the Vessel any lien whatsoever, except for crew's wages and salvage."

The Owner shall indemnify, hold harmless and defend the Charterer against any liens, claims or liabilities of whatsoever nature upon the Vessel(s) at the time of their delivery under this Agreement. The Charterer shall indemnify and hold harmless and defend the Owner against any liens of whatsoever nature upon the Vessel(s) and against any claims against the Owner arising out of the operation of the Vessel(s) by the Charterer, or out of any act or neglect of the Charterer, in relation to the Vessel(s), or the operation thereof, except insofar as such liens or claims arise out of any matter covered by the insurance procured and in force, as provided herein. If a libel should be filed against any Vessel or if any Vessel is otherwise levied against or taken into custody by virtue of legal proceedings in any court because of any liens or claims arising out of the operation of the Vessel by the Charterer, the Charterer shall at its own expense, within fifteen (15) days thereof, cause the Vessel to be released and the lien to be discharged.

CLAUSE 21. Bonds. The Charterer, at or before delivery of each Vessel under this Agreement, shall furnish the Owner with a bond with sufficient surety, in the amount specified in Part I hereof, such bond to be approved by the Owner, both as to form and sufficiency of the sureties, and to be conditioned upon the true and faithful performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements of the Charterer contained in this Agreement, including, but not limited to, the Charterer's obligation to pay charter hire and damages and to indemnify against liens. The Charterer may, in lieu of furnishing such bond, pledge United States Government securities in the par value of the required amount under an agreement satisfactory in form and substance to the Owner.

CLAUSE 22. Salaries and fees. No salary or personal services in excess of $25,000 per annum paid to a director, officer, or employee by the Charterer, its affiliates, subsidiary, or associates, directly or indirectly, shall be taken into account under this Agreement. The terms "director", "officer", or "employee" shall be construed in the broadest sense to include, but not to be limited to, managing trustee or other administrative agent. The term "salary" shall include wages and allowances or compensation in any form for personal services which will result in a director, officer, or employee receiving total compensation for his personal services from such sources exceeding in amount or value $25,000 per annum.

CLAUSE 23. Definitions. The terms "net voyage profit", "fair and reasonable overhead expenses", and "capital necessarily employed" as used herein with respect to the operations of the Vessel and services incident thereto are hereby defined, for the purpose of this Agreement only, as follows:

(a) "Net voyage profit" shall be determined by deducting from gross income, as hereinafter defined, such direct vessel operating expenses, terminal and other auxiliary operating expenses, overhead expenses, interest expense, amortization of deferred charges, depreciation on property utilized in the operation of the vessels, and all other charges which are customarily made in accordance with sound accounting practice in determining net profits before provision for federal income taxes, all as the Owner may deem fair and reasonable, provided, that in instances where the Charterer engages in other activities in addition to the operation of the Vessel(s) covered by this Agreement, such charges, other than those directly and exclusively allocable to the operation of the Vessel(s) shall be prorated between these activities on such basis as the Owner may determine to be fair and reasonable.

"Gross income" shall include such items as revenue earned from the carriage of cargo, passengers, and mail, terminal and other auxiliary operations and miscellaneous profits and losses, such as those arising from pooling agreements, advance and prepaid beyond items, bar and slop chest, and such other transactions as the Owner may determine are properly included. "Gross Income" shall include also interest earned, dividends received, and other non-operating income, as well as all accruals to the Charterer as an operating-differential subsidy. If the Charterer engages in any other activities in addition to the operation of the Vessels, the revenues and miscellaneous income, other than those exclusively applicable to the operation of the Vessels, shall be prorated between these activities, on such basis as the owner may determine to be fair and reasonable.

Income consisting of capital gains and expenses consisting of capital losses shall in no event be included in the computation of "Net Voyage Profit", as above defined.

Income from and expenses attributable to assets, other than the Vessels, excluded in the computation of "Capital Necessarily Employed", as hereinafter defined, shall not be included in the computation of "Net Voyage Profit", as above defined.

(b) "Fair and reasonable overhead expenses" shall include those expenses actually and necessarily incurred in the conduct of the business of operating the Vessels, such as salaries of officers; wages of employees; legal and accounting fees and expenses; rent, heat, light, and power; communication expenses; office supplies, stationery, and printing; membership dues and subscriptions; entertaining and solicitation; traveling expenses; insurance and bond premiums; postage; maintenance of office equipment; and miscellaneous administrative and general expenses, all as the Owner may determine to be fair and reasonable and properly included, provided, that there shall be deducted from the total of such expenses, agency fees, commissions, brokerage, and such other miscellaneous earnings as the Owner may determine to be properly deductible.

"Fair and reasonable overhead expenses" shall include also freight, passenger, and other expenses incident to advertising the Vessels and the routes served; taxes, other than Federal income taxes; and management and operating commissions, but only if and in the cases where the express written consent of the Owner has been given the Charterer to employ any other person or concern as the managing or operating agent of the Charterer; all as the Owner may determine to be fair and reasonable and properly included.

If the Charterer engages in other activities in addition to the operation of the Vessels, the "fair and reasonable overhead expenses" other than those directly and exclusively allocable to the operation of the Vessels shall be prorated between such activities on such basis as the Owner may determine to be fair and reasonable.

(c) "Capital necessarily employed" shall be determined upon the basis of the net worth reported by the Charterer in its balance sheet as of the close of the month preceding the date of delivery of the first Vessel under this Agreement (or in the last previous balance sheet deemed by the Owner to fairly present the financial position of the Charterer, but adjusted to take into account subsequent changes in net worth and such other changes as the Owner may deem essential to a proper determination of "Capital Employed" as at the end of such month), and as at each succeeding December 31st during the effective period of the Agreement, adjusted as hereinafter provided. For the purpose of this determination, net worth, as stated in the balance sheet of the Charterer, shall be deemed to include capital stock, surplus and such subdivisions thereof as capital surplus, earned surplus, and accounts of like nature. Net worth, as thus stated, shall be adjusted in such manner as the Owner may determine to be fair and reasonable, including the elimination of appreciation, adequate statement of the liabilities, and such other adjustments as are consistent with sound accounting principles. In the computation of "Capital Necessarily Employed", good will, intangibles not actually purchased and paid for, and stock held in treasury shall be excluded:

Property and other assets utilized in the operation of the Vessels shall be valued at cost, including betterments and reconditioning costs, to the present owner or to any former owner at any time affiliated or associated directly or indirectly with the present owner, whichever is the lower, less depreciation; provided, that the cost of acquisition of assets acquired in exchange for capital shares or other securities of the Charterer from other than holding, subsidiary, affiliated, or associated companies, shall not be in excess of the fair value of such property at the date of acquisition.

Additional capital, in the form of cash or tangible property paid in during the charter period, shall be included in the computation of "Capital Necessarily Employed" from the date paid in. Conversely, any withdrawals of capital shall be deducted from the date withdrawn; provided, however, that no capital shall be withdrawn and no share capital shall be converted into debt without the prior written approval of the Owner. Earnings and capital gains (or losses) for any accounting period subsequent to the last day of the month preceding the month during which delivery of the first Vessel is made hereunder to the Charterer by the Owner, shall not be included in the computation of the "Capital Necessarily Employed" for the year or other accounting period in which realized (or sustained). Dividends paid out of earnings that have not been included in "Capital Employed" shall not be deducted from "Capital Employed".

If the Charterer engages in other activities in addition to the operation of the Vessel(s), the Owner shall determine the proper allocation of capital as between such activities. The amount so allocated to the operation of the Vessel(s) shall be deemed to be the "Capital Necessarily Employed".

CLAUSE 24. Events of default. The following shall constitute events of default under this Agreement:

(a) The failure of the Charterer to pay the charter hire on any Vessel as and when the same shall be due under the terms of this Agreement.

(b) The failure of the Charterer to operate any Vessel as required by Clause D of Part I or the operation of any Vessel on some other route without the prior written approval of the Owner.

(c) Any material misrepresentation by the Charterer in connection with this Agreement whether before or after execution hereof and whether made in an application, report or otherwise, or any willful failure by the Charterer to disclose information necessary to cause any material representation by it not to be misleading.

(d) The occurrence of any event causing the Charterer to be ineligible for charter of the Owner's vessels.

(e) A voluntary sale by the Charterer of this Agreement or any interest therein, or any assignment, transfer, agreement or arrangement whereby the maintenance, management or operation of the above described service, route, or Vessel shall pass out of the direct control of the Charterer without the consent of the Owner.

(f) The filing of a petition in bankruptcy by the Charterer, or the entry of an order, upon petition against the Charterer, adjudicating the Charterer a bankrupt, or the making of a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, or the Charterer losing its charter by forfeiture or otherwise, or the appointment of a receiver or receivers of any kind whatsoever, whether appointed or not in Admiralty, Bankruptcy, Common Law or Equity proceedings, and whether temporary or permanent, for the property of the Charterer, or the filing of a petition by the Charterer for reorganization under the Bankruptcy Act, or the filing of such a petition by creditors and the same approved by the court, or the approval of the court of a reorganization of the Charterer under said Act, whether proposed by a creditor, a stockholder or any other person whomsoever.

(g) Any breach by the Charterer of its obligations under this Agreement (including but without limitation, the obligation to maintain a Performance Bond as required by Clause G) or any agreement executed in connection therewith (including but not limited to any operating-differential subsidy agreement with respect to the Vessels, or any ship mortgage given to or construction agreement made with the United States.

(h) Failure by the Charterer to comply with any applicable provisions of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended, or of any law relating to the operation of the Vessel.

CLAUSE 25. Termination upon default. (a) The Owner may terminate this Agreement in whole or in part without notice to the Charterer in case any event of default specified in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), or (f) of the preceding Clause 24 shall occur or if any other default specified in paragraphs (g) or (h), of said Clause shall occur and shall continue for a period of thirty (30) days after notice thereof has been mailed or telegraphed by the Owner to the Charterer.

(b) Upon termination, the Owner may, at its option, retake the Vessels or any of them wherever the same may be found, whether upon the high seas or in any port, harbor, or other place, without prior demand and without legal process and for that purpose may enter upon any dock, pier, or other premises where the Vessels may be and may take possession thereof, or may require the Charterer to redeliver such Vessels in accordance with terms of this Agreement immediately upon the receipt of a notice demanding such redelivery.

(c) The rights conferred upon the Owner by this Clause are cumulative and in addition to any rights which it may have at law or in equity or by virtue of the terms of this Agreement.

CLAUSE 26. Cancellation or modification by mutual consent. This Agreement may be terminated, modified, or amended at any time by mutual consent.

CLAUSE 27. Accounting, report and supervision. (a) The Charterer and, to the extent required by the Owner, every affiliate, domestic agent, subsidiary, or holding company connected with, or directly or indirectly controlling or controlled by, the Charterer

(1) Shall keep its books, records and accounts relating to the management, operation, conduct of the business of and maintenance of the Vessels covered by this Agreement in accordance with the "Uniform System of Accounts for Maritime Carriers" prescribed by the Maritime Administration, U. S. Department of Commerce, in General Order 22, Revised (Issue of 1950), effective January 1, 1951, and under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Owner: Provided, That, notwithstanding the provisions of said General Order 22, Revised, such reserves as may be specifically authorized by the Owner shall be taken into account in the determination of "Net Voyage Profit" hereunder or the expenses to provide for which such reserves are so authorized shall be distributed over the period of use hereunder of the Vessels involved in such manner as will accomplish the same result as though such reserves were established, all pursuant to regulations prescribed by the Owner: And provided further, That if the Charterer is subject to the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission, the Owner shall not require the duplication of books, records, and accounts required to be kept in some other form by that Commission; and

(2) Shall file, upon notice from the Owner, balance sheets, profit and loss statements, and such other statements of financial operations, special reports, memoranda of any facts and transactions, which in the opinion of the Owner affect the financial results in, the performance of, or transactions or operations under, this Agreement. The Owner reserves the right to require that all or any of such statements, reports and memoranda shall be certified by independent certified public accountants acceptable to the Owner.

(b) The Owner is hereby authorized to examine and audit the books, records and accounts of all persons referred to above in this Clause whenever it may deem it necessary or desirable, including an analysis of the surplus and all supporting accounts. The Charterer agrees to allow any and all auditors, inspectors, attorneys, and other employees, designated by the Owner, full, free and complete access at all reasonable times, to the Vessels when in port or undergoing repairs and to all books, records, papers, memoranda or other documents of the Charterer wherever located or of any holding company, subsidiary company or affiliated company of the Charterer pertaining to any activities relating in any way to the Vessel, and further agrees to permit the making of photostatic or other copies of any such books, records, papers, memoranda, or other documents and to furnish without charge adequate office space and other facilities reasonably required by such auditors, attorneys, or inspectors in the performance of their duties. The Charterer further agrees to establish and maintain from time to time such checks upon or systems of control of expenditures or revenues in connection with the operation of the Vessels as the Owner may request.

CLAUSE 28. Termination of business. Upon termination of this Agreement, the Charterer shall turn over to the Owner at such time and at such place as the Owner may direct, the Vessel and all property of whatsoever nature which the Owner may theretofore have delivered to the Charterer or to which the Owner is entitled under the terms of this Agreement, and the Charterer shall at its own expense make to the Owner such accounting as the owner may require of all matters arising out of the operation of the Vessels and this Agreement, and shall adjust, settle, and liquidate such accounts, provided, however, that the Owner may collect directly all freight moneys or other debts remaining unpaid and apply any moneys collected on any unpaid balance due from the Charterer to the Owner. All expenses of such collection shall be for the account of the Charterer.

CLAUSE 29. Financial limitations. (a) The Charterer agrees that (i) no capital shall be withdrawn, (ii) no share capital shall be redeemed or converted into debt, (iii) no dividend shall be paid, (iv) no loan or advance (except advances to cover current expenses of the Charterer) shall be made, either directly or indirectly, to any stockholder, director, officer, or employee of the Charterer or to any related company (as defined in section 299.1 (q) of United States Maritime Commission's General Order 60, as adopted by its successor, the Maritime Administration, and amended from time to time), (v) no investment shall be made in the securities of any related company (as defined in said section), (vi) no indebtedness to any stockholder, director, officer, or employee of the Charterer or to any related company (as defined in said section), which was classified as long-term or noncurrent in the balance sheet submitted with the application (or amendment thereto) to charter the Vessel, shall be repaid in whole or in part, and (vii) no salary at a rate in excess of $25,000 per annum shall be paid, if after such transaction, the amount of working capital or the amount of net worth thereby would be reduced below the minima prescribed in paragraph (a) of section 299.31 of said General Order 60, as amended.

(b) Mergers, etc.; business not related to shipping. The Charterer agrees that during the charter period it will not, without the prior written approval of the Owner, (1) effect any merger, consolidation or substantial acquisition or disposition of assets not in the ordinary course of business, or (2) directly or indirectly embark upon any new enterprise or business activity not directly connected with the business of shipping.

(c) Service by affiliates, etc. Agreements or arrangements with any interested person or related company to render any service to or furnish any stores, supplies, equipment, materials, repairs, or facilities in connection with the operation of the Vessels hereunder shall be submitted to the Owner for approval as to employment. In the calculation of the cumulative net voyage profit for the purposes of determining the amount of additional charter hire payable to the Owner, pursuant to Clause 13 hereof, sums paid or payable to an interested person or related company in connection with the operation of the Vessels hereunder during the period with respect to which such calculation is made shall be taken into account only if such agreements or arrangements have been approved by the Owner, and then only in such amount as the Owner shall deem to be fair and reasonable. The term "interested person" shall mean any person, firm, or corporation in which the Charterer, or any related company of the Charterer, or any officer or director of the Charterer or any employee of the Charterer who is charged with executive or supervisory duties, or any member of the immediate family of any such officer, director or employee, or any officer or director of any related company of the Charterer or any member of the immediate family of an officer or director of any related company of the Charterer, owns any substantial pecuniary interest directly or indirectly. The term "related company", used to indicate a relationship with the Charterer for the purposes of this Clause only, shall include any person or concern that directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with, the Charterer. The term "control" (including the terms "controlled by" and "under common control with") as used herein means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of the Charterer (or related company), whether through ownership of voting securities, by contract, or otherwise.

CLAUSE 30. Freight rates. For the purpose of computing additional charter hire under the provisions of Clause 13, Part II hereof, the Charterer hereby agrees that, except as hereinafter specifically provided, in any case where its commodities, or commodities of any interested person or related company, are carried on the Vessel, the Vessel's revenue account will be credited with full freight revenue for such carriage at the prevailing commercial rate for such commodities or at such other rates as are approved by the Owner. Over-carried cargoes, not exceeding 5,000 pounds, loaded at one port by a Vessel owned or operated by the Charterer, which are later delivered to original port of destination by a Vessel chartered under this Agreement, shall be specifically excepted from the foregoing provision with respect to payment of freight. For the purpose of this Clause, the terms "interested person" and "related company" shall be defined as provided in Clause 29 (c) of Part II hereof.

CLAUSE 31. Efficient operation. The Charterer agrees to conduct its business and its operations with respect to the Vessel in an economical and efficient manner.

CLAUSE 32. Members or Delegates of Congress. The Charterer shall not employ any Member of Congress, either with or without compensation, as an attorney, agent, officer, or director. Except to the extent permitted by law, no Member of or Delegate to Congress or any Resident Commissioner is or shall be admitted to any share or interest in this Agreement, or any benefit that may arise therefrom.

CLAUSE 33. Warranty against contingent fees. The Charterer warrants that no person or agency has been employed or retained to solicit or secure this Agreement upon an agreement or understanding for a commission, percentage, brokerage, or contingent fee, excepting bona fide employees or bona fide established commercial agencies maintained by the Charterer for the purpose of securing business. For breach or violation of this warranty, the Owner shall have the right to annul this contract without liability or in its discretion to require the Charterer to pay, in addition to the charter hire, the full amount of such commission, percentage, brokerage, or contingent fee.

CLAUSE 34. Notices. Unless otherwise provided in this Agreement or mutually agreed upon, all payments, notices and communications from the Owner to the Charterer, pursuant to the terms of or in connection with this Agreement, shall be made or addressed to the Charterer at the address provided herein and all payments, notices and communications from the Charterer to the Owner, pursuant to the terms of or in connection with this Agreement, shall be made or addressed to the Owner at its offices in Washington, District of Columbia.

CLAUSE 35. Renegotiation. This Agreement shall be deemed to contain all the provisions required by Section 104 of the Renegotiation Act of 1951, as amended and extended. The Contractor (which term as used in this sentence in the Bareboat Charter Agreement, means the Bareboat Charterer, and, as used in related subcontracts shall mean the party contracting to perform the work or furnish the materials required under such subcontract) shall, in compliance with said Section 104, insert the provisions of this Clause in each subcontract and purchase order made or issued in carrying out this Agreement.

CLAUSE 36. Citizenship. The Charterer hereby warrants and represents that it is and at all time during the period of this Agreement will continue to be a citizen of the United States within the meaning of Section 2 of the Shipping Act, 1916, as amended.

CLAUSE 37. Nondiscrimination in employment. In connection with the performance of work under this Agreement, the Charterer agrees not to discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, religion, color, or national origin. The aforesaid provision shall include, but not be limited to, the following: Employment, upgrading, demotion, or transfer; recruitment or recruitment advertising; layoff or termination; rates of pay or other forms of compensation; and selection for training, including apprenticeship. The Charterer agrees to post hereafter in conspicuous places, available for employees and applicants for employment, notices to be provided by the Owner setting forth the provisions of the nondiscrimination clause.

The Charterer further agrees to insert the foregoing provisions in all subcontracts hereunder, except subcontracts for standard commercial supplies or raw materials.

CLAUSE 38. No transfer or assignment. The Charterer shall not, without the Owner's written or telegraphic consent, sell, transfer, or assign this Agreement or any interest therein, or time charter or subcharter any Vessels, or make any arrangement whereby the maintenance, management, or operation of the Vessel(s) is to be performed by any other person.

CLAUSE 39. Headnotes. The use of headnotes at the beginning of the clauses of this Agreement is for the purpose of description only and shall not be construed as limiting or in any other manner affecting the substance of the clauses themselves.

(Sec. 204, 49 Stat. 1987, as amended; 46 U. S. C. 1114. Interprets or applies sec. 5, 60 Stat. 41, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. 1738)

Dated: March 30, 1956.

By order of the Maritime Administrator.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Agricultural Marketing Service

[ 7 CFR Part 914 ]

[Docket No. AO 245-A2]

NAVEL ORANGES GROWN IN ARIZONA AND DESIGNATED PART OF CALIFORNIA

NOTICE OF RECOMMENDED DECISION AND OPPORTUNITY TO FILE WRITTEN EXCEPTIONS WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED FURTHER AMENDMENTS TO MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER REGULATING HANDLING

Pursuant to the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of the filing with the Hearing Clerk of the recommended decision of the Deputy Administrator, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, with respect to proposed amendments to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 14, as amended (7 CFR Part 914), hereinafter referred to as "marketing agreement" and "order," respectively, regulating the handling of navel oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California, to be made effective pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047), hereinafter referred to as the "act." Interested parties may file written exceptions to this recommended decision with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Room 112, Administration Building, Washington 25, D. C., not later than the close of business of the fifteenth day after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Exceptions should be filed in quadruplicate.

Preliminary statement. The public hearing, on the record of which the proposed amendments to the marketing agreement and order are formulated, was initiated by the Agricultural Marketing Service as a result of proposals submitted by the Navel Orange Administrative Committee, the administrative agency established pursuant to the marketing agreement and order. In accordance with the applicable provisions of the aforesaid rules of practice and procedure, a notice that such public hearing would be held in Los Angeles, California, beginning on January 27, 1956, to consider the proposed amendments was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (20 F. R. 9972) on December 24, 1955.

Material issues. The material issues presented on the record of the hearing were concerned with amending the marketing agreement and order to:

(1) Substitute a definition of "carton" for the definition of "box" in recognition of the navel orange industry's shift from packing in boxes to packing in cartons;

(2) Redefine "carload" to conform with the industry's current practices with respect to the type and number of containers loaded in a railroad car;

(3) Change the term of office of members of the Administrative Committee;

(4) Provide that alternate members of the Administrative Committee may, at the discretion of the committee, be reimbursed for reasonable expenses and receive compensation for attending committee meetings, notwithstanding that the members for whom they serve may also be present at such meetings;

(5) Change the time requirement for mailing the annual report and holding the annual meeting;

(6) Provide that whenever the control of oranges changes from one handler to another, and the change is occasioned by the transfer of ownership of the real property on which such oranges were produced, a quantity of oranges equal to the quantity upon which allotments were issued but which were not utilized thereon by the handler who lost the control shall be used in the computation of allotments for the handler who gained the control;

(7) Authorize limited overshipment of allotment during any week in which the handler's total allotment is not loaned to another handler, or is not required for the repayment of an allotment loan or as a deduction for a prior overshipment;

(8) Clarify the provisions with respect to loan transactions;

(9) Provide that when a limited quantity of oranges of a specified size may be handled, the quantity of such size that a handler may handle during a particular week shall be established as a percentage of (a) the allotment issued to such handler for such week, or if an allotment is not so issued, (b) the quantity of oranges handled by such handler during such week;

(10) Provide for continued volume regulation of navel oranges during any period when the season average price for such oranges is above the parity level in order to avoid unreasonable fluctuations in supplies and prices; and

(11) Change the date prior to which the biennial referendum shall be conducted to ascertain whether continuance of the marketing agreement and order is favored by producers.

Findings and conclusions. The findings and conclusions on the material issues, all of which are based upon the evidence adduced at the hearing and the record thereof, are as follows:

(1) When the marketing agreement and order regulating the handling of California-Arizona navel oranges was established, the predominant container used in the handling of such oranges for the fresh market was the standard two-compartment orange box. Each compartment of this box was 11½ by 11½ by 12 inches, and the total capacity was approximately 77 pounds of oranges. This box was approved as a standard container for use in the handling of oranges under applicable laws of the States of California and Arizona. Since this was the most prevalent and widely used container in the industry, and handler's records were generally kept in terms of such boxes, the term "box" was defined in the marketing agreement and order and handlers were required to make reports in terms of such boxes. Likewise the "box" became the standard unit of measurement used by the Administrative Committee for statistical purposes. Recently, however, a half-box carton, approved as a standard container under applicable laws of California and Arizona, has displaced the "box" as the predominant container used in the handling of California-Arizona navel oranges. This container is referred to as standard container number 58 in section 828.88 of the Agricultural Code of California, as amended, and has a capacity of approximately 38½ pounds. At the present time, it is estimated that 85 to 90 percent of the navel oranges shipped to fresh market are in such cartons. Handlers records are now kept in terms of cartons; and during recent months individual allotments and total quantities that may be handled have been fixed in terms of the carton. The definition of "box" should be replaced in the marketing agreement and order by a definition of "carton." Since oranges are handled in containers other than cartons, provision should be made for the equivalent of a carton as 38½ pounds of oranges in order to convert quantities of oranges handled in such other containers to a carton basis. The committee should have the authority, with the approval of the Secretary, to redefine "carton" if the present carton should be replaced in the future by a container of a different dimension and in capacity in order to facilitate a transition to such container. It is therefore concluded that § 914.15 of the marketing agreement and order should be amended as hereinafter set forth, and the provisions of said marketing agreement and order made to conform with such amendment by deleting the word "box" wherever it appears and inserting in lieu thereof the word "carton."

(2) The definiton of "carload" currently in the marketing agreement and order was based on the quantity of oranges equivalent to 462 standard packed boxes which were customarily loaded in a railroad car for shipment to market at the time this regulatory program was placed into effect. The equivalent net weight of a 462 box carload is 924 cartons; and in view of the industry's shift from boxes to cartons, it is concluded that "carload" should be defined in terms of 924 cartons. However, due to the lesser tare weight of cartons as compared with boxes, 924 cartons are not equal in gross weight to the minimum carload, based on 462 boxes, established by the railroads. At present, in order to take advantage of the freight charges which must be paid on the established minimum carload weight, handlers load 1,020 to 1,045 cartons of oranges in a rail car. The industry has plans to petition the railroad companies to establish a minimum carload weight based on 930 cartons. This matter is not settled, however, and it is in the interest of the marketing agreement and order program to provide a definiton of "carload" in terms of the equivalent of 924 cartons, with provision for redefinition of such term by the committee, with approval of the Secretary. This will facilitate efficient administration of the program and provide a means for the establishment of an appropriate definition to reflect such future changes as may be made in loading practices or minimum carload weights; and the marketing agreement and order should be amended accordingly.

(3) Under present provisions of the marketing agreement and order the term of office of members and alternates of the Navel Orange Administrative Committee begins on November 1 of each even-numbered year. The committee has found that such date does not allow a new committee sufficient time to make the necessary preparation for marketing policy meetings and establishment of marketing policies previous to the beginning of movement of the orange crop. Much of this preparation must take place in October, and the term of office beginning on November 1 has required members whose terms are to expire on October 31 to plan and establish policies which must be administered by members taking office on November 1. Amendment of the marketing agreement and order to provide that the term of office of members shall begin October 1 would make it possible for such members to plan the marketing program which they will administer, and place them in a better position to administer such program. It is concluded, therefore, that the marketing agreement and order should be so amended.

(4) Current provisions of the marketing agreement and order provide that members of the Administrative Committee and alternates for such members, when serving as members, shall be reimbursed for expenses necessarily incurred by them in the performance of their duties and shall receive compensation not to exceed $10 for each day or portion thereof spent in performing such duties. The committee has found that there are several meetings during the year when it is desirable to have the alternates as well as members present. For example, prior to the beginning of the shipping season in each prorate district, a marketing policy meeting is held at which the marketing policies for the season are developed; and, when shipment is completed in all districts the committee prepares an annual report, following which an annual meeting is held for all growers and handlers. At the annual meeting the regulatory operations of the past season are reviewed and recommendations for improvement of the program considered. The committee has found that alternates contribute greatly to the efficient operation of the program when they attend meetings of this type and give the committee the benefit of their knowledge and experience in decisions which affect the whole industry. Moreover, the increased knowledge concerning the program and its operation gained by alternates at such meetings enables them to serve more effectively when called upon to serve as members. Since attendance at such meetings for the benefit of the committee involves the same loss of time from personal, business, and equal expenses as that required in attending regular meetings in place of a member who is absent, it is concluded that alternates should receive compensation and be reimbursed for expenses in attending such meetings. Therefore, the marketing agreement and order should be amended to provide that, whenever specifically authorized or approved by the committee, alternate members may receive compensation at the rate applicable to members and be reimbursed for reasonable expenses in attending committee meetings, notwithstanding that the members for whom they serve as alternates also attend such meetings.

(5) The marketing agreement and order provides that the committee shall, prior to June 15 of each year, prepare and mail an annual report to the Secretary and to each grower and handler of record, and that an annual meeting shall be held prior to July 1 of each year to review the record of operations under the program. It has been found, however, that distribution of Navel oranges is not ordinarily completed by June 15. For the five marketing seasons just preceding that of 1951–52 (there was no program in effect during the 1951–52 and 1952–53 seasons) crop distribution was completed prior to June 15 in only one season and in another season crop distribution was not completed until the week ending July 9. In 1953–54 crop distribution extended to June 13, and in 1954–55 to June 26. Furthermore, it frequently requires two weeks or more, following the close of the season, for the committee to resolve discrepencies in handlers' reports before the information for the annual report is ready for printing. In order to comply with the time requirements for annual reports and meetings, the committee has had to prepare and mail annual reports based on incomplete data. There appears to be no reason why preparation of the annual report should not be delayed until complete information on distribution of the crop is available to the committee. Likewise, it is in the interest of the program to have complete information available for consideration at the annual meeting. Due to the erratic time of completion of crop distribution it is not feasible to establish fixed dates for issuance of the annual report and holding of the annual meeting. In order to be practical such times as are established should be flexible. It is therefore concluded that the marketing agreement and order should be amended to provide for preparation of the annual report "as soon as practicable" after distribution of the crop is completed, and for holding the annual meeting "as soon as practicable" after mailing of the annual report.

(6) The marketing agreement and order require that a handler who loses control of oranges and has handled a quantity of such oranges less than could have been handled under allotments issued to him by virtue of the fact that he had control of such oranges, shall have his oranges available for current shipment adjusted by deducting therefrom a quantity of oranges equal to that upon which allotments were issued but not utilized in the shipment of such oranges. However, the handler who gains control of such oranges is not entitled to have his oranges available for current shipment increased by the quantity so deducted. The evidence, however, shows that failure to provide an opportunity for the handling of the quantity of oranges covered by the unused allotment on a grove creates inequity with respect to any person who purchases the grove during a shipping season and transfers the control of the fruit to a new handler. Such person did not previously have an opportunity to select a handler for his oranges, and it appears reasonable to provide him with the same opportunity that other owners of groves had at the beginning of the season. It would be more equitable to such purchasers to provide where the change in control of oranges is occasioned by a bona fide transfer in the ownership of the real property on which the oranges were produced, that the handler who gains control be given the benefit of the allotment previously earned by such oranges but not utilized thereon. The number of ownership transfers in a season are few and this should not adversely affect the successful operation of the program. It is therefore concluded that the marketing agreement and order should be amended to provide for transfer of such allotment, as hereinafter provided, to the handler gaining control of oranges involved in a bona fide transfer of grove ownership.

(7) A current provision of the marketing agreement and order provides that whenever volume regulation is in effect a handler, if not required to reduce his allotment in repayment of a previous overshipment, or whose total allotment is not required for repayment of an allotment loan, may handle in addition to his allotment a quantity of oranges equivalent to 10 percent of his allotment or 462 packed boxes, whichever is greater. This overshipment privilege was placed in the marketing agreement and order in recognition of the fact that a handler experiences difficulty in shipping during a week the exact quantity of oranges authorized by the allotment issued to him for such week; and some flexibility of operation under the allotment issued should be provided. Experience has shown that additional flexibility could be provided handlers, without adversely affecting the operation of the program, by authorizing overshipment of allotment during any week in which the handler's total allotment is not loaned to another handler, or is not required for the repayment of an allotment loan or as a deduction for a prior overshipment. These limitations are necessary to assure that during any season, the total shipment of oranges by a handler will not materially exceed the total amount of shipments authorized by allotments issued to him, and to insure that usage of such overshipment privilege will be in accordance with the basic reason for including it in the program; namely that of providing handlers with a measure of flexibility in their operations and, at the same time, preserving the effectiveness of the program. Accordingly, the marketing agreement and order should be amended in conformance with the foregoing.

(8) Provision for the lending of allotment between handlers in the same prorate district is included in the marketing agreement and order to provide them with needed flexibility in their operations. The marketing agreement and order do not explicitly state that the payment of a consideration to bring about a loan is prohibited. However, it was not intended that a market be established in the loaning of allotment, and it would not be in the interest of the program to permit such a development. The committee in administering the program has consistently interpreted the loan provisions as prohibiting such payment. There is an indication that all handlers may not have the same understanding of these provisions as the committee, however, and that some may have the impression that the payment of a consideration is permitted in connection with loan transactions. It is in the interest of this regulatory program to obtain the greatest possible understanding of the provisions of such program throughout the industry. It is therefore concluded that the marketing agreement and order should be amended to make clear that no allotment may be loaned from one handler to another when such loan is brought about by the payment of a consideration.

(9) Current provisions of the marketing agreement and order provide for regulation of the sizes of oranges which may be handled. This provision authorizes the Secretary to restrict the handling of oranges to those of specified sizes. It has been a practice, in accordance with this provision, to prohibit the handling of certain sizes and to permit the handling of a portion of other sizes. For example, a size regulation was established which prohibited the handling of all sizes smaller than 344's, and restricted the volume of the 344 size to a fixed percentage of the total quantity handled during a week. Thus, the percentage of such size that could be handled was related to a handler's weekly volume. The evidence shows that handlers have, at times, unintentionally violated the size regulation by handling in excess of the permitted percentage. That is, handlers early in the week would ship a volume of the size which was restricted to a percentage of the volume handled, anticipating that they would be able to move their entire allotment, and, when it later developed that they were unable to do so because of adverse weather, failure of packing house machinery, and other operational difficulties, the percentage of such size handled was in excess of that permitted. This could be prevented by basing the percentage of a size permitted to be handled on the handler's allotment issued to him for the week when volume regulation is in effect. Such basic allotment remains constant for a weekly regulation period and it would be of substantial benefit to handlers and the committee in their operations to provide for the establishment of such size regulation on this basis since it would enable them to know at the beginning of any week the exact volume of the restricted size permitted to be handled during such week. However, it may be desirable to restrict the sizes of oranges that can be handled during periods when no regulation of volume is in effect; therefore, provision should be made to permit the establishment of a percentage of size regulation during such periods on the volume of oranges handled in the manner currently authorized, since in the absence of the issuance of allotment, this appears to be the best basis for establishing such a percentage. It is therefore concluded that the marketing agreement and order should provide for the establishment of size regulation in accordance with the foregoing, and that said marketing agreement and order should be amended to so provide.

(10) The marketing agreement and order should be amended as hereinafter set forth to permit the continued regulation of the flow of navel oranges to market even though the season average price may be above the parity level.

The provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), in conformity with which the current marketing agreement and order program for navel oranges has been operative, did not, prior to the 1954 amendment, contain authority for volume regulations during any period with respect to which the Secretary determines that the season average price will be in excess of the parity price. The Agricultural Act of 1954 provides that authority may be included in marketing agreements and orders to establish and maintain such orderly marketing conditions for certain specified agricultural commodities, including navel oranges, as will provide, in the interests of producers and consumers, an orderly flow of the supply thereof to market throughout the normal marketing season so as to avoid unreasonable fluctuations in supplies and prices. Authority to regulate the flow of navel oranges to market at all times is needed in this regulatory program because, whereas the total supply of such oranges in a given prorate district are mature near the beginning of the marketing season, it is impossible to market such total supply immediately at prices which would permit growers to remain in business. It was for this reason that volume regulation was included initially as a major provision in this marketing agreement and order program. The evidence shows that prices for navel oranges are very sensitive to changes in supply, and that unrestricted movement of such oranges undoubtedly would result in unreasonable fluctuations in supplies and prices to the detriment of both producers and consumers.

Since the navel orange crop in a given prorate district is mature and ready for shipment early in the marketing season, the oranges must be stored on the trees until needed for shipment. As there is danger of frost damage in December and January, as well as general lowering in quality from wind damage, insects, and almost certain loss from shrinkage due to oranges dropping off the trees as the season progresses, there is strong pressure on handlers from producers to handle their oranges as quickly as possible. It is probable that these pressures would be intensified in above-parity price situations. The industry has the capacity to pack and ship a quantity of oranges substantially greater than that which experience has shown can be absorbed by the market at prices which will give producers a reasonable return. Whereas the level of weekly movement which has proved to be in line with the demand at reasonable prices is near 900 to 1,000 carloads during most of the marketing season, packing house capacity is in excess of 1,500 carloads. Thus, in the absence of volume restriction, and with pressure from producers to ship the crop as rapidly as possible, it is more than likely that excess supplies of navel oranges would be shipped to markets. Favorable prices, such as those prevailing in above-parity situations would make it virtually impossible for handlers to pack and ship anything less than the maximum. The tendency would be for handlers to continue shipping as long as prices are favorable; and due to the in-transit time—10 to 14 days—required for oranges to move from the production area to the large consuming markets of the east, it is likely that substantial quantities would be enroute to these markets before it became apparent to handlers that supplies already in the market were sufficient to take care of the demand. In these circumstances, even though they were to curtail or stop further shipments, it would not be possible for them to prevent the arrival on an already burdened market of such additional quantities of oranges as may be enroute. Upon the arrival on a burdened market of these additional supplies, the market would be glutted. With markets demoralized, handlers would cease shipping. Following such demoralization, handlers would not ship oranges to market until prices were again favorable. Due to the length of time required for oranges to travel to markets, after such recovery of prices becomes apparent, periods of scarcity or famine of the commodity could occur and prices go unreasonably high. Such prices would again encourage handlers to flood the market. Thus, the alternating series of events known as "glut" and "famines" is set in motion to the despair of producers and consumers alike.

Due to the reluctance of those concerned in the marketing of oranges to adjust prices to levels which will clear the market in a reasonable time, the lowering of such prices is generally delayed until there is a marked deterioration in the quality of the oranges in oversupply and it is apparent that a drastic reduction is necessary to prevent a complete loss. Such deterioration in quality causes dissatisfaction among consumers, and it is probable that it is more than sufficient to offset any gain which consumers appear to make as result of lower prices. Furthermore, the indication is that consumers may pay a greater average price for oranges during a season when prices fluctuate widely than when such fluctuations are prevented by the regulation of supplies. Moreover, it appears that, in the absence of such regulations, the total supply of the commodity could be marketed very early in the season, and none of the commodity would be available to consumers during a large part of the time during which they would customarily consume it. Operation of volume regulation under present provisions of the marketing agreement and order has been directed toward the objective of achieving parity prices for navel oranges; and such operation has resulted in the development of a system which has proved effective in establishing and maintaining an orderly flow of such oranges to market. Such provisions of the marketing agreement and order and the method of operation thereunder are suitable for use in above-parity situations. Particularly applicable are those relating to the development of a marketing policy, the determination of prorate bases, the computation of allotments, and the fixing of the quantity of navel oranges that may be handled. Because of the unpredictable nature of short-run factors on the demand for navel oranges, it would be necessary to continue as now provided in the marketing agreement and order, weekly regulation of navel orange shipments so as to insure a flow of such oranges to market throughout the normal marketing season as will be consistent with the demand therefor. This would be effective in accomplishing the declared policy of the act by avoiding unreasonable fluctuations in the supplies and prices of navel oranges and be in the interest of both producers and consumers. However, it should not be the purpose of volume regulation during any period when season average price exceeds the parity level to restrict the total quantity of navel oranges to market so as to increase prices.

As previously stated, authority to include in marketing agreements and orders provision for regulating the flow of a commodity to market in above-parity price situations, in the interest of producers and consumers, became available subsequent to the time this marketing agreement and order program was made effective on California-Arizona navel oranges. Therefore, the definition of "act" as contained in said marketing agreement and order does not include a statutory reference to the amendment by which such authority was added to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937. Since it is proposed to include in the marketing agreement and order authority to regulate the flow of navel oranges in above-parity situations, and it is desirable to keep the definitions in such marketing agreement and order current, it is concluded that the marketing agreement and order should be amended to include a reference to such authority as hereinafter set forth.

(11) The marketing agreement and order provide that the Secretary shall, prior to September 15 of each odd numbered year, conduct a referendum among the producers of navel oranges to ascertain whether continuance of said marketing agreement and order is favored by such producers. The first of these referendums was held during the period August 26 to September 10, 1955. As the navel orange shipping season is from November of one year to May of the year following, most of the packing houses were closed during the referendum period. The majority of producers are affiliated with cooperative associations which vote as units through Boards of Directors. Since the packing houses of these associations are not operating during the referendum period, it is usually necessary for a cooperative association to call a special meeting of its Board of Directors in order for it to make a decision regarding the continuance of the marketing agreement and order. If the date by which the referendum is to be held was changed to March 15, this would facilitate consideration of the matter at regular meetings of the cooperative associations, and would contribute to the securing of a more representative vote in the referendum. It is therefore concluded that the marketing agreement and order should be amended to provide for the holding of said referendum prior to March 15 of each odd numbered year.

General findings. (1) The marketing agreement, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be amended, and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act, including the establishment and maintenance of such orderly marketing conditions for navel oranges grown in the State of Arizona and designated part of California as will provide, in the interests of producers and consumers, an orderly flow thereof to market throughout its normal marketing season to avoid unreasonable fluctuations in supplies and prices;

(2) The marketing agreement, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be amended, and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be amended, regulate the handling of navel oranges grown in the production area in the same manner as, and are applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in, the marketing agreement upon which hearings have been held;

(3) The marketing agreement, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be amended, and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be amended, are limited in their application to the smallest regional production area that is practicable, consistently with carrying out the declared policy of the act; and the issuance of several orders applicable to subdivisions of such production area would not effectively carry out the declared policy of the act;

(4) The marketing agreement, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be amended, and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be amended, prescribe, so far as practicable, such different terms, applicable to different parts of the production area, as are necessary to give due recognition to differences in the production and marketing of the oranges covered thereby; and

(5) All handling of navel oranges grown in the production area is in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or directly burdens, obstructs, or affects such commerce.

Rulings on proposed findings and conclusions. February 13, 1956, was fixed as the latest date for the filing of briefs with respect to the facts presented in evidence at the hearing and the findings and conclusions which should be drawn therefrom. No such brief was filed within the prescribed time; hence, no ruling is necessary.

Recommended amendments to the marketing agreement and order. The following amendments to the marketing agreement and order are recommended as the detailed means by which the aforesaid conclusions may be carried out:

1. Delete the provisions of § 914.15 and substitute in lieu thereof the following:

§ 914.15 Carton. "Carton" means the standard container number 58 as defined in section 828.83 of the Agricultural Code of California, as amended, of a capacity of approximately 38½ pounds of oranges, or such other container and capacity as may be established by the committee with the approval of the Secretary, or the equivalent thereof.

2. Delete the provisions of § 914.17 and substitute in lieu thereof the following:

§ 914.17 Carload. "Carload" means a quantity of oranges equivalent to 924 cartons of oranges, or such other quantity of oranges as may be established by the committee with the approval of the Secretary.

3. Amend the provisions of § 914.21 by deleting therefrom the date "November 1" and substituting in lieu thereof the date "October 1."

4. Amend the provisions of § 914.31 by adding at the end of the section the following: "Whenever specifically authorized or approved by the committee, an alternate member shall be reimbursed for reasonable expenses necessarily incurred by him in attending committee meetings and shall receive compensation at the rate provided in this section, notwithstanding that the committee member for whom he serves as alternate also attends such meetings."

5. Amend the provisions of § 914.32 as follows:

a. Delete the first sentence thereof and substitute in lieu thereof the following: "The committee shall, as soon as practicable after the marketing of the crop is completed, prepare and mail an annual report to the Secretary and to each handler and grower of record."

b. Delete therefrom the words following (d) and substitute in lieu thereof the following: "notice of the time and place of an open meeting, to be held as soon as practicable after the mailing of the annual report, to review the whole record of the operations of this part."

6. Amend the provisions of paragraph (e) of § 914.53 Prorate bases by inserting the following as a part of the last sentence in such paragraph: "; and, in the event the change in control of oranges is occasioned by a bona fide transfer of the ownership of the real property on which such oranges were produced, the person gaining the control of such oranges shall have his quantity of oranges available for current shipment adjusted by adding thereto a quantity of oranges equal to that which is so deducted."

7. Amend the provisions of § 914.55 by deleting therefrom the first sentence and substituting in lieu thereof the following: "During any week for which the Secretary has fixed the total quantity of oranges which may be handled, any person who has received an allotment for such week, and whose total allotment is not loaned, or is not required for the repayment of an allotment loan or as a deduction for a prior overshipment, may handle in addition to his allotment an amount of such oranges equivalent to 10 percent of his allotment, or one carload, whichever is the greater."

8. Amend the provisions of § 914.57 by adding a new paragraph (e) as follows:

(e) No allotment may be loaned from one handler to another when such loan is brought about by the payment of a consideration.

9. Amend the provisions of § 914.64 by inserting the following immediately after the first sentence of such section: "When any such size regulation restricts the handling of a portion of a specified size, the quantity of such size that may be handled by a handler during a particular week shall be established as a percentage of (a) the weekly allotment issued to such handler when volume regulation is in effect, and (b) the total weekly volume handled by such handler when volume regulation is not in effect."

10. Insert the following new sentence immediately preceding the last sentence of § 914.52 Issuance of volume regulations: "Such regulation may be made effective, as authorized by the act, irrespective of whether the season average price for navel oranges is in excess of the parity price specified therefor in the act."

11. Amend the provisions of § 914.71 by deleting therefrom the word "box" and substituting in lieu thereof the word "carton."

12. Immediately preceding the closing of the parenthesis at the end of § 914.2 Act insert the following: "; 68 Stat. 906, 1047."

13. Amend the provisions of § 914.83 (c) (3) by deleting from the last sentence thereof the date "September 15" and substituting in lieu thereof the date "March 15."

Dated: April 12, 1956.

[Docket No. AO 144-A7]

LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

NOTICE OF RECOMMENDED DECISION AND OPPORTUNITY TO FILE WRITTEN EXCEPTIONS WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED FURTHER AMENDMENTS TO MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER REGULATING HANDLING

Pursuant to the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of the filing with the Hearing Clerk of the recommended decision of the Deputy Administrator, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, with respect to proposed amendments to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR Part 953; 20 F. R. 8451)[1] hereinafter referred to as "marketing agreement" and "order," respectively, regulating the handling of lemons grown in California and Arizona, to be made effective pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047), hereinafter referred to as the "act." Interested parties may file written exceptions to this recommended decision with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Room 112, Administration Building, Washington 25, D. C., not later than the close of business of the fifteenth day after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Exceptions should be filed in quadruplicate.

Preliminary statement. The public hearing, on the record of which the proposed amendments to the marketing agreement and order are formulated, was initiated by the Agricultural Marketing Service as a result of proposals submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, the administrative agency established pursuant to the marketing agreement and order. In accordance with the applicable provisions of the aforesaid rules of practice and procedure, a notice that a public hearing would be held in Los Angeles, California, beginning on January 25, 1956, to consider the proposed amendments was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (20 F. R. 9973) on December 24, 1955.

Material issues. The material issues presented on the record of the hearing were concerned with amending the marketing agreement and order to:

(a) Substitute a definition of "carton" for the definition of "box" in recognition of the lemon industry's shift from packing lemons in boxes to packing in cartons; and

(b) Redefine "carload" to conform with the industry's current practices with respect to the type and number of containers loaded in a railroad car.

Findings and conclusions. The findings and conclusions on the material issues, all of which are based upon the evidence adduced at the hearing and the record thereof, are as follows:

(a) At the time the marketing agreement and order regulating the handling of California-Arizona lemons was established, most lemons were shipped to fresh market in a standard wooden lemon box, with inside dimensions of 10 inches in depth, 13 inches in width, and 25⅝ inches in length. The capacity of this box is approximately 79 pounds of lemons. This was the container which lemon handlers were familiar with, and statistical reports in terms of boxes were meaningful to them. Therefore, in order to provide the Secretary with a unit for setting handler's allotments, to facilitate handler's reporting information regarding lemons handled, and to provide the Lemon Administrative Committee with a well recognized unit of measurement for statistical purposes, the definition of the above described "box" was included in the marketing agreement and order.

Following World War II the lemon industry, in its search for more efficient methods of handling lemons, conducted experiments in which lemons were packed and shipped in various types of fibreboard cartons. In general, these cartons were approximately one-half the size of the standard wooden box. It was found that the use of a half-box size of carton holding approximately 39½ pounds of lemons was a satisfactory container for the shipment of fresh lemons in both domestic and export channels. Moreover, this container facilitates a "volume fill" packing operation in which lemons are allowed to run directly into the carton, thus avoiding the expensive wrapping and place-packing of individual lemons by hand, as is required in the packing of lemons in standard wooden boxes. The majority of the handlers of lemons have adopted the carton and virtually 100 percent of the lemons now being handled to the fresh market are packed "volume fill" in half-box fibreboard cartons. The term "carton" has become as meaningful to shippers as "box" was at the time this lemon marketing program was established, and most handlers now speak in terms of cartons rather than boxes. Moreover, the State governments of California and Arizona have established the carton as a standard container under the applicable laws of these States. It is referred to as standard container number 58 in the Agricultural Code of California, as amended. Thus, the carton is recognized as the predominant container used in the shipping of lemons, and it is concluded that the definition of "carton" should be adopted in lieu of the definition of the term "box." Such definition should provide for the equivalent of a carton to facilitate the conversion of lemons handled in other types of containers to a carton basis. Also, in recognition of the fact that the industry is constantly seeking to increase efficiency and such developments may be achieved through a modification or refinement of the carton now in use, the Lemon Administrative Committee should have the authority to establish, with the approval of the Secretary, such other container and capacity under the definition of carton as may be adopted by a majority of the handlers in the lemon industry. It is therefore concluded that the marketing agreement and order should be amended in accordance with the foregoing.

(b) The current definition of the term "carload" is based on a quantity of lemons equivalent to 406 packed standard wooden boxes of lemons which were customarily loaded in a rail car when this marketing agreement and order program was established. The industry continued to use the 406 standard box load until, during World War II, the scarcity of railroad cars caused handlers to increase to 464 the number of standard boxes of lemons loaded in a railroad car. With the development of the half-box carton, various numbers of such cartons were loaded and shipped experimentally, and the industry has found that 930 cartons makes a good rail carload. At the present time the majority of lemons shipped by rail are in carloads of 930 cartons each. In recognition of this development the Lemon Administrative Committee recently adopted the 930 carton carload as a statistical measure in lieu of the carload based on the equivalent of 406 boxes, and has converted its records to this basis. Consequently, the term "carload" as now defined in the marketing agreement and order has become obsolete. A definition in terms of "the equivalent of 930 cartons, or such other quantity of lemons as may be established by the committee with the approval of the Secretary" would be more appropriate. It would facilitate efficient administration of the program and provide a means for the establishment of such quantity of lemons as may prove appropriate as a "carload" in the future. It is therefore concluded that the marketing agreement and order should be amended as hereinafter set forth to provide such a definition.

General findings. (a) The marketing agreement, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be amended, and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act, including the establishment and maintenance of such orderly marketing conditions for lemons grown in the States of California and Arizona as will provide, in the interests of producers and consumers, an orderly flow thereof to market throughout its normal marketing season to avoid unreasonable fluctuations in supplies and prices;

(b) The marketing agreement, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be amended, and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be amended, regulate the handling of lemons grown in the States of California and Arizona in the same manner as, and are applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in, the marketing agreement upon which hearings have been held;

(c) The marketing agreement, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be amended, and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be amended, are limited in their application to the smallest regional production area that is practicable, consistently with carrying out the declared policy of the act; and the issuance of several orders applicable to subdivisions of such production area would not effectively carry out the declared policy of the act; and

(d) The marketing agreement, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be amended, and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be amended, prescribe, so far as practicable, such different terms, applicable to different parts of the production area, as are necessary to give due recognition to differences in the production and marketing of the lemons covered thereby.

Rulings on proposed findings and conclusions. February 13, 1956, was fixed as the latest date for the filing of briefs with respect to the facts presented in evidence at the hearing and the findings and conclusions which should be drawn therefrom. No such brief was filed within the prescribed time; hence, no ruling is necessary.

Recommended amendments to the marketing agreement and order. The following amendments to the marketing agreement and order are recommended as the detailed means by which the aforesaid conclusions may be carried out:

1. Delete the provisions of § 953.8 and substitute in lieu thereof the following:

§ 953.8 Carload. "Carload" means a quantity of lemons equivalent to 930 cartons of lemons, or such other quantity of lemons as may be established by the committee with the approval of the Secretary.

2. Delete the provisions of § 953.9 and substitute in lieu thereof the following:

§ 953.9 Carton. "Carton" means standard container number 58 as defined in Section 828.83 of the Agricultural Code of California, as amended, of a capacity of approximately 39½ pounds of lemons, or such other container and capacity as may be established by the committee with the approval of the Secretary, or the equivalent thereof.

Dated: April 12, 1956.

[SEAL] ROY W. LENNARTSON,
Deputy Administrator.

[ 7 CFR Part 1010 ]

[Docket No. AO–276]

MILK IN WILMINGTON, DELAWARE, MARKETING AREA

DECISION WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER REGULATING HANDLING

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was conducted at Wilmington, Delaware, September 12–23, 1955, pursuant to a notice thereof which was issued on August 24, 1955 (20 F. R. 6299) upon a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed order regulating the handling of milk in the Wilmington, Delaware, marketing area.

Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof, the Deputy Administrator, Agricultural Marketing Service, on January 17, 1956, filed with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, his recommended decision and opportunity to file written exceptions thereto which was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on January 21, 1955 (21 F. R. 486; F. R. Doc. 56–514).

Rulings. Within the period reserved for filing of exceptions, interested parties filed written exceptions to certain of the findings, conclusions, and actions recommended by the Deputy Administrator. In arriving at the findings, conclusions, and regulatory provisions of this decision, each of such exceptions was carefully and fully considered in conjunction with the record evidence pertaining thereto. To the extent that the findings, conclusions, and actions decided upon herein are at variance with the exceptions, such exceptions are overruled.

Issues considered. The material issues of record related to:

1. Whether the handling of milk in the market is in the current of interstate commerce or directly burdens, obstructs or affects interstate commerce in milk or its products;

2. Whether marketing conditions justify the issuance of a marketing agreement or order; and

3. If an order is issued what its provisions should be with respect to:

(a) The scope of regulation;

(b) The classification of milk;

(c) The level and method of determining class prices;

(d) The method to be used in distributing proceeds among producers; and

(e) Administrative provisions.

Findings and conclusions. Upon the evidence adduced at the hearing and the record thereof, it is hereby found and concluded that:

1. Character of commerce. The handling of milk in the Wilmington, Delaware, marketing area is in the current of interstate commerce and directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate commerce in the handling of milk and its products.

The Inter-State Milk Producers' Cooperative, a cooperative association, represents the majority of producers producing milk for the Wilmington, Delaware, marketing area. This association acts as the marketing agent for its members whose farms, in the case of the Wilmington market, are dispersed throughout parts of the States of Delaware, Pennsylvania, and Maryland. Of Inter-State's members shipping to five primary Wilmington handlers, farms of 61 percent are located within the State of Delaware, 29 percent are in Maryland and 10 percent are in Pennsylvania. Milk from these farms is in daily interstate commerce as it moves to the plants of Wilmington handlers for eventual disposition for fluid consumption to consumers in the Wilmington marketing area.

One substantial Wilmington handler with a bottling plant in Wilmington, receives no producer milk directly at such plant. Virtually all the requirements of this plant are received from producers at the handler's Order 61 receiving plants located in Oxford and Chester, Pennsylvania, and this milk is then moved in interstate commerce to Wilmington, for processing and bottling. In addition, this handler also bottles some Class I products for distribution in Wilmington area at his Philadelphia bottling plants which receive milk from producers located both in Pennsylvania and Maryland.

Another Wilmington handler bottles all of his Wilmington Class I needs at his Order 61 bottling and distributing plant located in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Milk is received at this plant from producers in the States of Delaware, New Jersey, Maryland, and Pennsylvania. A third Order 61 handler bottles milk for sale in Wilmington marketing area in his plant at Boothwyn, Pennsylvania.

A bottling plant located in Chesapeake City, Maryland, receives milk from producers located in the States of Maryland and Delaware and distributes bottled milk both in the Wilmington area and in the nearby Maryland area. Another local dairy located in Newark, Delaware, and doing business in the surrounding area in Delaware, also distributes milk in the nearby Maryland area. A New Jersey bottling plant with producers in both New Jersey and Delaware bottles milk which is later sold through store outlets in the Wilmington area. Still another handler bottles milk at his Lancaster, Pennsylvania, plant for distribution in the Wilmington area which milk is received from producers located in Pennsylvania and Maryland.

Processing facilities for the handling of milk excess to fluid needs in the plants of Wilmington dealers are limited. Milk in excess of the capacity of local facilities is accordingly disposed of through other plants, in many cases, located outside the State of Delaware. The record indicates that in the 12-month period June 1954 through May 1955, 4,040,771 pounds of excess milk, skim milk and cream, 6.2 percent of the total producer receipts at the plants of five Wilmington dealers, was sold out-of-State to dealers located in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and Maryland.

The record shows that the health authorities permit milk to be brought into the market from beyond the limits of routine farm inspection whenever regular sources of supply are insufficient to meet the demands for fluid milk. While the record does not indicate the actual sources of such supplies it does show that during the period June 1954 through May 1955, 933,690 pounds of milk, skim milk and cream were received at the plants of Wilmington handlers from plants located outside the State of Delaware.

It is not possible from the record to determine whether any handler operating in the Wilmington market does solely an intrastate business. Even if this situation does exist such milk would be distributed in direct competition with milk which moves in interstate commerce as it moves from (1) the farm on which it was produced to the handler's plant for processing and bottling, (2) the processing and bottling plant where it is received, on routes to consumers in the marketing area, (3) the receiving plant outside the State of Delaware to the processing and bottling plant in the marketing area, or (4) the receiving plant in the marketing area to manufacturing plants located outside the State of Delaware.

From the foregoing it is evident that a sizable portion of milk in the Wilmington market moves in interstate commerce in the form of fluid milk as well as in milk products, and that the handling of milk in the market directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate commerce in milk or its products.

2. Need for an order. Marketing conditions in the Wilmington marketing area justify the issuance of a marketing agreement and order.

For a period of 13 years from 1942 until June 1955 marketing conditions in the Wilmington market were generally stabilized and there was no market disorder. Inter-State Milk Producers' Cooperative, a cooperative association, representing the majority of the producers on the market, acted effectively as marketing agent for its membership delivering to five primary Wilmington handlers. Milk was purchased under a classified pricing plan at prices generally related to prices in the Philadelphia market and under an accounting procedure approved and supervised by the cooperative asociation. Other dealers selling fluid milk in the area, to whom no Inter-State members shipped, and with whom there was therefor no basis for the cooperative association to bargain, paid prices for fluid milk sufficiently similar to those prices bargained by the association that resale and producer milk prices in the market were generally stable.

On June 1, a new company in the market began selling milk in multi-quart glass containers through their own stores at prices roughly four cents per quart under the generally prevailing price. Immediately on June 2 a large supplier of milk in paper containers to stores in the Wilmington area reduced the wholesale price to the point where stores could sell this milk in multi-quart containers competitively with the price of the new multi-quart glass container. This action was immediately followed by a reduction in the price of home delivered milk on the part of a large local distributor, and subsequently by a general reduction in resale prices by all handlers. On June 16 this large local distributor with whom Inter-State, acting as agent, had previously effectively bargained in the sale of its members' milk, notified the cooperative that effective June 23 it would pay only $4.50 per hundredweight for milk for Class I use, a decline of 67 cents from the prevailing price of $5.17. The cooperative was instructed to ship no milk after that date, except at the reduced price. Since there was no other available market except for manufacturing purposes Inter-State continued to ship its members' milk at the dealer's price. Prices paid by other handlers were thereafter correspondingly reduced.

While producers' prices have improved somewhat since June 1955, the prevailing price has continued substantially below that which would have prevailed under the agreement effective prior to June 1 and the general relationship with the neighboring Philadelphia market has been destroyed. There appears little likelihood that the cooperative will be able to bargain effectively for reasonable class prices in face of the present competitive situation in the market.

Along with the disappearance of effective bargaining between the association and the handlers, the price relationship between producers delivering to handlers in the Wilmington market and those delivering to handlers in the Philadelphia and the nearby Maryland, Delaware, and New Jersey markets has been disrupted. This situation constitutes a continuing and serious threat to a dependable supply of pure and wholesome milk for the Wilmington market. While there has not yet been a serious exit of producers from the Wilmington market, it appears that only prompt action on the part of the cooperative association in requesting assistance under the act has thus far forestalled it. Orderly marketing of the milk produced for fluid consumption requires uniformly dependable methods for determining price according to the use made of the milk. The proximity of the Wilmington area to the larger markets of Baltimore, Philadelphia, and in New Jersey presents a very sensitive pricing problem. Any substantial price disparity will result in a loss of producers to the higher priced markets and will consequently seriously jeopardize an adequate supply of milk for the local market.

The primary handlers in the market join producers in recognition of the seriousness of the breakdown of effective bargaining relationships and offer no substantial objection to the requested Federal regulation.

It is concluded that the issuance of a marketing agreement and order for the Wilmington, Delaware, marketing area would contribute substantially to the stabilization of the fluid milk market and will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. The adoption of a classified price plan based on the audited utilization of handlers will provide a uniform system of pricing milk to all handlers and will assure a fair division of returns among producers of each handler operating in the market. The public hearing procedure required by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act will provide opportunity for representation of producers, handlers, and the public in presenting information on marketing conditions and participating in the determination of prices for milk in the area.

3. (a) Scope of regulation. It is necessary to designate clearly what milk and what persons would be subject to regulation under the various provisions of the order. This can best be done by providing definitions which set forth the categories of persons, plants and milk products for purposes of classification of milk and of application of other provisions of the order:

Marketing area. The marketing area should include all that territory lying within the north, east and west boundaries of the State of Delaware and north of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal. This area, comprising roughly the northern half of New Castle County, is dominated by the city of Wilmington with a population of 110,000 persons as reported in the 1950 census. The remaining population of the area is estimated at 100,000 of which 62,000 represents the concentration of population in the urbanized area immediately beyond the Wilmington city limits and includes the city of Elsmere. Other population concentrations scattered over the area include the cities and towns of Newark, New Castle, Bellefonte, Delaware City, and Newport.

Milk for the marketing area as herein proposed is produced under the health regulations of either the city of Wilmington or of the State of Delaware. Milk produced under Wilmington inspection is sold throughout the area, since it is acceptable under the State ordinance for distribution throughout the State. While handlers operating only outside of the city of Wilmington under authority of the State health regulations do not hold permits to distribute in the city of Wilmington, nevertheless milk produced under each of these authorities is generally of similar quality. The separate ordinances are very similar as to provisions and the administration thereof appears comparable.

Handlers with plants located in Wilmington, who handle roughly 80 percent of the total volume of milk sold for fluid distribution in the entire marketing area as herein defined, operate extensive and intermingling routes throughout the area. There is no indication, however, that such handlers cross the State line into New Jersey, Pennsylvania, or Maryland. While, as previously indicated, certain smaller handlers both in Delaware and in Maryland do operate routes which cross the Maryland-Delaware line there appears to be no substantial outside competition which might be advantaged by the fact that these particular handlers are brought under full regulation.

While there are small segments of the marketing area herein defined which are sparsely populated and predominately rural in character, and in which little or no bottled fluid milk is presently distributed, it appears that such areas could be most economically served by the handlers who would be regulated by this order and the exclusion of such areas at this time would greatly complicate the clear delineation of the marketing area boundaries. Furthermore, in certain of such areas there are presently, indications of substantial industrial and residential development in the immediate future. This situation is particularly discernible in the extreme southern and southwesterly parts of the marketing area where a large oil company is presently conducting a substantial expansion program of its manufacturing facilities which will likely lead to considerable residential development in this area.

Handlers proposed that the marketing area include also that part of the village of St. Georges which lies on the southern side of the canal. The village of St. Georges is unincorporated and no suggestions were made at the hearing which would insure a clear delineation of area boundaries of that portion of the village south of the canal. In any event, the entire town of St. Georges, according to the 1950 census has a population of less than 350 and it is extremely unlikely that the portion south of the canal would be served by handlers other than those who would be regulated by this order. Any fluid distribution of unregulated milk that might occur there could not constitute a disruptive influence sufficient to disturb the orderly marketing of milk in the marketing area.

The marketing area as herein defined comprises a contiguous, generally populous territory, served by the same handlers. Such area is, in reality, a single milk market, all parts of which are regulated by health ordinances generally similar in scope and enforcement, and which constitutes a practical unit for the proposed regulation.

Milk to be priced. The milk to be regulated under this order should be that milk which is regularly received in a plant at which milk is pasteurized and bottled and from which milk is disposed of for fluid use to consumers in the marketing area or which is received at a plant which supplies milk to such a pasteurizing, bottling or distributing plant. The milk to be priced under the order should be that which constitutes the regular supply for the marketing area. This milk supply may be identified by providing appropriate definitions of the terms: "fluid milk plant," "non-fluid milk plant," "handler," "producer," and "producer-handler," and "other source" milk.

The minimum class prices of the order should apply to that milk which is received from dairy farmers at plants which supply fluid milk and fluid milk products for sale on retail or wholesale routes or through plant stores in the marketing area. Such plants are defined as "fluid milk plants."

Under usual circumstances dealers who distribute fluid milk products in the Wilmington marketing area receive sufficient milk direct from local dairy farmers to meet their full requirements. Accordingly, there is no need during the months of January through August, when production is greatest, to look to plant sources for supplemental supplies. While the order provisions should not be so constructed as to prevent a distributing handler from obtaining all or a part of his fluid needs from such a plant, the market should have assurance that a handler cannot gain a price advantage by such an operation. It is provided therefore that during the months of January through August any plant supplying milk to a distributing plant shall also be a fully regulated "fluid milk plant". Milk received at such supply plant should be considered a part of the regular market supply. During the short production months provision must be made to assure that a handler will have ready access to supplemental supplies if needed. Producer proponents suggested that any supply plant shipping less than one hundred thousand pounds or shipping on no more than four days during the month be exempted from regulation. Both of these figures were apparently derived from a generalization of actual experience of handlers over the past several years.

Under the individual handler-type pooling hereinafter proposed for the Wilmington market each handler pools separately and returns to his own producers a blended price based solely on his own utilization. Under these circumstances irregular supply plants may be reluctant to sell milk to the market if in so doing they bring their operations under full regulation. With supply plants fully regulated the balance of the year there is little likelihood that a handler would give up his regular supply in order to gain a possible short term advantage by use of unpriced milk during the short season when milk is generally in demand and prices are highest. It is desirable that the shipping privileges during this period be left rather liberal and it is therefore concluded that shipping on 10 or less days should be permitted during any of the months of September through December before a plant becomes fully regulated.

Handlers should have assurance that they will not be fully regulated under more than one Federal order for the same milk. It is provided, therefore, that notwithstanding the conditions established for qualifying a plant as a fluid milk plant under this order, any plant meeting such conditions which is a regulated plant under another Federal order shall not be regulated under this order. However, the operator thereof is required to make such report of receipts and utilization at such plant as the market administrator shall require and to allow verification of such reports by the market administrator.

Producer proponents excepted to this conclusion and suggested that a plant doing business under more than one marketing order should be regulated by that order under which it does the greater Class I business. The proximity of the Wilmington market in relation to the Philadelphia and New York Federal order markets would point to these markets as the likely source of any supplemental federally regulated supplies needed in the market. While certain Philadelphia handlers distribute milk from their Philadelphia producer milk plants into the Wilmington market, no Wilmington handlers have routes which extend into the Philadelphia area. The proximity of the two markets, the pricing relationship which has existed, the manner in which Philadelphia handlers have extended their businesses, and the comparative size of the two markets all point to Philadelphia as the primary market and it is concluded that any plant doing a Class I business in both markets should be regulated under the Philadelphia market.

Under the provisions of the New York order any plant which is a qualified pool plant is fully regulated under that order, irrespective of the business done in other areas. In order to assure that no plant will be subject to full regulation under two orders it is necessary to exempt from regulation under this order any plant which is fully regulated under another order.

All milk plants other than those qualifying as "fluid milk plants" shall be "nonfluid milk plants."

A definition of "handler" is necessary in order to further specify the types of processors and distributors who are to be subject to regulation. The term should be defined as any person in his capacity as the operator of one or more fluid milk plants. This definition would make the operator of a fluid milk plant(s), as previously defined, the responsible individual for reporting to the market administrator and for accounting for milk and for paying producers.

A producer-handler is included within the handler definition in order that the market administrator may require such reports as he deems necessary to check receipts and disposition of such an operation.

The Deputy Administrator in his recommended decison proposed that the handler definition be sufficiently broad to include a cooperative association, even though it might not operate a plant, with respect to producer milk diverted by it from a fluid milk plant to a nonfluid milk plant for the account of such association. He concluded that this feature would permit the cooperative association to divert milk for Class I use which might otherwise be used or disposed of by proprietary handlers in Class II and thus would promote efficient utilization of producer milk in the highest available use class. The Inter-State Milk Producers' Cooperative excepted to this conclusion and pointed out that under an individual handler type pooling each handler strives to maintain the highest possible Class I utilization and hence there was no need for the cooperative to divert milk between handlers for Class I use.

It was not intended that the cooperative association, which operates no plant, should be a handler with respect to milk which it might divert from one regulated handler to another. The handler who first receives milk from producers is held as the responsible handler for establishing classification and paying producers. Under the provision as recommended any diversion by a cooperative association for which it would be a handler would be from a fluid milk plant to a nonfluid milk plant. The provision, as recommended, would make a cooperative a handler only at such time as it actually so diverted milk for its own account. However, since the cooperative has indicated that it has not operated in this manner, does not expect to so operate, and sees no way in which the provision could help in the disposition of surplus, it is unlikely that such provision would be used to facilitate the marketing of producer milk. The handler definition accordingly is revised to exclude a cooperative association with respect to producer milk which it might divert for its own account.

The term "producer" defines the dairy farmers to whom the minimum price specified in the order must be paid. It is intended that all of those dairy farmers who regularly supply the market shall be included under this definition. Under usual circumstances producers in Federal order markets are defined on the basis of approval by the appropriate health authority of the farm facilities for the production of milk for fluid use as evidenced by the holding of current inspection permits issued by such authority. In the case of both the city of Wilmington and the State of Delaware, the record is clear that the respective health departments make regular inspections and require that the dairy farmer hold a current permit in order to ship milk to a plant distributing milk in the marketing area. In situations where the regular supply of direct receipts at such plants is insufficient to meet market needs the record is not clear whether anything other than platform inspection is necessary. Accordingly, it is not possible to identify producers on the basis of permits. Under these circumstances it is necessary, therefore, that producers be identified on the basis of deliveries from the farm on which milk is produced to a fluid milk plant as herein defined.

The producer definition should be sufficiently broad to include that milk which is diverted from a fluid milk plant to a nonfluid milk plant for the account of the diverting handler. In the case of such diversion milk shall be deemed to have been received at the fluid milk plant from which it was diverted. This provision will facilitate interplant movements of milk for the purpose of adjusting to short-time variations in supply and requirements without depriving the farmers producing the milk of their status as producers.

A "producer-handler" is defined as any person who operates both a dairy farm and a fluid milk plant from which Class I milk is disposed of in the marketing area but who receives no milk from other dairy farmers. Since a producer-handler receives no milk from producers it is unnecessary to subject such an operation to the pricing and payment provisions of the order. However, as previously indicated it is necessary that the plant operator in his status as a handler be required to make reports to the market administrator in order that his continuing status as a producer-handler can be ascertained and to facilitate accounting with respect to transfers of milk from other handlers.

Classification provisions of the proposed order should provide that any milk in the form of Class I products transferred by a handler to a producer-handler will be Class I milk. Any supplemental supplies of milk which may be obtained from other handlers, by virtue of the type of operation involved, may be presumed to be needed by the producer-handler for fluid use and should be classified in the supplying handler's plant as Class I milk. A producer-handler may receive milk from other handlers and still maintain his status as a producer-handler. Any milk which a handler receives from a producer-handler should be other source milk and would, therefore, be allocated to the lowest class utilization at the fluid milk plant(s) of a handler after the allocation of shrinkage on producer milk. Milk disposed of to another handler must be presumed to be surplus to the operation of the producer-handler and since other producers do not share in the Class I utilization of the producer-handler it would be unfair to ask such producers to share their Class I utilization with the excess milk of a producer-handler.

"Other source" milk represents skim milk and butterfat which is not subject to the pricing provisions of this order. Other source milk should be defined to include all skim milk and butterfat contained in products designated as Class I products and in fluid cream utilized by the handler in his operations, except milk received from producers and fluid cream and Class I products received from other fluid milk plants. It will include all milk products from nonfluid milk plants and all manufactured dairy products from any source which are reprocessed or converted into another product during the month. It will include those manufactured products from a plant's own production which are made and are reprocessed or converted into another product during the month.

Producers excepted to the inclusion in the other source milk definition of manufactured products made from producer milk and which are then reprocessed or converted to a Class I product. They contended that such milk should be considered as producer milk and the matter handled as a reclassification. The classification and allocation procedure hereinafter proposed gives absolute priority in Class I use to current producer receipts. It is neither practical nor reasonable to provide for reclassification in the case of producer milk which is currently manufactured into finished products, are then placed in storage and in later months, when producer receipts may be inadequate to meet Class I needs, are utilized to reconstitute or fortify Class I milk. If the milk is manufactured into finished products which are in turn reprocessed or converted to Class I milk in the same month, the classification and allocation procedure hereinafter provided would give producer milk full credit for such Class I disposition.

(b) Classification of milk. Milk and milk products received by each handler should be classified on the basis of skim milk and butterfat in accordance with the form in which, or the purpose for which, such skim milk and butterfat was used or disposed of as either Class I or Class II milk.

While it is intended that only producer milk be priced under this order, milk is actually received at a fluid milk plant not only from producers, but also from other handlers and from other sources, all of which milk is commingled in handlers' plants. It is necessary, therefore, to classify all receipts of milk in order to establish the classification of producer milk and to apply the classified price plan.

The products which are included in Class I are required by the health authorities in the marketing area to be made from milk or milk products obtained from approved sources. The extra cost of getting quality milk produced and delivered to the market in the condition and quantities required makes it necessary to provide a price for milk used in Class I products above the price for ungraded or manufacturing milk price. The higher price should be at that level which will yield a blend price to producers that will encourage production of a sufficient supply to meet market needs.

Excess milk not needed seasonally or at other times for Class I use must be disposed of in manufactured products. These products are less perishable and must be sold in competition with products made from ungraded milk. Milk so used should be classified as Class II milk and priced in accordance with its value in such outlets.

Class I milk should be all skim milk (including that used to produce concentrated milk and reconstituted skim milk) and butterfat disposed of in fluid form as milk, skim milk, buttermilk, cultured buttermilk, flavored milk, flavored milk drinks, concentrated milk, milk shake mix, and any other mixture of cream and milk or skim milk (other than ice cream, ice cream mixes, eggnog, and sterilized products in hermetically sealed containers) containing less than 18 percent butterfat and all skim milk and butterfat not accounted for as Class II milk.

All skim milk and butterfat used to produce products other than those classified in Class I milk should be Class II milk. This classification would include all of those products which are generally considered as manufactured milk products not required by the health authorities to be made from approved milk. Eggnog and fluid cream are specified exceptions, however, and are included as Class II even though the health ordinances would require that they be derived from approved milk. Eggnog can be made and sold into the marketing area by manufacturers not doing any fluid milk business in the area. The classification of this product as Class I could bring under regulation a substantial number of additional handlers who are not fluid milk distributors and whose business in the area would be of insufficient volume to represent a significant competitive factor.

The health ordinances of both the city of Wilmington and the State of Delaware contain emergency provisions which permit cream to be obtained from sources outside the routine inspection limits of the city of Wilmington. The proximity of this market to Philadelphia, a recognized open cream market, and the fact that several Philadelphia handlers do a substantial business here seem to require that for competitive reasons fluid cream be classified as Class II.

Handlers have inventories of milk and milk products at the beginning and end of each month which enter into the accounting for receipts and utilization. The accounting procedure will be facilitated by providing that end of month inventories of all Class I products be classified as Class II milk, regardless of whether such products are held in bulk or in packaged form. It is also proposed that fluid cream on hand at the end of the month be carried as a part of the inventory. Inventories of such products on hand will then be subtracted under the proposed allocation procedure from any available Class II disposition in the following month. The higher use values of any fluid cream or Class I products in inventory assigned to current producer receipts during the month and which may be allocated to Class I milk in the following month should be reflected in returns to producers. The mechanics of the attached order provide for the reclassification of inventories on that basis.

Inventories of Class I products and of fluid cream on hand at a fluid milk plant at the beginning of any month during which such plant becomes a regulated plant for the first time should likewise be allocated to any available Class II utilization of the plant during the month. This will preserve the priority of assignment of current producer receipts to current Class I use.

In the determination of shrinkage of producer milk, total shrinkage should first be prorated between receipts of producer milk and receipts of other source milk. Shrinkage of producer milk not in excess of two percent of total producer receipts should be classified as Class II and any shrinkage in excess of this quantity should be classified as Class I. None of the shrinkage should be assigned to milk received from other pool plants since shrinkage on such milk is allowed to the transferring handler. All shrinkage of other source milk should be classified as Class II. A plant which is operated in a reasonably efficient manner, and for which complete and accurate records of receipts and utilization are maintained, should have total shrinkage of no more than two percent of total receipts. However, the classification procedure herein recommended gives adequate protection in the classification of shrinkage on producer milk and it is unnecessary to limit the classification of shrinkage on other source milk in Class II.

Skim milk and butterfat are not used in most products in the same proportion as contained in the milk received from producers, and therefore, should be classified separately according to their separate uses. The skim milk and butterfat content of milk products received and disposed of by a handler can be determined through certain testing procedures. Some of these products, such as ice cream and condensed products, present a somewhat more difficult problem of accounting in that some of the water contained in the milk as originally received has been removed. It is proposed in the case of such products, that the respective volumes of skim milk and butterfat be ascertained through the use of adequate plant records made available to the market administrator or by the use of standard conversion factors of skim milk and butterfat used to produce such products. The accounting procedure to be used in the case of any concentrated product such as condensed milk or nonfat dry milk solids should be based on the pounds of milk or skim milk required to produce such product.

Butterfat and skim milk used to produce Class II products, except cream, should be considered to be disposed of when the product is made. Handlers will, of course, need to maintain inventory records on such products to facilitate audit of their utilization records by the market administrator. Fluid cream is excepted in this procedure to assure producers fullest protection in the classification of their milk. Cream may be added to products classified in Class I for the purposes of reconstituting or for increasing the butterfat content thereof. Such disposition of fluid cream is similar to that of other butterfat in Class I and producers should be assured of returns commensurate with such use value. Class II products from any source (except cream in inventory and in receipts from other fluid milk plants) used in the production of any product including products in Class I milk should be considered as a receipt of other source milk. This will maintain priority of assignment of current receipts of producer milk to Class I utilization.

Butterfat and skim milk in the form of Class I products may from time to time, because of spoilage or as a result of the handler's inability to salvage route returns, be disposed of for livestock feeding. It is provided that such disposition shall be classified in Class II if verifiable evidence of such disposition is available to the market administrator. Skim milk which a handler may, from time to time, find necessary to dump should also be classified in Class II. Such disposition, however, can be verified only by actually witnessing the action and it is therefore provided that such classification in Class II shall be allowed only when the handler has given prior notice to the market administrator of his intention to dump, so that the administrator, if he so desires, may have the dumping witnessed.

Each handler must be held responsible for a full accounting of all of his receipts of skim milk and butterfat in any form. The handler who first receives milk from producers should be held responsible for establishing the classification thereof and for making payments to producers. This principle is consistently followed in Federally regulated markets and is necessary to assure effective administration of the order.

Except in the case of shrinkage for which limited classification in Class II is provided, all skim milk and butterfat which is received and for which the handler cannot establish utilization should be classified as Class I. This provision is necessary to remove any advantage to handlers who fail to keep complete and accurate records and to assure that producers receive full value for their milk on the basis of its use. Accordingly, the burden of proof must rest on the handler to establish the utilization of any milk as other than Class I.

As previously indicated classification of butterfat and skim milk used in the production of Class II products (except cream) should be considered to have been established when the product is made. Classification of milk used to produce Class I products and fluid cream should be established when such products are actually disposed of. Classification of such products disposed of by transfer to another plant should, under certain circumstances, be determined on the basis of their utilization in the transferee plant.

Milk and skim milk in the form of any Class I product or of fluid cream transferred by a handler to the fluid milk plant of another handler, except that of a producer-handler, should be classified as Class I unless both handlers indicate in their reports to the market administrator that such classification should be Class II. However, sufficient Class II utilization must be available in the transferee plant for such agreement after the prior allocation of shrinkage, other source milk, and inventory of fluid cream and Class I products on hand at the beginning of the month. If either handler had other source milk during the month the assignment of fluid cream and Class I products so transferred during the month should be made in the manner which would allocate the greatest possible Class I utilization to the producer milk of both handlers.

As previously stated elsewhere in this decision butterfat or skim milk transferred in the form of any Class I product to a producer-handler should be classified in Class I and should not be subject to reclassification.

Milk and skim milk disposed of to a nonfluid milk plant, either by transfer or diversion, should be Class I milk, unless specified conditions are met. Utilization in Class II should be certified by both the transferor in his regular monthly report to the market administrator and by the transferee in writing to the market administrator on or before the 8th day of the month following such transaction. The operator of the nonfluid milk plant must maintain books and records showing the utilization of all skim milk and butterfat at his plant which books and records must be made available to the market administrator, if requested, for the purpose of verification and the transferee plant to which the milk was moved must have an equivalent use in Class II. Provision for verification by the market administrator is reasonable and necessary to assure that producer milk will be paid for in accordance with its utilization.

The class prices established by the order apply only to producer milk. Accordingly, since a plant may receive skim milk or butterfat from sources other than producer milk a procedure must be established whereby it may be determined what quantities in each class shall be assigned to producer milk. The milk of producers who are the regular suppliers of milk for the Wilmington market should be given priority in the assignment of Class I utilization at regulated plants. It is recognized that some supplemental milk may be needed during the short production months. When such milk is received it should be assigned to Class II milk first. Unless this procedure is followed there can be no assurance that such milk would not be used to displace producer milk in Class I when it was advantageous to the purchasing handler. If the order permitted handlers to obtain other source milk for Class I use whenever it was advantageous to do so while producer milk in the plant was utilized in Class II the order would not be effective in carrying out the purposes of the act and the market would be deprived of a dependable supply of milk. This procedure of allocation should in no way jeopardize a handler's ability or willingness to obtain other source milk if such milk is actually needed because of a shortage of regular producer milk.

Handlers excepted to the recommended decision and requested that the provisions of the Wilmington order be so drafted that producer milk under the Philadelphia order which is bottled in a Philadelphia producer milk plant, transferred to a Wilmington fluid milk plant, and disposed of as Class I milk in the Wilmington area be given first priority in the allocation of receipts to Class I milk in the Wilmington plant.

The record fails to reveal the circumstances, or manner, in which milk bottled in a Philadelphia producer milk plant might reach a Wilmington fluid milk plant for disposition as Class I milk in the marketing area. Notwithstanding, there appears no reason why milk which is fully priced under another Federal order market, and which moves as Class I milk in consumer packages from a regulated plant under such other order to a Wilmington fluid milk plant for distribution in the marketing area, should not be accorded priority allocation as Class I milk. Safeguards should be provided, however, to prevent unpriced milk from displacing regular producer milk. In this connection it is possible, under the present terms of the Philadelphia order for a handler to supplement an insufficient supply of producer milk with unregulated milk in Class I during the flush season and to obtain a pro rata allocation in Class I and Class II on all receipts from nonproducer milk plants during the short season. It is concluded therefore that only bottled receipts from another Federal order plant at which only producer milk is allocated to Class I should be given priority of assignment in Class I. This procedure will give producers assurance that their milk will not be displaced in Class I by unpriced milk, while at the same time permitting free movement of fully regulated milk between federally regulated markets.

If after making the various assignments of skim milk and butterfat pursuant to the allocation provisions of the order, the total of all Class I and Class II milk assigned to producer milk exceeds the amount of producer milk reported to have been received by the handler for whose fluid milk plant(s) the computation is being made, such "overage" should be assigned first to the available Class II utilization and any remainder to Class I. Such overage should be paid for by the handler at the applicable class prices. In the allocation procedure recognition is taken of all receipts of other source milk reported by the handler. When utilization records indicate a disposition greater than receipts it must be presumed that the handler has underreported his receipts of producer milk. This "overage" is thus charged to him at the applicable prices in the lowest available class usage.

(c) The level and method of determining class prices. The basic components of the Class I pricing formula presently contained in the Philadelphia Federal order should be incorporated into the Wilmington order as a basis for pricing milk in this market.

The normal supply area for the Wilmington market (Chester County, Pennsylvania, Cecil County, Maryland, Newcastle and Kent Counties, Delaware) is also a substantial source of supply for the adjacent Philadelphia market. To a lesser degree milk is also drawn from portions of this area for the Baltimore, Maryland, fluid market, for fluid markets in New Jersey, and to a minor extent, for the Washington, D. C., fluid market. The fact that producers for all these markets are intermingled within a common milkshed emphasizes the need for a rather delicate price alignment of Wilmington prices with competitive prices paid to producers supplying these neighboring, more substantial markets.

Over an extended period of 13 years the cooperative association, bargaining for its membership shipping to five of the primary Wilmington handlers, has maintained the Wilmington price in a general relationship to the effective Philadelphia price. The pricing which has existed has generally provided an adequate, dependable supply of milk for the Wilmington market.

The f. o. b. Wilmington plant price should be established at a level 15 cents below the f. o. b. Philadelphia order 61 plant price.

Proponents urged that a 12-cent differential be adopted, contending that this has been the historical difference which has existed in prices between the two markets. Actually Inter-State in the past has used the effective Philadelphia price as a basis of pricing milk in the Wilmington market. In every month since October 1953 this price has been the Pennsylvania State Milk Commission price. This basis of pricing has tended to narrow the differential in relation to the Philadelphia Federal order price. This has been more than offset, however, by the fact that a substantially different accounting procedure has been employed in Wilmington. The record is clear that the pricing and accounting procedure recommended by Inter-State, and generally similar to that effected by the Federal order in the Philadelphia market, would result in substantially increased milk cost variously estimated at from 10 to 17.4 cents per hundredweight.

The accounting procedure herein recommended is essentially similar to that proposed by producers and would result in some increase in costs of milk to handlers. This increase in cost is the result of a full accounting of both butterfat and skim milk and the subsequent classification in accordance with actual use.

It appears that the establishment of the Wilmington Class I price 15 cents under the Philadelphia price will maintain an appropriate alignment with the Philadelphia market and should be sufficiently high to maintain an adequate supply of local milk for the market. In the absence of complete data on utilization for all handlers it is impossible to predict exactly how average market blended prices as between Philadelphia and Wilmington would compare. In this connection both Philadelphia and the proposed Wilmington order would operate on the basis of individual handler pools and it is questionable whether such comparison would have any substantial significance. Such comparison on the basis of individual dealer blended prices paid in competing areas would be more meaningful. However, even in this case, variations in utilization would result in substantially different blends. It appears desirable to strive for a reasonable alignment of class prices and depend on differences in utilization and resulting blends to distribute milk among handlers and markets.

The Philadelphia Class I pricing formula has a supply-demand mechanism which is intended to increase or decrease, respectively, the price whenever the receipts of milk from producers during a preceding 12-month period are less than 115 percent or more than 137 percent of Class I sales in such period. However, this supply-demand adjustor has never affected the Class I price since its adoption in 1952 and its appropriateness for the Wilmington markets was not established. This supply-demand adjustor was developed to reflect conditions in the Philadelphia market and gives no weight to Wilmington conditions. While it is likely that any supply-demand adjustor for Wilmington must give recognition to the Philadelphia situation, it is desirable that localized market conditions be adequately reflected. Little consideration was given to this point at the hearing and it is concluded therefore, that a supply-demand adjustment provision should be given consideration at an amendment hearing at such time as adequate experience in the operation of the order has been realized and statistical data necessary for its proper formulation are available. At such a hearing it would be timely and appropriate to review the operation of the formula as herein provided. Provision is made therefore that the Class I pricing formula in the attached order shall not be effective beyond August 31, 1957. Such a provision will assure a reappraisal of the level of Class I price within a reasonable period after the order becomes effective.

No special pricing should be provided for Class I milk sold outside the Wilmington marketing area. Handlers proposed that milk sold by Wilmington handlers outside of the Wilmington marketing area into that part of Delaware lying south of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal be priced 25 cents below the price established for milk sold within the marketing area. Producers proposed that milk sold outside the marketing area into another regulated area where prices are ascertainable by the market administrator be priced at the price applicable in such other area.

The marketing area herein provided encompasses virtually that area proposed by Wilmington handlers, which area, the record indicates, is the natural marketing area for such handlers and that area in which they do their substantial business. Handlers stated that they do some business in the area beyond the canal in competition with milk purchased from dairy farmers at prices lower than those which have been effective for milk disposed of in the Wilmington market. They further point out that the cooperative association has recognized this situation and has in the past provided milk for this outside area at a price 25 cents below the Wilmington price.

The price effective under the Wilmington order should be established at a level which will bring forth a supply adequate to meet the demands of the marketing area but not necessarily to fulfill the requirements of outside markets at prices different from the price established for the marketing area. Milk produced for sale in the Wilmington market must meet certain sanitation and health standards and these standards apply to all producer milk regardless of where it may be sold. Inferior health and sanitation requirements in markets outside the marketing area might result in lower costs of producing milk for those markets only, but would have no effect on the production cost of producer milk sold to Wilmington handlers. The fixing of a lower price for milk sold in other markets could have a depressing effect on the price paid farmers by competing unregulated distributors in such markets.

It is not intended that Federal regulation shall provide a basis whereby regulated handlers may use adjacent outside markets as a dumping ground for milk excess to their market area needs. Such an action would tend to lower the blended returns to producers with the result that prices of milk sold within the market might have to be raised to provide incentive for the production of a sufficient supply to fulfill the market needs. In this connection, the local consumers should not be called upon to subsidize consumers in out-of-area markets.

Producer prices in other regulated markets in which Wilmington handlers may wish to sell may be either higher or lower than such prices in the Wilmington market. In establishing the level of price in a Federal order market consideration is given to prices being paid for milk in competing adjacent markets. Under usual circumstances the variations in basic prices for milk of similar quality and use in various Federal markets reflect differences in transportation costs. These basic prices may be adjusted to reflect differences in seasonality of production and the local supply-demand situation. This general alignment of prices as between orders will tend to maintain equity between handlers affected and no further provision is necessary in this regard.

Both producers and handlers took specific exception to the conclusion that no out-of-area pricing should be provided under the terms of the order. The arguments presented, however, were the same arguments presented on the record of the hearing which were fully considered and reviewed in the recommended decision. In their exceptions to this and to other issues producers contend that on points on which there is agreement between producers and handlers the Secretary has no right to invoke his individual judgment. They suggest that the marketing order program is a method of industry self regulation and that the Secretary may exercise his judgment only in cases of handler-producer disagreement which cannot be resolved. They further suggest that there is no place in the administration of the act for the development of departmental policy or standardized regulatory provisions.

The act is specific in giving to the Secretary sole authority to issue orders and to decide upon their terms and conditions. He is the sole custodian of the public interest. If his decision on the appropriate order terms were limited to only those on which handlers and producers could not agree, his delegation of authority for deciding what the terms and provisions of an order should be and of making his decision solely on the basis of the probative evidence in the hearing record would be vitiated.

Apparently, the parties rely upon the designation of the statute as the "Marketing Agreement Act" and its provision for "Marketing Agreement" as the basis for their argument that the Secretary is bound by agreements entered into by handlers and producers. But, clearly, the reference in the statute is to agreements drawn up in accordance with the standards and procedures set forth in the statute and entered into by the Secretary with handlers and others. Moreover, while the producer and handler organizations which appeared at the hearing represent a large majority of both producers and handlers in the market, they do not represent all producers and handlers.

Agreements entered into by only a part of the producers and handlers would, of course, not be binding on those who were not parties to the agreement. Provisions may be incorporated in milk marketing orders only when supported by substantial and probative evidence. Agreements among the parties is no substitute for such evidence and, consequently, the Secretary is not, and may not be, bound by such agreements.

The Class II price under the Wilmington order should be established on the same basis as is presently used in the pricing of Class II milk under the Philadelphia market.

Some milk in excess of Class I requirements is necessary in order to maintain an adequate supply of fluid milk for the market on an annual basis. The Class II price for such milk, excess to Class I needs, should be maintained at the highest level consistent with facilitating its movement to manufacturing outlets when it is not needed in the market for Class I purposes. It should not be established at a level sufficiently low to encourage handlers to procure milk supplies solely for the purpose of converting them into Class II products.

Most handlers who would be regulated under the proposed order have extremely limited facilities for handling any milk above that needed for their day-to-day fluid operations. A few handlers manufacture such by-products as cottage cheese and ice cream for their own use. However, most of the milk not needed for fluid distribution on the market must be transferred or diverted from the plant at which it is usually received to plants outside the market for processing.

The regular Class II pricing which has prevailed in the Philadelphia market has been effective in promoting the disposition of milk in excess of fluid needs during most of the year while at the same time returning to producers a competitive use value for such milk. The Philadelphia price is maintained in general alignment with the New York price and the price in surrounding areas under State regulation. Milk excess to fluid needs in the Wilmington market is disposed of to the same outlets used to handle the Philadelphia surplus or to outlets competitive therewith. For this reason the Philadelphia regular Class II pricing appears equally appropriate for Wilmington and it would be inappropriate to price such milk f. o. b. Wilmington at a price lower than the f. o. b. Philadelphia price.

Proponents proposed that a special surplus season pricing be provided for all Class II milk which is disposed of other than through the fluid milk plants of regulated handlers. They contend that because local manufacturing facilities are so limited it has been necessary in the past that this milk be priced through bargaining between the cooperative and the individual dealers. Such prices have been at or below the special sub-Class II price which has been part of the Philadelphia order from time to time.

It is unnecessary to price milk utilized in the plants of regulated handlers differently from milk disposed of for similar uses by diversion or transfer to other plants. Under usual circumstances the regular Class II pricing herein provided should permit full disposition of all milk excess to Class I needs. This Class II pricing is established on the basis of competitive market values of skim milk and butterfat for manufacturing uses and it is difficult to foresee why quality milk produced for a Grade A fluid market should not command at least the price for ungraded milk for manufacturing uses. It is, therefore, concluded that no special surplus pricing need be established under the Wilmington order on the basis of this record.

Proponents proposed that handlers be required to pay premiums for milk received as "premium Grade A." Both the Wilmington and Delaware State health regulations require that such milk meet the same production standards as regular Grade A except with reference to maximum bacteria count, temperature, and butterfat requirements. The record indicates that handlers have paid premiums of from 20 to 40 cents per hundredweight for premium milk, but only on such volumes as were needed to meet market demands for such milk. Roughly 90 percent of all of the milk in the market is received as regular Grade A. The total volume of "premium Grade A" milk thus represents only a very small proportion of total producer receipts. The establishment of quality premiums under the order would create serious administrative difficulties for the market administrator in ascertaining producer eligibility in and satisfying himself that the premiums were properly paid to eligible producers. Quality premiums were not an issue in the breakdown of bargaining between producers and handlers. The payment of such premiums appears to be a problem which can more properly be handled outside the order by negotiations between the cooperative and the handlers.

The pricing scheme herein proposed for the Wilmington market is intended to bring forth an adequate, but not excessive, supply of pure and wholesome milk for the market. The accounting on the basis of skim milk and butterfat, the basic class prices and the butterfat differentials proposed herein give producers assurance of returns commensurate with the use value for their milk. The prices under Federal regulation are minimum prices and there is nothing to preclude handlers from paying higher prices if they so desire. It is therefore concluded that no provision requiring payment of quality premiums is necessary under the Wilmington order.

Since skim milk and butterfat are being accounted for separately for classification purposes it is necessary to adjust the Class I and Class II prices of milk in accordance with the average test of milk in each class by appropriate differentials which will reflect variations in value due to variations in butterfat content. The Deputy Administrator in his decision concluded that a uniform differential should apply for both Class I and Class II and set forth in detail his reasoning in reaching this conclusion. Producers and handlers excepted to this conclusion and stated that intermarket relationships require the same differential apply under both the Philadelphia and Wilmington orders. They point out that the two markets have historically maintained similar differentials and unless this relationship is preserved price distortion will result.

Although historical practices and market custom do not necessarily justify continuation of such relationship under Federal regulation, on further review of the record in light of the filed exceptions, it appears undesirable at this time to disturb the intermarket relationship which has existed in the application of the butterfat differential. It is concluded therefore, that a Class I butterfat differential of five cents should apply to all Class I milk with a butterfat test of from three to six percent. On all Class I milk testing less than three percent and in excess of six percent and on all Class II milk the butterfat differential should be computed on the basis of the butterfat value determined in the computation of the Class II price.

The Deputy Administrator in his recommended decision also concluded that the basic pricing in the Wilmington market should be on the basis of 3.8 percent butterfat content which he indicated was the approximate test at which all regular Grade A milk from producers is received. He further pointed out that there has been a continuing steady decline in this test from earlier years when the average test of producer receipts was approximately four percent, and the average test of Class I milk disposed of by Wilmington handlers was 3.6 percent. Exception was taken to the decision on the premise that the interrelationship of the Wilmington and Philadelphia markets required the pricing of milk at the same basic test and that serious difficulties would be created if the two markets were priced at different basic tests.

While the record generally supports the pricing of milk in the Wilmington market on a 3.8 percent basis, it appears on further review of such record that substantial confusion might be created at this time if the basic test, as established was different than that used in pricing in the Philadelphia market. Accordingly, it is concluded that milk should be priced on the basis of 4.0 percent basic test at this time to conform with the current practice under the Philadelphia order. The Class I pricing schedule set forth in § 1010.50 (a) (6) has been adjusted to reflect prices on a 4.0 percent butterfat basis.

Location differentials should be established for milk received at fluid milk plants located a substantial distance from the marketing area. Such differentials recognize the principle that milk similarly used and located should be similarly priced. Milk which originates nearest the market should command a higher price than milk more distantly located in order to reflect the differences in cost of transporting it to the marketing area. No advantage can be accorded any particular group of producers if the location differentials established realistically reflect only differences in transportation cost.

Since there are presently no receiving stations in the market no consideration need be given to differentials for plants within the radius from which milk should normally move direct from farm to city plant. Accordingly, it is concluded that no differential should be established on Class I milk received at plants located within a 45-mile radius of Wilmington. In the case of plants located 45 miles from the Wilmington City Hall it is concluded that a differential on Class I milk of 20 cents plus one cent for each additional 10 miles distance, or fraction thereof, which such plant is located from Wilmington should be appropriate. Under this scheme a plant located 46 miles from Wilmington would carry a 21-cent differential and one located 75 miles away would carry a 23-cent differential. Such differential will tend to equalize prices between Wilmington and Philadelphia plants at competing points.

Milk may be received at a fluid milk bottling plant direct from producers as well as from one or more receiving plants. Under such circumstances it is necessary to designate an assignment sequence which will protect producers from unnecessary transportation costs involving transfers for other than Class I uses. It is provided, therefore, that for purposes of computing allowable Class I location differentials, the Class I disposition from a fluid milk pasteurizing or bottling plant shall first be assigned to direct producer receipts and any remaining Class I use shall be assigned to receipts from other fluid milk plants in order of their nearness to Wilmington.

It is uneconomic to transport milk for considerable distances for disposition as Class II milk. The location differential established should encourage the processing of milk into Class II products at the source of such milk. Producers supplying milk for the fluid market should not be required to bear the cost of transporting whole milk to city plants for manufacture. In order to assure the most economical movements of milk the location differentials established should encourage the movement of nearby milk to the fluid market first. For these reasons it is concluded that differentials on Class II milk should not be established for plants within 70 miles of Wilmington. In the case of plants located beyond this point a differential of five cents per hundredweight plus one cent for each additional 70-mile distance or fraction thereof from Wilmington should apply. Such differential should reflect the cost of moving milk in the form of cream and skim milk powder and will promote continued price alignment between Philadelphia and Wilmington receiving plants located substantial distances from the market.

The pricing provisions herein proposed utilize a number of reported prices and indexes from various specified sources. From time to time it is possible that such individual price(s) or index may not be reported or published. Under such circumstances it is necessary to provide that the market administrator shall use a price or index determined by the Secretary to be equivalent to or comparable with the unreported or unpublished factor or price.

(d) Distribution of the proceeds to producers. The order should provide for the distribution of returns to producers on the basis of an individual-handler type of pooling. Under individual-handler pooling each handler's obligations are the same as under a marketwide type of pooling. Each handler must pay for all milk received from producers at the specified class prices in accordance with the actual utilization of such milk in his plant(s). All producers delivering milk to a particular handler are paid the blended price resulting from such handler's utilization instead of being paid a blended price equal to the average utilization of all handlers in the market. The order provisions are written to require in the case of a handler operating more than one fluid milk plant, the operation of a single pool for all producers delivering to his several plants.

Both producers and handlers favor individual-handler pools on the basis that this has been the manner in which the market historically has operated. The Wilmington market is a small market and the individual handlers operating therein have generally relied upon their own initiative in soliciting supplies when needed, or of disposing of milk excess to fluid needs. The surplus handling facilities in the market are virtually nonexistent and consequently no handler is in a position to assume large responsibility for surplus disposal for the market. The utilization of all handlers is very high and accordingly there has been no wide disparity in returns to producers. Under these circumstances it is concluded that an individual-handler type of pooling, as urged by both producers and handlers, will satisfactorily serve the market at this time.

The order should provide that each handler pay each producer for milk received from such producer, and for which payment is not made to a cooperative association, at not less than his uniform price on or before the 15th day after the end of each month. Since it is the practice in the market to pay producers semi-monthly, provision should be made for a partial payment to such producers on or before the last day of each month, for milk delivered during the first 15 days of such month. Such payment shall be at the handler's estimate of his uniform price per hundredweight for such month but in no case less than the Class II price for the preceding month. No adjustment in butterfat is required on such partial payment.

The Deputy Administrator concluded that the initial partial payment should be at not less than the Class II price for the previous month. Producers excepted to this conclusion pointing out that historically handlers have made payments on their estimates of their uniform prices and producers should have assurance of as prompt payment as possible for all of their milk. They further point out that the difference between the handlers' uniform prices and the Class II price represents a very substantial sum for the market as a whole, and they indicate that any delay in distribution of such monies could be of serious consequence to the producers.

Under the procedure set forth in the recommended decision the handler would be required to make a payment on or before the last day of the month, for milk received during the first 15 days of such month, at not less than the Class II price per hundredweight for the previous month. The wording suggested by the cooperative and herein adopted will make no basic change in this regard. As pointed out in the recommended decision the responsibility for making the estimate of the uniform price is that of the handler and the market administrator has no basis for enforcement in event the handler underestimates his blend to his own advantage. However, it is desirable that producers be paid in full as promptly as possible for milk delivered and to the extent that the wording herein recommended will facilitate this action it will tend to promote general market stability. The order provides that for the first month of operation the advance payment cannot be less than the minimum Class II price reported for the previous month under the Philadelphia order.

Producers further proposed that the final payment be made on the 20th day of the following month. Under the method of determining class prices herein proposed handlers will have ample time to make reports, process checks and make final payment by the 15th of the following month. All reporting and announcement dates herein provided are directed to this end. Under this schedule the handlers actually retain monies due producers for a full 30 days in the case of deliveries made on the 1st and 16th of the month and in any event for a minimum of 15 days in the case of deliveries made on the 15th and the 30th of the month. Under the individual-handler type pooling arrangement a handler's blended price is dependent solely on his own utilization and the market administrator is in a position to compute and announce his blended price within a short time after receipt of a handler's utilization report. Under the circumstances a delay in final payment until the 20th day after the end of the month is unnecessary.

In the event a handler has received milk from any producer which has an average butterfat content of more or less than 4.0 percent it is provided that there shall be added or subtracted, as the case may be, for each one-tenth of one percent that such average butterfat content is above or below such test, a differential which reflects the average of the return actually received from the sale of butterfat in producer milk. The rate to be used for this purpose would be determined by weighting each of the several differentials applicable to Class I milk and the Class II differential by the respective percentage of total butterfat in producer milk classified in such class or subclass and computing an average thereof. The use of this average differential will give producers assurance that they are being paid for their milk on the basis of its actual sales volume at the price provided in the order. The use of any different differential would tend to distort the skim milk and butterfat values and would not distribute returns among producers equitably.

In making payments to producers for milk received at plants located at least 45 miles from the City Hall at Wilmington the applicable uniform price should be reduced 20 cents plus one cent for each additional 10 miles distance or fraction thereof which such plant is located from the City Hall at Wilmington. Such a location differential will reflect cost of hauling milk to market by an efficient means and should tend to distribute returns to producers fairly.

In the case of producer milk which is caused to be delivered to a handler by a cooperative association for the account of such association the order should provide that payment for such milk be made to such association. The contract of the cooperative association with its members authorizes it to collect payment for their milk and this is the general practice in the market. The act provides for payments by handlers to a cooperative association of producers for milk delivered by them and it is concluded therefore, that each handler should, if requested in writing by a cooperative association, pay such association an amount equal to the sum of the individual payments otherwise payable to such producers.

Provision should also be made for the handler, if authorized in writing by the producer, to make proper deductions for goods or services furnished to or for payments made on behalf of the producer.

(e) Administrative provisions. The marketing agreement and order should provide for other general administrative provisions which are common to all orders and which are necessary for proper and efficient administration of the order.

Both handlers and producers proposed that the order be drafted in general language giving the market administrator wide discretion in the administration of the order. Experience under Federal milk orders has demonstrated the necessity of drafting the orders in detailed and specific terms which require a minimum of administrative interpretation and which give all handlers regulated thereunder assurance of equal and uniform treatment under specified circumstances.

In addition to the definitions discussed earlier in this decision which define the scope of regulation, definition of certain other terms is necessary for brevity and to assure that each usage of such terms denotes the same meaning. These include the terms "act," "Secretary," "Department of Agriculture," and "person" which are generally common to all Federal milk orders.

Provision should be made for the appointment by the Secretary of a market administrator, and should define his powers and duties, prescribe the information to be reported by handlers each month, set forth the rules to be followed by the market administrator in making computations required by the order, and provide for liquidation of the order in the event of its suspension or termination.

The powers of the market administrator as set forth in the order are specifically provided for in section 8c (7) (C) of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and the proposed language is essentially that of the statutory language. The duties of the market administrator as set forth are essentially those which are found in all Federal milk marketing orders and are necessary to define specifically the responsibility of the market administrator.

Producers excepted to the recommended decision, and stated that the market adminstrator should be required, as one of his regular duties, to announce each month the names and locations of all nonfluid milk plants from which other source milk was received during the month. They point out that such information is valuable to the market in that it may facilitate placement of producer milk and aid in the drafting of possible future amendments to the order.

Knowledge of the movements of other source milk into the market may assist producers in the placement of their milk. However, because of the small size of the Wilmington market and the relatively small number of handlers involved it is possible that in many instances the announcement of the originating plants supplying other source milk might violate the regulations prohibiting the revealing of confidential information by disclosing the operation of individual handlers. Accordingly, it is provided that as one of his duties the market administrator shall make such announcement of the sources of other source receipts as do not disclose confidential information regarding the operation of individual handlers.

Handlers should be required to maintain adequate records of their operations and to make reports necessary to establish classification of producer milk and the payments due therefor. Time limits must be provided for filing such reports and for making the payments to producers.

Handlers should maintain and make available to the market administrator all records and accounts of their operations together with facilities which are necessary to determine the accuracy of information reported to the market administrator or any other information upon which the classification of producer milk depends. The market administrator must likewise be permitted to check the accuracy of weights and tests of milk and milk products received and handled, and to verify all payments required under the order.

In addition to the regular reports required of handlers, provision is made for a handler to notify the market administrator when he intends to import other source milk and when he discontinues receipt of such milk, and when milk is first received from any producer. Such information is necessary to enable the market administrator to keep current check on all producers. Such information on a marketwide basis also may assist handlers in locating local sources of producer milk and may facilitate the transfer of milk among producers.

It is necessary that handlers retain records to prove utilization of all milk and that proper payments were made to producers. Since books and records of all handlers cannot be audited immediately after the milk is delivered to a plant it is necessary that the handler be required to retain such records for a reasonable time.

The order should provide limitations in the period of time handlers shall be required to retain such books and records and on the period of time in which obligations under the order shall terminate. Provision made in this regard is identical in principle with the general amendment made to all milk orders in operation on July 30, 1947, following the Secretary's decision of January 26, 1949 (14 F. R. 444). That decision covering retention of records and limitation of obligations is equally applicable in this situation and official notice thereof has been taken in the preparation of this decision.

Each handler should be required to pay the market administrator, as his pro rata share of the cost of administering the order, not more than five cents per hundredweight, or such lesser amount as the Secretary may from time to time prescribe, on (a) all receipts of producer milk (including such handler's own production) and (b) other source milk in his fluid milk plant(s) which is classified as Class I milk.

The market administrator must have sufficient funds to enable him to administer properly the terms of the order. The act provides that such cost of administration shall be financed through an assessment on handlers. One of the duties of the market administrator is to verify the receipts and disposition of all milk. The record indicates that at certain times of the year other source milk may be necessary to supplement local producer supplies of milk. Equity in sharing the cost of administration of the order among handlers will be achieved therefore, by applying the administrative assessment to all producer milk and to other source milk allocated to Class I.

Proponents suggested an administrative assessment of two cents per hundredweight on the basis of experience under the Philadelphia order. The volume of milk which would be regulated under the Wilmington order is roughly only five percent of that regulated under the Philadelphia order and accordingly it would be inappropriate to establish an assessment rate under this order on the basis of the Philadelphia rate. Experience under the Federal order program indicates that in a small market like Wilmington a rate of five cents per hundredweight may be necessary to provide the needed administrative funds.

It is contemplated that in the administration of the order the market administrator will do such checking of tests and weights of producer receipts as is necessary to assure himself that producers are receiving full use value for all milk delivered. It is also contemplated that the administrator will do such testing of finished products as is necessary to assure himself that handlers are accurately reporting disposition of skim milk and butterfat received. In addition the administrator should compile and release, for the benefit of producers, handlers and consumers, such market information as is not confidential, and which will facilitate the orderly and efficient production and marketing of milk in the market. These functions are all properly a part of the administration of the order and sufficient administrative funds must be provided to permit their execution.

The rate herein established is a maximum-rate and in no way deters the setting of a lesser rate if the Secretary later determines that a lesser rate will suffice.

General findings. (a) The proposed marketing agreement and order and all of the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(b) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply of and demand for milk in the marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and order are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(c) The proposed order will regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as, and will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Order of the Secretary directing that a referendum be conducted; determination of representative period; and designation of agent to conduct such referendum. Pursuant to section 8c (19) of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 608c (19)), it is hereby directed that a referendum be conducted among producers (as defined in the proposed order regulating the handling of milk in Wilmington marketing area) who, during the determined representative period were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the marketing area specified in the aforesaid order, to determine whether such producers favor the issuance of the order which is a part of this decision.

The month of January 1956 is hereby designated to be the representative period for the conduct of such referendum.

Andrew T. Radigan is hereby designated agent of the Secretary to conduct such referendum in accordance with the procedure for the conduct of referenda to determine producer approval of milk marketing orders as published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on August 10, 1950 (15 F. R. 5177), such referendum to be completed on or before the 25th day from the date this referendum order is issued.

Marketing agreement and order. Annexed hereto and made a part hereof are two documents entitled, respectively, "Marketing Agreement Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Wilmington, Delaware, Marketing Area," and "Order Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Wilmington, Delaware, Marketing Area," which have been decided upon as the detailed and appropriate means of effectuating the foregoing conclusions. These documents shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and orders have been met.

It is hereby ordered, That all of this decision except the attached marketing agreement be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The regulatory provisions of said marketing agreement are identical with those contained in the order which will be published with this decision.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 11th day of April 1956.

§ 1010.0 Findings and determinations—(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held upon a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed order regulating the handling of milk in the Wilmington, Delaware, marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect

[1] This order shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and orders have been met.

market supply and demand for milk in the marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the order are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest;

(3) The said order regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held;

(4) All milk and milk products handled by handlers, as defined in this order, are in the current of interstate commerce or directly burden, obstruct or affect interstate commerce in milk or its products; and

(5) It is hereby found that the necessary expense of the market administrator for the maintenance and functioning of such agency will require the payment by each handler, as his pro rata share of such expense, five cents per hundredweight or such amount not exceeding five cents per hundredweight, as the Secretary may prescribe with respect to all: (a) receipts of producer milk including such handler's own production, and (b) other source milk at a fluid milk plant which is classified as Class I milk.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered, that on and after the effective date hereof the handling of milk in the Wilmington, Delaware, marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the following terms and conditions:

DEFINITIONS

§ 1010.1 Act. "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.).

§ 1010.2 Secretary. "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture or any officer or employee of the United States authorized to exercise the powers and to perform the duties of the Secretary of Agriculture.

§ 1010.3 Department of Agriculture. "Department of Agriculture" means the United States Department of Agriculture or any other Federal agency as may be authorized by Act of Congress, or by Executive order, to perform the price reporting functions of the United States Department of Agriculture.

§ 1010.4 Person. "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other business unit.

§ 1010.5 Wilmington, Delaware, milk marketing area. "Wilmington, Delaware, Marketing Area," hereinafter called "the marketing area," means all of that territory situated within and bounded on the north, east and west by the boundary line of the State of Delaware, and on the south by the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal, all of which area lies within New Castle County, Delaware.

§ 1010.6 Cooperative association. "Cooperative association" means any cooperative marketing association of producers which the Secretary determines, after application by the association:

(a) To be qualified under the provisions of the act of Congress of February 18, 1922, as amended, known as the "Capper-Volstead Act"; and

(b) To have full authority in the sale of milk of its members and to be engaged in making collective sales of or marketing milk or its products for its members.

§ 1010.7 Fluid milk plant. "Fluid milk plant" means (a) any pasteurizing or bottling plant from which milk is disposed of during the month as Class I milk in the marketing area on routes (including routes operated by vendors) or through plant stores to retail or wholesale outlets (except other fluid milk plants); (b) any plant during the months of January through August, from which shipments of Grade A milk or skim milk classified as Class I milk, are made during the month to a plant qualified pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, and (c) any plant during the months of September through December from which shipments of Grade A milk or skim milk, classified as Class I, are made on more than ten days during the month to a plant qualified pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section.

§ 1010.8 Nonfluid milk plant. "Nonfluid milk plant" means any milk manufacturing, processing or bottling plant other than a fluid milk plant.

§ 1010.9 Handler. "Handler" means any person in his capacity as the operator of one or more fluid milk plants.

§ 1010.10 Producer. "Producer" means any person, except a producer-handler, who produces milk which is received at a fluid milk plant: Provided, That if such milk is diverted for his account by a handler from a fluid milk plant to a nonfluid milk plant it shall be deemed to have been received by the diverting handler at a fluid milk plant at the location of the plant from which it was diverted.

§ 1010.11 Producer milk. "Producer milk" means only that skim milk or butterfat contained in milk (a) received at a fluid milk plant directly from producers, or (b) diverted from a fluid milk plant to a nonfluid milk plant in accordance with the conditions set forth in § 1010.10.

§ 1010.12 Other source milk. "Other source milk" means all skim milk and butterfat contained in:

(a) Receipts during the month in the form of fluid cream and of products designated as Class I milk pursuant to § 1010.41 (a) (1) except such products received from another fluid milk plant (other than that of a producer-handler), or as producer milk; and

(b) Products designated as Class II milk pursuant to § 1010.41 (b) (1) (other than fluid cream as provided in subparagraph (a) of this paragraph) from any source (including those from a plant's own production) which are reprocessed or converted to another product during the month.

§ 1010.13 Producer-handler. "Producer-handler" means any person who operates both a dairy farm and fluid milk plant from which Class I milk is disposed of in the marketing area, but who receives no milk from other dairy farmers.

MARKET ADMINISTRATOR

§ 1010.20 Designation. The agency for the administration of this part shall be a market administrator, selected by the Secretary, who shall be entitled to such compensation as may be determined by, and shall be subject to removal at the discretion of, the Secretary.

§ 1010.21 Powers. The market administrator shall have the following powers with respect to this order:

(a) To administer its terms and provisions;

(b) To receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary complaints of violations;

(c) To make rules and regulations to effectuate its terms and provisions; and

(d) To recommend amendments to the Secretary.

§ 1010.22 Duties. The market administrator shall perform all duties necessary to administer the terms and provisions of this order, including but not limited to the following:

(a) Within 45 days following the date on which he enters upon his duties, or such lesser period as may be prescribed by the Secretary, execute and deliver to the Secretary a bond, effective as of the date on which he enters upon his duties and conditioned upon the faithful performance of such duties, in an amount and with surety thereon satisfactory to the Secretary;

(b) Employ and fix the compensation of such persons as may be necessary to enable him to administer its terms and provisions;

(c) Obtain a bond in a reasonable amount, and with reasonable surety thereon, covering each employee who handles funds entrusted to the market administrator;

(d) Pay, out of the funds provided by § 1010.84, (1) the cost of his bond and of the bonds of his employees, (2) his own compensation, and (3) all other expenses necessarily incurred by him in the maintenance and functioning of his office and in the performance of his duties;

(e) Keep such books and records as will clearly reflect the transactions provided for in this part, and, upon request by the Secretary, surrender the same to his successor or to such other person as the Secretary may designate;

(f) Publicly disclose to handlers and producers, at his discretion, the name of any person who, within five days after the day upon which he is required to perform such acts, has not made (1) reports pursuant to §§ 1010.30 and 1010.31, or (2) payments pursuant to §§ 1010.80 through 1010.84;

(g) Submit his books and records to examination by the Secretary, and furnish such information and reports as may be required by the Secretary;

(h) Prepare and make available for the benefit of producers, consumers, and handlers, general statistics and information concerning the operation of this part;

(i) Verify all reports and payments by each handler by audit, if necessary, of such handler's records and the records of any other handler or person upon whose utilization the classification of skim milk and butterfat for such handler depends;

(j) On or before the date specified, publicly announce by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate the following: (1) The 8th day of each month, the Class II price and the handler butterfat differential, both for the preceding month; (2) the 15th day of the month preceding the start of each calendar quarter, the Class I price for such calendar quarter; and (3) the 12th day after the end of each month, the uniform price for each handler, computed pursuant to § 1010.71 and the producer butterfat differential both for the preceding month; and

(k) Publicly announce each month such information regarding the names and plant locations of all plants applying other source milk to the market as does not reveal confidential information on the operations of individual handlers.

REPORTS, RECORDS AND FACILITIES

§ 1010.30 Reports of receipts and utilization. On or before the 8th day after the end of each month each handler, except a producer-handler, shall report for each of his fluid milk plants for such month to the market administrator in the detail and on forms prescribed by the market administrator;

(a) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in receipts of producer milk (including such handler's own production);

(b) The quantites of skim milk and butterfat contained in receipts from other fluid milk plants in the form of fluid cream and products designated as Class I in § 1010.41 (a) (1);

(c) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in receipts of other source milk;

(d) Inventories of fluid cream and products designated as Class I milk pursuant to § 1010.41 (a) (1) on hand at the beginning and end of the month; and

(e) The utilization of all skim milk and butterfat required to be reported pursuant to this section.

§ 1010.31 Other reports. (a) Each producer-handler shall make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may request.

(b) Each handler, except a producer-handler, shall report to the market administrator, in the detail and on forms prescribed by the market administrator, as follows:

(1) On or before the 20th day after the end of the month for each of his fluid milk plants his producer payroll for such month which shall show for each producer: (i) His name and address, (ii) the total pounds of milk received from such producer, (iii) the average butterfat content of such milk, and (iv) the net amount of such handler's payment, together with the price paid and the amount and nature of any deductions;

(2) On or before the first day other source milk is received in the form of milk or fluid skim milk, at his fluid milk plant(s), his intention to receive such product, and on or before the last day such product is received, his intention to discontinue receipt of such milk;

(3) Such other information with respect to the receipts and utilization of butterfat and skim milk as the market administrator may prescribe; and

(4) Promptly after milk is first received from any producer, (a) the name and address of such producer, (b) the date upon which such milk was first received, and (c) the plant at which such milk was received.

§ 1010.32 Records and facilities. Each handler shall maintain and make available to the market administrator during the usual hours of business such accounts and records of his operations, together with such facilities as are necessary for the market administrator to verify or establish the correct data for each month with respect to:

(a) The receipt and utilization of all skim milk and butterfat handled in any form;

(b) The weights and butterfat and other content of all milk, skim milk, cream, and other milk products handled;

(c) The pounds of skim milk and butterfat contained in or represented by all milk, skim milk, cream, and milk products on hand at the beginning and end of each month; and

(d) Payments to producers, including any deductions authorized by producers, and disbursement of money so deducted.

§ 1010.33 Retention of records. All books and records required under this part to be made available to the market administrator shall be retained by the handler for a period of three years to begin at the end of the month to which such books and records pertain: Provided, That if within such three-year period the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that the retention of such books and records, or of specified books and records, is necessary in connection with a proceeding under section 8c (15) (A) of the act or a court action specified in such notice, the handler shall retain such books and records, or specified books and records, until further written notification from the market administrator. In either case the market administrator shall give further written notification to the handler promptly upon the termination of the litigation, or when the records are no longer necessary in connection therewith.

CLASSIFICATION

§ 1010.40 Skim milk and butterfat to be classified. All skim milk and butterfat received within the month at fluid milk plants and which is required to be reported pursuant to § 1010.30 shall be classified by the market administrator pursuant to the provisions of §§1010.41 through 1010.46.

§ 1010.41 Classes of utilization. Subject to the conditions set forth in §§ 1010.43 and 1010.44, the classes of utilization shall be as follows:

(a) Class I milk. Class I milk shall be all skim milk (including that used to produce concentrated and reconstituted or fortified skim milk) and butterfat (1) disposed of in fluid form as milk, skim milk, buttermilk, cultured buttermilk, flavored milk, flavored milk drinks, concentrated milk, milk shake mix, and any other mixture of cream and milk or skim milk (other than ice cream, ice cream mixes, eggnog, and sterilized products in hermetically sealed containers) containing less than 18 percent butterfat; and (2) not accounted for as Class II milk.

(b) Class II milk. Class II milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat (1) used to produce any product other than those designated as Class I milk pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section; (2) disposed of for livestock feed; (3) contained in skim milk dumped, provided the market administrator is notified in advance and given opportunity to verify such dumping; (4) contained in inventory of fluid cream and of products designated as Class I milk pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section on hand at the end of the month; (5) in actual plant shrinkage not to exceed two percent of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in producer milk; and (6) in shrinkage of other source milk.

§ 1010.42 Shrinkage. The market administrator shall allocate shrinkage at the fluid milk plant(s) of each handler as follows:

(a) Compute the shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat;

(b) Allocate the resulting amounts pro rata to the handler's receipts of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in producer milk and in other source milk.

§ 1010.43 Responsibility of handlers and reclassification of milk. (a) All skim milk and butterfat shall be Class I milk unless the handler who first receives such skim milk or butterfat proves to the market administrator that such skim milk or butterfat should be classified otherwise.

(b) Any skim milk or butterfat shall be reclassified if verification by the market administrator discloses that the original classification was incorrect.

§ 1010.44 Transfers. Skim milk or butterfat disposed of each month from a fluid milk plant shall be classified:

(a) As Class I milk if transferred in the form of fluid cream or products designated as Class I milk in § 1010.41 (a) (1) to a fluid milk plant of another handler, except a producer-handler, unless utilization as Class II milk is claimed by both handlers in their reports submitted for the month to the market administrator pursuant to § 1010.30: Provided, That the skim milk or butterfat so assigned to Class II milk shall be limited to the amount thereof remaining in Class II milk in the plant of the transferee-handler after the subtraction of inventory pursuant to § 1010.46, and any additional amounts of such skim milk or butterfat shall be assigned to Class I milk: And provided further, That if either or both handlers have recieved other source milk, the skim milk or butterfat so transferred shall be classified at both plants so as to allocate the greatest possible Class I milk utilization to the producer milk of both handlers;

(b) As Class I milk if transferred to a producer-handler in the form of products designated as Class I milk in § 1010.41 (a) (1);

(c) As Class I milk if transferred or diverted in bulk form as milk or skim milk to a nonfluid plant unless:

(1) The handler claims Class II on the basis of utilization mutually indicated in writing to the market administrator by both buyer and seller on or before the 8th day after the end of the month within which such transaction occurred;

(2) The buyer maintains books and records showing the utilization of all skim milk and butterfat at his plant which are made available, if requested by the market administrator for the purpose of verification; and

(3) Not less than an equivalent amount of skim milk and butterfat was actually used as Class II milk in such buyer's plant.

§ 1010.45 Computation of skim milk and butterfat in each class. For each month, the market administrator shall correct for mathematical and other obvious errors the reports of each handler submitted pursuant to § 1010.30 and compute the total pounds of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in Class I milk and Class II milk in the fluid milk plant(s) of such handler.

§ 1010.46 Allocation of skim milk and butterfat classified. After making the computations pursuant to § 1010.45 the market administrator shall determine the classification of producer milk for each handler as follows:

(a) Skim milk shall be allocated in the following manner:

(1) Subtract from the total pounds of skim milk in Class II milk the pounds of skim milk in producer milk classified pursuant to § 1010.41 (b) (5);

(2) Subtract from the pounds of skim milk in Class I milk the pounds of skim milk contained in milk and milk products specified in § 1010.41 (a) received in consumer packages from a regulated plant under another order issued by the Secretary at which plant only producer milk was allocated to Class I milk;

(3) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II milk the pounds of skim milk in other source milk: Provided, That if the pounds of skim milk in other source milk are greater than the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II milk, an amount equal to the excess shall be subtracted from the pounds of skim milk in Class I milk;

(4) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II milk the pounds of skim milk contained in inventory of fluid cream and Class I products on hand at the beginning of the month: Provided, That if the pounds of skim milk in such inventory are greater than the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II milk, an amount equal to the difference shall be subtracted from the pounds of skim milk in Class I milk;

(5) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in each class the pounds of skim milk received from the fluid milk plants of other handlers in the form of fluid cream and products designated as Class I milk in § 1010.41 (a) (1) according to the classification thereof as determined pursuant to § 1010.44 (a);

(6) Add to the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II milk the pounds of skim milk subtracted pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph; and

(7) If the remaining pounds of skim milk in both classes exceed the pounds of skim milk contained in producer milk, subtract such excess from the remaining pounds of skim milk in series beginning with Class II milk. Any amount so subtracted shall be known as "overage".

(b) Butterfat shall be allocated in accordance with the same procedure outlined for skim milk in paragraph (a) of this section; and

(c) Add the pounds of skim milk and the pounds of butterfat allocated to producer milk in each class, pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, and determine the weighted average butterfat content of each class.

MINIMUM PRICES

§ 1010.50 Class prices. Subject to the provisions of § 1010.51 and § 1010.52 each handler shall pay, at the time and in the manner set forth in § 1010.80 for each hundredweight of milk containing 4.0 percent of butterfat received at his fluid milk plant(s) during the month from producers or a cooperative association, not less than the following prices:

(a) Class I milk. For each month from the effective date of this order through August 1957 the price per hundredweight of Class I milk shall be the price computed pursuant to subparagraphs 1 through 6 of this paragraph:

(1) Compute an index of wholesale commodity prices by averaging the four latest weekly index figures of wholesale commodity prices published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, United States Department of Labor, and convert the result to a 1936–1940 base period by dividing by 0.5108.

(2) Compute an index of prices paid by Pennsylvania farmers per hundredweight for 20 percent protein mixed dairy feed, using a 1936–1940 base period, by dividing by 0.01776 the monthly price for such feed published by the Pennsylvania Federal-State Crop Reporting Service.

(3) Compute an index of prices received by Pennsylvania farmers for farm products except dairy, in a 1936–1940 base period, by dividing the monthly index published by the Pennsylvania Federal-State Crop Reporting Service on a 1910–1914 base by 1.0915, and adjust the result for seasonal variation by dividing by the applicable figure indicated below for each month:

|---|---|
| January, February, March | 0.96 |
| April, May, June | 1.00 |
| July, August, September | 1.04 |
| October, November, December | 1.00 |

(4) Compute an index of prices paid for milk by 13 Midwest condenseries, using a 1936–40 base period, by dividing by 0.013945 the monthly average price paid by 13 Midwest condenseries as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture, and adjust the result for seasonal variation by dividing by the applicable figure indicated below for each month:

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| January | 1.02 | July | 0.97 |
| February | 1.02 | August | 1.00 |
| March | 1.01 | September | 1.00 |
| April | 0.99 | October | 1.00 |
| May | 0.98 | November | 1.02 |
| June | 0.96 | December | 1.03 |

(5) Compute an index of average daily pounds of Class I milk sold by all handlers under Order 61 regulating the handling of milk in the Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, marketing area during the previous month, except that milk which is moved to plants outside of New Jersey and Delaware from which no routes are operated in the Philadelphia marketing area, using a 1936–40 base period, by dividing the monthly figure by 16.640, and adjust the result for seasonal variation by dividing by the applicable figure indicated below for each month:

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| January | 0.98 | July | 0.99 |
| February | 0.99 | August | 0.99 |
| March | 1.00 | September | 1.04 |
| April | 0.99 | October | 1.05 |
| May | 0.98 | November | 1.02 |
| June | 0.98 | December | 0.99 |

(6) Divide the sum of the indexes calculated in subparagraphs (1) through (5) of this paragraph by 5. This figure shall be the formula index, and shall determine the Class I price for each calendar quarter in accordance with the following table. If such index value is not within a bracket, the price for the calendar quarter shall be determined by the adjacent index bracket which is the same as or nearest to the bracket equivalent to the price in the previous quarter.

CLASS I PRICE SCHEDULE—CLASS I PRICE PER HUNDREDWEIGHT

| Formula index | January, February, March, July, August, September | April, May, June | October, November, December |

(b) Class II milk. The price per hundredweight of Class II milk during each month shall be the sum of the plus values calculated by the market administrator pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph.

(1) Butterfat. Add all market quotations (using the midpoint of any weekly range as one quotation) of prices per 40-quart can of fresh sweet cream of bottling quality of 40 percent butterfat content, not including prices for cream carrying special municipal approvals, reported at Philadelphia for each week ending within the month by the United States Department of Agriculture, divide by the number of quotations, subtract $2.00 and divide by 8.50: Provided, That such butterfat value shall not be less than 4.0 times 120 percent of the average of the daily wholesale selling prices for Grade A (92-score) butter at New York as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for the month for which payment is to be made, less 19.0 cents.

(2) Skim milk. From the average of all the prices per pound for nonfat dry milk solids made by roller process, sold as "other brands" for human consumption in bags or barrels by carlots (using midpoint of any range as one quotation), published during such month in "Producer's Price Current," subtract 5 cents, multiply by 0.90 and multiply by 7.5.

§ 1010.51 Butterfat differential to handlers. For milk containing more or less than 4.0 percent butterfat, the class prices for the month calculated pursuant to § 1010.50 shall be increased or decreased, respectively, for each one-tenth percent variation in butterfat content at the appropriate rate determined as follows:

(a) Class I milk. Five cents per hundredweight: Provided, That in the case of milk containing less than 3.0 percent or more than 6.0 percent butterfat the Class II differential computed pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section shall apply.

(b) Class II milk. Divide by 40 the butterfat value computed pursuant to § 1010.50 (b) (1).

§ 1010.52 Location differential to handlers—(a) Class I milk. For that milk received from producers at a fluid milk plant located 45 miles from the City Hall in Wilmington, Delaware, by shortest highway distance, as determined by the market administrator, and classified as Class I milk, the Class I price set forth in § 1010.50 (a) shall be reduced 20 cents per hundredweight plus one cent for each additional 10-mile distance, or fraction thereof, which such plant is located from the City Hall in Wilmington: Provided, That for purpose of calculating such location differential, products designated as Class I milk which are transferred between fluid milk plants shall first be assigned to any remainder of Class II milk in the transferee-plant after making the calculation prescribed in § 1010.46 (a) (1) and (2) and the comparable steps in (b) for such plant. The assignment of such shipment to the transferor plants shall be made in sequence starting with the plant located farthest from the City Hall in Wilmington.

(b) Class II milk. For that milk received from producers at a fluid milk plant located 70 miles from the City Hall in Wilmington, Delaware, by shortest highway distance, as determined by the market administrator, and classified as Class II milk, the Class II price set forth in § 1010.50 (b) shall be reduced 5 cents plus one cent for each additional 70-mile distance, or fraction thereof, which such plant is located from the City Hall in Wilmington.

§ 1010.53 Equivalent prices or indexes. If for any reason a price or index specified by this order for use in computing class prices or for other purposes is not reported or published in the manner described in this order, the market administrator shall use a price or index determined by the Secretary to be equivalent to or comparable with the factor which is specified.

APPLICATION OF PROVISIONS

§ 1010.60 Producer-handlers. Sections 1010.40 through 1010.46, 1010.50 through 1010.52, 1010.70 through 1010.71 and 1010.80 through 1010.85, shall not apply to a producer-handler.

§ 1010.61 Plants subject to other Federal orders. Any plant which meets the requirements for a fluid milk plant set forth in § 1010.7 (a), (b), or (c) and which is fully subject to the classification and pricing provisions of another order issued pursuant to the act shall be considered as a nonfluid milk plant except that the operator of such plant shall, with respect to the total receipts and utilization or disposition of skim milk and butterfat at the plant, make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may require (in lieu of the reports required pursuant to § 1010.30), and allow verification of such reports by the market administrator.

DETERMINATION OF UNIFORM PRICES

§ 1010.70 Net obligation of handlers. The net obligation of each handler for producer milk received at his fluid milk plant(s) each month shall be a sum of money computed by the market administrator as follows: (a) Multiply the total hundredweight of such milk in each class by the applicable class price; (b) add together the resulting amounts; (c) add the amounts computed by multiplying the pounds of overage deducted from each class pursuant to § 1010.46 (a) (6) and (b) by the applicable class price; (d) add or subtract, as the case may be, an amount necessary to correct errors discovered by the market administrator in the verification of reports of such handler of his receipts and utilization of skim milk and butterfat for previous months; (e) add the amount computed by multiplying the difference between the Class II price for the preceding month and the appropriate Class I price for the current month by the hundredweight of producer milk classified in Class II during the preceding month, or the hundredweight of milk subtracted from Class I pursuant to § 1010.46 (a) (3) and (b), whichever is less.

§ 1010.71 Computation of uniform prices for handlers. For each month the market administrator shall compute a uniform price for the producer milk received by each handler as follows:

(a) Add to the amount computed pursuant to § 1010.70 the total of the location differential deductions to be made pursuant to § 1010.82.

(b) Add or subtract for each one-tenth percent that the average butterfat content of producer milk received by such handler is less or more, respectively, than 3.8 percent, an amount computed by multiplying such difference by the butterfat differential to producers, and multiplying the result by the total hundredweight of producer milk.

(c) Add the amount represented by any deductions made for eliminating fractions of a cent in computing the uniform price(s) for such handler for the preceding month.

(d) Divide the resulting amount by the total hundredweight of producer milk received by such handler. The result, less any fraction of a cent per hundredweight, shall be known as the uniform price for such handler for milk of 3.8 percent butterfat content, f. o. b. market.

PAYMENTS

§ 1010.80 Payments to producers. Each handler shall make payment to each producer for milk received from such producer as follows: Provided, That with respect to producers whose milk was caused to be delivered to such handler by a cooperative association which is authorized to collect payment for such milk, the handler shall, if requested in writing by the cooperative association, pay such association an amount equal to the sum of the individual payments otherwise payable to such producers in accordance with this section.

(a) On or before the last day of each month for milk received during the first 15 days of such month at not less than such handler's estimate of his uniform price per hundredweight but in no event less than the price per hundredweight for Class II milk for the preceding month: Provided, That for the first month after the effective date of this order such payment shall be at not less than the Class II price reported for the previous month under Order 61.

(b) On or before the 15th day after the end of each month for milk received during such month at not less than the uniform price per hundredweight, computed for such handler pursuant to § 1010.71, subject to the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 1010.81 and the location differential computed pursuant to § 1010.82 less proper deductions authorized in writing by such producer and less payment made pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section.

§ 1010.81 Butterfat differential to producers. The applicable uniform prices to be paid each producer pursuant to § 1010.80 shall be increased or decreased for each one-tenth of one percent which the butterfat content of his milk is above or below 4.0 percent, respectively, at the rate determined by multiplying the pounds of butterfat in producer milk of such handler allocated to the several subclasses of Class I and Class II milk pursuant to § 1010.46 (b) by the respective butterfat differential for each subclass or class computed pursuant to § 1010.51, dividing the sum of such value by the total pounds of such butterfat and rounding the resultant figure to the nearest half cent.

§ 1010.82 Location differential to producers. In making payments to producers pursuant to § 1010.80, the applicable uniform prices to be paid for producer milk received at a fluid milk plant located at least 45 miles from the City Hall in Wilmington, Delaware, by shortest highway distance, as determined by the market administrator, shall be reduced 20 cents plus one cent for each additional 10 miles distance, or fraction thereof, which such plant is located from the City Hall in Wilmington.

§ 1010.83 Adjustment of accounts. Whenever audit by the market administrator of any handler's reports, books, records, accounts, or verification of weights and butterfat tests of milk or milk products discloses errors, resulting in money due a producer or the market administrator from such handler, or due such handler from the market administrator, the market administrator shall notify such handler of any amount so due, and payment thereof shall be made on or before the next date for making payments, as set forth in the provisions under which such error occurred.

§ 1010.84 Expense of administration. As his pro rata share of the expense of administration of this part, each handler shall pay to the market administrator on or before the 15th day after the end of the month for such month five cents per hundredweight, or such amount not exceeding five cents per hundredweight as the Secretary may prescribe, with respect to all (a) receipts of producer milk including such handler's own production, and (b) other source milk at a fluid milk plant which is classified as Class I milk.

§ 1010.85 Termination of obligations. The provisions of this section shall apply to any obligation under this part for the payment of money.

(a) The obligation of any handler to pay money required to be paid under the terms of this part shall, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, terminate two years after the last day of the calendar month during which the market administrator received the handler's utilization report on the milk involved in such obligation, unless within such two-year period the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that such money is due and payable. Service of such notice shall be complete upon mailing to the handler's last known address, and it shall contain, but need not be limited to, the following information:

(1) The amount of the obligation;

(2) The month(s) during which the milk, with respect to which the obligation exists, was received or handled; and

(3) If the obligation is payable to one or more producers or to an association of producers, the name of such producer(s) or association of producers, or if the obligation is payable to the market administrator, the account for which it is to be paid.

(b) If a handler fails or refuses, with respect to any obligation under this part, to make available to the market administrator or his representatives all books and records required by this part to be made available, the market administrator may, within the two-year period provided for in paragraph (a) of this section, notify the handler in writing of such failure or refusal. If the market administrator so notifies a handler, the said two-year period with respect to such obligation shall not begin to run until the first day of the calendar month following the month during which all such books and records pertaining to such obligation are made available to the market administrator or his representatives.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, a handler's obligation under this part to pay money shall not be terminated with respect to any transaction involving fraud or wilful concealment of a fact, material to the obligation, on the part of the handler against whom the obligation is sought to be imposed.

(d) Any obligation on the part of the market administrator to pay a handler any money which such handler claims to be due him under the terms of this part shall terminate two years after the end of the calendar month during which the milk involved in the claim was received if an underpayment is claimed, or two years after the end of the calendar month during which the payment (including deduction or set-off by the market administrator) was made by the handler if a refund on such payment is claimed, unless such handler within the applicable period of time, files, pursuant to section 8c (15) (A) of the act, a petition claiming such money.

EFFECTIVE TIME, SUSPENSION, OR TERMINATION

§ 1010.90 Effective time. The provisions of this part or any amendment to this part shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated pursuant to § 1010.91.

§ 1010.91 Suspension or termination. The Secretary may suspend or terminate this part or any provisions of this part whenever he finds this part or any provisions of this part obstructs or does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. This part shall terminate, in any event, whenever the provisions of the act authorizing it cease to be in effect.

§ 1010.92 Continuing obligations. If upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions of this part, there are any obligations thereunder, the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any person (including the market administrator), such further acts shall be performed notwithstanding such suspension or termination.

§ 1010.93 Liquidation. Upon the suspension or termination of the provisions of this part, except this section, the market administrator, or such liquidating agent as the Secretary may designate, shall, if so directed by the Secretary, liquidate the business of the market administrator's office, dispose of all property in his possession or control, including accounts receivable, and execute and deliver all assignment or other instruments necessary or appropriate to effectuate any such disposition. If a liquidating agent is so designated, all assets, books, and records of the market administrator shall be transferred promptly to such liquidating agent. If, upon such liquidation, the funds on hand exceed the amounts required to pay outstanding obligations of the office of the market administrator and to pay necessary expenses of liquidating and distribution, such excess shall be distributed to contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 1010.100 Agents. The Secretary may by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States to act as his Agent or Representative in connection with any of the provisions of this part.

§ 1010.101 Separability of provisions. If any provision of this part, or its application to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the application of such provision and of the remaining provisions of this part, to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

ALASKA

SMALL TRACT CLASSIFICATION

APRIL 9, 1956.

1. Pursuant to authority delegated to me by Bureau Order No. 541, dated April 21, 1954 (19 F. R. 2473), as amended, I hereby classify the following described public lands, totaling 40 acres in the Fairbanks Land District, Alaska, as suitable for lease and sale for recreational purposes under the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938 (52 Stat. 609, 43 U. S. C. 682a), as amended:

BIRCH LAKE SMALL TRACT AREA

UNIT NO. 1

For Lease and Sale; for Recreational Sites

Fairbanks Meridian:
T. 7 S., R. 5 E.,
Section 13: SW¼SE¼.
Comprising 8 tracts aggregating 40 acres.

2. Classification of the above-described lands by this order segregates them from all appropriations, including locations under the mining laws, except as to applications under the mineral leasing laws.

3. The lands classified by this order shall not become subject to application under the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938 (52 Stat. 609; 43 U. S. C. 682a), as amended, until it is so provided by an order to be issued by an authorized officer, opening the lands to application or bid with preference right to veterans of World War II and of the Korean conflict and other qualified persons entitled to preference under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 497; 43 U. S. C. 279–284), as amended.

4. All valid applications filed prior to the date of the signing of this order will be granted, as soon as possible, the preference right provided for by 43 CFR 257.5 (a).

[Order 2]

THE ALASKA RAILROAD

RE DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY

APRIL 11, 1956.

SECTION 1. Delegation. The Deputy Director of the Office of Territories, the Assistant Director, Alaskan Affairs, Office of Territories, and the General Manager of The Alaska Railroad are severally authorized to exercise the authority delegated by the Secretary of the Interior to the Director, Office of Territories in Order No. 2748 (19 F. R. 915) with respect to the operation of The Alaska Railroad and its related activities. That authority does not extend to any administrative matter that may be covered by a general delegation to heads of bureaus (e. g., contracts and leases under Order No. 2509; personnel actions under Order No. 2803). In such matters the source of the Director's authority is the general delegation.

SEC. 2. Redelegation. The General Manager of The Alaska Railroad may in writing redelegate the authority granted to him in this order, to any officer or employee of The Alaska Railroad.

[Docket No. G-9423]

UNITED GAS PIPE LINE CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND DATE OF HEARING

APRIL 11, 1956.

Take notice that United Gas Pipe Line Company (Applicant), a Delaware corporation with principal place of business at 1525 Fairfield Avenue, Shreveport, Louisiana, filed, on October 3, 1955, as supplemented November 14, 1955, and November 23, 1955, an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing Applicant to render service as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully represented in the application which is on file with the Commission and open for public inspection.

Applicant proposes to construct and operate certain natural gas facilities as hereinafter described which are necessary and incident to an initial sale and delivery by Applicant of natural gas in interstate commerce to Sabine Gas Company, Inc. (Sabine), for resale and distribution in the municipalities of Many, Pleasant Hill, Zwolle, in Sabine Parish, and Pelican and Oxford, in Desoto Parish, all in the State of Louisiana, and their respective environs.

The facilities proposed to be constructed and operated consist of a 2-inch tap, heater installation, regulator installation, dual 4-inch orifice meter station and appurtenant facilities near Mile Post 330.76 on the line from Agua Dulce Field to near Sterlington, Louisiana, all to be located in S4, T7N, R11W, Sabine Parish, Louisiana.

The estimated total cost of the proposed project is $14,761 which will be financed out of current working funds.

The total estimated peak day gas requirements and the annual gas requirements of Sabine in Mcf for the first three years are as follows:

| | First year | Second year | Third year |
|---|---|---|---|
| Peak day | 1,163 | 1,214 | 1,261 |
| Annual: | | | |
| To be acquired from Sabine's existing supply | 60,000 | 55,000 | 50,000 |
| To be supplied by applicant | 115,000 | 120,000 | 125,000 |
| Total annual | 175,000 | 175,000 | 175,000 |

The gas will be sold and delivered pursuant to Service Agreement between applicant and Sabine dated September 28, 1955 and service will be rendered under applicant's "G-C" Rate Schedule.

Applicant states that Sabine's principal supply of gas is obtained from Apex Gas Company, Inc. at the North end of Sabine's system; that Sabine also contains a part of its gas requirements from production of one well in Pleasant Hill Field now in production for many years whose failure would almost completely curtail service rendered in Zwolle and Many; that Sabine's existing facilities are inadequate to presently meet the peak demands of Zwolle and Many; that the estimated cost of replacement of these facilities with larger facilities would not be in the interest of its customers; and that Sabine's contract with Apex Gas Company, Inc., will be terminated by mutual agreement between the parties thereto.

This matter is one that should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, (pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on Monday, May 21, 1956 at 9:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a hearing room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a noncontested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before April 30, 1956. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

DELAWARE POWER & LIGHT COMPANY AND THE EASTERN SHORE PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY OF MARYLAND

ORDER AUTHORIZING ISSUE AND SALE OF NOTES, AND COMMON STOCK BY SUBSIDIARY, AND ACQUISITION AND PLEDGE THEREOF BY PARENT COMPANY

APRIL 10, 1956.

Delaware Power & Light Company ("Delaware"), a registered holding company, and its wholly-owned public-utility subsidiary The Eastern Shore Public Service Company of Maryland ("Maryland") have filed a joint application-declaration and amendments thereto pursuant to sections 6 (b), 10, 12 (d) and 12 (f) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") and Rules U-43 and U-44 thereunder regarding the following proposed transactions:

From time to time prior to December 31, 1957, as may be necessary to meet its cash requirements, Maryland will issue and sell to Delaware for cash, at face amount or par value and in equal proportions: (1) Its 3½ percent promissory notes due October 1, 1973, not exceeding $1,750,000 in aggregate principal amount, and (2) its common capital stock not exceeding 17,500 shares (par value $100 per share) in aggregate number.

The notes and stock to be acquired by Delaware will be pledged with The New York Trust Company, Trustee, in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture of Mortgage and Deed of Trust of Delaware to said Trustee, dated as of October 1, 1943.

It is stated that Maryland will use the proceeds from sale of said notes and stock to reimburse its treasury for moneys previously expended for construction requirements and to provide funds for future construction requirements. Proposed additions to Maryland's property and plant are estimated at $3,994,074 for 1956 and $3,801,248 for 1957.

The Public Service Commission of Maryland, which is the regulatory commission of the State in which Maryland is organized and operating, has authorized the proposed transactions.

Due notice having been given of the filing of said application-declaration, and a hearing not having been requested of or ordered by the Commission, and the Commission finding with respect to the proposed transactions that the applicable provisions of the act and the rules thereunder are satisfied and that no adverse findings are necessary, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that the application-declaration as amended be granted and permitted to become effective forthwith:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, that said application-declaration as amended be, and it hereby is, granted and permitted to become effective forthwith, subject to the conditions prescribed in Rule U-24.

DELAWARE POWER & LIGHT COMPANY AND EASTERN SHORE PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY OF VIRGINIA

ORDER AUTHORIZING ISSUE AND SALE OF NOTES AND COMMON STOCK BY SUBSIDIARY, AND ACQUISITION AND PLEDGE THEREOF BY PARENT COMPANY

APRIL 10, 1956.

Delaware Power & Light Company ("Delaware"), a registered holding company, and its wholly owned public-utility subsidiary, Eastern Shore Public Service Company of Virginia ("Virginia") have filed a joint application-declaration and an amendment thereto pursuant to sections 6 (b), 10, 12 (d) and 12 (f) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") and Rules U-43 and U-44 thereunder regarding the following proposed transactions:

From time to time prior to December 31, 1957, as may be necessary to meet its cash requirements, Virginia will issue and sell to Delaware for cash, at face amount or par value and in equal proportions: (1) Its 3½ percent promissory notes due October 1, 1973, not exceeding $575,000 in aggregate principal amount, and (2) its common capital stock not exceeding 5,750 shares (par value $100 per share) in aggregate number.

The notes and stock to be acquired by Delaware will be pledged with The New York Trust Company, Trustee, in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture of Mortgage and Deed of Trust of Delaware to said Trustee, dated as of October 1, 1943.

It is stated that Virginia will use the proceeds from sales of said notes and stock to reimburse its treasury for moneys previously expended for construction requirements and to provide funds for future construction requirements. Proposed additions to Virginia's property and plant are estimated at $400,010 for 1956 and $1,328,100 for 1957.

The State Corporation Commission of Virginia, which is the regulatory commission of the State in which Virginia is organized and doing business, has authorized the proposed transactions.

Due notice having been given of the filing of said application-declaration, and a hearing not having been requested of or ordered by the Commission, and the Commission finding with respect to the proposed transactions that the applicable provisions of the act and the rules thereunder are satisfied and that no adverse findings are necessary, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that the application-declaration as amended be granted and permitted to become effective forthwith:

NATIONAL FUEL GAS CO. ET AL.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED ISSUANCE AND SALE BY HOLDING COMPANY OF COMMON SHARES PURSUANT TO RIGHTS OFFERING; ALSO PROPOSED BANK BORROWINGS BY HOLDING COMPANY, AND ISSUANCE AND SALE OF COMMON STOCKS AND NOTES BY SUBSIDIARIES TO HOLDING COMPANY

APRIL 11, 1956

In the matter of National Fuel Gas Company, Iroquois Gas Corporation, Republic Light, Heat and Power Company, Inc., United Natural Gas Company, and Pennsylvania Gas Company; File No. 70–3466.

Notice is hereby given that National Fuel Gas Company ("National"), a registered holding company, and its gas utility-company subsidiaries Iroquois Gas Corporation ("Iroquois"), Republic Light, Heat and Power Company, Inc. ("Republic"), United Natural Gas Company ("United"), and Pennsylvania Gas Company ("Pennsylvania") have filed with this Commission a joint application-declaration pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"), designating sections 6, 7, 9 (a), 10, 12 (b) and 12 (f) of the act and Rules U-43 and U-45 promulgated thereunder as applicable to the proposed transactions, which are summarized as follows:

It is stated that all of said subsidiaries have substantial expansion programs during 1956 involving additional plant facilities and gas in storage, estimated to cost in the aggregate of $16,000,000; that Iroquois and Republic also have bank loans and notes due in 1956 in the aggregate amount of $1,244,296; and that, to provide the funds necessary to meet these needs, the following transactions are proposed:

Transaction No. 1. National proposes to issue and offer to the holders of its outstanding shares of Common Stock of record at the close of business on May 8, 1956, the right to subscribe for and purchase, at a subscription price to be fixed by the Board of Directors of National, not to exceed 447,797 shares of Common Stock at the rate of one share of additional Common Stock for each ten shares of outstanding Common Stock held of record on the record date. This offering, which will not be underwritten, is to be made in accordance with the preemptive right of stockholders, and is to be called the "Basic Subscription Right."

The right to subscribe to the additional Common Stock will be evidenced by transferable warrants expressed in terms of "rights", one right to be issued with respect to each share of presently outstanding Common Stock, and ten rights being necessary to exercise the Basic Subscription Right for one full share of additional Common Stock.

No fractional shares will be issued. However, subject to allotment, any holder of a warrant or warrants evidencing a number of rights in excess of ten but not divisible by ten may subscribe for one more full share than he would be entitled to under the Basic Subscription Right, and any holder of warrants evidencing less than ten rights may subscribe for one full share. This proposal is referred to as the "Primary Additional Subscription Privilege". No subscriber shall have or exercise more than one such Primary Additional Subscription Privilege.

Further, subject to allotment, any holder of a warrant or warrants who exercises either the Basic Subscription Right or the Primary Additional Subscription Privilege, or both, may subscribe for such additional number of shares as he may elect. This proposal is referred to as the "Secondary Additional Subscription Privilege".

It is proposed that the warrants will be issued on or about May 8, 1956, and that the Subscription Offer will expire on May 25, 1956.

Transaction No. 2. National has entered into an agreement with The Chase Manhattan Bank ("Chase Bank") under which the bank agrees to make loans to National up to an aggregate amount not to exceed $4,000,000 from September 1, 1956 to and including December 31 1956, each loan to be evidenced by a promissory note payable on July 15 1957, with interest at the bank's prime commercial rate currently in force on the issue date of each such note. National may prepay any note in whole at any time, or in part from time to time without penalty, but with the payment of the interest accrued to the date of such prepayment on the principal sum so prepaid; provided that, if any such prepayment results directly or indirectly from the proceeds of, or in anticipation of any bank borrowing, National will pay at the same time a premium of ½ of 1 percent on the principal sum so prepaid.

National expresses the intention to finance, on or before the maturity date, the repayment of its existing and proposed bank loans with the issuance and sale of long-term debentures and/or common stock.

National proposes to add the net proceeds from the sale of Common Stock outlined in Transaction 1 and the borrowings outlined in Transaction 2 to its general funds (including the net proceeds of its recent sale of the common stock and promissory notes of Provincial Gas Co., Limited), and then to purchase common stock of or to make loans to its operating subsidiaries, and to apply the residue to other corporate purposes. The following transactions between the subsidiaries and National are proposed.

Transactions Nos. 3 and 4. Iroquois proposes (in Transaction No. 3) to issue and sell to National 23,000 shares of its common capital stock of a par value of $100 per share for the sum of $2,300,000 cash; also (in Transaction No. 4) to issue and sell to National from time to time during 1956, serial promissory notes aggregating in principal amount not to exceed $2,000,000; and to use the net proceeds therefrom to provide its treasury with funds with which, together with funds available from current operations, to purchase additional gas for underground storage, to make needed additions to its utility plant during 1956, estimated to cost $4,450,000, and to discharge short-term bank borrowings in the amount of $600,000.

Transaction No. 5. Republic proposes to issue and sell to National 33,000 shares of its common capital stock of a par value of $100 per share for a gross consideration of $3,300,000, and to use the net proceeds therefrom to provide its treasury with funds with which, together with funds available from current operations, to purchase additional gas for underground storage, to make needed additions to its utility plant during 1956, estimated to cost $3,095,000, and to discharge outstanding short-term bank borrowings in the aggregate amount of $644,296.

Transaction No. 6. United proposes to issue and sell to National from time to time during 1956, serial promissory notes aggregating in principal amount not to exceed $2,800,000, and to use the net proceeds therefrom to provide its treasury with funds with which, together with funds available from current operations, to purchase additional gas for underground storage and to make needed additions to its utility plant during 1956, estimated to cost $3,179,000.

Transaction No. 7. Pennsylvania proposes to issue and sell to National from time to time during 1956, serial promissory notes aggregating in principal amount not to exceed $3,400,000, to provide its treasury with funds with which, together with funds available from current operations, to purchase additional gas for underground storage and to make needed additions to its utility plant during 1956, estimated to cost $3,484,000.

The serial notes proposed in Transactions Nos. 4, 6, and 7, will be in the principal amount of $200,000 each, will mature at annual intervals beginning May 1, 1959, and will bear interest at the prime commercial rate of Chase Bank currently in force on the date of issue, subject to adjustment as of the date of National's next debenture issue to the coupon rate applicable to such issue.

Iroquois and Republic have petitioned the Public Service Commission of New York for permission to issue and sell to National the stock proposed to be issued and sold under Transactions 3 and 5, and Iroquois has sought such permission for the promissory notes proposed to be issued and sold under Transaction 4. ## TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter I—Civil Aeronautics Board

[Reg. No. ER-209]

PART 296—CLASSIFICATION AND EXEMPTION OF INDIRECT AIR CARRIERS

A notice of proposed rule-making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on September 3, 1955 (20 F. R. 6530), and circulated to the industry as Economic Regulations Draft Release No. 74, dated August 30, 1955, which proposed to revise Part 296 in order to implement the policy determinations made by the Board in the Air Freight Forwarder Investigation, Docket No. 5947 et al, and to revise the regulations insofar as they relate to cooperative shippers associations.

The principal purpose of this regulation is to establish a new general classification of interstate air carriers designated as "indirect air carriers." Separate subclassifications designated as "air freight forwarder" and "cooperative shippers association" have been established. In addition, the revised regulation permits all indirect air carriers to engage in joint loading with other such carriers of the same subclassification.

As originally published, the draft release authorized forwarders to act as the agent of either the shipper or of the direct air carrier rendering transportation services where freight accepted for consolidated shipment must be handled individually because of an inadequate volume. However, upon consideration of the comments filed by parties objecting to this provision of the proposed regulation, the Board has concluded that forwarders should not be permitted to act as agents of the direct air carrier. The basic obligation of a forwarder accepting goods for handling is to promote the interest of the shipper in the expeditious forwarding of the goods to their destination. Permitting the forwarder to shift his common carrier responsiblity to a fiduciary responsibility, as agent of the shipper, does not jeopardize this basic obligation. However, allowing the forwarder to act as carrier's agent permits the creation of a situation where conflicts of interest are almost inevitable. Such a situation is not good business practice, is not in the interest of the shipping public, and would be harmful to the freight forwarder industry. Consequently, this regulation has been rewritten to prohibit a forwarder from acting as agent of any direct air carrier with respect to shipments accepted for forwarding.

In line with the Board's objective of using such agency authorization as a "stop-loss" technique, this regulation has also been rewritten to prohibit a forwarder acting as agent of the shipper from charging any commission for its agency services in obtaining the direct air transportation and to limit its charges for those accessorial and surface transportation services actually rendered to the amounts separately specified in the forwarders filed tariffs.

Based upon the findings set forth in the Board's opinion in the Air Freight Forwarder Investigation, cited supra, issued concurrently herewith, to which reference is hereby made, and which opinion is incorporated herein as though set forth in full, the Board finds that it is in the public interest to relieve and exempt air carriers within the foregoing classifications and subclassifications from the provisions of the act to the extent, upon the terms and conditions, and for the periods, hereinafter set out.

The Board further finds that the classifications and subclassifications hereby established are just and reasonable in view of the nature of the services performed by such carriers, and that the regulations and limitations hereby promulgated to be applicable to and observed by such classes of air carriers are necessary and desirable in the public interest.

Interested persons have been afforded opportunity to participate in the formulation of this revision, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

In consideration of the foregoing, the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby amends Part 296 of the Economic Regulations (14 CFR Ch. I) effective June 12, 1956 to read as follows:

AUTHORITY: §§ 296.1 to 296.60 issued under sec. 205, 52 Stat. 985; 49 U. S. C. 425. Interpret or apply secs. 1, 411, 416, 52 Stat. 977, 1003, 1004, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 401, 491, 496.

SUBPART A—GENERAL

§ 296.1 Definitions. For the purposes of this part:

(a) "Indirect Air Carrier" means any citizen of the United States[1] which engages indirectly in interstate air transportation[2] of property only, and which:

(1) Does not engage directly in the operation of aircraft in air transportation, and

(2) Does not engage in air transportation pursuant to any Board order which has been issued for the purpose of authorizing air express services under a contract with a direct air carrier.

(b) "Direct Air Carrier" means any air carrier directly engaged in the operation of aircraft, pursuant to a certificate of public convenience and necessity issued under section 401 of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended, or under the authority conferred by any applicable regulation or order of the Board.

§ 296.2 Classification. There is hereby established a classification of air carriers, having the attributes of, and which are designated as, "indirect air carriers". Such classification shall include the following subclassifications:

(a) "Air Freight Forwarder" means any indirect air carrier which, in the ordinary and usual course of its undertaking, assembles and consolidates or provides for assembling and consolidating such property or performs or provides for the performance of break-bulk and distributing operations with respect to consolidated shipments, and is responsible for the transportation of property from the point of receipt to point of destination and utilizes for the whole or any part of such transportation the services of a direct air carrier.

(b) "Cooperative Shippers Association" means a bona fide association of shippers, operating as an indirect air carrier on a non-profit basis, which:

(1) Undertakes to ship property for the account of such association or its members, by air, in the name of either the association or the members, in order to secure the benefits of volume rates or improved services for the benefit of its members, and

(2) Utilizes for the whole or any part of such transportation the services of a direct air carrier.

§ 296.3 Freight forwarder acting as agent of shipper. (a) Any air freight forwarder may, by complying with the requirements of this section, accept a particular shipment for forwarding on condition that it may exercise an expressly reserved option to deal therewith as the agent of the shipper thereof in the event that a volume of freight adequate to permit consolidated shipment cannot be assembled. An air freight forwarder shall not act as the agent of any direct air carrier with respect to shipments accepted for forwarding.

(b) Any air freight forwarder seeking to avail itself of this option must give notice that it reserves such right, in the case of every shipment accepted subject thereto, to handle the shipment as agent of the shipper. Such notice shall be given to the shipping public and to any person from whom any shipment is so accepted, and such notice shall be furnished such person in writing at the time when the shipment is accepted. Such notice shall be given by means of: (1) Notices with the heading "Notice to Shippers" conspicuously displayed at all premises operated by or under the control of the forwarder in connection with its air transportation activities so as to be clearly visible to the shipping public, (2) a legible statement set forth on all letterhead stationery used by the forwarder in connection with its air transportation activities, and (3) reasonably prominent statements on all the air waybills of such forwarder and on such receipts or other documentation as may be furnished to the shippers at the time of acceptance of the shipment.

(c) Any air freight forwarder exercising its option to act as such agent shall transmit a copy of its charges for the accessorial and surface transportation services actually rendered to the shipper with respect to all shipments billed to the consignee.

(d) In the event that it acts as such agent, the air freight forwarder shall not charge any commission for its agency services and shall limit its charges for accessorial and surface transportation services actually rendered, directly or indirectly, to those separately stated in the forwarder's own tariffs filed pursuant to Part 221 of this chapter.

§ 296.4 Cooperative shippers association acting as agent of shipper. Any cooperative shippers association may accept particular shipments for consolidation on condition that it may exercise an expressly reserved option to deal therewith as the agent of the shipper thereof in the event that a volume of freight adequate to permit consolidated shipment cannot be obtained.

§ 296.5 Payment of transportation charges. Freight bills from direct air carriers for all transportation charges shall be paid by every indirect air carrier within 7 days after being billed therefor.

§ 296.6 Separability. If any provision of this part or the application thereof to any air transportation, person, class of persons, or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the part and the application of such provisions to other air transportation, persons, classes of persons, or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

SUBPART B—EXEMPTIONS

§ 296.11 Exemption of air freight forwarders. Subject to the other provisions of this part, air freight forwarders are hereby relieved from the provisions of title VI of the act, and from all provisions of title IV of the act, other than the following:

(a) Subsection 401 (1) (3) (Compliance with Labor Legislation);

(b) Section 403 (Tariffs);

(c) Subsection 404 (a) (Carrier's Duty to Provide Service, etc.), insofar as said subsection requires air carriers to provide safe service, equipment and facilities in connection with air transportation, and to establish, observe, and enforce just and reasonable individual rates, fares, and charges, and just and reasonable classifications, rules, regulations, and practices relating to air transportation;

(d) Subsection 404 (b) (Discrimination);

(e) Subsection 407 (a) (Filing of Reports): Provided, That no provision of any rule, regulation, term, condition, or limitation prescribed pursuant to said subsection 407 (a) shall be applicable to air freight forwarders unless such rule, regulation, term, condition, or limitation expressly so provides;

(f) Subsection 407 (b) (Disclosure of Stock Ownership);

(g) Subsection 407 (c) (Disclosure of Stock Ownership by Officers or Directors);

(h) Subsection 407 (d) (Form of Accounts): Provided, That no provision of any rule, regulation, term, condition, or limitation prescribed pursuant to said subsection 407 (d) shall be applicable to air freight forwarders unless such rule, regulation, term, condition, or limitation expressly so provides;

(i) Subsection 407 (e) (Inspection of Accounts and Property);

(j) Section 408 (Consolidation, Merger and Acquisition of Control);

(k) Section 409 (Prohibited Interests);

(l) Section 410 (Loans and Financial Aid);

(m) Section 411 (Methods of Competition);

(n) Section 412 (Pooling and Other Agreements);

(o) Section 413 (Form of Control);

(p) Section 414 (Legal Restraints);

(q) Section 415 (Inquiry into Air Carrier Management); and

(r) Section 416 (Classification and Exemption of Carriers).

Provided, however, That the provisions of sections 403 and 404 shall not be applicable insofar as they would otherwise prohibit any air freight forwarder from engaging in joint loading with any other air freight forwarder for the pooling of traffic for shipment in order to obtain the benefit of volume rates, and air freight forwarders are hereby relieved from the requirements of section 412 of the act with respect to contracts for such joint loading.

Provided, further, That the provisions of subsection 404 (b) shall not be applicable insofar as they would otherwise prohibit the exercise, by any air freight forwarder, of its reserved option to act as either a forwarder or as agent of the shipper, in accordance with provisions of § 296.3.

§ 296.12 Exemption of cooperative shippers associations. Subject to the other provisions of this part applicable thereto, cooperative shippers associations are hereby relieved from the provisions of title VI of the act, and from all provisions of title IV of the act, other than the following:

(a) Subsection 407 (a) (Filing of Reports): Provided, That no provision of any rule, regulation, term, condition, or limitation prescribed pursuant to said subsection 407 (a) shall be applicable to cooperative shippers associations unless such rule, regulation, term, condition, or limitation expressly so provides;

(b) Subsection 407 (b) (Disclosure of Stock Ownership);

(c) Subsection 407 (c) (Disclosure of Stock Ownership by Officers or Directors);

(d) Subsection 407 (e) (Inspection of Accounts and Property);

(e) Section 408 (Consolidation, Merger and Acquisition of Control);

(f) Section 409 (Prohibited Interests);

(g) Section 411 (Methods of Competition);

(h) Section 412 (Agreements);

(i) Section 413 (Form of Control);

(j) Section 414 (Legal Restraints);

(k) Section 415 (Inquiry into Air Carrier Management); and

(l) Section 416 (Classification and Exemption of Carriers).

Provided, however, That cooperative shippers associations are hereby relieved from the requirements of section 412 of the act with respect to agreements for joint loading entered into with any other cooperative shippers association for the pooling of traffic for shipment in order to obtain the benefit of volume rates.

Provided further, however, That unless the reserved option of any cooperative shippers association to act as an indirect air carrier or as agent of the shipper is exercised in accordance with the provisions of § 296.4, the provisions of subsection 404 (b) shall be applicable insofar as they would otherwise prohibit the exercise of such option.

§ 296.13 Duration of exemptions. The exemption authority provided by this part shall continue in effect until the Board shall find that the continuation of such authority in respect of either air freight forwarders or cooperative shippers associations, or both such classifications, is no longer in the public interest, and thereafter the authority with respect to such classification or classifications shall terminate: Provided, however, That the exemption authority of any air freight forwarder which the Board shall find to control, be controlled by, or be under common control with any common carrier by rail shall in any event terminate 5 years from the effective date of this part.

SUBPART C—LIMITATIONS ON EXEMPTIONS; GENERAL

§ 296.21 Limitations on use of aircraft. The exemption authority provided to indirect air carriers by this part shall be effective only with respect to shipments of property, by air, in aircraft operated in common carriage by (a) air carriers which have effective tariffs for the services thus utilized on file with the Board, or (b) air carriers which have been exempted from the filing of such tariffs. No indirect air carrier shall ship property, by air, except in aircraft operated in common carriage by a direct air carrier of the class specified in this section.

§ 296.22 Prohibition on use of aircraft. The exemption authority provided by this part, to indirect air carriers, shall not be effective to authorize any such air carrier to directly engage in the operation of aircraft in air transportation. No indirect air carrier may directly engage in the operation of aircraft in air transportation: Provided, however, That this limitation and prohibition shall not be construed to prohibit charters of aircraft by such indirect air carrier from a direct air carrier operating charter trips and special services under the authority conferred by any applicable regulation or order of the Board.

SUBPART D—LIMITATIONS ON EXEMPTION; COOPERATIVE SHIPPERS ASSOCIATIONS

§ 296.31 Filing of schedules or formulae used to compute charges to members. The exemption authority provided by this part with respect to any cooperative shippers association, shall be effective only after, and during only such periods of time as each such indirect air carrier has filed with the Board, and either distributed to its members or posted in each office where shipments are accepted, copies of all currently effective schedules or formulae used for assessing drayage and consolidation, air transportation, breakbulk, and any other charges to its members. Upon changing any of such schedules or formulae, each cooperative shippers association shall again comply with the requirements of this section.

SUBPART E—CONDITIONS ON EXEMPTION; AIR FREIGHT FORWARDERS

§ 296.41 Necessity for Operating Authorization. No person shall operate as an air freight forwarder, within the meaning of this part, unless there is in force with respect to such person a document entitled "Operating Authorization" authorizing him to engage in air transportation pursuant to the general exemption granted by this part.

§ 296.42 Application for issuance. Any person, other than those specified in § 296.43 (a), desiring to operate as an air freight forwarder may apply to the Board for an appropriate Operating Authorization. Such an applicant shall execute in duplicate, an "Application for Operating Authorization as an Air Freight Forwarder" (CAB Form 351.[3] The applicant shall also submit such other additional information pertinent to its proposed activities as may be requested by the Board with respect to any individual application.

§ 296.43 Issuance of Operating Authorization—(a) To successful parties to the investigation. Any air freight forwarder applicant whose application for issuance or renewal of operating authority was approved in the Air Freight Forwarder Investigation, Docket No. 5947 et al., shall be issued an Operating Authorization bearing the same effective date as this part.

(b) To all other applicants. (1) If, after the filing of an application for an Operating Authorization, it appears that the applicant is capable of performing the air transportation authorized by this part as an air freight forwarder and of conforming to the provisions of the act and all rules and requirements thereunder, and that the conduct of such operations by the applicant will not be inconsistent with the public interest, the applicant will be notified by letter. Such notification will advise the applicant that upon the filing of a valid tariff, an Operating Authorization will be issued to the applicant unless it has engaged in unauthorized air transportation or other activities prohibited by the act or the rules and regulations of the Board between the date of such notification and such filing. In the latter event, an Operating Authorization will not be issued unless and until a due showing is made by the applicant that it has terminated such unauthorized or prohibited activities, and that the issuance of such an authorization would be consistent with the public interest.

(2) If, after the filing of an application for an Operating Authorization, it appears that the applicant has not made a due showing of capability or that the conduct of operations by the applicant might otherwise be inconsistent with the public interest, the Board shall by letter notify the applicant of its findings to that effect. The Board may dismiss any such application unless within 30 days of the date of the mailing of such letter,

[1] As defined in section 1 (13) of the act.
[2] As defined in section 1 (21) of the act.
[3] Available from Publications Section.

the applicant has in writing requested reconsideration and submitted such additional information as it believes will make the necessary showing, or requested that the application be assigned for hearing, in which case the applicant shall outline the evidence to be presented at such hearing and shall show the need for hearing in order to properly present its case.

(3) In the event that reconsideration or hearing is requested the Board may, without notice or hearing, enter an order of approval or of disapproval in accordance with its determination of the public interest upon the showing made, or on its own initiative may assign the application for hearing.

§ 296.44 Effective period. Each Operating Authorization shall be effective upon the date specified therein, and shall continue in effect, unless sooner suspended or revoked, during such period as the authority provided by this part shall remain in effect, or if issued for a limited period of time, shall continue in effect until the expiration thereof unless sooner suspended or revoked.

§ 296.45 Conditions on Operating Authorization—(a) Attachment of conditions to Operating Authorizations. At the time of issuance, and from time to time thereafter, there shall be attached to the exercise of the privileges granted by any Operating Authorization issued under this part such reasonable terms, conditions, and limitations applicable to the person named therein as are necessary to carry out the requirements of the act and the regulations prescribed thereunder.

(b) Operating Authorizations will not be issued to applicants having tainted officers or owners. No Operating Authorization will be issued to an applicant which has, or proposes to have, as owner, partner, manager, officer, director, or stockholder holding a controlling interest, any person who is or has been connected in any such capacity with any other air freight forwarder, international air freight forwarder, cooperative shippers association, irregular air carrier, or noncertificated cargo carrier, if the letter of registration, Operating Authorization, or other exemption privilege of such carrier was suspended or revoked by the Board on account of acts or omissions which occurred during the time of such connection: Provided, however, That an Operating Authorization may be issued to such an applicant where the Board finds, upon a showing by applicant, that the public interest and applicant's intention and ability to conform to the provisions of the act and requirements thereunder are not adversely affected by such relationship.

(c) Prohibition against holders of Operating Authorizations having tainted officers or owners. No holder of an Operating Authorization shall have and retain as an owner, partner, manager, officer, director, or stockholder holding a controlling interest, any person who was, or is, affiliated in any of said capacities with any other air freight forwarder, international air freight forwarder, cooperative shippers association, irregular air carrier, or noncertificated cargo carrier, under the circumstances set forth in paragraph (b) of this section: Provided, however, That such holder may have and retain persons presently or previously affiliated, in the manner described above, where the Board finds that the public interest and the carrier's intention and ability to conform to the provisions of the act and requirements thereunder are not adversely affected by such relationship.

§ 296.46 Restrictions on issuance of Operating Authorizations. No Operating Authorization will be issued to an applicant which fails to demonstrate, as a part of its showing of capability, that it has such branch offices, associated companies, affiliated companies, or agents as tend to establish the ability of the applicant to perform pickup, delivery, and other necessary services to be performed in handling shipments.

§ 296.47 Nontransferability of Operating Authorizations. (a) An Operating Authorization shall be nontransferable and shall be effective only with respect to the person named therein or his successor by operation of law, subject to the provisions of this section. The following persons may temporarily continue operations under an Operating Authorization issued in the name of another person, for a maximum period of six months from the effective date of succession, by giving written notice of such succession to the Board within 60 days after the succession:

(1) Administrators or executors of deceased persons;

(2) Guardians of incapacitated persons;

(3) Surviving partner or partners collectively of dissolved partnerships; and

(4) Trustees, receivers, conservators, assignees or other such persons who are authorized by law to collect and preserve the property of financially disabled persons.

(b) All operations by successors, as above authorized, shall be performed in the name or names of the prior holder of the Operating Authorization and the name of the successor, whose capacity shall also be designated. Any successor desiring to continue operations after the expiration of the six-month period above authorized must file an application for a new Operating Authorization within 120 days after such succession. If a timely application is filed, such successor may continue operations until final disposition of the application by the Board.

§ 296.48 Suspension of Operating Authorizations. An Operating Authorization may be suspended by the institution of suspension proceedings in accordance with either the procedure specified in Subpart B or Part 302, of this chapter, or the procedure prescribed in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this section.

(a) Whenever the Board contemplates the institution of suspension proceedings, pursuant to this section, which involve alleged knowing and wilful violations, it shall issue an order instituting a suspension proceeding. However, whenever the alleged violations are not knowing and wilful the Board shall, by letter, give the carrier the notice and warning specified in section 9 (b) of the Administrative Procedure Act. Such notice shall specifically recite the holder's failure to comply with any provisions of the act or any order, rule, or regulation issued under any such provision, or any term, condition or limitation of any authority issued under said act or regulation. Such notice shall also afford the holder a reasonable opportunity to demonstrate or achieve compliance with such legal requirements within a specified period of time. At the expiration of such period, the Board may issue an order instituting a suspension proceeding.

(b) Each order instituting a suspension proceeding will specify a period of time within which the holder must file a written response with the Board. In such response, the holder may deny noncompliance or adduce such considerations as it desires to rely upon in order to justify or excuse noncompliance.

(c) In the event such a written response is filed, the Board may assign the proceeding for hearing or oral argument or, in appropriate cases, enter an order of suspension or an order dismissing the suspension proceeding.

(d) Such suspension may continue until the Board finds that such suspended forwarder has complied with the provisions of the act, or with such rules, regulations, orders, terms, conditions, or limitations or until the expiration of such a minimum suspension period, of fixed duration, as the Board may prescribe. The Board may also order a suspension, of indefinite duration, during the pendency of a docketed revocation proceeding brought under § 296.49.

(e) Failure to seek reinstatement of an Operating Authorization suspended pursuant to the provisions of this section within a period of 60 days after the effective date of such suspension or prior to the expiration of any prescribed suspension period of fixed duration, whichever is later, shall automatically terminate all rights under such authorization.

§ 296.49 Revocation of Operating Authorizations. (a) Operating Authorizations shall be subject to revocation, after notice and hearing, for knowing and wilful violation of any provision of the act or of any order, rule, or regulation issued under any such provision, or of any term, condition, or limitation of any authority issued under said act or regulations.

(b) An Operating Authorization shall be revoked without prejudice [4] upon the filing by an air freight forwarder of a written notice with the Board indicating the discontinuance of common carrier activities, together with a tender of the Operating Authorization for cancellation: Provided, That the Board may refuse to accept such notice and to cancel the authorization if any proceedings or action is pending in which an air freight forwarder's authority may be subject to suspension or revocation action. The failure of any carrier to perform interstate air transportation services for a period of two years or failure for two successive periods to file the periodic reports required by this chapter may, for the purpose of this part, be deemed by the Board to constitute the filing of written notice indicating the discontinuance of the common carrier activities, and in such case the tender of the Operating Authorization shall not be necessary.

[4] To the filing of a subsequent application for such authorization.

§ 296.50 Business name of air freight forwarder. It shall be an express condition upon the exercise of the privileges herein granted and the operating authorizations issued hereunder, that the forwarder concerned, in holding out to the public and in performing air transportation services, shall do so only in a name the use of which is authorized under the provisions of this section or under § 296.47.

(a) Except as otherwise provided under paragraph (b) of this section, an air freight forwarder may do business in the name or names in which its Operating Authorization is then issued and outstanding, including abbreviations, contractions, initial letters, or other minor variations of such name or names which are readily identifiable therewith.

(b) An air freight forwarder may do business in such other and different name or names as the Board may permit in said Operating Authorization or by order, upon a finding that the use of such other name or names is not contrary to the public interest. Any such permission may be made conditional upon the abandonment of the use of the name in which its Operating Authorization is issued and outstanding, in air transportation services by the carrier concerned, or otherwise be made subject to such reasonable terms and conditions as the Board may find necessary to protect the public interest.

(c) Slogans shall not be considered names for the purposes of this section, and their use is not restricted thereby.

(d) Neither the provisions of this section nor the grant of a permission hereunder shall be deemed to constitute a finding for purposes other than for this section, or to effect a waiver of, or exemption from, any provisions of the Civil Aeronautics Act, or any orders, or regulations issued thereunder.

SUBPART F—INSURANCE

§ 296.51 Insurance—(a) Cargo. No air freight forwarder shall engage in air transportation pursuant to this part unless it shall have on file with the Board any one of the following: (1) A satisfactory certificate or certificates of insurance evidencing a properly endorsed policy of insurance (CAB Form 350);[3] (2) evidence of qualifications as a self-insurer (a self-insurance fund or other qualifications approved by the Board); or (3) a surety bond. Any such guaranty shall be not less than the amount prescribed in paragraph (c) (1) of this section, and shall cover risks of loss of or damage to the property it handles as a freight forwarder pursuant to the provisions of this part.

(b) Public liability, property damage and personal injury. No air freight forwarder shall engage in the performance of transfer, collection or delivery services pursuant to this part unless it shall file with the Board a satisfactory certificate or certificates of insurance evidencing a properly endorsed policy of insurance (CAB Form 350),[3] qualifications as a self-insurer (a self-insurance fund or other qualifications approved by the Board) or surety bond in not less than the amounts prescribed in paragraph (c) (2) and (3) of this section, conditioned to pay within the amount of such insurance coverage any final judgment recovered against it on account of bodily injuries to or death of any person, or loss of or damage to property (other than property covered by paragraph (c) (1) of this section) resulting from the negligent operation, maintenance or use of motor vehicles operated by or under its direction and control.

(c) Minimum liability limits—(1) Cargo insurance. For loss of or damage to property while carried on or resting in any one conveyance or premises; minimum $10,000 per conveyance or premises. Conveyance includes, but is not limited to, aircraft, motor vehicles, rail and watercraft;

(2) Public liability; property. For loss or damage to property occurring at any one time or place: minimum $5,000;

(3) Public liability; personal injury. Claims for bodily injury or death: minimum $10,000 for one person subject to that limit per person and $20,000 for all persons in any one accident.

SUBPART G—CONTINUANCE OF OPERATIONS PENDING ISSUANCE OF OPERATING AUTHORIZATIONS PURSUANT TO THIS PART § 296.60 Existing operations may be continued pending issuance of Operating Authorizations under § 296.43 (b). Notwithstanding the provisions of any other subpart of this part, any air freight forwarder presently authorized to operate under a letter of registration, issued by the Board, in accordance with the provisions of Part 296 as in effect prior to this amendment may continue its operations thereunder and in accordance therewith for 30 days after the effective date of this part, and thereafter until such time as the Board shall finally dispose of its application for issuance of an operating authorization, pursuant to § 296.43 (b), if before the expiration of said 30 days such forwarder files such application.

Effective: June 12, 1956.

Adopted: April 13, 1956.

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

TITLE 15—COMMERCE AND FOREIGN TRADE

Chapter III—Bureau of Foreign Commerce, Department of Commerce

Subchapter B—Export Regulations

[7th Gen. Rev. of Export Regs., Amdt. 56]

PART 373—LICENSING POLICIES AND RELATED SPECIAL PROVISIONS

NONFERROUS COMMODITIES INCLUDING ORES, CONCENTRATES, OR UNREFINED PRODUCTS

Section 373.41 Nonferrous commodities including ores, concentrates, or unrefined products, paragraph (e) Aluminum scrap (new and old) and aluminum remelt ingots is amended to read as follows:

(e) Aluminum scrap (new and old), aluminum remelt ingots, and aluminum metal and alloys in crude form—(1) General. License applications to export aluminum scrap (new and old), Schedule B No. 630050, and aluminum remelt ingots, and aluminum metal and alloys in crude form, primary and secondary, including ingots, pigs, blooms, and slabs, Schedule B No. 630070, will be considered by the Bureau of Foreign Commerce for approval in accordance with the procedure described below.

(2) Aluminum scrap (new and old), and aluminum remelt ingots—(i) Statement of Past Participation in Exports, Form IT- or FC-821. Applicants are required to submit to the Bureau of Foreign Commerce a Statement of Past Participation in Exports on Form IT- or FC-821, in accordance with the procedure set forth in § 373.4, covering past exportations of aluminum scrap (new and old), Schedule B No. 630050, and aluminum remelt ingots, Schedule B No. 630070. A separate report on Form IT- or FC-821 shall be filed for each Schedule B number, broken down by countries of destination, and shall cover the quantity in Schedule B units of exports from the United States made during the second, third and fourth calendar quarters of 1954 and the first calendar quarter of 1955, where the total for such exports to all countries for each Schedule B number was $2,000 or over for the four quarters. In preparing Form IT- or FC-821, the heading above items (c) and (d) shall be changed to read "2nd, 3rd, 4th quarters, 1954", and the heading above items (e) and (f) shall read "1st quarter, 1955."

(ii) Unsalable leaded aluminum foil. Applications for licenses to export leaded aluminum foil scrap for which there is no market in the United States are not subject to the provisions of subdivision (i) of this subparagraph, but shall be supported by evidence of commercial unsalability in the domestic market. This evidence may be in the form of a letter or other statement from the applicant, supplier, or persons to whom the scrap was offered for sale. The evidence must be adequate to demonstrate that the scrap has been offered for sale without success in the normal domestic market at reasonable and competitive prices. It shall include, as a minimum, the names and addresses of the potential users to whom the scrap has been offered, the terms at which it has been offered, and the reason(s) for rejection of offers to sell.

(iii) Aluminum scrap containing 70 percent or less aluminum (including drosses, skimmings, slags, ashes, insulated wire and cable, paper-backed and cloth-backed aluminum foil). Applications for licenses to export aluminum scrap containing 70 percent or less aluminum shall specify the weight of the aluminum alloy metal content of the scrap material to be exported.

(iv) Time for submission of applications. Applications for licenses to export aluminum scrap (new and old), Schedule B No. 630050, and aluminum remelt ingots, Schedule B No. 630070, shall be submitted in accordance with the time schedules set forth in § 373.71.

(v) Validity period. Licenses to export the aluminum materials covered by this subparagraph will be issued for a validity period ending on the last day of the month following the quarter during which the application for the license was filed with the Bureau of Foreign Commerce. For example, a license issued pursuant to an application filed in April 1956, would expire on July 31, 1956.

(vi) Utilization of export quota. (a) A licensee who determines that the full amount of the quantity of the aluminum materials shown on the validated license will not be exported during the validity period of that license should promptly submit a request for amendment on Form IT– or FC–763 to reduce the quantity of the aluminum materials licensed to the amount actually intended for export. The amendment procedure set forth in § 380.2 (g) of this subchapter shall be followed in requesting quantity reductions on outstanding licenses.

(b) Any quantities recovered as a result of this procedure will be considered for licensing in the same quarter in which they were recovered. The return of any unused quantities by an exporter will in no way affect the exporter's entitlement under the historical licensing procedure in future quarters.

(3) Aluminum metal and alloys in crude form, primary and secondary, including ingots (except remelt ingots), pigs, blooms, and slabs.

(i) Availability for export. Applications for licenses to export aluminum metal and alloys in crude form, primary and secondary, including ingots (except remelt ingots), pigs, blooms, and slabs, Schedule B No. 630070, shall contain one of the applicable certifications listed below. Applications will be considered only where the date of availability of the commodities for export is shown to be within 90 days from the date the application is filed with the BFC.

(a) Where materials are in possession of applicant, the applicant shall execute and submit to the Bureau of Foreign Commerce the following certification:

I (we) certify that the aluminum materials described in this license application are in my (our) possession and will be available for export not later than _____ (Date) or

(b) Where materials are not in possession of applicant, the applicant shall submit to the Bureau of Foreign Commerce the following certification executed by the supplier of the materials:

I (we) certify that not later than _____ I (we) shall supply to (Date)

_____, (Name of applicant)

_____ short tons of (Quantity in short tons)

_____ in accordance (Type of aluminum material) with the terms of contract sale number _____ dated _____ (Contract number) (Date of contract)

(ii) Records. All documents evidencing commitment of sale must be kept available for inspection, upon demand, by the Bureau of Foreign Commerce for three years from the date of receipt of the application, as shown on the Acknowledgment Card (Form IT– or FC–116).

(iii) Validity period. License applications to export the aluminum materials covered by this subparagraph will be issued for a validity period ending on the last day of the third month following the month during which the license is validated, e. g., a license issued on May 10, 1956, would expire on August 31, 1956.

(4) Amendments to export licenses. No amendments requesting an extension of the validity period of the license will be granted for export licenses issued under this procedure. Where an amendment request involves an action other than an extension of the validity period, it shall be submitted directly to the Bureau of Foreign Commerce.

This amendment shall become effective as of April 18, 1956.

TITLE 19—CUSTOMS DUTIES

Chapter I—Bureau of Customs, Department of the Treasury

[T. D. 54065]

PART 11—PACKING AND STAMPING; MARKING; TRADE-MARKS AND TRADE NAMES; COPYRIGHTS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

In view of the amendment of title 17, United States Code, sections 9, 16, and 19, by the act approved August 31, 1954 (68 Stat. 1030), providing that works by nationals of, or first published in, countries adhering to the Universal Copyright Convention, which works contain the form of notice prescribed by paragraph (c) of section 9 of title 17, as amended, will receive copyright protection in this country without compliance with other United States formalities, §§ 11.19 and 11.21 of the Customs Regulations are hereby amended as follows:

Section 11.19 is amended to read as follows:

§ 11.19 Recordation of copyrighted works. (a) A person whose copyright claim has been registered in accordance with the provisions of the Copyright Act of July 30, 1947, as amended (17 U. S. C. 1–32),[21] or a person who claims copyright protection under section 9 (c) of that act, as amended (17 U. S. C. 9 (c)),[21a] by virtue of the Universal Copyright Convention, and has not registered a copyright claim, may secure to himself customs protection against importation of piratical copies of the copyrighted work in the following manner:

(1) In the case of books and other printed works which may be readily identified by title and name of the author, the copyright proprietor, or any person claiming actual or potential injury by reason of actual or contemplated importations of copies of such works, shall file in the Office of the Director, Customs Information Exchange, 201 Varick Street, New York 14, New York, a certificate of registration issued by the Copyright Office or, if copyright is claimed under section 9 (c) by virtue of the Universal Copyright Convention and no registration has been made, a statement setting forth the citizenship and domicile of the author at the time of publication, the date and place of publication, and a description of the work, including its title and the name of the author. There shall also be filed an application in duplicate for recordation of the copyrighted work, accompanied by 1,000 notices in the form indicated below, printed in 11-point Roman type on plain white cards of medium weight, size 3 x 5 inches, for distribution to customs field officers throughout the United States, including Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, Hawaii, and Alaska, and the fee of $25 prescribed by § 24.12 of this chapter. Checks or money orders in payment of the fee shall be made payable to the Collector of Customs, New York, New York.

(Name and address of copyright proprietor)

(2) In the case of copyrighted works not readily identifiable by title and author, application for recordation in the form of a letter shall be made to the Commissioner of Customs, Washington 25, D. C. Such application shall be accompanied by a certificate of registration issued by the Copyright Office, or, if copyright is claimed under section 9 (c) by virtue of the Universal Copyright Convention and no registration has been made, a statement setting forth the citizenship and domicile of the author at the time of publication, the date and place of publication, and a description of the work. There shall also be filed 500 photographic or other likenesses of the copyrighted work reproduced on paper 8 x 10½ inches in size, for distribution to all collectors of customs and appraisers of merchandise, accompanied by the fee of $25 prescribed by § 24.12 of this chapter. Checks or money orders in payment of the fee shall be made payable to the Head, Fiscal Section, Bureau of Customs.

(b) The following countries are parties to the Universal Copyright Convention:

Andorra, Cambodia, Chile, Costa Rica, France, German Federal Republic, Haiti, Holy See, Israel, Japan,[1] Laos, Luxembourg, Monaco, Pakistan, Spain, Switzerland, and United States of America.[2]

(Sec. 1, 61 Stat. 652, as amended; 17 U. S. C. 9, 109)

Part 11, is amended by appending to § 11.19 (a) a footnote designated 21a and reading as follows:

[21a] (c) When the Universal Copyright Convention, signed at Geneva on September 6, 1952, shall be in force between the United States of America and the foreign state or nation of which such author is a citizen or subject, or in which the work was first published. Any work to which copyright is extended pursuant to this subsection shall be exempt from the following provisions of this title: (1) The requirement in section 1 (e) that a foreign state or nation must grant to United States citizens mechanical reproduction rights similar to those specified therein; (2) the obligatory deposit requirements of the first sentence of section 13; (3) the provisions of sections 14, 16, 17, and 18; (4) the import prohibitions of section 107, to the extent that they are related to the manufacturing requirements of section 16; and (5) the requirements of sections 19 and 20: Provided, however, That such exemptions shall apply only if from the time of first publication all the copies of the work published with the authority of the author or other copyright proprietor shall bear the symbol © accompanied by the name of the copyright proprietor and the year of first publication placed in such manner and location as to give reasonable notice of claim of copyright.

Upon the coming into force of the Universal Copyright Convention in a foreign state or nation as hereinbefore provided, every book or periodical of a citizen or subject thereof in which ad interim copyright was subsisting on the effective date of said coming into force shall have copyright for twenty-eight years from the date of first publication abroad without the necessity of complying with the further formalities specified in section 23 of this title.

The provisions of this subsection shall not be extended to works of an author who is a citizen of, or domiciled in the United States of America regardless of place of first publication, or to works first published in the United States. (17 U. S. C. 9 (c))

Section 11.21 is amended to read as follows:

§ 11.21 United States manufacturing requirements; copies not produced in accordance with 17 U. S. C. 16[24] (a) Copies of books or periodicals for which manufacture in the United States is required by 17 U. S. C. 16 may not be imported during the existence of the United States copyright, unless importation is permitted under 17 U. S. C. 107,[22] or unless protection was secured under 17 U. S. C. 9 (c) by virtue of the Universal Copyright Convention or an ad interim copyright was extended to the full term by the provisions of 17 U. S. C. 9 (c).

(b) Up to 1500 copies of a book or periodical covered by ad interim copyright, when imported pursuant to the quantitative exception in 17 U. S. C. 16, may be released upon compliance with usual customs requirements if there is presented in connection with the entry an "Import Statement" issued by the Register of Copyrights on Copyright Office Form C–100, and such copies are otherwise admissible. The reverse side of the statement shall be completely filled in by the customs officer concerned and mailed at once to the Register of Copyrights as directed in the form.

(c) When an ad interim copyright is extended to a full term copyright, as provided for in 17 U. S. C. 23, notice of such extension, together with the full-term registration number and the date thereof, shall be communicated by the copyright proprietor to the Commissioner of Customs, Washington 25, D. C., within 30 days after such date.

(Sec. 1, 61 Stat. 652, as amended; 17 U. S. C. 16, 109)

Footnote 24 is amended to read as follows:

[24] Mechanical work to be done in United States. Of the printed book or periodical specified in section 5, subsections (a) and (b), of this title, except the original text of a book or periodical of foreign origin in a language or languages other than English, the text of all copies accorded protection under this title, except as below provided, shall be printed from type set within the limits of the United States, either by hand or by the aid of any kind of typesetting machine, or from plates made within the limits of the United States from type set therein, or, if the text be produced by lithographic process, or photoengraving process, then by a process wholly performed within the limits of the United States, and the printing of the text and binding of the said book shall be performed within the limits of the United States; which requirements shall extend also to the illustrations within a book consisting of printed text and illustrations produced by lithographic process, or photoengraving process, and also to separate lithographs or photoengravings, except where in either case the subjects represented are located in a foreign country and illustrate a scientific work or reproduce a work of art: Provided, however, That said requirements shall not apply to works in raised characters for the use of the blind, or to books or periodicals of foreign origin in a language or languages other than English, or to works printed or produced in the United States by any other process than those above specified in this section, or to copies of books or periodicals, first published abroad in the English language, imported into the United States within five years after first publication in a foreign state or nation up to the number of fifteen hundred copies of each such book or periodical if said copies shall contain notice of copyright in accordance with sections 10, 19, and 20 of this title and if ad interim copyright in said work shall have been obtained pursuant to section 22 of this title prior to the importation into the United States of any copy except those permitted by the provisions of section 107 of this title: Provided further, That the provisions of this section shall not affect the right of importation under the provisions of section 107 of this title. (17 U. S. C. 16)

AUTHORITY: §§ 73.1 to 73.5, issued under Public Law No. 462, 84th Congress.

§ 73.1 Invoices; marking; bond. (a) Articles intended for exhibition under the provisions of Public Law No. 462, 84th Congress, and valued at over $500, are subject to the usual special customs invoice requirements if of a class for which such invoices are required under the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, and the regulations issued thereunder. The invoices shall be on foreign service Form 138 (Invoice of Merchandise) and shall contain the information prescribed under section 481 of the Tariff Act of 1930. (19 U. S. C. 1481.)

(b) The marking requirements of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, and the regulations promulgated thereunder will not apply to articles imported under the regulations in this part except when such articles are withdrawn for consumption or use in the United States, in which case they shall be released from customs custody only upon a full compliance with the marking requirements of the tariff act, as amended, and the regulations promulgated thereunder.

(c) The International Trade Fair, Incorporated, shall give to the collector of customs at Seattle, Washington, a bond in an amount to be determined by the collector and containing such conditions for compliance with Public Law No. 462, 84th Congress, and the regulations in this part, as shall be approved by the Bureau of Customs.

§ 73.2 Entry; appraisement; procedure. (a) All entries under the regulations in this part shall be made at the port of Seattle, Washington, in the name of the International Trade Fair, Incorporated, which shall be deemed for customs purposes the sole consignee of the merchandise entered under the act and which shall be held responsible to the Government for all duties and charges due the United States on account of such entries; but, in the case of merchandise withdrawn from entry under this part, an entry under the general tariff law in the name of any person duly authorized in writing by the International Trade Fair, Incorporated, to make such entry may be accepted by the collector.

(b) Articles to be entered under the regulations in this part which arrive at ports other than Seattle shall be entered for immediate transportation without appraisement to the latter port in the manner prescribed by the general customs regulations.

(c) Upon the arrival at the port of Seattle of articles to be entered under the regulations in this part, they shall be entered on a special form of entry to read substantially as follows:

ENTRY FOR EXHIBITION

Entry No. ---------

Entry at the port of Seattle of articles consigned or transferred to the International Trade Fair, Incorporated, under ----------, ---------- from ---------- on the ---------- day of ---------- 19 .., for exhibition purposes under Public Law No. 462 of the 84th Congress, approved April 2, 1956.

| Mark | Number | Package and contents | Quantity | Invoice value |
|---|---|---|---|---|

INTERNATIONAL TRADE FAIR, INCORPORATED,
By ----------

(d) Upon such entry being made, the collector shall issue a special permit for the transfer of the articles covered thereby to the buildings in which they are to be exhibited or used, or, in the discretion of the collector, to the appraiser's stores for examination and subsequent transfer to the buildings in which they are to be exhibited or used. The articles shall be tentatively appraised prior to their exhibition or use. All imported exhibits entered under this part shall be kept segregated from domestic articles and imported duty-paid articles and shall not be removed from the exhibition building except in accordance with § 73.5 (a).

(e) If for any reason articles imported for entry under the regulations in this part are not upon their arrival to be delivered immediately at an exhibition building, the importer should so indicate to the collector in writing, who will cause such articles to be placed in a bonded warehouse under a "general order permit" at the importer's risk and expense, and such articles may be entered at any time within one year from the date of importation for exhibition, as herein provided for, or under the general tariff law, or for exportation. If not so entered within such period, they will be regarded as abandoned to the Government.

(f) Articles which have been admitted without payment of duty for exhibition under any customs law and which have remained in continuous customs custody or under a customs exhibition bond may be transferred to entry for exhibition at the fair in the manner prescribed in § 10.49 (c) of this chapter, except that in each case an entry under paragraph (c) of this section shall be filed, which shall supersede any previous entry, and no new bond other than that specified in § 73.1 (c) shall be required. Imported articles in bonded warehouses under the general tariff law may be transferred to entry for exhibition at the fair in the manner prescribed in § 8.33 of this chapter.

§ 73.3 Compliance, provisions of Plant Quarantine Act of 1912, and Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act. The entry of plant material subject to restriction under the Plant Quarantine Act of 1912, as amended (7 U. S. C. 151–164a, 167), shall not be permitted except under permits issued therefor by the Plant Quarantine Branch of the Agriculture Research Service, Department of Agriculture, and in accordance with the plant quarantine regulations. The entry of food products shall conform to the requirements of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, as amended (21 U. S. C. 301 et seq.), and regulations issued thereunder.

§ 73.4 Detail of customs officers to protect revenue; expenses. (a) The collector of customs at Seattle, Washington, shall detail an officer to act as his representative at the fair and shall station inside the exhibition buildings as many additional customs officers and employees as may be necessary to properly protect the revenue.

(b) All actual and necessary customs charges for labor, services, and other expenses in connection with the entry, examination, appraisement, release, or custody of imported articles, together with the necessary charges for salaries of customs officers and employees in connection with the supervision and custody of, and accounting for, articles imported for exhibition at the fair or transferred thereto for exhibition, shall be reimbursed by the International Trade Fair, Incorporated, to the Government, payment to be made monthly to the collector of customs, Seattle, Washington, for deposit to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States as a refund to the appropriation "Collecting the Revenue from Customs."

§ 73.5 Withdrawal of articles from exhibition for exportation, abandonment, destruction, or for consumption or entry under the general tariff law; involuntary abandonment. (a) Any articles entered under the regulations of this part may be withdrawn for exportation, for abandonment to the Government, for destruction under customs supervision, or for consumption or entry under the general tariff law, but not otherwise, at any time prior to the opening of the fair or at any time during or within three months after the close of the fair. Upon the withdrawal of such articles for consumption or for entry under the general tariff law, or at the expiration of three months after the close of the fair in the case of articles not previously so withdrawn, they shall be appraised with due allowance made for diminution or deterioration from incidental handling or exposure. Such appraisal shall be final in the absence of an appeal to reappraisement, as provided in section 501 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U. S. C. 1501). In the case of such articles withdrawn for entry under the general tariff law under a warehouse bond or a bond conditioned upon exportation, the statutory period of the bond and any extension thereof shall be computed from the date of withdrawal from entry under the provisions of Public Law No. 462 of the 84th Congress.

(b) At any time prior to the opening of the fair, or at any time during or within three months after the close of the fair, any article entered hereunder may be abandoned to the Government or destroyed under customs supervision, as provided in § 15.4 of this chapter.

(c) Any articles entered under the regulations in this part which have not been withdrawn for consumption, entry under the general tariff law, or exportation, or which have not been abandoned to the Government or destroyed under customs supervision, before the expiration of three months after the close of the fair, shall be regarded as abandoned to the Government.

Sec. 31, lots 4 to 9, inclusive, and NE¼SW¼.

The areas described aggregate 656.10 acres.

7. The lands released from withdrawal by this order shall be subject, until 10:00 a. m. on July 10, 1956, to application by the State of Arizona, under any statute or regulation applicable thereto, for rights-of-way for public highways or as a source of material for the construction and maintenance of such highways pursuant to section 24 of the Federal Power Act, as amended (41 Stat. 1075; 49 Stat. 846; 16 U. S. C. 818).

8. The lands described in paragraph 2, aggregating 963.91 acres, which comprise a part of the Tonto National Forest, shall be open, subject to any valid existing rights and to the requirements of applicable law, to such applications and selections as are permitted on national forest lands, effective at 10:00 a. m. on May 17, 1956. All the restored lands have been open to offers under the mineral leasing laws, and to location under the mining laws subject to the provisions of the act of April 11, 1955 (69 Stat. 681; 16 U. S. C. 621).

9. The restored lands, in the main, are grazing lands and are not arable.

10. No application for the restored lands may be allowed under the homestead, desert-land, small tract, or any other nonmineral public-land law unless the lands have already been classified as valuable or suitable for such type of application, or shall be so classified upon the consideration of an application. Any application that is filed will be considered on its merits. The lands will not be subject to occupancy or disposition until they have been classified.

11. Subject to any valid existing rights and the requirements of applicable law, the restored lands are hereby opened to filing of applications, selections, and locations in accordance with the following:

a. Applications and selections under the nonmineral public-land laws may be presented to the Manager, mentioned below, beginning on the date of this order. Such applications and selections will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraphs:

(1) Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

(2) All valid applications under the Homestead, Desert Land, and Small Tract Laws by qualified veterans of World War II or of the Korean Conflict, and by others entitled to preference rights under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279–284 as amended), presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on May 17, 1956, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such preference right applications filed after that hour and before 10:00 a. m. on August 16, 1956, will be governed by the time of filing.

(3) All valid applications and selections under the nonmineral public-land laws, other than those coming under paragraphs (1) and (2) above, presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on August 16, 1956, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such applications and selections filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

12. Persons claiming veterans preference rights must enclose with their applications proper evidence of military or naval service, preferably a complete photostatic copy of the certificate of honorable discharge. Persons claiming preference rights based upon valid settlement, statutory preference, or equitable claims must enclose properly corroborated statements in support of their claims. Detailed rules and regulations governing applications which may be filed pursuant to this notice can be found in Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Inquiries concerning the lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Phoenix, Arizona.

WESLEY A. D'EWART,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

TITLE 46—SHIPPING

Chapter I—Coast Guard, Department of the Treasury

[CGFR 56–14]

PART 78—OPERATIONS

PART 90—GENERAL PROVISIONS

RECORDS OF NUMBER OF PASSENGERS CARRIED AND A DETERMINATION CONCERNING SEAGOING BARGE FOR INSPECTION PURPOSES

The masters of passenger vessels are required by 46 CFR 78.17–50 to maintain records showing the dates when fire and boat drills are conducted, number, and identification of lifeboats swung out at each lifeboat drill, the condition of the vessel and her equipment, and the number of passengers carried. The submission of this information each month on Form CG–941 by the master to the Coast Guard District Commander of the district in which the vessel was last inspected is no longer considered necessary, if the information can be obtained upon request. The present regulations require this information to be recorded in the vessel's official log book with the exception of the number of passengers carried on any particular day or for a particular voyage. To discontinue the submission each month of a report by the master on Form CG–941, 46 CFR 78.17–50 (e) is canceled and the requirements for maintenance of records of the number of passengers carried are transferred to 46 CFR 78.37–10 so that this information will be included in required log book entries. The provisions in 46 CER 78.17–40 (d) require entries in the official log book relative to each fire and boat drill conducted.

Sections 10, 11, and 12 of the Act of May 28, 1908, as amended (38 Stat. 428; 46 U. S. C. 395–397), require the inspection of the hull and equipment of every seagoing barge of 100 gross tons or over. This act did not define a seagoing barge for inspection purposes. Since the determination and classification of a vessel as to whether or not a barge is a seagoing barge is within the administrative discretion of the Coast Guard, the interpretation in a new regulation designated 46 CFR 90.05–25 is published for the information and guidance of all concerned.

Because the amendments to 46 CFR 78.17–50 and 78.37–10 are editorial in nature and abolish a requirement for submission of an administrative form and the new regulation designated 46 CFR 90.05–25 is an interpretation, it is hereby found that compliance with the Administrative Procedure Act respecting notice of proposed rule making, public rule making procedures thereon, and effective date requirements thereof, is unnecessary.

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Commandant, United States Coast Guard, by Treasury Department Order No. 120, dated July 31, 1950 (15 F. R. 6521), and Treasury Department Order No. 167–14, dated November 26, 1954 (19 F. R. 8026), to promulgate regulations in accordance with the statutes cited with the regulations below, the following amendments of this document are prescribed and shall become effective upon the date of publication of this document in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Section 78.17–50 Fire and boat drills is amended by canceling paragraph (e).

Section 78.37–10 is amended to read as follows:

§ 78.37–10 Official log entries. (a) In addition to other items required to be entered in the official log book on every vessel where an official log book is required, all items relative to the crew and passengers, including the count of passengers carried, and to casualties shall also be entered.

(b) On any vessel where an official log book is not required, the master shall keep a correct count of all the passengers received and delivered from day to day, which count shall be open to the inspection of the Coast Guard at all times, and the aggregate number of the passengers carried shall be furnished to the Coast Guard as often as called for (R. S. 4467, 46 U. S. C. 460).

(R. S. 4405, as amended, 4462, as amended; 46 U. S. C. 375, 416. Interpret or apply R. Part 90 is amended by adding a new regulation designated § 90.05–25, reading as follows:

§ 90.05–25 Seagoing barge. (a) The phrase "of every seagoing barge of 100 gross tons or over" in section 10 of the act of May 28, 1908, as amended (38 Stat. 428; 46 U. S. C. 395), shall include every nonself-propelled vessel (100 gross tons or over) if such vessel by its design and construction is adapted to or fitted for use on the high seas or ocean and will navigate the high seas or ocean or waters directly connected therewith and substantially a part thereof. The phrase "nonself-propelled vessel" means a vessel without sufficient means for self-propulsion and required to be towed. The phrase "high seas or ocean" includes the waters of the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans and the Gulf of Mexico.

(b) If a nonself-propelled vessel (100 gross tons and over), whether or not designed for seagoing or ocean service, proceeds on a voyage to a foreign port via the high seas or ocean, or proceeds on a voyage between two domestic ports via the high seas or ocean, such vessel will be subject to inspection and certification as a seagoing barge.

TITLE 47—TELECOMMUNICATION

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

[Docket No. 8333; FCC 56–322]

[Rules Amdt. 1–4]

PART 1—PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE

ACCEPTANCE OF APPLICATIONS

In the matter of promulgation of rules and regulations and standards of good engineering practice concerning daytime skywave transmissions for standard broadcast stations, Docket No. 8333; amendment of § 1.371 of the Commission's rules and regulations, Rules Amdt. 1–4.

1. The Commission has before it for consideration a petition filed on December 15, 1955, by Central Broadcasting Company (WHO) Des Moines, Iowa, requesting the Commission to amend paragraphs 3 and 4 of Footnote 10 (b) to § 1.371 of its rules and regulations, an Opposition filed on December 30, 1955 by Radio American West Indies, Inc. (WIVI), Christiansted, St. Croix, Virgin Islands; and an opposition filed on January 25, 1956 by Albuquerque Broadcasting Company (KOB), Albuquerque, N. Mex.

2. The Commission is presently considering the problems involved in daytime skywave in an outstanding rule making proceeding in Docket No. 8333. In order to avoid the possibility of granting authorizations which might be inconsistent with its final decision in the daytime skywave proceeding, the Commission provided in Footnote 10 (b) to § 1.371 that until a decision is reached in that proceeding, action would be withheld on applications for daytime or limited time Class II assignments on I–A and I–B channels and on applications for unlimited time Class II assignments on I–B channels which propose different operation day and night. Since at that time the Commission did not authorize any unlimited time Class II stations on I–A frequencies, no reference is made to this category in the footnote.

3. On December 3, 1954, the Commission amended § 3.25 (a) of its rules to permit the assignment of Class II stations, under certain conditions, on I–A channels in Alaska, Hawaii, Virgin Islands and Puerto Rico. However, the Commission did not at the same time revise Footnote 10 (b) to provide, as it does with unlimited time Class II stations on I–B channels, that such application on I–A channels in the Territories which propose different operation day and night would not be considered during the pendency of the daytime skywave proceeding.

4. Central Broadcasting Company is the licensee of Radio Station WHO operating on the Class I–A clear channel frequency of 1040 kc in Des Moines, Iowa. On December 15, 1955, Central filed a petition requesting the Commission to modify Footnote 10 (b) to provide that, pending a determination in the daytime skywave proceeding, applications for new stations, or for changes in frequency, which propose unlimited time Class II stations on I–A channels operating differently during the day and night will not be acted upon.

5. Central asserts that the Commission has clearly indicated that while the daytime skywave proceeding is in progress, it does not intend to authorize Class II stations proposing different daytime and nighttime powers to operate on any clear channel, whether I–A or I–B. From an engineering standpoint, Central argues, there is no basis for treating applications for unlimited time Class II stations on I–A channels any differently from those on I–B channels. The distances between the Territories and the continental United States, Central alleges, are sufficiently short that a Class II station operating with a daytime power greater than nighttime, or with a different daytime radiation pattern, could deliver a skywaye field intensity within the United States during daytime hours of sufficient magnitude to cause interference to the service area of a Class I station. Central contends that since Footnote 10 (b) is designed to insure that the operation of Class II stations on clear channels can be conformed to whatever decision is reached on daytime skywave, the provisions of Footnote 10 (b) should apply with equal force to Class II stations on I–A channels whenever different daytime and nighttime operation is contemplated. Central maintains, therefore, that the Commission's failure to modify Footnote 10 (b) at the time it amended its rules to permit unlimited time Class II stations on I–A channels in the Territories was merely an oversight.

6. On December 30, 1955, Radio American West Indies, Inc., licensee of Station WIVI on 1230 kc with 250 watts power at Christiansted, St. Croix, Virgin Islands, filed an Opposition to the Central petition. Radio American has an application on file to change the frequency of WIVI to 1040 kc—the Class I–A frequency on which Station WHO operates—and for 1 kw power daytime, 250 watts nighttime (File No. BP–9302).[1] Radio American explains that for more than two years it has been trying to improve its facilities. It has been operating on a local frequency with 250 watts power day and night, but submits that it has been difficult to render satisfactory service with such limited facilities. Radio American states that after the Commission amended § 3.25 (a) to permit Class II unlimited time stations on I–A channels in the Territories, it investigated the possibility of such operation and on January 31, 1955, amended a pending application to specify operation on 1040 kc with 1 kw power day and night. However, the station was advised that with this power the application would not meet conditions set out in the new rule since the 0.025 mv/m 10 percent nighttime skywave contour would cover part of Florida. The station thereafter amended its application to reduce nighttime power to 250 watts. Radio American urges that the sole effect of Central's petition would be to "freeze" its application indefinitely and to negate the effect of the amendment of § 3.25 (a). Radio American contends that Central is seeking merely to aggrandize the monopoly status which it enjoys as a clear channel station. Radio American argues that the Commission's failure to amend Footnote 10 (b) was not an oversight but, rather, that such action was taken with full knowledge of the alleged problems inherent in the operation of Class II stations on I–A channels in the Territories. Radio American maintains that when it took such action, the Commission considered and disposed of virtually identical arguments as those now advanced by Central.

7. On January 26, 1956, Albuquerque Broadcasting Company, licensee of Station KOB, Albuquerque, New Mexico, filed an Opposition to the Central request. KOB holds a construction permit for 50 kw, unlimited time, on 1180 kc and is an applicant for modification of its permit to specify 770 kc and for license to cover the permit. These applications are currently in hearing status (Docket Nos. 6584 and 6585). KOB submits that Central's request for amendment of Footnote 10 (b) to provide that action must be withheld on applications for unlimited time operation on Class I–A clear channels would be inconsistent with the proceedings now pending before the Commission involving its own applications since the suggested language might require withholding action on these applications.

8. Footnote 10 (b) to § 1.371 outlines the procedure for processing applications for Class II stations during the daytime skywave proceeding. At the time Footnote 10 (b) was revised to reflect this procedure, unlimited time Class II stations were not authorized for operation on I–A channels; and the Footnote does not refer to this category. Subsequently, however—in December 1954—§ 3.25 (a) was amended to permit unlimited time Class II stations in the Territories on I–A channels. But the Commission did not, at the same time, amend Footnote 10 (b) to make clear—as it does with respect to authorizations of Class II stations on I–B channels—that while the daytime skywave proceeding is pending, action will not be taken on applications which propose different operation daytime and nighttime. Our failure to amend the processing procedure was inadvertent. The purpose of the processing procedure prescribed by Footnote 10 (b) is to make sure that while the daytime skywave proceeding is pending stations which might be inconsistent with our ultimate decision in that proceeding will not be authorized. Authorization of unlimited time Class II stations on clear channels which would operate differently daytime and nighttime may render difficult the proper formulation and effectuation of any new rules which might be adopted as a result of this proceeding. The very same considerations which led us to withhold action on unlimited time Class II stations on I–B channels apply to such stations on I–A channels; there is no valid basis for treating applications for these two types of authorizations differently. Unlimited time Class II stations in the Territories on I–A channels which would operate differently daytime and nighttime may very well not conform to our decision in the daytime skywave proceeding. We are therefore amending Footnote 10 (b) to make clear that during the pendency of the daytime skywave proceeding, action will be withheld on applications for unlimited time Class II stations on I–A channels which propose to operate differently daytime and nighttime. However, we have revised the text of the proposed amendment suggested by Central in order that action on the applications of KOB, which warrant special consideration, will not have to be withheld. Under the text of the rule as now adopted, action can be taken on KOB's application.

9. The amendment adopted herein is procedural and, pursuant to the provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act, may be adopted without prior notice of rule making and may be made effective imediately.

10. In view of the foregoing: It is ordered, That pursuant to sections 4 (i), 303 (c), (f), (h) and (r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, effective April 11, 1956, Footnote 10 (b) of § 1.371 of the Commission's rules and regulations is amended to read as follows:

[10b] Pending conclusion of the proceeding in Docket No. 8333 action will be withheld on the following:

(1) Applications proposing daytime or limited time assignments on any of the frequencies specified in § 3.25 (a) and (b) of this chapter;

(2) Applications by existing daytime or limited time stations presently assigned to any of the frequencies specified in § 3.25 (a) and (b) of this chapter, proposing (a) a change in operation resulting in an increase in radiation towards the normally protected contour of a United States Class I station on the channel; or (b) proposing a change in transmitter location resulting in a material reduction in the distance from that station to the normally protected contour of a United States Class I station on the channel;

(3) Applications for new stations, and those for changes in frequency assignment of existing stations, proposing unlimited time Class II assignments which would operate differently during the day and night in the continental United States on any of the frequencies specified in § 3.25 (b) of this chapter, or in Alaska, Hawaii, Virgin Islands and Puerto Rico on any of the frequencies specified in § 3.25 (a) and (b) of this chapter;

(4) Applications for changes in existing stations, other than frequency, proposing unlimited time Class II facilities which would operate differently during the day and night in the continental United States on any of the frequencies specified in § 3.25 (b) of this chapter, or proposing unlimited time Class II facilities in Alaska, Hawaii, Virgin Islands and Puerto Rico on any of the frequencies specified in § 3.25 (a) and (b) of this chapter, where the resulting daytime and nighttime operations are different; and it is either (a) proposed to change daytime operation resulting in an increase in radiation towards the normally protected contour of a United States Class I station on the channel; or (b) it is proposed to change transmitter location resulting in a material reduction in the distance from that station to the normally protected contour of a United States Class I station on the channel.

Secretary.

[F. R. Doc. 56–2995; Filed, Apr. 17, 1956; 8:50 a. m.]

[1] On January 18, 1956, the Commission directed a letter to Radio American stating that the considerations which led the Commission to withhold action on certain applications as provided by Footnote 10 (b) apply with equal force to applications for unlimited time assignments on I–A channels and that action was being withheld on Radio American's application.

PART 7—STATIONS ON LAND IN THE MARITIME SERVICES

PART 8—STATIONS ON SHIPBOARD IN THE MARITIME SERVICES

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

In the matter of amendment of Parts 7 and 8 of the Commission's rules to delete authority for operation by coast stations, ship stations and aircraft stations on currently assignable frequencies for telephony in the band 4000 kc to 18000 kc; and to include authority for operation of such stations on other frequencies for telephony within the same band; Docket No. 10377; Rules Amdts. 7–8 and 8–13.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 11th day of April 1956;

The Commission having under consideration that portion of its proposal in the above-entitled matter embodied in the Seventh Further Notice of Proposed Rule Making which relates to the availability of the public coast station frequency 4393.1 kc at New York, New York, which is to be paired with the present ship frequency 4087.7 kc, and which also relates to the correction of the existing pairing 4752.5 kc (coast)—4101.5 kc (ship) at New York to 4406.9 kc (coast)—4101.5 kc (ship);

It appearing, that in accordance with the requirements of section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act, Notice of Proposed Rule Making in this matter which made provision for the submission of written comments by interested parties, was duly published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on March 7, 1956 (21 F. R. 1465) and the period for filing comments has now expired; and

It further appearing, that The American Telephone and Telegraph Company filed comments in support of the proposal and no other comments or objections were received in the subject docket; and

It further appearing, that the public interest, convenience and necessity will be served by the amendments herein ordered, the authority for which is contained in the original Notice of Proposed Rule Making in this Docket;

It is ordered, That, effective June 1, 1956, Parts 7 and 8 of the Commission's rules are amended as set forth below.

(Sec. 4, 48 Stat. 1066, as amended, 47 U. S. C. 154. Interprets or applies sec. 303, 48 Stat. 1082, as amended, 47 U. S. C. 303)

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] MARY JANE MORRIS,
Secretary.

A. Part 7 is amended as follows:

1. Section 7.304 (a) is amended by deleting from the table in this paragraph the frequency 4752.5 kc, and by adding thereto the frequency 4393.1 kc.

2. Section 7.306 (a) (1) is amended to read as follows:

(1) Working frequencies below 5000 kc:

| Coast station transmitting carrier frequency [1] kc | Coast station located in the vicinity of— | Coast station receiving carrier frequency (kc) |
|---|---|---|
| 2506 | San Francisco, Calif. | 2406 |
| 2530 | Hawaiian islands | 2134 |
| 2590 | New York, N. Y. | 2198 |
| 4060.1 | New York, N. Y. | 4087.7 |
| 4420.7 | Hawaiian Islands | 4115.3 |
| 4372.4 | San Francisco, Calif. | 4067 |
| 4406.9 | New York, N. Y. | 4101.5 |
| 4334.5 [2] | New York, N. Y. | [2] 4129.1 |

[1] These frequencies are those which may be specified in applications for coast station authorizations.
[2] Available for use annually during period Dec. 15 to Mar. 15.

3. Section 7.306 (b)—That portion of the frequency table dealing with New York, New York, is amended to read as follows:

TITLE 49—TRANSPORTATION

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

[S. O. 911]

PART 95—CAR SERVICE

RAILROAD OPERATING REGULATIONS FOR FREIGHT CAR MOVEMENT

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 12th day of April A. D. 1956.

It appearing that an acute shortage of freight cars exists in all sections of the country; that cars loaded and empty are unduly delayed in terminals and in placement at, or removal from industries; that present rules, regulations, and practices with respect to the use, supply control, movement, distribution, exchange, interchange, and return of freight cars are insufficient to promote the most efficient utilization of cars; it is the opinion of the Commission that an emergency exists requiring immediate action to promote car service in the interest of the public and the commerce of the people. Accordingly, the Commission finds that notice and public procedure are impracticable and contrary to the public interest, and that good cause exists for making this order effective upon less than thirty days' notice: It is ordered, That:

§ 95.911 Railroad operating regulations for freight car movement. (a) Each common carrier by railroad subject to the Interstate Commerce Act shall observe, enforce and obey the following rules, regulations and practices with respect to its car service:

(1) Placing loaded cars at final destination for unloading. Loaded cars, which after placement will be governed by demurrage tariff rules applicable to detention of cars awaiting unloading, shall be placed on carrier's or consignee's unloading tracks within twenty-four hours after the first 7:00 a. m., following arrival at the destination station or serving yard.

(2) Placing loaded cars held for terminal services. Loaded cars held at billed destination for accessorial terminal services described in the applicable demurrage tariff, such as holding for orders or inspection, shall be placed on carrier's or consignee's unloading tracks, or inspection tracks, within twenty-four hours after disposition orders to place cars for unloading or inspection are actually received by the railroad. Carrier records shall show date and time such orders to place cars for unloading or inspection are received.

(3) Constructive placement of loaded cars. When delivery of a car for unloading cannot be made because of any condition attributable to the consignee, written notice that car is held and that the railroad is unable to deliver shall be sent or given consignees within twenty-four hours after arrival of car at hold point.

(4) Removal of cars after unloading. Where switching service is performed more than four days a week, empty cars shall be removed from point of unloading or interchange tracks of industrial plants within twenty-four hours after the first 7:00 a. m. following unloading or release by consignee, unless such cars are ordered or appropriated by the shipper for reloading within such twenty-four hour period.

(5) Transporting loaded cars. Where switching service is performed more than four days a week, all outbound loaded freight cars shall be pulled from loading place or interchange tracks of industrial plants within twenty-four hours after the first 7:00 a. m. following acceptance by the carrier of the shipping order. Such cars shall be forwarded in line haul service within twenty-four hours after the first 7:00 a. m. following their receipt in outbound makeup or classification yards.

(6) Restriction on holding cars for prospective loading. Except cars assembled for peak or seasonal movements and special types of cars for specific types of loading, no more cars shall be held for prospective loading at any time, for any industry, than those needed to protect current outbound loading.

(7) Repair tracks. Any cars taken out of service for repairs, or carded for repairs, shall be repaired at the earliest time consistent with efficient railroad operating practices.

(8) Car Distribution Orders. (i) Observe, obey and comply with freight car distribution orders now outstanding, or hereafter issued by the Car Service Division, Association of American Railroads, not inconsistent with any order of the Commission. Arthur H. Gass, Chairman of the Car Service Division, is directed to inform the Director of the Bureau of Safety and Service of such outstanding orders or similar orders which may be subsequently issued and, upon request, to advise the Director of the Bureau of Safety and Service of railroad performance and compliance with such orders.

(ii) C. W. Taylor, Director, Bureau of Safety and Service of the Interstate Commerce Commission, is hereby appointed Agent of the Commission with authority to issue such orders as he may find necessary with respect to the location, relocation and distribution of freight cars as between sections of the country, or carriers by railroads or on such carriers, throughout the United States.

(9) Yard checks, supervision and records. The necessary yard and track checks shall be made and sufficient supervision and records shall be maintained to enable carriers to comply with the above provisions of this section.

(b) Application: (1) The provisions of this section shall apply to intrastate and interstate commerce.

(2) The provisions of this section shall not apply to freight cars containing property held at or short of ports awaiting transfer of the property from the cars to off-shore vessels for movement beyond by water, nor to empty cars held at ports for transfer of property from such vessels to such cars.

(3) When computing the periods of time provided in this section, exclude Saturdays, Sundays, and such holidays as are listed in Item No. 25, Agent H. R. Hinsch's Demurrage Tariff I. C. C. 4677, or reissues thereof, only when they occur within the said periods of time, but not after.

(c) Regulations suspended; announcement required: The operation of all rules and regulations, insofar as they conflict with the provisions of this section, is hereby suspended and each railroad subject to this order, or its agent, shall publish, file, and post a supplement to each of its tariffs affected hereby, in substantial accordance with the provisions of Rule 9 (k) of the Commission's Tariff Circular No. 20 (§ 141.9 (k) of this chapter), announcing such suspension.

(d) Effective date: This section shall become effective at 7:00 a. m., April 23, 1956.

(e) Expiration date: This section shall expire at 11:59 p. m., December 31, 1956, unless otherwise modified, changed, suspended, or annulled by order of this Commission.

It is further ordered, That a copy of this order and direction shall be served upon the railroad regulatory body of each State and upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement, and all other carriers by railroad; and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

(Sec. 12, 24 Stat. 383, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 12. Interprets or applies sec. 1, 24 Stat. 379, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 1)

By the Commission.

Secretary.

PART 95—CAR SERVICE

FREE TIME ON UNLOADING BOX AND REFRIGERATOR CARS AT PORTS

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 12th day of April, A. D. 1956.

It appearing that there is a critical shortage of box and refrigerator cars, that such cars are being delayed unduly in unloading at ports and that free time published in tariffs for unloading such cars aggravates the shortage; impeding the use, control, supply, movement, distribution, exchange, interchange and return of such cars; in the opinion of the Commission an emergency exists at all ports of the country requiring immediate action to promote car service in the interest of the public and the commerce of the people. Accordingly, the Commission finds that notice and public procedure are impracticable and contrary to the public interest, and that good cause exists for making this order effective upon less than thirty days' notice: It is ordered, That:

§ 95.912 Free time on unloading box and refrigerator cars at ports. (a) (1) No common carrier or carriers by railroad subject to the Interstate Commerce Act shall allow, grant or permit more than a combined total of 6 days' free time on any box or refrigerator car held for unloading at the point of transfer from car to vessel or storage or when held short of such transfer point. The provisions of this paragraph shall not be construed to require or permit the increase of any free time published in tariffs lawfully on file with this Commission, and in effect on the effective date of this section.

(2) Section 22 quotations: Common carrier or carriers by railroad, subject to the Interstate Commerce Act, who have entered or may enter into Section 22 agreements with the United States, providing for waiver of storage and/or demurrage charges at port areas where shipments are held for transfer to vessels or storage or where held short of such transfer or storage point shall, upon expiration of the combined total of 6 days' time, provided by this section, unload and release the car or cars for transportation service within 24 hours thereafter.

(b) Computation of free time: (1) All Saturdays, Sundays and the holidays listed in Item 25 of Agent Hinsch's Demurrage Tariff 4-C, I. C. C. No. 4677 and subsequent issues thereof shall be excluded in computing the free time provided in paragraph (a) of this section.

(2) The free time provided in paragraph (a) of this section shall be computed from the first 7:00 a. m., after notice of arrival or constructive placement is sent or given to the party entitled to receive same until final release of the car, less time required to move a constructively placed car from hold point to point of unloading.

(3) Any detention beyond the sixth day of free time provided in paragraph (a) of this section shall not be offset by credits earned under any average detention basis for settlement.

(c) Definition of box and refrigerator cars: The term "box car" as used in this section means freight equipment having a mechanical designation in the Official Railway Equipment Register prefixed by "X" or "V" and Class "R" refrigerator car type.

(d) Application: The provisions of this section shall apply to intrastate, interstate and foreign commerce, including commerce with insular possessions and the territories of Alaska and Hawaii.

(e) Regulations suspended; announcement required: The operation of all rules and regulations insofar as they conflict with the provisions of this section is hereby suspended and each railroad subject to this section, or its agent, shall publish, file and post a supplement to each of its tariffs affected hereby, in substantial accordance with the provisions of Rule 9 (k) of the Commission's Tariff Circular No. 20 (§ 141.9 (k) of this chapter), announcing such suspension.

(f) Effective date: This section shall become effective at 7:00 a. m., April 23, 1956, and the provisions of this order shall apply to all cars on which the free time provided herein has not expired on the effective date and hour herein stated.

(g) Expiration date: This section shall expire at 11:59 p. m., December 31, 1956, unless otherwise modified, changed, suspended or annulled by order of this Commission.

(h) This order shall not change Demurrage Rule 8 of Tariff I. C. C. No. 4677 as amended or as reissued, or similar rules in other tariffs adjusting, cancelling, or refunding demurrage charges arising from the unusual conditions or circumstances described in said Rule 8 or similar rules in other tariffs.

It is further ordered, That a copy of this order and direction be served upon the State railroad regulatory bodies of each State and upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

(Sec. 12, 24 Stat. 383, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 12. Interprets or applies sec. 1, 24 Stat. 379, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 1)

By the Commission.

Secretary.

PART 95—CAR SERVICE

FREE TIME ON FREIGHT CARS LOADED AT PORTS

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 12th day of April A. D. 1956.

It appearing that there is a critical shortage of freight cars, that freight cars are being delayed unduly in loading at ports, and that free time published in tariffs for loading such cars aggravates the shortage, impeding the use, control, supply, movement, distribution, exchange, interchange, and return of such cars; in the opinion of the Commission an emergency exists at all ports of the country requiring immediate action to promote car service in the interest of the public and the commerce of the people. Accordingly, the Commission finds that notice and public procedure are impracticable and contrary to the public interest, and that good cause exists for making this order effective upon less than thirty days' notice: It is ordered, That:

§ 95.913 Free time on freight cars loaded at ports. (a) No common carrier or carriers by railroad subject to the Interstate Commerce Act shall allow, grant or permit more than a combined total of 4 days' free time on any freight car held for loading at the point of transshipment from vessel or storage to car or when held out of such transfer point prior to the receipt of proper forwarding directions on such car. The provisions of this paragraph shall not be construed to require or permit the increase of any free time now published in tariffs lawfully on file with this Commission and in effect on the effective date of this section.

(b) Computation of time: (1) All Saturdays, Sundays and the holidays listed in Item No. 25 of Agent Hinsch's Demurrage Tariff 4-C, I. C. C. No. 4677 and subsequent issues thereof, shall be excluded in computing the free time provided in paragraph (a) of this section.

(2) The free time provided in paragraph (a) of this section shall be computed as follows:

(i) On cars ordered at the first 7:00 a. m. of the date for which ordered, provided such cars are actually placed at that time. When such cars are actually placed subsequent to the date for which ordered at the next 7:00 a. m. after actual placement.

(ii) When cars appropriated, at the next 7:00 a. m., after loading is started.

(c) Application: The provisions of this order shall apply to intrastate, interstate and foreign commerce, including commerce with insular possessions and the territories of Alaska and Hawaii.

(d) Regulations suspended; announcement required: The operation of all rules and regulations insofar as they conflict with the provisions of this section is hereby suspended and each railroad subject to this section, or its agent, shall publish, file and post a supplement to each of its tariffs affected hereby, in substantial accordance with the provisions of Rule 9 (k) of the Commission's Tariff Circular No. 20 (§ 141.9 (k) of this chapter), announcing such suspension.

(e) Effective date: This section shall become effective at 7:00 a. m., April 23, 1956, and the provisions of this section shall apply to all cars on which the free time provided herein has not expired on the effective date and hour herein stated.

(f) Expiration date: This section shall expire at 11:59 p. m., December 31, 1956, unless otherwise modified, changed, suspended or annulled by order of this Commission.

It is further ordered, That a copy of this order and direction be served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

(Sec. 12, 24 Stat. 383, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 12. Interprets or applies sec. 1, 24 Stat. 379, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 1)

By the Commission.

HAROLD D. McCOY,
Secretary.

TITLE 50—WILDLIFE

Chapter I—Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior

Subchapter H—Whaling

PART 151—WHALING PROVISIONS

Basis and purpose. The act of August 9, 1950 (64 Stat. 421; 16 U. S. C. 916-916.1), known as the Whaling Convention Act of 1949, implements the International Convention for the Regulation of Whaling signed at Washington, under date of December 2, 1946, by the United States of America and certain other Governments (62 Stat. 1716). Section 12 of the Whaling Convention Act of 1949 authorizes the Secretary of the Interior to adopt such regulations as may be necessary to carry out the purposes and objectives of the Convention, the regulations of the International Whaling Commission, and the said Whaling Convention Act of 1949.

By Notice of Proposed Rule Making published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on July 22, 1955 (20 F. R. 5258), the public was invited to submit written data, views, or arguments in connection with regulations proposed to be adopted by the Secretary of the Interior to give effect to Articles V, VII, VIII, and IX of the International Convention for the Regulation of Whaling and in furtherance of the responsibilities imposed upon the Secretary by section 12 of the Whaling Convention Act of 1949. Such written views were required to be filed with John L. Farley, Director, Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior, Washington 25, D. C., not later than 30 days from the publication of the notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

No data, views, or arguments having been received in response to the said notice, the following regulations, to become effective 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, are adopted to constitute a new part consisting of §§ 151.1 to 151.61:

151.50 Molesting whales prohibited.

INSPECTION AND ENFORCEMENT

151.60 Fish and Wildlife Service employees designated as enforcement officers.
151.61 State officers designated as enforcement officers.

AUTHORITY: §§ 151.1 to 151.61 issued under Sec. 12, 64 Stat. 425; 16 U. S. C. 916j.

DEFINITIONS

§ 151.1 Factory ship. The words "factory ship" mean a vessel in which or on which whales are treated or processed, whether wholly or in part.

§ 151.2 Land station. The words "land station" mean a factory on the land at which whales are treated or processed, whether wholly or in part.

§ 151.3 Secondary processing land station. The words "secondary processing land station" mean a factory on the land which receives from a land station for further processing any or all of those parts of whales which are required, by paragraph 12 of the Schedule of the Whaling Convention of 1946, as amended (§ 351.12 of this title), to be processed by boiling or otherwise.

§ 151.4 Whale catcher. The words "whale catcher" mean a vessel used for the purpose of hunting, taking, towing, holding on to, or scouting for whales.

LICENSES

§ 151.10 Licenses required to engage in whaling. No person shall engage in the taking or processing of blue whales, fin whales; humpback whales, sei whales, minke whales, or sperm whales without first having obtained an appropriate license.

§ 151.11 Applications for licenses. Applications for licenses to engage in the taking and processing of whales of the species listed in § 151.10 shall be submitted to the Director, Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior, Washington 25, D. C. Such application shall be accompanied by the affidavit or affidavits prescribed in section 6 (d) and (e) of the Whaling Convention Act of 1949 and by a check or United States Postal Money Order payable to the United States Fish and Wildlife Service in the appropriate amount as prescribed by the scale of license fees in section 6 (b) of the Whaling Convention Act of 1949.

CLOSED SEASONS

§ 151.20 Whale catchers attached to land stations taking baleen whales. It is forbidden to use a whale catcher attached to a land station for the purpose of taking or killing blue whales, fin whales, humpback whales, sei whales or minke whales, except during the period May 1 to October 31 following, both days inclusive.

§ 151.21 Whale catchers attached to land stations taking sperm whales. It is forbidden to use a whale catcher attached to a land station for the purpose of taking or killing sperm whales except during the period April 1 to November 30 following, both days inclusive.

§ 151.22 Whale catchers attached to factory ships taking sperm whales. It is forbidden to use a whale catcher attached to a factory ship for the purpose of taking or killing sperm whales except during the period April 1 to November 30 following, both days inclusive.

RECORDS AND REPORTS [1]

§ 151.30 Records to be maintained on whale catchers. There shall be maintained on each whale catcher a suitable log book or other record in which shall be recorded the following information, and such record shall be available for inspection by any person authorized by law or by this part to act as an inspector or enforcement officer, who shall be permitted to abstract therefrom such information as may be needed by the United States Government:

(a) The date and hour of the killing or capture of each whale;

(b) The point in latitude and longitude where each whale is killed or captured;

(c) The species of each whale killed or captured;

(d) The time of delivery of each whale to the land station or factory ship;

(e) Data specified under paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section for each whale killed and later lost, or for some other reason not delivered to a factory ship or land station for processing, with an account of the circumstances surrounding such loss or nondelivery; and

[1] The record-keeping requirements contained herein have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(f) Any observations on migration of whales and on location of calving grounds.

§ 151.31 Records to be maintained on factory ships and at land stations. (a) There shall be maintained in duplicate on board each factory ship and at each land station a detailed record of all whales received and processed as follows:

(1) Serial number of the whale (begin with number 1 on January 1 of each year).

(2) Species of the whale.

(3) Date and time killed and date and time received by the factory ship or land station.

(4) Sex of the whale.

(5) Length of the whale (length to be measured as specified in paragraph 9 (d) of the Schedule of the Whaling Convention of 1946, § 351.9 (d) of this title).

(6) Sex of embryo if present.

(7) Length of embryo in feet and inches.

(8) A description of the stomach contents of the whale.

(9) Name of whale catcher which took the whale.

(10) Name of gunner who killed the whale.

(11) The exact location in which the whale was taken, stated in degrees and minutes of latitude and longitude.

(12) Under "Remarks" enter, if the whale is a female, whether lactating or milk-filled as well as abnormalities or peculiarities concerning the whale and the character and quantity of any portion of the whale transferred to a secondary processing plant.

(b) Each sheet of such reports shall be verified or approved by a person authorized by law or by this part to act as inspector or enforcement officer, and the said duplicate reports for each calendar year shall be submitted to the Director of the Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior, Washington 25, D. C., within 30 days after the end of each calendar year.

§ 151.32 Records to be maintained at secondary processing land stations. (a) There shall be maintained by all licensed secondary processing land stations receiving from land stations parts of whales for further processing a suitable ledger or book in which the following information shall be recorded, and such records shall be available for inspection by any authorized person:

(1) The kind and quantity of parts of whales received.

(2) The date of receipt thereof.

(3) The kind and quantity of products derived therefrom.

(b) Said ledger or book or certified true copies thereof shall be submitted in duplicate to the Director, Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior, Washington 25, D. C., within 30 days after the end of each calendar year.

§ 151.33 Report on employment, craft, and products of whaling operations. The person or persons responsible for the operation of every factory ship, land station and secondary processing land station shall annually submit in duplicate to the Director, Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior, Washington 25, D. C., within 30 days after the end of each calendar year, a report on employment, craft and products, which shall show the number of persons employed, the nature of the task which each performs, and the manner in which each is remunerated; the number and type of vessels operated, including the net tonnage and horsepower of whale catchers and the gross tonnage and horsepower of other vessels; and the quantity and type of products manufactured, including semi-processed products delivered to secondary processing land stations. Such reports shall be subscribed and sworn to by the person or persons responsible for the operation of said factory ships, land station and secondary processing land station before a notary public or a person authorized by law or by this part to act as inspector or enforcement officer.

§ 151.34 Records retention period. The records required to be maintained under the regulations in this part shall be retained by the person or persons responsible for their preparation and maintenance for a period of six months following the end of the calendar year to which such records apply.

SALVAGE OF UNCLAIMED WHALES

§ 151.40 No processing license required. No license shall be required for the salvage and processing of any dead whale found upon a beach or stranded in shallow water, or of any unclaimed dead whale found floating at sea.

§ 151.41 Reporting of salvage of dead whales required. (a) Any person or persons salvaging and/or processing any dead whale of any of the species enumerated in § 151.10 shall submit a report in writing to the Director, Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior, Washington 25, D. C.

(b) Such report shall show the date and exact locality in which such dead whale was found, its species and length, the disposition made of the whale, the firm utilizing or processing it, the products derived therefrom, and any other relevant facts.

MOLESTING OR UNAUTHORIZED INTERFERENCE WITH WHALES

§ 151.50 Molesting whales prohibited. The chasing, molesting, exciting, or interfering, with firearms or by any other manner or means, with any whale of the species listed in § 151.10 or of the species protected by the provisions of the International Convention for the Regulation of Whaling of 1946 is prohibited. Persons violating this section shall, upon arrest and conviction, be subject to the penalties imposed by the Whaling Convention Act of 1949.

INSPECTION AND ENFORCEMENT

§ 151.60 Fish and Wildlife Service employees designated as enforcement officers. Any employee of the Fish and Wildlife Service duly appointed and authorized to enforce Federal laws and regulations administered by the Department of the Interior and the Fish and Wildlife Service is authorized and empowered to act as a law enforcement officer for the purposes set forth in the Whaling Convention Act of 1949.

§ 151.61 State officers designated as enforcement officers. Any employee of a State government who has been duly designated by the Director of the Fish and Wildlife Service, with the consent of the State government concerned, is authorized and empowered to act as a Federal law enforcement officer for the purposes set forth in the Whaling Convention Act of 1949.

Issued at Washington, D. C., and dated April 12, 1956.

DOUGLAS McKAY,
Secretary of the Interior.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

National Park Service

[ 36 CFR Part 20 ]

ROCKY MOUNTAIN NATIONAL PARK; SPECIAL REGULATIONS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULEMAKING

MARCH 14, 1956.

Pursuant to section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946 (60 Stat. 238; 5 U. S. C., 1952 ed., Sec. 1003), and the authority contained in section 3 of the Act of August 25, 1916 (39 Stat. 535; 16 U. S. C., 1952 ed., Sec. 3), and Redelegation of Authority, contained in Region Two, Order 3, February 17, 1956 (21 F. R. 1494), notice is hereby given that the Superintendent of Rocky Mountain National Park intends to take the following action:

To amend § 20.7 Rocky Mountain National Park, Part 20, entitled, Special Regulations, in the following respect:

Section 20.7, Part 20, is amended by adding a new paragraph (i), reading as follows:

(i) Regulations governing eating and drinking establishments on privately-owned lands—(1) Definitions. The following definitions shall apply in the interpretation and enforcement of these regulations:

(i) Restaurant. The term "restaurant" shall mean restaurant, coffee shop, cafeteria, short order cafe, luncheonette, tavern, sandwich stand, soda fountain, and all other eating or drinking establishments, as well as kitchens or other places in which food or drink is prepared for sale elsewhere.

(ii) Employee. The term "employee" shall mean any person who handles food or drink during preparation or serving, or who comes in contact with any eating or cooking utensils, or who is employed in a room in which food or drink is prepared or served.

(iii) Utensils. "Utensils" shall include any kitchenware, tableware, glassware, cutlery, utensils, containers, or other equipment with which food or drink comes in contact during storage, preparation, or serving.

(iv) Superintendent. The term "Superintendent" shall mean the Superintendent of Rocky Mountain National Park or his authorized representative.

(v) Person. The word "person" shall mean person, firm, corporation, or association.

(2) Examination and condemnation of unwholesome or adulterated food or drink. Samples of food, drink, and other substances may be taken and examined by the Superintendent as often as may be necessary for the detection of unwholesomeness or adulteration. The Superintendent may condemn and forbid the sale of, or cause to be removed or destroyed, any food or drink which is unwholesome or adulterated.

(3) Sanitation requirements for restaurants. All restaurants shall comply with all of the following items of sanitation:

(i) Floors. The floors of all rooms in which food or drink is stored, prepared, or served, or in which utensils are washed, shall be of such construction as to be easily cleaned, shall be smooth, and shall be kept clean and in good repair.

(ii) Walls and ceilings. Walls and ceilings of all rooms shall be kept clean and in good repair. All walls and ceilings of rooms in which food or drink is stored or prepared shall be finished in light color. The walls of all rooms in which food or drink is prepared or utensils are washed shall have a smooth, washable surface up to the level reached by splash or spray.

(iii) Doors and windows. When flies are prevalent, all openings into the outer air shall be effectively screened and doors shall be self-closing, unless other effective means are provided to prevent the entrance of flies.

(iv) Lighting. All rooms in which food or drink is stored or prepared or in which utensils are washed shall be well lighted.

(v) Ventilation. All rooms in which food or drink is stored, prepared, or served, or in which utensils are washed, shall be well ventilated.

(vi) Toilet facilities. Every restaurant shall be provided with adequate and conveniently located sanitary toilet facilities for its employees, conforming to the requirements of the Superintendent. The doors of all toilet rooms shall be self-closing. Toilet rooms shall be kept in a clean condition, in good repair, and well lighted and ventilated. Handwashing signs shall be posted in each toilet room used by employees. In case privies or earth closets are permitted and used, they shall be of a sanitary type, separate from the restaurant building, and shall be fly and rodent proof.

(vii) Water supply. Running water under pressure shall be easily accessible to all rooms in which food is prepared or utensils are washed, and the water supply shall be adequate, and of a safe, sanitary quality.

(viii) Lavatory facilities. Adequate and convenient hand-washing facilities shall be provided, including hot and cold running water, soap, and approved sanitary towels. The use of a common towel is prohibited. No employee shall resume work after using the toilet room without first washing his hands.

(ix) Construction of utensils and equipment. All multi-use utensils and all show and display cases or windows, counters, shelves, tables, refrigerating equipment, sinks, and other equipment or utensils used in connection with the operation of a restaurant shall be so constructed as to be easily cleaned and shall be kept in good repair. Utensils containing or plated with cadmium or lead shall not be used: Provided, That solder containing lead may be used for jointing.

(x) Cleaning and bactericidal treatment of utensils and equipment. (a) All equipment, including display cases or windows, counters, shelves, tables, refrigerators, stoves, hoods, and sinks, shall be kept clean and free from dust, dirt, insects, and other contaminating material. All cloths used by waiters, chefs, and other employees shall be clean. Single-service containers shall be used only once.

(b) All multi-use eating and drinking utensils shall be thoroughly cleaned and effectively subjected to an approved bactericidal process after each usage. All multi-use utensils used in the preparation or serving of food and drink shall be thoroughly cleaned and effectively subjected to an approved bactericidal process immediately following the day's operation. Drying cloths, if used, shall be clean and shall be used for no other purpose.

(c) No article, polish, or other substance containing any cyanide preparation or other poisonous material shall be used for the cleansing or polishing of utensils.

(xi) Storage and handling of utensils and equipment. After bactericidal treatment, utensils shall be stored in a clean, dry place protected from flies, dust, and other contamination, and shall be handled in such a manner as to prevent contamination as far as practicable. Single-service utensils shall be purchased only in sanitary containers, shall be stored therein in a clean, dry place until used, and shall be handled in a sanitary manner.

(xii) Disposal of wastes. All wastes shall be properly disposed of, and all garbage and trash shall be kept in suitable receptables, in such manner as not to become a nuisance.

(xiii) Refrigeration. All readily perishable food and drink shall be kept at or below 50° F. except when being prepared or served. Waste water from refrigeration equipment shall be properly disposed of.

(xiv) Wholesomeness of food and drink. All food and drink shall be clean, wholesome, free from spoilage, and so prepared as to be safe for human consumption. All milk, fluid milk products, ice cream, and other frozen desserts served shall be from approved sources. Milk and fluid milk products shall be served in the individual original containers in which they were received from the distributor or from a bulk container equipped with an approved dispensing device: Provided, That this requirement shall not aply to cream, which may be served from the original bottle or from a dispenser approved for such service. All oysters, clams, and mussels shall be from approved sources, and if shucked shall be kept until used in the containers in which they were placed at the shucking plant.

(xv) Storage, display, and serving of food and drink. All food and drink shall be so stored, displayed, and served as to be protected from dust, flies, vermin, depredation and pollution by rodents, unnecessary handling, droplet infection, overhead leakage, and other contamination. No animals or fowls shall be kept or allowed in any room in which food or drink is prepared or stored. All means necessary for the elimination of flies, roaches, and rodents shall be used.

(xvi) Cleanliness of employees. All employees shall wear clean outer garments and shall keep their hands clean at all times while engaged in handling food, drink, utensils, or equipment. Employees shall not expectorate or use tobacco in any form in rooms in which food is prepared.

(xvii) Miscellaneous. The premises of all restaurants shall be kept clean and free of litter or rubbish. None of the operations connected with a restaurant shall be conducted in any room used as living or sleeping quarters. Adequate lockers or dressing rooms shall be provided for employees' clothing and shall be kept clean. Soiled linens, coats, and aprons shall be kept in containers provided for this purpose.

(4) Disease control. No person who is affected with any disease in a communicable form or is a carrier of such disease shall work in any restaurant, and no restaurant shall employ any such person or any person suspected of being affected with any disease in a communicable form or of being a carrier of such disease. If the restaurant manager suspects that any employee has contracted any disease in a communicable form or has become a carrier of such disease he shall notify the Superintendent immediate. A placard containing this section shall be posted in all toilet rooms.

(5) Procedure when infection suspected. When suspicion arises as to the possibility of transmission of infection from any restaurant employee the Superintendent may require any or all of the following measures:

(i) The immediate exclusion of the employee from all restaurants.

(ii) The immediate closing of the restaurant concerned until no further danger of disease outbreak exists, in the opinion of the Superintendent.

(iii) Adequate medical examinations of the employee and of his associates, with such laboratory examinations as may be indicated.

Interested persons are hereby given an opportunity to participate in preparing the amendment for issuance as set forth above by submitting their views, data, or arguments, in writing, to the Superintendent, Rocky Mountain National Park, National Park Service, Department of the Interior, P. O. Box 1086, Estes Park, Colorado, within 30 days from the date of publication of this notice of intention in the daily issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER.

JAMES V. LLOYD,
Superintendent.

OLYMPIC NATIONAL PARK; SPECIAL REGULATIONS

PRIVATELY OWNED LANDS; NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULEMAKING

Pursuant to section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946 (60 Stat. 238; 5 U. S. C., 1952 ed., sec. 1003), authority contained in section 3 of the act of August 25, 1916 (39 Stat. 535; 16 U. S. C., 1952 ed., sec. 3), National Park Service Order No. 14, 19 F. R. 8824; Regional Director, Region Four, Order No. 2, 19 F. R. 8826, notice is hereby given that the Superintendent of Olympic National Park intends to take the following action:

To amend Part 20, entitled Special Regulations, in the following respect:

Section 20.28, entitled Olympic National Park, is amended by adding a new paragraph, reading as follows:

(k) Privately owned lands—(1) State health and safety laws. Owners of privately owned lands and occupants of private lands (including business establishments) in that portion of Olympic National Park over which jurisdiction has been ceded by the State of Washington to the United States of America shall comply with the standards concerning safety and health established from time to time by or pursuant to the laws of the State of Washington which would apply to such lands, owners, and occupants if such lands were not located in Olympic National Park and personnel of the Park will consult and cooperate with State officials in the administration of this regulation. Although safety and health standards established from time to time by or pursuant to the laws of the State of Washington shall apply, such owners, and occupants of privately owned lands (including business establishments), shall not be required to obtain permits or licenses from the State of Washington or its political subdivisions, but shall submit plans for public use structures to the Superintendent, Olympic National Park, for approval.

(2) State forest practice laws. Any person, firm, or corporation harvesting or cutting timber on privately owned lands within that portion of Olympic National Park over which jurisdiction has been ceded by the State of Washington to the United States of America shall comply with the standards concerning forest practices established from time to time by or pursuant to the laws of the State of Washington which would apply to such operations if they were not being conducted in Olympic National Park and personnel of the Park will consult and cooperate with State officials in the administration of this regulation. Although forest practice standards established from time to time by or pursuant to the laws of the State of Washington shall apply, no person, firm, or corporation harvesting timber, on such privately owned lands shall be required to obtain permits or licenses from, or pay fees to, the State of Washington or its political subdivisions in connection with the harvesting or cutting of timber on such lands. Prior to the initiation of harvesting or cutting of timber on privately owned lands over which jurisdiction has been ceded to the United States, such operations shall be registered with the Superintendent of Olympic National Park.

(3) Conflict with Federal laws. If the standards established from time to time by or pursuant to the laws of the State of Washington, specified in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph, are lower than or conflict with any established by Federal laws or regulations applicable to privately owned lands within Olympic National Park, the latter shall prevail.

Interested persons are hereby given an opportunity to participate in preparing the amendment for issuance as set forth above by submitting their views, data, or arguments, in writing, to the Superintendent, Olympic National Park, 600 East Park Avenue, Port Angeles, Washington, within 30 days from the date of publication of this notice of intention in the daily issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER.

FRED J. OVERLY,
Superintendent,
Olympic National Park.

SHELLED RUNNER TYPE PEANUTS [1]

U. S. STANDARDS

Notice is hereby given that the United States Department of Agriculture is considering the revision of United States Standards for Shelled Runner Type Peanuts pursuant to the authority contained in the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (60 Stat. 1087 et seq., as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1621 et seq.).

All persons who desire to submit written data, views or arguments for consideration in connection with the proposed standards should file the same with the Chief, Fresh Products Standardization and Inspection Branch, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, South Building, Washington 25, D. C., not later than 40 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The proposed standards are as follows:

GRADES

Sec.
51.2710 U. S. No. 1 Runner.
51.2711 U. S. Runner Splits.
51.2712 U. S. No. 2 Runner.

APPLICATION OF TOLERANCES

51.2713 Application of tolerances.

DEFINITIONS

51.2714 Similar varietal characteristics.
51.2715 Whole.
51.2716 Split.
51.2717 Broken.
51.2718 Foreign material.
51.2719 Unshelled.
51.2720 Minor defects.
51.2721 Damage.

AUTHORITY: §§ 51.2710 to 51.2721 issued under sec. 205, 60 Stat. 1090, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1624.

GRADES

§ 51.2710 U. S. No. 1 Runner. "U. S. No. 1 Runner" consists of shelled Runner type peanut kernels of similar varietal characteristics which are whole and free from foreign material, damage and minor defects, and which will not pass through a screen having $^{16}/_{64}$ x $^{3}/_{4}$ inch openings.

(a) In order to allow for variations incident to proper grading and handling, the following tolerances, by weight, shall be permitted:

(1) 1 percent for dissimilar varieties of peanuts;

(2) 3 percent for sound peanuts which are not whole;

(3) 1.5 percent for damaged or unshelled peanuts;

(4) 0.5 percent for minor defects: Provided, That in addition, any unused part of the tolerance for damaged or unshelled peanuts shall be allowed for minor defects;

(5) 0.1 percent for foreign material; and,

(6) 2 percent for sound whole peanuts which will pass through the prescribed screen.

§ 51.2711 U. S. Runner Splits. "U. S. Runner Splits" consists of shelled Runner type peanut kernels of similar varietal characteristics which are split or broken, but which are free from foreign material, damage and minor defects, and which will not pass through a screen having $^{17}/_{64}$ inch round openings.

(a) In order to allow for variations incident to proper grading and handling, the following tolerances, by weight, shall be permitted:

(1) 2 percent for dissimilar varieties of peanuts;

(2) 2 percent for damaged or unshelled peanuts and minor defects;

(3) 0.2 percent for foreign material;

(4) 2 percent for sound portions of peanuts which will pass through the prescribed screen; and,

(5) 4 percent for sound whole peanuts.

§ 51.2712 U. S. No. 2 Runner: "U. S. No. 2 Runner" consists of shelled Runner type peanut kernels of similar varietal characteristics which may be split or broken, but which are free from foreign material, damage and minor defects, and which will not pass through a screen having 17/64 inch round openings.

(a) In order to allow for variations incident to proper grading and handling, the following tolerances, by weight, shall be permitted:

(1) 2 percent for dissimilar varieties of peanuts;

(2) 2.5 percent for damaged or unshelled peanuts and minor defects;

(3) 0.2 percent for foreign material; and,

(4) 4 percent for sound peanuts or portions of peanuts which will pass through the prescribed screen.

APPLICATION OF TOLERANCES

§ 51.2713 Application of tolerances. The tolerances provided in these standards are on a lot basis and shall be applied to a composite sample representative of the lot. However, any container or group of containers in which the peanuts are obviously of a quality materially different from that in the majority of containers shall be considered a separate lot, and shall be sampled separately.

DEFINITIONS

§ 51.2714 Similar varietal characteristics. "Similar varietal characteristics" means that the peanut kernels in the lot are similar in color and shape.

§ 51.2715 Whole. "Whole" means that the peanut kernel is not split or broken.

§ 51.2716 Split. "Split" means the separated half of a peanut kernel.

§ 51.2717 Broken. "Broken" means that more than one-fourth of the peanut kernel is broken off.

§ 51.2718 Foreign material. "Foreign material" means pieces or loose particles of any substance other than peanut kernels or skins.

§ 51.2719 Unshelled. "Unshelled" means a peanut kernel with part or all of the hull (shell) attached.

§ 51.2720 Minor defects. "Minor defects" means that the peanut kernel is affected by one or more of the following:

(a) Flesh discoloration materially affecting the appearance of the kernel;

(b) Sprout extending more than one-eighth of an inch from the tip of the kernel;

(c) Dirt materially affecting the appearance of the kernel; and,

(d) Freezing injury causing abnormally hard, translucent or discolored flesh.

§ 51.2721 Damage. "Damage" means that the peanut kernel is affected by one or more of the following:

(a) Rancidity or decay;

(b) Mold; and,

(c) Insects, worm cuts, web or frass.

51.2759 Broken.
51.2760 Foreign material.
51.2761 Unshelled.
51.2762 Minor defects.
51.2763 Damage.

[1] Packing of the product in conformity with the requirements of these standards shall not excuse failure to comply with the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

AUTHORITY: §§ 51.2750 to 51.2763 issued under sec. 205, 60 Stat. 1090, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1624.

GRADES

§ 51.2750 U. S. Extra Large Virginia. "U. S. Extra Large Virginia" consists of shelled Virginia type peanut kernels of similar varietal characteristics which are whole and free from foreign material, damage and minor defects, and which will not pass through a screen having 20/64 x 1 inch openings. Unless otherwise specified, the peanuts in any lot shall average not more than 512 per pound.

(a) In order to allow for variations incident to proper grading and handling, the following tolerances, by weight, shall be permitted:

(1) 0.75 percent for dissimilar varieties of peanuts;

(2) 3 percent for sound peanuts which are not whole;

(3) 1 percent for damaged or unshelled peanuts;

(4) 0.75 percent for minor defects: Provided, That in addition, any unused part of the tolerance for damaged or unshelled peanuts shall be allowed minor defects;

(5) 0.1 percent for foreign material; and,

(6) 2 percent for sound whole peanuts which will pass through the prescribed screen.

§ 51.2751 U. S. Medium Virginia. "U. S. Medium Virginia" consists of shelled Virginia type peanut kernels of similar varietal characteristics which are whole and free from foreign material, damage and minor defects, and which will not pass through a screen having 18/64 x 1 inch openings. Unless otherwise specified, the peanuts in any lot shall average not more than 640 per pound.

(a) In order to allow for variations incident to proper grading and handling, the following tolerances, by weight, shall be permitted:

(1) 1 percent for dissimilar varieties of peanuts;

(2) 3 percent for sound peanuts which are not whole;

(3) 1.25 percent for damaged or unshelled peanuts;

(4) 0.75 percent for minor defects: Provided, That in addition, any unused part of the tolerance for damaged or unshelled peanuts shall be allowed for minor defects;

(5) 0.1 percent for foreign material; and,

(6) 2 percent for sound whole peanuts which will pass through the prescribed screen.

§ 51.2752 U. S. No. 1 Virginia. "U. S. No. 1 Virginia" consists of shelled Virginia type peanut kernels of similar varietal characteristics which are whole and free from foreign material, damage and minor defects, and which will not pass through a screen having 15/64 x 1 inch openings. Unless otherwise specified, the peanuts in any lot shall average not more than 800 per pound.

(a) In order to allow for variations incident to proper grading and handling, the following tolerances, by weight, shall be permitted:

(1) 1 percent for dissimilar varieties of peanuts;

(2) 3 percent for sound peanuts which are not whole;

(3) 1.25 percent for damaged or unshelled peanuts;

(4) 0.75 percent for minor defects: Provided, That in addition, any unused part of the tolerance for damaged or unshelled peanuts shall be allowed for minor defects;

(5) 0.1 percent for foreign material; and,

(6) 2 percent for sound whole peanuts which will pass through the prescribed screen.

§ 51.2753 U. S. Virginia Splits. "U. S. Virginia Splits" consists of shelled Virginia type peanut kernels of similar varietal characteristics which are free from foreign material, damage and minor defects, and which will not pass through a screen having 20/64 inch round openings. Not less than 90 percent, by weight, shall be splits.

(a) In order to allow for variations incident to proper grading and handling, the following tolerances, by weight, shall be permitted:

(1) 2 percent for dissimilar varieties of peanuts;

(2) 2 percent for damaged or unshelled peanuts and minor defects;

(3) 0.2 percent for foreign material; and,

(4) 3 percent for sound peanuts and portions of peanuts which will pass through the prescribed screen.

§ 51.2754 U. S. No. 2 Virginia. "U. S. No. 2 Virginia" consists of shelled Virginia type peanut kernels of similar varietal characteristics which are free from foreign material, damage and minor defects, and which will not pass through a screen having 15/64 inch round openings. Not less than 25 percent, by weight, shall be splits.

(a) In order to allow for variations incident to proper grading and handling, the following tolerances, by weight, shall be permitted.

(1) 2 percent for dissimilar varieties of peanuts;

(2) 2.5 percent for damaged or unshelled peanuts and minor defects;

(3) 0.2 percent for foreign material; and,

ANNULMENT OR WITHDRAWAL OF CERTIFICATES FOR EMPLOYMENT OF LEARNERS, HANDICAPPED PERSONS, AND STUDENT WORKERS AT SUBMINIMUM WAGES

NOTICE OF PROPOSED AMENDMENT AND ORDER

Pursuant to section 14 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (52 Stat. 1060, as amended; 29 U. S. C. 214), the Administrator has heretofore issued supplemental regulations for the employment of learners, handicapped persons, and student workers at subminimum wages (29 CFR Parts 522, 524, 527).

The purpose of this revision is to provide a uniform procedure for the annulment or withdrawal of certificates for the employment of learners, handicapped persons, and student workers at subminimum wage rates.

Interested persons may submit data, views, or arguments, either in support of or in opposition to the proposed revision, to the Administrator, Wage and Hour Division, United States Department of Labor, Washington, D. C. within 15 days from the date of the publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Prior to the final adoption of this revision careful consideration will be given to any such material which may be submitted in writing.

Accordingly, notice is hereby given pursuant to authority under section 14 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (52 Stat. 1060, as amended; 29 U. S. C. 214), Reorganization Plan No. 6 (5 U. S. C. 611) and General Order No. 45-A (15 F. R. 3290), that the Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division, United States Department of Labor, proposes to issue Part 528 of Title 29, Code of Federal Regulations and amend Parts 522 and 524, Code of Federal Regulations as follows:

1. Section 522.9 of Part 522, is hereby revoked.

2. In § 522.10 (a) of Part 522, the words "denying, granting, or cancelling a learner certificate" are hereby amended to read "denying, or granting a learner certificate."

3. Sections 522.10, 522.11, and 522.12 of Part 522, are hereby redesignated as §§ 522.9, 522.10, and 522.11, respectively.

4. Sections 524.10 and 524.11 of Part 524, are hereby revoked and §§ 524.12 and 524.13, are redesignated as §§ 524.10 and 524.11, respectively.

5. Part 528 (29 CFR Part 528), entitled Annulment or Withdrawal of Certificates for the Employment of Learners, Handicapped Workers, and Student Workers at Subminimum Wages is hereby issued to read as follows:

PART 528—ANNULMENT OR WITHDRAWAL OF CERTIFICATES FOR THE EMPLOYMENT OF LEARNERS, HANDICAPPED PERSONS, AND STUDENT WORKERS AT SUBMINIMUM WAGE RATES

Sec.
528.1 Applicability of the regulations in this part.
528.2 Definition of terms.
528.3 Withdrawal and annulment of certificates.
528.4 According opportunity to demonstrate or achieve compliance.
528.5 Proceedings for annulment or withdrawal.
528.6 Review.
528.7 Effect of annulment or withdrawal.

AUTHORITY: §§ 528.1 to 528.7 issued under section 14, 52 Stat. 1068, as amended; 29 U. S. C. 214.

§ 528.1 Applicability of the regulations in this part. The regulations in this part shall govern the annulment or withdrawal of any certificate (except a temporary certificate issued pending final action on an application) issued pursuant to Parts 522, 524, and 527 of this subchapter and having effect under section 14 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938.

§ 528.2 Definition of terms. As used in the regulations contained in this part, the term:

(a) "Withdrawal" shall mean termination of validity of a certificate with prospective effect from the time of the action of withdrawal;

(b) "Annulment" shall mean withdrawal of a certificate with retroactive effect to the date of issuance;

(c) "Regional Director" shall include any Regional Director of the Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions, the Territorial Director for Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands, the Territorial Representative for Hawaii, and the Federal Representative for the Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions in the State of North Carolina;

(d) "Supervising Investigators" shall include any employee of the Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions who is authorized to use that title, the Territorial Representative for Alaska, the chief of the office of the Divisions in Alaska, and officers designated for this purpose by the Commissioner of the North Carolina Department of Labor.

§ 528.3 Withdrawal and annulment of certificates. (a) The Regional Director may withdraw a certificate from any employer who, acting under color of any certificate or application for the employment of learners, handicapped persons, or student workers at subminimum wages under section 14 of the act, fails to comply with the limitations in such certificate or otherwise violates the act.

(b) The Regional Director may annul a certificate affected by mistake in its issuance if the employer knowingly induced or knowingly took advantage of the mistake. Where the employer did not knowingly induce the mistake but knowingly took advantage of it, a new certificate shall be issued by the authorized officer if, and on such terms as, such certificate would have been issued had there been no mistake, limited in its term from the date of issuance to the date of annulment of the annulled certificate.

§ 528.4 According opportunity to demonstrate or achieve compliance. Prior to instituting proceedings for withdrawal of a certificate under § 528.3, except in cases of wilfulness, a supervising investigator shall mail a letter to the employer setting forth alleged facts or conduct which may warrant withdrawal of the certificate and fixing a time and place for a conference at which the employer shall be accorded opportunity to show that no cause for withdrawal under § 528.3 exists, or that he has achieved compliance by paying wages improperly withheld and by taking steps adequate to insure that new cause for annulment or withdrawal will not occur. By written report to the Regional Director, a copy of which shall be mailed to the employer, the supervising investigator shall concisely summarize the conference and shall include conclusions as to whether the employer demonstrated or achieved compliance. If the employer either demonstrated or achieved such compliance, no proceedings shall be instituted under § 528.3 for withdrawal of the certificate.

§ 528.5 Proceedings for annulment or withdrawal. The Regional Director shall institute proceedings for annulment or withdrawal of a certificate under §§ 528.3 and 528.4 by a letter mailed to the employer setting forth alleged facts which may warrant such annulment or withdrawal and advising him that such an annulment or withdrawal of the scope provided in § 528.7 hereof will take effect at a time specified unless facts are presented which convince the Regional Director that such action should not be taken. The letter shall advise the employer of his right to respond by mail or to appear by or with counsel or other duly qualified representative at the specified time and place. The proceedings shall be as informal as practicable commensurate with orderly dispatch and fairness. Department of Labor investigation files or reports, or portions thereof, may be considered in such proceedings to the extent they are made available for examination during the proceedings. If objection to the proposed annulment or withdrawal is made by such specified time, the Regional Director shall, after considering all pertinent matter presented, mail a letter to the employers setting out his findings of specific pertinent facts and conclusions, and his order concerning the proposed annulment or withdrawal. In proceedings instituted for annulment, the order may provide for withdrawal instead of annulment, if the proof warrants such withdrawal but fails to support adequately the annulment. Such an order shall be deemed issued and effective according to its terms when mailed to the employer. If no timely objection to the proposed annulment or withdrawal is expressed, the order shall be deemed issued and effective at the time stated in the letter proposing it.

§ 528.6 Review. Any employer who expressed objection to such an order may obtain review, limited to the question of whether the findings of fact support the order under the regulations in this part. Application for such review shall be in writing addressed to the Administrator and mailed within 15 days after the order is issued. The Administrator may affirm, modify, or reverse the order, or may remand it for further proceedings. The order under review shall not be stayed in effect pending such review.

§ 528.7 Effect of order of annulment or withdrawal. Except as otherwise expressly provided in such order, any order of annulment or withdrawal shall be effective to terminate all certifications to which the regulations in this part apply in effect at the establishment where the cause for withdrawal arose or where the annulled certificate had effect. After such annulment or withdrawal, such employer shall be ineligible to obtain or exercise the privileges granted in such a certificate until he satisfies the issuing officer that he will not again give cause for annulment or withdrawal if a certificate is issued.

Signed at Washington, D. C., this 12th day of April 1956.

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[ 14 CFR Part 234 ]

[Economic Regulations Draft Release No. 80]

FLIGHT SCHEDULES OF CERTIFICATED AIR CARRIERS

REALISTIC SCHEDULING AND ON-TIME PERFORMANCE REQUIRED

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

APRIL 11, 1956.

Notice is hereby given that the Civil Aeronautics Board has under consideration the adoption of a new Part 234, of the Economic Regulations, designed to insure that the published flight schedules of all certificated air carriers engaged in interstate and overseas air transportation will realistically reflect actual arrival and departure times on at least 75 percent of scheduled flights (other than all cargo flights) performed over each route segment during a calendar month.

The principal features of the proposed regulation are explained in the Explanatory Statement and the proposed new Part 234 is set forth below.

Interested persons may participate in the making of the proposed rule by submitting such written data, views, or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate and addressed to the Secretary, Civil Aeronautics Board, Washington 25, D. C. All communications received on or before May 16, 1956, will be considered by the Board before taking action upon the proposed rule. Copies of such communications will be available on or after May 18, 1956, for examination by interested persons in the Docket Section of the Board, Room 5412, Commerce Building, Washington, D. C.

This regulation is proposed under authority of sections 205 (a), 404 (a), 405 (e) and 411 of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended (52 Stat. 984; 993, 994, 1003, 49 U. S. C. 425, 484, 489).

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

[SEAL] M. C. MULLIGAN,
Secretary.

Explanatory statement. It appears that many certificated air carriers are currently publishing for the guidance of the public, and also filing with the Board pursuant to the provisions of Part 231 of the Economic Regulations, flight schedules which do not accurately reflect their actual times of departure and arrival. The Board is concerned with the relationship of these unrealistic scheduling practices to its statutory responsibilities to regulate economic aspects of air transportation.

Any carrier which misstates, by its scheduling practices, the actual arrival and departure times of a substantial part of its scheduled flights, operated between one or more of the pairs of points served, appears to be delinquent in its obligation to render good and adequate service and to deal fairly with the traveling public. In the light of the present stage of development of the air transport industry, passengers should be able to rely upon published flight schedules. Delays in transportation are of major importance because airline passengers are principally interested in the superior speed of air travel. Late arrivals frequently result in missed connections with other flights, missed appointments, and similar inconveniences.

Failure to perform flights on schedule also diminishes the value of airmail service to its users and hampers the Post Office Department in moving airmail on a priority basis. Moreover, unrealistic scheduling practices may under certain circumstances subject competing carriers, publishing more forthright schedules, to unfair competition.

These practical consequences point up the need for regulatory action by the Board to adequately protect the public interest. The Act imposes a duty upon air carriers furnishing interstate and overseas air transportation to provide adequate service. It likewise manifests a direct concern with airline scheduling practices by requiring the filing of all flight schedules with both the Board and the Postmaster General, and by making provision for the designation of mail schedules by the Postmaster General for his use. Finally, it condemns deceptive practices or unfair methods of competition in the sale of air transportation.

In view of the foregoing considerations, the Board believes that the public interest affirmatively requires that it exercise its duly granted statutory powers to compel both realistic scheduling and a proper degree of on-time performance of flight schedules. It is recognized, of course, that there are many adverse conditions not subject to the control of airline managements which affect the ability of an air carrier to perform a particular flight on schedule. Weather conditions, traffic congestion and similar circumstances will, from time to time, have such an impact. However, these adverse factors are very largely foreseeable in nature. Moreover, the proposed rule defines all flights not departing prematurely as on-time flights. Flights arriving within five minutes of scheduled time at any point less than 1,000 miles distant from the preceding point served are also regarded as having been completed on time within the meaning of this part. In the case of flights over route segments more than 1,000 miles long, any flight arriving at a point within fifteen minutes of scheduled time is not treated as a delayed flight. In view of these liberal margins of tolerance, it appears to be entirely feasible for management to fashion individual schedules (relating to separately designated flights) realistically so that at least a preponderance of all flights performed thereunder can be completed on time.

Consequently, the proposed rule prohibits the filing of any individual schedule unless it is constructed in a manner which should enable the air carrier to perform at least 75 percent of all flights actually flown pursuant thereto on schedule. Additionally, the proposed rule requires each air carrier to complete at least 75 percent of all flights performed pursuant to such a schedule on time. These requirements have been respectively directed to the scheduling and performance, in each calendar month, of service over each route segment specified in an individual schedule.

The proposed rule declares that any air carrier failing to perform at least 75 percent of the flights actually operated pursuant to an individual schedule, in any calendar month, as on-time flights is deemed to have violated its requirements. However, it also provides that any such carrier may show, by way of justification of such violation or as grounds for opposition to an order directing a revision of schedules, that the delays are caused by conditions outside the scope of the carrier's control which could not have been anticipated by the exercise of reasonable prudence.

The Board desires to note that its selection of a 75 percent performance factor has been principally grounded upon its concept of the degree of on-time performance constituting adequate service and avoiding deceptive scheduling practices with respect to the aggregate of such scheduled flights flown between each single pair of points served. The promulgation of a rule embodying this concept does not, however, serve to relieve air carriers of their statutory duty to file realistic schedules and furnish adequate service thereunder on any or all of the remaining 25 percent of the total flights operated pursuant to an individual schedule. Therefore, deliberate and willful misstatement of departure or arrival times on any such schedule will continue to be a violation of all pertinent provisions of the act despite compliance with the aggregate scheduling and performance provisions of this part.

Proposed Part 234 has been limited in its application to certificated air carriers engaged in interstate and overseas air transportation. Finally, all cargo flights have been excluded from the provisions of the following regulation.

PART 234—FLIGHT SCHEDULES OF CERTIFICATED AIR CARRIERS REALISTIC SCHEDULES AND ON-TIME PERFORMANCE REQUIRED

§ 234.1 Definitions. For the purposes of this part:

(a) "Schedule" means any part of the "general schedule" on file with the Board, pursuant to Part 231 of this chapter.

(b) "Scheduled flight" means any periodically operated trip which is separately designated (by flight number or otherwise) in the schedules of the air carrier and is performed between a consecutive pair of points.

(c) "All-cargo flight" means any flight which does not carry revenue passengers or United States mail.

(d) "On-time flight" means any scheduled flight which:

(1) Departs no earlier than the time specified in the schedules of the air carrier and

(2) Arrives at the next point served by the air carrier no later than five minutes after the time specified in its schedules or, in the case of flights between any consecutive pair of points served through airports more than 1,000 miles apart,[1] no later than fifteen minutes thereafter.

(e) "Point" means each terminal or intermediate point served in accordance with the schedules of the air carrier where passengers are discharged or taken aboard, other than flag stops.

(f) "Arrive" means the time when the wheels of an airplane, which has taxied to the place where the passengers are to be discharged, finally stop moving.

(g) "Depart" means the time when the wheels of an airplane, which has taxied to the place where passengers are to be taken aboard, start moving.

(h) "Certificated air carrier" means any air carrier holding a certificate of public convenience and necessity issued under section 401 of the act.

§ 234.2 Applicability. This part applies to any certificated air carrier engaged in interstate and overseas air transportation with respect to all flights, other than all cargo flights, scheduled and performed in such transportation.

§ 234.3 Prohibition of unrealistic scheduling and requirement of on-time performance. All flight schedules filed with the Board or published for the guidance of the traveling public shall be designed so as to enable each certificated air carrier to safely perform as on-time flights (in accordance with all applicable legal requirements of the Federal Government), a minimum of 75 percent of all trips actually flown pursuant to each scheduled flight during each calendar month. Each certificated air carrier shall perform as on-time flights a minimum of 75 percent of all trips actually flown pursuant to each such scheduled flight during each calendar month.

§ 234.4 Violation of this part. Where it is shown that a certificated air carrier failed to perform as on-time flights a minimum of 75 percent of the trips actually flown pursuant to each scheduled flight in any calendar month, such failure shall constitute a violation of this part: Provided, however, That any such carrier may show, in justification of such violation or as grounds for opposition to an order directing a revision of schedules, that such violation was due to conditions which are not subject to its control and also could not have been anticipated in the exercise of reasonable prudence.

§ 234.5 Requirement that published schedules conform to filed schedules. No certificated air carrier shall publish any statement of aircraft regularly operated between points duly authorized to be served which sets forth the time of arrival and departure at each such point or any other information concerning such service unless such information is identical, in all regards, with that contained in the schedules filed pursuant to Part 231 of this chapter. This prohibition shall apply to statements included in a system time table, the Official Airline Guide, or any other document intended to be used by the general public.

[1] In accordance with the mileages specified in the Board's book of "Official Airport-to-Airport Mileages."

§ 234.6 Separability. If any provision of this part or the application thereof to any air transportation, person, class of person, or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the part and the application of such provisions to other air transportation, persons, classes of persons, or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[ 47 CFR Part 3 ]

[Docket No. 11677; FCC 56-323]

RADIO BROADCAST SERVICES

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

In the matter of amendment of §§ 3.66, 3.274, and 3.572 of the Commission's rules and regulations relating to remote control operation of certain standard, FM and non-commercial educational FM broadcast stations.

1. Notice is hereby given that the Commission has received a proposal for rule making in the above-entitled matter.

2. The Commission has before it a petition filed on February 15, 1956, by the National Association of Radio and Television Broadcasters (NARTB), Washington, D. C., requesting amendment of §§ 3.66 (AM), 3.274 (FM) and 3.572 (non-commercial educational FM) of the rules and regulations to authorize the remote-control operation of all standard and FM broadcast stations, including those authorized to operate with directional antenna systems or with powers in excess of 10 kilowatts.

3. Present regulations, adopted in a Report and Order (FCC 53-68) released on January 27, 1953, in Docket No. 10214, permit remote operation, subject to certain conditions, only by Standard non-directional and FM broadcast stations authorized to operate with powers not in excess of 10 kilowatts. In finalizing the present rules we stated in the above Report and Order that the most important consideration was whether the revision of the rules to permit remote control operation would result in any degradation of the Commission's technical standards. We concluded in that proceeding, after consideration of over 2,000 comments, that, in light of the status of the equipment needed for remote control operation, the experimental demonstration of the feasibility of such operations, the conditions imposed upon remote control operation, and the salutary purposes to be accomplished by its use in appropriate situations, the authorization of remote control, if limited to standard non-directional and FM stations, operating with power of 10 kw or less, would not result in any degradation of our technical standards and was desirable. We reaffirmed this decision in a Memorandum Opinion and Order (FCC 53-355) released March 30, 1953, denying a petition for reconsideration of our January Report and Order. We again found that our rules authorizing remote control operation were in the public interest and that the question of whether the amendments permitting remote control operation would result in any degradation of our technical standards must be decided in the negative. We also pointed out that the authorization of remote control was only extended to stations authorized for non-directional operation with powers up to 10 kilowatts because of "our experience with problems arising with the utilization of very high power equipment and the showings made in this proceeding" and because we "felt that the relaxation should extend to that level of power at which no serious problems would be encountered because of the nature of the transmitting equipment itself."

4. In support of the requested amendments, the NARTB urges that the Commission considered and disposed of all objections to remote control operations in adopting the present rules relating to remote control operations; that the Commission's conclusions in the 1953 rule making proceeding are equally applicable to the Association's instant proposal for further relaxation of the rules; and that the only issue to be decided in determining whether its proposed amendments should be adopted is the question of whether a further relaxation of the rules would in any way result in a degradation of the Commission's technical standards. NARTB claims that the limitations in the present remote control rules were adopted solely because of the lack of technical proof that equipment of a higher power could operate without a degradation of the technical standards and urges that the engineering data furnished with its petition demonstrates that present remote control operations of all types indicate a high degree of reliability and that the experimental data submitted clearly demonstrates that remote control operation may be extended to stations utilizing directional antenna systems and high power with the assurance that equal reliability will be achieved. The Association alleges in its exhibits that the outage time of 198 stations now authorized for remote control operations amounted to only 0.04 percent of a total "on-air" figure of 630,790.5 hours reported, which it claims is less than one-third the amount for stations operating without remote control prior to 1953. It alleges that this figure shows that the Commission was right in its conclusion in 1953 that remote control operations would not result in excess outages and that it clearly demonstrates that transmitting equipment and remote control equipment have reached a high state of development. It urges that it is the consensus of a group of professional radio engineers who have studied remote control problems that remote operation of standard and FM broadcast stations, utilizing directional antenna systems and operating with powers up to and including 50 kilowatts, is feasible and should be authorized; that their opinion is confirmed by the data obtained from experimental remote operation of American stations with directional antenna systems and high power, from unattended operation of remote stations owned by the British Broadcasting Corporation, from unattended directional operation of radio range stations of the Civil Aeronautics Authority and from unattended directional operation of Canadian broadcast stations.

5. The Association also discusses the effect of its proposals upon the CONELRAD plan. It points out that the Commission likewise considered this matter before adopting the present rules; that it specifically determined that the operations necessary to place a station in CONELRAD operation could be accomplished by remote control and that it recognized that in the case of remote control, the expenses involved to effect such a switch might deter voluntary CONELRAD activity. The NARTB states that it also is vitally interested in the continued success of the CONELRAD plan and is concerned about the possibility that its proposals for relaxing the remote control operation rules might affect the CONELRAD operating stations not now authorized for remote control, even though it believes there is no real cause for concern. It proposes, however, that, in order to insure the continued effectiveness of CONELRAD, any future remote control authorization to a standard broadcast station, whether or not now participating in the CONELRAD operating system, be conditioned upon the station's equipping itself to be able to satisfactorily operate in the system and by remote switching of the transmitter or by using a separate transmitter change from its assigned frequency to the CONELRAD frequency specified by the Commission. It is pointed out, however, that this proposed rule would only require the installation of equipment capable of accomplishing this operation and that the actual participation in the operating system would remain on a voluntary basis. The Association urges that such a requirement will make it possible for stations to shift from their normal frequency to the CONELRAD frequency in a very brief period of time. The NARTB conclude that adoption of its proposed amendments will bring the remote control rules in conformity with the present state of the development of transmitting and remote control equipment; that it will relieve broadcasters from unnecessary limitations upon their ability to serve the public interest, convenience and necessity, and that it will provide an effective method of operation by the CONELRAD stations and insure the effectiveness of the system by providing for a sufficient number of stations equipped to participate in the operating system.

6. The Association proposes that the AM and FM rules relating to remote control operation be amended as follows:

1. Sections 3.66 Remote Control Operation (Standard Broadcast Stations).

a. Delete from § 3.66 (a) the phrase "which is authorized for non-directional operation with power of 10 kilowatts or less."

b. Add a new paragraph, § 3.66 (b), to read:

(b) In addition to the conditions set out in paragraph (a) of this section, a station, which is authorized to operate with a directional antenna, may be operated by remote control subject to the following conditions:

(1) Equipment shall be installed so that the base currents of each element of the antenna system and the common point current may be read at the remote control point and logged at least once each hour.

(2) A spare antenna base current meter, which complies with the requirements of § 3.39, shall be available and such meter shall be checked against the regular meter to insure that the error over the usable portion of the scale does not exceed two percent of the full scale value.

c. Add a new paragraph, § 3.66 (c), to read:

(c) In addition to the conditions set out in paragraph (a) of this section, a station, which is authorized for non-directional operation with power in excess of 10 kilowatts, may be operated by remote control subject to the condition that equipment shall be installed so that the base current of the antenna, or that current which is consistent with the Commission's rules, may be read at the remote control point and logged at least once each hour.

d. Add a new paragraph, § 3.66 (d), to read:

(d) A station, which is authorized to operate with a directional antenna or with power in excess of 10 kilowatts, may be operated by remote control only if equipped so that it can be operated on the CONELRAD frequency assigned and the necessary switching from the station's assigned frequency to the CONELRAD frequency can be accomplished from the remote control position.

2. Section 3.274 Remote Control Operation (FM Broadcast Stations). Delete from § 3.274 the phrase "which is authorized with transmitter power output of 10 kilowatts or less".

3. Section 3.572 Remote Control Operation (Noncommercial Educational FM Broadcast Stations). Delete from § 3.572 the phrase "which is authorized with transmitter power output of 10 kilowatts or less."

7. The Commission is of the view that rule making proceedings should be instituted on the proposed amendments of the NARTB in order that interested parties may submit their views and the Commission may have the benefit of such views prior to taking further action.

8. The Commission desires that parties filing comments in this proceeding direct their attention to the following questions raised by petitioner's proposal:

(1) Whether every 6 months during the first 3 years that remote control is authorized, the Commission should require submission of a skeleton proof of performance to show that the antenna system meets the terms of the license, and thereafter the submission of a skeleton proof with each license renewal application;

(2) Whether the Commission should require the logging of loop current ratios rather than base current ratios and how often readings should be made and logged;

(3) Whether and how often the Commission should require the logging of phase relations;

(4) Whether and to what extent any of the information required to be logged by present or proposed regulations may be logged by automatic recording devices;

(5) Whether and to what extent the Commission should modify the requirements with respect to remote antenna meters, particularly with respect to scale and units in which they are required to be calibrated;

(6) Whether the Commission should require that remote equipment be capable of providing simultaneous readings of frequency, of modulation and of antenna current at the control point as currently provided by the rules;

(7) Whether the Commission should require the installation of equipment that will shut down the transmitter when it fails to function within the tolerances prescribed by Commission Rules;

(8) Whether and how often remote meters should be calibrated, and whether such calibration curves should be posted at the control point.

9. Parties filing comments should also direct their attention to whether, in the event the proposed amendments are adopted, each proposal for remote operation with a directional antenna should be accompanied by a sworn statement, by a competent engineer, describing the operational stability of the array, and which should also include the following:

(1) Weekly monitoring point readings for one year prior to the submission of the data.

(2) Daily base current ratios, loop current ratios, phase relations and common point current readings for a period of 30 days, commencing not more than 60 days prior to the submission of the data. The data should be accompanied by information respecting adjustments of phasing and other tuning of the transmitter and associated equipment it was found necessary to perform in this period.

(3) (a) A complete proof of performance on the directional antenna system if no such proof has been submitted to the Commission within five years from the date of application for remote control operation.

(b) A skeleton proof of performance (a minimum of 3 field intensity measurements including the monitoring point reading on each radial) on the directional antenna system if no complete proof of performance has been submitted to the Commission within 2 years from the date of application for remote control.

10. NARTB proposes that a station authorized to operate with directional antenna or with power in excess of 10 kw may operate by remote control only if equipped so that it can be operated on the CONELRAD frequency assigned and the necessary switching from the station's frequency to the CONELRAD frequency can be accomplished from the remote control position. The Commission desires that comments also be directed to whether the Commission should require all future remote control authorizations, regardless of power, to be conditioned upon the installation of equipment that will permit satisfactory operation on the CONELRAD frequency assigned and the necessary switching from the station's assigned frequency to the CONELRAD frequency.

11. Authority for the adoption of the proposed amendments is contained in sections 4 (i), 303 (b), 303 (e), 303 (g) and 303 (r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

12. Any interested person who is of the view that the proposal should not be adopted, or should not be adopted in the form set forth herein, may file with the Commission on or before June 1, 1956, written data, views, or arguments setting forth his comments. Comments in support of the proposal may also be filed on or before the same date. Comments or briefs in reply to such original comments as may be submitted should be filed within 20 days from the last day for filing said original comments or briefs. No additional comments may be filed unless (1) specifically requested by the Commission or (2) good cause for filing such additional comments is established. The Commission will consider all such additional comments submitted before taking further action in this matter, and if any comments appear to warrant the holding of a hearing, oral argument, or demonstration, notice of the time and place of such hearing, oral argument or demonstration will be given.

13. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.764 of the Commission's rules and regulations, an original and 14 copies of all statements, briefs or comments shall be furnished the Commission.

Adopted: April 11, 1956.

Released: April 12, 1956.

[ 47 CFR Part 9 ]

[Docket No. 11678; FCC 56-326]

AVIATION SERVICES

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

In the matter of amendment of Part 9 of the Commission's rules to require the use of single sideband transmission in the aeronautical mobile service for radiotelephony on frequencies below 25,000 kc.

1. The Commission has under consideration changes in Part 9 of its Rules concerning emission requirements and technical standards for radiotelephony in the aeronautical mobile service. The changes contemplated would require the use of single sideband transmission for radiotelephony on frequencies below 25,000 kc.

2. On October 5, 1955, the Commission issued a Public Notice (FCC 55-988) summarizing plans for future consideration of single sideband requirements in the mobile service. At that time it was stated that since only one sideband is necessary for communication, the elimination of the extra sideband offers a possible means for reducing the radio frequency bandwidth occupied by each station. Additional channels might thereby be made available for new stations or to relieve congestion on existing channels. It was further stated that at a future date, in about one year, the Commission planned to give further consideration to requiring single sideband operation in the mobile service. The foregoing Public Notice (FCC 55-988) was issued to enable all interested parties to prepare to offer constructive comments to help in enlarging the use of this improved transmission method.

3. Subsequently, the Commission has observed an accelerated trend toward recognition of the advantages of single sideband operation and toward actual use of this technique in aeronautical mobile communications. It is, therefore, particularly important at this time for the Commission to be fully informed as to the current state of development of single sideband techniques and performance requirements in the aeronautical mobile service. In this way, the Commission will be in a position to provide adequate technical standards as guides to the design and operation of single sideband equipment. Consequently, the Commission is hereby initiating rule making proceedings looking toward the adoption of requirements for single sideband transmission in the aeronautical mobile service.

4. Accordingly, it is proposed to amend Part 9 of the Rules to require the use of single sideband operation by stations in the aeronautical mobile service using radiotelephony below 25,000 kc. It is further proposed that such amendment provide an adequate period of time for the continued use of existing apparatus and adequate technical standards for single sideband operation and equipment performance.

5. The Commission desires comments with regard to the foregoing proposal and, in particular, with regard to the following matters:

(a) Earliest date by which new radiotelephone installations should be capable of single sideband operation,

(b) Earliest date by which all radiotelephone installations should be capable of single sideband operation,

(c) What provisions should be made to insure compatible operation and satisfactory communication between single sideband and double sideband stations,

(d) Technical standards for single sideband equipment performance capability and operation, including audio characteristics, frequency stability, power specifications, bandwidth, spurious emissions, and degree of carrier reduction.

6. Any interested person who is of the opinion that the proposed amendments should not be adopted, or should not be adopted as proposed herein, may file with the Commission on or before October 5, 1956, written data, views or briefs setting forth his comments. Comments in support of the proposed amendments may also be filed on or before the same date. Comments in reply to the original comments may be filed within 10 days from the last day for filing said original comments. No additional comments may be filed unless: (1) specifically requested by the Commission, or (2) good cause for the filing of additional comments is established. The Commission will consider all such comments prior to taking final action in this matter; and if comments are submitted warranting oral argument, notice of the time and place of such argument will be given.

7. This proposal is issued under the authority contained in sections 4 (i) and 303 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

8. Pursuant to the provisions of § 1.764 of the Commission's rules, an original and 14 copies of all statements, briefs or comments should be furnished the Commission.

Adopted: April 11, 1956.

Released: April 12, 1956.

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[Docket No. 6247 et al.]

SERVICE TO PHOENIX CASE

NOTICE OF HEARING FOR ESTABLISHMENT OF NEW OR ADDITIONAL AIR SERVICE

In the matter of applications for establishment of new or additional air service to Phoenix, Arizona.

Pursuant to the provisions of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended, notice is hereby given that a hearing in the above-entitled proceeding is assigned to be held on May 1, 1956, at 10:00 a. m., m. s. t., at the Westward Ho Hotel, Phoenix, Arizona, before Examiner James S. Keith.

Without limiting the scope of the issues presented in said proceeding, particular attention will be directed to the following matters:

1. Do the public convenience and necessity require new or additional service to Phoenix by one or more of the following proposals:

A. The amendment of the certificate of Trans World Airlines, Inc., for route No. 2 by including Phoenix and San Diego as intermediate points between Denver and Los Angeles;

B. The amendment of the certificate of Western Air Lines, Inc., for route No. 35 or proposed consolidated route No. 13 so as to extend said route from (a) Denver to San Diego via Phoenix, (b) Denver to Los Angeles via Phoenix and Palm Springs, and (c) Salt Lake City to Phoenix;

C. The amendment of the certificate of Continental Air Lines, Inc., for route No. 29 so as to include Phoenix, Palm Springs and San Diego as intermediate points between Denver and Los Angeles;

D. The amendment of the certificate of United Air Lines, Inc., for route No. 1 so as to establish an alternate segment between Denver and Los Angeles via San Diego and Phoenix;

E. The amendment of the certificate of Frontier Airlines, Inc., for route No. 73 so as to extend said route from (a) Phoenix to Salt Lake City on a nonstop basis, (b) Phoenix to Salt Lake City via intermediate points Prescott, Flagstaff, Grand Canyon, St. George, Cedar City and Richfield, and (c) Denver to Phoenix on a nonstop basis;

F. The amendment of the certificate of Frontier Airlines, Inc., so as to alter or modify the terms, conditions, and limitations insofar as such terms, conditions, and limitations now require Frontier to stop at all points on each trip operated between Denver and Phoenix via Pueblo, Alamosa, Monte Vista, Durango, Farmington, Gallup, Winslow, Flagstaff and Prescott; and

G. The amendment of the certificate of Bonanza Air Lines, Inc., for route No. 105 so as to extend said route from (a) Phoenix to Salt Lake City via the intermediate points Prescott, Grand Canyon, St. George, Cedar City and Provo, and (b) Phoenix to Salt Lake City on a nonstop basis.

2. Do the public convenience and necessity require the amendment of the certificate of Bonanza Air Lines, Inc., so as to redesignate the intermediate point Indio on segment 3 Palm Springs-Indio;

3. Do the public convenience and necessity require the suspension of Western's service at Cedar City, Utah; and

4. Are the applicants fit, willing, and able to conduct the transportation and to conform to the Civil Aeronautics Act and the Rules and Regulations of the Board?

Notice is further given that any person other than the parties and interveners of record desiring to be heard in this proceeding may file with the Board on or before May 1, 1956, a statement setting forth the issues of fact and of law raised by this proceeding which he desires to controvert and such person may appear and participate in the hearing in accordance with § 302.14 of the Procedural Regulations under Title I of the Civil Aeronautics Act, as amended.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[Docket Nos. 11399, 11400; FCC 56-305]

NEW BRITAIN BROADCASTING CO. (WKNB-TV) ET AL.

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER AMENDING ISSUES

In re applications of The New Britain Broadcasting Company (WKNB-TV), New Britain, Connecticut, Docket No. 11399, File No. BMPCT-2787; for modification of construction permit (Channel 30). Julian Gross, et al. (Transferor) and National Broadcasting Company, Inc. (Transferee), Docket No. 11400, File No. BTC-1896; for transfer of control of New Britain Broadcasting Company, (WKNB and WKNB-TV).

1. At issue in this proceeding are two applications, one of which is filed on a contingent basis. The first of these was filed by the New Britain Broadcasting Company, licensee of station WKNB-TV in New Britain, Connecticut, for modification of construction permit to decrease antenna height from 970 feet to 750 feet, to increase power from 191 kw ERP to 453 kw (horizontal) and 1,000 kw (maximum), install a new transmitter and antenna system and to change transmitter site to a location 7.2 miles from the city limits of New Britain. The second involves the application of the New Britain Broadcasting Company for transfer of control of station WKNB, WKNB-TV and KCE-23 (TV-STL) from Julian Gross, et al., to the National Broadcasting Company, Inc. The grant of the transfer application is to be contingent upon a grant of the modification application. Based upon oppositions to these applications filed by Elm City Broadcasting Corporation, licensee of television station WHNC-TV, Channel 8, New Haven, Connecticut, and WATR, Inc., permittee of television station WATR-TV, Channel 53, Waterbury, Connecticut, and also based upon the Commission's May 4, 1955 letter sent to the applicants pursuant to the requirements of section 309 (b) of the Communications Act and the joint responses to said letter filed by the applicants on May 12, 1955, the Commission, by order released May 22, 1955 (FCC 55-620, Mimeo No. 19280) designated said applications for hearing. By this order the hearing was limited to oral argument on the matters raised by Elm City and WATR and the issues specified for this oral argument were three:

(1) To determine whether or not grants of the above-entitled applications would be consistent with the provisions of §§ 3.35 (l) [1] and 3.636 (l) of the Commission's rules and its policies promulgated thereunder.

(2) To determine whether or not grants of the above-entitled applications would be consistent with the provisions of § 3.658 (f) of the Commission's rules and its policies promulgated thereunder.

(3) To determine whether or not, on the basis of the hearing record adduced with respect to Issues "(1)" and "(2)" above grants of the above-entitled applications would serve the public interest, convenience and necessity.

2. Since issuance of the hearing order, a series of petitions and related comments, oppositions and replies, have been filed [2] requesting that a full evidentiary hearing be substituted for hearing by oral argument, that action herein be deferred pending completion of certain other actions mentioned in the petition, that the hearing issues be modified, and that this proceeding be consolidated with another.

Request for evidentiary hearing. 3. WATR, as an alternative, and Elm City Broadcasting Corporation and the Broadcasting Bureau request that the Commission order a full evidentiary hearing in this proceeding in lieu of a hearing confined to oral argument before the Commission en banc. This request is acceded to by New Britain Broadcasting Company and National Broadcasting Company. There being no opposition to this request and it appearing that a full evidentiary hearing would be desirable under the circumstances of this case, the Commission proposes to grant this request and to amend the hearing order accordingly.

Withholding action. 4. WATR has requested that the Commission withhold further action on the instant applications until such time as the investigation of the Senate Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee and of the Commission with respect to network operating practices and station ownership have been completed and until a final decision has been made in the case of United States of America v. Radio Corporation of America (Civil Action No. 97-38, U. S. D. C. S. D. N. Y.) filed in the U. S. Court for the Southern District of New York on November 19, 1954 by the Department of Justice charging that RCA has continuously since November 22, 1932 attempted to monopolize and has in fact monopolized interstate commerce and radio television research, etc. WATR asserts that a grant of the applications prior to the completion of the Senate and Commission network investigations would prejudice any remedial action that might be recommended as a result thereof. Regarding the court proceeding, it is asserted that the acts alleged are clearly of the nature condemned by section 313 of the act and that in the face of these disqualifying charges no action should be taken by the Commission to vest additional licenses and power in NBC or its parent, RCA. Both NBC and the Broadcast Bureau oppose the request to defer action. NBC expresses the view that the petition has been filed for the purpose of delaying and obstructing the Commission's processes and asserts that it will, in all probability, require several years for the termination of the Senate and the Commission network investigations and for completion of the anti-trust court action. NBC also asserts that it is unable to understand WATR's opposition to the transfer of control represented by these applications since such transfer will bring network programs to a UHF station and will undoubtedly prove of tremendous value to UHF broadcasting in the Connecticut Valley. The Broadcast Bureau also opposes the delay, stating that inaction would contravene the intent of section 5 (e) of the Communications Act, particularly in view of the uncertain results of both types of proceedings.

5. The Commission has carefully considered the proposal to defer action on the instant applications and the arguments for and against. Uncertainty about when and how the investigations and court proceeding will be concluded, and the knowledge that if remedial action affecting the matters herein becomes necessary, it will not be barred or foreclosed by refusal now to defer action, convince the Commission that this aspect of WATR's petition must be denied. Also, it is noted that with an evidentiary hearing now being ordered in this case, final action on the applications is not imminent so that opportunity for reappraisal of this ruling will present itself should such be necessary.

[1] Should be § 3.35 (a) there being no part (l) to this rule.

[2] (a) petition to enlarge issues and grant a full evidentiary hearing filed on June 14, 1955 by WATR, Inc.; (b) petition for evidentiary hearing and for enlargement of issues filed June 16, 1955 by Elm City Broadcasting Corporation; (c) response to (a) and (b) filed by National Broadcasting Company on June 30, 1955; (d) response to (a) and (b) filed by Julian Gross and New Britian Broadcasting Company on June 30, 1955; (e) petition for modification of procedure filed by Broadcast Bureau on June 24, 1955; (f) comments on petitions (a) and (b) filed by the Broadcast Bureau on July 6, 1955; (g) response to Broadcast Bureau comment filed by National Broadcasting Company on July 12, 1955; (h) reply to comments and oppositions filed by WATR, Inc., on July 8, 1955; (i) petition to designate for hearing and consolidate filed by WGR Corporation on October 9, 1955; (j) response to WGR petition filed by Julian Gross and New Britain Broadcasting Company on October 21, 1955; (k) response to WGR petition filed by National Broadcasting Company on October 21, 1955.

Enlargement of the issues. 6. Among the numerous requests for enlargement of the hearing issues, there are two which should be granted. These relate to issues (1) and (2) of the hearing order. The first issue specified in the May 27, 1955 order of designation requires a determination whether grant of the applications would be consistent with the provisions of § 3.35 (a) and 3.636 (a) (1) of the rules. Elm City asks enlargement so that compliance with the provisions of § 3.35 (b) and § 3.636 (a) (2) can be ascertained. The effect of granting this request would be to permit inquiry not only into the question of whether the proposed grantee directly or indirectly owns, operates, or controls another television or standard broadcast station which would serve substantially the same area as the station to be acquired but also whether a concentration of control of television and standard broadcasting in a manner inconsistent with public interest, convenience, or necessity would result from a grant. Elm City asserts that without the additional issue evidence showing the extent of NBC's concentration of control of television and standard broadcasting facilities cannot be introduced. Such defect, according to the petitioner, would leave the Commission without a complete record upon which to judge whether the grants in question would serve the public interest, convenience and necessity.

7. This enlargement is opposed by NBC principally on the grounds that a similar request was contained in Elm City's original petition for designation of the applications for hearing, that the Commission has previously considered and rejected the request, and that no new matter has been presented. The Broadcast Bureau asserts that the rationale of Clarksburg Publishing Company v. FCC, which was decided subsequent to designation of the instant application for hearing, requires the enlargement.

8. It is the Commission's opinion that in order to assure a full and complete evidentiary record in this matter the enlargement sought by Elm City should be granted and the issues amended accordingly. Whether or not a transfer to NBC would result in a concentration of control in a manner inconsistent with the public interest is germane to evaluation of the applications before us, and sufficient facts have been alleged to justify enlargement to permit inquiry into these matters.

9. The second hearing issue already specified requires a determination of whether or not a grant of the applications would be consistent with the provisions of § 3.658 (f) of the rules. Section 3.658 (f) of the rules relates to network ownership of stations and provides in pertinent part that no license shall be granted to a network organization for a television broadcast station in any locality where the existing television broadcast stations are so few or of such unequal desirability (in terms of coverage, power, frequency, or other related matters) that competition would be substantially restrained by such licensing. Petitioner asks that a similar issue be included to determine whether the grants in question would be consistent with the provisions of § 3.106 (now § 3.136) of the Commission's rules. This section constitutes a like restriction on the network ownership of standard broadcast stations.[3] For the same reasons mentioned above in connection with Elm City's first request, NBC opposes the instant enlargement; the Broadcast Bureau agrees with Elm City that the issue should be enlarged. The proposed transfer of a standard broadcast station license being involved in the applications here at issue and the National Broadcasting Company now being the owner of other standard broadcast stations, enlargement of the issues to allow compliance with this rule to be ascertained is appropriate on the grounds stated in the preceding paragraph.

10. As an alternative to its request that action be deferred, WATR proposes an issue to determine whether the history of the affiliation agreements between NBC, Westinghouse Broadcasting Company and General Electric Company indicates a violation of the Commission's rules and regulations covering network affiliation contracts, and/or has resulted in combinations in restraint of trade contrary to sections 1 and 2 of the Sherman Act. After pointing out certain details of NBC affiliations with General Electric and Westinghouse, WATR insists that the Commission has a statutory duty to consider the question of concentration of control over broadcast facilities in this proceeding and must give weight to the over-all plans and policies of the applicant. NBC opposes the request for inclusion of this issue asserting that there is no allegation by WATR of a violation of any particular network rule, the contentions being grounded solely on speculation. With reference to General Electric, NBC states that that company is the licensee of only one television and only one radio station, that the television station has affiliation arrangements with all four national television networks and that the affiliation agreements with NBC have been filed regularly with the Commission and have complied in every respect with the rules. NBC points out that some of Westinghouse's important stations have never been affiliated with NBC, including KBIX which is a CBS affiliate, KDKA-TV which carries programs from all the national networks and KEX which is affiliated with ABC. Affiliation contracts between Westinghouse and NBC have also been filed regularly with the Commission and fully comply with the Commission's rules according to NBC. The Broadcast Bureau opposes the addition of the issue asserting that it is speculative and that no factual showing has been made in support of it. Replying to the oppositions, WATR maintains that under the provisions of § 3.636 (a) (2) of the Commission's rules, the Commission has the responsibility of determining whether a multiple ownership grant will result in a concentration of control in a manner inconsistent with public interest, a matter which the Commission must determine upon a case-to-case basis. WATR insists that the fact that General Electric and Westinghouse affiliation contracts have been filed with the Commission and have been in compliance with the Commission's rules does not make unnecessary inquiry into the effect of these agreements. It is denied that the proposed issue is speculative, since, according to WATR, it is limited to the affiliation relationship existing between NBC, Westinghouse and General Electric and the management contract history and the evidence of control disclosed by the pending exchange of facilities between Westinghouse and NBC.

11. There being no allegation by WATR of violations of the Commission's rules relative to network affiliation contracts or that these contracts have resulted in combinations in restraint of trade contrary to the provisions of sections 1 and 2 of the Sherman Act, the Commission is unable to agree that addition of this issue in the form and scope proposed is necessary. In the absence of factual averments which would support the inclusion of the issue requested, it is the view of the Commission that the request must be denied as based upon speculative matters. Our refusal to add this proposal of WATR does not in any way limit the scope of the other hearing issues, including the enlargements ordered herein.

12. The second new issue sought by WATR calls for a determination of what effect, if any, the ownership and operation of WKNB-TV will have on the availability of NBC network programs to the viewing public now served by WHNC-TV, Channel 8, New Haven, Connecticut, owned by Elm City. Asserting that it is increasingly self-evident that an affiliation with either CBS or NBC network may represent the difference between success and failure of any television station, WATR argues that with NBC's acquisition of a television station in the area here involved all competition for this affiliation will be removed, thus eliminating the availability of NBC programs to other stations in the area. Accordingly, argues petitioner, there will be an increase in NBC's concentration of control over broadcasting facilities. In opposition to the request, NBC asserts that the issue must be refused because of WATR's failure to show how a determination of the issue is likely to be dispositive of the pending applications. The Broadcast Bureau similarly objects. Replying to the oppositions, WATR states that the recent modification of the Commission's chain broadcasting regulations concerning territorial exclusivity demonstrates the merits of the issue request. WATR also claims that it is vitally interested in protecting and expanding its ability to secure network program service and that the possibility of securing NBC programs will be materially lessened by the proposed transfer. To the Commission it appears that this proposed issue presents one aspect of the broader inquiry contemplated by the already specified issues hereinabove enlarged, and that such particularization is unnecessary.

[3] Section 3.136 reads as follows: "'Network ownership of stations. No license shall be granted to a network organization, or to any person directly or indirectly controlled by or under common control with a network organization, for more than one standard broadcast station where one of the stations covera substantially the service area of the other station, or for any standard broadcast station in any locality where the existing standard broadcast stations are so few or of such unequal desirability (in terms of coverage, power, frequency, or other related matters) that competition would be substantially restrained by such licensing. (The word (control) as used herein, is not limited to full control but includes such a measure of control as would substantially affect the availability of the station to other networks.)"

13. Both WATR and Elm City wish to explore the field of possible anti-trust violations attributable to the proposed transferee or its parent company, RCA, although the requests are stated in somewhat different form and with variations in emphasis. Thus, WATR proposes an issue to determine whether the undisposed complaints of the United States Department of Justice against the Radio Corporation of America charging it with violations of the laws of the United States relating to unlawful restraints and monopolies makes it inappropriate either to confirm or extend the powers and privileges of its subsidiary, NBC, as a licensee of radio and television stations. Elm City asks for an issue to permit obtaining information with respect to the participation of NBC, its officers, directors, stockholders, employees, or agents, in any violation of either Federal or State anti-trust laws, the extent and character of such participation, and the results of any litigation flowing from such participation. More specifically, Elm City requests an issue so that it may be ascertained whether the violations committed were wilful or inadvertent, whether they were committed over a long period of time or were isolated events, and whether the violations were recent. WATR supports its request by a reference to complaints by individuals and by the Department of Justice against RCA alleging violations of the anti-trust laws, particularly the action referred to in paragraph 4, supra, and insists that these matters should be explored in the hearing. Elm City urges enlargement in view of the Commission's long standing concern about anti-trust violations on the part of licensees, and the Commission's recent decision in the Fort Wayne case.

14. NBC opposes both requests on the ground that the matters to be examined are totally irrelevant to any conceivable issue as to the multiple ownership rules and points out that NBC is not a party to the Department of Justice case which, additionally, does not involve operation of radio or television stations. It is asserted, also, that NBC has never been directly involved in any anti-trust action. Consideration of anti-trust charges as affecting the character of NBC would be contrary to the legislative intent, according to NBC, even if there were such charges against it because the legislative history of the 1952 amendments of the Communications Act, in talking of Section 313 of the Act, speaks of convictions of anti-trust law violations as a basis for refusal of a grant of license. NBC maintains that use of the word "conviction" denotes criminal violation rather than the type of violation involved in civil action. NBC notes that in the ABC-Paramount merger case the Commission found that a grant was not precluded by the fact that private anti-trust suits had been filed against the applicant and that a number of them had been settled. The Fort Wayne case, supra, is distinguished on the ground that it was a comparative proceeding. Also pointed out in opposition is the fact that NBC's qualifications have been regularly passed on by the Commission over a long period of years. The basis for the Broadcast Bureau's opposition is that no Commission action has been taken on the past history of RCA consent decrees though the information has been available to the Commission and that predicating an issue on pending anti-trust suits against RCA is improper because of the uncertainty of the outcome.

15. The Commission is unable to agree with petitioners that the addition of either of the anti-trust issues requested is necessary to a proper disposition of the instant proceeding. The narrow issue proposed by WATR would require us to make a finding whether or not it would be appropriate to permit NBC to acquire the stations in question in view of the undisposed of complaints by the United States against the Radio Corporation of America charging the latter with violations of the anti-trust laws. With only a complaint upon which to base its request and with the complaint not being against the applicant itself, petitioner has failed to justify injection of this matter as another hearing issue. To allow the existence of this complaint with the uncertainty of the outcome in both time and content to delay the completion of the instant proceeding would place an excessive burden upon our administrative processes. If, prior to completion of the case before us, the anti-trust proceeding is concluded adversely to NBC's parent company, it would be within our power to take further administrative action to alter the proceeding before us and to take into account such matter. Assuming that the Commission has completed the instant case and thereafter conviction or other adverse holding should be had against RCA, other remedies, including those prescribed in sections 311 and 313 of the Act, are available to assure protection of the public interest.

16. As to the enlargement requested by Elm City, it appears to be based on either or both of two factors, that is, (1) the past record of consent decrees to which RCA was a party and (2) the presently pending anti-trust actions to which reference has already been made. With regard to the former, the information to which reference is made is not new; it has been available to the Commission but has not, in the opinion of the Commission, justified any action adverse to RCA's subsidiary, NBC. We have already indicated in previous portions hereof the reasons why we do not consider it necessary to include an issue relative to the outstanding anti-trust suits against RCA. While Elm City puts the issue in terms of NBC participation in the alleged unlawful activities, it is apparent that the subject matter is that at issue in the anti-trust action against the parent company. The outcome of this action is, as we have said, uncertain and it would be inappropriate to further complicate the issues herein by exploring these matters now in progress in the courts.

17. The final request to be considered is WATR's proposal for an issue to determine what effect, if any, the ownership of WKNB–TV will have on the plans and policies of NBC for affiliation with VHF and UHF television stations not owned and operated by NBC. WATR argues that by acquiring additional UHF stations NBC can use its ownership to effectuate permanent exclusive affiliation agreements assuring these stations' ability to survive and compete with either VHF or UHF stations. Also it is asserted that a grant of the application will serve to confirm the fact that unless NBC does own the station, it will not affiliate with a UHF where a free choice between UHF and VHF exists. NBC, in opposition, maintains that WATR has made no allegation how a determination of the issue is likely to be dispositive of the pending applications and that this defect is fatal. The Broadcast Bureau asserts that the requested issue raises broad general policy questions which cannot be appropriately treated in an adjudicatory proceeding.

18. The issue is so lacking in specificity that its inclusion in this proceeding would permit inquiry into matters far afield from the particular problem before the Commission, i. e., whether these particular applications should be granted. To treat these matters in this hearing would be inappropriate because broad general policy questions are raised which more properly are matters for inquiry in rule-making and investigatory proceedings already under study by the Commission. Of course, to some extent questions arising under the proposed issue may, if sufficiently specific, come within the scope of the existing hearing issues as enlarged, but this does not justify opening the case to the broad inquiry apparently contemplated by WATR's request.

Petition of WGR. 19. There remains the petition to designate for hearing and for consolidation filed by WGR Corporation, licensee of WGR–TV, Buffalo, New York. WGR asks that the Commission designate for hearing applications for assignment of license of stations WPTZ and KYW, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, to NBC, and of stations WNBK and WTAM, Cleveland, Ohio, to Westinghouse Broadcasting Company, Inc. It further requests consolidation of the instant proceeding with the protest proceeding on the application for assignment of construction permit of station WBUF–TV, Buffalo, New York (Docket No. 11528).

20. Since the WGR petition was filed, the Cleveland and Philadelphia applications have been granted without further opposition from WGR. WGR, which is also protestant in the Buffalo proceeding, has petitioned to withdraw from that proceeding, an unopposed request which we have granted. Accordingly, WGR's petition for designation and for consolidation has become moot and should be dismissed.

21. In view of the foregoing: It is ordered, This 11th day of April 1956, that the designation order herein released May 27, 1955, is amended so that Issue (1) reads as follows:

To determine whether or not grants of the above-entitled applications would be consistent with the provisions of §§ 3.35 (a) and (b) and 3.636 (a) (1) and (2) of the Commission's rules and its policies promulgated thereunder.

and so that Issue (2) reads as follows:

To determine whether or not grants of the above-entitled applications would be consistent with the provisions of §§ 3.658 (f) and 3.136 of the Commission's rules and its policies promulgated thereunder.

It is further ordered, That said designation order is modified so that in lieu of the procedure provided for in the penultimate paragraph thereof, the hearing on the subject applications shall be a full evidentiary hearing before a Hearing Examiner and at a time and place to be specified subsequently.

It is further ordered, That in all other respects than those above indicated the petitions filed by WATR and Elm City are denied, and that the petition to designate for hearing and consolidation filed by WGR Corporation is dismissed as moot.

Released: April 13, 1956.

FARWEST FISHERMEN, INC.

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATION FOR HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In the matter of Farwest Fishermen, Inc., Anacortes, Washington, application for construction permit for a new limited Class II–B coast station, File No. 1619–M–K, Docket No. 11679.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 11th day of April 1956;

The Commission, having under consideration an application filed by Farwest Fishermen, Inc., Anacortes, Washington, for a construction permit for a new limited Class II–B coast station to be located at Anacortes, Washington, utilizing the frequency 2214 kc;

It appearing that §§ 7.171 and 7.365 set forth the applicability of certain requirements and conditions under which the frequency 2214 kc may be assigned and that by an exchange of letters and telegrams between the applicant and the Commission, constituting notice under the provisions of section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the Commission informed the applicant of its inability to find that said requirements and conditions had been met by the applicant; and

It further appearing that although the Commission finds the above-named applicant is legally, technically and financially qualified to construct, own and operate a coast station such as proposed, and although the applicant's replies to the questions raised have been considered, the questions have not been resolved and the Commission is unable to find that the public interest, convenience and necessity would be served by a grant of the application;

It is ordered, Pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, that said application is designated for hearing upon the following issues:

1. To determine the nature of the service that the applicant would provide, including to whom such service would be available and the geographical area to be served.

2. To determine the extent to which ship-shore radio communication would be provided over distances for which frequencies above 30 Mc would be suitable.

3. To determine the nature and extent of the deficiencies, if any, of the public coast station facilities available to provide radiocommunication service to the applicant insofar as such deficiencies affect the necessity for establishing a limited coast station using the frequency 2214 kc.

4. To determine whether the assignment of the frequency 2214 kc at Anacortes, Washington, as requested, may cause harmful interference to the service of United States or foreign stations operating on the same or adjacent frequencies and having priority thereon by reason of the provisions of the Commission's rules and the provisions of the Agreement of the Extraordinary Administrative Radio Conference, Geneva, 1951, to which the United States is a party.

5. To determine in the light of the evidence adduced under the above issues, whether a grant of the above-entitled application would serve the public interest, convenience and necessity.

It is further ordered, That the Farwest Fishermen, Inc., is hereby afforded an opportunity to obtain a hearing on the foregoing issues by filing a written appearance, in triplicate, within twenty days of the mailing of the Order designating the application for hearing, and, if the applicant fails to file such a written statement within the date specified, and has not filed prior to the expiration of that date a petition to dismiss without prejudice, his application shall be dismissed with prejudice for failure to prosecute, in accordance with § 1.387 of the Commission's rules;

It is further ordered, That the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company is hereby named a party respondent to this proceeding, provided that within twenty days of the mailing of this Order it shall file with the Commission a written appearance in triplicate;

It is further ordered, That the hearing herein shall be held at Seattle, Washington, on the 11th day of May 1956.

Released: April 12, 1956.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. E–6674]

CALIFORNIA ELECTRIC POWER CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

APRIL 12, 1956.

Take notice that on April 9, 1956, an application was filed with the Federal Power Commission, pursuant to section 204 of the Federal Power Act, by California Electric Power Company ("Applicant"), a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Delaware, and doing business in the States of California and Nevada, with its principal business office at Riverside, California, seeking an order authorizing Applicant to assume certain obligations or liabilities of its wholly-owned Mexican subsidiary, Industrial Electrica Mexicana, S. A. de C. V. ("Industrial"), an electric utility company operating in Baja California and Sonora, Republic of Mexico. Industrial proposes to borrow $700,000 from the Bank of America National Trust and Savings Association to be evidenced by Industrial's 3¾ percent serial notes to be issued to said bank. Applicant will agree that if Industrial shall fail to pay, when due, the principal amount of, or interest on, any such note or notes, Applicant will purchase such defaulted note or notes from said bank at the face amount thereof, plus accrued interset. Applicant is of the opinion that its proposed agreement with said bank constitutes an assumption of obligation or liability in respect of the securities of Industrial, and, therefore, seeks an authorization of the Commission to assume such obligation or liability.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before the 2d day of May 1956, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., a petition or protest in accordance with the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. The application is on file and available for public inspection.

[Project No. 2200]

CALIFORNIA OREGON POWER CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

APRIL 13, 1956.

Public notice is hereby given that application has been filed under the Federal Power Act (16 U. S. C. 791a–825r) by The California Oregon Power Company of Medford, Oregon, for license for constructed hydroelectric Project No. 2200 on the Klamath River in California and Oregon and on the Link River in Oregon, in Siskiyou County, California in the vicinity of Hornbrook, and in Klamath County, Oregon in the vicinity of Keno and Klamath Falls, affecting lands and navigable waters of the United States and utilizing surplus water from the Link River Government dam near Klamath Falls, Oregon. The project has an initial hydroelectric installation of 51,560 kilowatts and develops about 395 feet of powerhead in about 60 miles of the upper Klamath River and Link River. The project includes five existing hydroelectric developments and an existing regulating dam, described as follows:

(1) East Side Development on Link River consisting of a canal and penstock extending from Link River Dam to the powerhouse containing a 4,250-horsepower turbine driving a 3,200-kilowatt generator;

(2) West Side Development on Link River consisting of a canal and penstock extending from Link River dam to the powerhouse containing a 1,040-horsepower turbine driving a 600-kilowatt generator;

(3) Keno Regulating Dam on Klamath River consisting of a wood bent structure with earth abutments and control works for maintaining the level of Ewauna Lake and Klamath River between Keno and Klamath Falls;

(4) Keno Development consisting of a low diversion dam across Klamath River about one mile below Keno and a short canal extending to the powerhouse containing a 600-horsepower turbine driving a 360-kilowatt generator and a 695-horsepower turbine driving a 400-kilowatt generator;

(5) Copco No. 1 Development on Klamath River about 30 miles below the Keno Development consisting of a concrete gravity arch dam with taintor gates creating a reservoir about 4½ miles long, penstocks, and a powerhouse containing two 18,600-horsepower turbines each driving a 10,000-kilowatt generator, a substation, and appurtenant facilities;

(6) Copco No. 2 Development on Klamath River consisting of a concrete and earth diversion dam about ¼ mile below the Copco No. 1 Development, a conduit composed of two tunnels, woodstave pipe and penstocks leading to the powerhouse containing two 20,000-horsepower turbines each driving a 13,500-kilowatt generator, a substation, and appurtenant facilities.

The application also includes the Link River Government dam which is utilized to release surplus water from Upper Klamath Lake for the operation of applicant's downstream hydroelectric developments. Link River dam is a low concrete structure controlling the level of Upper Klamath Lake.

As stated in the Commission's orders issued January 28, 1954 in Project No. 2082 and Docket No. E–6390, requiring the filing of this application, one of the questions in the proceeding on this application for license for Project No. 2200 is whether the project works involved should be included in the license issued for the Big Bend No. 2 Development (Project No. 2082), and another question is whether, in the interests of protection of life, health, and property, re-regulating facilities at or near the Iron Gate site are necessary and should be included in any license authorizing the continued operation of the aforesaid existing developments on the Klamath River.

Protests or petitions to intervene in this proceeding may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure of the Commission (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). The last day upon which protests and petitions to intervene may be filed is May 28, 1956. The application is on file with the Commission for public inspection.

[File No. 70-3468]

NEW ENGLAND ELECTRIC SYSTEM

NOTICE OF FILING REGARDING PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO AGREEMENT AND DECLARATION OF TRUST INCREASING TOTAL AUTHORIZED COMMON SHARES AND SOLICITATION OF PROXIES IN RESPECT THEREOF

APRIL 12, 1956.

Notice is hereby given that a declaration has been filed with this Commission, pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"), by New England Electric System ("NEES"), a registered holding company. NEES has designated sections 6 (a), 7 and 12 of the act and Rules U-62 and U-65 (b) promulgated thereunder as applicable to the proposed transactions, which are summarized as follows:

NEES proposes to submit to the vote of its shareholders at the regular annual meeting of such shareholders to be held on May 29, 1956, a proposal to increase the authorized number of shares from 11,500,000 to 15,000,000 and to amend the Agreement and Declaration of Trust to reflect such increase and in connection therewith to solicit proxies. It is stated in the filing that the proposed increase in authorized shares and proposed amendment to the Agreement and Declaration of Trust require the affirmative vote of a majority of the common shares present or represented at a shareholders' meeting held for such purpose.

Of the 11,500,000 shares presently authorized, NEES now has 1,480,293 unissued shares, which will be reduced to 645,317 upon the issuance of 834,976 shares proposed to be offered in April 1956. The filing states that the amendment is being proposed at the present time in order to provide additional authorized common shares to be issued by NEES to enable it to assist in the financing of the construction program of the subsidiaries and for such other purposes as the directors may determine.

The filing sets forth an estimate of fees and expenses totaling $25,500 in connection with the proposed transactions, including the preparation and mailing of the solicitation material and $2,500 for services performed, at cost, by New England Power Service Company, an affiliated service company. It is stated that no State commission and no Federal commission other than this Commission has jurisdiction over the proposed transactions.

Declarant requests that the Commission's order herein become effective upon issuance.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than April 26, 1956, at 5:30 p. m., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law, if any, raised by said declaration which he desires to controvert, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date said declaration, as filed or as amended, may be permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may grant exemption from its rules as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 or take such other action as it may deem appropriate.

By the Commission.

NUCLEONICS, CHEMISTRY AND ELECTRONICS SHARES, INC.

ORDER RESCINDING ORDER FOR HEARING

APRIL 11, 1956.

The Commission having previously, by Notice of and Order for Hearing pursuant to section 35 of the Investment Company Act of 1940, directed that a hearing be held concerning the corporate name of Atomic, Chemical & Electronic Shares, Inc., such hearing to be held on April 30, 1956; and

Atomic, Chemical & Electronic Shares, Inc., having filed an amendment to its registration statement changing its name to Nucleonics, Chemistry and Electronics Shares, Inc., and objectors to the name of such Fund, who had requested a hearing with respect thereto having, on the basis of such change of name, withdrawn such request for hearing, and it appearing appropriate to the Commission that in view of such change of name, such order for hearing should be rescinded;

It is ordered, That the hearing heretofore ordered with respect to the corporate name of Atomic, Chemical & Electronic Shares, Inc., pursuant to section 35 of the Investment Company Act of 1940, be and is hereby rescinded.

It is further ordered, That notice of this order of recision shall be given to the registrant and to the other persons notified of the entry of said order of April 6, 1956, and that this order shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER and by general release of the Commission in the same manner as such previous order.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] ORVAL L. DUBOIS,
Secretary.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

[Notice 108]

MOTOR CARRIER APPLICATIONS

APRIL 13, 1956.

Protests consisting of an original and two copies to the granting of an application must be filed with the Commission within 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER and a copy of such protest served on the applicant. Each protest must clearly state the name and street number, city and state address of each protestant on behalf of whom the protest is filed (49 CFR 1.240 and 1.241). Failure to seasonably file a protest will be construed as a waiver of opposition and participation in the proceeding unless an oral hearing is held. In addition to other requirements of Rule 40 of the general rules of practice of the Commission (49 CFR 1.40), protest shall include a request for a public hearing, if one is desired, and shall specify with particularity the facts, matters, and things relied upon, but shall not include issues or allegations phrased generally. Protests containing general allegations may be rejected. Requests for an oral hearing must be supported by an explanation as to why the evidence cannot be submitted in forms of affidavits. Any interested person, not a protestant, desiring to receive notice of the time and place of any hearing, pre-hearing conference, taking of depositions, or other proceeding shall notify the Commission by letter or telegram within 30 days of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Except when circumstances require immediate action, an application for approval, under section 210a (b) of the act, of the temporary operations of Motor Carrier properties sought to be acquired in an application under section 5 (2) will not be disposed of sooner than 10 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. If a protest is received prior to action being taken, it will be considered.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

PART 907—MILK IN MILWAUKEE, WIS., MARKETING AREA

ORDER SUSPENDING CERTAIN PROVISIONS

Pursuant to the applicable provisions of Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 1940 ed. 601 et seq.), hereinafter referred to as the "act," and of the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Milwaukee, Wisconsin, marketing area, hereinafter referred to as the "order" it is hereby found and determined that:

For the period ending July 31, 1956, the following provisions of § 907.51 (a) of the order do not tend to effectuate the declared policy o. the act: "the following amounts as indicated: August through November, inclusive * * * March through June, inclusive $0.66; and $0.86 in other months: Provided, That such Class I price differential shall be increased or decreased, respectively, 2 cents for each full percent that the adjusted supply-demand ratio computed pursuant to paragraph (e) of this section is greater than 72 percent, but shall not be increased or decreased more than 24 cents due to the adjusted supply-demand ratio."

It is hereby found and determined that notice of proposed rule making and public procedure thereon in connection with the issuance hereof is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest, in that (1) the information upon which this action is based did not become available in sufficient time for such compliance; (2) it is necessary to issue this suspension order effective as provided below to reflect current marketing conditions and to facilitate, promote, and maintain the orderly marketing of milk produced for the said marketing area; (3) this suspension order does not require of persons affected substantial or extensive preparation prior to its effective date; and (4) this suspension is necessary in connection with a similar suspension order affecting the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Chicago, Illinois, marketing area, so as to preserve existing price relationships in the two markets.

Therefore, good cause exists for making this order effective for the period ending July 31, 1956.

It is therefore ordered, That the following provisions of § 907.51 (a) of the order are hereby suspended from the effective date as provided below, through July 31, 1956: "the following amounts as indicated: August through November, inclusive * * * March through June, inclusive $0.66; and $0.86 in other months: Provided, That such Class I price differential shall be increased or decreased, respectively, 2 cents for each full percent that the adjusted supply-demand ratio computed pursuant to paragraph (e) of this section is greater than 72 percent, but shall not be increased or decreased more than 24 cents due to the adjusted supply-demand ratio."

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 13th day of April 1956 to become effective on April 16.

ary, February, and July $0.90; all others, $0.70: Provided, That such Class I price differential shall be increased, or decreased, respectively, 2 cents for each full percent that the adjusted supply-demand ratio is greater or less than 72 percent, but shall not be increased or decreased more than 24 cents because of the adjusted supply-demand ratio."

(b) Notice of proposed rule making, public procedure thereon, and 30 days notice of the effective date hereof, are found to be impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest in that:

(1) The information upon which this action is based did not become available in time sufficient for such compliance;

(2) Producers of more than 50 percent of the milk produced for this market, and handlers of most of the milk, have requested that these provisions be suspended;

(3) It is found necessary to issue and make effective this suspension order to reflect current marketing conditions and to facilitate, promote, and maintain orderly marketing conditions in this marketing area; and

(4) This suspension order does not require of persons affected substantial or extensive preparation prior to its effective date.

Therefore, good cause exists for making this order effective immediately for the period ending July 31, 1956.

It is therefore ordered, That the following provisions of § 941.52 (a) (1) of the order be and hereby are suspended from the effective date as provided below, through July 31, 1956: "the following amount for the delivery periods indicated: August, September, October, and November * * * December, January, February, and July $0.90; all others, $0.70: Provided, That such Class I price differential shall be increased, or decreased, respectively, 2 cents for each full percent that the adjusted supply-demand ratio is greater or less than 72 percent, but shall not be increased or decreased more than 24 cents because of the adjusted supply-demand ratio."

PART 967—MILK IN SOUTH BEND-LA PORTE, IND., MARKETING AREA

ORDER SUSPENDING CERTAIN PROVISIONS

Pursuant to the applicable provisions of Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 1940 ed. 601 et seq.), hereinafter referred to as the "act," and of the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the South Bend-LaPorte, Indiana, marketing area, hereinafter referred to as the "order," it is hereby found and determined that:

The following provisions contained in § 967.51 (a) do not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act for the period ending July 31, 1956: "the following amount for the delivery period indicated: August, September, October, November, and December * * * January and February, $1.10; all others, $0.90: Provided, That such Class I price shall be increased, or decreased, respectively, 2 cents for each full percent that the adjusted supply-demand ratio is greater or less than 72 percent, but shall not be increased or decreased more than 24 cents because of the adjusted supply-demand ratio."

It is hereby found and determined that notice of proposed rule making and public procedure thereon in connection with the issuance hereof is impractical, unnecessary and contrary to the public interest, in that:

(1) The information upon which this action is based did not become available in sufficient time for such compliance;

(2) The issuance of this suspension order effective as set forth below is necessary to reflect current marketing conditions and to facilitate, promote and maintain the orderly marketing of milk produced for the said marketing area;

(3) This suspension is necessary in connection with a similar suspension order affecting the order regulating the handling of milk in the Chicago, Illinois, marketing area, so as to preserve existing price relationships in the two markets; and

(4) The changes caused by this suspension order do not require of persons affected substantial or extensive preparation prior to its effective date.

Therefore, good cause exists for making this order effective immediately for the period ending July 31, 1956.

It is therefore ordered, That the following provisions of § 967.51 (a) of the order are hereby suspended from the effective date, as provided below, through July 31, 1956: "the following amount for the delivery period indicated: August, September, October, November and December * * * January, and February, $1.10; all others, $0.90: Provided, That such Class I price shall be increased or decreased, respectively, 2 cents for each full percent that the adjusted supply-demand ratio is greater or less than 72 percent, but shall not be increased or decreased more than 24 cents because of the adjusted supply-demand ratio."

Done at Washington, D. C., this 13th day of April 1956 to be effective on April 16.

TITLE 8—ALIENS AND NATIONALITY

Chapter I—Immigration and Naturalization Service, Department of Justice

Subchapter A—General Provisions

PART 2—SERVICE RECORDS; FEES

PART 7—REGIONAL COMMISSIONERS: APPEALS

PART 9—AUTHORITY OF COMMISSIONER, REGIONAL COMMISSIONERS, AND ASSISTANT COMMISSIONERS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

The following amendments to Chapter I of Title 8 of the Code of Federal Regulations are hereby prescribed:

1. Section 2.5 is amended as follows: The tenth and twentieth items are amended and one new item is added so that when taken with the introductory material such amended and added items will read as follows:

§ 2.5 Fees for service, documents, papers, and records not specified in the Immigration and Nationality Act. In addition to the fees enumerated in sections 281 and 344 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, the following fees and charges are prescribed:

* * * * *

For filing application for Alien Laborer's Permit in lieu of one lost, mutilated, or destroyed ..... $1.00

* * * * *

For filing application for stay of deportation under § 243.3 (b) of this chapter, except when made concurrently with a motion to reopen or reconsider a decision in a deportation proceeding ..... 25.00

* * * * *

For filing an application for certificate of citizenship by claimant under section 309 (c) of the act ..... 5.00

2. Subparagraph (13) of paragraph (a) of § 7.1 is amended so that when taken with the introductory material it will read as follows:

§ 7.1 Regional commissioners—(a) Appellate jurisdiction. Appeals shall lie to the regional commissioners from the following:

* * * * * *

(13) Decisions of district directors on applications for certificates of citizenship under Part 341 of this chapter;

3. Paragraph (vv) of § 9.5a is amended so that when taken with the introductory material it will read as follows:

§ 9.5a Authority of Regional Commissioners. The powers, privileges, and duties conferred or imposed upon officers or employees of the Service under this chapter with respect to the following-described matters are hereby conferred or imposed upon the regional commissioners:

* * * * *

(vv) Applications for certificates of citizenship under Part 341 of this chapter.

(Sec. 103, 66 Stat. 173; 8 U. S. C. 1103. Interpret or apply sec. 501, 65 Stat. 290; 5 U. S. C. 140)

This order shall become effective on the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Compliance with the provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238; 5 U. S. C. 1003) as to notice of proposed rule making and delayed effective date is unnecessary in this instance because the rules prescribed by the order relate to matters of agency management, with one exception which relates to a matter of very minor significance.

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter I—Civil Aeronautics Board

Subchapter A—Civil Air Regulations

[Supp. 28]

PART 4b—AIRPLANE AIRWORTHINESS; TRANSPORT CATEGORIES

ANTISKID DEVICES AND INSTALLATIONS

The following amendments to Part 4b are issued to standardize the procedures for obtaining approval of an antiskid installation by prescribing the amount of flight testing and engineering evaluation involved. Further, § 4b.337-4 defines antiskid devices that are acceptable for installation on civil aircraft and lists the installation data and the tests and analyses acceptable to the Administrator.

Part 4b is amended as follows:

1. A new § 4b.115-4 is added as follows:

§ 4b.115-4 Accelerate-stop distance with an antiskid device installed (CAA policies which apply to § 4b.115). The policies outlined in § 4b.337-4 will apply.

2. A new § 4b.122-4 is added as follows:

§ 4b.122-4 Determination of the landing distance with an antiskid device installed (CAA policies which apply to § 4b.122). The policies outlined in § 4b.337-4 will apply.

3. A new § 4b.123-4 is added as follows:

§ 4b.123-4 Procedure in determination of landing distance with an antiskid device installed (CAA policies which apply to § 4b.123). The policies outlined in § 4b.337-4 will apply.

4. A new § 4b.170-3 is added as follows:

§ 4b.170-3 Longitudinal stability and control with an antiskid device installed (CAA policies which apply to § 4b.170). The policies outlined in § 4b.337-4 will apply.

5. A new § 4b.171-3 is added as follows:

§ 4b.171-3 Directional stability and control with an antiskid device installed (CAA policies which apply to § 4b.170). The policies outlined in § 4b.337-4 will apply.

6. A new § 4b.337-4 is added as follows:

§ 4b.337-4 Antiskid devices and installations (CAA policies which apply to § 4b.337)—(a) Eligibility. Antiskid devices meeting the airworthiness portions of Military Specification MIL-B-8075 (ASG) and any amendments[1] thereto, are acceptable for installation on civil aircraft. Requests for deviations from these specifications should be submitted to the CAA Regional Office, Aircraft Engineering Division. The installation of the antiskid device should comply with the requirements specified in paragraph (b) of this section. The antiskid device and its installation will be approved for use on civil aircraft when the tests specified in paragraph (c) of this section have been satisfactorily demonstrated.

(b) Installation—(1) Data required. An engineering evaluation of the antiskid installation as installed on the airplane, including all necessary components, should be conducted. This analysis and complete descriptive data should be submitted to the CAA. The data should include hydraulic and electric schematic diagrams of the installation, assembly drawings of antiskid system units, test results or stress analysis substantiating structural strength of attachments and modification of the axle or other structural members, installation drawings, recommended instructions pertaining to installation, maintenance and operation and analysis of flight test data and results. Schematic drawings should refer to all units in the normal and emergency brake systems. The engineering evaluation should also assure that the antiskid system does not cause undesirable and adverse yaw characteristics.

(i) Engineering evaluation should account for a bounce condition wherein the wheels may leave the runway after the brakes have been applied; for a condition wherein the wheels stay on the runway but the oleos are extended (if the system utilizes landing gear oleo compression in its operation) and for a condition in which the wheels of one main gear may not be in contact with the runway for a considerable time while the wheels of the other main gear are firmly on the runway. If the antiskid installation incorporates the "landing with brake pedals depressed" feature, then this type of operation should also be considered.

(ii) It should be shown that the brake cycling frequency imposed by the antiskid installation will not result in excessive loads on the landing gear because of proximity to resonant landing gear frequencies.

(2) Systems. The entire brake system (including both the basic brake system and the antiskid system) should conform to § 4b.337. The single failure criterion of § 4b.337 should be extended to include the antiskid system.

(i) In the event of a probable malfunction within the antiskid system which would result in loss of the antiskid feature in one or more brake units, those brake units affected should automatically revert to normal braking.

(ii) An indicating means should be provided to warn the pilot or copilot in the event of antiskid malfunction. For simple mechanical type antiskid installations wherein any single probable malfunction is considered remote and which will render only one braked wheel inoperative insofar as antiskid operation is concerned, the indicating means need not be located in the cockpit.

(iii) A means should be provided so that the pilot or copilot can readily deactivate the antiskid system. For simple mechanical type antiskid installations wherein any single probable malfunction is considered remote and which will render only one braked wheel inoperative insofar as antiskid operation is concerned, the deactivating means need not be located in the cockpit.

(iv) Antiskid installations should not cause surge pressures in the brake hydraulic system which would be detrimental to either the normal or emergency brake system and components.

(v) The antiskid equipment should insure satisfactory operation on slippery runways as well as on dry hard surfaced runways without additional antiskid adjustment.

(c) Tests and analyses. (1) When an antiskid system is included as original equipment on an airplane, it is not required that field length data,[2] with antiskid inoperative, be determined.

(2) Tests and analyses for the approval of an antiskid system to be used with a previously approved brake installation, without consideration for reduction of runway distances, should be conducted in accordance with this paragraph. When equivalent alternate procedures are developed and approved, they may be used in lieu of the method specified in this paragraph. If credit for shorter field lengths is requested on the basis of an antiskid installation, then complete flight tests should be conducted in accordance with §§ 4b.115, 4b.122, 4b.123, 4b.170 and 4b.171.

(3) When an antiskid system is installed, the braking performance and airplane stopping distances should be at least equivalent to those obtained during the accelerate-stop and landing type certification tests. The tests to be conducted are based on the high speed condition as being critical, both for airplane braking as controlled by the antiskid system, and for the functional integrity of an acceptable antiskid device. However, should it become necessary for a particular type of installation, these tests may be modified as warranted.

(i) Conduct at least one accelerate-stop test at each of the following speeds: 80, 90, and 100 percent of the highest $V_1$ speed for which the airplane is certificated.[3] The maximum landing weight, or the lowest weight above maximum landing weight necessary to keep the airplane from leaving the runway at the highest $V_1$ speed, should be used in the above three tests. When appropriate, the decelerate portions of the accelerate-stop tests may be demonstrated by landings with wing flaps in takeoff position in lieu of accelerating the airplane to $V_1$ speed on the runway. (See also § 4b.115-1.)

(ii) Conduct at least one landing deceleration test at each of the following weights: maximum landing weight, an intermediate landing weight and normal minimum landing weight.[4] All landings should be made from the highest corresponding contact speeds used in determining CAA Approved Airplane Flight Manual field lengths.

(4) Conduct controllability tests in accordance with §§ 4b.170 and 4b.171 (except for the emergency braking condition) after the occurrence of any single malfunction within the antiskid system (excluding the device and those components which were determined to be satisfactory based on laboratory tests). Single probable malfunctions, which analysis indicates may be likely to occur, should be simulated during landing or simulated landing deceleration tests. If analysis shows clearly that a particular malfunction would not adversely affect controllability, that malfunction need not be simulated in flight tests.

(5) Conduct taxi tests to demonstrate that repeated rapid full brake pedal application and release does not result in excessive delay in brake reapplications and that ground handling maneuvering characteristics and sensitivity of braking effect are satisfactory.

(6) Conduct tests and analyses to determine the effect of automatic cyclic brake action on the emergency brake system fluid supply. The fluid volume (reserved for emergency use in the reservoir or emergency accumulators of the basic brake system) may be adequate for manual braking but may be adversely affected by an antiskid installation. Hence, an engineering evaluation should be conducted to show that the antiskid system will not have an adverse effect on braking when the airplane is stopped by means of the emergency brake system, or to show that the antiskid system is automatically made inoperative when emergency braking is used.

(7) If, during the tests specified in this paragraph, adjustments or modifications to the antiskid device or its installation proved necessary and indicated the possibility of encountering unreliable operation due to maintenance difficulties or the need for frequent adjustments, then accelerated service functioning and reliability tests should be conducted as deemed necessary.

(Sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 425. Interpret or apply secs. 601, 603, 52 Stat. 1007, as amended, 1009, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 551, 553)

This supplement shall become effective May 15, 1956.

[SEAL] JAMES T. PYLE,
Acting Administrator of Civil Aeronautics.

[F. R. Doc. 56-3023; Filed, Apr. 18, 1956; 8:45 a. m.]

[1] Proposed amendments may be obtained from the Civil Aeronautics Administration, Washington 25, D. C.

[2] It is desirable to determine field length data with the antiskid inoperative in order that airplane operation may be conducted with antiskid inoperative if so desired by the operator.

[3] In order to assure stopping distances equivalent to those shown in the Airplane Flight Manual, camera recording, or equivalent recordation methods should be used. To ascertain that the measured stopping distances are equivalent to those in the Airplane Flight Manual it will be necessary to compare the measured antiskid data with the data obtained during the manufacturer's original certification tests for the weight used in the antiskid tests at the highest speed for that weight shown in the Airplane Flight Manual.

[4] If it can be shown by the accelerate-stop distance tests conducted and the data obtained in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph that the landing distances when using normal landing braking techniques, would not exceed the landing distances approved without antiskid devices, then the landing distance tests specified in subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph need not be conducted.

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 721; 15 U. S. C. 46. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended; 15 U. S. C. 45) [Cease and desist order, Old Empire, Inc. (Newark, N. J.), et al., Docket 6401, April 3, 1956]

In the Matter of Old Empire, Inc., a Corporation, and Julio de Elorza, Raymond Barnett, John de Elorza and Pearl de Elorza, Individually and as Officers of Old Empire, Inc.; Pierre Marche, Inc., a Corporation, and Louis Manus, Mrs. Samuel B. Kline, Also Known as Bebe Aaron, and Ruth Robbins, Individually and as Officers of Pierre Marche, Inc., and Samuel B. Kline, Individually and as General Manager of Pierre Marche, Inc.

This proceeding was heard by a hearing examiner on the complaint of the Commission—charging a corporate manufacturer of its "Marche Nuptiale" perfume, together with its corporate franchise distributor and their officers, with representing fasely through statements in brochures, circulars, and letters, and upon packages, containers, and labels that $25 per bottle was the customary retail price of the perfume, that it was displayed and sold by named large and well-known department stores, was manufactured from essence imported from France, and that they maintained a branch office in Paris; and with supplying to retail purchasers small gummed sticker-type labels bearing the figure "$25.00" to affix to the "Marche Nuptiale" packages—and an agreement between the parties containing consent order to cease and desist.

On this basis, the hearing examiner made his initial decision, including order to cease and desist, which became, on April 3, 1956, the decision of the Commission.

The order to cease and desist is as follows:

It is ordered, That respondent Old Empire, Inc., a corporation, its officers, and respondents Julio de Elorza, Raymond Barnett, John de Elorza and Pearl de Elorza, individually and as officers of Old Empire, Inc., and respondent Pierre Marche, Inc., a corporation, its officers, and respondents Louis Manus, Mrs. Samuel B. Kline, also known as Bebe Aaron, and Ruth Robbins, individually and as officers of Pierre Marche, Inc., and Samuel B. Kline, individually and as General Manager of Pierre Marche, Inc., their agents, representatives and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device in connection with the sale and distribution of perfumes, colognes, and allied products, in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Supplying customers or purchasers of said products or any of them with price tags, labels, stickers or other advertising material bearing amounts which are, in fact, in excess of the prices at which said products are usually and customarily sold.

2. Representing directly or by implication:

(a) That the retail price of any of said products is in excess of the price at which said product is usually and customarily sold.

(b) That said products or any of them are currently being displayed or sold by any specified store or any class of stores, when such is not the fact.

(c) That said perfumes are made from essences imported from France unless it is clearly and conspicuously disclosed, in immediate conjunction therewith, that part of the essences are not so imported, when such is the fact.

(d) That any of respondents maintain an office or establishment in France unless such is the fact.

By "Decision of the Commission", report of compliance was required as follows:

It is ordered, That the respondents herein shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with the order to cease and desist.

Issued: April 3, 1956.

This proceeding was heard by a hearing examiner on the complaint of the Commission—charging 18 importers of Mexican twine, their trade association, and one non-member importer, together accounting for well over 50 percent of the total imports of such twine into the United States, with conspiring to hinder and suppress competition in the importation and sale of Mexican twine in commerce in the United States in pursuance of which conspiracy they (1) fixed and maintained prices, terms, and conditions for the purchase, sale, and resale of Mexican twine in the United States; (2) established and maintained classifications or uniform designations of purchasers for sale and resale of Mexican twine; (3) prevented and restricted the sale of Mexican twine to cooperatives, required that sales of twine imported into the United States to cooperatives be at the prices and conditions of sale which they specified for wholesale and dealer customers, and fixed resale prices and conditions of sale by cooperatives; (4) fixed and maintained uniform charges for freight for the transportation of Mexican twine; (5) enforced compliance with resale prices and conditions for resale of Mexican twine by the discontinuance, or threats of discontinuance, of sales to any importer who failed or refused to comply with such fixed prices and conditions; and (6) established and maintained a policy and practice of having the Mexican sources of supply discontinue the sale of twine to any importer reported as selling or reselling below their fixed prices—and an agreement between all respondents, with three exceptions, and counsel supporting the complaint, pursuant to which they submitted to the hearing examiner a form of proposed agreement containing consent order to cease and desist.

Upon this basis, the hearing examiner made his initial decision and order to cease and desist, which, by the Commission's order of March 6, 1956, became the decision of the Commission.

Said order to cease and desist is as follows:

It is ordered, That respondents Cordage Importers Association, Inc., a corporation; Daniel Kelminson, individually and as President and as a member of the Board of Directors of Cordage Importers Association, Inc.; J. Howard Bancroft, individually and as Vice President and Secretary, and as a member of the Board of Directors of Cordage Importers Association, Inc.; Milton L. Mintzer, individually and doing business under the trade name of Milton L. Mintzer Company, as a member of Cordage Importers Association, Inc., and as Treasurer and as a member of the Board of Directors of Cordage Importers Association, Inc.; Howard Duizend, individually and doing business under the trade name of Atlas Cordage Company and as a member of Cordage Importers Association, Inc.; G. C. Pierson, individually and doing business under the trade name of Davis Cordage Company, as a member of Cordage Importers Association, Inc., and as a member of the Board of Directors of Cordage Importers Association, Inc.; Adolph A. Krejtman, individually and as a member of the Board of Directors of Cordage Importers Association, Inc.; Robert M. Stone, individually and as a copartner in the partnership doing business under the trade name of Bob Stone Cordage Company, as a member of Cordage Importers Association, Inc., and as a member of the Board of Directors of Cordage Importers Association, Inc.; and General Twine Corporation, a corporation, Independent Cordage Company, a corporation, Independent Twine & Yarn Company, Inc., a corporation, A. A. Krejtman, Inc., a corporation, Carl L. Ruch, individually, Fred L. V. Schoenfeld, individually, Daniel H. Shield, individually and doing business under the trade name of Daniel H. Shield Cordage Company, Harold H. Short, individually and doing business under the trade name of Allied Cordage Company, and Keith E. Stone, individually and as a copartner in the partnership doing business under the trade name of Bob Stone Cordage Company, as members of Cordage Importers Association, Inc., shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with the order to cease and desist.

Subsequent to the consent agreement of the 17 respondents, respondent Elwood Long, non-member of the association, together with his attorney, entered into an agreement with counsel supporting the complaint and pursuant thereto submitted to the hearing examiner a proposed agreement containing consent order to cease and desist, disposing of all the issues as to him, which was accepted.

The hearing examiner thereupon made his initial decision, including an order tors of Cordage Importers Association, Inc.; and General Twine Corporation, a corporation, Independent Cordage Company, a corporation, Independent Twine & Yarn Company, Inc., a corporation, A. A. Krejtman, Inc., a corporation, Carl L. Ruch, individually, Fred L. V. Schoenfeld, individually, Daniel H. Shield, individually and doing business under the trade name of Daniel H. Shield Cordage Company, Harold H. Short, individually and doing business under the trade name of Allied Cordage Company, and Keith E. Stone, individually and as a copartner in the partnership doing business under the trade name of Bob Stone Cordage Company, as members of Cordage Importers Association, Inc., their respective officers, directors, agents, representatives and employees, together with the successors or assigns of such respondents, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the purchase, offering for sale, sale, or distribution in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, of agricultural baler and binder twine, commercial wrapping twine, also called "ply" twine, and rope manufactured in Mexico, all of which are hereinafter referred to as "Mexican Twine," do forthwith cease and desist from entering into, continuing, cooperating in or carrying out any planned common and concerted course of action, understanding or agreement between any two or more of said respondents, or between any one or more of said respondents and others not parties hereto, to do or perform any of the following acts:

1. Fixing, establishing, maintaining, or adhering to, or attempting to fix, establish, maintain, or cause adherence to, by any means or method, any prices, terms or conditions for the purchase, sale or resale of Mexican twine in the United States;

2. Establishing or maintaining, or attempting to establish or maintain, any classifications or uniform designations of customers or purchasers for sale or resale of Mexican twine, for the purpose or with the effect of fixing or maintaining any purchase, sale or resale prices of such twine;

3. Preventing, restricting, or attempting to prevent or restrict, by any means or method, the sale of Mexican twine to cooperatives;

4. Fixing, establishing, maintaining, or adhering to, or attempting to fix, establish, maintain or cause adherence to, by any means or method, uniform charges or assessments for freight for the transportation of Mexican twine;

5. Enforcing or attempting to enforce compliance with, or adherence to, any resale prices or conditions for resale of Mexican twine in the United States, by the discontinuance, or threats of discontinuance, of sales to any importer of Mexican twine, who fails, or refuses, to comply with any such prices or conditions for resale, or by any other means or method of enforcement of compliance with, or adherence to, any such resale prices or conditions for resale;

6. Causing, directly or indirectly, or attempting to cause, directly or indirectly, by any means or method, the cancellation, or suspension, of orders for, or the discontinuance of sources of supply of, Mexican twine to any purchaser or prospective purchaser of same.

By "Decision of the Commission", report of compliance was required as follows:

It is ordered, That Respondents Cordage Importers Association, Inc., a corporation; Daniel Kelminson, individually and as President and as a member of the Board of Directors of Cordage Importers Association, Inc.; J. Howard Bancroft, individually and as Vice President and Secretary, and as a member of the Board of Directors of Cordage Importers Association, Inc.; Milton L. Mintzer, individually and doing business under the trade name of Milton L. Mintzer Company, as a member of Cordage Importers Association, Inc., and as Treasurer and as a member of the Board of Directors of Cordage Importers Association, Inc.; Howard Duizend, individually and doing business under the trade name of Atlas Cordage Company and as a member of Cordage Importers Association, Inc.; G. C. Pierson, individually and doing business under the trade name of Davis Cordage Company, as a member of Cordage Importers Association, Inc., and as a member of the Board of Directors of Cordage Importers Association, Inc.; Adolph A. Krejtman, individually and as a member of the Board of Directors of Cordage Importers Association, Inc.; Robert M. Stone, individually and as a copartner in the partnership doing business under the trade name of Bob Stone Cordage Company, as a member of Cordage Importers Association, Inc., and as a member of the Board of Directors of Cordage Importers Association, Inc.; and General Twine Corporation, a corporation, Independent Cordage Company, a corporation, Independent Twine & Yarn Company, Inc., a corporation, A. A. Krejtman, Inc., a corporation, Carl L. Ruch, individually, Fred L. V. Schoenfeld, individually, Daniel H. Shield, individually and doing business under the trade name of Daniel H. Shield Cordage Company, Harold H. Short, individually and doing business under the trade name of Allied Cordage Company, and Keith E. Stone, individually and as a copartner in the partnership doing business under the trade name of Bob Stone Cordage Company, as members of Cordage Importers Association, Inc., shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with the order to cease and desist.

Subsequent to the consent agreement of the 17 respondents, respondent Elwood Long, non-member of the association, together with his attorney, entered into an agreement with counsel supporting the complaint and pursuant thereto submitted to the hearing examiner a proposed agreement containing consent order to cease and desist, disposing of all the issues as to him, which was accepted.

The hearing examiner thereupon made his initial decision, including an order to cease and desist identical with the aforesaid order against the 17 other respondents, and dismissing the complaint as to respondent Paulsen-Webber Cordage Corp. and the late J. C. Shuford, deceased. By the Commission's order of March 30, 1956, the initial decision became, on March 31, 1956, the "Decision of the Commission".

The order to cease and desist is as follows:

It is ordered, That Respondent Elwood Long, individually and as president of Fayette Livestock Auction, Inc., a corporation, doing business as Midwest Cordage Company (erroneously named in the complaint as "Edward Long, individually and doing business under the trade name of Mid-West Cordage Company"), his agents, representatives and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the purchase, offering for sale, sale or distribution in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, of agricultural baler and binder twine, commercial wrapping twine, also called "ply" twine, and rope manufactured in Mexico, all of which are hereinafter referred to as "Mexican twine", do forthwith cease and desist from entering into, continuing, cooperating in, or carrying out any planned common and concerted course of action, understanding or agreement with any one or more of the Respondents named in any other order or orders to cease and desist issued by the Commission against any of the other Respondents named in the complaint herein, or between him and others not parties to any such other order or orders to cease and desist issued by the Commission in this case, to do or perform any of the acts as set out in the cease and desist order above.

It is further ordered, That the complaint herein, insofar as it relates to Respondent Paulsen-Webber Cordage Corporation, a corporation, be, and the same hereby is, dismissed.

It is further ordered, That the complaint herein, insofar as it relates to Respondent the late J. C. Shuford, individually and doing business under the trade name of J. C. Shuford Company, be, and the same hereby is, dismissed.

By said "Decision of the Commission", report of compliance was required as follows:

It is further ordered, That respondent Elwood Long, individually and as president of Fayette Livestock Auction, Inc., a corporation, shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon him of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which he has complied with the order to cease and desist.

Issued: March 30, 1956.

By the Commission.

§ 171.1 Definitions. As used in this part:

(a) "Secretary" means Secretary of the Interior.

(b) "Commissioner" means Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

(c) "Area Director" means the official in charge of an area office of the Bureau of Indian Affairs, or such other employee of the Bureau as he may properly designate in writing as acting director.

(d) "Superintendent" means the superintendent or other officer in charge of an Indian agency or unit under which the administration of restricted lands as described in this part has been placed.

(e) "Tribe" means a tribe, band, pueblo, rancheria, or other group of Indians.

(f) "Tribal Council" means the council, business committee, governor, or other body or individual authorized to represent the tribe.

(g) "Restricted lands" means lands or interests in lands held by Indian tribes in fee or by Indian title or held in trust by the United States for the benefit of Indian tribes; and lands or interests in lands held by the United States in trust for individual Indians or held by individual Indians subject to restrictions against alienation without the consent of the Secretary of the Interior or his duly authorized representative.

(h) "Permit" means a permit revocable in the discretion of the issuing or approving officer.

(i) "Farm-pasture" lease means a lease authorizing the grazing of livestock on areas of land used in connection with farming operations or which for any reason are not included in range units, pursuant to Part 71 of this chapter.

(j) "Specialized crops" means those crops requiring a deferred period of years for investment return.

§ 171.2 Purpose of regulations. The regulations in this part prescribe the terms and conditions under which restricted lands that are not in use by the Indian owners or the United States may be leased or permitted for farm, farm-pasture, business and other purposes authorized by statute. No leases shall be approved under the regulations of this part that contain any provision that will prevent or delay a termination of Federal trust responsibilities with respect to the land during the term of the lease.

§ 171.3 Applicability of regulations. This part is generally applicable but is subject to the special exceptions provided in §§ 171.24 to 171.26, inclusive.

§ 171.4 Authority for leases or permits. Either leases or permits may be granted for tribally or individually-owned restricted lands, except that, where no specific statutory authority to lease has been provided, permits only may be issued.

§ 171.5 Ownership of improvements. Leases granted under the regulations in this part shall be made for such terms and shall be limited in duration to a period that will permit amortization of the investment by the lessee in permanent improvements. All improvements made under the terms of the lease shall remain on the land as the property of the lessor unless specifically excepted therefrom under the terms of the lease. At the termination of the lease, the lessor shall have the option to purchase the improvements specifically excepted, which option shall be exercised in writing by the lessor by notice to the lessee at least sixty days prior to the expiration of the lease. The lessee shall have sixty days from the date of the expiration of his lease in which to remove the improvements.

§ 171.6 Duration of leases and permits of restricted lands. (a) Indian lands, whether tribally or individually owned, may be leased for public, religious, educational, recreational, residential, or business purposes for a period of not to exceed twenty-five years. With the consent of both parties, such leases may include provisions authorizing their renewal for one additional term of not to exceed twenty-five years.

(b) Farming, and agricultural development leases which require the making of a substantial investment for the production of specialized crops, and such farm leases which require the development or utilization of the soil and water resources in connection with their operation as determined by the Secretary or his authorized representative may be executed for a term of not to exceed twenty-five years.

(c) Farming leases not requiring such development may be executed for a term of not to exceed ten years.

(d) Grazing leases may be executed for a term of not to exceed ten years when such leases require substantial development or improvement.

(e) The rental on leases granted for more than five years shall be subject to adjustment at not more than five year intervals. With the exception set forth in paragraph (a) of this section there shall be no provision for renewal in the leases.

(f) Leases granted by the superintendent on lands of deceased Indians whose heirs have not been determined shall be limited to terms not exceeding one year, except as otherwise provided in § 171.7.

§ 171.7 Power of superintendent to grant leases or permits for restricted lands of individual Indians. (a) The superintendent may grant leases or permits for individual restricted lands on behalf of: (1) Indians non compos mentis and orphaned minors for whom no legal guardians have been appointed; (2) nonresidents whose whereabouts are unknown to him.

(b) The superintendent may grant leases or permits embracing inherited or devised restricted individual lands: (1) When the heirs or devisees of the decedents have not been determined, (2) when the heirs or devisees of the decedents have been determined and the lands are not in use by any of the heirs or devisees and the heirs or devisees have not been able during the three months period immediately following the date on which a lease may be renewed to agree upon a lease by reason of the number of heirs, their absence from the reservation or for any other cause.

(c) Where the majority interest in land being leased is owned by living Indians authorized to negotiate their leases as provided for in § 171.8 and such Indians have agreed to and executed a lease on terms satisfactory to the superintendent, the superintendent is authorized to execute the lease in behalf of undetermined presumptive heirs owning the minority interest in such lands and in behalf of such Indians whose lands he is authorized to lease under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, without advertising and without the limitation as to term as provided for in § 171.6 (d), and without advertising such minority interest.

(d) Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, the superintendent, prior to the granting by him of a lease or permit in accordance with the provisions set forth in the regulations of this part or in accordance with a power to issue a lease or permit granted by the owners, shall advertise the lands for lease, unless prior authority to waive advertising has been granted by the Commissioner or his duly authorized representative, and assure that the present fair market value is obtained for the owners. After exposure to the open competitive market, through advertisement for sealed bids, if the highest bid received is less than the appraised value, such bid may be accepted by the superintendent when the bid price is not substantially less than the appraised value with the consent of the owner. Leases granted by the superintendent may, in his discretion, provide for the payment of the rentals due thereunder to the person having custody of the owner of the lands.

§ 171.8 Negotiation of individual leases and permits. Adult Indians (other than those non compos mentis) may negotiate for themselves and for their minor children on forms approved by the Secretary or his duly authorized representative, leases or permits for the use of individual restricted lands, subject to the regulations of this part and the written approval of the superintendent. Unless such leases or permits provide otherwise, rentals shall be paid directly by the lessees or permittees to the adult Indian lessors or permitters for their lands. Rentals on minors' lands shall be paid to the superintendent except where under applicable statutes it is mandatory that such rentals be paid to the parents. Negotiated leases shall not be approved at less than the appraised fair rental value.

§ 171.9 Negotiation of tribal leases and permits. (a) Tribes, acting through their tribal councils or their authorized representatives, may negotiate on forms approved by the Secretary or his duly authorized representative, leases or permits with respect to tribal lands, at not less than the appraised value. A lease or permit may provide for the payment of rentals direct to the lessor when a tribe is organized and has facilities for handling its own funds, including an acceptable bonded officer to receipt for funds. Otherwise, the lease or permit shall provide for the payment of rentals to the superintendent for deposit to the credit of the tribe in the United States Treasury.

(b) The constitutions, bylaws, charters, ordinances, and resolutions, adopted by tribes organized pursuant to the Indian Reorganization Act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat. 984, 25 U. S. C. 461–479), as amended June 15, 1935 (49 Stat. 378), and May 1, 1936 (49 Stat. 1250), and the Oklahoma Indian Welfare Act of June 26, 1936 (49 Stat. 1967, 25 U. S. C. 501–509), shall govern where inconsistent with the regulations in this part.

§ 171.10 Grants of permits for the use of other lands. In order to conserve and protect them from deterioration, lands acquired by the United States for Indian school or other Indian administrative purposes or transferred to or placed under the administration of the Bureau of Indian Affairs and which are not immediately needed for the purpose for which they were acquired or transferred, may be made available by the superintendent, subject to the approval of the Commissioner or his authorized representative, for farm, farm-pasture, business, or other purposes under permits for minimum periods conducive to proper use.

§ 171.11 Irrigable lands, drainage districts, payment of charges. Any lease or permit for restricted lands within an irrigation project shall require the lessee or permittee to pay on the due date annually in advance during the term of the instrument, and in the amounts determined by orders of the Secretary or his duly authorized representative, charges assessed against such lands. Such charges shall be in addition to the rental payments prescribed in the lease or permit. All payments of such charges and penalties shall be made to the superintendent or other officer designated by the Commissioner.

§ 171.12 Farm and farm-pasture units. (a) When areas of restricted land, consisting of parts or all of a number of allotments of individual lands or separate tracts of tribal lands, can be developed and effectively utilized under proper soil conservation and land use practices as single operational units, a suitable division shall be made by the superintendent of such lands into units: Provided, however, That the establishment of units containing in excess of 640 acres of irrigable land or in excess of 2,560 acres of dry farming or farm-pasture land shall be subject to the approval of the Commissioner or his authorized representative.

(b) A lease or permit may be issued by the superintendent on restricted land in a unit if such authority has been granted to the superintendent by the owners of the areas in the unit or if the superintendent is authorized in accordance with the provisions of this part to issue leases or permits covering such lands without the consent of the owners.

§ 171.13 Grazing units excepted. Restricted grazing lands within range units established pursuant to Part 71 of this chapter, general grazing regulations, shall not be leased and permits respecting such lands shall not be issued under this part.

§ 171.14 Minor's land, use by parents. Any Indian who supports his dependent minor children may use their restricted lands during the period of their minority without charge for the use of their lands if such use will enable him to engage in a farming or business enterprise which will also be beneficial to his minor children; and any such Indian may also pledge the income from such lands for the period of his children's minority as security for a loan from the United States, an Indian chartered corporation, an unincorporated tribe, or an Indian credit association.

§ 171.15 Bonds. Unless otherwise provided by the Commissioner or his authorized representative, full performance of the conditions of each lease or permit issued under this part shall be guaranteed by a satisfactory corporate surety bond or individual surety bond in a penal sum of not less than one year's rental and other provided charges, plus the estimated value of any improvements to be constructed by the lessee or permittee for the benefit of the lessor or permitter. In lieu of furnishing a surety bond, a lessee or permittee may deposit with the superintendent cash or negotiable United States Treasury Bonds or other negotiable Treasury obligations in the appropriate amount, together with a power of attorney appointing and empowering the Commissioner or his authorized representative in the event of any breach of the lease or permit to pay over any such cash, or to dispose of any such bonds and pay over the proceeds derived therefrom, as liquidated damages to or for the benefit of the lessor or permitter.

§ 171.16 Subleases: assignments. A sublease or assignment of any lease or permit issued under this part may be made only with the written consent of all parties thereto, including the surety or sureties, and the Government officer or employee who had authority to approve the original lease or permit.

§ 171.17 Special mandatory provision. All leases or permits issued under this part shall contain liquor and morality provisions as follows:

> The lessee (permittee) further agrees that he will not use or permit to be used any part of said premises for any unlawful conduct or purpose whatsoever; that he will not use or permit to be used any part of said premises for the manufacture, sale, gift, transportation, drinking or storage of intoxicating liquors or beverages in violation of existing laws relating thereto, and that any violation of this clause by the lessee (permittee) or with his knowledge, shall render this lease voidable at the option of the Superintendent.

§ 171.18 Advance execution of leases. Except with the approval of the Commissioner or his authorized representative, no lease or permit shall be negotiated more than 12 months prior to the date when it is to become effective.

§ 171.19 Payment of rentals. No rent or other consideration for the use of land leased pursuant to the regulations of this part shall be paid or collected more than one year in advance, unless so provided in the lease. Any lease containing a provision for payment or collection of rental for more than one year in advance shall not be approved by the superintendent. Authority to approve such leases may be granted by the Area Director in his discretion.

§ 171.20 Description of leased property. When a lease covers only part of an allotment, a definite description by subdivision or by metes and bounds must be incorporated therein, accompanied by a plat of the part intended to be leased when the metes and bounds do not conform to the public survey.

§ 171.21 Conservation and land use requirements. All farming and grazing operations conducted under leases executed pursuant to the regulations of this part shall be in accordance with the lease terms and land use stipulations or a plan of conservation operations prepared by the superintendent in accordance with approved methods. Such stipulation or plan shall be annexed to and made a part of the lease.

§ 171.22 Violation of lease or permit. The superintendent is responsible for and shall enforce compliance with the requirements of leases or permits issued under this part and the applicable regulations. If he has reason to believe that a lessee or permittee has violated the lease or permit or the regulations, he shall serve written notice upon the lessee or permittee setting forth in detail the nature of the alleged violation and give the violator 10 days from the date of notice in which to show cause why the lease or permit should not be canceled. The surety or sureties on the lease or permit shall be notified of the alleged violation by promptly mailing to each surety a copy of each notice sent to the lessee or permittee. Where the breach of contract is satisfied by the payment of damages, the superintendent may approve the damage settlement. The failure of a lessee or permittee within the prescribed time to furnish satisfactory reasons why the lease or permit should not be canceled shall result in the cancellation of the instrument. The superintendent shall immediately notify the lessee or permittee in writing of the cancellation of the instrument, demand payment of all obligations due, and direct the premises be vacated promptly. This notice shall also inform the lessee or permittee that his failure to abide by the notice will necessitate the presentation of the case to the United States Attorney for appropriate action.

§ 171.23 Business leases or permits. Business leases or permits executed in accordance with § 171.6 may be approved by the superintendent where the annual rental does not exceed $5,000. All other business leases or permits shall be subject to the approval of the Commissioner or his authorized representative.

§ 171.24 Crow Reservation. (a) Notwithstanding paragraph (b) of § 171.6, no lease or permit of any irrigable allotment on the Crow Reservation shall be made for a period longer than five years, except that irrigable lands in Indian ownership within the Big Horn unit of the Crow Indian irrigation project may be leased or permits may be issued for farming purposes for periods not to exceed 10 years.

(b) A lease or permit respecting restricted land on this reservation may be negotiated for farming purposes not to exceed 18 months before it is to become effective.

(c) The approval of the superintendent of the Crow Agency shall not be required under § 171.8 with respect to leases or permits which are issued by Indian allottees whose names appear as competent on the rolls completed in accordance with the provisions of section 3 of the act of June 4, 1920 (41 Stat. 751), and which cover their own allotments or the allotments of their minor children for farming or grazing purposes, except that leases or permits of lands allotted pursuant to the act of May 19, 1926 (44 Stat. 566), as supplemented by the act of May 2, 1928 (45 Stat. 482), and heirship lands of Crow Indians require the approval of the superintendent. Copies of all leases or permits issued without the approval of the superintendent shall be filed promptly with the superintendent of the Crow Agency. Leases or permits requiring the approval of the superintendent shall provide that all rentals are to be paid by the lessee or permittee to the superintendent for the benefit of the Indian owners.

§ 171.25 Fort Belknap Reservation. Not to exceed 20,000 acres of allotted and tribal lands (nonirrigable as well as irrigable) on the Fort Belknap Reservation in Montana may be leased or permits respecting such lands may be granted for the culture of sugar beets and other crops in rotation for terms not exceeding 10 years.

§ 171.26 Colorado River Reservation. (a) For a period of two years from August 14, 1955, the Secretary of the Interior or his authorized representative may lease the unassigned lands on the Colorado River Reservation. Such lands may be leased for the purposes and terms provided for in § 171.6.

(b) Income from leases on land in the southern reserve, as defined in ordinance numbered 5 of the Colorado River Indian Tribes, dated February 3, 1945, shall be segregated from income from leases on land in the northern reserve, as defined by such ordinance, and from leases on land on the California side of the Colorado River. All income received prior to August 14, 1957, and prior to determination of the beneficial ownership of the lands, from leases on land in the northern reserve and land on the California side of the Colorado River may be expended by the Secretary or his authorized representative for the benefit of the Colorado River Indian Tribes and their members. All income received prior to August 14, 1957, and prior to determination of the beneficial ownership of the lands, from leases on land in the southern reserve may be expended by the Secretary or his authorized representative for the development or improvement of any land in the southern reserve. All income received after August 14, 1957, shall be held in a special account until the beneficial ownership of the land on the reservation has been determined. All income received after beneficial ownership has been determined shall be held in trust for the beneficial owners of the land from which the income was derived and shall be expended as otherwise authorized by law.

§ 171.27 Appeals. (a) Any heir or devisee who feels aggrieved by the action taken by the superintendent on leasing the restricted lands of deceased Indians may, within 10 days after the date of execution of the lease, file with the superintendent a notice of appeal to the Secretary. The notice of appeal shall be in writing and shall set forth the reasons for the appeal. Copies of the notice shall be furnished by the appellant to the superintendent, the lessee, and to all parties who share in the estate.

(b) The appeal, the lease or a true copy thereof, and all papers relating to the lease shall be submitted to the Secretary through the Commissioner.

(c) The appellant and any other interested party may, within 30 days from the date on which a notice of appeal is filed, submit written arguments to the Secretary.

(d) Copies of the decision of the Secretary on the appeal will be mailed to (1) the appellant, (2) all other heirs or devisees of the estate affected by the appeal, (3) the superintendent, (4) the Commissioner, (5) and the lessee.

§ 171.28 Fees. When lands are leased or permits are issued in accordance with the provisions of this part, or when they are subleased or assigned (including renewals or extensions), fees shall be fixed as follows:

(a) To be paid by lessee, permittees, sublessee, or assignee.

| Rental: | Fee |
|---|---|
| Not to exceed $100 | $1.00 |
| $100.01–$250 | 2.50 |
| $250.01–$500 | 5.00 |
| For each additional $500 or fraction thereof | 1.00 |

When, under the terms of the instrument, the occupant is to pay taxes accruing during the period of its operation, an amount equal to the estimated total amount of the taxes shall be included in the amount to be used in determining the fee to be charged. In the case of a sublease or assignment, the fee shall be based on the total rental which will accrue under the instrument from the effective date of the transaction. When the lease or permit period is extended with the mutual consent of the parties concerned, the fee shall be computed from the effective date on the same basis as the original instrument. The fee to be collected in case of crop-share or other noncash rental leases or permits shall be based on (1) an estimate of the cash rental value of the acreage, including all improvements to be placed on the land by the lessee or permittee for the benefit of the lessor or permitter, or (2) the estimated value of the lessor's share of the crops.

(b) Fees, tribal employees. When the clerical and ministerial work in connection with the grants of leases or permits is performed by tribal employees, fees may be fixed, subject to approval by the Commissioner or his authorized representative, by the respective tribes concerned in lieu of the fees prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) Disposition of fees. Fees collected pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section shall be covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts, except that when the clerical and ministerial work in the issuance of permits or leases of lands under this part is performed by Bureau employees paid from appropriated tribal funds, the fees shall be credited to such funds.

DOUGLAS MCKAY,

AUTHORITY: §§ 12.1 to 12.13 issued under sec. 203, 63 Stat. 385, as amended; 40 U. S. C. 484; Reorg. Plan No. 1 of 1953, as amended, 67 Stat. 18, 18 F. R. 2053, 3 CFR, 1953 Supp.

§ 12.1 Definitions. (a) "Act" means the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949, Public Law 152, 81st Congress (63 Stat. 377), as amended (40 U. S. C. 471 et seq.). Terms defined in the act and not defined in this section, shall have in this part the meaning given to them in the act.

(b) "Accredited" means approval by a recognized accreditation board or association on a regional, State, or national level, such as a State Board of Education or Health, State University, Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, National Architectural Board, American College of Surgeons, etc. A college may be said to be accredited if its credits are accepted for transfer purposes by other colleges or universities not connected or associated with it.

(c) "Administrator" means the Administrator of General Services.

(d) "Approved" means recognition or approval by the State Department of Education, State Department of Health, or other appropriate authority in charge of educational or health activities in a State.

(e) "Assigned property" means real and related personal property which, in the discretion of the Administrator or his designee, has been made available to the Department for transfer for educational or for public health purposes, including research.

(f) "Department" means the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare.

(g) "Disposal agency" means the executive agency of the Government which has authority to assign or to consider assignment of property to the Department for transfer for health and educational utilization.

(h) "Excess" when used with respect to real property means any real property under the control of any Department or agency in the Executive Branch of the Government which is not required for its needs and the discharge of its responsibilities as determined by the head thereof.

(i) "Holding agency" means the executive agency of the Government which has control and accountability for the real property involved.

(j) "Non-profit institution" as used herein means any institution, organization, or association, whether incorporated or unincorporated, no part of the net earnings of which inures or may lawfully inure to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, and which has been held by the Internal Revenue Service to be tax-exempt under either the provisions of section 101 (6) of the 1939 Internal Revenue Code, or section 501 (c) (3) of the 1954 Internal Revenue Code.

(k) "Off-site property" means surplus buildings, underground utilities and all other removable improvements, including related personal property, to be transferred where located, by the Department for educational or for public health purposes, including research, for removal and use away from the site.

(l) "On-site property" means surplus real property including related personalty, to be transferred by the Department for educational or for public health purposes, including research, for use in place.

(m) "Public benefit allowance" means a discount on the purchase price of real property to be transferred for educational or public health purposes, including research, representing any benefit determined by the Secretary which has accrued or may accrue to the United States from use of surplus real property for educational or public health purposes, including research.

(n) "Related personal property" means any personal property, (1) which is located on and is (i) an integral or necessary part of, or is (ii) essential to the operation of real property; or (2) is determined by the Administrator to be otherwise related to the real property.

(o) "Secretary" means the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare.

(p) "State" means a State of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and the Territories and possessions of the United States.

(q) "Surplus" when used with respect to real property means any excess real property not required for the needs and the discharge of the responsibilities of all Federal agencies as determined by the Administrator or his designee.

§ 12.2 Scope. This part is applicable to surplus real property located within any State which is appropriate for assignment to, or which has been assigned to the Department for disposal for educational or public health purposes, as provided in section 203 (k) of the act.

§ 12.3 General policies. (a) It is the policy of the Department to foster and assure maximum utilization of surplus real property for educational and public health purposes, including research.

(b) Real property will only be requested for assignment when the Department has determined that the property is suitable and needed for health or educational purposes. Such property will not be requested for assignment unless it is needed at the time of application for educational or for public health purposes, including research, or unless it will be so needed within the immediate foreseeable future, except that where construction is contemplated, such construction may be initiated within 18 months after the date of transfer. The amounts of both real and related personal property to be transferred shall not be excessive to normal operating requirements.

(c) Transfers will be made only when the proposed program is not in conflict with State or local zoning restrictions, building codes, or similar limitations.

(d) Transfers may be made only to States, their political subdivisions and instrumentalities, tax-supported educational or public health institutions, and non-profit educational or public health institutions which have been held exempt from taxation under section 101 (6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939 (now substantially reenacted in section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954).

(e) Only those activities devoted to academic, vocational or professional instruction, or organized and operated to promote and protect the public health, are eligible. Examples of such eligible activities are universities, colleges, junior colleges, junior or senior high schools, elementary schools or school systems, vocational and specialized schools, research activities, public libraries, and similar activities primarily educational in character; general and specialty hospitals, mental institutions, clinics, health sanitation activities (including water and sewer departments), facilities providing public health services, and similar activities devoted primarily to the protection and promotion of public health. The program of an institution eligible for a transfer must contemplate use of the property as an integral part of an approved or accredited activity of the kind above described. The activity must obtain such licenses for operations as may be required by State and local law.

(f) Use of the property applied for must be for a fundamental educational or public health purposes. Examples of such fundamental utilizations are classrooms, vocational shops, libraries, laboratories, auditoriums, gymnasiums, cafeterias, dormitories, faculty housing, infirmaries, recreational facilities, hospitals, clinics, facilities providing public health services, and similar utilizations. The property applied for must be for a purpose for which the eligible organization would be authorized to expend its own funds to acquire.

§ 12.4 Limitations. (a) Surplus property transferred pursuant to this part shall be disposed of "as is", "where is", and without warranty of any kind.

(b) Where the assigned property is located on a known mineral structure, the transfer, with respect to which public benefit allowance is granted, will not include any mineral rights which, however, may be acquired separately by the applicant upon the payment of the fair value of such mineral rights.

§ 12.5 Awards. Where there is more than one applicant for the same property, the following principles shall be observed:

(a) Greater consideration will be given to programs of utilization most nearly consistent with the Government's purpose in acquiring or using the property. For instance, a surplus hospital will be considered for transfer for a health program in preference to an educational program.

(b) Property will be awarded to the applicant having a program of utilization which provides, in the opinion of the Department, the greatest public benefit.

(c) The Department will have, as an objective, the apportionment of an available property to fit the needs of as many applicant health and educational programs as is practicable.

§ 12.6 Notice of available property. Reasonable publicity shall be given to the availability of surplus real property which is suitable for assignment to the Department for disposal for educational or public health use. The Department shall establish procedures reasonably calculated to afford all eligible users having a legitimate interest in acquiring property for educational or public health purposes, including research, who show due diligence, a full and complete opportunity to make an application therefor; provided, however, that publicity need not be given as to the availability of surplus real property which is occupied and being used by an applicant for eligible educational or public health purposes, including research, at the time the property is declared excess and the Department determines that the applicant has a continuing need for the property and that the transfer for such continued utilization by the applicant is in the best interest of the United States.

§ 12.7 Applications for surplus real property. Applications for surplus real property for educational or public health purposes, including research, shall be made to the Department through the regional office specified in the notice of availability. Where cooperative agreements have been entered into with State Agencies for Surplus Property or where a State instrumentality has been designated by State law or executive order to represent or assist educational and health institutions in acquiring Federal surplus real property, the applications will be made through such State Agencies or instrumentalities to regional offices of the Department.

§ 12.8 Assignment of surplus real property. (a) Notice of interest in a specific property for educational or public health utilization shall be furnished the General Services Administration or other agency having disposal jurisdiction by the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare at the earliest possible date.

(b) Requests to the Administrator, or his designee disposal agency, for assignment of surplus real property to the Department for disposal for educational and public health purposes, including research, shall be based upon the following conditions:

(1) There is an acceptable application for the property of record with the Department.

(2) The applicant is willing, authorized, and in a position to assume immediate care, custody, and maintenance of the property.

(3) The applicant is able, willing, and authorized to pay the external administrative expenses incident to a transfer.

(c) A copy of each request for assignment of surplus real property shall be furnished the holding agency.

§ 12.9 General disposal terms and conditions. (a) Surplus real property disposals under this part shall be limited to transactions which are primarily for educational or public health purposes, including research. Transferees shall be entitled to public benefit allowances computed in consideration of benefits which have accrued or may accrue to the United States from the use of such property for educational or public health purposes, including research.

(b) Transfer of surplus real property for educational or public health purposes is subject to the disapproval of the Administrator within 30 days after notice is given to him of a proposed transfer.

(c) Transfer shall be on the following terms and conditions:

(1) The transferee shall be obligated to utilize the property in accordance with an approved plan of operation.

(2) The transferee shall not be permitted to sell, lease, mortgage, or otherwise dispose of the property except after authorization by the Department or its designee.

(3) The transferee shall file with the Department such reports covering the utilization of the property as may be required.

(4) With respect to on-site property, in the event of non-compliance with any of the terms and conditions of the transfer, title to the property transferred and right to immediate possession shall, at the option of the Department, revert to the Government. In the event title is reverted to the United States for noncompliance or voluntarily reconveyed in lieu of reverter, the transferee, at the option of the Department, shall be responsible and be required to reimburse the Government for the decreased value of the property not due to reasonable wear and tear, acts of God, and alterations and conversions made by the transferee to adapt the property to the educational or health use for which the property was acquired. The Government shall, in addition thereto, be reimbursed for such damages including such costs as may be incurred in recovering title to or possession of the property as it may sustain as the result of the noncompliance.

(5) With respect to off-site property, in the event of non-compliance with any of the terms and conditions of the transfer, the unearned public benefit allowance shall, at the option of the Department, become immediately due and payable, or, if the property or any portion thereof is sold, leased, or otherwise disposed of without authorization from the Department or its designee, such sale, lease, or other disposal shall be for the benefit and account of the United States and the United States shall be entitled to the proceeds of any such disposal. In the event the transferee fails to remove the property or any portion thereof within the time specified, then, in addition to the rights reserved above, at the option of the Department all right, title, and interest in and to such unremoved property shall be retransferred to other eligible applicants or shall be forfeited to the United States.

(6) With respect to on-site property, the Government, at its option, shall have the right during any period of emergency declared by the President of the United States or by the Congress of the United States to the full unrestricted use of the surplus real property, or of any portion thereof, disposed of in accordance with the provisions of this Part. Such use may be either exclusive or nonexclusive. Prior to the expiration or termination of the period of restricted use by the transferee, the Government shall not be obligated to pay rent or any other fees or charges during the period of emergency, except that the Government shall (i) bear the entire cost of maintenance of such portion of the property used by it exclusively or over which it may have exclusive possession or control, (ii) pay the fair share, commensurate with the use, of the cost of maintenance of such surplus real property as it may use nonexclusively or over which it may have non-exclusive possession or control, (iii) pay a fair rental for the use of improvements or additions to the surplus real property made by the purchaser or lessee without Government aid, and (iv) be responsible for any damage to the surplus real property caused by its use, reasonable wear and tear, the common enemy and acts of God excepted.

(7) The restrictions set forth in subparagraphs (1) through (5) of this paragraph shall extend for the following periods:

(i) Twenty (20) years for permanent facilities being acquired for use in-place;

(ii) Ten (10) years for temporary facilities being acquired with land for use in-place, except in those cases where the value of the underlying land is out of proportion to the value of the temporary facilities, in which event the limitations shall extend for twenty (20) years;

(iii) A minimum of five (5) years for facilities being acquired separately from land whether they are for use on-site or off-site. However, where the estimated economic life of the structures for the use for which they are requested is greater than five years, limitations on the use of the structures shall be equal to their estimated economic life.

(d) Transferees by obtaining the consent of the Department may be permitted to pay the unearned portion of any public benefit allowance granted and thereby secure abrogation of the restrictions set forth in the transfer terms, for all or any portion of the property, except that the Government's right of recapture for use during a period of emergency will not be released unless there are exceptional circumstances.

(e) Related personal property shall be transferred in accordance with real property procedures and forms and shall be transferred only as part of the real property transaction at the public benefit allowance granted therefor. Where related personal property is involved in an on-site transaction the related personal property may be transferred by a bill of sale imposing restrictions for a period not to exceed five years from the date of transfer, other terms and conditions being tied to and made a part of the real property transaction.

§ 12.10 Special terms and conditions. (a) In the case of on-site disposals, applicants shall be required to pay all external administrative costs which shall include, but not be limited to taxes, surveys, appraisals, inventorying costs, legal fees, title search, certificate or abstract expenses, decontamination costs, government moving costs, closing fees in connection with the transaction and service charges, if any, made by State Agencies for Surplus Property under the terms of a cooperative agreement with the Department.

(b) In transfers of off-site property, applicants will be required to post performance bonds, make performance guarantee deposits, or give such other assurances as may be required by the Department or the holding agency to insure adequate site clearance.

(c) Whenever negotiations are undertaken for disposal to non-profit public health or educational organizations which are not instrumentalities of State or local governments of any surplus real property which cost the Government one million dollars or more, the Department shall give notice to the Attorney General of the United States of the proposed disposal and the probable terms and conditions thereof. The applicant shall furnish to the Department such information and documents as the Attorney General may determine to be appropriate or necessary to enable him to give the advice as provided for by section 207 of the act or to determine whether any other disposition or proposed disposition of the surplus real property violates the anti-trust laws of the United States.

(d) Where an applicant proposes to acquire and use in place improvements located on land which the Government does not own, he shall be required, before disposal shall be consummated, to obtain a right to use the land commensurate with the duration of the restrictions applicable to the improvements. The applicant shall be required to assume, or obtain release of, the Government's obligations respecting the land including but not limited to such obligations as restoration, waste, and rent. At the option of the Department, the applicant may be permitted to post a bond to indemnify the Government against such obligations.

(e) The Department may require the inclusion in the transfer document of any other provision deemed desirable or necessary.

§ 12.11 Utilization. (a) Where property or any portion thereof is not being utilized for the purposes for which transferred, the transferee shall be required at the direction of the Department:

(1) To retransfer such property to other health or educational user as the Department may direct;

(2) To sell such property for the benefit and account of the United States;

(3) To return title to such property to the United States; or

(4) To abrogate the conditions and restrictions of the transfer, as set forth in § 12.9 (d), except that where property has never been placed in use for the purposes for which transferred, abrogation will not be permitted except under extenuating circumstances.

(b) Where the transferee desires to place the property in temporary use for a purpose other than that for which the property was transferred, approval of the Department must be obtained, and will be conditioned upon such terms as the Department may impose, including but not limited to the requirement that net revenues therefrom will be payable to the Department.

§ 12.12 Form of conveyance (a) Transfers of surplus real property shall be on forms approved by the General Counsel of the Department and shall include the disposal terms and conditions set forth in this Part and such other terms and conditions as the General Counsel may deem appropriate or necessary.

(b) Transfers of on-site property normally shall be by quitclaim deed without warranty of title.

§ 12.13 Compliance inspections and reports. The Department, or its designee, shall make such compliance inspections as are necessary and shall require of the transferee such compliance reports and actions as are deemed necessary.

Dated: April 13, 1956.

TITLE 49—TRANSPORTATION

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

[S. O. 910, Corrected]

PART 95—CAR SERVICE

RAILROAD OPERATING REGULATIONS FOR MOVEMENT OF LOADED FREIGHT CARS

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 19th day of March A. D. 1956.

It appearing that an acute shortage of freight cars exists in all sections of the country; that the movement of loaded freight cars is being delayed solely for the purpose of gaining additional time; that present rules, regulations, and practices with respect to the use, supply, control, movement, distribution, exchange, interchange, and return of freight cars are insufficient to promote the most efficient utilization of cars; it is the opinion of the Commission that an emergency exists requiring immediate action to promote car service in the interest of the public and the commerce of the people. Accordingly, the Commission finds that notice and public procedure are impracticable and contrary to the public interest, and that good cause exists for making this order effective upon less than thirty days' notice: It is ordered that:

§ 95.910 Railroad operating regulations for the movement of loaded freight cars. (a) (1) No common carrier by railroad subject to the Interstate Commerce Act shall willfully delay the movement of loaded freight cars by holding such cars in yards, terminal, or sidings for the purpose of increasing the time in transit of such loaded cars.

(2) Loaded cars shall not be set out between terminals except in cases of emergencies or sound operating requirements.

(3) Backhauling loaded cars for the purpose of increasing the time in transit shall constitute willful delay and is prohibited.

(4) Through loaded cars shall not be handled on local or way freight trains for the purpose of increasing the time in transit of such loaded cars.

(5) The use by any common carrier by railroad, for the movement of loaded freight cars over its line, of any route other than its usual and customary fast freight route from point of receipt of the car from consignor or connecting line to point where delivered to consignee or connecting line, except in emergencies, or for the purpose of according a lawfully established transit privilege (not including a diversion or reconsignment privilege), is hereby prohibited.

(b) Application: The provisions of this section shall apply to instrastate and interstate commerce.

(c) Regulations suspended; announcement required: The operation of all rules and regulations, insofar as they conflict with the provisions of this section, is hereby suspended and each railroad subject to this order, or its agent, shall publish, file, and post a supplement to each of its tariffs affected hereby, in substantial accordance with the provisions of Rule 9 (k) of the Commission's Tariff Circular No. 20 (§ 141.9 (k) of this chapter), announcing such suspension.

(d) Effective date: This section shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., April 9, 1956.

(e) Expiration date: This section shall expire 11:59 p. m., December 31, 1956, unless otherwise modified, changed, suspended, or annulled by order of this Commission.

It is further ordered, that a copy of this order and direction shall be served upon the railroad regulatory body of each State and upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement, and all other carriers by railroads; and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

(Sec. 12, 24 Stat. 383, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 12)

By the Commission, Division 3.

TITLE 50—WILDLIFE

Chapter I—Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior

Subchapter F—Alaska Commercial Fisheries

PART 108—KODIAK AREA

CLOSED SEASON, KING CRABS

Basis and purpose: On the basis of catch sampling of the king crab trawl fishery in the Kodiak area, it has been determined that excessive numbers of female and soft-shell male crabs are being taken.

Therefore, effective immediately upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, § 108.32 is amended to read as follows:

§ 108.32 Closed season, king crabs. Fishing for, or taking king crabs, except by pots, is prohibited throughout the Kodiak area from April 19 through June 2, 1956.

(Sec. 1, 43 Stat. 464, as amended; 48 U. S. C. 221)

Since immediate action is necessary, notice and public procedure on this amendment are impracticable (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.).

O. LLOYD MEEHAN,
Acting Director.

UNITED STATES STANDARDS FOR SOUTHERN PEAS [1]

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given that the United States Department of Agriculture is considering the issuance of United States Standards for Southern Peas, pursuant to the authority contained in the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (60 Stat. 1087 et seq., as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1621 et seq.).

All persons who desire to submit written data, views or arguments for consideration in connection with the proposed standards should file the same with the Chief, Fresh Products Standardization and Inspection Branch, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, South Building, Washington 25, D. C., not later than 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The proposed standards are as follows:

GENERAL

Sec.
51.2670 General.

GRADES

51.2671 U. S. No. 1.
51.2672 U. S. Commercial.

UNCLASSIFIED

51.2673 Unclassified.

APPLICATION OF TOLERANCES

51.2674 Application of tolerances.
51.2675 Basis of calculating percentages.

DEFINITIONS

51.2676 Similar varietal characteristics.
51.2677 Fairly well formed.
51.2678 Fairly well filled.
51.2679 Overmature.
51.2680 Excessively young.
51.2681 Damage.
51.2682 Serious damage.

AUTHORITY: §§ 51.2670 to 51.2682 issued under sec. 205, 60 Stat. 1090, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1624.

GENERAL

§ 51.2670 General. The standards contained in this subpart apply only to the seed pods of plants of the species Vigna sinensis, generally known as "southern peas" and often called "cowpeas" or "field peas." Well recognized general types are blackeyes, crowders, creams, and purple hulls, each of which includes many varieties.

GRADES

§ 51.2671 U. S. No. 1. "U. S. No. 1" consists of pods of southern peas of similar varietal characteristics which are fairly well formed, fairly well filled, not overmature or excessively young, and which are free from decay and worm holes, and free from damage caused by stems, leaves and trash, stings, or other insect injury, scars, discoloration, wilting, dirt or other adhering foreign material, disease, mechanical or other means.

(a) Unless otherwise specified, each pod shall be not less than 5 inches in length.

(b) In order to allow for variations incident to proper grading and handling, the following tolerances shall be permitted:

(1) 5 percent for pods which are shorter than the specified minimum length;

(2) 5 percent for pods which are excessively young; and,

(3) 10 percent for other grade defects, including not more than 5 percent for pods with worm holes or affected by decay, but not more than one-fifth of this amount, or 1 percent, for pods affected by decay. (See §§ 51.2674 and 51.2675.)

§ 51.2672 U. S. Commercial. "U. S. Commercial" consists of pods of southern peas which meet the requirements of U. S. No. 1 grade, except that they shall be free from serious damage caused by stems, leaves and trash, and there shall be no requirement for minimum length, and except for the increased tolerances specified in this section.

(a) In order to allow for variations incident to proper grading and handling, the following tolerances shall be permitted:

(1) 10 percent for pods which are excessively young; and,

(2) 15 percent for other grade defects, including not more than 5 percent for pods with worm holes or affected by decay, but not more than two-fifths of this amount, or 2 percent, for pods affected by decay. (See §§ 51.2674 and 51.2675.)

UNCLASSIFIED

§ 51.2673 Unclassified. "Unclassified" consists of pods of southern peas which have not been classified in accordance with either of the foregoing grades. The term "unclassified" is not a grade within the meaning of these standards but is provided as a designation to show that no grade has been applied to the lot.

APPLICATION OF TOLERANCES

§ 51.2674 Application of tolerances. (a) The contents of individual packages in the lot, based on sample inspection, are subject to the following limitations: Provided, That the averages for the entire lot are within the tolerances specified for the grade:

(1) For a tolerance of 10 percent or more, individual packages in any lot may contain not more than one and one-half times the tolerance specified; and,

(2) For a tolerance of less than 10 percent, individual packages in any lot may contain not more than double the tolerance specified.

§ 51.2675 Basis for calculating percentages. Percentages shall be calculated on the basis of weight or on an equivalent basis.

DEFINITIONS

§ 51.2676 Similar varietal characteristics. "Similar varietal characteristics" means that the pods in any container shall be of the same general type. For example, varieties of the blackeye type shall not be mixed with varieties of the purple hull type or varieties of the crowder type; also small seeded varieties shall not be mixed with large seeded varieties.

§ 51.2677 Fairly well formed. "Fairly well formed" means that the pod is not curved or crooked to the extent that it forms approximately a semi-circle or right angle.

§ 51.2678 Fairly well filled. "Fairly well filled" means that at least two-thirds of the length of the pod is filled with peas which are at least fairly well developed for the variety, exclusive of the normal spaces between peas and vacant space for one pea at each end of the pod.

§ 51.2679 Overmature. "Overmature" means that the pod has developed beyond the stage at which it is desirable as a fresh product. Pods shall be considered overmature when they show definite drying or shriveling, or when green podded varieties show yellow or a conspicuous yellowish cast affecting one-half or more of the surface, or when purple hull varieties show excessively dark purplish color over the entire surface.

§ 51.2680 Excessively young. "Excessively young" means that the pod has not developed any peas of a size suitable for shelling for the variety. Such pods with only slightly developed peas are commonly called "snaps."

§ 51.2681 Damage. "Damage" means any defect which materially affects the appearance, or the edible or shipping quality of the individual pod, or the general appearance of the pods in the container. The pods in a container shall be considered damaged when stems, leaves or trash are present in sufficient quantities to materially affect the general appearance. Any one of the following defects, or any combination of defects the seriousness of which exceeds the maximum allowed for any one defect, shall be considered as damage:

(a) Stings when any pea is discolored, or when the appearance of the pod is materially affected by numerous, discolored stings;

(b) Scars when the pod is so extensively blemished or distorted in shape as to materially affect its appearance;

(c) Discoloration such as that caused by rust, blight or insects when so extensive or in such contrast to the color of the pod as to materially affect its appearance;

(d) Wilting when the pod is badly wilted or very flabby; and,

(e) Dirt or other adhering foreign material when materially affecting the appearance of the individual pod or the general appearance of the pods in the container.

§ 51.2682 Serious damage. "Serious damage" means that stems, leaves and trash are present in sufficient quantities to seriously affect the appearance of the pods in the container.

Dated: April 13, 1956.

UNITED STATES STANDARDS FOR SPINACH FOR PROCESSING [1]

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given that the United States Department of Agriculture is considering the revision of United States Standards for Spinach for Processing, pursuant to the authority contained in the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (60 Stat. 1087 et seq., as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1621 et seq.).

All persons who desire to submit written data, views or arguments for consideration in connection with the proposed standards should file the same with the Chief, Fresh Products Standardization and Inspection Branch, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, South Building, Washington 25, D. C., not later than 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The proposed standards are as follows:

Sec.
51.2696 U. S. No. 1.
51.2697 U. S. No. 2.

UNCLASSIFIED

51.2698 Unclassified.

[1] Packing of the product in conformity with the requirements of these standards shall not excuse failure to comply with the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

[1] Packing of the product in conformity with the requirements of these standards shall not excuse failure to comply with the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

DEFINITIONS

Sec.
51.2699 Fairly fresh.
51.2700 Damage.
51.2701 Small weeds.

AUTHORITY: §§ 51.2696 to 51.2701 issued under sec. 205, 60 Stat. 1090, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1624.

GRADES

§ 51.2696 U. S. No. 1. "U. S. No. 1" consists of spinach which is fairly fresh and free from decay, mildew, grass, weeds, wood, muck chips or other foreign material, roots, and worms, and which is free from damage caused by discoloration, seedstems, seedbuds, coarse stalks and stems, other disease, other insects, spray residue, adhering dirt or mechanical or other means.

(a) Not more than 25 percent, by weight, of the spinach in any lot may consist of leaf stems.

(b) In order to allow for variations incident to proper handling, the following tolerances shall be permitted in a 100 ounce sample:

(1) For decay, mildew, grass, small weeds, and leaves which are damaged by discoloration, not more than a total of 20 pieces: Provided, That not more than three-fourths of this amount, or 15 pieces, shall be permitted for decay, grass and small weeds;

(2) For wood, muck chips, or other foreign material over one-half inch in length, not more than 2 pieces; and

(3) For other defects, including foreign material not over one-half inch in length, not more than 5 ounces.

None of the foregoing tolerances shall apply to worms.

§ 51.2697 U. S. No. 2. "U. S. No. 2" consists of spinach which meets all the requirements of U. S. No. 1 grade except for the increased tolerances specified in this section.

(a) In order to allow for variations incident to proper handling, the following tolerances shall be permitted in a 100 ounce sample:

(1) For decay, mildew, grass, small weeds, and leaves which are damaged by discoloration, not more than a total of 40 pieces;

(2) For wood, muck chips, or other foreign material over one-half inch in length, not more than 3 pieces; and,

(3) For other defects, including foreign material not over one-half inch in length, not more than 10 ounces.

None of the foregoing tolerances shall apply to worms.

UNCLASSIFIED

§ 51.2698 Unclassified. "Unclassified" consists of spinach which has not been classified in accordance with either of the foregoing grades. The term "Unclassified" is not a grade within the meaning of these standards, but is provided as a designation to show that no grade has been applied to the lot.

DEFINITIONS

§ 51.2699 Fairly fresh. "Fairly fresh" means that the spinach is not badly wilted.

§ 51.2700 Damage. "Damage" means any defect which materially affects the appearance, or the processing or edible quality of the spinach. Any one of the following defects, or any combination of defects the seriousness of which exceeds the maximum allowed for any one defect, shall be considered as damage:

(a) Discoloration of leaf blades when the appearance or processing quality is materially affected by brown or yellow discoloration, except that heart leaves shall not be considered as damaged when showing a normal yellowish cast;

(b) Discoloration of stalks and stems when the appearance or processing quality is materially affected by brownish or blackish discoloration or when the stalk or stem shows more than a tinge of pink or red color;

(c) Seedstems when seedbuds have formed and are plainly visible;

(d) Loose seedbuds when more than one-half inch in length;

(e) Coarse stalks and stems when the leafstems or central stalks are tough, or fibrous; and,

(f) Dirt or spray residue when it cannot be removed in the normal commercial washing process.

§ 51.2701 Small weeds. "Small weeds" means weeds which are not over 4 inches in length.

NOTICE OF HEARING ON PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENTS AND TO ORDERS, AS AMENDED

Notice is hereby given of a joint public hearing to be held at Hotel Melbourne, St. Louis, Missouri, beginning at 10:00 a. m., April 23, 1956, for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to economic and emergency conditions which relate to the marketing of milk in each of the marketing areas hereinafter specified and to appropriate amendments of the Class I price provisions of the respective tentative marketing agreements heretofore approved by the Secretary of Agriculture and to the orders, now in effect, regulating the handling of milk in such marketing areas. More specifically, consideration will be given to (1) the nature, scope and similarity of price problems affecting producers, (2) determine whether or not such problems tend to disrupt the orderly marketing of milk, or constitute a threat to the adequacy of supplies of pure and wholesome milk, and (3) consider whether or not temporary, emergency price relief is necessary to promote orderly marketing. The hearing is called pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C., 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900).

A substantial number of communications and requests for price action received by the Department from milk producer groups and recent conferences held with representative leaders of cooperative organizations of producers who supply the fluid milk markets hereinafter set forth have represented the seriousness of conditions facing fluid milk producers at the present time which it is alleged are tending to disrupt the orderly marketing of fluid milk and threaten milk supplies.

T. 67 S., R. 28 E., sec. 2, lots 3 and 4.

2. The plat of T. 67 S., R. 25 E., represents the survey of an island, known locally as Monday Key, in the Gulf of Mexico, which was not included in the original survey of the township as shown upon the plat approved March 15, 1876.

3. The plat of T. 66 S., R. 27 E., represents the survey of an island in Upper Sugarloaf Sound which was not included in the original survey of the township as shown upon the plat approved March 15, 1876.

4. The plats of T. 66 S. and 67 S., R. 28 E., represents the survey of three islands in Hawk and Kemp Channels, two of which are known locally as Crab and Money Keys which were not included in the original survey of the townships or shown upon the plats approved January 21, 1876.

5. Available information indicates that the above-mentioned islands are of coral sands overlying the base coral formation with an average elevation from 2 to 4 feet above high tides; that the islands support a fair growth of grasses and vines with a scattered growth of buttonwood and scrub trees.

6. No application for these lots may be allowed under the Homestead or Small Tract or any other nonmineral public land laws unless the land has been classified as valuable or suitable for such type of application or shall be so classified upon consideration of an application.

7. At the hour specified on the above-mentioned effective date, the said land shall become subject to application, petition, location or selection, under applicable laws, subject to valid existing rights, the provisions of existing withdrawals and the 91-day preference right filing period for veterans and others entitled to preference under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. WWSW, INC., ET AL.

ORDER AMENDING ISSUES

In re applications of WWSW, Inc., Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, Docket No. 8730, File No. BPCT–254; Pittsburgh Radio Supply House, Inc., Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, Docket No. 8840, File No. BPCT–345; for television construction permits; WWSW, Inc. (WIIC), Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, Docket No. 11644, File No. BMPCT–3486; for modification of construction permit:

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 11th day of April 1956;

The Commission having under consideration its Memorandum Opinion and Order herein released November 28, 1955 (FCC 55–1166, Mimeo No. 25593); its order herein released March 9, 1956, designating for hearing WWSW's application for modification of construction permit (FCC 56–201, Mimeo No. 28890); a Supplement to Petition for Reconsideration and Petition to Designate for Hearing filed by Telecasting on November 3, 1955; an Answer to Supplement to Petition for Reconsideration filed by WWSW, Inc., on November 14, 1955; a Statement of the Broadcast Bureau re the Supplement to Petition for Reconsideration filed on November 14, 1955; a Reply to the Broadcast Bureau's Statement and WWSW's Answer filed by Telecasting on November 16, 1955; and a Petition for Reconsideration and Request for Interim Stay filed by Telecasting, Inc., on March 15, 1956;

It appearing that in the order released November 28, 1955, the Commission did not rule upon Telecasting's November 3 Supplement to Petition for Reconsideration and Petition to Designate for Hearing; that by its order released March 9, 1956, the Commission designated for hearing WWSW's application for modification of construction permit and consolidated such hearing with that specified in the November 28 order; that this action rendered moot all the matters raised in Telecasting's Supplement to Petition for Reconsideration except so much thereof as requested that the evidence adduced under the issues specified for hearing with respect to the modification application be considered in determining whether the original grant to WWSW should be set aside; and that this request is reiterated in Telecasting's March 15 petition for reconsideration and interim stay of the day for hearing on the modification application;

It further appearing that the time for submitting oppositions to Telecasting's March 15 Petition for Reconsideration and Interim Stay has expired without the filing of any oppositions;

It further appearing that the issues specified in the March 9 order relate to possible premature construction contrary to the provisions of section 319 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and to possible violation of the provisions of § 3.613 (b) of the rules pertaining to changes in main studio location and that the evidence adduced under these issues, in addition to being used in deciding whether a grant of the application for modification of construction permit would be in the public interest, is relevant and material in determining whether the original grant to WWSW should be set aside;

It further appearing that hearings on the issues specified in the March 9 Order are scheduled to commence April 11, 1956, and that by taking action on this date a stay of said hearings is unnecessary;

It is ordered, That Telecasting's November 3, 1955, and March 15, 1956, petitions are granted to the extent that Issue No. 7 specified in the Commission's Memorandum Opinion and Order released November 28, 1955, herein, is amended to read as follows:

7. To determine in the light of the evidence adduced under the foregoing issues and under Issues 1 and 2 of the Order herein released March 9, 1956, whether the grant to WWSW, Inc., should be set aside.

It is further ordered, That in all other respects said petitions are denied.

Released: April 16, 1956.

WEST GEORGIA BROADCASTING CO. (WWCS)

ORDER AMENDING ISSUES

In re application of West Georgia Broadcasting Company (WWCS), Bremen, Georgia, Docket No. 11591, File No. BP-10002; for construction permit for new standard broadcast station.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 11th day of April 1956;

The Commission having under consideration its Order herein released January 3, 1956 (FCC 55-1270, Mimeo No. 26412) designating the application of West Georgia Broadcasting Company for hearing on the basis of a protest filed pursuant to the provisions of section 309 (c) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, by Carroll Broadcasting Company, Inc., a motion to enlarge issues filed by Carroll on January 17, 1956; an opposition thereto filed by West Georgia on January 27, 1956; and an opposition filed by the Broadcast Bureau on the same date;

It appearing that petitioner asserts that an additional issue should be specified to determine whether the grant of a license to West Georgia would result in economic injury to the protestant and that in the protest the allegations of facts, matters and things relied upon were adequate to require the inclusion of such an issue at the time of designation;

It further appearing that issues were not stated in the protest; that the issues contained in the designation order were formulated by the Commission on the basis of what appeared to be the matters upon which the protestant desired to present evidence, but that upon reconsideration it appears that protestant's allegations were sufficient to predicate an issue concerning economic injury which may be caused to protestant by a grant to West Georgia;

It further appearing that addition of such an issue does not constitute a determination by the Commission that the competitive effect of West Georgia's proposed station upon protestant's existing operation is a material consideration and that this question will be resolved in the hearing process;

It is ordered, That the hearing issues specified in the designation order herein released January 3, 1956, are amended by addition of the following issue:

To determine whether a grant of the application would result in such an economic injury to the protestant as would impair the protestant's ability to continue serving the public, and if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations.

It is further ordered, That said issue is not adopted by the Commission and that the burden of proceeding with the introduction of evidence and the burden of proof as to this issue shall be on the protestant.

Released: April 16, 1956.

TWIN-CITY BROADCASTING CO., INC., AND EL DORADO BROADCASTING CO. (KDMS)

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATIONS FOR CONSOLIDATED HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re applications of Twin-City Broadcasting Company, Inc., Shreveport, Louisiana, Docket No. 11600, File No. BP-10032; James A. West, Sr., and James A. West, Jr., d/b as El Dorado Broadcasting Company (KDMS), El Dorado, Arkansas, Docket No. 11675, File No. BP-10101; for construction permits.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 11th day of April 1956;

The Commission having under consideration the above-captioned application of James A. West, Sr., and James A. West, Jr., d/b as El Dorado Broadcasting Company for a construction permit to increase the power of Station KDMS, El Dorado, Arkansas, from one kilowatt to 5 kilowatts on 1290 kilocycles, daytime only;

It appearing that the applicant is legally, technically, financially and otherwise qualified, except as may appear from the issues specified below, to operate the proposed station, but that the proposed operation would cause interference to and receive interference from the operation proposed in the above-entitled application of the Twin-City Broadcasting Company, Inc.; and

It further appearing that pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, El Dorado Broadcasting Company was advised by letter dated January 31, 1956, of the aforementioned deficiency and that the Commission was unable to conclude that a grant of the application would be in the public interest; and

It further appearing that each of the above-captioned applicants has agreed to accept the interference that would be caused by the proposed operation of the other, but that the mutual interference may be of a substantial magnitude; and

It further appearing that the application of the Twin-City Broadcasting Company, Inc., was designated for hearing by order of the Commission dated January 4, 1956; and

It further appearing that the Commission, after consideration of the above, is of the opinion that a hearing on the application of El Dorado Broadcasting Company is necessary;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the said application of the El Dorado Broadcasting Company is designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding with the application of the Twin-City Broadcasting Company, Inc., (Docket No. 11600, File No. BP-10032) upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain or lose primary service from the operation of Station KDMS as proposed, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

2. To determine whether the proposed operation would involve objectionable interference with the operation proposed in the application (Docket No. 11600, File No. BP-10032) of Twin-City Broadcasting Company, Inc., for a new station at Shreveport, Louisiana, or any existing standard broadcast station, and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

3. To determine in the light of section 307 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, which of the operations proposed in the above-entitled applications would better provide a fair, efficient and equitable distribution of radio service.

4. To determine in the light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, which, if either, of the above-captioned applications should be granted.

It is further ordered, That the above Issues 2, 3 and 4 are made issues in the proceeding in Docket No. 11600.

MISSISSIPPI BROADCASTING CO. (WCOC-TV) AND LAUREL TELEVISION CO., INC.

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATIONS FOR CONSOLIDATED HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re applications of Mississippi Broadcasting Company (WCOC-TV), Pachuta, Mississippi, Docket No. 11673, File No. BMPCT-3213; for modification of construction permit; Laurel Television Company, Inc., Laurel, Mississippi, Docket No. 11674, File No. BPCT-2031; for construction permit for a new television broadcast station.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 11th day of April 1956;

The Commission having under consideration the above-entitled application of Mississippi Broadcasting Company, permittee of Station WCOC-TV, Channel 30, Meridian, Mississippi, for a modification of construction permit to operate on Channel 7 at Pachuta, Mississippi in lieu of Channel 30 at Meridian, and the application of Laurel Television Company, Inc., requesting a construction permit for a new television station to operate on Channel 7 at Laurel, Mississippi; and

It appearing that the above-entitled applications are mutually exclusive in that operation by more than one applicant would result in mutually destructive interference; and

It further appearing that, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the above-named applicants were advised by letters of the fact that their applications were mutually exclusive, of the necessity for a hearing thereon, of all objections to their applications, and were given an opportunity to reply; and

It further appearing that upon due consideration of the above applications, the amendments filed thereto, and the replies to the above letters, the Commission finds that under section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, a hearing is mandatory; that Mississippi Broadcasting Company is legally, financially, technically and otherwise qualified to construct and operate the proposed television broadcast station; and that Laurel Television Company, Inc., is legally, financially, technically and otherwise qualified to construct the proposed television station except as to issue "2" below;

It is ordered, That pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the above-entitled applications are designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order upon the following issues:

1. To determine whether section 307 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, requires a choice of the proposals of one applicant over those of the other, and, if so, which of the two proposals would provide a more fair, efficient, and equitable distribution of television service.

2. To determine whether there is a reasonable possibility that the antenna system at the site proposed by Laurel Television Company, Inc., may constitute a menace to air navigation.

3. To determine on a comparative basis which of the operations proposed in the above-entitled applications would better serve the public interest, convenience and necessity in the light of the record made with respect to the significant differences between the applications as to:

(a) The background and experience of each of the above-named applicants having a bearing on its ability to own and operate the proposed television station.

(b) The proposals of each of the above-named applicants with respect to the management and operation of the proposed station.

(c) The programming service proposed in each of the above-captioned applications.

It is further ordered, That the issues in the above-entitled proceeding may be enlarged by the Examiner, on his own motion or on petition properly filed by a party to the proceeding and upon sufficient allegations of fact in support thereof, by the addition of the following issue:

To determine whether the funds available to the applicant will give reasonable assurance that the proposals set forth in the application will be effectuated.

KNORR BROADCASTING CORP. (WKMF)

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATION FOR HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re application of Knorr Broadcasting Corporation (WKMF), Flint, Michigan, Docket No. 11676, File No. BP-10170; for construction permit.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 11th day of April 1956;

The Commission having under consideration the above-entitled application of the Knorr Broadcasting Corporation for a construction permit to increase the daytime power of Station WKMF, Flint, Michigan, from one kilowatt to 5 kilowatts and operate on 1470 kilocycles with a power of one kilowatt, nighttime, with directional antenna;

It appearing that the applicant is legally, technically, financially and otherwise qualified, except as may appear from the issues specified below, to operate its proposed station, but that the proposed operation may cause interference to Stations WKLZ, Kalamazoo, Michigan (1470 kc, 500 w, Day) and WOHO, Toledo, Ohio (1470 kc, 1 kw, DA-2, U) and that a grant of the subject application may be in contravention of the provisions of Section 3.35 of the Commission's Rules on multiple ownership because of overlap of the services areas of the proposed operation and that of Station WSAM, Saginaw, Michigan, of which station the applicant is the licensee; and

It further appearing that pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended the subject applicant was advised by letter dated February 16, 1956, of the aforementioned deficiencies and that the Commission was unable to conclude that a grant of the application would be in the public interest; and

It further appearing, that by letters dated March 14 and 15, 1956, respectively, Stations WOHO and WKLZ indicated that the interference which would be caused is objectionable; and

It further appearing that the applicant replied by letter dated March 19, 1956, and contended that a grant of the application would not be in contravention of section 3.35 of the Commission's rules; and

It further appearing that the Commission, after consideration of the above, is of the opinion that a hearing is necessary;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the said application is designated for hearing, at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain or lose primary service from the operation of Station WKMF as proposed, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

2. To determine whether the operation proposed by Station WKMF would cause objectionable interference to Stations WKLZ, Kalamazoo, Michigan; and WOHO, Toledo, Ohio, or any other existing standard broadcast station, and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

3. To determine whether a grant of the subject application would be in contravention of the provisions of § 3.35 of the Commission's rule on multiple ownership.

4. To determine, whether, in the light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, a grant of the subject WKMF application would serve the public interest.

It is further ordered, That The Circle Corporation and The Midwestern Broadcasting Co., licensees of Stations WKLZ and WOHO, respectively, are made parties to the proceeding.

Released: April 16, 1956.

[Docket No. G-10246]

J. M. HUBER CORP.

ORDER INSTITUTING INVESTIGATION

J. M. Huber Corporation (Huber), a New Jersey Corporation is engaged in the production of natural gas in the West Panhandle Field of Texas and in the sale thereof in interstate commerce for resale for ultimate public consumption, and, therefore is a natural-gas company within the meaning of the Natural Gas Act as heretofore found by the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey in Federal Power Commission v. J. M. Huber Corporation, No. 244-55, decided August 16, 1955.

J. M. Huber Corporation previously tendered for filing with the Commission in Docket Nos. G-9310 and G-9416 proposed changes in rates for sales of natural gas from the West Panhandle Field to Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company and Northern Natural Gas Company. The existing rates for these sales were established by contract and the unilateral changes proposed by Huber were rejected by order issued today in Docket Nos. G-9310 and G-9416 in conformity with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in United Gas Pipe Line Company v. Mobile Gas Service Corporation and Federal Power Commission v. Mobile Gas Service Corporation, Nos. 17 and 31, October Term, 1955, decided February 27, 1956.

In its attempted filing of changes in rates Huber alleged that the existing rates for sales included in such filings were unjust, unduly discriminatory, preferential, otherwise unlawful, and not in keeping with the public interest and requested the Commission to fix just and reasonable rates for the sale of such natural gas.

Huber's attempted filings are deemed a request for an investigation of its rates and charges and based on the information contained in such filings and data available to the Commission, it appears that the rates, charges, services, and classifications for or in connection with the sale of natural gas by Huber subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, and rules, regulations, practices and contracts relating thereto may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, preferential or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper, in the public interest, and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act, that an investigation be instituted by the Commission on its own motion into and concerning all rates, charges, or classifications demanded, observed, charged, or collected by J. M. Huber Corporation for or in connection with any sale of natural gas, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, and any rules, regulations, practices, or contracts affecting such rates, charges or classifications.

The Commission orders:

(A) An investigation of J. M. Huber Corporation be and it hereby is instituted under the provisions of the Natural Gas Act for the purpose of enabling the Commission (1) to determine with respect to said J. M. Huber Corporation, whether in connection with any sale of natural gas, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, any rates, charges, or classifications, demanded, observed, charged, or collected, or any rules, regulations, practices or contracts affecting such rates, charges, or classifications are unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential; and (2) if the Commission, after hearing has been had, shall find that any such rates, charges, classifications, rules, regulations, practices, or contracts are unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, to determine and fix by appropriate order or orders, just and reasonable rates, charges, classifications, rules, regulations, practices, or contracts to be thereafter observed and in force.

(B) Pursuant to the authority contained in sections 5 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by further order of the Commission concerning the matters specified in paragraph (A) above.

(C) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

Issued: April 13, 1956.

By the Commission.

[Docket Nos. G-9310, G-9416]

J. M. HUBER CORP.

ORDER VACATING SUSPENSION PROCEEDINGS, REJECTING PROPOSED UNILATERAL CHANGES IN RATES AND DENYING MOTIONS TO MAKE RATES EFFECTIVE

On August 15, 1955, J. M. Huber Corporation (Huber) tendered for filing a new schedule of rates designated Supplement No. 8 to Huber's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 4 to be effective September 21, 1955. Said Supplement No. 8 proposed to increase the rate for gas sold by Huber in the West Panhandle Field, Carson and Hutchinson Counties, Texas, to Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company (Panhandle) from the present rate of 4.0 cents to 10.7 cents per Mcf at 14.65 psia. Huber's present rate is set forth in a contract with Panhandle. Panhandle has not consented to the change and has filed a protest with the Commission against such change. By order issued September 13, 1955 in Docket No. G-9310, the Commission suspended the proposed change in rate until February 21, 1956, and until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

On September 1, 1955, Huber tendered for filing a new schedule of rates designated Supplement No. 5 to Huber's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 2 to be effective October 1, 1955. Said Supplement No. 5 proposed to increase the rate for gas sold by Huber in the West Panhandle Field, Carson and Hutchinson Counties, Texas to Northern Natural Gas Company (Northern) from the present rate of 3.66 cents to 10.72 cents per Mcf at 14.65 psia. Huber's present rate is set forth in a contract with Northern and no evidence has been submitted with Huber's filing indicating that Northern has agreed to such change. By order issued September 30, 1955, in Docket No. G-9416 the Commission suspended the proposed change in rate until March 1, 1956, and until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

The proceedings in Docket Nos. G-9310 and G-9416 not having been concluded, Huber, on March 2, 1956, filed motions requesting that Supplement No. 8 to Huber's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 4 and Supplement No. 5 to Huber's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 2 be made effective February 21, 1956 and March 1, 1956 respectively, subject to corporate undertakings to refund charges in excess of those found by the Commission to be justified.

On February 27, 1956, the Supreme Court of the United States, in the cases of United Gas Pipe Line Company v. Mobile Gas Service Corporation et al., and Federal Power Commission v. Mobile Gas Service Corporation (Nos. 17 and 31, October Term, 1955), held that rates established by contract may not be unilaterally changed by one of the parties to the contract and that such a unilateral change is not a change in rate permitted to be filed with the Commission under section 4 (d) of the Natural Gas Act. The Court stated:

> From our conclusion that the Natural Gas Act gives a natural gas company no power to change its contracts unilaterally, it follows that the new schedule filed by United was a nullity insofar as it purported to change the rate set by its contract with Mobile and that the contract rate remained the only lawful rate. There can be no doubt of the authority of the Commission to reject the unauthorized filing under its general powers to issue orders "necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this act," section 16, and its failure to do so and its order "permitting" the new rates to become effective were in error • • •

Accordingly, the new schedules filed by Huber on August 15, 1955, and September 1, 1955, constituting unilateral changes of rates established by contract, are ineffective and cannot be filed under section 4 (d) of the Natural Gas Act.

The Commission finds:

(1) J. M. Huber's Corporation's proposed Supplement No. 8 to its FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 4 and Supplement No. 5 to its FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 2 constitute attempted unilateral changes in rates established by contract and are ineligible for filing under section 4 (d) of the Natural Gas Act.

(2) The suspension proceedings with respect to the foregoing Supplements should be vacated and the filings should be rejected.

The Commission orders:

(A) The suspension proceedings in Docket Nos. G-9310 and G-9416 with respect to Supplement No. 8 to Huber's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 4 and Supplement No. 5 to Huber's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 2 respectively are hereby vacated and the filings of such Supplements on August 15, 1955, and September 1, 1955, are hereby rejected.

(B) The motions filed by Huber on March 2, 1956, in Docket Nos. G-9310 and G-9416 requesting that Supplement No. 8 to Huber's FPC Gas Rate Schedule 4 and Supplement No. 5 to Huber's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 2 respectively be made effective subject to refund be and the same are hereby denied.

Issued: April 13, 1956.

By the Commission.

ORDER TEMPORARILY SUSPENDING EXEMPTION, STATEMENT OF REASONS THEREFOR, AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

APRIL 13, 1956.

I. Dolores of Florida, Inc., a Tennessee corporation with its principal office located at 1311 East Main Street, Lakeland, Florida, having filed with the Commission on January 24, 1955, a notification on Form 1-A and an offering circular, and subsequently having filed amendments thereto relating to an offering of 20,000 shares of no par value common stock, at $5.00 per share, for the purpose of obtaining an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to the provisions of section 3 (b) thereof and Regulation A promulgated thereunder; and

II. The Commission having reasonable cause to believe that the terms and conditions of Regulation A have not been complied with in that the company has failed to file on Form 2-A reports of sales as required by Rule 224 of Regulation A, and has ignored requests by the Commission's staff for such reports.

III. It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule 223 (a) of the general rules and regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the exemption under Regulation A be, and it hereby is, temporarily suspended.

Notice is hereby given that any person having any interest in the matter may file with the Secretary of the Commission a written request for a hearing; that, within twenty days after receipt of such request, the Commission will, or at any time upon its own motion may, set the matter down for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission for the purpose of determining whether this order of suspension should be vacated or made permanent, without prejudice, however, to the consideration and presentation of additional matters at the hearing; and that notice of the time and place of said hearing will be promptly given by the Commission.

It is further ordered, That this Order and Notice shall be served upon Dolores of Florida, Inc., and Robert Y. Powell, President, 1311 East Main Street, Lakeland, Florida, personally or by registered mail or confirmed telegraphic notice, and shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Commission.

NAVAJO URANIUM & THORIUM CORP.

ORDER TEMPORARILY DENYING EXEMPTION, STATEMENT OF REASONS THEREFOR, AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

APRIL 13, 1956.

I. Navajo Uranium & Thorium Corporation, a Nevada corporation, 223 Fremont Street, Las Vegas, having filed with the Commission on November 10, 1955 a notification on form 1-A relating to an offering of 6,000,000 shares of 5 cents par common stock at 5 cents per share for an aggregate of $300,000, for the purpose of obtaining an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to the provisions of section 3 (b) thereof and Regulation A promulgated thereunder; and

The Commission having reasonable cause to believe that the terms and conditions of Regulation A have not been complied with in that;

1. The notification, Item 3, failed to reflect prior sales of securities by the issuer and its affiliates within the past year.

2. The aggregate amount of securities to be offered by the issuer would exceed the limitation of $300,000, prescribed by Rule 217 (a) of Regulation A.

3. The notification and offering circular contain untrue statements of material facts in representing William U. January as an officer, director and stockholder of the company and as a salesman of the company's stock, and in omitting to state material facts ncesessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, in failing to disclose that January has resigned as an officer, has not received stock which was to be issued to him, and has advised the company that he will not be connected with the company in any capacity.

II. It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule 223 (a) of the general rules and regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the exemption under Regulation A be, and it hereby is, temporarily denied.

Notice is hereby given that any persons having any interest in the matter may file with the Secretary of the Commission a written request for hearing; that, within 20 days after receipt of such request, the Commission will, or at any time upon its own motion may, set the matter down for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission for the purpose of determining whether this Order of Denial should be vacated or made permanent, without prejudice, however, to the consideration and presentation of additional matters at the hearing; and that notice of the time and place for said hearing will be promptly given by the Commission.

It is further ordered, That this order and notice shall be served upon Navajo Uranium & Thorium Corporation, 223 Fremont Street, Las Vegas, Nevada, personally, or by registered mail or confirmed telegraphic notice, and shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Commission.

OHIO POWER CO.

NOTICE OF FILING REGARDING ACQUISITION OF COMMON STOCK OF NEWLY FORMED SUBSIDIARY COMPANY

APRIL 13, 1956.

Notice is hereby given that Ohio Power Company ("Ohio"), a subsidiary electric utility company of American Gas and Electric Company, a registered holding company, has filed an application with the Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") and has designated sections 9 (a) and 10 of said act as applicable to the proposed transaction, which is summarized as follows:

Ohio proposes to acquire 1,000 shares of the capital stock, $1 par value, being all of the capital stock proposed to be issued, of Captina Operating Company ("Captina"), a West Virginia corporation, at a purchase price of $1 per share.

Ohio has entered into a Memorandum Agreement, under date of November 14, 1955, with Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation ("Olin"), Pittsburgh Consolidation Coal Company ("Pitt") and Ohio's associate, Wheeling Electric Company ("Wheeling"), providing generally for the construction by Ohio of what is, initially, to be a two-225,000 kilowatt unit power plant near Cresap, West Virginia. One unit of this plant is to be owned by Olin Mathieson Generating Corporation ("Olin Sub"), a company organized by Olin and Pitt, and one unit is to be owned by Ohio. Olin Sub is to use its unit to supply energy to Olin for reduction of aluminum and, in addition, it will make excess capacity of the unit available to Wheeling and Ohio. Said Memorandum Agreement further provides that a subsidiary of Ohio should be formed to operate the entire plant for Ohio and Olin Sub, and Captina has been organized for such purpose.

It is presently contemplated that Captina will supervise the operation, on behalf of Ohio and Olin Sub, of the generating plant which is to be known as the Kammer Plant, and that Ohio and Olin Sub will reimburse Captina for all its expenses in the operation of the Kammer Plant in the ratio of the energy used by each, and, in addition, Olin Sub will pay Captina a fee of ½ mill per kilowatt hour generated at the plant for Olin Sub.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than April 30, 1956, at 5:30 p. m., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law, if any, raised by said application which he desires to controvert, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date said application, as filed or as further amended, may be granted as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may grant exemption from its rules as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100, or take such other action as it may deem appropriate.

By the Commission.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

[Docket No. 31977]

CENTRAL OF GEORGIA RAILWAY CO. ET AL.

INVESTIGATION OF CONTROL

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 4, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 12th day of April A. D. 1956.

It appearing that by application filed December 6, 1955, in Finance Docket No. 19159, entitled Central of Georgia Railway Company et al. Control, the St. Louis-San Francisco Railway Company seeks authority under section 5 (2) of the Interstate Commerce Act, as amended, to acquire direct control through purchase of additional capital stock of Central of Georgia Railway Company, and indirectly thereby the common carrier subsidiaries controlled by Central of Georgia Railway Company;

It further appearing that, as of November 25, 1955, the Central of Georgia Railway Company had issued and outstanding 337,236 shares of common stock and 170,417 shares of preferred stock, and that, on or prior to that date, the St. Louis-San Francisco Railway Company had acquired 158,197 shares of said common stock and 81,512 shares of said preferred stock, and that an additional 14,118 shares of stock are necessary to constitute a majority of all issued and outstanding stock of the Central of Georgia Railway Company;

It further appearing that since November 25, 1955, the St. Louis-San Francisco Railway Company has acquired additional shares of stock of said Central of Georgia Railway Company and that, as of March 17, 1956, said St. Louis-San Francisco Railway Company owned 169,697 shares of common stock and 83,492 shares of preferred stock of Central of Georgia Railway Company;

It further appearing that the St. Louis-San Francisco Railway Company may have acquired control of the Central of Georgia Railway Company without having obtained prior approval therefor from this Commission, and there being reasonable cause therefor:

It is ordered, That an investigation by this Commission on its own motion be, and it is hereby, instituted under the provisions of section 5 (7) of the Interstate Commerce Act for the purpose of determining whether the provisions of section 5 (4) of said act have been violated, and into all matters connected therewith and related thereto, with the view that this Commission may take such action as it may find appropriate;

It is further ordered, That the St. Louis-San Francisco Railway Company be, and it is hereby, made respondent in this proceeding;

It is further ordered, That this matter be, and it is hereby, referred to Examiner John L. Bradford for hearing on April 16, 1956, at 9:30 o'clock a. m., United States Standard Time, at the U. S. Court Rooms, Savannah, Ga., said hearing to be held in conjunction with the hearing in Finance Docket No. 19159, Central of Georgia Railway Company et al. Control, scheduled before said Examiner John L. Bradford, at the same time and place herein designated, and for recommendation of an appropriate order thereon, accompanied by the reasons therefor;

And it is further ordered, That notice of this proceeding be given to the public by depositing a copy of this order in the office of the Secretary of the Commission, at Washington, D. C., and by filing a copy with the Director of the Division of the Federal Register, Washington, D. C., and by service upon the said respondent.

By the Commission, Division 4.

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter I—Civil Aeronautics Board

[Civil Air Regs., Amdt. 1–1]

PART 1—CERTIFICATION, IDENTIFICATION, AND MARKING OF AIRCRAFT AND RELATED PRODUCTS

ELIMINATION OF THE ANNUAL INSPECTION OF GENERAL AIRCRAFT

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 13th day of April 1956.

These amendments to Part 1 of the Civil Air Regulations are being made concurrently with amendments to other parts of the Civil Air Regulations in order to simplify the present procedures for the return to service of general aircraft and to permit the industry to assume more responsibility for the continued airworthiness of such aircraft.

By amendment of § 1.64, the airworthiness certificate will remain in effect as long as the maintenance provisions of Part 43 of the Civil Air Regulations are complied with. This will facilitate the procedure for returning an aircraft to service after a periodic inspection by eliminating the need for the issuance of a new airworthiness certificate by the Administrator upon the satisfactory completion of the required inspections.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of this amendment (20 F. R. 7380), and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

In consideration of the foregoing, the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby amends Part 1 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR Part 1, as amended) effective July 17, 1956.

1. By amending § 1.64 (a) to read as follows:

§ 1.64 Duration. (a) Unless sooner surrendered, suspended, revoked, or a termination date is otherwise established by the Board, an airworthiness certificate shall remain in effect as long as the maintenance requirements of Part 43 of this subchapter are complied with.

* * * * *

2. By redesignating §§ 1.75 and 1.76 as §§ 1.76 and 1.77, respectively, and by adding a new § 1.75 to read as follows:

§ 1.75 Experimental - certificates; duration. (a) An experimental certificate shall remain in effect for one year from the date of issuance or renewal, unless a shorter period is established by the Administrator.

(b) The Administrator may, from time to time, reinspect any aircraft or part thereof to ascertain whether it is in airworthy condition. The owner, operator, or bailee of the aircraft shall, upon request, make it available for such inspection.

(c) Upon suspension, revocation, or termination by order of the Board of an experimental certificate, the owner, operator, or bailee of an aircraft shall, upon request, surrender the certificate to an authorized representative of the Administrator.

(Sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984; 49 U. S. C. 425. Interprets or applies secs. 601, 603, 52 Stat. 1007, 1009; 49 U. S. C. 551, 553)

PART 6—ROTORCRAFT AIRWORTHINESS

CIRCUIT BREAKERS

The following new § 6.625–2 is added which states the position of the CAA that circuit protective devices should not be bypassed by an overriding type of control.

§ 6.625–2 Circuit breakers (CAA policies which apply to § 6.625). All resettable type circuit protective devices should be so designed that, when an overload or circuit fault exists, they will open the circuit irrespective of the position of the operating control.[2]

(Sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 425. Interpret or apply secs. 601, 603, 52 Stat. 1007, as amended, 1009, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 551, 553)

This supplement shall become effective May 15, 1956.

PART 18—MAINTENANCE, REPAIR, AND ALTERATION OF AIRFRAMES, POWERPLANTS, PROPELLERS, AND APPLIANCES

ELIMINATION OF ANNUAL INSPECTION OF GENERAL AIRCRAFT

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 13th day of April 1956.

Currently effective Part 18 of the Civil Air Regulations establishes rules for the maintenance, repair, and alteration of certificated aircraft, sets forth the classes of persons who are authorized to perform and approve maintenance, repair, and alteration, describes the required records, and establishes a minimum standard of maintenance.

Amendments to other parts of the Civil Air Regulations being adopted concurrently with these amendments to Part 18 are intended to simplify the present procedures for the inspection and return to service of general aircraft and to assign to the industry the final responsibility for making inspections and for maintaining documentary evidence of continued airworthiness subject to such surveillance activities as the Administrator determines necessary.

These amendments set forth the persons authorized to conduct 100-hour, periodic, and progressive inspections, and those who are authorized to return the aircraft to service after such inspections. In addition, provision is made with respect to the form and disposition of periodic and progressive inspection records and the standards required in such inspections.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of these amendments (20 F. R. 7380), and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

In consideration of the foregoing, the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby amends Part 18 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR Part 18, as amended) effective July 17, 1956.

1. By amending § 18.1 (a) by adding new subparagraphs (19a), (19b), (22a), and (24a) to read as follows:

§ 18.1 Definitions. (a) * * *

(19a) One-hundred-hour inspection. A 100-hour inspection is an inspection of an aircraft required within each 100 hours of time in service and is a complete airworthiness inspection of such aircraft and its various components and systems in accordance with procedures prescribed by the Administrator.

(19b) Periodic inspection. A periodic inspection is an inspection of an aircraft required once each 12 calendar months and is a complete airworthiness inspection of such aircraft and its various components and systems in accordance with procedures prescribed by the Administrator.

* * * * *

(22a) Progressive inspection. A progressive inspection is a continuing airworthiness inspection of an aircraft and its various components and systems at scheduled intervals in accordance with procedures prescribed by the Administrator.

* * * * *

(24a) Time in service. Time in service, as used in computing maintenance and inspection time records, is the time from the moment an aircraft leaves the ground until it touches the ground at the end of a flight.

2. By amending § 18.11 (b) by adding a new subparagraph (7) to read as follows:

§ 18.11 Persons authorized to approve maintenance, repairs, and alterations. * * *

(b) Major repairs and major alterations. * * *

[1] Adams, Vice Chairman, dissenting.

[2] Circuit protective devices which conform to the above description are known commercially as "trip-free," that is, the tripping mechanism cannot be overridden by the operating control. Such circuit protective devices can be reset on an overload or circuit fault, but will trip subsequently in accordance with their current-time characteristics.

(7) A certificated mechanic holding both airframe and powerplant ratings when authorized by the Administrator in accordance with the provisions of Part 24 of this subchapter, if the work has been performed in accordance with a manual, specification, or other technical data approved by the Administrator.

3. By adding a new § 18.12 to read as follows:

§ 18.12 Persons authorized to perform and approve one-hundred-hour, periodic, and progressive inspections—(a) One-hundred-hour inspection. No person shall perform and approve 100-hour inspections except one of the following:

(1) Certificated mechanics who together hold airframe and powerplant ratings, or a certificated mechanic holding both such ratings; or

(2) An appropriately rated certificated repair station; or

(3) The manufacturer holding the type certificate for the aircraft and who is operating under an approved production inspection system or a production certificate.

(b) Periodic inspection. No person shall perform and approve periodic inspections except one of the following:

(1) A certificated mechanic holding both airframe and powerplant ratings when authorized by the Administrator in accordance with Part 24 of this subchapter; or

(2) An appropriately rated certificated repair station; or

(3) The manufacturer holding the type certificate for the aircraft and who is operating under an approved production inspection system or a production certificate.

(c) Progressive inspection. No person shall perform or supervise and approve progressive inspections except one of the following:

(1) A certificated mechanic holding both airframe and powerplant ratings when authorized by the Administrator in accordance with Part 24 of this subchapter; or

(2) An appropriately rated certificated repair station; or

(3) The manufacturer holding the type certificate for the aircraft and who is operating under an approved production inspection system or a production certificate.

NOTE: § 18.12 does not apply to persons engaged in the inspection and maintenance of aircraft operated in accordance with Part 40 or Part 41 or aircraft of more than 12,500 pounds maximum certificated take-off weight operated in accordance with the provisions of Part 42 of this subchapter.

4. By redesignating present § 18.23 as § 18.24 and by adding a new § 18.23 to read as follows:

§ 18.23 Form and disposition of periodic and progressive inspection records. A record of periodic and progressive inspections shall be entered on a form prescribed by the Administrator. Such form shall be completed and disposed of in a manner prescribed by the Administrator.

5. By amending § 18.30 by adding a new paragraph (c) to read as follows:

§ 18.30 Standard of performance; general. * * *

(c) Inspections. One-hundred-hour, periodic, and progressive inspections shall be accomplished in accordance with procedures prescribed by the Administrator.

NOTE: The reporting and/or record-keeping requirements contained herein have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(Sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984; 49 U. S. C. 425. Interprets or applies secs. 601, 603, 52 Stat. 1007, 1009; 49 U. S. C. 551, 553)

PART 24—MECHANIC AND REPAIRMAN CERTIFICATES

ELIMINATION OF ANNUAL INSPECTION OF GENERAL AIRCRAFT

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 13th day of April 1956.

Currently effective §§ 24.40, 24.41, and 24.42 of Part 24 of the Civil Air Regulations establish the privileges and limitations of a mechanic certificate. Such privileges, however, do not include returning aircraft to service after an annual inspection or major maintenance has been accomplished. Such privileges have heretofore been exercised by an authorized representative of the Administrator.

Amendments to other parts of the Civil Air Regulations are being adopted concurrently with these amendments to Part 24 in order to simplify the procedures for inspection and return to service of general aircraft and to assign to the industry the final responsibility for making inspections and for maintaining documentary evidence of continued airworthiness subject to such surveillance activities as the Administrator determines necessary.

The amendments herein permit certificated mechanics who together hold airframe and powerplant ratings, or a certificated mechanic holding both such ratings, to release an aircraft for service after the required 100-hour inspection has been accomplished. In addition, they establish, and provide for the issuance of, an authorization for qualified certificated mechanics which will permit them to return aircraft to service after periodic or progressive inspections or major maintenance have been accomplished.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of these amendments (20 F. R. 7380), and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

In consideration of the foregoing, the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby amends Part 24 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR Part 24, as amended) effective July 17, 1956.

1. By amending § 24.40 by adding the reference "18.12" after the reference "18.11" and by adding the reference "24.43" after the reference "24.42".

2. By amending § 24.41 by adding the following sentence at the end thereof: "In addition, he may perform the 100-hour inspection required by Part 43 of this subchapter on an airframe, or any component thereof, and may return the same to service."

3. By amending § 24.42 by adding the following sentence at the end thereof: "In addition, he may perform the 100-hour inspection required by Part 43 of this subchapter on a powerplant or propeller, or any component thereof, and may release the same to service."

4. By adding a new § 24.43 to read as follows:

§ 24.43 Airframe and powerplant ratings. (a) A certificated mechanic holding both airframe and powerplant ratings and having such other qualifications as the Administrator may deem appropriate, when issued an inspection authorization by the Administrator under paragraph (b) of this section, may:

(1) Inspect and return to service aircraft or aircraft components thereof (excluding aircraft operated in accordance with the provisions of Part 40 or Part 41 of this subchapter, or aircraft of more than 12,500 pounds maximum certificated take-off weight when operated in accordance with the provisions of Part 42 of this subchapter) after major repairs and major alterations have been made in accordance with the provisions of Part 18 of this subchapter; and

(2) Perform the periodic, and perform or supervise the progressive inspections required by Part 43 of this subchapter. The activities conducted under authority of this subparagraph shall be in accordance with procedures and standards prescribed by the Administrator.

(b) The Administrator shall issue an appropriate, written inspection authorization to any person qualified under paragraph (a) of this section who shall apply therefor in a manner and form specified by the Administrator.

(Sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984; 49 U. S. C. 425. Interpret or apply secs. 601, 603, 52 Stat. 1007, 1009; 49 U. S. C. 551, 553)

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.[1]

PART 42—IRREGULAR AIR CARRIER AND OFF-ROUTE RULES

AREA OF OPERATION

This revision eliminates the necessity of listing individually in the operations specifications each country to and from which the air carrier is authorized to conduct overseas and international operations when the air carrier has shown its capability of operating safely anywhere in the world.

Section 42.5-7 is added to read:

§ 42.5-7 Application for worldwide operation (CAA policies which apply to § 42.5). If the air carrier is able to show to the satisfaction of the assigned agent that it is able to conduct operations on a worldwide basis, the following phraseology should be used by the air carrier in filling out the section of the operations specifications pertaining to area of operation:

The air carrier is authorized to conduct operations between any point within the United States and any point outside thereof.

If the air carrier does not desire to conduct operations on a worldwide basis or the assigned agent finds that it is not able to do so, the specific areas to and from which operations are authorized should be listed in the operations specifications. Such listing should show the particular countries or possessions of such countries instead of continental areas. When a country or possession is comprised of a number of islands, the island group rather than the individual island should be listed.

(Sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 425. Interprets or applies secs. 601, 604, 52 Stat. 1007, 1010, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 551, 554)

This supplement shall become effective May 15, 1956.

PART 42—IRREGULAR AIR CARRIER AND OFF-ROUTE RULES

ELIMINATION OF ANNUAL INSPECTION OF GENERAL AIRCRAFT

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 13th day of April 1956.

Currently effective § 42.31 (a) (2) of Part 42 of the Civil Air Regulations requires small aircraft to be maintained and inspected in accordance with a continuous maintenance and inspection system as provided for in the air carrier maintenance manual or to be given a periodic inspection each 100 hours of flight time and an annual inspection every 12 months.

Amendments are being made to Part 43 and other parts of the Civil Air Regulations concurrently with this amendment of Part 42 in order to simplify the procedures for the inspection and return to service of general aircraft, which includes small aircraft operated under Part 42. In order to bring § 42.31 (a) (2) into agreement with the inspection provisions of § 43.22 of Part 43 of the Civil Air Regulations, Part 42 is being amended to provide the owner or operator with a choice of two methods of inspection. The first requires a periodic inspection once each year by an authorized mechanic; and, in addition, requires an inspection each 100 hours of time in service. The second, or alternate method, requires the use of a system whereby the inspection may be conducted on a progressive or continuous basis.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of these amendments (20 F. R. 7380), and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

In consideration of the foregoing, the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby amends Part 42 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR Part 42, as amended) effective July 17, 1956:

By amending § 42.31 (a) (2) to read as follows:

§ 42.31 Inspection and maintenance. (a) * * *

(2) Small aircraft shall be inspected in accordance with the inspection provisions of Part 43 of this subchapter.

PART 43—GENERAL OPERATION RULES

ELIMINATION OF ANNUAL INSPECTION OF GENERAL AIRCRAFT

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 13th day of April 1956.

Currently effective maintenance provisions of Part 43 of the Civil Air Regulations require owners and operators of general aircraft to maintain their aircraft in accordance with Part 18 and to have the aircraft inspected once a year by a representative of the Administrator or an appropriately certificated repair station. In addition, prior to the annual inspection, such aircraft must receive a periodic inspection conducted by an appropriately certificated mechanic or repair station. If the aircraft is used for hire, it must also receive an inspection each 100 hours of operation. The owner or operator is presently required to retain various CAA forms in addition to his aircraft and engine records.

Amendments to other parts of the Civil Air Regulations are being made concurrently with these amendments to Part 43 in order to simplify the procedures for inspection, retention of records, and return to service, of general aircraft and to assign to the industry the final responsibility for making inspections and for maintaining documentary evidence of continued airworthiness subject to such surveillance activities as the Administrator determines necessary.

Part 43 is being amended to provide the owner or operator of an aircraft with two methods of inspection. The first requires a periodic inspection once each year; and, in addition, requires a 100-hour inspection on those aircraft used for carrying passengers for hire or used for flight instruction for hire. The second, or alternate method, requires the use of a system whereby the inspection may be conducted on a progressive or continuous basis which permits a balanced or equalized workload, thus allowing increased utilization of the aircraft. An authorized representative of the Administrator is not required to return the aircraft to service after any of these inspections.

A record of the time in service of the aircraft and each engine, inspections, maintenance, compliance with mandatory notes, weight and balance record, equipment list, and a reference to major repairs and major alterations are now required to be kept in the aircraft log.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of these amendments (20 F. R. 7380), and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

In consideration of the foregoing, the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby amends Part 43 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR Part 43, as amended) effective July 17, 1956:

1. By amending § 43.20 to read as follows:

§ 43.20 General. No person shall operate an aircraft unless it is in an airworthy condition. Maintenance shall be performed in accordance with Part 18 of this subchapter.

2. By amending § 43.22 to read as follows:

§ 43.22 Inspections—(a) Periodic and one-hundred-hour inspections. No aircraft shall be operated, except when it carries a special flight authorization or a currently effective experimental certificate, unless within the preceding 12 calendar months it has been given a periodic inspection in accordance with the requirements of Part 18 of this subchapter and has been approved for return to service by a person authorized by Part 18 of this subchapter. Additionally, an aircraft shall not carry passengers for hire or be used for flight instruction for hire unless within each 100 hours of time in service it has been inspected in accordance with the requirements of Part 18 of this subchapter and has been approved for return to service by a person authorized in Part 18 of this subchapter: Provided, That this interval may be exceed by not more than 10 hours when necessary to reach a point at which the inspection may be accomplished, in which event such time must be included in the next 100-hour interval. The periodic inspection required above will be accepted as a 100-hour inspection.

(b) Progressive inspection. An aircraft shall be exempt from the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section if the owner or operator provides or makes arrangements for suitable procedures, personnel, and facilities for progressive inspection as prescribed by the Administrator in accordance with Part 18 of this subchapter.

(c) Other exemptions. An aircraft shall be exempt from the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section if:

(1) It is an aircraft operated in accordance with the provisions of Part 40 or Part 41 of this subchapter; or

[1] Adams, Vice Chairman, dissenting.

[1] Adams, Vice Chairman, dissenting.

(2) It is an aircraft of more than 12,500 pounds maximum certificated takeoff weight and is operated in accordance with the provisions of Part 42 of this subchapter.

NOTE: Until the expiration or exchange of the currently effective airworthiness certificate, an aircraft will be operated in accordance with the provisions of § 43.22 prior to its revision. However, the owner or operator may, at his option, exchange the old certificate at any time prior to its expiration date. For the purpose of implementing this amendment, the inspection for original issuance or renewal of the airworthiness certificate may be considered equivalent to the periodic inspection required by the amended § 43.22 (a). The periodic inspection required by § 43.22 (b) prior to this amendment will be considered equivalent to a 100-hour inspection required by the amended § 43.22 (a).

3. By amending § 43.23 to read as follows:

§ 43.23 Aircraft and engine maintenance records. The registered owner or operator shall maintain a maintenance record in a form and manner prescribed by the Administrator which shall include a current and accurate record of the total time in service on the aircraft and on each engine, a record of inspections, and the record of maintenance required by Part 18 of this subchapter. Such records shall be:

(a) Presented for required entries each time inspection or maintenance is accomplished on the aircraft or engine,

(b) Transferred to the new registered owner or operator upon disposition of the aircraft or engine involved, and

(c) Made available for inspection by authorized representatives of the Administrator or Board.

4. By amending § 43.70 by adding, in proper alphabetical order, the following definitions:

§ 43.70 Definitions. • • •

Aircraft. An aircraft means any contrivance now known or hereafter invented, used, or designed for navigation of or flight in the air, including airframe, powerplant, propeller, and appliances.

Maintenance. Maintenance, which includes preventive maintenance, means the inspection, overhaul, repair, upkeep, and preservation of airframes, powerplants, propellers, and appliances, including the replacement of parts.

Operate. Operate means to cause or authorize the operation of aircraft, whether with or without the right of legal control (in the capacity of owner, lessee, or otherwise) of the aircraft.

One-hundred-hour inspection. A 100-hour inspection is an inspection of an aircraft required within each 100 hours of time in service and is a complete airworthiness inspection of such aircraft and its various components and systems in accordance with procedures prescribed by the Administrator.

Periodic inspection. A periodic inspection is an inspection of an aircraft required once each 12 calendar months and is a complete airworthiness inspection of such aircraft and its various components and systems in accordance with procedures prescribed by the Administrator.

Progressive inspection. A progressive inspection is a continuing airworthiness inspection of an aircraft and its various components and systems at scheduled intervals in accordance with procedures prescribed by the Administrator.

Time in service. Time in service, as used in computing maintenance and inspection time records, is the time from the moment an aircraft leaves the ground until it touches the ground at the end of a flight.

NOTE: The reporting and/or record-keeping requirements contained herein have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(Sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984; 49 U. S. C. 425. Interpret or apply secs. 601, 603, 52 Stat. 1007, 1009; 49 U. S. C. 551, 553)

PART 52—REPAIR STATION CERTIFICATES

ELIMINATION OF ANNUAL INSPECTION OF GENERAL AIRCRAFT

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 13th day of April 1956.

Concurrently effective § 52.22 (d) of Part 52 of the Civil Air Regulations provides that at least one of the individuals employed by a repair station holding an airframe rating shall possess experience in the methods and procedures prescribed by the Administrator for returning aircraft to service after annual inspections, and the issuance of other flight authorizations.

Currently effective § 52.41 (d) provides that one of the privileges of a certificated repair station with an airframe rating is to return the aircraft to service after annual inspection and to issue other flight authorizations in a form and manner approved by the Administrator.

These amendments to Part 52, and others being adopted concurrently to other parts of the Civil Air Regulations, are intended to simplify the procedures for inspection and return to service of general aircraft and to assign to the industry the final responsibility for making inspections and for maintaining documentary evidence of continued airworthiness subject only to such surveillance activities as the Administrator determines necessary.

These amendments will permit a certificated repair station holding an airframe rating to perform and approve 100-hour, periodic, and progressive inspections.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of these amendments (20 F. R. 7380), and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

In consideration of the foregoing, the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby amends Part 52 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR Part 52, as amended) effective July 17, 1956.

1. By amending § 52.22 (d) by deleting the words "annual inspections" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "100-hour, periodic, and progressive inspections."

2. By amending § 52.41 (d) by deleting the words "annual inspection" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "100-hour, periodic, and progressive inspections."

TITLE 19—CUSTOMS DUTIES

Chapter I—Bureau of Customs, Department of the Treasury

[T. D. 54069]

PART 8—LIABILITY FOR DUTIES; ENTRY OF IMPORTED MERCHANDISE

POWER OF ATTORNEY

In order to provide for the execution of customs powers of attorney for corporations by any person duly authorized on its behalf for such purpose, as the practice is for many corporations in many matters, § 8.19 of the Customs Regulations is amended as follows:

Paragraph (e) is amended by substituting the following material for that part of the second sentence preceding the colon: "When a power of attorney is required for a resident corporation, it shall be executed by a person duly authorized for such purpose, and a certificate of the secretary, assistant secretary, or other corporate officer, but not the person executing the power, showing the authority of such officer or person to execute the power of attorney shall be executed under seal as follows:".

PART 19—CUSTOMS WAREHOUSES AND CONTROL OF MERCHANDISE THEREIN

MANIPULATION IN BONDED WAREHOUSES AND ELSEWHERE

In a recent decision the United States Customs Court held that where manipulation under section 562 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, produced two separate articles which constitute an entirety, they are classifiable separately whether or not withdrawn for consumption under a single withdrawal.

To conform to that decision, § 19.11 (d) of the Customs Regulations is amended by substituting a period for the semicolon following "section 562" in the third sentence and by deleting the remainder of that sentence.

PART 56—EXTENSIONS OF TIME PURSUANT TO PROCLAMATION OF THE PRESIDENT UNDER SECTION 318, TARIFF ACT OF 1930

EXTENSION OF BONDS

Present regulations require that where merchandise was entered for warehouse and charged against a General Term Bond for Entry of Merchandise, or against a Blanket Smelting and Refining Bond, to obtain an extension of time pursuant to Proclamation No. 2948 of the President (3 CFR, 1951 Supp.; T. D. 52896) the agreement of the principal and sureties on the bond shall be furnished to the collector of customs and forwarded to the Bureau of Customs for approval.

It is now deemed advisable to eliminate the requirement that extension agreements relating to such bonds be forwarded to the Bureau for approval.

Accordingly, § 56.3 (d) of the Customs Regulations (T. D. 52896) is amended by deleting "and forwarded by the collector to the Bureau of Customs for approval" from the first sentence and "retention of the original in the Bureau and" from the last sentence.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter III—Agricultural Research Service, Department of Agriculture

PART 319—FOREIGN QUARANTINE NOTICES

SUBPART—NURSERY STOCK, PLANTS, AND SEEDS

POSTENTRY QUARANTINE

On March 1, 1956, there was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (21 F. R. 1369) under section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003), a notice of rule making relating to the proposed amendment of § 319.37–19 (c) of the regulations supplemental to the quarantine relating to the importation of nursery stock, plants, and seeds (7 CFR 1954 Supp. 319.37–19 (c)). After due consideration of all relevant matters presented, and under the authority of sections 5 and 9 of the Plant Quarantine Act of 1912, as amended (7 U. S. C. 159, 162), § 319.37–19 (c) is hereby amended in the following respects:

(a) There are deleted from the list of restricted plant material therein the 23 species of Rhododendron that are to be grown under postentry quarantine when imported from Europe, Japan, and Siberia.

(b) There is substituted for the deleted material the following item:

| Plants to be grown under postentry quarantine | Where imported from |
|---|---|
| Rhododendron spp., including azaleas (evergreen plants of all species and varieties; and any deciduous species or varieties in foliage). | Europe, Asia, New Zealand, and North America north of the United States-Canadian border. (If the United States Department of Agriculture acquires evidence it considers to be conclusive, indicating that the rust, Chrysomyxa ledi (Alb. & Schw.) d By. var. rhododendri (DC.) Savile (formerly known as C. rhododendri (DC.) d By.), does not occur within any country in the areas named and that it is being prevented entry therein by adequate plant quarantine measures, such plants shall be permitted entry in accordance with the provisions of § 319.37–6.) |

The purpose of this amendment is to prevent the likelihood of further introduction into the United States of the rust disease, Chrysomyxa ledi (Alb. & Schw.) d By. var rhododendri (DC.) Savile. This will be done by requiring the postentry quarantine growing of all species and varieties of evergreen rhododendrons as well as all deciduous species or varieties of rhododendrons when imported in foliage, if they are imported from the geographical areas designated in the amendment. Deciduous species or varieties not in foliage are excluded from the amendment. If the Department acquires evidence it considers to be conclusive, indicating that this rust does not occur within a country in one of the named areas and upon a finding that the rust is being prevented entry therein by adequate plant quarantine measures, provision will be made for the importation therefrom of such plants without growing under postentry quarantine but in accordance with § 319.37–6.

As a result of comments made since publication of the proposal, a qualifying clause in the amendment has been made to clarify its meaning.

(Sec. 9, 37 Stat. 318; 7 U. S. C. 162. Interprets or applies sec. 5, 37 Stat. 316; 7 U. S. C. 159)

This amendment shall become effective May 21, 1956.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 17th day of April 1956.

Acting Administrator, Agricultural Research Service.

Chapter VIII—Commodity Stabilization Service (Sugar), Department of Agriculture

Subchapter B—Sugar Requirements and Quotas

[Sugar Reg. 814.32, Amdt. 1]

PART 814—ALLOTMENT OF SUGAR QUOTAS

DOMESTIC BEET SUGAR AREA, 1956

Basis and purpose. This amendment is issued under section 205 (a) of the Sugar Act of 1948, as amended (hereinafter called the "act"), for the purpose of revising Sugar Regulation 814.32 (20 F. R. 9853), which established preliminary allotments of the 1956 sugar quota for the Domestic Beet Sugar Area.

Omission of recommended decision and effective date. The record of the hearing regarding the subject of this order shows that 1,560,000 tons of 1955-crop sugar will be available for marketing in 1956 and that such a quantity of sugar, along with production of sugar from 1956-crop sugar beets would result in a supply available for marketing in 1956 sufficiently in excess of the 1,800,000 short tons, raw value, quota for the area to cause disorderly marketing and prevent some interested persons from having equitable opportunities to market sugar unless the quota is allotted (R. 10, 11). The allotments established by this order differ significantly from the allotments of that quota established by Sugar Regulation 814.32. Thus, to permit the individual processors to plan their marketings within such allotments and avoid disorderly marketings, it is imperative that such allotments be in effect at the earliest possible date (R. 34, 35). Since this proceeding was instituted for the purpose of issuing allotments to prevent disorderly marketing of sugar and to afford all interested persons an equitable opportunity to market, it is hereby found that due and timely execution of the functions imposed upon the Secretary under the act imperatively and unavoidably requires omission of a recommended decision in this proceeding. It is hereby further found that compliance with the 30-day effective date requirement of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 237), is impracticable and contrary to the public interest and, consequently, this order shall be effective when published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Preliminary statement. Section 205 (a) of the act requires the Secretary to allot a quota whenever he finds that the allotment is necessary (1) to assure an orderly and adequate flow of sugar or liquid sugar in the channels of interstate or foreign commerce, (2) to prevent the disorderly marketing of sugar or liquid sugar, (3) to maintain a continuous and stable supply of sugar or liquid sugar, or (4) to afford all interested persons equitable opportunities to market sugar within the quota for the area. Section 205 (a) also requires that such allotment be made after such hearing and upon such notice as the Secretary may by regulation prescribe.

Pursuant to the applicable rules of practice and procedure (7 CFR 801.1 et seq.) a preliminary finding was made that allotment of the quota is necessary and a notice was published on February 25, 1956 (21 F. R. 1274) of a public hearing to be held at Washington, D. C., in Room 2W, Administration Building, of the Department of Agriculture on March 8, 1956, at 10:00 a. m., e. s. t., for the purpose of receiving evidence to enable the Secretary to establish a fair, efficient and equitable allotment of the 1956 quota for the Domestic Beet Sugar Area for the calendar year 1956 and to permit the presentation of evidence relating to the proration of area deficits or deficits in the allotment for any allottee, and the effect on allotments of certain marketings of molasses. The hearing was opened by the hearing examiner at the time and place specified in the notice of hearing and was continued by him to March 15, 1956, at 10:00 a. m., e. s. t., at the Statler-Hilton Hotel, Dallas, Texas.

Basis for findings and conclusions. Section 205 (a) of the act reads in pertinent part as follows:

> • • • Allotments shall be made in such manner and in such amounts as to provide a fair, efficient and equitable distribution of such quota or proration thereof, by taking into consideration the processings of sugar or liquid sugar from sugar beets or sugarcane to which proportionate shares, determined pursuant to the provisions of subsection (b) of section 302, pertained; the past marketings or importations of each such person; and the ability of such person to market or import that portion of such quota or proration thereof allotted to him. • • •

The record of the hearing indicates that prospective domestic beet sugar supplies for 1956 sufficiently exceed the quota for the Domestic Beet Sugar Area that allotment of the quota is necessary (R. 10, 11).

A representative of the industry testified that the processors named in Sugar Regulation 814.32 unanimously recommended, in the form of a stipulation (Ex. 6), a schedule of allotments for consideration of the Secretary (R. 21, 22).

The Government witness introduced for the record annual data on processings, past marketings and inventories for the period 1948 through 1955 (R. 11, 12; Ex. 5). He also submitted for the record additional data for evaluating the proposed stipulated 1956 beet sugar allotments (R. 24; Ex. 8). The data contained in Exhibit 8 indicate that the allotments as proposed in Exhibit 6 have a relationship with the statutory factors of processings, past marketings, and ability to market reflected in the data set forth in Exhibit 5. The Government witness stated that, in view of the recommended schedule of allotments, no proposal by the Government for the allotment of the quota appeared to be necessary (R. 28).

The record indicates general agreement (R. 29; Ex. 6) that the allotment of the 1956 quota should be revised without further notice and hearing to prorate any increase in the Domestic Beet Sugar Area quota arising from a deficit in another quota or any portion of an allotment which an allottee cannot market among the allottees able to supply the additional sugar on the basis of allotments to them of the quota of 1,800,000 short tons, raw value.

The Government witness proposed and all allottees agreed that a provision be incorporated in the order as follows: "If sugar beets or molasses derived from sugar beets are sold by a processor but retained and processed by such processor and the sugar or liquid sugar processed therefrom is delivered to or for the account of the buyer of the sugar beets or molasses, the marketing of such sugar or liquid sugar shall, at the time such sugar or liquid sugar is so delivered, be charged to the allotment of the processor who sold and processed such sugar beets or molasses" (R. 33; Ex. 6).

The Government witness testified that in past years, because of the acquisition of sugar beet processing facilities of one processor by another through various types of corporate action, it had been necessary to consider allowing the acquiring sugar beet processor to market sugar within all or a portion of the allotment established for the other processor and that it is desirable to formalize the manner in which such cases are handled (R. 35). He proposed that the order allotting the 1956 sugar quota for the Domestic Beet Sugar Area provide that the Director of the Sugar Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, may permit marketings to be made by one allottee, or other person, within the allotment or portion thereof established for another allottee under circumstances where one allottee relinquishes its allotment because of a merger, consolidation, sale of facilities or other action of similar effect (R. 36).

No exceptions were taken at the hearing to any of the foregoing proposals, and no written briefs, arguments or proposed findings and conclusions were filed by interested persons within the time established by the hearing examiner therefor.

Findings and conclusions. On the basis of the record of the hearing, I hereby find and conclude that:

(1) For the calendar year 1956 Domestic Beet Sugar Area processors will have available for marketing from 1955-crop sugar beets about 1,560,000 short tons, raw value, of sugar and probably 20 percent of the sugar from a 1956 beet crop amounting to between 1,750,000 to 1,850,000 tons would be marketed in 1956 if marketings are not restricted. Such marketings would exceed the quota for the Domestic Beet Sugar Area.

(2) The allotment of the 1956 quota for the Domestic Beet Sugar Area is necessary to prevent disorderly marketing and to afford all interested persons equitable opportunities to market sugar processed from sugar beets in that area.

(3) By taking into consideration the "processings of sugar or liquid sugar from sugar beets • • • to which proportionate shares, • • • pertained," "the past marketings," and "the ability • • • to market," of each allottee, it is found that the schedule of allotments unanimously recommended by all processors in the Domestic Beet Sugar Area and the quantities set forth in the order constitute a fair, efficient and equitable distribution of the quota of 1,800,000 short tons, raw value of sugar for that area, and meet the requirements of section 205 (a) of the act.

(4) The order shall be revised, without further notice or hearing, for the purpose of allotting any additional quota resulting from proration of deficits in the quota for other supply areas, or any deficit in the allotment for any allottee under the order, by allotting any such additional quota or deficit to allottees, who are able to supply the additional sugar, in the proportion that the respective allotments of such allottees of the quota of 1,800,000 short tons, raw value, bear to the total of such allotments of such allottees.

(5) To assure that the marketing of sugar or liquid sugar is charged against the proper allotment, it is necessary that the order provide for charges to allotments of processors who sell sugar beets, or molasses derived from sugar beets, but retain and process such sugar beets or molasses into sugar or liquid sugar for delivery to or for the account of the buyer.

(6) In order that appropriate and proper utilization of allotments may be made, it is necessary that the allotment order provide that the Director of the Sugar Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, may permit marketings to be made by one allottee, or other person, within the allotment or portion thereof established for another allottee, upon submission to him of acceptable evidence of a corporate merger, consolidation, transfer of sugar processing facilities or other action of similar effect upon the allottees or persons involved, and upon relinquishment by one of the allottees of all or a portion of its allotment.

(7) The quota for the Domestic Beet Sugar Area of 1,800,000 short tons, raw value, is equivalent to 33,644,860 one hundred pound bags of beet sugar.

Order. Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by section 205 (a) of the act, it is hereby ordered that § 814.32 be revised to read as follows:

§ 814.32 Allotment of the 1956 sugar quota for the Domestic Beet Sugar Area—(a) Allotments. The 1956 sugar quota for the Domestic Beet Sugar Area of 1,800,000 short tons, raw value, is hereby allotted to the following processors in the amounts which appear in column (1) opposite their respective names:

| Any other person | 000 | 000 |
| Total | 1,800,000 | 33,644,860 |

(b) Marketing of sugar beets and molasses. If sugar beets or molasses derived from sugar beets are sold by a processor but retained and processed by such processor and the sugar or liquid sugar processed therefrom is delivered to or for the account of the buyer of the sugar beets or molasses, the marketing of such sugar or liquid sugar shall, at the time such sugar or liquid sugar is so delivered, be charged to the allotment of the processor who sold and processed such sugar beets or molasses.

(c) Transfer of allotment. The Director of the Sugar Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, of the Department, may, consistent with the provisions and objectives of the Sugar Act, permit marketings to be made by one allottee, or other person, within the allotment or portion thereof established for another allottee upon receipt of evidence satisfactory to him of a merger, consolidation, transfer of sugar processing facilities, or other action of similar effect upon the allottees or persons involved, and upon relinquishment by one of the allottees of all or a portion of its allotment.

(d) Restrictions on marketing. During the calendar year 1956 each person named in paragraph (a) of this section and any other person are hereby prohibited from marketing in interstate commerce, or in competition with sugar or liquid sugar shipped, transported or marketed in interstate or foreign commerce, any sugar or liquid sugar produced from sugar beets grown in the Domestic Beet Sugar Area in excess of his allotment established in paragraph (a) of this section.

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

PART 930—MILK IN TOLEDO, OHIO, MARKETING AREA

ORDER SUSPENDING CERTAIN PROVISIONS

Pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), hereinafter referred to as the "act", and of the order, as amended (7 CFR Part 930), regulating the handling of milk in the Toledo, Ohio, marketing area, hereinafter referred to as the "order", it is hereby found and determined that:

(a) The following provisions of § 930.50 (a) (1) will not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act for the period ending July 31, 1956: "the following amount for the delivery period indicated:

| Delivery period: | Amount |
|---|---|
| April, May and June | $0.75 |
| February, March and July | 1.00 |
| All others." | |

(b) Notice of proposed rule making, public procedure thereon, and 30 days notice of the effective date hereof, are found to be impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest in that:

(1) The information upon which this action is based did not become available in time sufficient for such compliance;

(2) Producers of more than 50 percent of the milk produced for this market, and handlers of most of the milk, have requested that these provisions be suspended;

(3) It is found necessary to issue and make effective this suspension order to reflect current marketing conditions and to facilitate, promote, and maintain orderly marketing conditions in this marketing area; and

(4) This suspension order does not require of persons affected substantial or extensive preparation prior to its effective date.

Therefore, good cause exists for making this order effective immediately for the period ending July 31, 1956.

It is therefore ordered, That the following provisions of § 930.50 (a) (1) of the order be and hereby are suspended from the effective date as provided below, through July 31, 1956: "the following amount for the delivery period indicated:

| Delivery period: | Amount |
|---|---|
| April, May and June | $0.75 |
| February, March and July | 1.00 |
| All others." | |

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 16th day of April 1956, to be effective on April 17, 1956.

TITLE 21—FOOD AND DRUGS

Chapter I—Food and Drug Administration, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare

PART 3—STATEMENTS OF GENERAL POLICY OR INTERPRETATION

PESTICIDE CHEMICALS; FURTHER EXTENDED DATES ON WHICH STATUTE SHALL BECOME FULLY EFFECTIVE

Additional extensions of the date on which the pesticide amendment to the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (68 Stat. 511 et seq.; 21 U. S. C. 342, 346a) shall become fully effective are necessary to permit the Food and Drug Administration to process petitions received and to permit additional data to be secured in support of some petitions for tolerances or exemptions from the requirement of tolerances for residues that remain from post-harvest application of certain pesticide chemicals to raw agricultural commodities.

In exercise of the authority vested in the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare by the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (secs. 402 (a) (2), 408; 68 Stat. 511, 517 (Ch. 559, Secs. 2, 5); 21 U. S. C. 342 (a) (2) and note 1 under section 342, 346a) and delegated to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs by the Secretary (20 F. R. 1996), the following order is promulgated:

Section 3.44 Pesticide chemicals; further extended dates on which statute shall become fully effective, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on December 20, 1955 (21 CFR 3.44; 20 F. R. 9553), as amended (20 F. R. 9884; 21 F. R. 443, 1172, 1463, 2327) is further amended by inserting, in proper alphabetical order, in subparagraph (6) Effective date July 22, 1956, of paragraph (a), new items as follows:

Allethrin: On livestock as a fly spray. (Extended from March 1, 1956. See subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.)

Piperonyl butoxide: On livestock as a fly spray; on stored raw agricultural commodities as follows: Almonds, beans, cocoa beans, copra, grain sorghum, peanuts, peas, walnuts. (Extended from March 1, 1956. See subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.)

Pyrethrins: On livestock as a fly spray; on stored raw agricultural commodities as follows: Almonds, beans, cocoa beans, copra, grain sorghum, peanuts, peas, walnuts. (Extended from March 1, 1956. See subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.)

Diphenyl: In citrus. (Extended from April 22, 1956. See subparagraph (3) of this paragraph.)

(Sec. 701, 52 Stat. 1055; 21 U. S. C. 371. Interprets or applies secs. 402, 408, 68 Stat. 511, 517)

Dated: April 13, 1956.

PART 3—STATEMENTS OF GENERAL POLICY OR INTERPRETATION

PESTICIDE CHEMICALS; RESIDUES OF PESTICIDES IN OR ON RAW AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES FOR WHICH EXTENSION OF EFFECTIVE DATE HAS EXPIRED

Under the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (secs. 408, 701, 52 Stat. 1055, 68 Stat. 511; 21 U. S. C. 346a, 371) and pursuant to the authority delegated to him by the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare (20 F. R. 1996), the Commissioner of Food and Drugs issues the following statement of policy for the purpose of clarifying the status of foods bearing residues for which the effective date of the statute (supra) has been extended:

§ 3.46 Pesticide chemicals; residues of pesticides in or on raw agricultural commodities for which extension or effective date has expired. Use prior to July 22, 1956, of a pesticide chemical for which extension is granted may yield a raw agricultural commodity that bears residues of the chemical. In such case, the raw agricultural commodity will not be considered as adulterated within the meaning of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act even though it is marketed after July 22, 1956, provided the commodity bearing such residues would have been legal in interstate commerce in 1956, prior to July 22.

(Sec. 701, 52 Stat. 1055; 21 U. S. C. 371. Interprets or applies sec. 408, 68 Stat. 511; 21 U. S. C. 346a)

Dated: April 13, 1956.

Chapter I—Bureau of Public Roads, Department of Commerce

PART 1—REGULATIONS UNDER THE FEDERAL-AID ROAD ACT OF JULY 11, 1916, AS AMENDED AND SUPPLEMENTED

RAILWAY-HIGHWAY CROSSING PROJECTS

Section 1.14 (a) of the regulations under the Federal-Aid Road Act of July 11, 1916, as amended and supplemented, published and effective July 27, 1954, is hereby amended to read as follows, effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER:

§ 1.14 Railway-highway crossing projects. (a) Before a project for the elimination of hazards at a railway-highway crossing shall be approved for construction, either (1) an agreement shall have been entered into between the State highway department and the railroad concerned; or (2) an order authorizing the project shall have been issued by the State public utility commission. Such agreement or order shall contain provisions covering construction, maintenance, and railroad contributions relating to the project, which conform to, and are not inconsistent with, the policies, classifications of projects and procedures prescribed by the Commissioner.

OIL AND GAS LEASES AND LEASES COVERING MINERAL DEPOSITS IN THE OUTER CONTINENTAL SHELF

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given that, pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of the Interior by the act of February 25, 1920 (41 Stat. 437; 30 U. S. C., sec. 181, et seq.) as amended and supplemented, and also the act of August 7, 1953 (67 Stat. 462; 30 U. S. C., sec. 1331, et seq.), it is proposed to revise 43 CFR 192.100 (e) and 43 CFR 201.50, as hereinafter set forth.

Interested parties may submit in triplicate written comments and suggestions with respect to these amendments to the Director, Bureau of Land Management, Washington 25, D. C., within 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Dated: April 16, 1956.

CLARENCE A. DAVIS,
Acting Secretary of the Interior.

1. Section 192.100 (e) is amended to read as follows:

§ 192.100 Amount of bonds required of lessee. • • •

(e) In lieu of bonds required under any of the preceding paragraphs the holder of leases or of operating agreements approved by the Department or holder of operating rights by virtue of being designated operator or agent by the lessees pending departmental approval of operating agreements, may furnish a bond the amount of which must be $150,000 for full nationwide coverage under both the Mineral Leasing Act and the Mineral Leasing Act for Acquired Lands of 1947 (61 Stat. 1913; 30 U. S. C. 351–369), or at the rate of $25,000 for each unit of coverage. A unit of coverage shall be all the lands in any one State or Territory held by the principal under either the Mineral Leasing Act or the Mineral Leasing Act for Acquired Lands. Coverage under both acts in one State or Territory constitutes two units. In lieu of a surety bond a personal bond in a like amount may be given by the obligor with the deposit as security therefor of negotiable bonds of the United States of a par value equal to the amount specified in the bond. Whereupon a default, the surety makes payment to the Government of any indebtedness due under a lease, the face amount of the surety bond and the surety's liability thereunder shall be reduced by the amount of such payment. Thereafter, upon penalty of cancellation of all of the leases covered by such bond the principal shall post a new nationwide bond in the amount of $150,000 or a unit bond, as the case may be, within 6 months after notice, or within such shorter period as the authorized officer of the Bureau of Land Management may fix. However, in lieu thereof, the principal may within that time file separate bonds for each lease. The provisions of this paragraph may be made applicable to any nationwide or unit bond in force at the time of the approval of the amendment of this paragraph by filing in the appropriate land office a written consent to that effect and an agreement to be bound by the provisions hereof executed by the principal and the surety. Upon receipt thereof the bond will be deemed to be subject to the provisions of this paragraph.

2. Section 201.50 is amended to read as follows:

§ 201.50 Amount of bond required of lessee. The successful bidder prior to the issuance of an oil and gas or sulphur lease must furnish a corporate surety bond in the sum of $15,000 conditioned on compliance with all of the terms of the lease, unless he already maintains or furnishes a bond in the sum of $100,000 conditioned on compliance with the terms of oil and gas and sulphur leases held by him on the Outer Continental Shelf in the (a) Gulf of Mexico, (b) along the Pacific Coast, or (c) along the Atlantic Coast, as may be appropriate. An operator's bond in the same amount may be substituted at any time for the lessee's bond. The United States reserves the right to require additional security in the form of a supplemental bond or bonds or to increase the coverage of an existing bond if, after operations or production have begun, such additional security is deemed necessary. The amount of bond coverage on leases for other minerals will be determined at the time of the offer to lease and will be stated in the notice of lease offer. Whereupon a default, the surety on an Outer Continental Shelf Mineral Lease Bond (Form 4–1258) makes payment to the Government of any indebtedness under a lease secured thereby, the face amount of such bond and the surety's liability thereunder shall be reduced by the amount of such payment. Thereafter, upon penalty of cancellation of all of the leases covered by such bond, the principal shall post a new bond on Form 4–1258 in the amount of $100,000 within 6 months after notice, or within such shorter period as the authorized officer of the Bureau of Land Management may fix. However, in lieu thereof, the principal may within that time file separate bonds for each lease. The provisions of this section may be made applicable to any bond on Form 4–1258 in force at the time of the approval of the amendment of this section by filing in the local office of the Bureau of Land Management in New Orleans, Louisiana, a written consent to that effect and an agreement to be bound by the provisions hereof executed by the principal and surety. Upon receipt thereof the bond will be deemed to be subject to the provisions of this section.

MILK IN NASHVILLE, TENN., CENTRAL ARKANSAS, FORT SMITH, ARK., MEMPHIS, TENN., APPALACHIAN, KNOXVILLE, TENN.

NOTICE OF HEARING ON PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENTS AND TO ORDERS, AS AMENDED

Notice is hereby given of a joint public hearing to be held at County Court Room, Davidson County Court House, Nashville, Tennessee, beginning at 10:00 a. m., April 24, 1956, for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to economic and emergency conditions which relate to the marketing of milk in each of the marketing areas hereinafter specified and to appropriate amendments of the Class I price provisions of the respective tentative marketing agreements heretofore approved by the Secretary of Agriculture and to the orders, now in effect, regulating the handling of milk in such marketing areas. More specifically, consideration will be given to (1) the nature, scope and similarity of price problems affecting producers, (2) determine whether or not such problems tend to disrupt the orderly marketing of milk, or constitute a threat to the adequacy of supplies of pure and wholesome milk, and (3) consider whether or not temporary, emergency price relief is necessary to promote orderly marketing. The hearing is called pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C., 601 et seq.) and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900).

A substantial number of communications and requests for price action received by the Department from milk producer groups and recent conferences held with representative leaders of cooperative organizations of producers who supply the fluid milk markets hereinafter set forth have represented the seriousness of conditions facing fluid milk producers at the present time which it is alleged are tending to disrupt the orderly marketing of fluid milk and threaten milk supplies.

ALASKA ROAD COMMISSION

REDELEGATION OF AUTHORITY

APRIL 11, 1956.

SECTION 1. Delegation. The Deputy Director of the Office of Territories, the Assistant Director, Alaskan Affairs, Office of Territories, and the Director, Alaska Road Commission, are severally authorized to exercise the authority delegated by the Secretary of the Interior to the Director, Office of Territories in Order No. 2813 (21 F. R. 2447) with respect to the construction and maintenance of roads, tramways, ferries, bridges and trails, and other similar works in the Territory of Alaska. That authority does not include authority to:

(a) Take action on any matter covered by a delegation from the Secretary of the Interior to the head of each bureau, such as authority to authorize the publication of advertisements, notices, or proposals; authority with respect to personnel management; and authority with respect to contracts for construction, supplies, or services;

(b) Distribute in a manner or to an extent other than as provided by section 3 of that order, the duties and authority conferred by the act of June 30, 1932 (47 Stat. 446, 48 U. S. C., 321a et seq);

(c) Make rules and regulations governing the use of roads, trails, and other works, including the fixing and collection of tolls as provided by section 3 of the act of June 30, 1932, supra; and

(d) Acquire any interest in property by condemnation.

SEC. 2. Redelegation. The Director, Alaska Road Commission, may in writing redelegate the authority granted to him in this order to any officer or employee of the Alaska Road Commission.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 1-3850]

AXE SCIENCE & ELECTRONICS CORP.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION TO WITHDRAW FROM LISTING AND REGISTRATION, AND OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

APRIL 16, 1956.

In the matter of Axe Science & Electronics Corporation, Capital Stock, File No. 1-3850.

The above named issuer, pursuant to section 12 (d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule X-12D2-1 (b) promulgated thereunder, has made application to withdraw the specified security from listing and registration on the American Stock Exchange.

The reasons alleged in the application for withdrawing this security from listing and registration include the following:

The issuer is registered as a management, open-end investment company under the Investment Company Act of 1940. Its shares are presently redeemable at 99 percent of liquidating value. Its Board of Directors on March 21, 1956 authorized initiation of a continuous public offering of its shares through a principal underwriter at prices based on current net asset value plus a sales charge. It is stated to be inconsistent with such a continuous offering to maintain trading on a securities exchange and the applicant's Board of Directors accordingly has authorized withdrawal of its shares from listing on the American Stock Exchange and from registration under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The American Stock Exchange has stated that it will not appear in opposition thereto. The continuous offering and other matters are to be voted upon at the issuer's annual meeting on May 2, 1956.

Upon receipt of a request, on or before May 2, 1956, from any interested person for a hearing in regard to terms to be imposed upon the delisting of this security, the Commission will determine whether to set the matter down for hearing. Such request should state briefly the nature of the interest of the person requesting the hearing and the position he proposes to take at the hearing with respect to imposition of terms. In addition, any interested person may submit his views or any additional facts bearing on this application by means of a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Securities and Echange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. If no one requests a hearing on this matter, this application will be determined by order of the Commission on the basis of the facts stated in the application and other information contained in the official file of the Commission pertaining to the matter.

By the Commission.

[P. & S. Docket No. 435]

MARKET AGENCIES AT UNION STOCK YARDS, DENVER, COLO.

NOTICE OF PETITION FOR MODIFICATION OF RATE ORDER

Pursuant to the provisions of the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921, as amended (7 U. S. C. 181 et seq.), an order was issued on June 30, 1955 (14 A. D. 472), continuing in effect to and including July 31, 1956, the order of July 20, 1954 (13 A. D. 688), which authorized the respondents to put into effect and assess the current schedule of rates and charges.

On April 9, 1956, respondents filed a petition requesting authority to file and put into effect a supplement to the current schedule of rates and charges modifying Article 3 of such schedule, entitled Extra Service Charges, by adding a new Section F to provide for "a service charge on * * * breeding animals during the National Western Stock Show consigned to market agencies for sale and returned to owners unsold as follows:

| | Per head |
|---|---|
| Purebred or registered bulls | $5.00 |
| Purebred or registered cows or heifers | 3.00" |

The modifications, if authorized, will produce additional revenue for the respondent market agencies and increase the cost of marketing livestock. Accordingly, it appears that this public notice of the filing of the petition and its contents should be given in order that all interested persons may have an opportunity to indicate a desire to be heard in the matter.

All interested persons who desire to be heard in the matter shall notify the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., within 15 days from the date of publication of this notice.

WAGNER LIVESTOCK SALES CO.

POSTING OF STOCKYARD

The Secretary of Agriculture has information that the Wagner Livestock Sales Co., Wagner, South Dakota, is a stockyard as defined in section 302 of the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921, as amended (7 U. S. C. 202), and should be made subject to the provisions of that act.

Therefore, notice is hereby given that the Secretary of Agriculture proposes to issue a rule designating the stockyard named above as a posted stockyard subject to the provisions of the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921, as amended (7 U. S. C. 181 et seq.), as is provided in section 302 of that act. Any interested person who desires to do so may submit, within 15 days of the publication of this notice, any data, views or arguments, in writing, on the proposed rule to the Director, Livestock Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 17th day of April 1956.

TITLE 3—THE PRESIDENT

PROCLAMATION 3133

NATIONAL MARITIME DAY, 1956

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS American merchant ships are continuing to serve in their historic role of linking this Nation with its neighbors across the seas by means of trade and commerce; and

WHEREAS the continuance of trade between the United States and the other free nations of the world is vital to peace and prosperity; and

WHEREAS the Congress by a joint resolution approved May 20, 1933 (48 Stat. 73), designated May 22 as National Maritime Day, thus honoring our Merchant Marine by commemorating the departure from Savannah, Georgia, on May 22, 1819, of the Savannah on the first transoceanic voyage by any steamship, and requested the President to issue a proclamation annually calling for the observance of that day:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, President of the United States of America, do hereby urge the people of the United States to honor our Merchant Marine on Tuesday, May 22, 1956, by displaying the flag of the United States at their homes or other suitable places; and I direct the appropriate officials of the Government to arrange for the display of the flag on all Government buildings on that day. I also request that all ships sailing under the American flag dress ship on Tuesday, May 22, in tribute to our Merchant Marine.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this eighteenth day of April in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty-six, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and eightieth.

[SEAL]

DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER

By the President:

JOHN FOSTER DULLES, The Secretary of State.

(3) Nonfat dry milk solids packaged in accordance with specifications for bulk packaging for nonfat dry milk solids, Form Da–259, issued April 1, 1954.

(4) Purchases at the foregoing prices will be made in other bulk containers specifically approved by the Director, Livestock and Dairy Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, provided CCC, at the time of offer, has an outlet for an equivalent quantity of the product in the container offered.

(5) Products in other containers may be purchased at prices determined by competitive bids or at prices stated in the respective Purchase Announcements for such other packaging.

(6) Specifications for packaging of these products are undergoing study in the Department, and it is anticipated that revisions therein will be made. Processors therefore should hold inventories of packaging materials to a minimum pending such revisions of specifications.

(e) The products purchased shall be produced and located in the continental United States. Purchases will be made in carlots. Grades and weights shall be evidenced by inspection certificates issued by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

(Sec. 4, 62 Stat. 1070, as amended; 15 U. S. C. 714b. Interprets or applies sec. 5, 62 Stat. 1072, sec. 201, 63 Stat. 1052; as amended by 68 Stat. 899, 15 U. S. C. 714c, 7 U. S. C. 1446)

Issued this 19th day of April 1956.

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

[Navel Orange Reg. 84]

PART 914—NAVEL ORANGES GROWN IN ARIZONA AND DESIGNATED PART OF CALIFORNIA

LIMITATION OF HANDLING

§ 914.384 Navel Orange Regulation 84—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 14, as amended (7 CFR Part 914), regulating the handling of navel oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California, effective September 22, 1953, under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Navel Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such navel oranges, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. The Navel Orange Administrative Committee held an open meeting on April 19, 1956, after giving due notice thereof, to consider supply and market conditions for Navel oranges and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein was promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such Navel oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date hereof.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of navel oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., April 22, 1956, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., April 29, 1956, is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: 138,600 cartons;
(ii) District 2: 1,016,400 cartons;
(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement;
(iv) District 4: Unlimited movement.

(2) Navel oranges handled pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be subject to any size restrictions applicable thereto which have heretofore been issued on the handling of such oranges and which are effective during the period specified herein.

(3) As used in this section, "handled," "District 1," "District 2," "District 3," and "District 4," have the same meaning as when used in said amended marketing agreement and order; and "carton" means the standard one-half orange, grapefruit or lemon box set forth as standard container number 58 in section 828.83, as amended, of the Agricultural Code of California.

PART 922—VALENCIA ORANGES GROWN IN ARIZONA AND DESIGNATED PART OF CALIFORNIA

LIMITATION OF HANDLING

§ 922.364 Valencia Orange Regulation 64—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to Order No. 22 (7 CFR Part 922), regulating the handling of Valencia oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California, effective March 31, 1954, under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendations and information submitted by the Valencia Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such Valencia oranges, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. The Valencia Orange Administrative Committee held an open meeting on April 19, 1956, after giving due notice thereof, to consider supply and market conditions for Valencia oranges and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein was promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such Valencia oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date hereof.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of Valencia oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., April 22, 1956, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., April 29, 1956, is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: 54,220 cartons;

(ii) District 2: 26,674 cartons;

(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement.

(2) Valencia oranges handled pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be subject to any size restrictions applicable thereto which have heretofore been issued on the handling of such oranges and which are effective during the period specified herein.

(3) As used in this section, "handled," "handler," "District 1," "District 2," and "District 3," have the same meaning as when used in said order; and "carton" means the standard one-half orange, grapefruit or lemon box set forth as standard container number 58 in section 828.83, as amended, of the Agricultural Code of California.

[Lemon Reg. 638]

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 953.745 Lemon Regulation 638—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR Part 953; 20 F. R. 8451), regulating the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of the quantity of such lemons which may be handled, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. Shipments of lemons, grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, are currently subject to regulation pursuant to said amended marketing agreement and order; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein was promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Lemon Administrative Committee on April 18, 1956, such meeting was held, after giving due notice thereof to consider recommendations for regulation, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such lemons; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time thereof.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., April 22, 1956, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., April 29, 1956, is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: 4,650 cartons;

(ii) District 2: 251,100 cartons;

(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement.

(2) As used in this section, "handled," "District 1," "District 2," and "District 3" have the same meaning as when used in the said amended marketing agreement and order; and "carton" means the standard one-half orange, grapefruit or lemon box set forth as standard container number 58 in section 828.83, as amended, of the Agricultural Code of California.

PART 970—IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN MAINE

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

Findings. (a) Pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 122 and Order No. 70 (7 CFR Part 970) regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in the State of Maine, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Maine Potato Marketing Committee, established pursuant to said marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the amendment to the limitation of shipments, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(b) It is hereby found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this amendment until 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that (1) the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amendment is based became available and the time when this amendment must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, (2) more orderly marketing in the public interest, than would otherwise prevail, will be promoted by regulating the shipment of potatoes, in the manner set forth below, on and after the effective date of this amendment, (3) compliance with this amendment will not require any special preparation on the part of handlers which cannot be completed by the effective date, (4) reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for such preparation, (5) this amendment relieves restrictions on the handling of potatoes grown in the aforesaid production area, and (6) the benefits to be derived from this amendment should be made available to producers and handlers as soon as practicable.

Order, as amended. The provisions of § 970.302 (b) (3), (20 F. R. 6815, 8091; 21 F. R. 1285, 1818) are hereby amended to read as follows:

(3) No handler shall ship potatoes for export unless such potatoes meet the requirements of (i) the U. S. Commercial, or better grade, 1½ to 2½ inches in diameter, or (ii) the U. S. No. 1, or better grade, 1⅞ inches minimum diameter.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c)

| St. Louis | 2¾ | Apr. 13, 1956 |
| Minneapolis | 3 | Do. |
| Kansas City | 2¾ | Do. |
| Dallas | 2¾ | Do. |
| San Francisco | 3 | Do. |

2. Section 224.3 is amended to read as follows:

§ 224.3 Advances to member banks under section 10 (b). The rates for advances to member banks under section 10 (b) of the Federal Reserve Act are:

| Federal Reserve Bank of— | Rate | Effective |
|---|---|---|
| Boston | 3¼ | Apr. 13, 1956 |
| New York | 3½ | Do. |
| Philadelphia | 3½ | Do. |
| Cleveland | 3½ | Nov. 18, 1955 |
| Richmond | 3½ | Nov. 22, 1955 |
| Atlanta | 3¼ | Apr. 13, 1956 |
| Chicago | 3½ | Nov. 18, 1955 |
| St. Louis | 3½ | Apr. 13, 1956 |
| Minneapolis | 4¼ | Do. |
| Kansas City | 3¾ | Do. |
| Dallas | 3¾ | Do. |
| San Francisco | 4 | Do. |

3. Section 224.4 is amended to read as follows:

§ 224.4 Advances to persons other than member banks. The rates for advances to individuals, partnerships or corporations other than member banks secured by direct obligations of the United States under the last paragraph of section 13 of the Federal Reserve Act are:

| Federal Reserve Bank of— | Rate | Effective |
|---|---|---|
| Boston | 3¼ | Apr. 13, 1956 |
| New York | 3½ | Do. |
| Philadelphia | 3½ | Do. |
| Cleveland | 3½ | Nov. 18, 1955 |
| Richmond | 3½ | Nov. 22, 1955 |
| Atlanta | 3¼ | Apr. 13, 1956 |
| Chicago | 3½ | Nov. 18, 1955 |
| St. Louis | 3½ | Apr. 13, 1956 |
| Minneapolis | 4¼ | Do. |
| Kansas City | 3¾ | Do. |
| Dallas | 3¾ | Do. |
| San Francisco | 4 | Do. |

4. Section 224.5, relating to rates on advances to industrial and commercial businesses (including loans made in participation with financial institutions) under section 13b of the Federal Reserve Act, is amended so as to change the percentage rate on loans for the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta from 2¾–5 to 3–5½, effective April 13, 1956.

5. Section 224.6, relating to loans to financing institutions under section 13b of the Federal Reserve Act, is amended so as to change the percentage rate for the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis on discounts or purchases on the portion for which the institution is obligated from 2½–3 to 2¾–3¼, effective April 13, 1956.

For the reasons and good cause found as stated in § 224.7, there is no notice, public participation, or deferred effective date in connection with this action.

(Sec. 11, 38 Stat. 262; 12 U. S. C. 248. Interpret or apply sec. 14, 38 Stat. 264, as amended; 12 U. S. C. 357)

[Docket 6438]

PART 13—DIGEST OF CEASE AND DESIST ORDERS

DODGE INCORPORATED ET AL.

Subpart—Advertising falsely or misleadingly: § 13.30 Composition of goods. § 13.175 Quality of product or service; § 13.285 Value.

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 721; 15 U. S. C. 46. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended; 15 U. S. C. 45) Cease and desist order, [Dodge Incorporated et al., Chicago, Ill., Docket 6438, April 4, 1956]

In the Matter of Dodge Incorporated, a Corporation and Ray E. Dodge and J. J. Kuhn, Individually and as Officers of Said Corporation

This proceeding was heard by a hearing examiner on the complaint of the Commission—charging a Chicago corporate manufacturer and its officers with falsely representing that their trophies, awards, and miscellaneous jewelry of synthetic composition, with lettering of simulated silver, were genuine onyx or marble, through describing them as "Rio Onyx" and "Marbelette" and as engraved in silver, in catalogs, leaflets, and other advertising matter furnished to retailers and dealers and by them widely distributed to prospective purchasers—and an agreement between the parties providing for the entry of a consent order.

Upon this basis, the hearing examiner made his initial decision and order to cease and desist, which, by the Commission's order of April 4, 1956, became the decision of the Commission.

The order to cease and desist is as follows:

It is ordered, That respondents, Dodge Incorporated, a corporation, and its officers, and Ray E. Dodge and J. J. Kuhn, individually and as officers of said corporation, and respondents' agents, representatives and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in the offering for sale, sale or distribution of trophies, cups, plaques, and gift items, in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Using the words "Rio Onyx" or any other word or words implying genuine onyx to describe the aforesaid or other articles not made of genuine onyx, provided, however, that nothing contained herein shall provent representations, not implying genuineness, that the aforesaid articles have the color of onyx.

2. Using the word "Marbelette" or any other word or words implying genuine marble to describe the aforesaid or any other articles not made of genuine marble without revealing the fact that such articles are not made of genuine marble;

3. Using the word "Silver" or other words implying precious metals to describe lettering not made of silver or precious metals on the aforesaid or other articles, provided, however, that nothing contained herein shall prevent representations that the lettering on the aforesaid or such other articles has the color of silver or other precious metals.

By "Decision of the Commission", report of compliance was required as follows:

It is ordered, That respondents Dodge Incorporated, a corporation, and Ray E. Dodge and J. J. Kuhn, individually and as officers of said corporation, shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with the order to cease and desist.

Issued: April 4, 1956.

By the Commission.

PART 13—DIGEST OF CEASE AND DESIST ORDERS

HUDNUT SALES CO., INC.

Subpart—Discriminating in price under section 2, Clayton Act, as amended—Payment for services or facilities for processing or sale under 2 (d): § 13.824 Advertising expenses.[1]

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 721; 15 U. S. C. 46. Interpret or apply sec. 2, 38 Stat. 730, as amended; 15 U. S. C. 13) [Cease and desist order, Hudnut Sales Co., Inc., New York, N. Y., Docket 6440, April 4, 1956]

This proceeding was heard by a hearing examiner on the complaint of the Commission—charging a New York corporate manufacturer of cosmetics with discriminating in price in violation of Sec. 2 (d) of the Clayton Act, as amended, through entering into cooperative advertising arrangements with certain favored customers whereby it paid all, or a portion, of the cost of newspaper advertisements dealing with its products run by such customers—and an agreement between the parties providing for the entry of a consent order.

On this basis, the hearing examiner made his initial decision and order to cease and desist, which, by the Commission's order, became, on April 4, 1956, the decision of the Commission.

The order to cease and desist is as follows:

It is ordered, That respondent, Hudnut Sales Co., Inc., a corporation, its officers, employees, agents and representatives, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the sale or offering for sale of cosmetics, beauty aids and toilet preparations in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Clayton Act as amended, do forthwith cease and desist from:

Paying, or contracting to pay, to, or for the benefit of, any customer of respondent, anything of value as compensation or in consideration for advertising, display, demonstrator, promotional, or other services or facilities furnished by or through such customer in connection with the handling, processing, sale, or offering for sale of respondent's products unless such payment or consideration is made available on proportionally equal terms to all other customers competing in the resale of such products.

[1] New.

By "Decision of the Commission", report of compliance was required as follows:

It is ordered, That respondent Hudnut Sales Co., Inc., a corporation, shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon it of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with the order to cease and desist.

Issued: April 4, 1956.

In the Matter of Feller's, Inc., a Corporation, and Charles Feller and Oscar Feller, Individually and as Officers of Feller's, Inc.

This proceeding was heard by a hearing examiner on the complaint of the Commission—charging a corporation and its officers, with place of business in Harrisburg, Pa., with violating the Fur Products Labeling Act: through misbranding fur products in that they labeled them falsely with respect to the names of the animals that produced the fur, failed to attach labels, or attached labels which did not carry the information required by the act; through advertising in newspapers which did not give the correct name of the animal producing the fur or the country of origin of imported furs, did not disclose that certain products were made of artificially colored fur or were secondhand, or named animals other than those producing the fur; through false invoices furnished to purchasers which set forth the name of an animal in addition to that which produced the fur and misrepresented the country of origin of imported furs—and an agreement between the parties providing for the entry of a consent order.

On this basis, the hearing examiner made his initial decision and order to cease and desist, which, by the Commission's order of April 4, 1956, became the decision of the Commission.

The order to cease and desist is as follows:

It is ordered, That the respondents Feller's, Inc., a corporation, and its officers, and Charles Feller and Oscar Feller, individually and as officers of said corporation, and respondents' representatives, agents, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the introduction into commerce, or the sale, advertising, or offering for sale in commerce, or the transportation or distribution in commerce, of fur products, or in connection with the sale, advertising, offering for sale, transportation or distribution of fur products which have been made in whole or in part of fur which has been shipped and received in commerce, as "commerce", "fur", and "fur products" are defined in the Fur Products Labeling Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

A. Misbranding fur products by:

(1) Falsely or deceptively labeling or otherwise identifying any such product as to the name or names of the animal or animals that produce the fur from which such product was manufactured;

(2) Failing to affix labels to fur products showing:

(a) The name or names of the animal or animals producing the fur or furs contained in the fur product as set forth in the Fur Products Name Guide and as prescribed under the rules and regulations;

(b) That the fur product contains or is composed of bleached, dyed, or otherwise artificially colored fur, when such is the fact;

(c) The name of the country of origin of any imported furs used in the fur products;

(d) The name, or other identification issued and registered by the Commission, of one or more persons who manufactured such fur product for introduction into commerce, introduced it into commerce, sold it in commerce, advertised or offered it for sale in commerce, or transported or distributed it in commerce;

(e) That the fur product is composed in whole or in substantial part of paws, tails, bellies, or waste fur, when such is the fact;

(3) Setting forth on labels attached to fur products, the name or names of any animal or animals other than the name or names provided for in paragraph A (2) (a) above;

(4) Setting forth on labels attached to fur products:

(a) Non-required information mingled with required information;

(b) Required information in abbreviated form;

B. Falsely or deceptively advertising fur products through the use of any advertisement, representation, public announcement, notice, or in any other manner, which is intended to aid, promote or assist, directly or indirectly, in the sale or offering for sale of fur products, and which:

(1) Fails to disclose:

(a) The name or names of the animal or animals producing the fur or furs contained in the fur products as set forth in the Fur Products Name Guide and as prescribed under the rules and regulations;

(b) That the fur products contain or are composed of bleached, dyed, or otherwise artificially colored fur, when such is the fact;

(c) The name of the country of origin of any imported furs contained in fur products;

(2) Sets forth, directly or by implication:

(a) The name or names of any animal or animals other than the name or names provided for in Paragraph Five (a) (5) of the Fur Products Labeling Act;

C. Falsely or deceptively invoicing fur products by:

(1) Failing to furnish invoices to purchasers of fur products showing:

(a) The name or names of the animal or animals producing the fur or furs contained in the fur product, as set forth in the Fur Products Name Guide and as prescribed under the rules and regulations;

(b) That the fur product contains or is composed of bleached, dyed or otherwise artificially colored fur, when such is a fact;

(c) That the fur product is composed in whole or in substantial part of paws, tails, bellies, or waste fur, when such is a fact;

(d) The name and address of the person issuing such invoice;

(e) The name of the country of origin of any imported furs contained in a fur product;

(2) Using on invoices the name or names of any animal or animals other than the name or names provided for in paragraph C (1) (a) above, or furnishing invoices which misrepresent the country of origin of imported furs contained in fur products, or which contain any form of misrepresentation or deception, directly or by implication, with respect to such fur products.

By "Decision of the Commission", report of compliance was required as follows:

It is ordered, That respondents Feller's, Inc., a corporation, and Charles Feller and Oscar Feller, individually and as officers of Feller's, Inc., shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with the order to cease and desist.

Issued: April 4, 1956.

By the Commission.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter XVI—Selective Service System

[Amdt. 69]

PART 1690—DETERMINATION OF AVAILABILITY OF MEMBERS OF THE STANDBY RESERVE OF THE ARMED FORCES FOR ORDER TO ACTIVE DUTY

STANDBY RESERVE NUMBERS

Paragraph (a) of § 1690.8 of the Selective Service Regulations is amended to read as follows:

§ 1690.8 Assignment of standby reserve number. (a) After the local board of jurisdiction has received the completed Standby Reserve Questionnaire (SSS Form No. 80) of a reservist who is not required to be registered under the Universal Military Training and Service Act, as amended, the local board shall assign the reservist a standby reserve number. The first element of the standby reserve number, reading from left to right, shall be the number of the State in which the local board is located as shown on the list of States, Territories, and possessions in paragraph (b) of § 1621.2 of this chapter. The second element of the number shall be the number of the reservist's local board within the State. The third element of the number shall be assigned in numerical sequence, beginning with the numeral 1, according to the sequence in which the local board assigns standby reserve numbers to nonregistrant reservists. The fourth element of the number shall be the one of the following symbols which identifies the Standby Reserve of which the reservist is a member: "A" for Army Reserve, "AF" for Air Force Reserve, "N" for Naval Reserve, "MC" for Marine Corps Reserve, or "CG" for Coast Guard Reserve.

(Sec. 10, 62 Stat. 618, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. 460. Interprets or applies sec. 233, 66 Stat. 489, as amended; 50 U. S. C. 961; E. O. 9979, 13 F. R. 4177; 3 CFR, 1948 Supp.)

The foregoing amendment to the Selective Service Regulations shall be effective immediately upon the filing hereof with the Division of the Federal Register.

NOTICE OF HEARING ON PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENTS AND TO ORDERS, AS AMENDED

Notice is hereby given of a joint public hearing to be held in the Hall Auditorium, North American Life and Casualty Building, 1750 Hennepin Avenue, Minneapolis, Minnesota, beginning at 10:00 a. m., c. s. t., April 25, 1956, for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to economic and emergency conditions which relate to the marketing of milk in each of the marketing areas hereinafter specified and to appropriate amendments of the Class I price provisions of the respective tentative marketing agreements heretofore approved by the Secretary of Agriculture and to the orders, now in effect, regulating the handling of milk in such marketing areas. More specifically, consideration will be given to (1) the nature, scope and similarity of price problems affecting producers, (2) determine whether or not such problems tend to disrupt the orderly marketing of milk, or constitute a threat to the adequacy of supplies of pure and wholesome milk, and (3) consider whether or not temporary, emergency price relief is necessary to promote orderly marketing. The hearing is called pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, (7 U. S. C., 601 et seq.) and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900).

A substantial number of communications and requests for price action received by the Department from milk producer groups and recent conferences held with representative leaders of cooperative organizations of producers who supply the fluid milk markets hereinafter set forth have represented the seriousness of conditions facing fluid milk producers at the present time which it is alleged are tending to disrupt the orderly marketing of fluid milk and threaten milk supplies.

The following market areas and order provisions are covered by this hearing notice:

[ 7 CFR Part 945 ]

TOMATOES GROWN IN FLORIDA

TRUNK SHIPMENTS

Notice is hereby given that the Secretary of Agriculture is considering the approval of an amendment, as hereinafter set forth, of the existing general rules and regulations (21 F. R. 353), which has been adopted by the Florida Tomato Committee, established pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 125 and Order No. 45 (7 CFR Part 945; 20 F. R. 7357) regulating the handling of tomatoes grown in Florida, issued under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047).

Consideration will be given to any data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are filed with the Director, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than five days following publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The proposed amendment is as follows: Amend the existing general rules and regulations (21 F. R. 353) by adding the following new main heading and new section at the end thereof (i. e., immediately after present § 945.135):

INSPECTION

§ 945.140 Truck shipments. In case of the transportation by truck outside of the production area of any tomatoes which are required to be inspected and certified as complying with any applicable requirements under this part, such tomatoes shall be accompanied by, and made available for examination at any time upon request, a copy of the appropriate inspection certificate or a copy of the appropriate transfer clearance receipt (Form FV–418) issued by the Federal-State Inspection Service, the official inspection agency for this program, showing that such tomatoes have been so inspected and certified.

It is also contemplated that appropriate references to said new main heading and new section will be incorporated in the table of contents for said rules and regulations.

MILK IN MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL, MINN., MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF HEARING ON PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENT AND TO ORDER, AS AMENDED

Pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.) and in accordance with the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of a public hearing to be held at the Hall Auditorium, North American Life and Casualty Insurance Building, 1750 Hennepin Avenue, Minneapolis, Minnesota, beginning at 10:00 a. m., April 26, 1956.

Subjects and issues involved in the hearing. This public hearing is for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to the economic and marketing conditions which relate to the handling of milk in the Minneapolis-St. Paul, Minnesota, milk marketing area and to the provisions specified in the proposals listed below or some appropriate modifications thereof.

The amendments to the order (No. 73), as amended, were proposed as follows:

Proposed by the Twin City Milk Producers Association:

1a. Amend § 973.75 (a) to read as follows:

§ 973.75 Determination of base for each producer. (a) Any producer who delivers milk during the delivery periods of July, August, September and October, shall have a base computed by the market administrator, to be applicable during the following January through June, equal to the total pounds of milk delivered in the four month period, divided by the number of days of production represented during said period, but not less than 100: Provided, That for the period starting with the effective date of this amendment and ending June 30, 1957, any producer who delivers milk during the delivery periods of August, September and October shall have a base computed by the market administrator, to be applicable during the following January through June, equal to the total pounds of milk delivered in the three month period, divided by the number of days of production represented during said period, but not less than 78.

b. Delete paragraph (b).

2. Delete § 973.76 Establishing a new base.

3. Delete the words "daily average" in the fifth line, and the words "on which the milk was produced" from the last sentence of § 973.17.

Copies of this notice of hearing may be procured from the Market Administrator, 1750 Hennepin Avenue, Room 307, Minneapolis, Minnesota, or from the Hearing Clerk, Room 112, Administration Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., or may be there inspected.

[Docket No. G–9869]

SOUTHERN NATURAL GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND DATE OF HEARING

APRIL 16, 1956.

Take notice that Southern Natural Gas Company (Applicant), a Delaware corporation with principal place of business in Watts Building, Birmingham, Alabama, filed, on January 16, 1956, an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing Applicant to render service as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully represented in the application which is on file with the Commission and open for public inspection.

Applicant proposes to construct and operate, as an integral part of its existing natural gas system, certain natural gas facilities as hereinafter described which are necessary to the transportation and delivery in interstate commerce of natural gas to be sold by Applicant on an interruptible basis to Johns-Manville Products Corporation of Georgia (Johns-Manville) pursuant to a ten-year contract dated January 9, 1956, for use primarily as a process fuel in a plant for the production of roofing materials to be constructed by Johns-Manville near Savannah, Georgia.

The facilities proposed to be constructed and operated by Applicant consist of:

1. A line tap at or near Mile Post 110.344 on Applicant's existing 14-inch Savannah line and approximately 200 feet of 4½-inch O. D. pipeline running westerly from said tap to a meter station to be located at or near the proposed plant.

2. A measuring and regulating station at the terminus of the line described above.

The estimated cost of construction of the proposed facilities is $8,690 which will be financed out of cash on hand.

Applicant states that Johns-Manville estimates its maximum daily requirements at 504 Mcf and normal annual requirements at 87,840 Mcf. Applicant estimates that Applicant will deliver approximately 77,000 Mcf annually to the plant based on 320 delivery days of the plant's requirements per year.

This matter is one that should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on Wednesday, May 23, 1956, at 9:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a hearing room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a noncontested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before May 3, 1956. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

[Docket No. G-1116 etc.]

PANHANDLE EASTERN PIPE LINE CO. ET AL.

NOTICE OF DATE OF HEARING

APRIL 16, 1956.

In the matters of Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company, Docket Nos. G-1116, G-1240, G-1317, G-1344, G-1417, G-1725, G-1754 and G-2101; City of Port Huron, City of Marysville, City of St. Clair, Michigan, municipal corporations, G-1152; Southeastern Michigan Gas Company, Michigan Consolidated Gas Company, complainant, G-1415; v. Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company, defendant, G-1379; Northern Indiana Fuel and Light Company, G-1457 and G-2234; Missouri Central Natural Gas Company, G-1509; The Central West Utility Company, G-1616; Michigan Gas Utilities Company, G-1625; City of Auburn, Illinois, G-1659.

On February 24, 1956, the Commission issued an order in the above entitled proceedings modifying its order of December 30, 1955, and, as modified, affirming that order and denying petitions for rehearing and modification inconsistent with that order. Furthermore the order of February 24, 1956, required Panhandle to make certain refunds as originally provided for by the Commission's orders of March 5, 1952, and March 5, 1955, and as set forth in the bond and undertaking filed by Panhandle. Said refunds were to be accomplished within 30 days and a report thereof including the details of its calculations and a tabulation of the principal and interest due each customer was to be filed within forty-five days. On April 4, 1956, Panhandle filed such report and tabulation. The order of February 24, 1956, also provided as follows:

(E) Within thirty days after the filing by Panhandle of the data provided in paragraph (D) above, there shall be convened at a date and place to be fixed by notice of the Secretary a hearing concerning the principal and interest payments made pursuant to paragraph (C) hereof and the effect of such interest payments on Panhandle's Federal Income Tax.

(F) At the hearing the burden of proof to justify the principal and interest payments made shall be upon Panhandle.

Take notice that pursuant to the provisions of said order of February 24, 1956, and to the authority contained in the Natural Gas Act and to the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on Tuesday, May 1, 1956, at 10:00 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a hearing room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented with regard to the payments required by the Commission's order of March 5, 1952, March 4, 1955, and December 30, 1955, and February 24, 1956, and by the bond and undertaking filed by Panhandle.

[Docket No. G-9763]

MIKE LITTLE

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR ORDER TO ESTABLISH PHYSICAL CONNECTION OF NATURAL GAS TRANSPORTATION FACILITIES

APRIL 16, 1956.

Take notice that Mike Little (Applicant), an individual whose address is Melvin, Kentucky, filed on December 12, 1955, pursuant to section 7 (a) of the Natural Gas Act, an application for an order directing Kentucky West Virginia Gas Company (Kentucky West Virginia) to establish physical connection of its natural gas transportation facilities with Applicant's existing natural gas facilities and to sell natural gas to Applicant for local distribution to forty-three residential consumers within the town of Burton, Floyd County, Kentucky.

The application states that the estimated peak day requirement of the natural gas system is 65 Mcf at 14.73 psia and the annual gas requirement is estimated to be 6,000 Mcf at 14.73 psia.

Applicant states that the residences of the forty-three residential consumers were formerly owned by Inland Steel Company (Inland); that said consumers are presently receiving natural gas service at retail from Inland; that Applicant has acquired by purchase for the sum of $4,500 the aforesaid gas distribution properties; that Applicant has entered into a gas purchase agreement with Kentucky West Virginia; that Kentucky West Virginia was authorized by this Commission to serve Inland in Docket No. G-272; and that this application does not place any additional burden upon Kentucky West Virginia beyond making a physical connection and installing measuring and regulating equipment at the same location as that now serving Inland.

Kentucky West Virginia Gas Company filed on December 29, 1955, pursuant to § 1.9 (a) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, an Answer to the aforesaid application wherein it stated that it has no objection to serving the Applicant with the volumes of natural gas as set forth in Applicant's application and is able to do so without affecting the supply of gas available for other customers. Said Answer denies the allegation of Applicant that a gas purchase agreement has been entered into but adds, however, that Kentucky West Virginia is willing to enter into such an agreement.

The application hereinabove described, as more fully described in the application, is on file with the Commission and open for public inspection. Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before May 4, 1956.

GENERAL SERVICES ADMINISTRATION

EMETINE HYDROCHLORIDE HELD IN NATIONAL STOCK PILE DISPOSITION

Pursuant to the provisions of section 3 (e) of the Strategic and Critical Materials Stock Piling Act, 60 Stat. 597, 50 U. S. C. 98b (e), notice is hereby given of a proposed disposition of approximately 3,302 ounces of emetine hydrochloride now held in the National Stock Pile.

This quantity of emetine hydrochloride is no longer needed in the National Stock Pile because of a revised determination by the Office of Defense Mobilization that emetine hydrochloride is obsolescent for use in time of war because of the development of new and better materials.

The emetine hydrochloride will be offered for sale generally. All those considered by the General Services Administration to be interested in purchasing such material will be requested to submit offers. It is believed that this plan will protect the United States against avoidable loss and also protect producers, processors and consumers against avoidable disruption of their usual markets.

This material will be available for disposition on and after October 24, 1956.

Dated: April 18, 1956.

SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE

DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY WITH RESPECT TO ENTERING INTO CONTRACTS FOR PROCUREMENT OF ENGINEERING SERVICES

1. Pursuant to authority vested in me by the provisions of the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949 (63 Stat. 377), as amended, authority is hereby delegated to the Secretary of Agriculture to enter into contracts for professional engineering services required for all roads, trails, bridges, dams, buildings, and cadastral surveys that are involved in programs of the Forest Service and those incident to the construction of dams, channels, silting basins and other water use and control structures in connection with the watershed and flood prevention programs of the Soil Conservation Service, without advertising pursuant to section 302 (c) (4) and (9) of the said act.

2. This delegation of authority shall be subject to all provisions of Title III of the said act with respect to negotiated contracts, and to all other provisions of law.

3. The authority delegated herein may be redelegated to any officer or employee of the Department of Agriculture.
